Payment as aforesaid shall be made in such coin or currency of the United States of America as, at the respective times of payment, is legal tender for the payment of public and private debts.

Section 3.3 Form of Series 2013 Bonds. The Series 2013 Bonds issued under this Supplemental Indenture shall be substantially in the form set forth in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof with such appropriate variations, additions, omissions and insertions as are permitted or required by this Supplemental Indenture. All Series 2013 Bonds may have endorsed thereon such legends or text as may be necessary or appropriate to conform to any applicable rules and regulations of any governmental authority or of any securities exchange on which the Series 2013 Bonds may be listed or any usage or requirement of law with respect thereto. All Series 2013 Bonds may bear identifying CUSIP numbers, but any failure to include such numbers or any error in any CUSIP number so included shall not in any way affect the validity of the Series 2013 Bonds.

Section 3.4 Redemption of Series 2013 Bonds.

(a) Optional Redemption. The Series 2013 Bonds maturing August 1, 2024 and thereafter are subject to redemption prior to maturity at the option of the Corporation, upon written direction to the Authority, on or after August 1, 2023 as a whole at any time, or in part on any Interest Payment Date, the maturity of said Bonds to be redeemed to be designated by the Corporation and selected within a maturity by the Trustee in such manner as the Trustee may determine, at the redemption price of 100% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest to the redemption date.

(b) Extraordinary Redemption. The Series 2013 Bonds shall be redeemed as a whole or in part (in an integral multiple of $5,000) on the first Interest Payment Date at least thirty (30) days after the Trustee receives notice that any insurance proceeds, condemnation award or payment in lieu of condemnation with respect to the Facilities will not be applied to the restoration, repair or reconstruction of the Facilities at a price equal to the principal amount of the Series 2013 Bonds so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the date of redemption, in an aggregate principal amount equal to the amount of such insurance proceeds, condemnation award or payment in lieu of condemnation not used for restoration, repair or reconstruction. If in part, the Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed shall be in the inverse order of their maturity and selected within a maturity by the Trustee in such manner as the Trustee may determine. If the amount of any insurance proceeds, condemnation award or payment in lieu of condemnation to be applied in redemption of the Series 2013 Bonds is not an integral multiple of $5,000, the principal amount of Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed pursuant to this subparagraph (b) shall be decreased to the next lower multiple of $5,000.

(c) Mandatory Sinking Fund Redemption. Those Bonds maturing on August 1, 2026 shall be subject to mandatory redemption and payment prior to maturity on August 1 in each of the years set forth below, at 100% of the principal amounts plus accrued interest to the redemption date, without premium, as follows:

| Year | Principal Amount |
|-------------|-------------------------|
| 2025 | $ 4,295,000 |
| 2026* | 170,000 |

*Final Maturity

(d) Any Additional Bonds issued under the provisions of Article V of this Supplemental Indenture may be made subject to redemption, either in whole or in part and at such times and prices, as may be provided in the resolution or resolutions of the Authority authorizing the issuance of such Additional Bonds.

(e) Unless otherwise specified above, if fewer than all of the Series 2013 Bonds shall be called for redemption, the Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed shall be in inverse order of their maturity, and selected by the Trustee within a maturity in such manner as the Trustee may determine; provided, however, that the portion of any Series 2013 Bond to be redeemed shall be in the principal amount of an Authorized Denomination. If a portion of any Series 2013 Bond shall be called for redemption, a new Series 2013 Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof shall be issued to the registered owner upon the surrender thereof.

(f) At least thirty (30) days before the redemption date of any Series 2013 Bonds, the Trustee shall cause a notice of any such redemption, signed by an authorized officer of the Trustee to be mailed, postage prepaid, to all Bondholders of record owning Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed in whole or in part, at their addresses as they appear on the Bond Register, but any defect in such mailing of any such notice shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for such redemption. Each such notice shall set forth the date fixed for redemption, the redemption price to be paid and, if fewer than all of the Series 2013 Bonds then Outstanding shall be called for redemption, the numbers of such Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed and, in the case of Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed in part only, the portion of the principal amount thereof to be redeemed. In case any Series 2013 Bond is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption shall state also that on or after the redemption date, upon surrender of such Series 2013 Bond, a new Series 2013 Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion of such Series 2013 Bond will be issued.

(g) On the date so designated for redemption, notice having been given in the manner and under the conditions hereinabove provided and money for payment of the redemption price being held in the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund in trust for the owners of the Series 2013 Bonds or portions thereof to be redeemed, the Series 2013 Bonds or portions of Series 2013 Bonds so called for redemption shall become and be due and payable at the redemption price provided for redemption of such Series 2013 Bonds or portions of Series 2013 Bonds on such date, interest on the Series 2013 Bonds or portions of Series 2013 Bonds so called for redemption shall cease to accrue, such Series 2013 Bonds or portions of Series 2013 Bonds shall cease to be entitled to any benefit or security under this Supplemental Indenture, and the owners of such Series 2013 Bonds or portions of Series 2013 Bonds shall not have rights in respect thereof except to receive payment of the redemption price thereof and, to the extent provided in the next paragraph, to receive Series 2013 Bonds for any unredeemed portions of Series 2013 Bonds.

(h) In case part, but not all, of an Outstanding Series 2013 Bond shall be selected for redemption, the registered owner thereof or his legal representative shall present and surrender such Series 2013 Bond to the Trustee for payment of the principal amount thereof so called for redemption, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver to or upon the order of such registered owner or his legal representative, without charge therefor, for the unredeemed portion of the principal amount of the Series 2013 Bond so surrendered, a new Series 2013 Bond.

(i) Series 2013 Bonds and portions of Series 2013 Bonds that have been duly called for redemption under the provisions of this Article, or with respect to which irrevocable instructions to call for redemption have been given to the Trustee in form satisfactory to it, and for the payment of the redemption price for which moneys, or Defeasance Obligations, shall be held by the Trustee in a segregated account in trust for the owners of the Series 2013 Bonds or portions thereof to be redeemed, shall not thereafter be deemed to be outstanding under the provisions of this Supplemental Indenture and shall cease to be entitled to any security or benefit under this Supplemental Indenture other than the right to receive payment from such moneys.

Section 3.5 Execution; Limitation of Liability. The Series 2013 Bonds shall be executed on behalf of the Authority with the manual or facsimile signatures of the Chairman, Vice Chairman or Executive Director and the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the Authority, and shall have impressed or imprinted thereon the official seal of the Authority or a facsimile thereof. The Series 2013 Bonds, together with interest and premium, if any, thereon, shall not constitute a debt of the State or any political subdivision thereof. The Series 2013 Bonds, together with interest thereon, shall be limited and special obligations of the Authority and shall be secured by and payable solely out of revenues derived from the Payments made pursuant to the Loan Agreement and Trust Estate pledged hereunder. The Authority shall not be obligated to pay the principal of the Series 2013 Bonds or the interest or premium, if any, thereon or other costs incidental thereto except from payments made pursuant to the Loan Agreement. In case any officer of the Authority whose signature or whose facsimile signature shall appear on the Series 2013 Bonds shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such Series 2013 Bonds, such signature or the facsimile signature thereof shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if he had remained in office until delivery. THE SERIES 2013 BONDS ARE LIMITED AND SPECIAL REVENUE OBLIGATIONS OF THE AUTHORITY PAYABLE SOLELY FROM THE PAYMENTS RECEIVED BY THE AUTHORITY FROM THE CORPORATION PURSUANT TO THE LOAN AGREEMENT. THE SERIES 2013 BONDS DO NOT CONSTITUTE A PLEDGE OF THE GENERAL CREDIT OF THE AUTHORITY OR THE CORPORATION AND DO NOT CONSTITUTE AN INDEBTEDNESS OR PLEDGE OF THE GENERAL CREDIT OF THE STATE, THE BOARD, THE UNIVERSITY, OR ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION OF THE STATE (OTHER THAN THE AUTHORITY). THE BOARD HAS AGREED, PURSUANT TO THE FACILITIES LEASE, TO MAKE PAYMENTS OF BASE RENTAL TO THE CORPORATION ON BEHALF OF THE UNIVERSITY. THE PAYMENTS TO BE RECEIVED BY THE AUTHORITY FROM THE CORPORATION UNDER THE LOAN AGREEMENT ARE LIMITED TO THE AMOUNT OF BASE RENTAL RECEIVED BY THE CORPORATION FROM THE BOARD. THE AUTHORITY HAS NO POWER TO TAX.

Section 3.6 Authentication. No Series 2013 Bond shall be valid or obligatory for any purpose or be entitled to any security or benefit under this Supplemental Indenture unless and until a certificate of authentication substantially in the form set forth in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof shall have been duly executed by a duly authorized representative of the Trustee, and such executed certificate of the Trustee upon any such Series 2013 Bond shall be conclusive evidence that such Series 2013 Bond has been authenticated and delivered under this Supplemental Indenture. The Trustee's certificate of authentication on any Series 2013 Bond shall be deemed to have been executed by it if signed by an authorized representative of the Trustee, but it shall not be necessary that the same representative sign the certificate of authentication on all of the Series 2013 Bonds issued hereunder.

Section 3.7 Mutilated, Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Series 2013 Bonds. In the event any outstanding Series 2013 Bond, whether temporary or definitive, is mutilated, lost, stolen or destroyed, the Authority may execute and, upon its request, the Trustee may authenticate a new Series 2013 Bond of the same principal amount and of like tenor as the mutilated, lost or stolen or destroyed Series 2013 Bond; provided that, in the case of any mutilated Series 2013 Bond, such mutilated Series 2013 Bond shall first be surrendered to the Trustee, and in the case of any lost, stolen or destroyed Series 2013 Bond, there shall be first furnished to the Authority and the Trustee evidence of such loss, theft or destruction in form satisfactory to the Authority and the Trustee, together with indemnity satisfactory to them. In the event any such Series 2013 Bond shall have matured, instead of issuing a substitute Series 2013 Bond the Authority may authorize the payment of the same. The Authority and the Trustee may charge the owner of such Series 2013 Bond with their reasonable fees and expenses in this connection. Any Series 2013 Bond issued under the provisions of this Section 3.7 in lieu of any Series 2013 Bond alleged to be destroyed, lost or stolen shall constitute an original additional contractual obligation on the part of the Authority, whether or not the Series 2013 Bond so alleged to be destroyed, lost or stolen be at any time enforceable by anyone, and shall be equally and proportionately entitled to the benefits of this Supplemental Indenture together with all other Series 2013 Bonds in substitution for which such Series 2013 Bonds were issued.

Section 3.8 Registration of Series 2013 Bonds.

(a) The Trustee shall be the bond registrar for the Series 2013 Bonds. So long as any of the Series 2013 Bonds shall remain outstanding, there shall be maintained and kept for the Authority, at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee, the Bond Register for the registration and transfer of the Series 2013 Bonds and, upon presentation thereof for such purpose at said office, the Trustee shall register or cause to be registered therein, and permit to be transferred thereon, under such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, any Series 2013 Bond.

(b) Each Series 2013 Bond shall be transferable only upon the Bond Register at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee at the written request of the registered owner thereof or his legal representative duly authorized in writing upon surrender thereof, together with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Trustee duly executed by the registered owner or his legal representative duly authorized in writing. Upon the transfer of any such Series 2013 Bond, the Trustee shall issue in the name of the transferee, in authorized denominations, one or more Series 2013 Bonds of the same aggregate principal amount as the surrendered Series 2013 Bonds.

Section 3.9 Persons Treated as Owners.

(a) The Authority and the Trustee may, for the purpose of receiving payment of, or on account of, the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on any Series 2013 Bond and for all other purposes, deem and treat the person in whose name such Series 2013 Bond shall be registered upon the Bond Register as the absolute owner of such Series 2013 Bond, whether or not such Series 2013 Bond is overdue, and neither the Authority nor the Trustee shall be affected by any notice to the contrary.

(b) Payment made to the person deemed to be the owner of any Series 2013 Bond for the purpose of such payment in accordance with the provisions of this Section 3.9 shall be valid and effectual, to the extent of the sum or sums so paid, to satisfy and discharge the liability upon such Series 2013 Bond in respect of which such payment was made.

Section 3.10 Exchange and Transfer of Series 2013 Bonds. As long as any of the Series 2013 Bonds remain outstanding, there shall be permitted the exchange of Series 2013 Bonds at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee. Any Series 2013 Bond or Series 2013 Bonds upon surrender thereof at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Trustee, duly executed by the registered owner or his legal representative duly authorized in writing, may, at the option of the registered owner thereof, be exchanged for an equal aggregate principal amount of other Series 2013 Bonds in Authorized Denominations.

(b) For every such exchange or transfer of Series 2013 Bonds, the Authority or the Trustee may make a charge sufficient to reimburse it for any tax, fee or other governmental charge required to be paid with respect to such exchange or transfer, which sum or sums shall be paid by the person requesting such exchange or transfer as a condition precedent to the exercise of the privilege of making such exchange or transfer.

(c) The Trustee shall not be required to register the transfer or exchange of (a) any Series 2013 Bonds during the fifteen (15) day period next preceding the selection of Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed and thereafter until the date of the mailing of a notice of redemption of Series 2013 Bonds selected for redemption, or (b) any Series 2013 Bonds selected, called or being called for redemption in whole or in part, except in the case of any Series 2013 Bond to be redeemed in part, the portion thereof not so to be redeemed.

Section 3.11 Cancellation and Destruction of Surrendered Series 2013 Bonds. Upon the surrender to the Trustee of any temporary or mutilated Series 2013 Bonds, or Series 2013 Bonds transferred or exchanged for other Series 2013 Bonds, or Series 2013 Bonds paid at maturity by the Authority, the same shall forthwith be canceled and destroyed by the Trustee, and the Trustee, upon the request of the Authority, shall deliver its certificate of such destruction to the Authority.

Section 3.12 Delivery of the Series 2013 Bonds.

(a) Upon the execution and delivery of this Supplemental Indenture, the Authority shall execute and deliver to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall authenticate the Series 2013 Bonds and deliver them to the purchasers thereof as shall be directed by the Authority as hereinafter in this Section provided. The Authority shall execute and deliver to the Trustee and the Trustee shall authenticate the Series 2013 Bonds and deliver them to the purchasers thereof as shall be directed by the Authority as hereinafter in this Section provided.

(b) Prior to or simultaneously with the delivery by the Trustee of the Series 2013 Bonds there shall be filed with the Trustee:

(i) A copy, duly certified by the Secretary, Executive Director or an Assistant Secretary of the Authority, of the resolution or resolutions adopted by the Authority authorizing the execution and delivery of this Supplemental Indenture and the Loan Agreement, as amended, and all other instruments contemplated thereby and the authorization, issuance, sale and delivery of the Series 2013 Bonds;

(ii) A copy, duly certified by an Authorized Corporation Representative, of the resolution or resolutions of the Corporation authorizing the execution and delivery of the Loan Agreement, and all other instruments contemplated thereby and approving this Supplemental Indenture and the authorization, issuance, sale and delivery of the Series 2013 Bonds;

(iii) Original executed counterparts of this Supplemental Indenture, the Supplemental Loan Agreement, the Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease;

(iv) Signed copies of all opinions of counsel required in connection with the issuance of the Series 2013 Bonds and the transactions contemplated thereby;

(v) A request and authorization to the Trustee on behalf of the Authority and signed by its Chairman, Vice Chairman, Executive Director, Secretary or an Assistant Secretary to authenticate and deliver the Series 2013 Bonds to the purchasers thereof and specifying the amounts to be deposited in the Series 2013 Cost of Issuance Account, the Replacement Fund, the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund and the Escrow Fund hereunder; and

(vi) A signed copy of the legal opinion of Jones Walker LLP, addressed to the Trustee, to the effect that (i) the Series 2013 Bonds are exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and this Supplemental Indenture is exempt from qualification under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended; and (ii) authorizing the Trustee to rely upon Bond Counsel's approving opinion as if it were addressed to the Trustee.

(c) The Authority hereby authorizes and directs the Trustee to execute and deliver the Tax Regulatory Agreement dated the Closing Date, among the Authority, the Board, the Trustee and the Corporation.

Section 3.13 Book-Entry Registration of Series 2013 Bonds.

(a) The Series 2013 Bonds shall be initially issued in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee for DTC, as registered owner of the Series 2013 Bonds, and held in the custody of DTC (or the Trustee as the agent of DTC under the F.A.S.T. delivery system). The Authority and the Trustee acknowledge that the Authority has executed and delivered a Blanket Letter of Representations with DTC and that the terms and provisions of said Letter of Representations shall govern in the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of this Supplemental Indenture and said Letter of Representations. A single bond certificate for each maturity of Series 2013 Bonds will be issued and delivered to DTC. The Beneficial Owners will not receive physical delivery of Series 2013 Bond certificates except as provided herein. Beneficial Owners are expected to receive a written confirmation of their purchase providing details of each Series 2013 Bond acquired. For so long as DTC shall continue to serve as securities depository for the Series 2013 Bonds as provided herein, all transfers of beneficial ownership interest will be made by book-entry only, and no investor or other party purchasing, selling or otherwise transferring beneficial ownership of Series 2013 Bonds is to receive, hold or deliver any Bond certificate.

(b) For every transfer and exchange of the Series 2013 Bonds, the Beneficial Owner may be charged a sum sufficient to cover such Beneficial Owner's allocable share of any tax, fee or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto.

(c) The Authority, the Corporation and the Trustee will recognize DTC or its nominee as the Bondholder for all purposes, including notices and voting.

(d) Neither the Authority, the Trustee, the Corporation nor the Board is responsible for the performance by DTC of any of its obligations, including, without limitation, the payment of moneys received by DTC, the forwarding of notices received by DTC or the giving of any consent or proxy in lieu of consent.

(e) Whenever during the term of the Series 2013 Bonds the beneficial ownership thereof is determined by a book entry at DTC, the requirements of this Supplemental Indenture of holding, delivering or transferring Series 2013 Bonds shall be deemed modified to require the appropriate person to meet the requirements of DTC as to registering or transferring the book entry to produce the same effect.

(f) DTC may determine to discontinue providing its services with respect to the Series 2013 Bonds at any time by giving notice to the Authority and the Trustee and discharging its responsibilities with respect thereto under applicable law.

(g) The Authority, in its sole discretion and without the consent of any other person, may terminate the services of DTC with respect to the Series 2013 Bonds if the Authority determines that (i) DTC is unable to discharge its responsibilities with respect to the Series 2013 Bonds, or (ii) a continuation of the requirement that all of the outstanding Series 2013 Bonds be registered on the registration books kept by the Trustee in the name of Cede & Co., or any other nominee of DTC, is not in the best interest of the beneficial owners of the Series 2013 Bonds.

(h) Upon the termination of the services of DTC with respect to the Series 2013 Bonds pursuant to the above two paragraphs, after which no substitute securities depository willing to undertake the functions of DTC hereunder can be found which, in the opinion of the Authority is willing and able to undertake such functions upon reasonable and customary terms, the Authority is obligated to deliver Series 2013 Bonds to the owner, at the expense of the said owner as described in this Supplemental Indenture, and the Series 2013 Bonds shall no longer be restricted to being registered in the registration books kept by the Trustee in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee of DTC, but may be registered in whatever name or names holders transferring or exchanging Series 2013 Bonds shall designate in accordance with the provisions of this Supplemental Indenture.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Supplemental Indenture to the contrary, so long as any Series 2013 Bond is registered in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee of DTC, all payments with respect to principal of, premium, if any, and interest on such Series 2013 Bond and all notices with respect to such Series 2013 Bond shall be made and given, respectively, in the manner provided in the Blanket Letter of Representations of the Authority dated November 17, 1998 and delivered to DTC.

(j) If at any time DTC ceases to hold the Series 2013 Bonds, all references herein to DTC shall be of no further force or effect.

On or prior to the Closing Date, in addition to the funds and accounts created pursuant to the Original Indenture, the following special trust funds and accounts (except as qualified in this Section 4.1) shall be established and maintained with the Trustee so long as any Series 2013 Bonds issued under this Supplemental Indenture are outstanding:

(a) Series 2013 Bond Escrow Fund and a Series 2013 Costs of Issuance Account therein;

- (b) Series 2013 Debt Service Fund, and the following accounts therein:

Section 4.2 Series 2013 Bond Proceeds Fund.

(a) On or prior to the Closing Date, the Series 2013 Bond Escrow Fund shall be used to receive the proceeds of the Series 2013 Bonds, a transfer from the Series 2004 Debt Service Reserve Fund, the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund, and the Series 2004 Project Fund held by the Trustee, and the Board Contribution. Any funds received prior the Closing Date may be held uninvested. On the Closing Date, the Trustee shall disburse amounts held in the Series 2013 Bond Proceeds Fund as follows:

- (i) to retain such sum in the Series 2013 Costs of Issuance Account as may be specified in the request and authorization delivered pursuant to Section 3.12 hereof;
- (ii) to transfer to the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund an amount equal to the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement; and
- (iii) to transfer to the Escrow Trustee for deposit to the Escrow Fund the balance of the proceeds of the Series 2013 Bonds, the Series 2004 Debt Service Reserve Fund, the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund, the Series 2004 Project Fund, and the Board Contribution.

(b) Amounts deposited on the Closing Date into the Series 2013 Costs of Issuance Account of the Series 2013 Bond Proceeds Fund shall be disbursed, pursuant to the written instructions of the Authority, to pay Costs of Issuance. The Trustee is authorized and directed to pay such Costs of Issuance in accordance with the payment instructions set forth in the respective invoices submitted to the Trustee for payment pursuant to such written instructions of the Authority. Any amounts remaining in the Series 2013 Costs of Issuance Account 180 days after delivery of the Series 2013 Bonds (and not specifically committed to pay additional Costs of Issuance) shall be deposited into the Interest Account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund.

Section 4.3 Series 2013 Debt Service Fund. The Trustee shall deposit into the applicable account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund the amounts required by Section 4.6 of this Supplemental Indenture.

(a) Moneys on deposit in the Interest Account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund shall be used solely to pay the interest on the Series 2013 Bonds as it becomes due and payable, whether on an Interest Payment Date, at maturity or upon acceleration.

(b) Moneys on deposit in the Principal Account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund shall be used solely to pay the principal of the Series 2013 Bonds as it becomes due and payable, whether at maturity, prior redemption or upon scheduled sinking fund redemption; and, if funds are available for such purpose and at the written direction of the Authority, to effect the redemption of the Series 2013 Bonds prior to their maturity in accordance with the redemption provisions hereof or the purchase of Series 2013 Bonds prior to their maturity in the open market at a price not in excess of the then applicable redemption price (the principal amount thereof, premium, if any, plus accrued interest).

(c) Whenever and to the extent that money on deposit in the Interest Account or the Principal Account is insufficient to pay interest on and principal of (whether at maturity, by acceleration or in satisfaction of the mandatory sinking fund redemption requirements therefor) the Series 2013 Bonds, the Trustee shall transfer money from the Surplus Fund, the Replacement Fund and the Debt Service Reserve Fund, in that order.

Section 4.4 Replacement Fund. The Replacement Fund shall be maintained with the Trustee and used to fund the cost of replacing any worn out, obsolete, inadequate, unsuitable or undesirable property, furniture, fixtures or equipment placed upon or used in connection with the Facilities. Moneys in the Replacement Fund will also be transferred to the Interest Account and/or the Principal Account of the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund or the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund whenever and to the extent that money on deposit in such Accounts, together with money available therefor in the Surplus Fund, is insufficient to pay interest on and principal of (whether at maturity, by acceleration or in satisfaction of the mandatory sinking fund redemption requirements therefor) the Series 2004B Bonds or the Series 2013 Bonds.

Section 4.5 Series 2013 Rebate Fund. Moneys deposited and held in the Series 2013 Rebate Fund shall be used to make all rebate payments owed to the United States under the Code, and shall not be subject to the pledge of this Supplemental Indenture. The Corporation shall make the calculation(s) required by the Code and the Tax Regulatory Agreement and Arbitrage Certificate and shall direct the Trustee to make deposits to and make disbursements from the Series 2013 Rebate Fund that the Corporation determines are in accordance therewith. The Tax Regulatory Agreement and any provisions of this Supplemental Indenture governing deposits to the Series 2013 Rebate Fund may be superseded or amended by the Corporation (except the requirement of annual calculations and deposits to the Series 2013 Rebate Fund, if required) if accompanied by an opinion of Bond Counsel addressed to the Corporation and the Trustee to the effect that the use of the new Tax Regulatory Agreement will not cause the interest on the Series 2013 Bonds to become includable in gross income of the recipient thereof for federal tax purposes.

Section 4.6 Receipts Fund. There shall be deposited into the Receipts Fund all funds received from or paid on behalf of the Board under the Facilities Lease, including: (i) daily, all rents, charges and other amounts, held in the deposit account maintained by the Management Company pursuant any Management Agreement; and (ii) all Lawfully Available Funds from the Board used to make Base Rental Payments pursuant to the Facilities Lease. The Trustee will transfer the amount so deposited in the Receipts Fund to the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund and the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund without distinction or priority. Moneys on deposit in the Receipts Fund will be withdrawn by the Trustee in accordance with the requirements of the Original Indenture and this Supplemental Indenture and ratably on a parity therewith and applied in the following priority:

(d) With respect to the Auction Rate Bonds, two (2) Business Days prior to each Interest Payment Date for the Auction Rate Bonds, commencing November 12, 2013, into the Interest Account of the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund an amount equal to the interest due and payable on the Auction Rate Bonds on such Interest Payment Date or such lesser amount that, together with amounts already on deposit in the Interest Account of the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund, will be sufficient to pay interest on such Series 2004B Bonds bearing interest at an Auction Rate on such Interest Payment Date;

(f) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, commencing November 25, 2013, into the Principal Account of the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund and the Principal Account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund an amount equal to one-ninth (1/9th) of the principal of the Series 2004B Bonds and the Series 2013 Bonds payable on August 1, 2014 and thereafter, on the 25th day of each month, commencing August 25, 2014, an amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the principal of the Series 2004B Bonds and the Series 2013 Bonds payable on the next Principal Payment Date;

(g) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of the month, any amounts due to the Series 2004 Bond Insurer under the Reimbursement Agreement;

(h) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month following any drawing on the Debt Service Reserve Fund in accordance with Section 4.21 of the Original Indenture or any drawing on the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund in accordance with Section 4.13 hereof, an amount equal to the lesser of (i) one twelfth (1/12th) of the amount necessary to cause the amount on deposit in the Debt Service Reserve Fund to equal the Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement for the Series 2004B Bonds and the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund to equal the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement for the Series 2013 Bonds within twelve (12) months or (ii) the excess of the Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement for the Series 2004 Bonds or the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement for the Series 2013 Bonds over the amount on deposit in the Debt Service Reserve Fund or the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund;

(i) Annually, beginning August 1, 2014, an amount equal to $122,987.38 into the Replacement Fund, with such amount increased each year, beginning August 1, 2015 at a rate of 3% annually; or such lesser annual amount as is permitted by the Board of Regents and approved by the Series 2004 Bond

Insurer; in each case, as set forth in writing delivered in advance thereof to the Trustee; and, in the event that any funds shall have been withdrawn from the Replacement Fund to cure any deficiency in the Interest Account or the Principal Account of the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund or the Interest Account or the Principal Account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund pursuant to Section 4.3(c) hereof, the amount of such withdrawal;

(j) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, commencing the month following the effective date of any Management Agreement, an amount equal to the monthly Management Fee for the current Fiscal Year plus any Management Fee for any prior month that remains unpaid;

(k) Annually on August 1 of each year beginning August 1, 2014 any amounts remaining in the Receipts Fund after making all transfers required to be made on such date under Section 4.6(a) through (j) hereof shall be transferred to the Surplus Fund and applied as set forth in Section 4.25 of the Original Indenture.

After a Variable Rate Conversion of the Series 2004B Bonds, payments will be made from the Receipts Fund to the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund in accordance with the supplemental indenture executed in connection with such Variable Rate Conversion.

Section 4.7 Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund. Moneys on deposit in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be maintained in an amount equal to the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement, and shall be transferred, in accordance with the priority set out in Section 4.3(c) above, to the Interest Account or the Principal Account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund in such amount as shall be necessary to remedy any deficiency therein (taking into account any amounts available therefor in the Surplus Fund and the Replacement Fund). Whenever the amount in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund, together with the amount in the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund, is sufficient to pay in full all outstanding Series 2013 Bonds in accordance with their terms, the funds on deposit in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be transferred to the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund and shall be available to pay all outstanding Series 2013 Bonds in accordance with their terms. If the balance of the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund is greater than the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement, all amounts in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund in excess of the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement shall be transferred to the Interest Account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund. In no event shall moneys in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund be used to make payments of principal or interest on the Series 2004B Bonds and in no event shall the moneys in the Series 2004 Debt Service Reserve Fund be used to make payments of principal and interest on the Series 2013 Bonds.

Section 4.8 Surplus Fund. The Surplus Fund will continue to be maintained with the Trustee. Upon satisfaction of certain performance covenants contained in the Indenture, funds on deposit in the Surplus Fund at the end of any Fiscal Year will be transferred to the University. Until such transfer, moneys in the Surplus Fund will be available to be transferred to the Interest Account and/or the Principal Account of the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund or Series 2013 Debt Service Fund whenever and to the extent that money on deposit in such Accounts is insufficient to pay interest on and principal of (whether at maturity, by acceleration or in satisfaction of the mandatory sinking fund redemption requirements therefor) the Series 2004B Bonds or the Series 2013 Bonds.

Section 4.9 Investments. Moneys contained in the funds and accounts held by the Trustee under Section 4.1 of this Supplemental Indenture shall be continuously invested and reinvested by the Trustee at the direction of the Corporation in Permitted Investments, to the extent practicable, that shall mature (or be readily convertible to cash) not later than the respective dates, as estimated by the Corporation, when the moneys in said Funds and Accounts shall be required for the purposes intended, and:

(i) No such investment shall be required to be made unless the cash at the time available therefor is at least equal to $1,000;

(ii) The Trustee shall be authorized, to the extent necessary to enable the Trustee to discharge or perform its obligations hereunder, at any one or more times to sell any part or all of the investments whenever it may, for any reason or purpose whatsoever, deem any such sale to be desirable;

(iii) Any income derived from and any profit or loss on any such investment of moneys on deposit in any such fund or account shall be credited or debited, as the case may be, to the respective fund or account in which earned;

(iv) No Permitted Investments in any fund or account may mature beyond the latest maturity date of any Series 2013 Bonds outstanding at the time such Permitted Investments are deposited. For the purposes of this section, the maturity date of repurchase agreements for obligations is the maturity date of such repurchase agreements and not the maturity date of the underlying obligation; and

(b) An Authorized Corporation Representative shall give to the Trustee directions respecting the investment of any money required to be invested hereunder, subject, however, to the provisions of this Article and Article V of the Loan Agreement, and the Trustee shall then invest such money under this Section as so directed. The Trustee shall in no event have any liability for any loss resulting from the investment of moneys in accordance with the directions of the Authorized Corporation Representative. The Trustee shall furnish the Authority annually with a written copy and the Corporation with a written copy for the Board, on at least a monthly basis, of the types, amounts, yield and maturities of all such investments.

(c) All cash investments shall be valued by the Trustee as frequently as deemed necessary by the Trustee, but not less often than annually, at the market value thereof. Deficiencies in the amount on deposit in any fund or account resulting from a decline in market value shall be restored no later than the succeeding valuation date.

Section 4.10 Depository of Moneys and Security for Deposits. All of the funds and accounts established hereunder (except for the Series 2013 Rebate Fund) shall be special trust accounts held by the Trustee in trust for the benefit of the owners of the Series 2013 Bonds and shall not be subject to lien or attachment by any creditors of the Trustee, the Authority, the Corporation, or the Board. Uninvested sums in these funds and accounts shall be continually secured as are deposits of uninvested sinking funds of political subdivisions of the State or in the manner prescribed by Federal law for securing any Federal trust funds as may be prescribed from time to time by the Comptroller of the Currency.

Section 4.11 Arbitrage. Notwithstanding all the provisions hereof, the Authority or the Corporation shall not direct the investment of moneys in the various funds and accounts created hereunder in a manner that would result in the loss of exclusion from gross income of interest on the Series 2013 Bonds for Federal income tax purposes or in such manner which would result in the Series 2013 Bonds becoming “arbitrage bonds” within the meaning of Section 148 of the Code.

Section 4.12 Amounts Remaining in Funds; Releases. It is agreed by the parties hereto that any amounts remaining in the Funds and Accounts existing pursuant to this Supplemental Indenture upon the expiration or sooner cancellation or termination of the Loan Agreement, as provided therein, after payment in full of all Series 2013 Bonds then outstanding under this Supplemental Indenture (or provisions for the payment thereof having been made in accordance with Article XII of this Supplemental Indenture), and the fees, charges and expenses of the Authority and the Trustee and all other amounts required to be paid under the Loan Agreement and under this Supplemental Indenture, other than amounts payable as arbitrage rebate under Section 148(f) of the Code, shall belong to and be paid to the Board.

Section 4.13 Application of Moneys in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund.

(a) The Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be funded on the date of delivery of the Series 2013 Bonds in an amount equal to the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement.

(b) The Trustee shall transfer money from the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund to the Interest Account and the Principal Account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund to pay interest on and principal of (whether at maturity, by acceleration or in satisfaction of the mandatory sinking fund redemption requirements therefor) the Series 2013 Bonds, whenever and to the extent that the money on deposit in said accounts (together with any amounts available therefor in the Surplus Fund and the Replacement Fund) is insufficient for such purposes.

(c) If the money held in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund, including interest earnings, exceeds the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement an amount equal to such excess shall be transferred by the Trustee to the Interest Account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund. The Trustee shall not be required to liquidate any investment before its maturity to make such transfer. Whenever the amount on deposit in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund is less than the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement, the Trustee shall notify the Authority and the Corporation of the amount of such deficiency and such deficiency will be remedied, as provided in Section 4.6(h) hereof. Upon notification the Corporation shall deliver to the Trustee an amount sufficient to cure the deficiency in accordance herewith and the Agreement.

