

Music Career Track Program

The Music Career Track program is suited for school age students who are considering a music degree in college, as well as for students who want to reach the proper level to participate, as non-music majors, in College, Community and Semi-professional Orchestras after they finish high school. At this time the program is only offered to violin and viola students.

Students will take:

1. One hour of an applied lesson per week with a faculty instructor, to include repertoire and technique building, sight reading, music theory and ear training. Total of 13 lessons per semester.
2. At the end of each semester the students will have to pass an instrumental and a music theory test in order to continue in the program.

Requirements:

Entrance Audition/Interview

Students will audition/interview in order to be accepted into the program. Please contact Jivka.Duke@southeastern.edu for information on specific repertoire and for scheduling.

Practice

Students should commit to daily home practice for a reasonable amount of time according to the level of preparation that each assigned piece requires.

Parental involvement

The parents of students who are younger than 12 years of age are strongly encouraged to attend the lessons, and to supervise the home practice.

Cost:

$860 per semester

Partial scholarships may be offered based on the entrance audition/interview.