(d) The Authority may, at the direction of the Corporation, as advised by the Board, at any time, deposit with the Trustee, to replace cash in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund (in which case the replaced cash shall be paid to the University) or to meet the requirements herein that it deposit additional amounts in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund, a Debt Service Reserve Fund Investment. Any bank issuing a letter of credit must have a rating on its unsecured debt, or on debt secured by its letters of credit and which ratings are based solely on the bank's letter of credit, of "AA-" or better by S&P and "Aa3" or better by Moody's. Any insurance company issuing a surety bond must have a claims-paying ability rating of "AAA" by S&P and "Aaa" by Moody's. If such Debt Service Reserve Fund Investment expires prior to fifteen (15) days after the final maturity of the Series 2013 Bonds, it must provide, that if not renewed within fifteen (15) days prior to its expiration date in an amount equal to the undrawn amount thereof (other than because of a reduction in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement or the deposit of cash in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund to replace it), the Trustee may draw the full amount of such Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund Investment. The Trustee shall draw down the full amount of such Debt Service Reserve Fund Investment and deposit such amount in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund fifteen (15) days prior to expiration of such Debt Service Reserve Fund Investment if it is not renewed as provided for in the preceding sentence. The Debt Service Reserve Fund Investment must be able to be drawn upon at any time that cash could be withdrawn from the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund. Prior to accepting any such Debt Service Reserve Fund Investment, the Trustee, the Corporation, the Board and the Authority must receive a Bond Counsel opinion that such acceptance and any payment of funds in the Debt Service Reserve Fund to the Corporation is authorized by this Indenture and will not adversely affect the exclusion of interest on the Series 2013 Bonds. If a Debt Service Reserve Fund Investment is deposited in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund in lieu of cash, the cash amount contained in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be transferred to the Replacement Fund.

(e) If a disbursement is made under a surety bond deposited in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund, the Corporation shall be obligated to either reinstate the maximum limits of such surety bond immediately following such disbursement in twelve (12) equal monthly installments or as required by the Authority of the Debt Service Reserve Fund Investment in an amount equal to the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement or deposit into the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund funds in the amount of the disbursement made under the Debt Service Reserve Fund Investment, or a combination of such alternatives as shall equal the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement.

Section 4.14 Application of Insurance Proceeds; Condemnation Award.

(a) If all or any portion of the Facilities is damaged or destroyed by a Casualty (as defined in the Facilities Lease), or is taken by Expropriation (as defined in the Facilities Lease) proceedings, the Board shall instruct the Corporation, as expeditiously as possible, to continuously and diligently prosecute or cause to be prosecuted the repair, restoration, or replacement thereof; provided however, that the Corporation shall in no way be liable for any costs of the repair, restoration or replacement of the Facilities in excess of the proceeds of any insurance or of any Expropriation award received because of such Casualty or Expropriation. The proceeds of any insurance, including the proceeds of any self-insurance through ORM, or of any Expropriation award or payment in lieu of Expropriation, received on account of any damage, destruction or taking of all or any portion of the Facilities shall be delivered to the Trustee and held by the Trustee in a special account to be established upon receipt of any such funds and held by the Trustee in trust or in the case of self-insurance through ORM, as set forth in paragraph (b) below; and shall be made available for, and to the extent necessary be applied to, such restoration, repair and replacement. Any amounts so held by the Trustee shall be disbursed to pay the costs of restoration, replacement and repair of the Facilities with respect to which they are held, in each case promptly after receipt of a written request of the Corporation as advised by the Board stating that the amount to be disbursed pursuant to such request will be used to pay costs of replacing or repairing or restoring the Facilities and that no amount previously has been disbursed by the Trustee for payment of the costs to be so paid. In making such payments, the Trustee may conclusively rely upon such written requests and shall have no liability or responsibility to investigate any matter stated therein, or for any inaccuracy or misstatement therein. In no event shall the Trustee be responsible for the adequacy of the plans and specifications or construction contract relating to the replacement, restoration, or repair of the Facilities, or for the improper use of moneys properly disbursed pursuant to request made under this Section. Any proceeds remaining on deposit with Trustee following completion of the repairs, restoration or replacement of the Facilities shall be paid by Trustee to the Corporation for the Board.

(b) In the event the University decides not to repair, restore or replace the Facilities for any reason, all insurance proceeds received or payable as a result of such Casualty, or all proceeds received or payable as a result of Expropriation proceedings (including payments received or payable in lieu of Expropriation) shall be paid to the Trustee and applied to the redemption of the Bonds on a pro rata basis in accordance with the Indenture. The provisions of this Section 4.14(b) shall control over the provisions of the second paragraph of Section 4.22(a) of the Original Indenture.

(c) In the event that ORM insures the Facilities, the Board shall cause the Corporation to use the insurance proceeds received from ORM in accordance with Policy and Procedure Memorandum Number 10 (requiring invoices to be submitted to ORM for payment to vendors, or alternatively, production of invoices paid by the Board to ORM for reimbursement of vendor payments) to effect the repair, restoration or replacement of the Facilities.

Section 4.15 Application of Money in the Replacement Fund.

(a) All moneys in the Replacement Fund shall be held for the benefit of the Board through the Corporation, are not pledged under this Indenture and may be drawn on and used by the Corporation or the Board to (i) replace any worn out, obsolete, inadequate, unsuitable or undesirable property, furniture, equipment, fixtures and other property owned by the Board or the Corporation and located on the Facilities and (ii) maintain the Facilities and to make all alterations, repairs, restorations and replacements to the Facilities as and when needed to preserve the Facilities in good working order, condition and repair, each as required by the Facilities Lease. Withdrawals from the Replacement Fund for the purposes set forth above shall be made by the Trustee upon its receipt of a requisition from the University or the Corporation substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C to the Original Indenture. Moneys in the Replacement Fund may also be drawn by the Trustee and transferred to the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund or the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund if amounts on deposit therein, together with amounts available therefor in the Surplus Fund, are insufficient to pay debt service on the Series 2004B Bonds or the Series 2013 Bonds on any Interest Payment Date or Principal Payment Date.

(b) Any moneys remaining in the Replacement Fund immediately prior to the time all of the Series 2004B Bonds and Series 2013 Bonds are paid, or provision for their payment is made in accordance with Article XII hereof shall, at the option of the University, be used, together with amounts held in the Debt Service Reserve Fund and the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund, to pay in full all outstanding Series 2004B Bonds and Series 2013 Bonds in accordance with their terms or shall be paid to the University.

Section 4.16 Application of Money in the Surplus Fund.

(a) Funds on deposit in the Surplus Fund at the end of any Fiscal Year may be transferred to the University on the date described below if (i) the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Facilities was 1.10:1.00 or greater for such Fiscal Year as evidenced by the audited financial statements for such Fiscal Year and (ii) neither the Corporation or the Board are in default under the financing documents on the date of transfer to the University. Upon receipt of the audited financial statements for such Fiscal Year, provided that the above described conditions have been met, then at the written instruction of the University Representative, the Trustee shall transfer all of the amounts in the Surplus Fund on the last day of the immediately preceding Fiscal Year to the University.

(b) To the extent that there are insufficient funds in the Receipts Fund to make any of the transfers to the various funds and accounts required under Section 4.6(a) through (j) hereof on the dates such transfers are required to be made, any amounts contained in the Surplus Fund shall be transferred to such funds and accounts, in the priority set forth in Section 4.6 hereof, to make up for such deficiency.

Section 4.17 Application of Moneys in the Series 2013 Rebate Fund. Moneys in the Series 2013 Rebate Fund shall be used to make any rebate payments required to be made to the United States under the Code. The Series 2013 Rebate Fund shall be held for the sole benefit of the United States of America and is not pledged under this Supplemental Indenture. Moneys required to be paid to the United States shall be deposited in the Series 2013 Rebate Fund by the Board as Base Rental under the Facilities Lease as required thereby and by this Supplemental Indenture.

ARTICLE V
ADDITIONAL BONDS

Section 5.1 Additional Bonds. Additional Bonds may be issued in accordance with the provisions of Article V of the Original Indenture.

ARTICLE VI
COSTS OF ISSUANCE

Section 6.1 Payment of Costs of Issuance from Series 2013 Bond Proceeds Fund. There shall be paid into the Series 2013 Costs of Issuance Account in the Series 2013 Bond Proceeds Fund the amounts required to be so paid from Series 2013 Bond proceeds pursuant to Section 4.2(b) of this Supplemental Indenture; and such amounts shall be applied to the payment of all items of expense, directly or indirectly payable or reimbursable and related to the authorization, sale and issuance of the Series 2013 Bonds including, but not limited to, publication costs, printing costs, costs of preparation and reproduction of documents, filing and recording fees, initial fees and charges of the Trustee, the Authority or any other fiduciary, legal fees and charges, fees and disbursements of consultants and professionals and any other cost, charge or fee in connection with the original sale and issuance of the Series 2013 Bonds. Any additional costs of issuance shall be paid solely by the Corporation. The Trustee shall make payments from the Series 2013 Costs of Issuance Account upon receipt of statements from the parties entitled to be paid therefrom accompanied by a written request of the Authority directing the Trustee to pay such statements.

ARTICLE VII
ENFORCEMENT OF LOAN AGREEMENT AND FACILITIES LEASE

Section 7.1 Assignment of Loan Agreement and Facilities Lease. The Authority has assigned all of its right, title and interest in, to and under the Loan Agreement (except for rights relating to exculpation, indemnification and payment of expenses thereunder), including the interest of the Authority in and to the Ground Lease and the Facilities Lease assigned by the Corporation to the Authority thereunder (except for payments of Additional Rentals made under the Facilities Lease), to the Trustee as security for the Series 2013 Bonds and hereby agrees that the Loan Agreement and the Facilities Lease may be enforced by the Trustee and/or the owners of the Bonds in accordance with the terms of the Facilities Lease and the Indenture. Notwithstanding such assignment, the Authority agrees to cause the Corporation to comply with the terms contained in the Loan Agreement and the Facilities Lease and the rights of the Bondholders and the Trustee shall be governed by the provisions of the Indenture, the Loan Agreement and the Facilities Lease.

Section 7.2 Trustee or Bondholders to Enforce Loan Agreement, Facilities Lease and Mortgage. The Trustee may, and upon request of the Series 2004 Bond Insurer or a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then outstanding shall, subject to the provisions of Section 8.11 and Article IX hereof, strictly and promptly enforce the provisions of the Loan Agreement, the Facilities Lease and Mortgage so long as any of the Bonds remain outstanding under the Indenture. All rights of action (including the right to file proof of claims) to enforce the Loan Agreement, the Facilities Lease and Mortgage under the Indenture or under any of the Bonds may be enforced by the Trustee without the possession of the Bonds and without their production in any trial or other proceeding relating thereto. Any such suit or proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its name as Trustee for the Bondholders without the necessity of joining as plaintiffs or defendants any of the Bondholders.

ARTICLE VIII
EVENTS OF DEFAULT; REMEDIES

Section 8.1 No Extension of Time for Payment of Principal, Premium or Interest. The Trustee shall not be authorized to extend the time for any payment of principal, premium or interest without the prior written consent of or authorization by the owner of the Series 2013 Bonds so affected.

Section 8.2 Events of Default.

(a) Each of the following events is hereby declared to be an additional “Event of Default” under Section 8.2 of the Original Indenture:

(i) The payment of any installment of interest on any of the Series 2013 Bonds shall not be made when the same shall become due and payable;

(ii) The payment of the principal of or premium, if any, on any of the Series 2013 Bonds shall not be made when the same shall become due and payable, whether at maturity or by proceedings for redemption or by acceleration or otherwise;

(iii) An “Event of Default” under Article IX of the Loan Agreement shall have occurred and shall not have been cured within the applicable cure period;

(iv) A default shall occur under Section 21 of the Facilities Lease;

(v) If by action or inaction of the Authority, the Board or the Corporation the interest on the Series 2013 Bonds shall become includable in gross income for Federal income tax purposes; or

(vi) Default by the Authority in the due and punctual performance of any other of the covenants, conditions, agreements and provisions contained in the Series 2013 Bonds or in this Supplemental Indenture on the part of the Authority to be performed, if such default shall continue for 30 days after written notice specifying such default and requiring the same to be remedied shall have been given to the Authority, the Board and the Corporation by the Trustee, which may give such notice in its discretion and shall give such notice at the written request of the owners of not less than a majority in principal amount of the Series 2013 Bonds then outstanding. Such default shall not become an Event of Default if said default be of the nature that (A) it cannot be corrected within the thirty (30) day period after receipt of notice, but the Authority (or the Corporation pursuant to the provisions of Section 8.14 of this Supplemental Indenture) promptly shall institute and diligently pursue corrective action until such default is cured and (B) the Trustee shall determine that such default is not curable but such default does not affect the validity or enforceability of the Series 2013 Bonds, this Supplemental Indenture or the Loan Agreement, an event of nonperformance shall not have occurred under the Loan Agreement (other than as a result of the cross-default provisions), and such default does not impair the security or the obligations provided for or under the Bonds, the Indenture or the Loan Agreement.

(b) The word “default” as used herein means failure of performance when due, exclusive of any period of grace, if any, allowed to correct any such failure.

Section 8.3 Remedies. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Authority, the Trustee and, subject to Sections 8.10 and 8.11, the Bondholders shall have all the rights and remedies as may be allowed by law, the Indenture, or pursuant to the provisions of the Loan Agreement and/or the Facilities Lease by virtue of their assignment hereunder, including but not limited to, acceleration of the maturity of all Bonds, or suit at law or in equity to enforce or enjoin the action or inaction of parties under the provisions of the Indenture, the Loan Agreement or the Facilities Lease.

Section 8.4 Acceleration; Annulment of Acceleration.

(a) Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default described in Section 8.2 of the Indenture, the Trustee may, and upon the written request of the Series 2004 Bond Insurer or the owners of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds shall, by notice in writing to the Authority, the Board and the Corporation, declare the Bonds then outstanding immediately due and payable, and such Bonds shall become and be immediately due and payable, anything in such Bonds or in the Loan Agreement or the Indenture to the contrary notwithstanding, and, subject to Article IX, the Trustee may exercise any remedies granted to it therein. In such event, there shall be due and payable on the Bonds an amount equal to the principal amount of all the Bonds then outstanding plus all interest accrued thereon and which will accrue thereon to the date of payment; and

(b) At any time after the principal of the Bonds shall have been so declared to be due and payable and before the entry of final judgment or decree in any suit, action or proceeding instituted on account of such default, or before the completion of the enforcement of any other remedy under the Indenture, the Loan Agreement or the Facilities Lease, the Trustee may annul such declaration and its consequences with respect to the Bonds if (i) moneys shall have been deposited in the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund and the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund sufficient to pay all matured installments of principal (other than principal due solely because of acceleration) and interest; (ii) moneys shall be available sufficient to pay the charges, compensation, expenses, disbursements, advances and liabilities of the Authority and the Trustee; (iii) all other amounts then payable by the Authority or the Corporation under the Indenture or the Loan Agreement shall have been paid or a sum sufficient to pay the same shall have been deposited with the Trustee; and (iv) every Event of Default known to the Authority or the Trustee (other than a default in the payment of the principal of the Bonds due only because of such declaration) shall have been remedied to the satisfaction of the Authority and the Trustee. No such annulment shall extend to or affect any subsequent Event of Default or impair any right consequent thereon.

Section 8.5 Insufficiency in the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund; Application of Moneys.

(a) Anything in this Supplemental Indenture to the contrary notwithstanding, if at any time the moneys in the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund shall not be sufficient to pay the interest on, premium, if any, or the principal of the Series 2013 Bonds as the same shall become due and payable (either by their terms or by acceleration of maturities), such moneys, together with any other moneys then available or thereafter becoming available for such purpose, whether through the exercise of the remedies provided for in this Article or otherwise, shall, subject to the provisions of Sections 9.2 and 9.4 hereof, be applied as follows:

(i) Unless the principal of all the Series 2013 Bonds shall have become or shall have been declared due and payable, all such moneys shall be applied:

FIRST, to the payment to the persons entitled thereto of all installments of interest then due and payable in the order in which such installments became due and payable and, if the amount available shall not be sufficient to pay any particular installment, then to the payment thereof, ratably, according to the amounts due on such installment, to the persons entitled thereto, without any discrimination or preference except as to any difference in the respective rates of interest specified in the Series 2013 Bonds; then

SECOND, to the payment to the persons entitled thereto of the unpaid principal of any of the Series 2013 Bonds which shall have become due and payable (other than Series 2013 Bonds called for redemption for the payment of which moneys are held pursuant to the provisions of this Supplemental Indenture) in the order of their due dates, with interest on the principal amount of such Series 2013 due and payable, and, if the amount available shall not be sufficient to pay in full the principal of the Series 2013 Bonds and their interest thereon, then to the payment thereof ratably, according to the amount of the interest due on such date, and next to the payment of the principal, ratably, according to the amount of such principal due on such date, to the persons entitled thereto without any discrimination or preference; and then

THIRD, to the payment of the interest on and the principal of the Series 2013, to the purchase and retirement of Series 2013 Bonds and to the redemption of Series 2013 Bonds, all in accordance with the provisions of this Supplemental Indenture.

(ii) If the principal of all the Series 2013 Bonds shall have become or shall have been declared due and payable, all such moneys shall be applied to the payment of the principal and interest then due and unpaid upon the Series 2013 Bonds, without preference or priority of principal over interest or of interest over principal, or of any installment of interest over any other installment of interest, or of any Series 2013 Bond over any other Series 2013 Bond, ratably, according to the amounts due respectively for principal and interest, to the persons entitled thereto without any discrimination or preference; and

(iii) If the principal of all the Series 2013 Bonds shall have been declared due and payable and if such declaration shall thereafter have been rescinded and annulled, then, subject to the provisions of Section 8.4(b) above, in the event that the principal of all the Series 2013 Bonds shall later become or be declared due and payable, then all such moneys shall be applied in accordance with the provisions of Section 8.4(a) above.

(b) Whenever money is to be applied by the Trustee pursuant to the provisions of this Section, such money shall be applied by the Trustee at such times and from time to time as the Trustee in its sole discretion shall determine, having due regard to the amount of such money available for application and the likelihood of additional money becoming available for application in the future; the deposit of such money or otherwise setting aside such money in trust for the proper purpose shall constitute proper application by the Trustee; and the Trustee shall incur no liability whatsoever to the Authority, to any Bondholder or to any other person for any delay in applying any such money, so long as the Trustee acts with reasonable diligence, having due regard to the circumstances, and ultimately applies the same in accordance with such provisions of this Supplemental Indenture as may be applicable at the time of application by the Trustee. Whenever the Trustee shall exercise such discretion in applying such money, it shall fix the date (which shall be an Interest Payment Date unless the Trustee shall deem another date more suitable) upon which such application is to be made and upon such date interest on the amounts of principal to be paid on such date shall cease to accrue. The Trustee shall give such notice as it may deem appropriate of the fixing of any such date and shall not be required to make payment to the owner of any Series 2013 Bond until such Series 2013 Bond shall be surrendered to the Trustee for appropriate endorsement or for cancellation if fully paid.

Section 8.6 Discontinuance of Proceedings. In case any proceeding taken by the Trustee on account of any Event of Default shall have been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, then and in every such case the Authority, the Trustee and the Bondholders shall be restored to their former positions and rights hereunder, respectively, and all rights, remedies, powers and duties of the Trustee shall continue as though no proceeding had been taken.

Section 8.7 Reserved.

Section 8.8 Remedies Not Exclusive. No remedy by the terms of the Indenture conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee or the Bondholders is intended to be exclusive of any other remedy, but each and every remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given under the Indenture or existing at law or in equity on or after the date of adoption of the Indenture.

Section 8.9 Remedies Vested in Trustee. All rights of action under the Indenture, the Loan Agreement or under any of the Bonds may be enforced by the Trustee without possession of the Bonds and without their production in any trial or other proceeding relating thereto. Any suit or proceeding instituted by the Trustee may be brought in its name as Trustee without the necessity of joining as plaintiffs or defendants any owners of the Bonds.

Section 8.10 Reserved.

Section 8.11 Individual Bondholder Action Restricted.

(a) No owner of any Series 2013 Bond shall have any right to institute any suit, action or proceeding for the enforcement of this Supplemental Indenture or for the execution of any trust hereunder or for any remedy under this Supplemental Indenture unless an Event of Default has occurred (other than under Sections 8.2(a)(i) or 8.2(a)(ii)) of the Original Indenture as to which the Trustee has actual notice, or as to which the Trustee has been notified in writing; and

(b) No one or more owners of Series 2013 Bonds shall have any right in any manner whatsoever to disturb or prejudice the security of this Supplemental Indenture or to enforce any right hereunder except in the manner herein provided and then only for the equal benefit of the owners of all outstanding Series 2013 Bonds.

Section 8.12 Waiver and Non-Waiver of Event of Default. No delay or omission of the Trustee or of any owner of Bonds to exercise any right or power accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair the right or power or shall be construed to be a waiver of an Event of Default or an acquiescence therein. Every power and remedy given by this Article to the Trustee and to the owners of the Bonds, respectively, may be exercised from time to time and as often as may be deemed expedient.

Section 8.13 Notice of Defaults.

(a) Within 30 days after the receipt of notice of an Event of Default or the occurrence of an Event of Default of which the Trustee is deemed to have notice, the Trustee shall (unless the Event of Default has already been cured) give written notice of the Event of Default to the owners of all Series 2013 Bonds then outstanding in the manner provided in Section 13.8 of this Supplemental Indenture, provided that, except in the case of a default in the payment of principal, redemption price, or interest on any of the Series 2013 Bonds, the Trustee may withhold the notice to the Bondholders if, in its sole judgment, it determines that the withholding of notice is not detrimental to the best interest of the Bondholders.

(b) The Trustee shall immediately notify, in writing, the Authority, the Board, the Series 2004 Bond Insurer and the Corporation of any Event of Default known to the Trustee.

Section 8.14 Opportunity of Corporation to Cure Certain Defaults. The Authority and the Trustee hereby grant the Corporation full authority on the account of the Board and/or the Authority to perform any covenant or obligation and to otherwise fulfill any condition the failure or non-performance of which is or is alleged to be a default under Section 8.2(a)(vi) of this Supplemental Indenture, and the Trustee agrees that performance by the Corporation shall be deemed to be performance by the Board and/or the Authority.

ARTICLE IX CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

Section 9.1 Acceptance of Trusts. The Trustee hereby represents and warrants to the Authority (for the benefit of the Board, the Corporation and the Bondholders as well as the Authority) that it is a bank and trust company duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Louisiana and that it is duly authorized under such laws to accept and execute trusts of the character herein set out. The Trustee accepts and agrees to execute the trusts imposed upon it by this Supplemental Indenture, but only upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Article and subject to the provisions of this Supplemental Indenture including the following express terms and conditions, to all of which the parties hereto and the respective Owners of the Series 2013 Bonds agree:

(a) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default within the purview of Section 8.2, the Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Supplemental Indenture, and the Trustee shall not be responsible for (x) the legality or enforceability of this Supplemental Indenture (except with respect to performance of its obligations hereunder), the Loan Agreement (except with respect to performance of its obligations hereunder), the Facilities Lease (except with respect to performance of its obligations hereunder), the Tax Regulatory Agreement (except with respect to performance of its obligations thereunder), and any supplement thereto, the Series 2013 Bonds (except as to the authentication of the Series 2013 Bonds), or any instruments or documents related thereto (collectively, the “Transaction Documents”) or (y) the legality, perfection, sufficiency or priority of the Trust Estate or any lien purported to be granted thereon under any of the aforesaid documents or otherwise. No implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Supplemental Indenture against the Trustee.

(b) No provision of this Supplemental Indenture shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its negligence or willful misconduct, except that:

(i) in the absence of bad faith on the part of the Trustee, the Trustee may rely upon the authenticity of, and the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed in, and shall be protected fully from liability in relying or acting upon, any resolution, opinion of counsel, certificate, request, notice, consent, waiver, order, signature guaranty, notarial seal, stamp, acknowledgment, verification, appraisal, report or other paper or document believed by the Trustee to be genuine and to have been signed, affixed or presented by the proper party or parties; but in the case of any such certificates or opinions that by any provision hereby are specifically required to be furnished to the Trustee, as the case may be, the Trustee shall be under a duty to examine the same to determine whether or not they conform to requirements of this Supplemental Indenture;

(ii) in the absence of bad faith on the part of the Trustee, whenever the Trustee, or any of its agents, representatives, experts or counsel, shall consider it necessary or desirable that any matter be proved or established, such matter shall be deemed to be conclusively proved and established by a certificate executed by an Authorized Authority Representative or an Authorized Corporation Representative; provided, however, that the Trustee, or such agent, representative, expert or counsel may require, but is not obligated to require, such further and additional evidence and make such further investigation as it or they may consider reasonable;

(iii) the Trustee may consult with counsel and the advice or opinion of such counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or suffered hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such advice or opinion of counsel;

(iv) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith and in accordance with any direction or request of the Bondholders;

(v) the Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by an officer or employee of the Trustee unless the Trustee is negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(vi) the Trustee shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any Event of Default, except for the failure of the Corporation to make or cause to be made scheduled payments to the Trustee provided for in the Loan Agreement, unless and until an officer of the Trustee who customarily handles corporate trusts and is assigned to supervise this Supplemental Indenture shall have actual knowledge thereof or the Trustee shall have received written advice thereof from any Bondholder;

(vii) anything in any of the Transaction Documents to the contrary notwithstanding, whether or not an Event of Default shall have occurred, the Trustee shall not be under any obligation to take any action under this Supplemental Indenture that may involve it in any expense or liability, the payment of which within a reasonable time is not, in its opinion, assured to it by the security afforded to it by the terms of this Supplemental Indenture, unless it is requested in writing to do so by one or more owners of the Series 2013 Bonds outstanding hereunder and furnished, from time to time as it may require, with security and indemnity satisfactory to it;

(viii) the Trustee need not take any action or follow any direction from any one or more Bondholders if the Trustee shall be advised by counsel that the action or proceedings so directed may not lawfully be taken or would be prejudicial to Bondholders not parties to such direction, or the Trustee in good faith believes following such direction would involve the Trustee in personal liability;

(ix) in no event shall the Trustee be liable to any person for special, indirect, punitive, exemplary or consequential damages, lost profits or loss of business arising under or in connection with this Supplemental Indenture, even if previously informed of the possibility of such damages and regardless of the form of action; and

(x) anything to the contrary in the Transaction Documents notwithstanding, the permissive right of the Trustee to do anything enumerated or set forth in any of the Transaction Documents shall not be construed as a duty, and the Trustee shall not be held responsible or liable for other than its negligence or willful misconduct.

(c) In case an Event of Default within the purview of Section 8.2 hereof has occurred and is continuing and the Trustee has or is deemed to have knowledge of the Event of Default pursuant to (b)(vi) above, subject to the provisions of this Article IX, the Trustee shall exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by this Supplemental Indenture and use the degree of care and skill in their exercise as a prudent man would exercise under the circumstances.

(d) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Supplemental Indenture relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee, including without limitation Sections 9.3 and 9.4 hereof, shall be subject to the provisions of this Section 9.1. The Trustee also accepts, and agrees to do and perform, the duties and obligations imposed upon it by and under the Loan Agreement, and the Facilities Lease, but only upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Loan Agreement, the Facilities Lease, and this Supplemental Indenture. The rights of the Trustee to do things enumerated in this Supplemental Indenture shall not be construed as a duty.

Section 9.2 Trustee Entitled to Indemnity. The Trustee shall be under no obligation to institute any suit, or to take any remedial proceeding under this Supplemental Indenture or under the Loan Agreement, or to enter any appearance in or in any way defend against any suit, in which it may be made a defendant (except in the case of the Trustee's own negligence), or to take any steps in the execution of the trusts hereby created or in the enforcement of any rights and powers hereunder or under the Loan Agreement or the Facilities Lease, until it shall be indemnified to its satisfaction against any and all costs and expenses, outlays and counsel fees and other reasonable disbursements, and against all liability; the Trustee may, nevertheless, begin suit, or appear in and defend suit, or do anything else in its judgment proper to be done by it as such Trustee, without indemnity, and in such case the Authority shall reimburse the Trustee from funds available therefor under the Loan Agreement for all costs and expenses, outlays and counsel fees and other reasonable disbursements properly incurred in connection therewith. If the Authority shall fail to make reimbursement, the Trustee may reimburse itself from any moneys in its possession under the provisions of this Supplemental Indenture and shall be entitled to a preference over any of the Series 2013 Bonds.

Section 9.3 Trustee Not Responsible for Insurance, Taxes, Execution of Supplemental Indenture, Acts of the Authority or Application of Moneys Applied in Accordance with this Supplemental Indenture.

(a) The Trustee shall not be under any obligation to effect or maintain insurance or to renew any policies of insurance or to inquire as to the sufficiency of any policies of insurance carried by the Board or to report, or make or file claims or proof of loss for, any loss or damage insured against or which may occur, or to keep itself informed or advised as to the payment of any taxes or assessments, or to require any such payment to be made. The Trustee shall have no responsibility in respect of the validity, sufficiency, due execution or acknowledgment of this Supplemental Indenture or the validity or sufficiency of the security provided hereunder or in respect of the validity of the Series 2013 Bonds or the due execution or issuance thereof, except as to the authentication thereof.

(b) The Trustee shall not be under any obligation to see that any duties herein imposed upon any party other than itself, or any covenants herein contained on the part of any party other than itself to be performed, shall be done or performed, and the Trustee shall be under no obligation for failure to see that any such duties or covenants are so done or performed.

(c) The Trustee shall not be liable or responsible because of the failure of the Authority or of any of its employees or agents to make any collections or deposits or to perform any act herein required of the Authority or because of the loss of any moneys arising through the insolvency or the act or default or omission of any other depository in which such moneys shall have been deposited under the provisions of this Supplemental Indenture. The Trustee shall not be responsible for the application of any of the proceeds of the Series 2013 Bonds or any other moneys deposited with it and paid out, withdrawn or transferred hereunder if such application, payment, withdrawal or transfer shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this Supplemental Indenture.

(d) The immunities and exemptions from liability of the Trustee hereunder shall extend to its directors, officers, employees and agents.

Section 9.4 Compensation. The Trustee shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for its ordinary services hereunder consistent with the results of the process by which the Trustee was selected and any extraordinary services rendered hereunder and to reimbursement for all expenses incurred in good faith hereunder, including the compensation, expenses and disbursements of such agents, representatives, experts and counsel as the Trustee may employ in connection with the exercise and performance of its powers and duties hereunder. Subject to the provisions of any contract relating to the compensation of the Trustee, the Authority shall cause the Board to pay to the Trustee as administrative expenses its reasonable fees and charges as Additional Rent in accordance with the Facilities Lease upon the written request of the Trustee and provided the Authority shall be furnished with sufficient funds to pay all costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by the Authority in connection therewith as such costs and expenses accrue. If the Board shall fail to make any payment required by this Section, the Trustee may, but shall be under no obligation to, make such payment from any moneys in its possession under the provisions of this Supplemental Indenture, and the Trustee shall be entitled to a preference therefor over any of the Series 2013 Bonds Outstanding hereunder.

Section 9.5 Trustee to Preserve Records. All records and files pertaining to the Corporation in the custody of the Trustee shall be open at all reasonable times to the inspection of the Authority, the Board, the Corporation and their agents and representatives.

Section 9.6 Trustee May be Bondholder. The Trustee and its directors, officers, employees or agents may in good faith buy, sell, own, hold and deal in any of the Series 2013 Bonds issued under and secured by this Supplemental Indenture, and may join in the capacity of a Bondholder in any action which any Bondholder may be entitled to take with like effect as if such institution were not the Trustee under this Supplemental Indenture.

Section 9.7 Trustee Not Responsible for Recitals. The recitals, statements and representations contained herein and in the Series 2013 Bonds shall be taken and construed as made by and on the part of the Authority and not by the Trustee, and the Trustee shall not be under any responsibility for the correctness of the same.

Section 9.8 Trustee Responsible for Reinscription. The Trustee, as set forth in the Loan Agreement, is required to reinscribe the Loan Agreement and the Mortgage at such times as shall be necessary to preserve the lien thereof. Under the Loan Agreement, the Corporation has covenanted to cooperate with the Trustee with regard to the foregoing.

Section 9.9 Trustee May Rely on Certificates. Subject to the provisions of Section 9.1(b), the Trustee shall be protected and shall incur no liability in acting or proceeding, or in not acting or not proceeding, in good faith, reasonably and in accordance with the terms of this Supplemental Indenture, upon any resolution, order, notice, request, consent, waiver, certificate, statement, affidavit, requisition, bond or other paper or document which it shall in good faith reasonably believe to be genuine and to have been adopted or signed by the proper board or person or to have been prepared and furnished pursuant to any of the provisions of the Loan Agreement or this Supplemental Indenture, or upon the written opinion of any attorney, engineer, accountant or other expert believed by it to be qualified in relation to the subject matter, and the Trustee shall not be under any duty to make any investigation or inquiry as to any statements contained or matters referred to in any such instrument.

ARTICLE XI
COVENANTS OF AUTHORITY

Section 11.1 Payment of Principal, Premium and Interest. The Authority covenants that it will promptly pay, or cause to be paid, the principal of, premium, if any, and the interest on every Series 2013 Bond at the places, on the dates and in the manner provided herein and in said Series 2013 Bonds according to the true intent and meaning thereof but solely from the revenues of the Trust Estate and not from any other fund or source. The Authority further covenants that it will faithfully perform at all times all of its covenants, undertakings and agreements contained in this Supplemental Indenture, the Loan Agreement or in any Series 2013 Bond executed, authenticated and delivered hereunder or in any proceedings of the Authority pertaining thereto.

Section 11.2 Additional Security. The Authority covenants, whenever and so often as reasonably required to do so by the Trustee, promptly to execute and deliver or cause to be delivered all such other and further instruments, documents or assurances, and to promptly do or cause to be done all such other further things, as may be necessary or reasonably required in order to further and more fully vest in the Trustee and the owners of the Series 2013 Bonds all rights, interest, powers, benefits, privileges and advantages conferred or intended to be conferred upon them by this Supplemental Indenture.

Section 11.3 Cure Title Defects. The Authority covenants to promptly, upon the request of the Trustee, from time to time, take or cause to be taken such action as may be necessary or proper to remedy or cure any material defect in or cloud upon the title to the Trust Estate or any part thereof, whether now existing or hereafter developing, and to prosecute all such suits, actions and other proceedings as may be appropriate for such purpose and to indemnify and save the Trustee and every owner of Series 2013 Bonds, solely from the Trust Estate, harmless from all loss, cost, damage and expense, including attorneys' fees, which they or either of them may ever incur by reason of any such defect, cloud, suit, action or proceedings.

Section 11.4 Defend Against Actions. The Authority covenants to defend or cause to be defended every suit, action or proceeding at any time brought against the Trustee or any owner of Series 2013 Bonds upon any claim arising out of the receipt, application or disbursement of any of the revenues of the Trust Estate or involving the Authority's, the Trustee's or such Bondholders' rights under this Supplemental Indenture or the Loan Agreement and to indemnify and save harmless, solely from the Trust Estate, the Trustee and Bondholders against any and all liability claimed or asserted by any person whomsoever, arising out of such receipt, application or disbursement of any such revenues; provided, however, that the Trustee or any owner of Series 2013 Bonds at its or his election may appear in and defend against any such suit, action or proceeding; and notwithstanding any contrary provision hereof, this covenant shall continue and remain in full force and effect until all indebtedness, liabilities, obligations and other sums secured hereby have been fully paid and satisfied, and this Supplemental Indenture has been released of record and the lien hereof discharged.

Section 11.5 Non-Impairment of Security. The Authority covenants that so long as any of the Series 2013 Bonds issued pursuant to this Supplemental Indenture are outstanding and unpaid, the Authority will not voluntarily consent to any amendment to the Loan Agreement or otherwise take any action which will reduce the amount of moneys made available thereunder to the Trustee, or which will in any manner impair or adversely affect the rights of the Authority or the Trustee or the security provided by this Supplemental Indenture to the owners from time to time of the Series 2013 Bonds.

Section 11.6 Authority's Obligation Limited. Nothing in the Loan Agreement or this Supplemental Indenture is intended to require or obligate nor shall anything therein be interpreted to require or obligate the Authority for any purpose or at any time whatsoever, to provide, apply or expend any funds coming into the hands of the Authority other than from the Trust Estate.

ARTICLE XII DEFEASANCE

Section 12.1 Payment.

(a) When all of the Series 2013 Bonds shall have been paid and discharged, and there shall have been paid all fees and charges of the Trustee due or to become due through the date on which the last of the Series 2013 Bonds is retired, then this Supplemental Indenture shall cease, terminate and become null and void, and thereupon the Trustee shall release this Supplemental Indenture including the cancellation and discharge of the lien hereof, and execute and deliver to the Authority such instruments in writing as shall be requisite to satisfy the lien hereof and, if necessary, to enter on the records such satisfaction and discharge and to re-convey to the Authority any property or interest therein or other rights hereby conveyed and such other instruments to evidence such release and discharge as may be reasonably required by the Authority, and the Trustee shall assign and deliver to the Authority any property at the time subject to the lien of this Supplemental Indenture which may then be in its possession, except amounts in any Fund otherwise required to be paid by this Supplemental Indenture and except such cash and investments as are held by the Trustee for the payment of interest and premium, if any, on and retirement of the Series 2013 Bonds.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the obligation of the Corporation to pay the fees and expenses of the Trustee in accordance with the terms of this Supplemental Indenture shall survive the defeasance of the Series 2013 Bonds, the discharge of this Supplemental Indenture and the termination of the Loan Agreement.

Section 12.2 Provision for Payment. Any Series 2013 Bonds shall be deemed to have been paid and discharged within the meaning of Section 12.1, if the Trustee, or an escrow trustee, shall hold, in trust for and irrevocably committed thereto, moneys or Defeasance Obligations of such maturities and interest payment dates and bearing such interest as will, without further investment or reinvestment of either the principal amount thereof or the interest earnings therefrom (likewise to be held in trust and committed, except as hereinafter provided), be sufficient for the payment of such Series 2013 Bonds, at their maturity or redemption date, of the principal thereof, together with the redemption premium, if any, and interest accrued to the date of maturity or redemption, as the case may be, or if default in such payment shall have occurred on such date then to the date of the tender of such payment; provided, that if any Series 2013 Bonds are to be redeemed prior to the maturity thereof, notice of such redemption shall have been duly given or provisions satisfactory to the Trustee shall have been duly made for the giving of such notice. Any moneys held in accordance with the provisions of this Section shall be invested only in Defeasance Obligations the maturities or redemption dates and interest payment dates of which, at the option of the owner, shall coincide as nearly as practicable with, but not later than, the time or times at which said moneys will be required for the aforesaid purposes. Any income or interest earned by the Defeasance Obligations held under this Section shall, as determined by the Trustee or the escrow trustee, to the extent not required for the purposes of this Section, be paid to the Corporation for the Board as overpayment of Payments.

Section 12.3 Certifications. The Authority and the Corporation covenant and agree that they will furnish to the Trustee:

(a) Certificates or opinions made by officers of the Authority and the Corporation required by this Supplemental Indenture stating that provisions of this Article relating to the satisfaction and discharge of this Supplemental Indenture have been fulfilled; and

(b) An opinion of Bond Counsel to the effect that the payment of the Series 2013 Bonds has been provided for in the manner set forth in this Supplemental Indenture and the Loan Agreement and that all obligations of the Authority and the Corporation with respect to the Series 2013 Bonds have been discharged and satisfied; and

(c) In the case of an advance refunding, a mathematical verification prepared by a nationally recognized law firm or firm of independent certified public accountants (or other verification agent satisfactory to the Trustee) that the Defeasance Obligations are sufficient to pay the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Series 2013 Bonds which are defeased.

ARTICLE XIII MISCELLANEOUS

Nothing in this Supplemental Indenture expressed or implied, is intended or shall be construed to confer upon, or give to, any person or corporation, other than the Authority, the Trustee, the Corporation and the Bondholders, any right, remedy or claim or by reason of this Supplemental Indenture or any covenant, agreement, condition or stipulation therein.

Section 13.4 No Recourse on the Series 2013 Bonds. No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on the Series 2013 Bonds or for any claim based thereunder or under this Supplemental Indenture against any trustee, director, officer, employee or agent of the Authority or of the Trustee.

If any clause, provision or Section of this Supplemental Indenture be held illegal or invalid by any court, the invalidity of such clause, provision or Section shall not affect any of the remaining clauses, provisions or Sections hereof and this Supplemental Indenture shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal or invalid clause, provision or Section had not been contained herein. In case any agreement or obligation contained in this Supplemental Indenture be held to be in violation of law, then such agreement or obligation shall be deemed to be the agreement or obligation of the Authority, the Corporation, or the Board, as the case may be, only to the extent permitted by law.

The Trustee shall have no responsibility for the failure of the Board or the State to report any material event and shall have no responsibility as to any determination by the Board or the State of whether any event would constitute material information for holders of the Series 2013 Bonds; provided, however, that the Trustee hereby agrees to notify the Board in writing on or before November 1 of each year, commencing November 1, 2014, of the Board's obligation to comply with the requirements of Section (b)(5)(i) of Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 15c2-12.

This Series 2013 Bond shall not be valid or become obligatory for any purpose or be entitled to any security or benefit under the Indenture until the certificate of authentication hereon shall have been signed by a duly authorized representative of the Trustee.

This Series 2013 Bond is one of the duly authorized issue of the Authority’s Revenue Refunding Bonds (Southeastern Louisiana University Student Housing/University Facilities, Inc. Project) Series 2013 (the “Series 2013 Bonds”), issued under and secured by the Indenture (hereinafter defined) pursuant to which the Authority is issuing $40,910,000 aggregate principal amount of said revenue bonds on behalf of University Facilities, Inc., a nonprofit corporation (the “Corporation”) for the purpose of: (i) refunding the Series 2004A Bonds (as hereinafter defined) and (ii) paying the costs of issuance of the Series 2013 Bonds.

Pursuant to the Original Indenture (as hereinafter defined), the Authority issued its $60,985,000 Revenue Bonds (Southeastern Louisiana University Student Housing/University Facilities, Inc. Project) Series 2004A (the “Series 2004A Bonds”) for the purposes of financing the cost of acquiring immovable property and financing the development, design, construction and equipping of new student housing facilities (the “Facilities”) for Southeastern Louisiana University (the “University”) located on immovable property owned by, or subject to the supervision and management of the Board of Supervisors for the University of Louisiana System (the “Board”) in the City of Hammond, Parish of Tangipahoa, Louisiana, which Facilities have been leased to the Board on behalf of the University.

The proceeds of the Series 2013 Bonds have been loaned to the Corporation pursuant to a Loan and Assignment Agreement dated as of August 1, 2004 (the “Original Loan Agreement”), as supplemented and amended by a First Supplemental Loan and Assignment Agreement dated as of November 1, 2013 (the “Supplemental Loan Agreement” and, together with the Original Loan Agreement, the “Loan Agreement”), each between the Authority and the Corporation, for the foregoing purposes. The Board of Supervisors for the University of Louisiana System (the “Board”), acting on behalf of the University, has leased the land upon which the Facilities are located on the campus of the University (the “Land”) and the Facilities to the Corporation pursuant to a Ground and Buildings Lease Agreement dated as of August 1, 2004 (the “Original Ground Lease”), as supplemented and amended by the First Amendment to Ground and Buildings Lease Agreement dated as of March 1, 2007 (the “First Amendment to Ground Lease”), as supplemented and amended by a Second Amendment to Ground and Buildings Lease Agreement dated as of June 12, 2012 (the “Second Amendment to Ground Lease”), as further supplemented and amended by a Third Supplemental Ground and Buildings Lease Agreement dated as of November 1, 2013 (the “Third Supplemental Ground Lease” and, together with the Original Ground Lease, the First Amendment to Ground Lease and the Second Amendment to Ground Lease, the “Ground Lease”) each by and between the Board and the Corporation, and has leased the Facilities from the Corporation pursuant to an Agreement to Lease with Option to Purchase dated as of August 1, 2004 (the “Original Facilities Lease”), as supplemented and amended by a First Amendment to Agreement to Lease with Option to Purchase dated as of March 1, 2007 (the “First Amendment to Facilities Lease”), as further supplemented and amended by a Second Amendment to Agreement to Lease with Option to Purchase dated as of June 12, 2012 (the “Second Amendment to Facilities Lease”), as further supplemented and amended by a Third Supplemental Agreement to Lease with Option to Purchase dated as of November 1, 2013 (the “Third Supplemental Facilities Lease” and, together with the Original Facilities Lease, the First Amendment to Facilities Lease and the Second Amendment to Facilities Lease, the “Facilities Lease”) each by and between the Corporation and the Board.

The Series 2013 Bonds are issued pursuant to the laws of the State, particularly Chapter 10-D of Title 33 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, as amended (La. R.S. 33:4548.1 through 4548.16, inclusive) (the “LCDA Act”), Chapters 14 and 14-A of Title 39 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, as amended (the “Refunding Act” and, together with the LCDA Act, the “Act”) and pursuant to a Trust Indenture dated August 1, 2004 (the “Original Indenture”), as supplemented and amended by a First Supplemental Trust Indenture dated as of November 1, 2013 (the “Supplemental Indenture” and, together with the Original Indenture, the “Indenture”), each between the Authority and the Trustee, a fully executed counterpart of which is on file in the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee, and to which Indenture reference is hereby made for a more complete description of the assigned revenues constituting the Trust Estate, the nature and extent of the security, the terms and conditions under which the Series 2013 Bonds are issued and secured, the terms and conditions under which Additional Bonds may be issued and secured, the rights, duties and immunities of the Trustee and the rights of the registered owners of the Series 2013 Bonds. The registered owner of this Series 2013 Bond shall have no rights to enforce the provisions of the Indenture or to institute action to enforce the covenants therein, or to take any action with respect to any event of default under the Indenture, or to institute, appear in or defend any suit or other proceeding with respect thereto, except as provided in the Indenture, and by acceptance of this Series 2013 Bond, the owner hereof assents to all of the provisions of the Indenture and the Assignment (hereinafter defined). All terms not defined herein shall have the meanings assigned thereto in the Indenture.

The Series 2013 Bonds have been issued on a parity with the Series 2004B Bonds under the Indenture.

The Series 2013 Bonds are issuable as fully registered bonds without coupons, in Authorized Denominations, and shall be numbered from No. R-1 upwards. The Series 2013 Bonds are limited and special revenue obligations of the Authority and are payable solely from (i) payments received by the Authority from the Corporation pursuant to the Agreement (except however, the Authority’s rights to exculpation, indemnification and payment of expenses by the Corporation under the Agreement) and (ii) all funds held by the Trustee under the Indenture and available for such payment, said payments and funds being herein referred to as the “Trust Estate.”

The Agreement, a fully executed counterpart of which is on file in the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee, provides that the Corporation is unconditionally obligated to make payments, but solely from the Payments (as defined in the Agreement) in an aggregate amount sufficient, for the payment in full of the principal and interest of all Series 2013 Bonds issued and outstanding under the Indenture, to the date of payment thereof, and certain costs, expenses and charges of the Authority and the Trustee. The Agreement imposes upon the Corporation certain obligations respecting the use and operation of its Facilities and the maintenance and repair of said Facilities.

THE SERIES 2013 BONDS AND THE INTEREST THEREON ARE LIMITED AND SPECIAL REVENUE OBLIGATIONS OF THE ISSUER PAYABLE SOLELY FROM THE TRUST ESTATE. THE SERIES 2013 BONDS SHALL NOT BE DEEMED TO CONSTITUTE A DEBT OR LIABILITY OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR OF ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF WITHIN THE MEANING OF ANY STATE CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISION OR STATUTORY LIMITATION AND SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE A PLEDGE OF THE FAITH AND CREDIT OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR OF ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF, BUT SHALL BE PAYABLE SOLELY FROM THE FUNDS PROVIDED FOR IN THE LOAN AGREEMENT AND THE INDENTURE. THE ISSUANCE OF THE SERIES 2013 BONDS SHALL NOT DIRECTLY, INDIRECTLY OR CONTINGENTLY OBLIGATE THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF TO LEVY ANY TAXES OR TO MAKE ANY APPROPRIATION OF THEIR PAYMENT. THE ISSUER HAS NO POWER TO TAX.

As long as any of the Series 2013 Bonds remain outstanding, there shall be permitted the exchange of Series 2013 Bonds at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee. Any Series 2013 Bond or Series 2013 Bonds upon surrender thereof at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Trustee, duly executed by the registered owner or his legal representative duly authorized in writing, may, at the option of the registered owner thereof, be exchanged for an equal aggregate principal amount of other Bonds in Authorized Denominations.

For every such exchange or transfer of Series 2013 Bonds, the Authority or the Trustee may make a charge sufficient to reimburse it for any tax, fee or other governmental charge required to be paid with respect to such exchange or transfer, which sum or sums shall be paid by the person requesting such exchange or transfer as a condition precedent to the exercise of the privilege of making such exchange or transfer. The Trustee shall not be required to register the transfer or exchange of (a) any Series 2013 Bonds during the fifteen (15) day period next preceding the selection of Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed and thereafter until the date of the mailing of a notice of redemption of Series 2013 Bonds selected for redemption, or (b) any Series 2013 Bonds selected, called or being called for redemption in whole or in part, except in the case of any Series 2013 Bond to be redeemed in part, the portion thereof not so to be redeemed.

REDEMPTION PROVISIONS

Optional Redemption

The Series 2013 Bonds maturing August 1, 2024 and thereafter are subject to redemption prior to maturity at the option of the Corporation, upon written direction to the Authority, on or after August 1, 2023 as a whole at any time, or in part on any Interest Payment Date, the maturity of said Bonds to be redeemed to be designated by the Corporation and selected within a maturity by the Trustee in such manner as the Trustee may determine, at the redemption price of 100% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest to the redemption date.

Mandatory Redemption

(i) If the Board shall purchase the Corporation's leasehold interest in the Facilities pursuant to the Facilities Lease, the Series 2013 Bonds shall be redeemed as a whole and shall be redeemed on the later of (a) August 1, 2014, or (b) the earliest practicable date, but not more than sixty (60) days, after such purchase, and in any event, at a price equal to the principal amount of the Series 2013 Bonds so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of redemption, without premium.

(ii) The Series 2013 Bonds shall be redeemed as a whole or in part (in Authorized Denominations) on the first Interest Payment Date at least thirty (30) days after the Trustee receives notice that any insurance proceeds or proceeds received as a result of Expropriation proceedings with respect to the Facilities will not be applied to the restoration, repair or reconstruction of the Facilities at a price equal to the principal amount of the Series 2013 Bonds so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the date of redemption, without premium, in an aggregate principal amount equal to the amount of such insurance proceeds, or Expropriation proceeds not used for restoration, repair or reconstruction. If the amount of any insurance proceeds or Expropriation proceeds to be applied in redemption of the Series 2013 Bonds is not an Authorized Denomination, the principal amount of Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed pursuant to this subsection (b) shall be decreased to the next lower Authorized Denomination. The Series 2004 Bonds will be so redeemed in the following order: first, Auction Rate Bonds; second, Variable Rate Bonds, third, Series 2004C Bonds; fourth, Series 2004B Bonds that bear interest at a Fixed Rate; and fifth, the Series 2013 Bonds.

Mandatory Sinking Fund Redemption.

The Series 2013 Bonds maturing on August 1, 2026 shall be subject to mandatory redemption and payment prior to maturity on August 1 in each of the years set forth below, at 100% of the principal amounts plus accrued interest to the redemption date, without premium, as follows:

| Year | Principal Amount |
|-------------|-------------------------|
| 2025 | $ 4,295,000 |

*Final Maturity

If on any occasion less than all of the Series 2013 Bonds then outstanding shall be redeemed pursuant to the optional or mandatory redemption provisions described in the Indenture, then the principal amount of the Series 2013 Bonds so redeemed shall be considered to have satisfied a portion of the mandatory sinking fund redemptions required by the above tables. The principal amounts required by the tables above shall be adjusted downward in the amount of principal redeemed in chronological order beginning on the mandatory sinking fund redemption date immediately succeeding the date of such optional redemption.

Unless otherwise specified above, if less than all of the Series 2013 Bonds shall be called for redemption, the maturity of the Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed shall be designated by the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, and selected by the Trustee within a maturity in such manner as the Trustee may determine; provided, however, that the portion of any Series 2013 Bond to be redeemed shall be in the principal amount of an Authorized Denomination. If a portion of any Series 2013 Bond shall be called for redemption, a new Series 2013 Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof shall be issued to the registered owner upon the surrender thereof.

At least thirty (30) days before the redemption date of any Series 2013 Bonds redeemed other than by mandatory sinking fund redemption, the Trustee shall cause a notice of any such redemption, signed by an authorized officer of the Trustee to be mailed, postage prepaid, to all Bondholders of record owning Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed in whole or in part, at their addresses as they appear on the Bond Register, but any defect in such mailing of any such notice shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for such redemption. Each such notice shall set forth the date fixed for redemption, the redemption price to be paid and, if less than all of the Series 2013 Bonds then outstanding shall be called for redemption, the numbers of such Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed and, in the case of Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed in part only, the portion of the principal amount thereof to be redeemed. In case any Series 2013 Bond is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption shall state also that on or after the redemption date, upon surrender of such Series 2013 Bond, a new Series 2013 Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion of such Series 2013 Bond will be issued.

Modifications or alterations of the Indenture or any agreement supplemental thereto or of the Agreement or any agreement supplemental thereto may be made only to the extent and in the circumstances permitted by the Indenture and the Agreement. So long as no event of nonperformance under the Agreement has occurred and is continuing, no such supplement shall become effective unless the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, shall have given its prior written approval.

It is hereby certified, recited and declared that all acts, conditions and things required by the Constitution and laws of the State to exist, to have happened and to have been performed, precedent to and in the execution and delivery of the Indenture and the issuance of this Series 2013 Bond, do exist, have happened and have been performed in regular and due form as required by law.

In the event of any such default, such defaulted interest shall be payable on a payment date established by the Trustee to the persons in whose names the Bonds are registered at the close of business on a special record date for the payment of such defaulted interest established by notice mailed by the Trustee to the registered owners of the Bonds not less than fifteen (15) days preceding such special record date. Payment as aforesaid shall be made in such coin or currency of the United States of America as, at the respective times of payment, is legal tender for the payment of public and private debts.

Section 3.3 Form of Bonds. The Series 2004A Bonds issued under this Indenture shall be substantially in the form set forth in Exhibit A-1 attached hereto and made a part hereof, the Series 2004B Bonds issued under this Indenture shall be substantially in the form set forth in Exhibit A-2 attached hereto and made a part hereof and the Series 2004C Bonds issued under this Indenture shall be substantially in the form set forth in Exhibit A-3 attached hereto and made part hereof, with such appropriate variations, additions, omissions and insertions as are permitted or required by this Indenture. All Bonds may have endorsed thereon such legends or text as may be necessary or appropriate to conform to any applicable rules and regulations of any governmental authority or of any securities exchange on which the Bonds may be listed or any usage or requirement of law with respect thereto. All Bonds may bear identifying CUSIP numbers, but any failure to include such numbers or any error in any CUSIP number so included shall not in any way affect the validity of the Bonds. The form of Series 2004B Bonds effective after a Variable Rate Conversion shall be attached to the supplemental indenture executed in connection with such Variable Rate Conversion.

Section 3.4 Redemption of Bonds.

(a) Optional Redemption. (i) The Series 2004A Bonds maturing on and after August 1, 2015, and, after the Fixed Rate Conversion Date, the Series 2004B Bonds shall be subject to redemption prior to maturity, at the option of the Issuer, upon written direction from the Board, on or after August 1, 2014, as a whole or in part at any time, and in any order of maturity directed in writing by the University Representative, and at a price equal to the principal amount thereof so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of redemption, without premium.

(ii) The Auction Rate Bonds shall be subject to redemption at the option of the Issuer upon the written direction of the Board, as a whole or in part on the first day of any Auction Period if there are sufficient moneys to make such redemption on such date, at a price equal to the principal amount thereof so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of redemption, without premium.

(iii) The Series 2004B Bonds are subject to redemption in part at the option of the Issuer, upon written direction from the Board, on any Interest Payment Date from amounts transferred by the Trustee from the Project Fund to the Principal Account of the Debt Service Fund upon completion of construction of the Facilities in accordance with Section 4.19 hereof, the Series 2004B Bonds to be redeemed shall be selected by the Trustee in such manner as the Trustee may determine, at a price equal to the principal of the Bonds so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of redemption, without premium.

(b) Mandatory Redemption. (i) If the Board shall purchase the Corporation's leasehold interest in the Facilities pursuant to Section 23 of the Facilities Lease, the Series 2004 Bonds shall be redeemed as a whole. With respect to (i) any Auction Rate Bonds and any Variable Rate Bonds, the same shall be redeemed on the first respective Interest Payment Date or Dates after such purchase and (ii) with respect to the Series 2004A Bonds, the Series 2004B Bonds bearing interest at a Fixed Rate, and the Series 2004C Bonds, the same shall be redeemed on the later of (a) August 1, 2014, or (b) the earliest practicable date, but not more than sixty (60) days, after such purchase, and in any event, at a price equal to the principal amount of the Series 2004 Bonds so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of redemption, without premium.

(ii) The Series 2004 Bonds shall be redeemed as a whole or in part (in Authorized Denominations) on the first Interest Payment Date at least thirty (30) days after the Trustee receives notice that any insurance proceeds or proceeds received as a result of Expropriation proceedings with respect to the Facilities will not be applied to the restoration, repair or reconstruction of the Facilities at a price equal to the principal amount of the Bonds so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the date of redemption, without premium, in an aggregate principal amount equal to the amount of such insurance proceeds, or Expropriation proceeds not used for restoration, repair or reconstruction. If the amount of any insurance proceeds or Expropriation proceeds to be applied in redemption of the Bonds is not an Authorized Denomination, the principal amount of Bonds to be redeemed pursuant to this subsection (b) shall be decreased to the next lower Authorized Denomination. The Series 2004 Bonds will be so redeemed in the following order: first, Auction Rate Bonds; second, Variable Rate Bonds, third, Series 2004C Bonds; fourth, Series 2004B Bonds that bear interest at a Fixed Rate; and fifth, Series 2004A Bonds.

| 2031 | 3,350,000 |

If on any occasion less than all of the Series 2004A Bonds then outstanding shall be redeemed pursuant to the optional or mandatory redemption provisions described in Section 3.4(a)(i) hereof or Section 3.4(b) hereof, then the principal amount of the Series 2004A Bonds so redeemed shall be considered to have satisfied a portion of the mandatory sinking fund redemptions required by the above tables. The principal amounts required by the tables above shall be adjusted downward in the amount of principal redeemed in chronological order beginning on the mandatory sinking fund redemption date immediately succeeding the date of such optional redemption.

(ii) The Series 2004B Bonds shall be subject to mandatory redemption and payment on a pro rata basis prior to maturity on August 1 in each of the years set forth below at a price equal to the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest to the redemption date, without premium:

The principal amounts required by the table above shall be adjusted downward in the amount of principal redeemed in chronological order beginning on the mandatory sinking fund redemption date immediately succeeding the date of such optional or mandatory redemption.

(d) Any Additional Bonds issued under the provisions of Article V of this Indenture may be made subject to redemption, either in whole or in part and at such times and prices, as may be provided in the resolution or resolutions of the Issuer authorizing the issuance of such Additional Bonds. Any Series 2004B Bonds converted to Variable Rate Bonds shall be subject to redemption as provided in the supplemental indenture executed in connection with such Variable Rate Conversion.

(e) Unless otherwise specified above, if less than all of the Bonds shall be called for redemption, the maturity of the Bonds to be redeemed shall be designated by the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, and selected by the Trustee within a maturity in such manner as the Trustee may determine; provided, however, that the portion of any Bond to be redeemed shall be in the principal amount of an Authorized Denomination. If a portion of any Bond shall be called for redemption, a new Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof shall be issued to the registered owner upon the surrender thereof.

(f) At least thirty (30) days before the redemption date of any Bonds redeemed other than by mandatory sinking fund redemption, the Trustee shall cause a notice of any such redemption, signed by an authorized officer of the Trustee to be mailed, postage prepaid, to all Bondholders of record owning Bonds to be redeemed in whole or in part, at their addresses as they appear on the Bond Register, but any defect in such mailing of any such notice shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for such redemption. Each such notice shall set forth the date fixed for redemption, the redemption price to be paid and, if less than all of the Bonds then outstanding shall be called for redemption, the numbers of such Bonds to be redeemed and, in the case of Bonds to be redeemed in part only, the portion of the principal amount thereof to be redeemed. In case any Bond is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption shall state also that on or after the redemption date, upon surrender of such Bond, a new Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion of such Bond will be issued.

(g) Any notice of redemption may, at the direction of the Issuer upon the written request of the Board, state that the redemption to be effected is conditioned upon the receipt by the Trustee on or prior to the redemption date of sufficient and legally available funds to pay the redemption price of the Bonds to be redeemed and that if such funds are not so received or are not so legally available such notice shall be of no force or effect and such Bonds shall not be required to be redeemed. In the event that such notice contains such a condition and sufficient funds to pay the redemption price of such Bonds shall not be received by the Trustee on or prior to the redemption date, the redemption shall not be made and the Trustee shall within a reasonable time thereafter give notice, in the manner in which the notice of redemption shall have been given, that such funds were not so received.

(h) On the date so designated for redemption, notice having been given in the manner and under the conditions hereinabove provided and money for payment of the redemption price being held in the Debt Service Fund in trust for the owners of the Bonds or portions thereof to be redeemed, the Bonds or portions of Bonds so called for redemption shall become and be due and payable at the redemption price provided for redemption of such Bonds or portions of Bonds on such date, interest on the Bonds or portions of Bonds so called for redemption shall cease to accrue, such Bonds or portions of Bonds shall cease to be entitled to any benefit or security under this Indenture, and the owners of such Bonds or portions of Bonds shall not have rights in respect thereof except to receive payment of the redemption price thereof and, to the extent provided in the next paragraph, to receive Bonds for any unredeemed portions of Bonds.

(i) In case part, but not all, of an outstanding Bond shall be selected for redemption, the registered owner thereof or his legal representative shall present and surrender such Bond to the Trustee for payment of the principal amount thereof so called for redemption, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver to or upon the order of such registered owner or his legal representative, without charge therefor, for the unredeemed portion of the principal amount of the Bond so surrendered, a new Bond.

(j) Bonds and portions of Bonds which have been duly called for redemption under the provisions of this Article, or with respect to which irrevocable instructions to call for redemption have been given to the Trustee in form satisfactory to it, and for the payment of the redemption price for which moneys, or Defeasance Obligations, shall be held by the Trustee in a segregated account in trust for the owners of the Bonds or portions thereof to be redeemed, shall not thereafter be deemed to be outstanding under the provisions of this Indenture and shall cease to be entitled to any security or benefit under this Indenture other than the right to receive payment from such moneys.

Section 3.5 Execution; Limitation of Liability. The Bonds shall be executed on behalf of the Issuer with the manual or facsimile signatures of the Chairman or Vice Chairman and the Secretary/Treasurer of the Issuer, and shall have impressed or imprinted thereon the official seal of the Issuer or a facsimile thereof. The Bonds, together with interest and premium, if any, thereon, shall not constitute a debt of the State or any political subdivision thereof. The Bonds, together with interest thereon, shall be limited obligations of the Issuer and shall be secured by and payable solely out of revenues derived from the Payments made pursuant to the Agreement and Trust Estate pledged hereunder. The Issuer shall not be obligated to pay the principal of the Bonds or the interest or premium, if any, thereon or other costs incidental thereto except from payments made pursuant to the Agreement. In case any officer of the Issuer whose signature or whose facsimile signature shall appear on the Bonds shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such Bonds, such signature or the facsimile signature thereof shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if he had remained in office until delivery. THE BONDS AND THE INTEREST THEREON ARE LIMITED AND SPECIAL REVENUE OBLIGATIONS OF THE ISSUER PAYABLE SOLELY FROM THE TRUST ESTATE. THE BONDS SHALL NOT BE DEEMED TO CONSTITUTE A DEBT OR LIABILITY OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR OF ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF WITHIN THE MEANING OF ANY STATE CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISION OR STATUTORY LIMITATION AND SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE A PLEDGE OF THE FAITH AND CREDIT OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR OF ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF, BUT SHALL BE PAYABLE SOLELY FROM THE FUNDS PROVIDED FOR IN THE LOAN AGREEMENT AND THIS INDENTURE. THE ISSUANCE OF THE BONDS SHALL NOT DIRECTLY, INDIRECTLY OR CONTINGENTLY

OBLIGATE THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF TO LEVY ANY TAXES OR TO MAKE ANY APPROPRIATION OF THEIR PAYMENT. THE ISSUER HAS NO POWER TO TAX.

Section 3.6 Authentication. No Bond shall be valid or obligatory for any purpose or be entitled to any security or benefit under this Indenture unless and until a certificate of authentication substantially in the form set forth in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof shall have been duly executed by a duly authorized representative of the Trustee, and such executed certificate of the Trustee upon any such Bond shall be conclusive evidence that such Bond has been authenticated and delivered under this Indenture. The Trustee's certificate of authentication on any Bond shall be deemed to have been executed by it if signed by an authorized representative of the Trustee, but it shall not be necessary that the same representative sign the certificate of authentication on all of the Bonds issued hereunder.

Section 3.7 Mutilated, Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Bonds. In the event any outstanding Bond, whether temporary or definitive, is mutilated, lost, stolen or destroyed, the Issuer may execute and, upon its request, the Trustee may authenticate a new Bond of the same principal amount and of like tenor as the mutilated, lost or stolen or destroyed Bond; provided that, in the case of any mutilated Bond, such mutilated Bond shall first be surrendered to the Trustee, and in the case of any lost, stolen or destroyed Bond, there shall be first furnished to the Issuer and the Trustee evidence of such loss, theft or destruction in form satisfactory to the Issuer and the Trustee, together with indemnity satisfactory to them. In the event any such Bond shall have matured, instead of issuing a substitute Bond the Issuer may authorize the payment of the same. The Issuer and the Trustee may charge the owner of such Bond with their reasonable fees and expenses in this connection. Any Bond issued under the provisions of this Section 3.7 in lieu of any Bond alleged to be destroyed, lost or stolen shall constitute an original additional contractual obligation on the part of the Issuer, whether or not the Bond so alleged to be destroyed, lost or stolen be at any time enforceable by anyone, and shall be equally and proportionately entitled to the benefits of this Indenture together with all other Bonds in substitution for which such Bonds were issued.

Section 3.8 Registration of Bonds. The Trustee shall be the bond registrar for the Bonds. So long as any of the Bonds shall remain outstanding, there shall be maintained and kept for the Issuer, at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee, the Bond Register for the registration and transfer of the Bonds and, upon presentation thereof for such purpose at said office, the Trustee shall register or cause to be registered therein, and permit to be transferred thereon, under such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, any Bond.

Each Bond shall be transferable only upon the Bond Register at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee at the written request of the registered owner thereof or his legal representative duly authorized in writing upon surrender thereof, together with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Trustee duly executed by the registered owner or his legal representative duly authorized in writing. Upon the transfer of any such Bond, the Trustee shall issue in the name of the transferee, in authorized denominations, one or more Bonds of the same aggregate principal amount as the surrendered Bonds.

Section 3.9 Persons Treated as Owners. The Issuer and the Trustee may, for the purpose of receiving payment of, or on account of, the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on any Bond and for all other purposes, deem and treat the person in whose name such Bond shall be registered upon the Bond Register as the absolute owner of such Bond, whether or not such Bond is overdue, and neither the Issuer nor the Trustee shall be affected by any notice to the contrary.

Payment made to the person deemed to be the owner of any Bond for the purpose of such payment in accordance with the provisions of this Section 3.9 shall be valid and effectual, to the extent of the sum or sums so paid, to satisfy and discharge the liability upon such Bond in respect of which such payment was made.

Section 3.10 Exchange and Transfer of Bonds. As long as any of the Bonds remain outstanding, there shall be permitted the exchange of Bonds at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee. Any Bond or Bonds upon surrender thereof at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Trustee, duly executed by the registered owner or his legal representative duly authorized in writing, may, at the option of the registered owner thereof, be exchanged for an equal aggregate principal amount of other Bonds in Authorized Denominations.

For every such exchange or transfer of Bonds, the Issuer or the Trustee may make a charge sufficient to reimburse it for any tax, fee or other governmental charge required to be paid with respect to such exchange or transfer, which sum or sums shall be paid by the person requesting such exchange or transfer as a condition precedent to the exercise of the privilege of making such exchange or transfer.

The Trustee shall not be required to register the transfer or exchange of (a) any Bonds during the fifteen (15) day period next preceding the selection of Bonds to be redeemed and thereafter until the date of the mailing of a notice of redemption of Bonds selected for redemption, or (b) any Bonds selected, called or being called for redemption in whole or in part, except in the case of any Bond to be redeemed in part, the portion thereof not so to be redeemed.

Section 3.11 Cancellation and Destruction of Surrendered Bonds. Upon the surrender to the Trustee of any temporary or mutilated Bonds, or Bonds transferred or exchanged for other Bonds, or Bonds paid at maturity by the Issuer, the same shall forthwith be canceled and destroyed by the Trustee, and the Trustee, upon the request of the Issuer, shall deliver its certificate of such destruction to the Issuer.

Section 3.12 Delivery of the Series 2004 Bonds. Upon the execution and delivery of this Indenture, the Issuer shall execute and deliver to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall authenticate the Series 2004 Bonds and deliver them to the purchasers thereof as shall be directed by the Issuer as hereinafter in this Section provided.

Prior to or simultaneously with the delivery by the Trustee of the Series 2004 Bonds, there shall be filed with the Trustee:

(a) A copy, duly certified by the Secretary/Treasurer of the Issuer, of the resolution or resolutions adopted by the Issuer authorizing the execution and delivery of this Indenture and the Agreement, and all other instruments contemplated thereby and the authorization, issuance, sale and delivery of the Series 2004 Bonds;

(b) A copy, duly certified by an Authorized Corporation Representative, of the resolution or resolutions of the Corporation authorizing the execution and delivery of the Agreement, and all other instruments contemplated thereby and approving this Indenture and the authorization, issuance, sale and delivery of the Series 2004 Bonds;

(c) Original executed counterparts of this Indenture, the Agreement, the Bond Insurance Policies, the Reimbursement Agreement, the Ground Lease, the Facilities Lease, Tax Regulatory Agreement and the Mortgage (the "Bond Documents");

(d) Copies of the Plans and Specifications (as defined in the Ground Lease) and all land surveys and other documents relating to the construction of the Facilities;

(e) Signed copies of all opinions of counsel required in connection with the issuance of the Series 2004 Bonds and the transactions contemplated thereby;

(f) A request and authorization to the Trustee on behalf of the Issuer and signed by its Chairman, Vice Chairman or Secretary/Treasurer to authenticate and deliver the Series 2004 Bonds to the purchasers thereof and specifying the amounts to be deposited in the Bond Proceeds Fund and the Cost of Issuance Account, and then to be transferred to the Project Fund, the Debt Service Reserve Fund, the Capitalized Interest Fund, the Refunding Fund, the Replacement Fund and the Debt Service Fund and setting forth the Initial Auction Rate; and

(g) A signed copy of the legal opinion of Jones, Walker, Waechter, Poitevent, Carrère & Denègre, L.L.P., Bond Counsel, addressed to the Trustee, to the effect that (i) the Series 2004 Bonds are exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the Indenture is exempt from qualification under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended; and (ii) authorizing the Trustee to rely upon Bond Counsel's approving opinion as if it were addressed to the Trustee.

The Issuer hereby authorizes and directs the Trustee to execute and deliver the Tax Regulatory Agreement.

Section 3.13 Book-Entry Registration of Bonds. The Bonds shall be initially issued in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee for DTC, as registered owner of the Bonds, and held in the custody of DTC. The Issuer and the Trustee acknowledge that the Issuer has executed and delivered a Blanket Letter of Representations with DTC and that the terms and provisions of said Letter of Representations shall govern in the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of this Indenture and said Letter of Representations. A single bond certificate for each maturity of Bonds will be issued and delivered to DTC. The Beneficial Owners will not receive physical delivery of Bond certificates except as provided herein. Beneficial Owners are expected to receive a written confirmation of their purchase providing details of each Bond acquired. For so long as DTC shall continue to serve as securities depository for the Bonds as provided herein, all transfers of beneficial ownership interest will be made by book-entry only, and no investor or other party purchasing, selling or otherwise transferring beneficial ownership of Bonds is to receive, hold or deliver any Bond certificate.

For every transfer and exchange of the Bonds, the Beneficial Owner may be charged a sum sufficient to cover such Beneficial Owner's allocable share of any tax, fee or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto.

The Issuer, the Corporation and the Trustee will recognize DTC or its nominee as the Bondholder for all purposes, including notices and voting.

Neither the Issuer, the Trustee nor the Corporation are responsible for the performance by DTC of any of its obligations, including, without limitation, the payment of moneys received by DTC, the forwarding of notices received by DTC or the giving of any consent or proxy in lieu of consent.

Whenever during the term of the Bonds the beneficial ownership thereof is determined by a book entry at DTC, the requirements of this Indenture of holding, delivering or transferring Bonds shall be deemed modified to require the appropriate person to meet the requirements of DTC as to registering or transferring the book entry to produce the same effect.

DTC may determine to discontinue providing its services with respect to the Bonds at any time by giving notice to the Issuer and the Trustee and discharging its responsibilities with respect thereto under applicable law.

The Issuer, in its sole discretion and without the consent of any other person, may terminate the services of DTC with respect to the Bonds if the Issuer determines that (a) DTC is unable to discharge its responsibilities with respect to the Bonds, or (b) a continuation of the requirement that all of the outstanding Bonds be registered on the registration books kept by the Trustee in the name of Cede & Co., or any other nominee of DTC, is not in the best interest of the beneficial owners of the Bonds.

Upon the termination of the services of DTC with respect to the Bonds pursuant to the above two paragraphs, after which no substitute securities depository willing to undertake the functions of DTC hereunder can be found which, in the opinion of the Issuer is willing and able to undertake such functions upon reasonable and customary terms, the Issuer is obligated to deliver Bonds to the owner, at the expense of the said owner as described in this Indenture, and the Bonds shall no longer be restricted to being registered in the registration books kept by the Trustee in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee of DTC, but may be registered in whatever name or names holders transferring or exchanging Bonds shall designate in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture to the contrary, so long as any Bond is registered in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee of DTC, all payments with respect to principal of, premium, if any, and interest on such Bond and all notices with respect to such Bond shall be made and given, respectively, in the manner provided in the Blanket Letter of Representations of the Issuer dated November 17, 1998 and delivered to DTC.

If at any time DTC ceases to hold the Bonds, all references herein to DTC shall be of no further force or effect.

If the Issuer is unable to retain a qualified successor to the Securities Depository or the Issuer has determined that it is in the best interest of the Issuer not to continue a book-entry system of transfer or that the interest of the Beneficial Owners of the Bonds might be adversely affected if a book-entry system of transfer is continued (the Issuer undertakes no obligation to make any investigation to determine the occurrence of any events that would permit it to make any such determination), and has made provision to so notify Beneficial Owners of the Bonds by mailing an appropriate notice to the Securities Depository, upon receipt by the Issuer of the Bonds together with an assignment duly executed by the Securities Depository, the Issuer, shall, subject to the limitations of Article III hereof, execute, and cause to be authenticated and delivered pursuant to the instructions of the Securities Depository, Bonds in fully registered form, in substantially the form set forth in this Indenture, in Authorized Denominations. In such event, payment of principal at maturity shall be made upon surrender of such Bonds to the Trustee. In such case, the Interest Rate on the Auction Rate Bonds for any Interest Accrual Period commencing after the delivery of Auction Rate Bonds in fully registered form shall equal the Maximum Auction Rate and conversion to Fixed Rate shall occur. To the extent the Auction Rate Bonds are restored to a book-entry system authorized by this Section 3.13, the Interest Rate on the Auction Rate Bonds shall be determined by the Auction Procedures prescribed by Section 3.14 through 3.19 hereof.

Section 3.14 Auction Rate: Auction Period-General. (a) Unless converted to another interest rate methodology following a mandatory tender for purchase, the Series 2004B Bonds shall, subsequent to the Initial Period, bear interest at the Auction Rate. The Initial Auction Rate shall be set forth in the Certificate of the Issuer described in Section 3.12(f) hereof. During each Auction Period, the Auction Rate shall be equal to the rate of interest per annum that results from implementation of the Auction Procedures subject to the Maximum Auction Rate; provided that, if on any scheduled Auction Date, an Auction shall not be held for any reason (with the determination that an Auction was not held to be made by the Auction Agent and if the Auction Agent shall not be capable of or shall not make such determination, then such determination shall be made by the Market Agent), then the following shall apply:

(i) With respect to an Auction Period of greater than one hundred eighty (180) days, the Standard Auction Period shall automatically convert to an Auction Period of seven (7) days;

(ii) An Auction shall be deemed to have occurred on the scheduled Auction Date;

(iii) The Auction Rate for such deemed Auction to be in effect for the next succeeding Auction Period shall be equal to the Auction Rate for the preceding Auction Period; and

(iv) The succeeding Auction Period shall begin on the calendar day following the scheduled Auction Date.

(b) Such procedures set forth above shall be applicable for one Auction Period. In the event that the next Auction shall not be held for any reason (with the determination to be made by the Auction Agent that an Auction was not held and if the Auction Agent shall not be capable of or does not make such determination, then such determination shall be made by the Market Agent) then the Maximum Auction Rate shall apply with respect to succeeding Auction Periods until an Auction can be held.

(c) By purchasing Auction Rate Bonds, whether in an Auction or otherwise, each such purchaser or its Broker-Dealer, must agree and shall be deemed by such purchase to have agreed (i) to participate in Auctions on the terms described herein, (ii) to have its beneficial ownership of the Auction Rate Bonds maintained at all times in book-entry form for the account of its Participant, which in turn will maintain records of such beneficial ownership, and (iii) to authorize such Participant to disclose to the Auction Agent such information with respect to such beneficial ownership as the Auction Agent may request.

(d) So long as the beneficial ownership of the Auction Rate Bonds is maintained in a book entry system, an Existing Holder of Auction Rate Bonds may sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose thereof only pursuant to a Bid or Sell Order placed in an Auction or otherwise sell, transfer, or dispose thereof through a Broker-Dealer, provided that, in the case of all transfers other than pursuant to Auctions, such Existing Holder, its Broker-Dealer or its Participant advises the Auction Agent of such transfer.

(e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if:

(i) the beneficial ownership of the Auction Rate Bonds is no longer maintained in a book entry system, the Interest Rate on the Auction Rate Bonds for any Interest Accrual Period commencing after the delivery of certificates representing Auction Rate Bonds pursuant to this Indenture shall equal the Maximum Auction Rate;

(ii) a Payment Default shall have occurred, then the rate of interest for each subsequent Auction Period commencing after such occurrence and during the continuance thereof to and including the subsequent Auction Period, if any, during which, or commencing less than two (2) Business Days after, such Payment Default shall have been waived in accordance with the terms hereof, shall equal the Nonpayment Rate on the Auction Date for each such subsequent Auction Period; or

(iii) a proposed Fixed Rate Conversion shall have failed, then the rate of interest for the Auction Rate Bonds shall be the Maximum Auction Rate as of the failed Fixed Rate Conversion Date for the Interest Accrual Period commencing on such date.

(f) Interest on the Auction Rate Bonds shall accrue for each Auction Period and shall be payable in arrears, on each Interest Payment Date.

(g) Auction Periods may be established pursuant to Section 3.18 hereof at any time unless an Event of Default shall have occurred. Each Auction Period shall be a Standard Auction Period unless a different Auction Period shall be established pursuant to Section 3.18 hereof and each Auction Period that immediately succeeds a non-Standard Auction Period shall be a Standard Auction Period unless a different Auction Period shall be established pursuant to Section 3.18 hereof.

Section 3.15 Auction Procedure. Subject to the provisions of subsection (a) of Section 3.1 hereof, Auctions shall be conducted on each Auction Date in the following manner:

(a) (i) Prior to 1:00 p.m. (New York City time) on each Auction Date:

(A) each Existing Holder of Auction Rate Bonds may submit to a Broker-Dealer information as to:

(1) the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds, if any, held by such Existing Holder that such Existing Holder desires to continue to hold without regard to the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period;

(2) the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds, if any, that such Existing Holder offers to sell if the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period shall be less than the rate per annum specified by such Existing Holder; and/or

(3) the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds, if any, held by such Existing Holder that such Existing Holder offers to sell without regard to the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period; and

(B) one or more Broker-Dealers may contact Potential Holders to determine the principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds which that such Potential Holder offers to purchase if the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period shall not be less than the rate per annum specified by such Potential Holder.

For the purposes hereof, the communication to a Broker-Dealer of information referred to in clause (A)(1), (A)(2), (A)(3), or (B) of this paragraph (i) is hereinafter referred to as an "Order" and collectively as "Orders," and each Existing Holder and each Potential Holder placing an Order is hereinafter referred to as a "Bidder" and collectively as "Bidders;" an Order containing the information referred to in (x) clause (A)(1) of this paragraph (i) is hereinafter referred to as a "Hold Order" and collectively as "Hold Orders," (y) clause (A)(2) or (B) of this paragraph (i) is hereinafter referred to as a "Bid" and collectively as "Bids" and (z) clause (A)(3) of this paragraph (i) is hereinafter referred to as a "Sell Order" and collectively as "Sell Orders."

(ii) (A) Subject to the provisions of subsection (b) of this Section, a Bid by an Existing Holder shall constitute an irrevocable offer to sell:

(1) the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds specified in such Bid if the Auction Rate determined as provided in this Section shall be less than the rate specified therein; or

(2) such principal amount or a lesser principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds to be determined as set forth in clause (D) of paragraph (i) of subsection (d) of this Section if the Auction Rate determined as provided in this Section shall be equal to the rate specified therein; or

(3) such principal amount or a lesser principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds to be determined as set forth in clause (C) of paragraph (ii) of subsection (d) of this Section if the rate specified therein shall be higher than the Maximum Auction Rate and Sufficient Clearing Bids do not exist.

(B) Subject to the provisions of subsection (b) of this Section, a Sell Order by an Existing Holder shall constitute an irrevocable offer to sell:

(1) the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds specified in such Sell Order; or

(2) such principal amount or a lesser principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds as set forth in clause (C) of paragraph (ii) of subsection (d) of this Section if Sufficient Clearing Bids do not exist.

(C) Subject to the provisions of subsection (b) of this Section, a Bid by a Potential Holder shall constitute an irrevocable offer to purchase:

(1) the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds specified in such Bid if the Auction Rate determined as provided in this Section shall be higher than the rate specified therein; or

(2) such principal amount or a lesser principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds as set forth in clause (E) of paragraph (i) of subsection (d) of this Section if the Auction Rate determined as provided in this Section shall be equal to the rate specified therein.

(b) (i) Each Broker-Dealer shall submit in writing to the Auction Agent by the Submission Deadline on each Auction Date all Orders obtained by such Broker-Dealer and shall specify with respect to each Order:

(A) the name of the Bidder placing such Order;

(B) the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds that are the subject of such Order;

(C) to the extent that such Bidder is an Existing Holder:

(1) the principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds, if any, subject to any Hold Order placed by such Existing Holder;

(2) the principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds, if any, subject to any Bid placed by such Existing Holder and the rate specified in such Bid; and

(3) the principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds, if any, subject to any Sell Order placed by such Existing Holder; and

(D) to the extent such Bidder is a Potential Holder, the rate specified in such Potential Holder's Bid.

(ii) If any rate specified in any Bid contains more than three figures to the right of the decimal point, the Auction Agent shall round such rate up to the next highest one thousandth (.001) of one percent (1%).

(iii) If an Order or Orders covering all Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds held by any Existing Holder shall not be submitted to the Auction Agent prior to the Submission Deadline, the Auction Agent shall deem a Hold Order to have been submitted on behalf of such Existing Holder covering the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds held by such Existing Holder and not subject to an Order submitted to the Auction Agent.

(iv) Neither the Authority, the Trustee, nor the Auction Agent shall be responsible for any failure of a Broker-Dealer to submit an Order to the Auction Agent on behalf of any Existing Holder or Potential Holder.

(v) If any Existing Holder submits through a Broker-Dealer to the Auction Agent one or more Orders covering in the aggregate more than the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds held by such Existing Holder, such Orders shall be considered valid as follows and in the following order of priority:

(A) all Hold Orders shall be considered valid, but only up to and including in the aggregate the principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds held by such Existing Holder, and, if the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds subject to such Hold Orders exceeds the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds held by such Existing Holder, the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds subject to each such Hold Order shall be reduced pro rata to cover the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds held by such Existing Holder;

(B) (1) any Bid shall be considered valid up to and including the excess of the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds held by such Existing Holder over the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds subject to any Hold Orders referred to in clause (A) of this paragraph (v);

(2) subject to subclause (1) of this clause (B), if more than one Bid with the same rate is submitted on behalf of such Existing Holder and the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds subject to such Bids is greater than such excess, such Bids shall be considered valid up to and including the amount of such excess, and the principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds subject to each Bid with the same rate shall be reduced pro rata to cover the principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds equal to such excess;

(3) subject to subclauses (1) and (2) of this clause (B), if more than one Bid with different rates is submitted on behalf of such Existing Holder, such Bids shall be considered valid first in the ascending order of their respective rates until the highest rate is reached at which such excess exists and then at such rate up to and including the amount of such excess; and

(4) in any such event, the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds, if any, subject to Bids not valid under this clause (B) shall be treated as the subject of a Bid by a Potential Holder at the rate therein specified; and

(C) all Sell Orders shall be considered valid up to and including the excess of the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds held by such Existing Holder over the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds subject to Hold Orders referred to in clause (A) of this paragraph (v) and valid Bids referred to in clause (B) of this paragraph (v).

(vi) If more than one Bid for Auction Rate Bonds is submitted on behalf of any Potential Holder, each Bid submitted shall be a separate Bid with the rate and principal amount therein specified.

(vii) Any Bid or Sell Order submitted by an Existing Holder covering an aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds not equal to Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) or an integral multiple thereof shall be rejected and shall be deemed a Hold Order. Any Bid submitted by a Potential Holder covering an aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds not equal to Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) or an integral multiple thereof shall be rejected.

(c) (i) Not earlier than the Submission Deadline on each Auction Date, the Auction Agent shall assemble all valid Orders submitted or deemed submitted to it by the Broker-Dealers (each such Order as submitted or deemed submitted by a Broker-Dealer being hereinafter referred to individually as a "Submitted Hold Order," a "Submitted Bid" or a "Submitted Sell Order," as the case may be, or as a "Submitted Order" and collectively as "Submitted Hold Orders," "Submitted Bids" or "Submitted Sell Orders," as the case may be, or as "Submitted Orders") and shall determine:

(A) the excess of the total principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds over the sum of the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds subject to Submitted Hold Orders (such excess being hereinafter referred to as the "Available Auction Rate Bonds"); and

(B) from the Submitted Orders whether the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds subject to Submitted Bids by Potential Holders specifying one or more rates equal to or lower than the Maximum Auction Rate; exceeds or is equal to the sum of:

(1) the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds subject to Submitted Bids by Existing Holders specifying one or more rates higher than the Maximum Auction Rate; and

(2) the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds subject to Submitted Sell Orders. In the event such excess or such equality exists (other than because the sum of the principal amounts of Auction Rate Bonds in subclauses (A) and (B) above is zero because all of the Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds are the subject of Submitted Hold Orders), such Submitted Bids in this subclause (B) are hereinafter referred to collectively, as "Sufficient Clearing Bids"; and

(C) Sufficient Clearing Bids exist, the lowest rate specified in such Submitted Bids (the "Winning Bid Rate") which if:

(1) (aa) each such Submitted Bid from Existing Holders specifying such lowest rate and (bb) all other Submitted Bids from Existing Holders specifying lower rates were rejected, would entitle such Existing Holders to continue to hold the principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds subject to such Submitted Bids; and

(2) (aa) each such Submitted Bid from Potential Holders specifying such lowest rate and (bb) all other Submitted Bids from Potential Holders specifying lower rates were accepted, would result in such Existing Holders described in subclause (1) above continuing to hold an aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds which, when added to the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds to be purchased by such Potential Holders described in this subclause (2), would equal not less than the Available Auction Rate Bonds.

(ii) Promptly after the Auction Agent has made the determinations pursuant to paragraph (i) of this subsection (c), the Auction Agent shall, by telecopy confirmed in writing, advise the Authority and the Trustee of the Maximum Auction Rate and the All-Hold Rate and the components thereof on the Auction Date and, based on such determinations, the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period as follows:

(A) if Sufficient Clearing Bids exist, that the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period shall be equal to the Winning Bid Rate so determined;

(B) if Sufficient Clearing Bids do not exist (other than because all of the Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds are subject to Submitted Hold Orders), that the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period shall be equal to the Maximum Auction Rate; or

(C) if all Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds are subject to Submitted Hold Orders, that the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period shall be equal to the All-Hold Rate.

(d) Existing Holders shall continue to hold the principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds that are subject to Submitted Hold Orders, and, based on the determinations made pursuant to paragraph (i) of subsection (c) of this Section 3.15, Submitted Bids and Submitted Sell Orders shall be accepted or rejected and the Auction Agent shall take such other action as set forth below:

(i) If Sufficient Clearing Bids have been made, all Submitted Sell Orders shall be accepted and, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (iv) and (v) of this subsection (d), Submitted Bids shall be accepted or rejected as follows in the following order of priority and all other Submitted Bids shall be rejected:

(A) Existing Holders' Submitted Bids specifying any rate that is higher than the Winning Bid Rate shall be accepted, thus requiring each such Existing Holder to sell the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds subject to such Submitted Bids;

(B) Existing Holders' Submitted Bids specifying any rate that is lower than the Winning Bid Rate shall be rejected, thus entitling each such Existing Holder to continue to hold the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds subject to such Submitted Bids;

(C) Potential Holders' Submitted Bids specifying any rate that is lower than the Winning Bid Rate shall be accepted, thus requiring such Potential Holder to purchase the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds subject to such Submitted Bid;

(D) Each Existing Holder's Submitted Bid specifying a rate that is equal to the Winning Bid Rate shall be rejected, thus entitling such Existing Holder to continue to hold the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds subject to such Submitted Bid, unless the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds subject to all such Submitted Bids shall be greater than the principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds (the "remaining principal amount") equal to the excess of the Available Auction Rate Bonds over the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds subject to Submitted Bids described in clauses (B) and (C) of this paragraph (i), in which event such Submitted Bid of such Existing Holder shall be rejected in part, and such Existing Holder shall be entitled to continue to hold the principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds subject to such Submitted Bid, but only in an amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds obtained by multiplying the remaining principal amount by a fraction the numerator of which shall be the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds held by such Existing Holder subject to such Submitted Bid and the denominator of which shall be the sum of the principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds subject to such Submitted Bids made by all such Existing Holders that specified a rate equal to the Winning Bid Rate; and

(E) Each Potential Holder's Submitted Bid specifying a rate that is equal to the Winning Bid Rate shall be accepted but only in an amount equal to the principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds obtained by multiplying the excess of the aggregate principal amount of Available Auction Rate Bonds over the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds subject to Submitted Bids described in clauses (B), (C), and (D) of this paragraph (i) by a fraction the numerator of which shall be the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds subject to such Submitted Bid of such Potential Holder and the denominator of which shall be the sum of the principal amounts of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds subject to Submitted Bids made by all such Potential Holders that specified a rate equal to the Winning Bid Rate.

(ii) If Sufficient Clearing Bids have not been made (other than because all of the Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds are subject to Submitted Hold Orders), subject to the provisions of paragraph (iv) of this subsection (d), Submitted Orders shall be accepted or rejected as follows in the following order of priority and all other Submitted Bids shall be rejected:

(A) Existing Holders' Submitted Bids specifying any rate that is equal to or lower than the Maximum Auction Rate shall be rejected, thus entitling such Existing Holders to continue to hold the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds subject to such Submitted Bids;

(B) Potential Holders' Submitted Bids specifying any rate that is equal to or lower than the Maximum Auction Rate shall be accepted, thus requiring such Potential Holders to purchase the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds subject to such Submitted Bid; and

(C) each Existing Holder's Submitted Bid specifying any rate that is higher than the Maximum Auction Rate and the Submitted Sell Order of each Existing Holder shall be accepted, thus entitling each Existing Holder that submitted any such Submitted Bid or Submitted Sell Order to sell the Auction Rate Bonds subject to such Submitted Bid or Submitted Sell Order, but in both cases only in an amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds obtained by multiplying the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds subject to Submitted Bids described in clause (B) of this paragraph (ii) by a fraction the numerator of which shall be the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds held by such Existing Holder subject to such Submitted Bid or Submitted Sell Order and the denominator of which shall be the aggregate principal amount of Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds subject to all such Submitted Bids and Submitted Sell Orders.

(iii) If all Outstanding Auction Rate Bonds are subject to Submitted Hold Orders, all Submitted Bids shall be rejected.

(iv) If, as a result of the procedures described in paragraphs (i) or (ii) of this subsection (d), any Existing Holder would be entitled or required to sell, or any Potential Holder would be entitled or required to purchase, a principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds that is not equal to Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) or an integral multiple thereof, the Auction Agent shall, in such manner as, in its sole discretion, it shall determine, round up or down the principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds to be purchased or sold by any Existing Holder or Potential Holder so that the principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds purchased or sold by each Existing Holder or Potential Holder shall be equal to Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) or any integral multiple thereof.

(v) If, as a result of the procedures described in paragraph (ii) of this subsection (d), any Potential Holder would be entitled or required to purchase less than Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds, the Auction Agent shall, in such manner as, in its sole discretion, it shall determine, allocate Auction Rate Bonds for purchase among Potential Holders so that only Auction Rate Bonds in principal amounts of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) or an integral multiple thereof are purchased by any Potential Holder, even if such allocation results in one or more such Potential Holders not purchasing any Auction Rate Bonds.

(e) Based on the results of each Auction, the Auction Agent shall determine the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds to be purchased by Potential Holders and the aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds to be purchased or sold by Existing Holders on whose behalf each Broker-Dealer submitted Bids or Sell Orders and, with respect to each Broker-Dealer, to the extent that such aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds to be sold differs from such aggregate principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds to be purchased, determine to which other Broker-Dealer or Broker-Dealers acting for one or more purchasers such Broker-Dealer shall deliver, or from which other Broker-Dealer or Broker-Dealers acting for one or more sellers such Broker-Dealer shall receive, as the case may be, Auction Rate Bonds.

Section 3.16 Application of Interest Payments for Auction Rate Bonds. (a) The Trustee shall determine not later than 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the day prior to each Interest Payment Date therefor whether there is on deposit in (or available for transfer to) the Interest Account of the Debt Service Fund an aggregate amount of funds equal to the aggregate amount of interest due and payable on the Auction Rate Bonds on such Interest Payment Date. The amount of such interest shall be determined by (i) multiplying the principal amount of Auction Rate Bonds Outstanding during such Interest Accrual Period by the Auction Rate established in the Auction for such Interest Accrual Period; (ii) dividing by three hundred sixty (360); (iii) multiplying by the number of days in such Interest Accrual Period; and (iv) adding the resultant figures for each Interest Accrual Period.

(b) So long as no Payment Default has previously occurred and is continuing (i) if a Payment Default exists on an Interest Payment Date the Trustee shall, not later than 12:15 p.m. (New York City time) on such Business Day, send a notice thereof in substantially the form of Exhibit H attached hereto to the Auction Agent by telecopy or similar means, and (ii) if such Payment Default is cured on such Interest Payment Date, the Trustee shall immediately send a notice thereof in substantially the form of Exhibit I attached hereto to the Auction Agent by telecopy or similar means.

(c) If the interest rate on the Auction Rate Bonds or the Variable Rate Bonds is subject to adjustment pursuant to the Indenture after the date of such required payment deposit and prior to such Interest Payment Date, interest accruing on such bonds from such adjustment date shall be assumed to accrue at the rate in effect on such bonds as of the date of such required deposit plus 100 basis points or at such other rate as the Bond Insurer may from time to time direct in writing to the Trustee, the Corporation and the Issuer. Trustee shall make this determination at least two (2) Business Days before each Interest Payment Date.

Section 3.17 Calculation of Maximum Auction Rate. All Hold Rate and Non-Payment Rate. The Auction Agent shall calculate the Maximum Auction Rate and the All Hold Rate on each Auction Date and shall give notice thereof to the Broker-Dealers, the Issuer and the Trustee. Upon receipt of notice from the Trustee of a failed Fixed Rate Conversion as described in Section 3.21 hereof or a failed Variable Rate Conversion as described in Section 3.22 hereof under the circumstances described in Section 4(A)(iii) – (v) of the Notice of Variable Rate Conversion attached as Exhibit L hereto, the Auction Agent shall calculate the Maximum Auction Rate as of such failed Fixed Rate Conversion Date or Variable Rate Conversion Date and give notice thereof as provided in the Auction Agency Agreement. If a Payment Default shall have occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall calculate the Non-Payment Rate on the Auction Date for (i) each subsequent Auction Period commencing after the occurrence and during the continuance of such a Payment Default, and (ii) any subsequent Auction Period commencing less than two (2) Business Days after the cure or waiver of any Payment Default in accordance with this Indenture. If the beneficial ownership of the Auction Rate Bonds is no longer maintained in a book entry system, then the Trustee shall determine the Maximum Auction Rate for each Interest Accrual Period on the Business Day immediately preceding the first day of each Interest Accrual Period after the delivery of Auction Rate Bonds in fully registered form pursuant to this Indenture.

Section 3.18 Change of Auction Period by Issuer. (a) The Issuer at the direction of the University Representative, may change the length of a single Auction Period or the Standard Auction Period by means of a written notice delivered at least ten (10) days, but no more than fifteen (15) days, prior to the Auction Date for such Auction Period to the Trustee, the Market Agent, the Auction Agent and the Securities Depository in substantially the form attached hereto as, or containing substantially the information contained in Exhibit J attached hereto. If such Auction Period will be of less than twenty-one (21) days, such notice shall be effective only if it is accompanied by a written statement of the Trustee, the Market Agent, the Auction Agent, and the Securities Depository to the effect that they are capable of performing their duties hereunder and under the Market Agent Agreement and the Auction Agency Agreement with respect to such Auction Period and by the written consent of the Bond Insurer. If such notice specifies a change in the length of the Standard Auction Period, such notice shall be effective only if it is accompanied by the written consent of the Market Agent to such change. The length of an Auction Period or the Standard Auction Period may not be changed pursuant to this Section unless Sufficient Clearing Bids existed at both the Auction immediately preceding the date the notice of such change was given and the Auction immediately preceding such changed Auction Period.

(b) The change in length of an Auction Period or the Standard Auction Period shall take effect only if (i) the Trustee and the Auction Agent receive, by 11:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the Business Day immediately preceding the Auction Date for such Auction Period, a certificate from the Issuer, by telecopy or similar means in substantially the form attached hereto as, or containing substantially the information contained in, Exhibit J attached hereto authorizing the change in the Auction Period or the Standard Auction Period, which shall be specified in such certificate, and confirming that bond counsel expects to be able to give a Bond Counsel Opinion on the first day of such Auction Period to the effect that the change in the Auction Period is authorized by this Indenture and will not have an adverse effect on the exclusion of interest on such Auction Rate Bonds from gross income for federal income tax purposes, (ii) the Trustee shall not have delivered to the Auction Agent by 12:00 noon (New York City time) on the Auction Date for such Auction Period notice that an Insufficient Funds Event has occurred, (iii) Sufficient Clearing Bids exist at the Auction on the Auction Date for such Auction Period, and (iv) the Trustee, the Bond Insurer and the Auction Agent receive by 9:30 a.m. (New York City time) on the first day of such Auction Period, a Bond Counsel Opinion to the effect that the change in the Auction Period is authorized by this Indenture and will not have an adverse effect on the exclusion of interest on such Auction Rate Bonds from gross income for federal income tax purposes. If the condition referred to in (i) above shall not be met, the Auction Rate for the next succeeding Auction Period shall be determined pursuant to the Auction Procedures and the length of the next succeeding Auction Period shall remain unchanged. If any of the conditions referred to in (ii), (iii) or (iv) above shall not be met, the interest rate for the next succeeding Auction Period shall equal the Maximum Auction Rate as determined as of such Auction Date and the length of the next succeeding Auction Period shall remain unchanged.

Section 3.19 Change of Auction Date by Market Agent. During an Auction Period, the Market Agent, at the direction of the Issuer, acting at the direction of the University Representative, may change, in order to conform with then-current market practice with respect to similar securities or to accommodate economic and financial factors that may affect or be relevant to the day of the week constituting an Auction Date, the Auction Date for all future

Auction Periods to a different day, so long as the first such Auction Date will be a Business Day in the calendar week in which the next succeeding Auction Date is then scheduled to occur. If a change in an Auction Date is undertaken in conjunction with a change in an Auction Period and the conditions for the establishment of such change in Auction Period are not met, the Auction Date may be, and the next succeeding Auction Period may be adjusted to end, on a Business Day in the calendar week in which such Auction Date was scheduled to occur and such Auction Period was scheduled to end to accommodate the change in the Auction Date. The Market Agent shall communicate its determination to change an Auction Date by means of a written notice delivered at least ten (10) days prior to the Auction Date immediately preceding such Auction Date to the Issuer, the Trustee, the Auction Agent, the Broker-Dealer and the Securities Depository which shall state (a) the determination of the Market Agent to change the Auction Date, (b) the new Auction Date and (c) the date on which such Auction Date shall be changed. Notice of a change in the Auction Date may be in substantially the form attached hereto as, or containing substantially the information contained in, Exhibit K attached hereto.

Section 3.20 Auction Agent. (a) The Bank of New York is hereby appointed as Initial Auction Agent to serve as agent for the Issuer in connection with Auctions. The Trustee and the Issuer will, and the Trustee is hereby directed to, enter into the Initial Auction Agency Agreement with The Bank of New York, as the Initial Auction Agent. Any Substitute Auction Agent shall be (i) a bank, national banking association or trust company duly organized under the laws of the United States of America or any state or territory thereof and having a combined capital stock or surplus of at least Fifty Million Dollars ($50,000,000), or (ii) a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., having a capitalization of at least Fifty Million Dollars ($50,000,000), and, in either case, authorized by law to perform all the duties imposed upon it hereunder and under the Auction Agency Agreement and acceptable to the Bond Insurer. The Auction Agent may at any time resign and be discharged of the duties and obligations created by this Indenture by giving at least ninety (90) days' notice to the Trustee and the Issuer. The Auction Agent may be removed at any time by the Trustee upon the written direction of the University Representative or the Bond Insurer and the Bondowners of sixty-six and two thirds percent (66 2/3%) of the aggregate principal amount of the Auction Rate Bonds then Outstanding, and if by such Bondowners, by an instrument signed by such Bondowners or their attorneys and filed with the Auction Agent, the Issuer and the Trustee upon at least ninety (90) days' notice. Neither resignation nor removal of the Auction Agent pursuant to the preceding two sentences shall be effective until and unless a Substitute Auction Agent has been appointed and has accepted such appointment. If required by the Issuer or the University Representative, a Substitute Auction Agency Agreement acceptable to the Bond Insurer shall be entered into with a Substitute Auction Agent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Auction Agent may resign if, within forty-five (45) days after notifying the Trustee, the Bond Insurer and the Issuer in writing that it has not received payment of any Auction Agent Fee due it in accordance with the terms of the Auction Agency Agreement, the Auction Agent does not receive such payment.

(b) If the Auction Agent shall resign or be removed or be dissolved, or if the property or affairs of the Auction Agent shall be taken under the control of any state or federal court or administrative body because of bankruptcy or insolvency, or for any other reason, the Issuer at the direction of the University Representative, shall appoint a Substitute Auction Agent.

(c) The Auction Agent is acting as agent for the Issuer in connection with Auctions. In the absence of bad faith, negligent failure to act or negligence on its part, the Auction Agent shall not be liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted or any error of judgment made by it in the performance of its duties under the Auction Agency Agreement and shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith unless the Auction Agent shall have been negligent in ascertaining (or failing to ascertain) the pertinent facts.

Section 3.21 Conversion to Fixed Rate. (a) With the written consent of the Bond Insurer or, in lieu thereof, a firm underwriting commitment, the Issuer, acting at the direction of the University Representative, hereby reserves the right to fix the rate of interest per annum that the Auction Rate Bonds shall bear for the balance of the term thereof. Such Auction Rate Bonds shall cease to bear interest at the Auction Rate then borne thereby and shall bear interest at a Fixed Rate until maturity upon the election by the Issuer to exercise its option to convert as herein provided, subject to the terms and conditions hereof (the date on which such Fixed Rate Conversion shall take effect being herein called the "Fixed Rate Conversion Date"). The option to convert may be exercised at any time through a written notice given by the Issuer not less than thirty-five (35) nor more than forty-five (45) days prior to the proposed Fixed Rate Conversion Date to (i) the Trustee, (ii) the Bond Insurer and the Remarketing Agent, (iii) the Auction Agent, the Market Agent, and the Securities Depository, in substantially the form attached hereto as, or containing substantially the information contained in, Exhibit G, and such Fixed Rate Conversion shall be subject to the conditions set forth in such notice. The Fixed Rate Conversion Date may only be the last Interest Payment Date of an Auction Period. A notice of a Fixed Rate Conversion shall be effective only if it shall be accompanied by (i) the form of opinion Bond Counsel expects to give on the Fixed Rate Conversion Date addressed to the Issuer, the Trustee and the Bond Insurer to the effect that the establishment of the Fixed Rate is authorized by this Indenture and will not have an adverse effect on the exclusion of interest on such Auction Rate Bonds from gross income for federal income tax purposes, and (ii) written confirmation from the Rating Agencies of the ratings on the Series 2004 Bonds after the implementation of such Fixed Rate Conversion.

Section 3.22 Conversion to Variable Rate. (a) In the event that the Issuer, upon the written request of the University Representative and with the written consent of the Bond Insurer, shall elect to change the interest rate on all or any portion of the Series 2004B Bonds from an Auction Rate to a Variable Rate, the Issuer and the Trustee shall execute and deliver a supplemental Indenture setting forth procedures to be applicable during a Variable Rate Period for (i) purchase of Series 2004B Bonds on demand of the owners thereof, (ii) mandatory tender for the purchase of Series 2004B Bonds, (iii) remarketing of the Series 2004B Bonds, (iv) effective conversion to a Fixed Rate or an Auction Rate, and (v) the issuance and delivery of one or more notices of change in interest rate.

(b) Following the delivery of a Notice of Variable Rate Conversion, all or any specified principal amount of the Series 2004B Bonds will bear interest beginning on the Interest Payment Date or Dates identified in the Notice of Variable Rate Conversion at a Variable Rate.

(c) In the event that the Issuer shall elect to change the Interest Rate on all or a portion of the Series 2004B Bonds from an Auction Rate to a Variable Rate, the Issuer shall give written notice not less than thirty-five (35) nor more than forty-five (45) days prior to the proposed Variable Rate Conversion Date to the Trustee, the Bond Insurer, the Remarketing Agent, the Auction Agent, the Market Agent and the Securities Depository, in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit L, and such Variable Rate Conversion shall be subject to the conditions set forth in such notice. The Series 2004B Bonds being converted to a Variable Rate are subject to mandatory tender for purchase on the Variable Rate Conversion Date. In the event that some Series 2004B Bonds shall be converted to a Variable Rate and others will remain at an Auction Rate, then (but in no event less than fifteen (15) days prior to such Variable Rate Conversion Date) the Trustee shall select by lot from among the Series 2004B Bonds the principal amounts of Series 2004B Bonds to be converted to a Variable Rate. The Trustee shall give notice not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the Variable Rate Conversion Date by first class mail to the owners of the Series 2004B Bonds so selected (or to all of the owners of Series 2004B Bonds if all of such Series 2004B Bonds are to be converted to a Variable Rate) which notice shall be in substantially the form of Exhibit L hereto and shall state, that (i) the Series 2004B Bonds in the principal amount designated shall be in a Variable Rate Period and shall bear interest during the initial Variable Rate Determination Period at the lowest rate necessary, in the sole judgment of the Remarketing Agent, to remarket Series 2004B Bonds in a Variable Rate Determination Period at par; and (ii) that Series 2004B Bonds in a Variable Rate Period shall bear interest, after the initial Variable Rate Determination Period, determined in the manner set forth in Section 3.22(d) hereof.

(d) Following notification of the Initial Variable Rate as referenced in subsection (c) above, Series 2004B Bonds in a Variable Rate Period will bear interest at a Variable Rate determined in the following manner. On the Variable Rate Announcement Date, the Remarketing Agent will determine the lowest rate necessary, in the sole judgment of the Remarketing Agent, to remarket the Variable Rate Bonds at par on the first day of the Variable Rate Determination Period to which the determination pertains (or if such day is not a Business Day, on the next succeeding day in such Variable Rate Determination Period which is a Business Day) and shall promptly advise the Trustee in writing of the Variable Rate to be borne by such Series 2004B Bonds during such Variable Rate Determination Period.

- (viii) Capitalized Interest Fund;
- (ix) Refunding Fund; and
- (x) Surplus Fund

Section 4.2 Bond Proceeds Fund. The Bond Proceeds Fund shall be used to receive the proceeds of the Series 2004 Bonds other than the premium to be paid to the Bond Insurer in respect of the Bond Insurance Policies which shall be transferred from Morgan Keegan & Company, Inc., the underwriter with respect to the Bonds, directly to the Bond Insurer. On the Closing Date, the Trustee shall disburse amounts held in the Bond Proceeds Fund as follows:

- (a) to the Refunding Fund an amount of proceeds equal to $15,077,449.53;
- (b) to the Interest Account in the Debt Service Fund that portion of the proceeds of the Series 2004 Bonds, if any, representing accrued interest on the Series

2004 Bonds in an amount specified in the request and authorization delivered pursuant to Section 3.12;

(c) to the Debt Service Reserve Fund an amount of proceeds equal to the Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement for the Series 2004A Bonds and the Series 2004B Bonds;

(d) to the Capitalized Interest Fund an amount of proceeds equal to $2,757,568.27

(e) to the Replacement Fund an amount of proceeds equal to $4,064,825.00;

(f) to retain such sum in the Costs of Issuance Account as shall be specified in the request and authorization delivered pursuant to Section 3.12(f) hereof;

(g) to the Project Fund the balance of the proceeds of the Series 2004 Bonds.

Amounts deposited on the Closing Date into the Costs of Issuance Account of the Bond Proceeds Fund shall be disbursed, pursuant to the written instructions of the Issuer, to pay Costs of Issuance. Any amounts remaining in the Costs of Issuance Account one hundred-eighty (180) days after delivery of the Series 2004 Bonds (and not specifically committed to pay additional Costs of Issuance) shall be deposited into the Project Fund.

Section 4.3 Debt Service Fund. The Trustee shall deposit into the applicable account of the Debt Service Fund the amounts required by Section 4.8 of this Indenture.

(a) Moneys on deposit in the Interest Account of the Debt Service Fund shall be used solely to pay the interest on the Series 2004 Bonds as it becomes due and payable, whether on an Interest Payment Date, at maturity or upon acceleration and to reimburse the Bond Insurer for amounts due under the Reimbursement Agreement in respect of interest on the Series 2004 Bonds.

(b) Moneys on deposit in the Principal Account of the Debt Service Fund shall be used solely to pay the principal of the Series 2004 Bonds as it becomes due and payable whether at maturity, upon scheduled sinking fund redemption or upon acceleration and to reimburse the Bond Insurer for amounts due under the Reimbursement Agreement in respect of principal of the Series 2004 Bonds; and, if funds are available for such purpose and at the written direction of the Issuer, as directed by the Board, to effect the redemption of the Series 2004 Bonds prior to their maturity in accordance with the redemption provisions thereof or with Bond Insurer consent the purchase of Series 2004 Bonds prior to their maturity in the open market at a price not in excess of the principal amount thereof, premium, if any, plus accrued interest on the Series 2004 Bonds.

(c) Whenever and to the extent that money on deposit in the Interest Account or the Principal Account is insufficient to pay interest on and principal of (whether at maturity, by acceleration or in satisfaction of the mandatory sinking fund redemption requirements therefor) the Series 2004A Bonds, Series 2004B Bonds and Series 2004C Bonds, the Trustee shall transfer money from the Surplus Fund, the Replacement Fund and the Debt Service Reserve Fund, in that order, and shall give immediate notice to the Bond Insurer.

Section 4.4 Project Fund. The Project Fund shall be maintained by the Trustee in trust and shall be used to receive the immediate transfer from the balance of the proceeds of the Series 2004 Bonds as provided in Section 4.2(g) hereof. Moneys in the Project Fund shall be applied to the payment of the Costs of the Facilities pursuant to the procedure established in Section 4.17 hereof and, pending such application, shall be subject to a lien and charge in favor of the Bondholders for the further security of such Bondholders until paid out or transferred as herein provided.

Section 4.5 Debt Service Reserve Fund. Moneys on deposit in the Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be maintained in an amount equal to the Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement, and shall be transferred, in accordance with the priority set out in Section 4.3(c) above, to the Interest Account or the Principal Account of the Debt Service Fund in such amount as shall be necessary to remedy any deficiency therein (taking into account any amounts available therefor in the Surplus Fund and the Replacement Fund) with respect to the Series 2004A Bonds, the Series 2004B Bonds, or any Additional Bonds that are Tax-Exempt Bonds. Whenever the amount in the Debt Service Reserve Fund, together with the amount in the Debt Service Fund, is sufficient to pay in full all outstanding Bonds in accordance with their terms, the funds on deposit in the Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be transferred to the Debt Service Fund and shall be available to pay all outstanding Bonds in accordance with their terms. If the balance of the Debt Service Reserve Fund is greater than the Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement, all amounts in the Debt Service Reserve Fund in excess of the Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement shall be transferred to the Interest Account. Notwithstanding the foregoing, amounts in the Debt Service Reserve Fund will not be available to pay the principal of, or the interest on, the Series 2004C Bonds or any Additional Bonds that are not Tax-Exempt Bonds.

Section 4.6 Replacement Fund. The Replacement Fund shall be maintained with the Trustee and used to fund the cost of replacing any worn out, obsolete, inadequate, unsuitable or undesirable property, furniture, fixtures or equipment placed upon or used in connection with the Facilities or as required by Section 4.3(c) hereof. Moneys in the Replacement Fund will also be transferred to the Interest Account and/or the Principal Account of the Debt Service Fund whenever and to the extent that money on deposit in such Accounts, together with money available therefor in the Surplus Fund, is insufficient to pay interest on and principal of (whether at maturity, by acceleration or in satisfaction of the mandatory sinking fund redemption requirements therefor) the Series 2004 Bonds.

Section 4.7 Rebate Fund. Moneys deposited and held in the Rebate Fund shall be used to make all rebate payments owed to the United States under the Code, and shall not be subject to the pledge of this Indenture. The Corporation shall make the calculation(s) required by the Code and the Tax Regulatory Agreement shall direct the Trustee to make deposits to and make disbursements from the Rebate Fund which the Corporation determines are in accordance therewith. The Tax Regulatory Agreement and any provisions of this Indenture governing deposits to the Rebate Fund may be superseded or amended (except the requirement of annual calculations and deposits to the Rebate Fund, if required) if accompanied by an opinion of Bond Counsel addressed to the Corporation, the Board, the Issuer and the Trustee to the effect that the use of the new Tax Regulatory Agreement will not cause the interest on the Series 2004A Bonds or the Series 2004B Bonds to become includable in gross income of the recipient thereof for federal tax purposes.

Section 4.8 Receipts Fund. There shall be deposited into the Receipts Fund all funds received from or paid on behalf of the Board under the Facilities Lease, including (i) daily, all rents, charges and other amounts, held in the deposit account maintained by the Management Company pursuant to Section 3.2(b) of the Management Agreement and any corresponding account held under any subsequent Management Agreement; and (ii) all Lawfully Available Funds from the Board used to make Base Rental Payments pursuant to the Facilities Lease. The University shall make an initial deposit into the Receipts Fund from revenues recognized by the University as of July 1, 2004. Other than transfers pursuant to Section 4.8(e), which will be applied on each Interest Payment Date from funds on hand in the Receipts Fund on such date, Moneys on deposit in the Receipts Fund will be applied by the Trustee on the dates indicated below in the following priority:

(a) At such time as may be required by the Tax Regulatory Agreement but not less often than annually, to the Rebate Fund the amount required to be deposited thereunder;

(b) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, beginning August 25, 2004, to the Operating Fund (as defined in the Management Agreement) maintained by the Management Company an amount necessary to make the amount in the Operating Fund equal to the Operating Expenses for the next month as shown on the Operating Budget (as defined in the Management Agreement) for such month, as certified by the Management Company;

(c) With respect to the Series 2004A Bonds, the Series 2004B Bonds that bear interest at a Fixed Rate, and the Series 2004C Bonds, on the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, commencing August 25, 2004, into the Interest Account of the Debt Service Fund an amount equal to one-sixth (1/6th) of the interest due and payable on such Series 2004 Bonds on the next February 1 and August 1 or such lesser amount that, together with amounts already on deposit in the Interest Account of the Debt Service Fund, will be sufficient to pay interest on such Series 2004B Bonds on such Interest Payment Date;

(d) With respect to the Auction Rate Bonds, two (2) Business Days prior to each Interest Payment Date for the Auction Rate Bonds, commencing August 18, 2004, into the Interest Account of the Debt Service Fund an amount equal to the interest due and payable on the Auction Rate Bonds on such Interest Payment Date or such lesser amount that, together with amounts already on deposit in the Interest Account of the Debt Service Fund, will be sufficient to pay interest on such Series 2004B Bonds on such Interest Payment Date;

(e) With respect to the Variable Rate Bonds, two (2) Business Days prior to each Interest Payment Date, commencing on the Interest Payment Date immediately succeeding the applicable Variable Rate Conversion Date, into the Interest Account of the Debt Service Fund an amount equal to the interest due and payable on the Variable Rate Bonds on such Interest Payment Date or such lesser amount that, together with amounts already on deposit in the Interest Account of the Debt Service Fund, will be sufficient to pay interest on such Series 2004B Bonds on such Interest Payment Date;

(f) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, commencing August 25, 2005, into the Principal Account of the Debt Service Fund an amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) the principal of the Series 2004 Bonds payable on the next Principal Payment Date;

(g) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of the month, any amounts due to the Bond Insurer under the Reimbursement Agreement;

(h) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month following any drawing on the Debt Service Reserve Fund in accordance with Section 4.21 hereof, an amount equal to the lesser of (i) one twelfth (1/12th) of the amount necessary to cause the amount on deposit in the Debt Service Reserve Fund to equal the Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement within twelve (12) months or (ii) the excess of the Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement over the amount on deposit in the Debt Service Reserve Fund;

(i) Annually, beginning August 1, 2007, an amount equal to $100,000 into the Replacement Fund, with such amount increased each year, beginning August 1, 2008 at a rate of 3% annually; or such lesser annual amount as is permitted by the Board of Regents and approved by the Bond Insurer and, in the event that any funds shall have been withdrawn from the Replacement Fund to cure any deficiency in the Interest Account or the Principal Account pursuant to Section 4.3(c) hereof, the amount of such withdrawal;

(j) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, commencing with the month the Facilities are open for occupancy, an amount equal to the monthly Management Fee for the current Fiscal Year plus any Management Fee for any prior month that remains unpaid; and

(k) Annually on August 1 of each year beginning August 1, 2005 any amounts remaining in the Receipts Fund after making all transfers required to be made on such date under Section 4.8(a) through (j) hereof shall be transferred to the Surplus Fund and applied as set forth in Section 4.25 hereof.

After a Variable Rate Conversion of the Series 2004B Bonds, payments will be made from the Receipts Fund to the Debt Service Fund in accordance with the supplemental indenture executed in connection with such Variable Rate Conversion.

Section 4.9 Capitalized Interest Fund. The Capitalized Interest Fund shall be maintained with the Trustee. The Capitalized Interest Fund shall be funded on the date of delivery of the Series 2004 Bonds from the proceeds thereof in the amount of $2,757,568.27. On each date on which the Trustee is required to transfer moneys in the Receipts Fund to the Interest Account of the Debt Service Fund pursuant to subsections (c), (d), or (e) of Section 4.8 hereof, prior to making any such transfer the Trustee shall transfer amounts on deposit in the Capitalized Interest Fund to the Interest Account of the Debt Service Fund in the amounts required by such subsections or such lesser amount as shall then remain in the Capitalized Interest Fund in accordance with Exhibit N, attached hereto. The Trustee shall reduce the amount required to be transferred from the Receipts Fund to the Interest Account of the Debt Service Fund pursuant to subsections (c), (d), or (e) of Section 4.8 hereof by any amounts transferred to the Interest Account of the Debt Service Fund pursuant to the provisions of this Section. Earnings on amounts in the Capitalized Interest Fund shall be retained therein.

Section 4.10 Surplus Fund. The Surplus Fund will be maintained with the Trustee. Upon satisfaction of certain performance covenants contained in the Indenture, funds on deposit in the Surplus Fund at the end of any Fiscal Year will be transferred to the University. Until such transfer, moneys in the Surplus Fund will be available to be transferred to the Interest Account and/or the Principal Account of the Debt Service Fund whenever and to the extent that money on deposit in such Accounts is insufficient to pay interest on and principal of (whether at maturity, by acceleration or in satisfaction of the mandatory sinking fund redemption requirements therefor) the Series 2004 Bonds.

Section 4.11 Refunding Fund. The Refunding Fund shall be maintained with the Trustee and used to receive a portion of the proceeds of the Bonds. Pursuant to instructions set forth in Section 3.12(f) hereof, the Trustee shall disburse $14,590,000 to the Prior Trustee to pay all of the outstanding principal and accrued interest on the Prior Debt and redeem the Prior Debt on September 15, 2004. Any balance of moneys deposited to the Refunding Fund after payment of the Prior Debt shall be transferred to the Project Fund.

Section 4.12 Investments. Moneys contained in the funds and accounts held by the Trustee shall be continuously invested and reinvested by the Trustee at the direction of the Corporation, as advised by the Board, in Permitted Investments, to the extent practicable, that shall mature (or be readily convertible to cash) not later than the respective dates, as estimated by the Trustee, when the moneys in said Funds and Accounts shall be required for the purposes intended, and:

(a) No such investment shall be required to be made unless the cash at the time available therefor is at least equal to $1,000;

(b) The Trustee shall be authorized, to the extent necessary to enable the Trustee to discharge or perform its obligations hereunder, at any one or more times to sell any part or all of the investments whenever it may, for any reason or purpose whatsoever, deem any such sale to be desirable;

(c) Any income derived from and any profit or loss on any such investment of moneys on deposit in any such fund or account shall be credited or debited, as the case may be, to the respective fund or account in which earned except that if the balance of the Debt Service Reserve Fund is equal to or greater than the Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement, earnings in the Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be transferred to the Interest Account;

(d) No Permitted Investments in any fund or account may mature beyond the latest maturity date of any Bonds outstanding at the time such Permitted Investments are deposited. For the purposes of this section, the maturity date of repurchase agreements for obligations is the maturity date of such repurchase agreements and not the maturity date of the underlying obligation except as otherwise permitted in writing by the Bond Insurer;

(e) Moneys in the Debt Service Reserve Fund may be invested only in Permitted Investments maturing or redeemable at the option of the holder not later than two (2) years from the date of purchase thereof; provided, however, if moneys in the Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be invested in a guaranteed investment contract the Value of which is equal to the amount available to be withdrawn therefrom, such guaranteed investment contract may have a term of up to ten (10) years; and

(f) No float forward or forward purchase agreement or other arrangement, agreement or financial product may be utilized in connection with the Debt Service Fund the Debt Service Reserve Fund or the Replacement Fund unless the Bond Insurer so permits and the terms thereof (including, without limitation, the parties thereto) are satisfactory to the Bond Insurer and, if satisfactory to the Bond Insurer, such agreements will constitute Permitted Investments.

An Authorized Corporation Representative shall give to the Trustee directions respecting the investment of any money required to be invested hereunder, subject, however, to the provisions of this Article and Article V of the Agreement, and the Trustee shall then invest such money under this Section as so directed. The Trustee shall in no event have any liability for any loss resulting from the investment of moneys in accordance with the directions of the Authorized Corporation Representative. The Trustee shall furnish the Issuer annually with a written copy and the Corporation with a written copy for the Board, on at least a monthly basis, of the types, amounts, yield and maturities of all such investments.

Investments shall be valued by the Trustee as frequently as deemed necessary by the Bond Insurer, but not less often than annually, at the Value thereof. Deficiencies in the amount on deposit in any fund or account resulting from a decline in Value shall be restored no later than the succeeding valuation date.

Section 4.13 Depository of Moneys and Security for Deposits. All of the funds and accounts established hereunder shall be special trust accounts held by the Trustee in trust for the benefit of the owners of the Series 2004 Bonds and shall not be subject to lien or attachment by any creditors of the Trustee, the Issuer, the Corporation, or the Board. Uninvested sums in these funds and accounts shall be continually secured as are deposits of uninvested sinking funds of political subdivisions of the State or in the manner prescribed by federal law for securing any federal trust funds as may be prescribed from time to time by the Comptroller of the Currency.

Section 4.14 Arbitrage. Notwithstanding all the provisions hereof, the Issuer shall not direct the investment of moneys in the various funds and accounts created hereunder in a manner which would result in the loss of exclusion from gross income of interest on the Series 2004A Bonds and Series 2004B Bonds for federal income tax purposes or in such manner which would result in the Series 2004A Bonds, Series 2004B Bonds, or any Additional Bonds that are Tax-Exempt Bonds becoming "arbitrage bonds" within the meaning of Section 148 of the Code.

Section 4.15 Payments From Project Fund. Payment of the Costs of the Facilities shall be made from the Project Fund. All payments from the Project Fund shall be subject to the provisions and restrictions set forth in this Article, and the Issuer covenants that it will not cause or permit to be paid from the Project Fund any sums except in accordance with such provisions and restrictions.

Moneys in the Project Fund shall be used to pay the Costs of the Facilities described in Exhibit A to the Agreement; provided that if an Event of Default under the Agreement or Indenture has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall transfer moneys in the Project Fund to the Debt Service Fund for the purpose of paying the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Bonds.

Section 4.16 Costs of the Facilities. For the purpose of this Indenture, the Costs of the Facilities shall embrace such costs as are eligible costs within the purview of the Act and the Code and, without intending thereby to limit or restrict any proper definition of such Costs, shall include the following:

- (a) obligations incurred by the Corporation for the benefit of the Board with respect to the lease of the property and the demolition of certain existing facilities and the renovation, development and construction of the Facilities, for labor, materials and services provided by contractors, builders and others in connection with the construction and equipping of the Facilities, machinery and equipment, necessary water and sewer lines and connections, utilities and landscaping, the restoration or relocation of any property damaged or destroyed in connection with such construction, the removal, demolition or relocation of any structures, and the clearing of lands and the reasonably allocable expenses of the Corporation with respect to the Facilities;
- (b) the cost of acquiring by purchase, if deemed expedient, or leasing such lands, property, rights, rights-of-way, servitudes, easements, franchises and other interests as may be deemed necessary or convenient by the Authorized Corporation Representative for the construction and equipping of the Facilities, the cost of options and partial payments thereon, the cost of demolishing or removing any buildings or structures on land so acquired, including the cost of acquiring any lands to which such buildings or structures may be moved and the amount of any damages incident to or consequent upon the construction of the Facilities;

(c) interest on the Bonds prior to the establishment of the completion date of the Facilities pursuant to Section 3.7 of the Agreement, and the reasonable fees and expenses, including counsel fees, of the Trustee for its services prior to and during construction, and premiums on insurance, if any, in connection with the Facilities;

(d) the cost of borings and other preliminary investigations, if any, to determine foundation or other conditions, expenses necessary or incident to determining the feasibility or practicability of constructing the Facilities and fees and expenses of engineers, architects, management consultants for making studies, surveys and estimates of cost and of revenues and other estimates, costs of environmental surveys, reports and remediation, and fees and expenses of engineers and architects for preparing plans and specifications and supervising construction as well as for the performance of all other duties of engineers and architects set forth herein in relation to the acquisition and construction of the Facilities and the issuance of the Bonds therefor;

(e) all other items of expense not elsewhere in this Section specified incident to the lease of the property and the construction and equipping of the Facilities and the financing thereof, including professional fees, moving expenses, the acquisition of lands, property, rights, rights-of-way, easements, franchises and interest in or relating to lands, including title insurance, cost of demand surveys, other surveys and other expenses in connection with such acquisition, legal fees and expenses, and expenses of administration and overhead, all properly chargeable, in the opinion of the Authorized Corporation Representative, to the acquisition, construction and equipping of the Facilities; and

(f) any obligation or expense heretofore or hereafter incurred or paid by the Corporation for or in connection with any of the foregoing purposes.

Section 4.17 Requisitions from the Project Fund. Payments from the Project Fund shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this Section. In connection with a payment from the Project Fund, there shall be filed with the Trustee a requisition, substantially in the form of Exhibit B attached hereto and made a part hereof, signed by an Authorized Corporation Representative, stating:

(a) the item number of each such payment,

(b) the name of the person, firm or corporation to whom each such payment is due, or, if such payment has been made by the Corporation, that the Trustee is to reimburse the Corporation directly for such payment,

(c) the respective amounts to be paid,

(d) the purpose by general classification for which each obligation to be paid was incurred,

(e) that obligations in the stated amounts have been incurred by the Corporation and are either (i) presently due and payable or (ii) have been paid by the Corporation and that each item thereof is a proper charge against the Project Fund and has not been the subject of any prior requisition,

(f) that such requisition contains no item representing payment on account of any retainage to which the Corporation is entitled at the date of such requisition, and

(g) a certification that all work, materials, supplies and equipment which are the subject of such requisition have been performed or delivered and are in accordance with the description of the Facilities referred to above.

Upon receipt of each requisition and accompanying certificate and information, the Trustee shall pay the obligations set forth in such requisition out of the money in the Project Fund, and each such obligation shall be paid by check signed by one or more officers or employees of the Trustee designated for such purpose by the Trustee or by wire transfer or credit to an account of the Corporation held by the Trustee or in such other manner as may be agreed on by the Corporation and the Trustee. In making such payments the Trustee may rely upon such requisitions. If for any reason the Corporation should decide prior to the payment of any item in a requisition not to pay such item, it shall give written notice of such decision to the Trustee and thereupon the Trustee shall not make such payment.

Section 4.18 Reliance upon Requisitions. All requisitions and opinions received by the Trustee as conditions of payment from the Project Fund may be relied upon by the Trustee and shall be retained by the Trustee, subject at all reasonable times to examination by the Issuer, the Board and the Corporation.

Section 4.19 Completion of the Facilities and Disposition of Project Fund Balance. When the construction of the Facilities shall have been completed, which fact shall be evidenced to the Trustee by a certificate of an Authorized Corporation Representative delivered to the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.7 of the Agreement, the balance in the Project Fund shall be transferred by the Trustee to the Interest Account and/or the Principal Account of the Debt Service Fund (subject to the provisions of Section 4.3 hereof) and applied first to any payments owed pursuant to Section 4.8(c), (d), (e) or (f) hereof, within one (1) year of the completion date, such amounts to be paid at the times set forth in Section 4.8 thereof, and then, on such one (1) year anniversary, if any funds remain, to redeem the Bonds in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.4 hereof. In the event that Additional Bonds for any subsequent phase of the Facilities are issued after the completion of all previous phases of the Facilities, but prior to such one (1) year anniversary, any amounts transferred from the Project Fund and still in the Debt Service Fund shall be transferred back to the Project Fund and shall be used to fund such subsequent phase of the Facilities.

Section 4.20 Amounts Remaining in Funds; Releases. It is agreed by the parties hereto that any amounts remaining in the Funds and Accounts existing pursuant to this Indenture upon the expiration or sooner cancellation or termination of the Agreement, as provided therein, after payment in full of all Outstanding Bonds (or provisions for the payment thereof having been made in accordance with Article XII of this Indenture), and the fees, charges and expenses of the Issuer and the Trustee and all other amounts required to be paid under the Agreement and under this Indenture, and under the Reimbursement Agreement other than amounts payable as arbitrage rebate under Section 148(f) of the Code, shall belong to and be paid to the University.

Section 4.21 Application of Money in the Debt Service Reserve Fund. (a) The Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be funded on the date of delivery of the Series 2004 Bonds in an amount equal to the Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement. If any Additional Bonds that are Tax-Exempt Bonds are issued, the Issuer shall cause to be deposited in the Debt Service Reserve Fund, an amount necessary to make the amount on deposit in the Debt Service Reserve Fund equal to the Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement.

(b) The Trustee shall transfer money from the Debt Service Reserve Fund to the Interest Account and the Principal Account of the Debt Service Fund to pay interest on and principal of (whether at maturity, by acceleration or in satisfaction of the mandatory sinking fund redemption requirements therefor) the Series 2004A Bonds, the Series 2004B Bonds, and any Additional Bonds that are Tax-Exempt Bonds, whenever and to the extent that the money on deposit in said accounts (together with any amounts available therefor in the Surplus Fund and the Replacement Fund) is insufficient for such purposes. Amounts in the Debt Service Reserve Fund shall not be used to pay interest on or principal of (whether at maturity, by acceleration, or in satisfaction of the mandatory sinking fund redemption requirements therefor) the Series 2004C Bonds or any Additional Bonds that are not Tax-Exempt Bonds. If the Trustee applies any moneys in the Debt Service Reserve Fund to the payment of principal of and interest on the Bonds, the Trustee shall give immediate notice to the Bond Insurer.

(c) If the money held in the Debt Service Reserve Fund, including interest earnings, exceeds the Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement an amount equal to such excess shall be transferred by the Trustee to the Interest Account of the Debt Service Fund unless Additional Bonds have been issued, in which case, at the direction of the Issuer, the excess moneys in the Debt Service Reserve Fund shall, at any time prior to completion of construction of the Facilities, as certified pursuant to Section 4.19 of this Indenture, be transferred to the Project Fund. The Trustee shall not be required to liquidate any investment before its maturity to make such transfer. Whenever the amount on deposit in the Debt Service Reserve Fund is less than the Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement, the Trustee shall notify the Issuer, the Bond Insurer and the Corporation of the amount of such deficiency and such deficiency will be remedied, as provided in Section 4.8(h) hereof. Upon notification the Corporation shall deliver to the Trustee an amount sufficient to cure the deficiency in accordance herewith and the Agreement.

(d) The Issuer may, at the direction of the Corporation, as advised by the Board, and with the prior written consent of the Bond Insurer, at any time, deposit with the Trustee, to replace cash in the Debt Service Reserve Fund (in which case the replaced cash shall be paid to the University) or to meet the requirements herein that it deposit additional amounts in the Debt Service Reserve Fund, a Debt Service Reserve Fund Investment. Any bank issuing a letter of credit must have a rating on its unsecured debt, or on debt secured by its letters of credit and which ratings are based solely on the bank's letter of credit, of "AA-" or better by S&P and "Aa3" or better by Moody's. Any insurance company issuing a surety bond must have a claims-paying ability rating of "AAA" by S&P and "Aaa" by Moody's. If such Debt Service Reserve Fund Investment expires prior to fifteen (15) days after the final maturity of the Series 2004 Bonds, it must provide, that if not renewed within fifteen (15) days prior to its expiration date in an amount equal to the undrawn amount thereof (other than because of a reduction in the Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement or the deposit of cash in the Debt Service Reserve Fund to replace it), the Trustee may draw the full amount of such Debt Service Reserve Fund Investment. The Trustee shall draw down the full amount of such Debt Service Reserve Fund Investment and deposit such amount in the Debt Service Reserve Fund fifteen (15) days prior to expiration of such Debt Service Reserve Fund Investment if it is not renewed as provided for in the preceding sentence. The Debt Service Reserve Fund Investment must be able to be drawn upon at any time that cash could be withdrawn from the Debt Service Reserve Fund. Prior to accepting any such Debt Service Reserve Fund Investment, the Trustee, the Corporation, the Board, the Issuer and the Bond Insurer must receive a Bond Counsel opinion that such acceptance and any payment of funds in the Debt Service Reserve Fund to the Corporation is authorized by this Indenture and will not adversely affect the exclusion of interest on the Series 2004A Bonds, the Series 2004B Bonds, or any Additional Bonds that are Tax-Exempt Bonds from gross income for purposes of federal income taxation. If a Debt Service Reserve Fund Investment is deposited in the Debt Service Reserve Fund in lieu of cash, the cash amount contained in the Debt Service Reserve Fund shall be transferred to the Replacement Fund.

If a disbursement is made under a surety bond deposited in the Debt Service Reserve Fund, the Corporation shall be obligated to either reinstate the maximum limits of such surety bond immediately following such disbursement in twelve (12) equal monthly installments or as required by the Issuer of the Debt Service Reserve Fund Investment in an amount equal to the Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement or deposit into the Debt Service Reserve Fund funds in the amount of the disbursement made under the Debt Service Reserve Fund Investment, or a combination of such alternatives as shall equal the Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement.

Section 4.22 Application of Insurance Proceeds; Condemnation Award. (a) If all or any portion of the Facilities is damaged or destroyed by a Casualty (as defined in the Facilities Lease), or is taken by Expropriation (as defined in the Facilities Lease) proceedings, the Corporation shall, upon receipt of notice from the University and/or the Board instructing the Corporation to do so, as expeditiously as possible, continuously and diligently prosecute or cause to be prosecuted the repair, restoration, or replacement thereof; provided however, that the Corporation shall in no way be liable for any costs of the repair, restoration or replacement of the Facilities in excess of the proceeds of any insurance or of any Expropriation award received because of such Casualty or Expropriation. The proceeds of any insurance, including the proceeds of any self-insurance through ORM, or of any Expropriation award or payment in lieu of Expropriation, received on account of any damage, destruction or taking of all or any portion of the Facilities shall be delivered to the Trustee and held by the Trustee in a special account to be established upon receipt of any such funds and held by the Trustee in trust or in the case of self insurance through ORM, as set forth in paragraph (b) below; and shall be made available for, and to the extent necessary be applied to, such restoration, repair and replacement. Any amounts so held by the Trustee shall be disbursed to pay the costs of restoration, replacement and repair of the Facilities with respect to which they are held, in each case promptly after receipt of a written request of the Corporation as advised by the Board stating that the amount to be disbursed pursuant to such request will be used to pay costs of replacing or repairing or restoring the Facilities and that no amount previously has been disbursed by the Trustee for payment of the costs to be so paid. In making such payments, the Trustee may conclusively rely upon such written requests and shall have no liability or responsibility to investigate any matter stated therein, or for any inaccuracy or misstatement therein. In no event shall the Trustee be responsible for the adequacy of the plans and specifications or construction contract relating to the replacement, restoration, or repair of the Facilities, or for the improper use of moneys properly disbursed pursuant to request made under this Section. Any proceeds remaining on deposit with Trustee following completion of the repairs, restoration or replacement of the Facilities shall be paid by Trustee to the Board.

In the event the University decides not to repair, restore or replace the Facilities for any reason, all insurance proceeds received or payable as a result of such Casualty, or all proceeds received or payable as a result of Expropriation proceedings (including payments received or payable in lieu of Expropriation and including any portion of such payments attributable to the Board's interest) shall be paid to the Trustee and applied to the prepayment of the Series 2004 Bonds in accordance with the terms of this Indenture.

(b) In the event ORM insures the Facilities, the Board shall cause the Corporation to use the insurance proceeds received from ORM in accordance with Policy and Procedure Memorandum Number 10 (requiring invoices to be submitted to ORM for payment to vendors, or alternatively, production of invoices paid by the Board to ORM for reimbursement of vendor payments) to effect the repair, restoration or replacement of the Facilities.

Section 4.23 Application of Money in Replacement Fund. (a) The Trustee shall, in accordance with Section 4.2 hereof, deposit an amount equal to the Replacement Fund Requirement into the Replacement Fund on the Closing Date.

All moneys in the Replacement Fund shall be held for the benefit of the Board through the Corporation, are not pledged under this Indenture and may be drawn on and used by the Corporation or the Board to (i) replace any worn out, obsolete, inadequate, unsuitable or undesirable property, furniture, equipment, fixtures and other property owned by the Board or the Corporation and located on the Facilities and (ii) maintain the Facilities and to make all alterations, repairs, restorations and replacements to the Facilities as and when needed to preserve the Facilities in good working order, condition and repair, each as required by the Facilities Lease. Withdrawals from the Replacement Fund for the purposes set forth above shall be made by the Trustee upon its receipt of a requisition from the University or the Corporation substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C. Moneys in the Replacement Fund may also be drawn by the Trustee and transferred to the Debt Service Fund if amounts on deposit therein, together with amounts available therefor in the Surplus Fund, are insufficient to pay debt service on the Bonds on any Interest Payment Date or Principal Payment Date.

(b) Any moneys remaining in the Replacement Fund immediately prior to the time all of the Bonds are paid, or provision for their payment is made in accordance with Article XII hereof shall, at the option of the University, be used, together with amounts held in the Debt Service Reserve Fund, to pay in full all outstanding Bonds in accordance with their terms or shall be paid to the University.

Section 4.24 Application of Moneys in the Rebate Fund. Moneys in the Rebate Fund shall be used to make any rebate payments required to be made to the United States under the Code. The Rebate Fund shall be held for the sole benefit of the United States of America and is not pledged under this Indenture. Moneys required to be paid to the United States shall be deposited in the Rebate Fund by the Board as Base Rental under the Facilities Lease as required thereby and by this Indenture.

Section 4.25 Application of Money in the Surplus Fund.

(a) Amounts deposited into the Surplus Fund shall be retained in the Surplus Fund until an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the Outstanding principal amount of the Series 2004C Bonds has been accumulated therein. Funds on deposit in the Surplus Fund at the end of any Fiscal Year may be transferred to the University on the date described below if (i) the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Facilities was 1.10:1.00 or greater for such Fiscal Year as evidenced by the audited financial statements for such Fiscal Year and (ii) neither the Corporation or the Board are in default under the financing documents on the date of transfer to the University. Upon receipt of the audited financial statements for such Fiscal Year, provided that the above described conditions have been met, then at the written instruction of the University Representative, the Trustee shall transfer all of the amounts in the Surplus Fund on the last day of the immediately preceding Fiscal Year to the University, but only to the extent of funds in the Surplus Fund that exceed ten percent (10%) of the Outstanding principal amount of the Series 2004C Bonds on the date of such transfer to the University.

(b) To the extent that there are insufficient funds in the Receipts Fund to make any of the transfers to the various funds and accounts required under Section 4.8(a) through (j) hereof on the dates such transfers are required to be made; any amounts contained in the Surplus Fund shall be transferred to such funds and accounts, in the priority set forth in Section 4.8 hereof, to make up for such deficiency.

Section 4.26 Payments on Bond Insurance Policies.

A. In the event that, on the second Business Day, and again on the Business Day, prior to the payment date on the Bonds (a "Bond Payment Date"), the Trustee has not received sufficient moneys to pay all principal of and interest on the Bonds due on the second following or following, as the case may be, Business Day, the Trustee shall immediately notify the Bond Insurer or its designee on the same Business Day by telephone or telegraph, confirmed in writing by registered or certified mail, of the amount of the deficiency.

B. If the deficiency is made up in whole or in part prior to or on the payment date, the Trustee shall so notify the Bond Insurer or its designee.

C. In addition, if the Trustee has actual knowledge that any Bond Owner has been required to disgorge payments of principal or interest on the Bonds to a trustee in Bankruptcy or creditors or others pursuant to a final judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction that such payment constitutes a voidable preference to such Bondholder within the meaning of any applicable bankruptcy laws, then the Trustee shall notify the Bond Insurer or its designee of such fact by telephone or telegraphic notice, confirmed in writing by registered or certified mail.

D. The Trustee is hereby irrevocably designed, appointed, directed and authorized to act as attorney-in-fact for holders of the Bonds as follows:

1. If and to the extent there is a deficiency in amounts required to pay interest on the Bonds, the Trustee shall (a) execute and deliver the U.S. Bank Trust National Association, or its successors under the Bond Insurance Policies (the "Insurance Trustee"), in form satisfactory to the Insurance Trustee, an instrument appointing the Bond Insurer as agent for such Bondholders in any legal proceeding related to the payment of such interest and an assignment to the Bond Insurer of the claims for interest to which such deficiency relates and which are paid by the Bond Insurer, (b) receive as designee of the respective Bondholders (and not as Trustee) in accordance with the tenor of the Bond Insurance Policies payment from the Insurance Trustee with respect to the claims for interest so assigned, and (c) disburse the same to such respective Bondholders; and

2. If and to the extent of a deficiency in amounts required to pay principal of the Bonds, the Trustee shall (a) execute and deliver to the Insurance Trustee in form satisfactory to the Insurance Trustee an instrument appointing the Bond Insurer as agent for such Bondholder in any legal proceeding relating to the payment of such principal and an assignment to the Bond Insurer of any of the Bonds surrendered to the Insurance Trustee of so much of the principal amount thereof as has not previously been paid or for which moneys are not held by the Trustee and available for such payment (but such assignment shall be delivered only if payment from the Insurance Trustee is received), (b) receive as designee of the respective Bondholders (and not as Trustee) in accordance with the tenor of the Bond Insurance Policies payment therefor from the Insurance Trustee, and (c) disburse the same to such Bondholders.

E. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event that principal and/or interest on the Bonds or a series of Bonds is paid by the Bond Insurer pursuant to the Bond Insurance Policy, the Bonds or series of Bonds shall remain Outstanding for all purposes and the Bond Insurer shall be subrogated to the rights of the owners of such Bonds.

F. The Bond Insurer shall have the right to consent in lieu of the owners of Bonds to all amendments to this Indenture, as long as the Bond Insurer is not in default on its obligations under the Bond Insurance Policies. Copies of any such amendments which have been consented to by the Bond Insurer shall be sent to Standard & Poor's Ratings Services, a division of The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc.

G. (i) The Bond Insurer shall receive copies of all notices required to be delivered to Bondholders and, on an annual basis, copies of the University's audited financial statements.

(ii) Any notice that is required to be given to a holder a Bond or to the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture shall also be provided to the Bond Insurer.

H. The Issuer agrees to reimburse the Bond Insurer, but solely from the Trust Estate, immediately and unconditionally upon demand, to the extent permitted by law, for all reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees and expenses, incurred by the Bond Insurer in connection with (i) the enforcement by the Bond Insurer of the Bonds, or the preservation or defense of any rights of the Bond Insurer, under this Indenture, the Agreement and any other document executed in connection with the issuance of the Bonds, and (ii) any consent, amendment, waiver or other action with respect to this Indenture, the Agreement or any related document, whether or not granted or approved, together with interest on all such expenses from and including the date incurred to the date of payment at Citibank's Prime Rate plus 3% or the maximum interest rate permitted by law, whichever is less. In addition, the Bond Insurer reserves the right to charge a fee in connection with its review of any such consent, amendment or waiver, whether or not granted or approved.

I. The Issuer agrees not to use the Bond Insurer's name in any public document including, without limitation, a press release or presentation, announcement or forum without the Bond Insurer's prior consent. In the event that the Issuer is advised by counsel that it has a legal obligation to disclose the Bond Insurer's name in any press release, public announcement or other public document, the Issuer shall provide the Bond Insurer with at least three (3) business days' prior written notice of its intent to use the Bond Insurer's name together with a copy of the proposed use of the Bond Insurer's name and of any description of a transaction with the Bond Insurer and shall obtain the Bond Insurer's prior consent as to the form and substance of the proposed use of the Bond Insurer's name and any such description.

J. The Issuer shall not enter into any agreement nor shall it consent to or participate in any arrangement pursuant to which Bonds are tendered or purchased for any purpose other than the redemption and cancellation or legal defeasance of such Bonds without the prior written consent of the Bond Insurer.

ARTICLE V

ADDITIONAL BONDS

Section 5.1 Additional Bonds. (a) Additional Bonds may be issued in one or more series by the Issuer at the request of the Corporation as advised by the Board under a supplement to this Indenture to pay all or part of the additional cost of the Facilities, including, but not limited to, the costs of Phase Three of the Facilities, so long as:

(i) No Event of Default under this Indenture has occurred and is then continuing and the Issuer shall have approved the issuance of such additional bonds; and

(ii) There shall have been filed with the Trustee an opinion of an attorney or firm of attorneys generally recognized as having expertise in matters relating to municipal bonds to the effect that the exclusion from "gross income" for federal income tax purposes of the interest on the Bonds then outstanding under this Indenture shall not be adversely affected.

Such series of Additional Bonds shall be appropriately designated, shall be dated, shall bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding the maximum rate then permitted by law, shall be numbered, shall have such paying agents and shall have such maturities and redemption provisions, all as may be provided in the supplement to this Indenture or the separate indenture authorizing the issuance of such series of Additional Bonds. It is anticipated that Additional Bonds will be issued hereunder to finance phase three of the Facilities.

The written consent of the Bond Insurer shall not be required in connection with the issuance of such Additional Bonds, but the Bond Insurer shall have the right to review and approve the documentation prepared in connection with the issuance of such Additional Bonds to ensure that such documentation is as contemplated by this Indenture and does not adversely affect the rights of the Bond Insurer under this Indenture in a manner not contemplated hereby.

(b) Additional Bonds may be issued under this Indenture for any other purpose with the prior written consent of the Bond Insurer.

Section 5.2 Refunding. Refunding Bonds may be issued under and secured by a supplement to this Indenture for the purpose of providing funds for the refunding of the Bonds and Additional Bonds; provided that if Refunding Bonds are issued other than for the purpose of realizing interest savings, the Bond Insurer's consent in writing must be obtained prior to the issuance of such Additional Bonds and the execution of a Supplemental Indenture in accordance with Section 10.1(d) hereof.

Section 5.3 Additional Bonds and Refunding Bonds. The Bond Insurer shall receive copies of any disclosure documents circulated with respect to such Additional Bonds and Refunding Bonds.

ARTICLE VI

COSTS OF ISSUANCE

Section 6.1 Payment of Costs of Issuance from Bond Proceeds Fund. There shall be paid into the Costs of Issuance Account in the Bond Proceeds Fund the amounts required to be so paid from Series 2004 Bond proceeds pursuant to Section 4.2(f) of this Indenture; and such amounts shall be applied to the payment of all items of expense, directly or indirectly payable or reimbursable and related to the authorization, sale and issuance of the Series 2004 Bonds including, but not limited to, publication costs, printing costs, costs of preparation and reproduction of documents, filing and recording fees, initial fees and charges of the Trustee, the Issuer or any other fiduciary, legal fees and charges, fees and disbursements of consultants and professionals and any other cost, charge or fee in connection with the original sale and issuance of the Series 2004 Bonds, including, the premium payable for the Bond Insurance Policies. Any additional costs of issuance shall be paid solely by the Corporation. The Trustee shall make payments from the Costs of Issuance Account upon receipt of statements from the parties entitled to be paid therefrom accompanied by a written request of the Issuer and the University directing the Trustee to pay such statements. Any amounts in the Costs of Issuance Account remaining after payment in full of all of the expenses and costs of issuance of the Series 2004 Bonds shall be transferred to the Project Fund.

ARTICLE VII

ENFORCEMENT OF AGREEMENT AND FACILITIES LEASE

Section 7.1 Assignment of Agreement and Facilities Lease. The Issuer has assigned all of its right, title and interest in, to and under the Agreement (except for rights relating to exculpation, indemnification and payment of expenses thereunder), including the interest of the Issuer in and to the Facilities Lease assigned by the Corporation to the Issuer thereunder (except for payments of Additional Rentals made thereunder), to the Trustee as security for the Bonds and hereby agrees that the Agreement and the Facilities Lease may be enforced by the Trustee and/or the owners of the Bonds issued hereunder in accordance with the terms hereof and thereof. Notwithstanding such assignment, the Issuer agrees to cause the Corporation to comply with the terms contained in the Agreement and the Facilities Lease and the rights of the Bondholders and the Trustee shall be governed by the provisions of this Indenture, the Agreement and the Facilities Lease.

Section 7.2 Trustee or Bondholders to Enforce Agreement and Facilities Lease. The Trustee may, and upon request of the Bond Insurer or the owners of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then outstanding shall, subject to the provisions of Section 8.11 and Article IX hereof, strictly and promptly enforce the provisions of the Agreement and the Facilities Lease so long as any of the Bonds remain outstanding under this Indenture. All rights of action (including the right to file proof of claims) to enforce the Agreement and the Facilities Lease under this Indenture or under any of the Bonds may be enforced by the Trustee without the possession of the Bonds and without their production in any trial or other proceeding relating thereto. Any such suit or proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its name as Trustee for the Bondholders without the necessity of joining as plaintiffs or defendants any of the Bondholders.

ARTICLE VIII

EVENTS OF DEFAULT; REMEDIES

Section 8.1 No Extension of Time for Payment of Principal, Premium or Interest. The Trustee shall not be authorized to extend the time for any payment of principal, premium or interest without the prior written consent of or authorization by the owner of the Bonds so affected.

Section 8.2 Events of Default. Each of the following events is hereby declared to be an "Event of Default":

- (a) The payment of any installment of interest on any of the Bonds shall not be made when the same shall become due and payable;
- (b) The payment of the principal of or premium, if any, on any of the Bonds shall not be made when the same shall become due and payable, whether at maturity or by proceedings for redemption or by acceleration or otherwise;
- (c) An "Event of Default" under Article IX of the Agreement shall have occurred;
- (d) A default shall occur under Section 21 of the Facilities Lease;
- (e) Default by the Issuer in the due and punctual performance of any other of the covenants, conditions, agreements or provisions contained in the Bonds or in this Indenture on the part of the Issuer to be performed, if such default shall continue for thirty (30) days after written notice specifying such default and requiring the same to be remedied shall have been given to the Issuer, the Board, the Bond Insurer and the Corporation by the Trustee, which may give such notice in its discretion and shall give such notice at the written request of the owners of not less than a majority in principal amount of the Bonds then outstanding. Such default shall not become an Event of Default if said default be of the nature that (i) it cannot be corrected within the thirty (30) day period after receipt of notice, but the Issuer (or the Corporation pursuant to the provisions of Section 8.14 of this Indenture) promptly shall institute and diligently pursue corrective action until such default is cured, or (ii) the Trustee shall determine that such default is not curable but such default does not affect the validity or enforceability of the Bonds, this Indenture or the Agreement, an event of nonperformance shall not have occurred under the Agreement (other than as a result of the cross-default provisions), and such default does not impair the security or the obligations provided for or under the Bonds, this Indenture or the Agreement, and (iii) the Bond Insurer shall have consented to such event not being an Event of Default.

The word "default" as used herein means failure of performance when due, exclusive of any period of grace, if any, allowed to correct any such failure. In addition, in determining whether a default in the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on the Bonds has occurred or whether a payment of Bonds has been made hereunder, no effect shall be given to the payments made under the Bond Insurance Policies.

For all purposes of this Article VIII (other than Section 8.13 hereof), the Bond Insurer shall be deemed to be the sole owner of the Bonds it has insured for so long as it has not failed to comply with its payment obligations under the Bond Insurance Policies, and the Bond Insurer shall be entitled to (i) notify the Trustee of the occurrence of an Event of Default hereunder, (ii) request that the Trustee intervene in judicial proceedings that affect the Bonds or the security therefor, (iii) direct all remedies in the Event of Default, (iv) be recognized as the owner of each Bond which it insures for the purposes of exercising all rights and privileges available to Bondholders, (v) have the right to institute any suit, action, or proceeding at law or in equity under the same terms as a Bondholder in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture or each Bond for which it insures.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, any acceleration of principal payments must be subject to the Bond Insurer's prior written consent.

Section 8.3 Remedies. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Issuer, the Trustee and, subject to Sections 8.10 and 8.11 and all rights granted to the Bond Insurer under this Article VIII, the Bondholders shall have all the rights and remedies as may be allowed by law, this Indenture, the Mortgage, the Assignment of Agreements and Documents, or pursuant to the provisions of the Agreement and/or the Facilities Lease by virtue of their assignment hereunder, including but not limited to, acceleration of the maturity of all Bonds, or suit at law or in equity to enforce or enjoin the action or inaction of parties under the provisions of this Indenture, the Mortgage, the Agreement or the Facilities Lease.

Section 8.4 Acceleration; Annulment of Acceleration. (a) Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default described in Section 8.2 of this Indenture, the Trustee may, with the prior written consent of the Bond Insurer, and upon the written request of the Bond Insurer shall, by notice in writing to the Issuer, the Board and the Corporation, declare the Bonds then outstanding immediately due and payable, and such Bonds shall become and be immediately due and payable, anything in such Bonds or in the Agreement or this Indenture to the contrary notwithstanding, and, subject to Article IX, the Trustee may exercise any remedies granted to it herein. In such event, there shall be due and payable on the Bonds an amount equal to the principal amount of all the Bonds then outstanding plus all interest accrued thereon and which will accrue thereon to the date of payment. If the Bond Insurer shall be in default of its payment obligations under the Bond Insurance Policies, the owners of not less than a majority of the aggregate principal amount of Bonds outstanding, may direct the Trustee to declare the Bonds then outstanding immediately due and payable; and

(b) At any time after the principal of the Bonds shall have been so declared to be due and payable and before the entry of final judgment or decree in any suit, action or proceeding instituted on account of such default, or before the completion of the enforcement of any other remedy under this Indenture, the Agreement, the Mortgage, the Assignment of Agreements and Documents, or the Facilities Lease, the Trustee may annul such declaration and its consequences with respect to the Bonds if (i) moneys shall have been deposited in the Debt Service Fund sufficient to pay all matured installments of principal (other than principal due solely because of acceleration) and interest; (ii) moneys shall be available sufficient to pay the charges, compensation, expenses, disbursements, advances and liabilities of the Issuer and the Trustee; (iii) all other amounts then payable by the Issuer or the Corporation under this Indenture or the Agreement shall have been paid or a sum sufficient to pay the same shall have been deposited with the Trustee; and (iv) every Event of Default known to the Issuer or the Trustee (other than a default in the payment of the principal of the Bonds due only because of such declaration) shall have been remedied to the satisfaction of the Issuer and the Trustee. No such annulment shall extend to or affect any subsequent Event of Default or impair any right consequent thereon.

No waiver of any Event of Default shall be effective without the written consent of the Bond Insurer.

Section 8.5 Insufficiency in the Debt Service Fund and the Debt Service Reserve Fund; Application of Moneys. Anything in this Indenture to the contrary notwithstanding, if at any time the moneys in the Debt Service Fund and the Debt Service Reserve Fund shall not be sufficient to pay the interest on, premium, if any, or the principal of the Bonds as the same shall become due and payable (either by their terms or by acceleration of maturities), such moneys, together with any other moneys then available or thereafter becoming available for such purpose, whether through the exercise of the remedies provided for in this Article or otherwise, including, without limitation, moneys paid by the Corporation to the Trustee pursuant to the Mortgage, shall, subject to the provisions of Sections 9.2 and 9.4 hereof, be applied as follows:

(a) Unless the principal of all the Bonds shall have become or shall have been declared due and payable, all such moneys shall be applied:

FIRST, to the payment to the persons entitled thereto of all installments of interest then due and payable in the order in which such installments became due and payable and, if the amount available shall not be sufficient to pay any particular installment, then to the payment thereof, ratably, according to the amounts due on such installment, to the persons entitled thereto, without any discrimination or preference except as to any difference in the respective rates of interest specified in the Bonds; then

SECOND, to the payment to the persons entitled thereto of the unpaid principal of any of the Bonds which shall have become due and payable (other than Bonds called for redemption for the payment of which moneys are held pursuant to the provisions of this Indenture) in the order of their due dates, with interest on the principal amount of such Bonds due and payable, and, if the amount available shall not be sufficient to pay in full the principal of the Bonds and the interest thereon, then to the payment thereof ratably, according to the amount of the interest due on such date, and next, to the payment of the principal, ratably, according to the amount of such principal due on such date, to the persons entitled thereto without any discrimination or preference; and then

THIRD, to the payment of the interest on and the principal of the Bonds, to the purchase and retirement of Bonds and to the redemption of Bonds, all in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture.

(b) If the principal of all the Bonds shall have become or shall have been declared due and payable, all such moneys shall be applied to the payment of the principal and interest then due and unpaid upon the Bonds, without preference or priority of principal over interest or of interest over principal, or of any installment of interest over any other installment of interest, or of any Bond over any other Bond, ratably, according to the amounts due respectively for principal and interest, to the persons entitled thereto without any discrimination or preference.

(c) If the principal of all the Bonds shall have been declared due and payable and if such declaration shall thereafter have been rescinded and annulled, then, subject to the provisions of Section 8.5(b) above, in the event that the principal of all the Bonds shall later become or be declared due and payable, then all such moneys shall be applied in accordance with the provisions of Section 8.5(a) above.

Whenever money is to be applied by the Trustee pursuant to the provisions of this Section, such money shall be applied by the Trustee at such times and from time to time as the Trustee in its sole discretion shall determine, having due regard to the amount of such money available for application and the likelihood of additional money becoming available for application in the future; the deposit of such money or otherwise setting aside such money in trust for the proper purpose shall constitute proper application by the Trustee; and the Trustee shall incur no liability whatsoever to the Issuer, to any Bondholder or to any other person for any delay in applying any such money, so long as the Trustee acts with reasonable diligence, having due regard to the circumstances, and ultimately applies the same in accordance with such provisions of this Indenture as may be applicable at the time of application by the Trustee. Whenever the Trustee shall exercise such discretion in applying such money, it shall fix the date (which shall be an Interest Payment Date unless the Trustee shall deem another date more suitable) upon which such application is to be made and upon such date, interest on the amounts of principal to be paid on such date shall cease to accrue. The Trustee shall give such notice as it may deem appropriate of the fixing of any such date and shall not be required to make payment to the owner of any Bond until such Bond shall be surrendered to the Trustee for appropriate endorsement or for cancellation if fully paid.

Section 8.6 Discontinuance of Proceedings. In case any proceeding taken by the Trustee on account of any Event of Default shall have been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, then and in every such case the Issuer, the Trustee and the Bondholders shall be restored to their former positions and rights hereunder, respectively, and all rights, remedies, powers and duties of the Trustee shall continue as though no proceeding had been taken.

Section 8.7 Appointment of Receiver. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, and upon filing of a suit or other commencement of judicial proceedings to enforce the rights of the Trustee and of the Bondholders under this Indenture, the Trustee shall be entitled, as a matter of right, to the appointment of a receiver or keeper pending such proceedings, with such powers as the court making such appointment shall confer.

Section 8.8 Remedies Not Exclusive. No remedy by the terms of this Indenture conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee or the Bondholders is intended to be exclusive of any other remedy, but each and every remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given under this Indenture or existing at law or in equity on or after the date of execution and delivery of this Indenture.

Section 8.9 Remedies Vested in Trustee. All rights of action under this Indenture, the Agreement, the Mortgage, the Assignment of Agreements and Documents, or under any of the Bonds may be enforced by the Trustee without possession of the Bonds and without their production in any trial or other proceeding relating thereto. Any suit or proceeding instituted by the Trustee may be brought in its name as Trustee without the necessity of joining as plaintiffs or defendants any owners of the Bonds.

Section 8.10 Majority of Bondholders Control Proceedings. If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, notwithstanding anything in this Indenture to the contrary, but subject to all rights granted to the Bond Insurer in this Article VIII, the owners of at least a majority of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of Bonds then outstanding shall have the right after written notice delivered to the Trustee, at any time by an instrument or instruments in writing executed and delivered to the Trustee together with security or indemnity satisfactory to the Trustee, to direct the method and place of conducting any proceeding to be taken in connection with the enforcement of the terms and conditions of this Indenture, provided the direction is in accordance with law and the provisions of this Indenture and, in the sole judgment of the Trustee, is not unduly prejudicial to the interest of Bondholders not joining in such direction, and provided further, that nothing in this Section shall impair the right of the Trustee in its discretion to take any other action under this Indenture which it may deem proper and which is not inconsistent with the direction by Bondholders.

Section 8.11 Individual Bondholder Action Restricted. (a) No owner of any Bond shall have any right to institute any suit, action or proceeding for the enforcement of this Indenture or for the execution of any trust hereunder or for any remedy under this Indenture unless:

(i) An Event of Default has occurred (other than under Sections 8.2(a) or 8.2(b)) as to which the Trustee has actual notice, or as to which the Trustee has been notified in writing; and

(ii) The owners of at least a majority of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of Bonds shall have made written request to the Trustee to proceed to exercise the powers granted in this Indenture or to institute an action, suit or proceeding in its own name; and these Bondholders shall have offered the Trustee such indemnity as may be satisfactory to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall have failed or refused to exercise the powers granted in this Indenture or to institute an action, suit or proceeding in its own name for a period of sixty (60) days after receipt of the request and offer of indemnity.

(b) No one or more owners of Bonds shall have any right in any manner whatsoever to disturb or prejudice the security of this Indenture or to enforce any right hereunder except in the manner herein provided and then only for the equal benefit of the owners of all outstanding Bonds.

Section 8.12 Waiver and Non-Waiver of Event of Default. (a) No delay or omission of the Trustee or of any owner of Bonds to exercise any right or power accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair the right or power or shall be construed to be a waiver of an Event of Default or an acquiescence therein. Every power and remedy given by this Article to the Trustee and to the owners of the Bonds, respectively, may be exercised from time to time and as often as may be deemed expedient.

(b) The Trustee with Bond Insurer consent may waive any Event of Default which in its opinion shall have been remedied before the entry of final judgment or decree in any suit, action or proceeding instituted by it under the provisions of this Indenture or before the completion of the enforcement of any other remedy under this Indenture.

(c) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Indenture to the contrary, the Trustee, upon written request of the Bond Insurer or the Bond Insurer and the owners of at least a majority of the aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then outstanding shall waive any Event of Default and its consequences; provided, however, that a default in the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any Bond, when due and payable or upon call for redemption, may not be waived after the date the same becomes due and payable without the written consent of the owners of all the Bonds at the time outstanding.

(d) In case of a waiver by the Trustee of any Event of Default, the Issuer, the Trustee and the Bondholders shall be restored to their former positions and rights under this Indenture but no waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Event of Default or impair any right consequent thereon. The Trustee shall not be responsible to anyone for waiving or refraining from waiving any Event of Default in accordance with this Section.

Section 8.13 Notice of Defaults. (a) Within thirty (30) days after the receipt of notice of an Event of Default or the occurrence of an Event of Default of which the Trustee is deemed to have notice, the Trustee shall (unless the Event of Default has already been cured) give written notice of the Event of Default to the owners of all Bonds then outstanding in the manner provided in Section 13.8 of this Indenture, provided that, except in the case of a default in the payment of principal, redemption price, or interest on any of the Bonds, the Trustee may withhold the notice to the Bondholders if, in its sole judgment, it determines that the withholding of notice is not detrimental to the best interest of the Bondholders.

(b) The Trustee shall immediately notify, in writing, the Issuer, the Board, the Bond Insurer and the Corporation of any Event of Default known to the Trustee.

(c) The Trustee shall provide the Bond Insurer immediate notice of any default in the payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on the Bonds.

Section 8.14 Opportunity of Corporation to Cure Certain Defaults. The Issuer and the Trustee hereby grant the Corporation full authority on the account of the Board and/or the Issuer to perform any covenant or obligation and to otherwise fulfill any condition the failure or non-performance of which is or is alleged to be an Event of Default under Section 8.2(f) of this Indenture, and the Trustee agrees that performance by the Corporation shall be deemed to be performance by the Board and/or the Issuer.

ARTICLE IX

CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

Section 9.1 Acceptance of Trusts. The Trustee hereby represents and warrants to the Issuer (for the benefit of the Board, the Corporation and the Bondholders as well as the Issuer) that it is a bank and trust company duly organized and existing under the laws of the United States of America and that it is duly authorized under such laws to accept and execute trusts of the character herein set out. The Trustee accepts and agrees to execute the trusts imposed upon it by this Indenture, but only upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Article and subject to the provisions of this Indenture including the following express terms and conditions, to all of which the parties hereto and the respective Owners of the Bonds agree:

(a) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default within the purview of Section 8.2, the Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Indenture, and the Trustee shall not be responsible for (x) the legality or enforceability of this Indenture (except with respect to performance of its obligations hereunder), the Agreement (except with respect to performance of its obligations hereunder), the Facilities Lease (except with respect to performance of its obligations hereunder), the Tax Regulatory Agreement (except with respect to performance of its obligations thereunder), the Mortgage (except with respect to performance of its obligations thereunder), the Assignment of Agreements and Documents (except with respect to performance of its obligation thereunder) and any supplement thereto, the Bonds (except as to the authentication of the Bonds), or any instruments or documents related thereto (collectively, the "Bond Documents") or (y) the legality, perfection, sufficiency or priority of the Trust Estate or any lien purported to be granted thereon under any of the aforesaid documents or otherwise. No implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee.

(b) No provision of this Indenture shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its negligence or willful misconduct, except that:

(i) in the absence of bad faith on the part of the Trustee, the Trustee may rely upon the authenticity of, and the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed in, and shall be protected fully from liability in relying or acting upon, any resolution, opinion of counsel, certificate, request, notice, consent, waiver, order, signature guaranty, notarial seal, stamp, acknowledgment, verification, appraisal, report or other paper or document believed by the Trustee to be genuine and to have been signed, affixed or presented by the proper party or parties; but in the case of any such certificates or opinions that by any provision hereby are specifically required to be furnished to the Trustee, as the case may be, the Trustee shall be under a duty to examine the same to determine whether or not they conform to requirements of this Indenture; and

(ii) in the absence of bad faith on the part of the Trustee, whenever the Trustee, or any of its agents, representatives, experts or counsel, shall consider it necessary or desirable that any matter be proved or established, such matter shall be deemed to be conclusively proved and established by a certificate executed by an Authorized Issuer Representative; provided, however, that the Trustee, or such agent, representative, expert or counsel may require, but is not obligated to require, such further and additional evidence and make such further investigation as it or they may consider reasonable; and

(iii) the Trustee may consult with counsel and the advice or opinion of such counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or suffered hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such advice or opinion of counsel; and

(iv) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith and in accordance with any direction or request of the Bondholders; and

(v) the Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by an officer or employee of the Trustee unless the Trustee is negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts; and

(vi) the Trustee shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any Event of Default, except for the failure of the Corporation to make or cause to be made scheduled payments to the Trustee provided for in the Agreement, unless and until the Bond Insurer shall have given written notice to the Trustee of said default or until an officer of the Trustee who customarily handles corporate trusts and is assigned to supervise this Indenture shall have actual knowledge thereof or the Trustee shall have received written advice thereof from any Bondholder; and

(vii) anything in any of the Bond Documents to the contrary notwithstanding, whether or not an Event of Default shall have occurred, the Trustee shall not be under any obligation to take any action under this Indenture that may involve it in any expense or liability, the payment of which within a reasonable time is not, in its opinion, assured to it by the security afforded to it by the terms of this Indenture, unless it is requested in writing to do so by one or more owners of the Bonds outstanding hereunder and furnished, from time to time as it may require, with security and indemnity satisfactory to it; and

(viii) the Trustee need not take any action or follow any direction from any one or more Bondholders if the Trustee shall be advised by counsel that the action or proceedings so directed may not lawfully be taken or would be prejudicial to Bondholders not parties to such direction, or the Trustee in good faith believes following such direction would involve the Trustee in personal liability; and

(ix) in no event shall the Trustee be liable to any person for special, indirect or consequential damages, lost profits or loss of business arising under or in connection with this Indenture, even if previously informed of the possibility of such damages and regardless of the form of action; and

(x) anything to the contrary in the Bond Documents notwithstanding, the permissive right of the Trustee to do anything enumerated or set forth in any of the Bond Documents shall not be construed as a duty, and the Trustee shall not be held responsible or liable for other than its negligence or willful misconduct.

(c) In case an Event of Default within the purview of Section 8.2 hereof has occurred and is continuing and the Trustee has actual knowledge of such Event of Default or is deemed to have knowledge pursuant to (b)(vi) above, subject to the provisions of this Article IX, the Trustee shall exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture and use the degree of care and skill in their exercise as a prudent man would exercise under the circumstances.

(d) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Indenture relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee, including without limitation Sections 9.3 and 9.4 hereof, shall be subject to the provisions of this Section 9.1. The Trustee also accepts, and agrees to do and perform, the duties and obligations imposed upon it by and under the Agreement, the Facilities Lease and the Mortgage, but only upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement, the Facilities Lease, the Mortgage and this Indenture. The rights of the Trustee to do things enumerated in this Indenture shall not be construed as a duty.

Section 9.2 Trustee Entitled to Indemnity. The Trustee shall be under no obligation to institute any suit, or to take any remedial proceeding under this Indenture or under the Agreement, or to enter any appearance in or in any way defend against any suit, in which it may be made a defendant (except in the case of the Trustee's own negligence), or to take any steps in the execution of the trusts hereby created or in the enforcement of any rights and powers hereunder or under the Agreement or the Facilities Lease, until it shall be indemnified to its satisfaction against any and all costs and expenses, outlays and counsel fees and other reasonable disbursements, and against all liability; the Trustee may, nevertheless, begin suit, or appear in and defend suit, or do anything else in its judgment proper to be done by it as such Trustee, without indemnity, and in such case the Issuer shall reimburse the Trustee from funds available therefor under the Agreement for all costs and expenses, outlays and counsel fees and other reasonable disbursements properly incurred in connection therewith. If the Issuer shall fail to make reimbursement, the Trustee may reimburse itself from any moneys in its possession under the provisions of this Indenture and shall be entitled to a preference over any of the Bonds.

Section 9.3 Trustee Not Responsible for Insurance, Taxes, Execution of Indenture, Acts of the Issuer or Application of Moneys Applied in Accordance with this Indenture. The Trustee shall not be under any obligation to effect or maintain insurance or to renew any policies of insurance or to inquire as to the sufficiency of any policies of insurance carried by the Corporation for the benefit of the Board or to report, or make or file claims or proof of loss for, any loss or damage insured against or which may occur, or to keep itself informed or advised as to the payment of any taxes or assessments, or to require any such payment to be made. The Trustee shall have no responsibility in respect of the validity, sufficiency, due execution or acknowledgment of this Indenture or the validity or sufficiency of the security provided hereunder or in respect of the validity of the Bonds or the due execution or issuance thereof, except as to the authentication thereof.

The Trustee shall not be under any obligation to see that any duties herein imposed upon any party other than itself, or any covenants herein contained on the part of any party other than itself to be performed, shall be done or performed, and the Trustee shall be under no obligation for failure to see that any such duties or covenants are so done or performed.

The Trustee shall not be liable or responsible because of the failure of the Issuer or of any of its employees or agents to make any collections or deposits or to perform any act herein required of the Issuer or because of the loss of any moneys arising through the insolvency or the act or default or omission of any other depository in which such moneys shall have been deposited under the provisions of this Indenture. The Trustee shall not be responsible for the application of any of the proceeds of the Bonds or any other moneys deposited with it and paid out, withdrawn or transferred hereunder if such application, payment, withdrawal or transfer shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture.

The immunities and exemptions from liability of the Trustee hereunder shall extend to its directors, officers, employees and agents.

Section 9.4 Compensation. The Trustee shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for its ordinary services hereunder consistent with the results of the process by which the Trustee was selected and any extraordinary services rendered hereunder and to reimbursement for all expenses incurred in good faith hereunder, including the compensation, expenses and disbursements of such agents, representatives, experts and counsel as the Trustee may employ in connection with the exercise and performance of its powers and duties hereunder. Subject to the provisions of any contract relating to the compensation of the Trustee, the Issuer shall cause the Board to pay to the Trustee as administrative expenses its reasonable fees and charges as Additional Rent in accordance with the Facilities Lease upon the written request of the Trustee and provided the Issuer shall be furnished with sufficient funds to pay all costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by the Issuer in connection therewith as such costs and expenses accrue. If the Board shall fail to make any payment required by this Section, the Trustee may, but shall be under no obligation to, make such payment from any moneys in its possession under the provisions of this Indenture, and the Trustee shall be entitled to a preference therefor over any of the Bonds Outstanding hereunder.

Section 9.5 Trustee to Preserve Records. All records and files pertaining to the Corporation in the custody of the Trustee shall be open at all reasonable times to the inspection of the Issuer, the Board, the Corporation, the Bond Insurer and their agents and representatives.

Section 9.6 Trustee May be Bondholder. The Trustee and its directors, officers, employees or agents may in good faith buy, sell, own, hold and deal in any of the Bonds issued under and secured by this Indenture, and may join in the capacity of a Bondholder in any action which any Bondholder may be entitled to take with like effect as if such institution were not the Trustee under this Indenture.

Section 9.7 Trustee Not Responsible for Recitals. The recitals, statements and representations contained herein and in the Bonds shall be taken and construed as made by and on the part of the Issuer and not by the Trustee, and the Trustee shall not be under any responsibility for the correctness of the same.

Section 9.8 Trustee Responsible for Reinscription and Continuation Statements. The Trustee, as mortgagee under the Mortgage, is required under the terms of the Mortgage to reinscribe the Mortgage at such times as shall be necessary to preserve the lien thereof. Under the Agreement, the Corporation has covenanted to cooperate with the Trustee with regard to the foregoing. In the event that any continuation statement shall be required to keep current any financing statement or other filings with respect to security interests or other security devices securing the Bonds, the Trustee shall be obligated to file any such continuation statements and shall provide written notice to the Issuer of such filing, if any.

Section 9.9 Trustee May Rely on Certificates. Subject to the provisions of Section 9.1(b), the Trustee shall be protected and shall incur no liability in acting or proceeding, or in not acting or not proceeding, in good faith, reasonably and in accordance with the terms of this Indenture, upon any resolution, order, notice, request, consent, waiver, certificate, statement, affidavit, requisition, bond or other paper or document which it shall in good faith reasonably believe to be genuine and to have been adopted or signed by the proper board or person or to have been prepared and furnished pursuant to any of the provisions of the Agreement or this Indenture, or upon the written opinion of any attorney, engineer, accountant or other expert believed by it to be qualified in relation to the subject matter, and the Trustee shall not be under any duty to make any investigation or inquiry as to any statements contained or matters referred to in any such instrument.

Section 9.10 Qualification of the Trustee. There shall at all times be a Trustee hereunder. Any successor Trustee hereunder shall be a trust company or commercial bank (having trust powers) organized and doing business under the laws of the United States of America or of any state, authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers, having unimpaired capital and surplus of at least $100,000,000, and subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authority. If such trust company or bank publishes reports of condition at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section, the unimpaired capital and surplus of such association or corporation shall be deemed to be its unimpaired capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of condition so published. If at any time the Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section, it shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 9.11 hereof.

Section 9.11 Resignation and Removal of Trustee. (a) No resignation or removal of the Trustee and no appointment of a successor Trustee pursuant to this Article shall become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee under Section 9.12 hereof and until notice of resignation or removal and appointment, as the case may be, shall have been provided to the Bond Insurer.

(b) The Trustee may resign at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Issuer, the Bond Insurer, the Board, the Corporation and the Bondholders. If an instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee shall not have been delivered to the Trustee within thirty (30) days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the retiring Trustee may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(c) The Trustee may be removed with or without cause at any time by an instrument or instruments in writing to the Trustee, with copies to the Issuer, the Bond Insurer, the Board and the Corporation, signed by the Bond Insurer or by the Bond Insurer and the owners of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then outstanding or by their attorneys, legal representatives or agents and delivered to the Trustee, the Issuer, the Bond Insurer, the Board and the Corporation (such instruments to be effective only when received by the Trustee).

(d) If at any time

(i) the Trustee shall cease to be eligible under Section 9.10 hereof and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by the Corporation for the Board or by any Bondholder, or

(ii) the Trustee shall become incapable of acting or shall be adjudged a bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then, in any such case, (1) the Issuer, in its discretion and without obligation, may or the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, may remove the Trustee, or (2) any Bondholder may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor but only, in each case, with the prior written approval of the Bond Insurer.

(e) If the Trustee shall be removed or become incapable of acting, or if a vacancy shall occur in the office of Trustee for any cause other than resignation (it being understood that no vacancy may occur as a result of resignation since the Trustee may not resign unless a successor has been appointed) or if the Trustee tenders its resignation, the Issuer with the approval of the Bond Insurer (so long as the Bond Insurer is not in default under the Bond Insurance Policies) shall promptly appoint a successor provided the Issuer shall be furnished with sufficient funds to pay all costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by the Issuer in connection therewith as such costs and expenses accrue. If, within one (1) year after such resignation, removal or incapability, or the occurrence of such vacancy, a successor Trustee shall be appointed by an instrument or concurrent instruments in writing executed by the owners of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then outstanding and delivered to the Corporation for the Board and the retiring Trustee, the successor Trustee so appointed shall, forthwith upon its acceptance of such appointment, become the successor Trustee and supersede the successor Trustee appointed by the Issuer. If no successor Trustee shall have been so appointed by the Issuer or the Bondholders and accepted appointment in the manner hereinafter provided, any Bondholder who has been a bona fide owner of a Bond for at least six (6) months may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(f) The Issuer shall give notice of each resignation and each removal of the Trustee and each appointment of a successor Trustee by mailing written notice of such event by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to all Bondholders upon the written request of the Trustee and provided the Issuer shall be furnished with sufficient funds to pay all costs and expenses (including attorney's fees) reasonably incurred by the Issuer in connection therewith as such costs and expenses accrue. Each notice shall include the name and address of the principal corporate trust office of the successor Trustee.

Section 9.12 Successor Trustee. Every successor Trustee appointed hereunder shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to its predecessor, and also to the Issuer, the Bond Insurer and the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, an instrument in writing accepting such appointment hereunder, and thereupon such successor Trustee, without any further act, shall become fully vested with all the rights, immunities, powers and trusts, and subject to all the duties and obligations, of its predecessors; but such predecessor shall, nevertheless, on the written request of its successor or of the Issuer and upon payment of the expenses, charges and other disbursements of such predecessor which are payable pursuant to the provisions of Section 9.4 hereof, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to such successor Trustee all the rights, immunities, powers and trusts of such predecessor hereunder; and every predecessor Trustee shall deliver all property and moneys held by it hereunder to its successor, subject, nevertheless, to its preference, if any, provided for in Sections 9.2 and 9.4 hereof. Should any instrument in writing from the Issuer be required by any successor Trustee for more fully and certainly vesting in such Trustee the rights, immunities, powers and trusts hereby vested or intended to be vested in the predecessor Trustee any such instrument in writing shall and will be executed, acknowledged and delivered by the Issuer upon the written request of the Trustee and provided the Issuer shall be furnished with sufficient funds to pay all costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by the Issuer in connection therewith as such costs and expenses accrue.

Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions of this Article, any bank or trust company having power to perform the duties and execute the trusts of this Indenture and otherwise qualified to act as Trustee hereunder with or into which the bank or trust company acting as Trustee may be merged or consolidated, or to which the corporate trust assets and corporate trust business of such bank or trust company may be sold, shall be deemed the successor of the Trustee.

Section 9.13 Co-Trustee. It is the purpose hereof that there shall be no violation of any law of any jurisdiction (including particularly the laws of the State) denying or restricting the right of banks or trust companies to transact business as trustee in such jurisdiction. It is recognized that in case of litigation hereunder and in particular in case of the enforcement of this Indenture upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, it may be necessary that the Trustee appoint an additional individual or institution as a separate Trustee or Co-Trustee. The following provisions of this Section are adapted to these ends.

Upon the incapacity or lack of authority of the Trustee, by reason of any present or future law of any jurisdiction, to exercise any of the rights, powers and trusts herein granted to the Trustee or to hold title to the trust estate or to take any other action which may be necessary or desirable in connection therewith, each and every remedy, power, right, claim, demand, cause of action, immunity, estate, title, interest and lien expressed or intended to be exercised by or vested in or conveyed to the Trustee with respect thereto shall be exercisable by and vest in a separate Trustee or Co-Trustee appointed by the Trustee but only to the extent necessary to enable the separate Trustee or Co-Trustee to exercise such rights, powers and trusts, and every agreement and obligation necessary to the exercise thereof by such separate Trustee or Co-Trustee shall run to and be enforceable by either of them.

Should any deed, conveyance or instrument in writing from the Issuer be required by the separate Trustee or Co-Trustee so appointed by the Trustee in order to more fully and certainly vest in and confirm to him or it such properties, rights, powers, trusts, duties and obligations, any and all such deeds, conveyances and instruments shall, on request, be executed, acknowledged and delivered by the Issuer upon the written request of the Trustee and provided the Issuer shall be furnished with sufficient funds to pay all costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by the Issuer in connection therewith as such costs and expenses accrue. In case any separate Trustee or Co-Trustee, or a successor to either, shall die, become incapable of acting, resign or be removed, all the estates, properties, rights, powers, trusts, duties and obligations of such separate Trustee or Co-Trustee, so far as permitted by law, shall vest in and be exercised by the Trustee until the appointment of a new Trustee or successor to such separate Trustee or Co-Trustee.

Section 9.14 Disclosure Documents. The Trustee shall have no responsibility with respect to any information, statement, or recital in any official statement, offering memorandum or other disclosure material prepared or distributed with respect to the Bonds.

ARTICLE X

SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURES

Section 10.1 Supplemental Indentures Not Requiring Consent of Bondholders. The Issuer and the Trustee may, with the consent of the Bond Insurer but without the consent of, or notice to, any of the Bondholders, enter into an indenture or indentures supplemental to this Indenture as shall not be inconsistent with the terms and provisions hereof and in the opinion of the Trustee shall not materially and adversely affect the interest of the Bondholders for any one or more of the following purposes:

- (a) To cure any ambiguity or formal defect or omission in this Indenture;
- (b) To grant to or confer upon the Trustee for the benefit of the Bondholders any additional rights, remedies, powers or authority that may be lawfully granted to or conferred upon the Bondholders or the Trustee or either of them;
- (c) To subject to the lien and pledge of this Indenture additional revenues, properties or collateral;
- (d) To provide for the issuance of Additional Bonds in conformity with the provisions of Article V of this Indenture and to fix all details with respect thereto or to provide further conditions, limitations or restrictions on the issuance of Additional Bonds;
- (e) To add to the provisions hereof in connection with a Variable Rate Conversion;
- (f) To modify, amend or supplement this Indenture or any indenture supplemental hereto in such manner as to permit the qualification hereof or thereof under any federal statute hereafter in effect or under any state Blue Sky Law, and, in connection therewith, if they so determine, to add to this Indenture or any indenture supplemental hereto such other terms, conditions and provisions as may be permitted or required by any said federal statute or Blue Sky Law; provided, that any such indenture supplemental hereto referred to in this Section 10.1(e) shall not, in the judgment of the Trustee, which may rely on an opinion of counsel, be to the prejudice of the owners of the Bonds; or
- (g) To provide any other modifications which, in the sole judgment of the Trustee, are not prejudicial to the interests of the Bondholders.

Section 10.2 Supplemental Indentures Requiring Consent of Bondholders. Anything contained in this Indenture to the contrary notwithstanding, except for indentures supplemental hereto authorized by Section 10.1 of this Indenture and subject to the terms and provisions contained in this Section 10.2, and not otherwise, the owners of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then outstanding shall have the right from time to time, with the consent of the Bond Insurer, to consent to and approve the execution by the Issuer and the Trustee of such other indenture or indentures supplemental hereto as shall be deemed necessary and desirable by the Issuer for the purpose of modifying, altering, amending, adding to or rescinding, in any particular, any of the terms or provisions contained in this Indenture or in any indenture supplemental hereto; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Section 10.2 shall permit, or be construed as permitting, without the consent of the Bond Insurer and the owners of all the Bonds then outstanding (a) an extension of the stated maturity or scheduled sinking fund redemption or reduction in the principal amount or premium of, or reduction in the rate or extension of the time of payment of interest on, any Bonds, or (b) the creation of any lien on the Trust Estate or any part thereof pledged under this Indenture prior to or on a parity with the lien of this Indenture, or (c) a reduction in the aforesaid aggregate outstanding principal amount of Bonds the owners of which are required to consent to any such indenture supplemental hereto. No such amendment shall modify the rights, duties or immunities of the Trustee without the written consent of the Trustee.

If at any time the Issuer shall request the Trustee to enter into any such supplemental indenture for any of the purposes of this Section 10.2, the Trustee shall, upon being satisfactorily indemnified with respect to expenses, cause notice of the proposed execution of such supplemental indenture to be given to the Bondholders in the manner provided in Section 13.8 of this Indenture. Such notice shall briefly set forth the nature of the proposed supplemental indenture and shall state that copies thereof are on file at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee for inspection by all Bondholders. If, within ninety (90) days or such longer period as shall be prescribed by the Issuer following the giving of such notice, the owners of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds outstanding at the time of the execution of any such supplemental indenture shall have consented to and approved the execution thereof as herein provided, no owner of any Bond shall have any right to object to any of the terms and provisions contained therein, or the operation thereof, or in any manner to question the propriety of the execution thereof, or to enjoin or restrain the Trustee or the Issuer from executing the same or from taking any action pursuant to the provisions thereof. Upon the execution of any such supplemental indenture as in this Section 10.2 permitted and provided, this Indenture shall be and be deemed to be modified and amended in accordance therewith.

So long as no event of nonperformance under the Agreement has occurred and is continuing, no such supplement shall become effective unless the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, shall have given its prior written approval.

Section 10.3 Filing. Copies of any supplemental indenture shall be filed with the Trustee and delivered to the Issuer and the Corporation for the Board.

Section 10.4 Reliance on Counsel. The Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon, an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Trustee, who may be counsel for the Issuer, as conclusive evidence that any such proposed supplemental indenture complies with the provisions of this Article prior to joining in the execution of such supplemental indenture.

Section 10.5 Supplement Binding. Upon the execution of any supplemental indenture pursuant to the provisions of this Article, this Indenture shall be deemed to be supplemented, modified and amended in accordance therewith, and the respective rights, duties and obligations under this Indenture of the Trustee, the Issuer, the Corporation, the Board and the owners of Bonds then outstanding shall thereafter be determined, exercised and enforced hereunder, subject in all respects to such modification and amendment.

Section 10.6 Supplemental Agreement. The Issuer and the Corporation, with the approval of the Board, the Bond Insurer and the Trustee in certain events, may consent to supplemental loan agreements for the purposes and in the manner provided in Article VIII of the Agreement and the Trustee agrees that it shall take the actions required of it as provided thereunder.

Section 10.7 Notice to Rating Agencies and Bond Insurer. No supplemental indenture shall be executed and delivered pursuant to Sections 10.1 or 10.2 hereof without prior written notice having been given by the Trustee, to the Bond Insurer and Standard & Poor's Ratings Group (Attention: Bond Insurance Administration) of the Trustee's intention to execute such supplemental indenture not less than fifteen (15) days in advance of the execution of said supplemental indenture. The Issuer shall also furnish to the Bond Insurer a full transcript of all proceedings relative to the supplemental indenture.

COVENANTS OF ISSUER

Section 11.1 Payment of Principal, Premium and Interest. The Issuer covenants that it will promptly pay, or cause to be paid, the principal of, premium, if any, and the interest on every Bond at the places, on the dates and in the manner provided herein and in said Bonds according to the true intent and meaning thereof but solely from the revenues of the Trust Estate and not from any other fund or source. The Issuer further covenants that it will faithfully perform at all times all of its covenants, undertakings and agreements contained in this Indenture, the Agreement or in any Bond executed, authenticated and delivered hereunder or in any proceedings of the Issuer pertaining thereto.

Section 11.2 Additional Security. The Issuer covenants, whenever and so often as reasonably required to do so by the Trustee, promptly to execute and deliver or cause to be delivered all such other and further instruments, documents or assurances, and to promptly do or cause to be done all such other further things, as may be necessary or reasonably required in order to further and more fully vest in the Trustee and the owners of the Bonds all rights, interest, powers, benefits, privileges and advantages conferred or intended to be conferred upon them by this Indenture.

Section 11.3 Cure Title Defects. The Issuer covenants to promptly, upon the request of the Trustee, from time to time, take or cause to be taken such action as may be necessary or proper to remedy or cure any material defect in or cloud upon the title to the Trust Estate or any part thereof, whether now existing or hereafter developing, and to prosecute all such suits, actions and other proceedings as may be appropriate for such purpose and to indemnify and save the Trustee and every owner of Bonds, solely from the Trust Estate, harmless from all loss, cost, damage and expense, including attorneys' fees, which they or either of them may ever incur by reason of any such defect, cloud, suit, action or proceedings.

Section 11.4 Defend Against Actions. The Issuer covenants to defend or cause to be defended every suit, action or proceeding at any time brought against the Trustee or any owner of Bonds upon any claim arising out of the receipt, application or disbursement of any of the revenues of the Trust Estate or involving the Issuer's, the Trustee's or such Bondholders' rights under this Indenture or the Agreement and to indemnify and save harmless, solely from the Trust Estate, the Trustee and Bondholders against any and all liability claimed or asserted by any person whomsoever, arising out of such receipt, application or disbursement of any such revenues; provided, however, that the Trustee or any owner of Bonds at its or his election may appear in and defend against any such suit, action or proceeding; and notwithstanding any contrary provision hereof, this covenant shall continue and remain in full force and effect until all indebtedness, liabilities, obligations and other sums secured hereby have been fully paid and satisfied, and this Indenture has been released of record and the lien hereof discharged.

Section 11.5 Non-Impairment of Security. The Issuer covenants that so long as any of the Bonds issued pursuant to this Indenture are outstanding and unpaid, the Issuer will not voluntarily consent to any amendment to the Agreement or otherwise take any action which will reduce the amount of moneys made available thereunder to the Trustee, or which will in any manner impair or adversely affect the rights of the Issuer or the Trustee or the security provided by this Indenture to the owners from time to time of the Bonds.

Section 11.6 Issuer's Obligation Limited. Nothing in the Agreement or this Indenture is intended to require or obligate nor shall anything therein be interpreted to require or obligate the Issuer for any purpose or at any time whatsoever, to provide, apply or expend any funds coming into the hands of the Issuer other than from the Trust Estate.

Any other term or provision in this Indenture or in the Agreement, the Mortgage, the Tax Regulatory Agreement, the Bond Purchase Agreement, the Bonds or elsewhere to the contrary notwithstanding:

(a) Any and all obligations (including without limitation, fees, claims, demands, payments, damages, liabilities, penalties, assessments and the like) of or imposed upon the Issuer or its members, officers, agents, employees, representatives, advisors or assigns, whether under this Indenture or any of the Agreement, the Mortgage, the Tax Regulatory Agreement, the Bond Purchase Agreement, the Bonds or elsewhere and whether arising out of or based upon a claim or claims of tort, contract, misrepresentation, or any other or additional legal theory or theories whatsoever (collectively, the "Obligations"), shall in all events be absolutely limited obligations and liabilities, payable solely out of the following, if any, available at the time the Obligation in question is asserted:

(i) Bond Proceeds and investments therefrom; and

(ii) Payments derived from the Bonds, this Indenture (including the Trust Estate to the extent provided in this Indenture), the Mortgage and the Agreement (except the fees and expenses of the Issuer and the Issuer's right to indemnification under the Agreement as set forth therein);

(the above provisions (i) and (ii) being collectively referred to as the "Exclusive Sources of the Obligations").

(b) The Obligations shall not be deemed to constitute a debt or liability of the State of Louisiana or of any political subdivision thereof within the meaning of any State of Louisiana constitutional provision or statutory limitation and shall not constitute a pledge of the faith and credit of the State of Louisiana or of any political subdivision thereof, including the Issuer, but shall be payable solely from and out of the Exclusive Sources of the Obligations and shall otherwise impose no liability whatsoever, primary or otherwise, upon the State of Louisiana or any political subdivision thereof, including the Issuer, or any charge upon their general credit or taxing power.

(c) In no event shall any member, officer, agent, employee, representative or advisor of the Issuer, or any successor or assign of any such person or entity, be liable, personally or otherwise, for any Obligation.

(d) In no event shall this Indenture be construed as:

- (1) depriving the Issuer of any right or privilege; or

DEFEASANCE

Section 12.1 Payment. When all of the Bonds shall have been paid and discharged, and there shall have been paid all fees and charges of the Trustee due or to become due through the date on which the last of the Bonds is retired, then this Indenture shall cease, terminate and become null and void, and thereupon the Trustee shall release this Indenture including the cancellation and discharge of the lien hereof, and execute and deliver to the Issuer such instruments in writing as shall be requisite to satisfy the lien hereof and, if necessary, to enter on the records such satisfaction and discharge and to re-convey to the Issuer any property or interest therein or other rights hereby conveyed and such other instruments to evidence such release and discharge as may be reasonably required by the Issuer, and the Trustee shall assign and deliver to the Issuer any property at the time subject to the lien of this Indenture which may then be in its possession, except amounts in any Fund otherwise required to be paid by this Indenture and except such cash and investments as are held by the Trustee for the payment of interest and premium, if any, on and retirement of the Bonds.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the obligation of the Board to pay the fees and expenses of the Trustee in accordance with the terms of this Indenture shall survive the defeasance of the Bonds, the discharge of this Indenture and the termination of the Agreement.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event that the principal and/or interest due on the Bonds shall be paid by the Bond Insurer pursuant to the Bond Insurance Policies, or amounts are due to the Bond Insurer under the Reimbursement Agreement, the Bonds shall remain Outstanding for all purposes, not be defeased or otherwise satisfied and not be considered paid by the Issuer, and the assignment and pledge of the Trust Estate and all covenants, agreements and other obligations of the Issuer to the registered owners shall continue to exist and shall run to the benefit of the Bond Insurer, and the Bond Insurer shall be subrogated to the rights of such registered owners.

Section 12.2 Provision for Payment. Any Bonds shall be deemed to have been paid and discharged within the meaning of Section 12.1, if the Trustee, or an escrow trustee, shall hold, in trust for and irrevocably committed thereto, moneys or Defeasance Obligations of such maturities and interest payment dates and bearing such interest as will, without further investment or reinvestment of either the principal amount thereof or the interest earnings therefrom (likewise to be held in trust and committed, except as hereinafter provided), be sufficient for the payment of such Bonds, at their maturity or redemption date, of the principal thereof, together with the redemption premium, if any, and interest accrued to the date of maturity or redemption, as the case may be, or if default in such payment shall have occurred on such date then to the date of the tender of such payment; provided, that if any Bonds are to be redeemed prior to the maturity thereof, notice of such redemption shall have been duly given or provisions satisfactory to the Trustee shall have been duly made for the giving of such notice. Any moneys held in accordance with the provisions of this Section shall be invested only in Defeasance Obligations the maturities or redemption dates and interest payment dates of which, at the option of the owner, shall coincide as nearly as practicable with, but not later than, the time or times at which said moneys will be required for the aforesaid purposes. Any income or interest earned by the Defeasance Obligations held under this Section shall, as determined by the Trustee or the escrow trustee, to the extent not required for the purposes of this Section, be paid to the Board as overpayment of Payments. No forward supply contract may be entered into in connection with a defeasance without the prior written consent of the Bond Insurer.

Section 12.3 Certifications. The Issuer and the Corporation, for the Board, covenant and agree that they will furnish to the Trustee and the Bond Insurer:

Certificates or opinions made by officers of the Issuer and the Corporation required by this Indenture stating that provisions of this Article relating to the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture have been fulfilled; and

An opinion of Bond Counsel in form and substance satisfactory to the Bond Insurer to the effect that the payment of the Bonds has been provided for in the manner set forth in the Indenture and the Agreement and that all obligations of the Issuer and the Corporation with respect to the Bonds have been discharged and satisfied; and

In the case of an advance refunding, a mathematical verification prepared by a nationally recognized firm of independent certified public accountants (or other verification agent satisfactory to the Bond Insurer) that the Defeasance Obligations are sufficient to pay the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Bonds which are defeased.

THE ISSUER HAS NO POWER TO TAX.

As long as any of the Series 2004A Bonds remain outstanding, there shall be permitted the exchange of Series 2004A Bonds at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee. Any Series 2004A Bond or Series 2004A Bonds upon surrender thereof at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Trustee, duly executed by the registered owner or his legal representative duly authorized in writing, may, at the option of the registered owner thereof, be exchanged for an equal aggregate principal amount of other Bonds in Authorized Denominations.

THE ISSUER HAS NO POWER TO TAX.

As long as any of the Series 2004B Bonds remain outstanding, there shall be permitted the exchange of Series 2004B Bonds at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee. Any Series 2004B Bond or Series 2004B Bonds upon surrender thereof at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee

For every such exchange or transfer of Series 2004B Bonds, the Authority or the Trustee may make a charge sufficient to reimburse it for any tax, fee or other governmental charge required to be paid with respect to such exchange or transfer, which sum or sums shall be paid by the person requesting such exchange or transfer as a condition precedent to the exercise of the privilege of making such exchange or transfer. The Trustee shall not be required to register the transfer or exchange of (a) any Series 2004B Bonds during the fifteen (15) day period next preceding the selection of Series 2004B Bonds to be redeemed and thereafter until the date of the mailing of a notice of redemption of Series 2004B Bonds selected for redemption, or (b) any Series 2004B Bonds selected, called or being called for redemption in whole or in part, except in the case of any Series 2004B Bond to be redeemed in part, the portion thereof not so to be redeemed.

If on any occasion less than all of the Series 2004B Bonds then outstanding shall be redeemed pursuant to the optional or mandatory redemption provisions described in the Indenture, then the principal amount of the Series 2004B Bonds so redeemed shall be considered to have satisfied a portion of the mandatory sinking fund redemptions required by the above tables. The principal amounts required by the tables above shall be adjusted downward in the amount of principal redeemed in chronological order beginning on the mandatory sinking fund redemption date immediately succeeding the date of such optional redemption.

Unless otherwise specified above, if less than all of the Series 2004B Bonds shall be called for redemption, the maturity of the Series 2004B Bonds to be redeemed shall be designated by the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, and selected by the Trustee within a maturity in such manner as the Trustee may determine; provided, however, that the portion of any Series 2004B Bond to be redeemed shall be in the principal amount of an Authorized Denomination. If a portion of any Series 2004B Bond shall be called for redemption, a new Series 2004B Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof shall be issued to the registered owner upon the surrender thereof.

In case any Series 2004B Bond is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption shall state also that on or after the redemption date, upon surrender of such Series 2004B Bond, a new Series 2004B Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion of such Series 2004B Bond will be issued.

Modifications or alterations of the Indenture or any agreement supplemental thereto or of the Agreement or any agreement supplemental thereto may be made only to the extent and in the circumstances permitted by the Indenture and the Agreement. So long as no event of nonperformance {B0292735.1} under the Agreement has occurred and is continuing, no such supplement shall become effective unless the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, shall have given its prior written approval.

The Board of Supervisors for the University of Louisiana System (the "Board"), acting on behalf of the University, has leased the land upon which the Facilities are and will be located on the campus of the University (the "Land") to the Corporation pursuant to a Ground Lease, and will lease the Facilities from the Corporation pursuant to a Facilities Lease.

The Series 2004C Bonds are issued pursuant to the laws of the State, particularly Chapter 10-D of Title 33 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, as amended (La. R.S. 33:4548.1 through 4548.16, inclusive) (the "Act"), and pursuant to a Trust Indenture dated August 1, 2004, between the Authority and the Trustee (together with all amendments and supplements thereto called the "Indenture"), a fully executed counterpart of which is on file in the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee, and to which Indenture reference is hereby made for a more complete description of the assigned revenues constituting the Trust Estate, the nature and extent of the security, the terms and conditions under which the Series 2004C Bonds are issued and secured, the terms and conditions under which Additional Bonds may be issued and secured, the rights, duties and immunities of the Trustee and the rights of the registered owners of the Series 2004C Bonds. The registered owner of this Series 2004C Bond shall have no rights to enforce the provisions of the Indenture or to institute action to enforce the covenants therein, or to take any action with respect to any event of default under the Indenture, or to institute, appear in or defend any suit or other proceeding with respect thereto, except as provided in the Indenture, and by acceptance of this Series 2004C Bond, the owner hereof assents to all of the provisions of the Indenture and the Assignment (hereinafter defined). All terms not defined herein shall have the meanings assigned thereto in the Indenture.

The Series 2004C Bonds are on a parity with the Series 2004A Bonds and the Series 2004B Bonds under the indenture.

The Insurance Policy

Simultaneously with the delivery of the Series 2004C Bonds, in order to provide the registered Owners of the Series 2004C Bonds additional security, MBIA Insurance Corporation (the "Insurer") will issue and deliver on the date of delivery of the Series 2004C Bonds its unconditional and irrevocable municipal bond insurance policy pursuant to which the Insurer will agree to pay the principal of and interest on the Series 2004C Bonds when due if such principal and interest are not paid from funds available under the Indenture, all as more particularly set forth in the Statement of Insurance attached hereto.

The Series 2004C Bonds are issuable as fully registered bonds without coupons, in Authorized Denominations, and shall be numbered from No. R-1 upwards. The Series 2004C Bonds are limited and special revenue obligations of the Authority and are payable solely from (i) payments received by the Authority from the Corporation pursuant to the Agreement (except however, the Authority's rights to exculpation, indemnification and payment of expenses by the Corporation under the Agreement) and (ii) all funds held by the Trustee under the Indenture and available for such payment, said payments and funds being herein referred to as the "Trust Estate." The Agreement, a fully executed counterpart of which is on file in the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee, provides that the Corporation is unconditionally obligated to make payments, but solely from the Payments (as defined in the Agreement) in an aggregate amount sufficient, for the payment in full of the principal and interest of all Series 2004C Bonds issued and outstanding under the Indenture, to the date of payment thereof, and certain costs, expenses and charges of the Authority and the Trustee. The Agreement imposes upon the Corporation certain obligations respecting the use and operation of its Facilities and the maintenance and repair of said Facilities.

THE SERIES 2004C BONDS AND THE INTEREST THEREON ARE LIMITED AND SPECIAL REVENUE OBLIGATIONS OF THE ISSUER PAYABLE SOLELY FROM THE TRUST ESTATE. THE SERIES 2004C BONDS SHALL NOT BE DEEMED TO CONSTITUTE A DEBT OR LIABILITY OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR OF ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF WITHIN THE MEANING OF ANY STATE CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISION OR STATUTORY LIMITATION AND SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE A PLEDGE OF THE FAITH AND CREDIT OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR OF ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF, BUT SHALL BE PAYABLE SOLELY FROM THE FUNDS PROVIDED FOR IN THE LOAN AGREEMENT AND THE INDENTURE. THE ISSUANCE OF THE SERIES 2004C BONDS SHALL NOT DIRECTLY, INDIRECTLY OR CONTINGENTLY OBLIGATE THE STATE OF LOUISIANA OR ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION THEREOF TO LEVY ANY TAXES OR TO MAKE ANY APPROPRIATION OF THEIR PAYMENT. THE ISSUER HAS NO POWER TO TAX.

As long as any of the Series 2004C Bonds remain outstanding, there shall be permitted the exchange of Series 2004C Bonds at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee. Any Series 2004C Bond or Series 2004C Bonds upon surrender thereof at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the Trustee, duly executed by the registered owner or his legal representative duly authorized in writing, may, at the option of the registered owner thereof, be exchanged for an equal aggregate principal amount of other Bonds in Authorized Denominations.

For every such exchange or transfer of Series 2004C Bonds, the Authority or the Trustee may make a charge sufficient to reimburse it for any tax, fee or other governmental charge required to be paid with respect to such exchange or transfer, which sum or sums shall be paid by the person requesting such exchange or transfer as a condition precedent to the exercise of the privilege of making such exchange or transfer. The Trustee shall not be required to register the transfer or exchange of (a) any Series 2004C Bonds during the fifteen (15) day period next preceding the selection of Series 2004C Bonds to be redeemed and thereafter until the date of the mailing of a notice of redemption of Series 2004C Bonds selected for redemption, or (b) any Series 2004C Bonds selected, called or being called for redemption in whole or in part, except in the case of any Series 2004C Bond to be redeemed in part, the portion thereof not so to be redeemed.

REDEMPTION PROVISIONS

Mandatory Redemption

(i) If the Board shall purchase the Corporation's leasehold interest in the Facilities pursuant to the Facilities Lease, the Series 2004C Bonds shall be redeemed as a whole and shall be redeemed on the later of (a) August 1, 2014, or (b) the earliest practicable date, but not more than sixty (60) days, after such purchase, and in any event, at a price equal to the principal amount of the Series 2004C Bonds so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of redemption, without premium.

(ii) The Series 2004C Bonds shall be redeemed as a whole or in part (in Authorized Denominations) on the first Interest Payment Date at least thirty (30) days after the Trustee receives notice that any insurance proceeds or proceeds received as a result of Expropriation proceedings with respect to the Facilities will not be applied to the restoration, repair or reconstruction of the Facilities at a price equal to the principal amount of the Series 2004C Bonds so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the date of redemption, without premium, in an aggregate principal amount equal to the amount of such insurance proceeds, or Expropriation proceeds not used for restoration, repair or reconstruction. If the amount of any insurance proceeds or Expropriation proceeds to be applied in redemption of the Series 2004C Bonds is not an Authorized Denomination, the principal amount of Series 2004C Bonds to be redeemed pursuant to this subsection (b) shall be decreased to the next lower Authorized Denomination. The Series 2004 Bonds will be so redeemed in the following order: first, Auction Rate Bonds; second, Variable Rate Bonds, third, Series 2004C Bonds; fourth, Series 2004B Bonds that bear interest at a Fixed Rate; and fifth, the Series 2004A Bonds.

Unless otherwise specified above, if less than all of the Series 2004C Bonds shall be called for redemption, the maturity of the Series 2004C Bonds to be redeemed shall be designated by the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, and selected by the Trustee within a maturity in such manner as the Trustee may determine; provided, however, that the portion of any Series 2004C Bond to be redeemed shall be in the principal amount of an Authorized Denomination. If a portion of any Series 2004C Bond shall be called for redemption, a new Series 2004C Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof shall be issued to the registered owner upon the surrender thereof.

At least thirty (30) days before the redemption date of any Series 2004C Bonds redeemed other than by mandatory sinking fund redemption, the Trustee shall cause a notice of any such redemption, signed by an authorized officer of the Trustee to be mailed, postage prepaid, to all Bondholders of record owning Series 2004C Bonds to be redeemed in whole or in part, at their addresses as they appear on the Bond Register, but any defect in such mailing of any such notice shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for such redemption. Each such notice shall set forth the date fixed for redemption, the redemption price to be paid and, if less than all of the Series 2004C Bonds then outstanding shall be called for redemption, the numbers of such Series 2004C Bonds to be redeemed and, in the case of Series 2004C Bonds to be redeemed in part only, the portion of the principal amount thereof to be redeemed. In case any Series 2004C Bond is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption shall state also that on or after the redemption date, upon surrender of such Series 2004C Bond, a new Series 2004C Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion of such Series 2004C Bond will be issued.

Modifications or alterations of the Indenture or any agreement supplemental thereto or of the Agreement or any agreement supplemental thereto may be made only to the extent and in the circumstances permitted by the Indenture and the Agreement. So long as no event of nonperformance under the Agreement has occurred and is continuing, no such supplement shall become effective unless the Corporation, on behalf of the Board, shall have given its prior written approval.

It is hereby certified, recited and declared that all acts, conditions and things required by the Constitution and laws of the State to exist, to have happened and to have been performed, precedent to and in the execution and delivery of the Indenture and the issuance of this Series 2004C Bond, do exist, have happened and have been performed in regular and due form as required by law.

(ii) each Seller's Broker-Dealer that is not a Participant in the Securities Depository shall instruct its Participant to deliver such Series 2004B through the Securities Depository to a Buyer's Broker-Dealer (or its Participant) identified to such Seller's Broker-Dealer pursuant to (a)(v) above against payment therefor; and

(iii) each Buyer's Broker-Dealer that is not a Participant in the Securities Depository shall instruct its Participant to pay through the Securities Depository to a Seller's Broker-Dealer (or its Participant) identified following such Auction pursuant to (a)(vi) above the amount necessary to purchase the Series 2004B to be purchased pursuant to (b)(ii) above against receipt of such Series 2004B.

(e) On the Business Day following each Auction Date:

Neither the Trustee nor the Auction Agent will have any responsibility or liability with respect to the failure of a Potential Owner, Existing Owner or their respective Broker-Dealer or Participant to take delivery of or deliver, as the case may be, the principal amount of the Series 2004B purchased or sold pursuant to an Auction or otherwise.

Section 2.1 Purpose; Incorporation by Reference of Auction Procedures and Settlement Procedures.

(a) The Indenture provides that the interest rate on the Series 2004B for each Interest Accrual Period after the Initial Period shall, except under certain conditions, be the rate per annum that results from implementation of the Auction Procedures. The Auction Agent has been duly appointed as auction agent for purposes of implementing the Auction Procedures for the Series 2004B. The Auction Agent accepts such appointment as auction agent and agrees to follow the Auction Procedures and the procedures set forth in this Article II for the purpose of determining the Auction Rate for the Series 2004B. Each periodic operation of the Auction Procedures is hereinafter referred to as an "Auction".

(b) All of the provisions contained in the Auction Procedures and the Settlement Procedures are incorporated herein by reference in their entirety and shall be deemed to be a part of this Agreement to the same extent as if such provisions were fully set forth herein.

Section 2.2 Preparation for Each Auction; Maintenance of Existing Owner Registry.

(a) A list of Broker-Dealers is attached as Exhibit A hereto. Not later than seven days prior to any Auction Date for which any change in such list of Broker-Dealers is to be effective, the Trustee, at the direction of an Authorized Issuer Officer, will notify the Auction Agent in writing of such change and, if any such change is the addition of a Broker-Dealer to such list, shall cause to be delivered to the Auction Agent, for execution by the Auction Agent, a Broker-Dealer Agreement signed by such Broker-Dealer. The Auction Agent shall have entered into a Broker-Dealer Agreement with each Broker-Dealer prior to the participation of any such Broker-Dealer in any Auction.

(b) In the event that the Auction Date for an Auction shall be changed after the Auction Agent has given the notice of such Auction Date pursuant to the Settlement Procedures, the Auction Agent, by such means as the Auction Agent deems practicable, shall give notice of such change to the Broker-Dealers not later than 9:15 a.m. on the earlier of the new Auction Date or the old Auction Date.

(c) (i) The Auction Agent shall maintain a current registry of Persons that are Broker-Dealers, compiled initially on the date of delivery of the Series 2004B, and that hold Series 2004B for purposes of dealing with the Auction Agent in connection with an Auction (such registry being herein referred to as the "Existing Owner Registry"). Such Persons shall constitute the "Existing Owners" for purposes of dealing with the Auction Agent in connection with an Auction. The Auction Agent shall indicate in the Existing Owner Registry for each Existing Owner the identity of the Broker-Dealer which submitted the most recent Order in any Auction which resulted in such Existing Owner continuing to hold or purchasing Series 2004B. Pursuant to the Broker-Dealer Agreements, the Broker-Dealers have agreed to provide to the Auction Agent prior to the execution of this Agreement the names and addresses of the Persons who are to be initially listed on the Existing Owner Registry as constituting the initial Existing Owners of the Series 2004B for purposes of dealing with the Auction Agent in connection with an Auction. The Auction Agent may rely conclusively upon, as evidence of the identities of the Existing Owners, such list, the results of each Auction and notices from any Existing Owner, Participant of any Existing Owner or Broker-Dealer of any Existing Owner as described in Section 2.2(c)(iii) hereof.

(ii) The Trustee shall notify the Auction Agent in writing when any notice of redemption or Conversion of the Series 2004B is sent to the Securities Depository as the owner of the Series 2004B not later than 11:00 a.m. on the date such notice is sent. Such notice with respect to a redemption shall be substantially in the form of Notice of Bonds Outstanding. In the event the Auction Agent receives from the Trustee written notice of any partial redemption of Series 2004B, the Auction Agent shall, at least two Business Days prior to the next Auction, request each Participant to disclose to the Auction Agent (upon selection by such Participant of the Existing Owners whose Series 2004B are to be redeemed) the aggregate principal amount of such Series 2004B of each such Existing Owner, if any, which are to be redeemed; provided the Auction Agent has been furnished with the name and telephone number of a person or department at such Participant from which it is to request such information. Upon any refusal of an agent member of a Participant to release such information, the Auction Agent may continue to treat such Existing Owner as the beneficial owner of the principal amount of Series 2004B shown on the Existing Owner Registry.

(iii) The Auction Agent shall be required to register in the Existing Owner Registry a transfer of Series 2004B from an Existing Owner to another Person only if (A) such transfer is made to a Person through a Broker-Dealer and if (B)(i) such transfer is pursuant to an Auction or (ii) the Auction Agent has been notified in writing (1) in a notice substantially in the form of a Notice of Transfer by such Existing Owner, the Participant of such Existing Owner or the Broker-Dealer of such Existing Owner of such transfer or (2) in a notice substantially in the form of a Notice of Failure to Deliver or Make Payment by the Broker-Dealer of any Person that purchased or sold Series 2004B in an Auction of the failure of such Series 2004B to be transferred as a result of the Auction. The Auction Agent is not required to accept any Notice of Transfer or Notice of Failure to Deliver or Make Payment delivered prior to an Auction unless it is received by the Auction Agent by 3:00 p.m. on the Business Day next preceding the applicable Auction Date.

(d) The Auction Agent may request that the Broker-Dealers, as set forth in the Broker-Dealer Agreements, provide the Auction Agent the aggregate principal amount of Series 2004B held by such Broker-Dealers for purposes of the Existing Owner Registry. Except as permitted by Section 2.10 hereof, the Auction Agent shall keep confidential any such information and shall not disclose any such information so provided to any Person other than the relevant Broker-Dealer, the Issuer and the Trustee, provided that the Auction Agent reserves the right to disclose any such information if (i) it is ordered to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction or a regulatory body, judicial or quasi judicial agency or authority having the authority to compel such disclosure, (ii) it is advised by counsel that its failure to do so would be unlawful or (iii) failure to do so would expose the Auction Agent to liability, loss, claim or damage for which the Auction Agent has not received indemnity satisfactory to it.

(e) The Auction Agent shall send by telecopy or other means a copy of any Notice of Bonds Outstanding received from the Trustee to each Broker-Dealer in accordance with Section 4.3 of the applicable Broker-Dealer Agreement.

- (D) the succeeding Auction Period shall begin on the calendar day following the scheduled Auction Date; provided, however, in the event that any succeeding Auction is not held for any reason, then the rate of interest on the Series 2004B for the succeeding Auction Periods shall be the Maximum Auction Rate until an Auction can be held.

(iii) If a Payment Default shall have occurred, the Trustee shall forthwith notify the Auction Agent in writing and upon receipt of such notice by the Auction Agent, the Auction Procedures shall be suspended. The rate of interest on the Series 2004B shall be the Non-Payment Rate on the Auction Date for (A) each subsequent Auction Period commencing after such occurrence and during the continuance of such a Payment Default, and (B) any subsequent Auction Period commencing less than two Business Days after the cure or waiver of any Payment Default in accordance with the Indenture. The Auction Rate on the Series 2004B for each Interest Accrual Period commencing at least two Business Days after any waiver or cure of a Payment Default shall be determined through implementation of the Auction Procedures.

(iv) If a proposed Fixed Rate Conversion under Section 3.21 of the Indenture or a proposed Variable Rate Conversion under Section 3.22 of the Indenture under the circumstances described in Section 4(A) (iii) – (v) of the Notice of Variable Rate Conversion attached as Exhibit L to the Indenture shall have failed, then the rate of interest for the Series 2004B shall be the Maximum Auction Rate as of the failed Conversion Date for the Interest Accrual Period commencing on such date, and the Auction Agent shall provide written notice thereof, by delivery or telecopy or similar means, to the Trustee no later than 12:00 noon on the Business Day immediately following such failed Fixed Rate Conversion Date or Variable Rate Conversion Date.

(v) If a Conversion of the Series 2004B has been effected, as provided in the Indenture, no further Auctions for such Series 2004B shall be held.

[TO BE REVISED AS PER MBIA'S COMMENTS]

REQUIREMENTS FOR LIQUIDITY FACILITY AND LIQUIDITY FACILITY PROVIDER

(a) Bank Approval; Rating. The issuer of the Liquidity Facility (the "Bank ") must be approved by the Bond Insurer and must qualify for the highest short-term credit rating from S&P and Moody's.

(b) Term and Termination. The Liquidity Facility must be unconditional and irrevocable for its stated term. Termination of the Liquidity Facility prior to its stated expiration date, without notice to bondholders and provision for final tender, is acceptable only for the following reasons:

(i) Failure by the Bond Insurer to pay amounts due under the insurance policy related to the Series 2004 Variable Rate Bonds (the "Policy")

(ii) Insolvency of the Bond Insurer.

(iii) Final non-appealable decision of a court of competent jurisdiction that the Policy is invalid.

(c) Termination of the Liquidity Facility with 30 day's notice is only permitted for non-payment of regularly scheduled commitment fees. The Bond Insurer requires immediate telephonic notice with subsequent written confirmation to its Insured Portfolio Department Manager of any non-payment of regularly scheduled commitment fees.

(d) Bond Insurer Downgrading. The Liquidity Facility may not terminate or suspend for a downgrading of the Bond Insurer's claims paying rating by S&P or Moody's. However, the Indenture may provide that the Bond Insurer may be replaced upon its downgrading below the second highest rating by S&P and Moody's.

(e) Replacement of Liquidity. Replacement of the Bank must be allowed upon any short-term downgrading of the Bank below the top two highest short term ratings by either S&P or Moody ' s or upon any request by the Bank for the payment of increased costs to the Bank to compensate the Bank for increased costs of providing the Liquidity Facility (discussed below).

(f) Liquidity Obligation. The Liquidity Facility must provide for a Commitment Period of at least 364 days. The Commitment Period must be renewable at least 6 months prior to its scheduled expiration date. At the end of such period, there must be a Holding Period during which bonds owned by the Bank will be subject to amortization on an insured basis. The Holding Period must be for a minimum of five years after the expiration of the Commitment

Period. The Liquidity Facility must provide for (i) the purchase of unremarketed bonds on any optional tender date and (ii) the purchase of bonds on any mandatory tender date, including mandatory tenders precipitated by expiration of the Liquidity Facility, conversion to a fixed interest rate or interest rate mode change. The Liquidity Facility commitment must be in an amount equal to the outstanding principal amount of the applicable bonds, plus interest at the fixed maximum bond rate for a specified number of days determined by the structure of the specific financing, unless tenders may only be made on interest payment date.

(g) Conversion of Bonds To A Fixed Rate or Auction Rate. Bonds may only be converted to a fixed interest rate mode or auction rate mode upon prior written consent of the Bond Insurer. Such fixed rate Bonds or auction rate bonds, as the case may be, shall bear an interest rate or have an interest rate cap not to exceed the cap rate on the variable rate bonds prior to the conversion.

(h) Liquidity Rate. The Bank must negotiate its rate of interest charged for funds provided by it under its Liquidity Facility with the bond obligor; provided, however, that such interest rate must be approved by the Bonds Insurer and should not exceed such Bank's prime rate of interest and, provided further, that the negotiated Bank interest rate must be subject to a fixed rate interest cap (the " Bank Cap"), to be approved by the Bond Insurer.

(i) Bond Insurer's Obligation. The Bond Insurer guarantees to the Bank payment of principal and interest on the bonds, while bonds are held by the Bank, at a rate of interest not to exceed the Bank Cap. The Bond Insurer may also provide a program fee surety bond insuring payment of annual commitment fees under the Liquidity Facility. The Bond Insurer requires immediate telephonic notice with subsequent written confirmation to its Insured Portfolio Department Manager of any non-payment of regularly scheduled commitment fees.

(j) Interest Recapture. As noted above, a Liquidity Facility should be priced to reflect the rate risk created by the fixed interest maximum rate cap over the term of the facility with no recapture alternatives. However, where a Bank Cap is so low as to generate unacceptable rate risk, limited interest recapture can be provided only as follows:

With regard to bonds held by a Bank, excess interest accrued above the Bank Cap on the bonds may be recaptured for future interest rate periods, but only to the extent the Bank is the owner of the bonds during such future interest rate periods. If the negotiated interest rate charged by the Bank drops below the Bank Cap, the Bank may recapture the difference between the negotiated liquidity rate (the " Bank Rate ") and the Bank Cap, to the extent such rate differential is applied to bonds then held by the Bank. Accrued recapture interest amounts must be extinguished upon: (i) the termination of the Liquidity Facility; (ii) conversion of the bonds to a fixed interest rate; (iii) payment or prepayment of the obligor's loan in total; or (iv) payment or defeasance of the bonds.

(k) Acceleration. Under no circumstances will MBIA permit acceleration of any of its insured obligations.

(l) Remarketing. The Liquidity Facility must provide that bonds purchased under it will be tendered to the Remarketing Agent upon demand, subject to payment to the Bank of principal and accrued interest at the Bank Rate. If the Bank desires the right to retain bonds, adequate notice to the Remarketing Agent must be provided and bonds so retained would no longer bear interest at the Bank Rate. The Remarketing Agent must have trust powers if they are responsible for holding monies or receiving bonds. Alternately, the documents may provide that if the Remarketing Agent is removed, resigns or is unable to perform its duties, the trustee must assume the responsibilities of remarketing agent until a substitute acceptable to the Bond Insurer is found. The trustee must be a commercial bank with trust powers and be approved by the Bond Insurer.

(m) Enforceability Opinion. The Bank must deliver an opinion of outside counsel that the Liquidity Facility is the legally valid, binding and enforceable obligation of such Bank, subject only to standard bankruptcy exceptions. If the Bank is a U. S. branch of a foreign bank, an opinion of foreign counsel must be delivered.

(n) Yield Equivalency Provisions. In limited circumstances, Liquidity Facilities may include a provision for an additional fee to provide a yield equivalency to the Bank. Such provisions must be limited to a change in law, regulation or interpretation; Banks must price their facilities on the basis of all costs or potential costs that may arise under existing laws and regulations. No yield equivalency increase will be permitted for loss of tax deductible interest on the bonds or the interest carrying deduction for tax-exempt obligations. As noted above, the Liquidity Facility must allow for replacement upon imposition of any such yield equivalency fee.

(o) Beneficiary. The Bond Insurer must be made an explicit third-party beneficiary of the Liquidity Facility; or, at the option of the Bank, be a party to the Liquidity Facility.

(p) Amendments. The Liquidity Facility should provide that no amendments may be made thereto without the prior written consent of the Bond Insurer.

(q) No Set-Off. No set-off allowed as long as the Bond Insurer is not in default under the Policy.

(r) Reimbursement Agreement. The Bond Insurer will require a Reimbursement Agreement with the borrower to reimburse the Bond Insurer for any amounts expended due to a default in payment of the Bonds.

(b) The Corporation, for and in consideration of the issuance of the Series 2013 Bonds under the Supplemental Indenture by the Authority and the application of the proceeds thereof by the Authority as provided in the Supplemental Indenture for the benefit of the Corporation, hereby promises to repay the Loan, but solely from the Base Rental, by making the following payments (collectively called the “Payments”) to or for the account of the Authority in an amount sufficient for the payment in full of all Series 2004B Bonds and Series 2013 Bonds from time to time issued under the Indenture and then outstanding, including (i) the total interest becoming due and payable on the Series 2004B Bonds and the Series 2013 Bonds to the date of payment thereof, and (ii) the total principal amount of and premium, if any, on the Series 2004B Bonds and the Series 2013 Bonds. The Payments with respect to the Series 2013 Bonds shall be payable directly to the Trustee for the account of the Authority in installments as follows:

(i) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, commencing November 25, 2013, in an amount equal to one-third (1/3rd) of the interest due and payable on such Series 2013 Bonds on February 1, 2014, or such lesser amount that, together with amounts already on deposit in the Interest Account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund will be sufficient to pay interest on such Series 2013 Bonds on such Interest Payment Date and thereafter, on the 25th day of each month, commencing February 25, 2014, an amount equal to one-sixth (1/6th) of the interest amount of the Series 2013 Bonds payable on the next Interest Payment Date;

(ii) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, commencing November 25, 2013, in an amount equal to one-ninth (1/9th) of the principal of the Series 2013 Bonds payable on August 1, 2014 and thereafter, on the 25th day of each month, commencing August 25, 2014, an amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the principal amount of the Series 2013 Bonds payable on the next Principal Payment Date; and

(iii) On the dates required in the Indenture, into any of the funds established in the Indenture, including, without limitation, the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund and the Replacement Fund, an amount sufficient to make up any deficiency in any prior payment required to be made into such fund and to restore any loss resulting from investment or other causes from such fund and any other payment required to be made to such fund by the Indenture.

(c) Each installment of the Payments payable by the Corporation hereunder shall be in an amount which, without regard to the payments required under Section 4.02(b)(iii) above, but including moneys in the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund then available, shall be designed to provide for the timely payment in full of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Series 2013 Bonds.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Corporation promises that it will pay the Payments from the Base Rental, at such times and in such amounts as to assure that no default in the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on the Series 2013 Bonds shall at any time occur.

(e) Whenever the Corporation shall fail to pay the full amount of any installment of Payments payable under Sections 4.2(b)(i) through 4.2(b)(iii) above by the day of the month in which such installment is due, the Trustee shall give immediate telephonic notice thereof, promptly confirmed in writing, to an Authorized Corporation Representative.

(f) The Corporation shall also cause the Board to promptly pay when due under the Facilities Lease all amounts of Additional Rental owed by the Board thereunder, including, but not limited to, all Default or Delay Rentals and Administrative Expenses (each as defined in the Facilities Lease) owed to the Corporation, the Issuer and/or the Trustee thereunder. Each installment of the Payments payable by the Corporation hereunder shall be in an amount which, without regard to the payments required under Section 4.2 (b)(iv) above, but including moneys in the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund then available, shall be designed to provide for the timely payment in full of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Series 2013 Bonds.

Section 4.3 Credits Against Payments. A credit against and reduction of the Payments shall be derived only from the following sources:

- (a) Accrued interest, if any, derived from the sale of the Series 2013 Bonds;
- (b) Rents and any other moneys deposited with the Trustee in the Receipts Fund in accordance with the Indenture and the Management Agreement; and
- (c) Surplus moneys (including investment earnings) contained in the Funds and Accounts held by the Trustee under the Supplemental Indenture, including the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund.

Section 4.4 Obligation to Make Payments. The obligation of the Corporation to repay the Loan by making the Payments from the Base Rental shall be absolute and unconditional and shall not be subject to, nor shall the Corporation be entitled to assert, any rights of abatement, deduction, reduction, deferment, recoupment, setoff, offset or counterclaim by the Corporation or any other person, nor shall the same be abated, abrogated, waived, diminished, postponed, delayed or otherwise modified under or by reason of any circumstance or occurrence that may arise or take place, irrespective of what statutory rights the Corporation may have to the contrary, including but without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

- (a) Any damage to or destruction of part or all of the Facilities;

(b) The taking or damaging of part or all of the Facilities or any temporary or partial use thereof by any public authority or agency in the exercise of the power of eminent domain, sequestration or otherwise;

(c) Any assignment, novation, merger, consolidation, transfer of assets, leasing or other similar transaction of, by or affecting the Corporation, except as otherwise provided in this Supplemental Loan Agreement;

(d) Any change in the tax or other laws of the United States, the State or any governmental authority;

(e) The termination of the Ground Lease or the Facilities Lease, any failure of title or any lawful or unlawful prohibition of the Corporation's use of the Facilities or any portion thereof or the interference with such use by any person or any commercial frustration of purpose or loss or revocation of any permits, licenses or other authorizations required for the operation of the Facilities; and

(f) Any failure of the Authority or the Trustee to perform and observe any agreement or covenant, expressed or implied, or any duty, liability or obligation arising out of or in connection with this Supplemental Loan Agreement, the invalidity, unenforceability or disaffirmance of any of this Supplemental Loan Agreement, the Supplemental Indenture or the Series 2013 Bonds or for any other cause similar or dissimilar to the foregoing.

(g) Furthermore, the Corporation covenants and agrees that it will remain obligated under this Supplemental Loan Agreement in accordance with its terms, and that it will not take or participate or acquiesce in any action to terminate, rescind or avoid this Supplemental Loan Agreement.

Section 4.5 Prepayment of Payments.

(a) The Corporation is obligated to prepay the Payments, in whole or in part, on any date on which the Series 2013 Bonds are subject to optional redemption pursuant to the Supplemental Indenture, including, without limitation, Section 3.4(a) thereof.

(b) The option to redeem the Series 2013 Bonds under Section 3.4(a) of the Supplemental Indenture can be exercised only upon written direction of the Corporation to the Authority as long as the Facilities Lease is outstanding. To exercise such option, the Corporation shall give written notice to the Authority and the Trustee and shall specify therein the date of such prepayment, which prepayment date shall be not fewer than thirty (30) days from the date such notice is received by the Trustee. The Authority and the Trustee shall make all necessary arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee for the redemption of Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed under the Supplemental Indenture in accordance with the provisions thereof.

(c) The prepayment price payable by the Corporation, in the event of its exercise of the option granted in the Supplemental Indenture, or in the case of its obligation to prepay the Payments shall be the sum of the following:

(d) An amount of money that, when added to the moneys and investments held by the Trustee pursuant to the provisions of the Supplemental Indenture and available for such redemption, is sufficient to pay and discharge the Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed (including the total principal amount of such Series 2013 Bonds and interest to accrue thereon to the date fixed for redemption of such Series

2013 Bonds to be redeemed, plus a premium equal to the amount of premium required to be paid in connection with the redemption of such Series 2013 Bonds) on the date fixed for redemption; plus

(e) An amount of money equal to the fees and expenses of the Trustee and the Authority accrued and to accrue through such redemption.

ARTICLE V NON-ARBITRAGE

Section 5.1 Covenants as to Arbitrage.

(a) The Corporation hereby agrees to prepare and provide instructions to the Trustee as to the investment and reinvestment of moneys held as part of any fund or account relating to the Series 2013 Bonds. Any such moneys so held as part of any fund or account shall be invested or reinvested by the Trustee in Permitted Investments as specified in Section 4.9 of the Supplemental Indenture. The Corporation hereby covenants that it will comply with the terms of the Tax Regulatory Agreement and that it will make such use of the proceeds of the Series 2013 Bonds and all other funds held by the Trustee under the Supplemental Indenture, regulate the investment of such proceeds and other funds and take such other and further action as may be required so that the Series 2013 Bonds will not constitute arbitrage bonds under Section 148 of the Code and the regulations promulgated thereunder. The Corporation agrees that it will comply with the terms of any letter of instructions provided to it by nationally recognized bond counsel relating to compliance with the provisions of Section 148 of the Code.

(b) If the Corporation determines that it is necessary to restrict or limit the yield on the investment of any money paid to or held by the Trustee hereunder or under the Supplemental Indenture in order to avoid classification of the Series 2013 Bonds as arbitrage bonds within the meaning of the Code, the Corporation may issue to the Trustee an instrument to such effect (along with appropriate written instructions), in which event the Trustee will take such action as is necessary to restrict or limit the yield on such moneys in accordance with such instrument and instructions.

ARTICLE VI CERTAIN COVENANTS OF THE CORPORATION

Section 6.1 General Covenants of Corporation. The Corporation further expressly represents, covenants and agrees:

(a) To comply with the terms, covenants and provisions expressed or implied, of all contracts pertaining to, affecting or involving the Facilities or the business of the Corporation, the violation or breach of which would materially and adversely affect the ability of the Corporation to fulfill its obligations hereunder;

(b) Whenever and so often as requested so to do by the Trustee or the Authority, promptly to execute and deliver or cause to be executed and delivered all such other and further instruments and documents, and to promptly do or cause to be done all such other and further things, as may be necessary or reasonably required in order to further and more fully vest in the Authority, the Trustee and the owners of the Series 2013 Bonds all rights, interests, powers, benefits, privileges and advantages conferred upon them by this Supplemental Loan Agreement and the Supplemental Indenture;

(c) Promptly, upon the request of the Authority or the Trustee from time to time, to take such action as may be necessary or proper to remedy or cure any material defect in or cloud upon its interest in the Facilities or any part thereof, whether now existing or hereafter developing, to prosecute all such suits, actions and other proceedings as may be appropriate for such purpose and to indemnify and save the Authority and the Trustee harmless from all loss, cost, damage and expense, including attorney's fees, which they or either of them may ever incur by reason of any such defect, cloud, suit, action or proceeding;

(d) To defend against every suit, action or proceeding at any time brought against the Authority or the Trustee based on any claim arising out of the receipt, application or disbursement of any of the Trust Estate or involving the Authority's or the Trustee's rights or obligations under this Supplemental Loan Agreement or under the Supplemental Indenture (except in the case of the Authority's or the Trustee's negligence or willful misconduct), to indemnify and hold harmless the Trustee and each officer, employee, agent, or other representative of the Trustee against claims arising out of the Trustee's responsibilities under this Supplemental Loan Agreement, the Indenture or any other document entered into by the Trustee in connection with the Bonds (except in the case of the Trustee's negligence or willful misconduct), to indemnify and hold harmless the Authority and any officer, employee, agent, servant or trustee of the Authority against claims during the term of this Supplemental Loan Agreement that may be occasioned by any cause (other than the negligence or willful misconduct of the Authority, its officers, employees, agents, servants and trustees) pertaining to the construction, use, possession, operation, service, design or management or leasing or subleasing of the Facilities and any liabilities or losses resulting from violations by the Corporation of conditions, agreements and requirements of law affecting the Facilities or the ownership, occupancy or use thereof or arising from any defect in or from the operation of the Facilities, and to protect and insulate the Authority and the members of its Board of Trustees individually from any and all financial responsibility or liability whatsoever with respect to the Facilities;

(e) At all times to maintain the Corporation's rights to carry on the business of the Corporation and to duly procure all licenses and other authorizations required for the carrying on of its business and to provide all renewals and replacements and improvements to, and extensions of, the Facilities and to diligently maintain, preserve and renew all the rights, powers, privileges, approvals, licenses and franchises required for the carrying on of its business;

(f) To fulfill its obligations and to perform punctually its duties and obligations under this Supplemental Loan Agreement and to otherwise carry on its business in accordance with the terms hereof to assure the continued proper operation, management, repair and maintenance of the Facilities;

(g) To cause compliance with all material provisions of applicable Federal, State and local laws;

(h) To pay, discharge, indemnify and save the Authority and the Trustee, except in the case of their negligence or willful misconduct, and their respective officers, agents, employees, servants and trustees harmless of, from and against any and all costs, claims, damages, expenses, liabilities, liens, obligations, penalties and taxes of every character and nature, by or on behalf of any person, firm, corporation, entity or governmental authority regardless of by whom advanced, asserted, held, imposed or made, which may be imposed upon, incurred by or asserted against the Authority and the Trustee and their respective officers, agents, employees, servants and trustees arising out of, resulting from or in any way connected with this Supplemental Loan Agreement, the Series 2013 Bonds or the Supplemental Indenture excepting willful misconduct and negligence on the part of the Authority or the Trustee or their respective officers, agents, employees, servants and trustees. The Corporation also covenants and agrees, at its expense, to pay and to indemnify and to save the foregoing harmless of, from and against, all costs, reasonable counsel fees, expenses and liabilities incurred in any action or proceeding brought by reason of any such claim or demand; and

(i) That it is an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific and educational purposes, and it shall not perform any act or enter into any agreement that shall adversely affect its ability to obtain such status as set forth in this Section.

Section 6.2 Covenants Regarding Operation and Maintenance by the Corporation of its Properties. The Corporation acknowledges and agrees that it shall pay during the term hereof all Payments and other sums required hereunder and shall cause the Board to pay, as Additional Rental under the Facilities Lease, all Operation and Maintenance Expenses. The Corporation also expressly covenants and agrees:

(a) That it shall cause the Board or the University to maintain or cause to be maintained the Facilities, and each and every portion thereof, including all additions and improvements and all facilities adjoining and/or appurtenant thereto, in good operating order and condition, reasonable and ordinary wear and tear alone excepted, and make all necessary repairs thereto, interior and exterior, structural and non-structural, ordinary and extraordinary, foreseen and unforeseen, and otherwise to make all replacements, alterations, improvements and modifications to the Facilities necessary to ensure that the same at all times shall be suitable for the efficient operation thereof for the purpose intended;

(b) That the Authority, the Trustee and their agents shall have the right to inspect the Facilities at any reasonable time in a manner that will not interfere unreasonably with the Corporation's use thereof; however, any right of access to any portion of the Facilities leased to the students, faculty, staff and Permitted Sublessees, as defined in the Facilities Lease, shall be subject to their rights pursuant to the rental agreement and University policy;

(c) That it shall cause the Board to pay, as Additional Rental under the Facilities Lease, as the same respectively become due, all taxes and assessments, whether general or special, and governmental charges of any kind whatsoever that may at any time be lawfully assessed or levied against or with respect to the Facilities. The Corporation shall not allow any part of the Facilities to become and remain subjected to any mechanics', laborer's or materialmen's liens of record. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation may, at its own expense and in its own name, contest any such item of tax, assessment, liens or other governmental charge and, in the event of such contest, may permit the item so contested to remain unpaid during the period of such contest and any appeal therefrom unless the Authority or the Trustee shall notify the Corporation that, in the opinion of nationally recognized bond counsel by nonpayment of any such items the security afforded the Series 2013 Bonds pursuant to the terms of the Supplemental Indenture or Supplemental Loan Agreement will be materially endangered, in which event such taxes, assessments or charges shall be paid forthwith. The Authority will cooperate to the extent reasonably necessary with the Corporation in any such claim, defense or contest. In the event the Corporation fails to do so, the Authority or the Trustee may, but shall be under no obligation to, pay any such item and any amounts so advanced therefor by the Authority or the Trustee shall become an additional obligation of the Corporation to the one making the advancement, which amount the Corporation agrees to pay together with interest thereon at the rate of the Trustee's prime lending rate, but solely from the Revenues;

(d) That it shall comply promptly with all material provisions of present and future laws, ordinances, orders, rules, regulations and requirements of every duly constituted governmental authority or agency and all material orders, rules and regulations of any regulatory, licensing, insurance

underwriting or rating organization or other body exercising similar functions. The Corporation shall likewise perform and comply with all duties and obligations of any kind imposed by law, covenant, condition, agreement or easement and the requirements of all policies of insurance at any time in force with respect to the Facilities;

(e) That it shall not use or allow the Facilities to be used or occupied for any unlawful purpose or in violation of any private covenant, restriction, condition, easement or agreement covering or affecting the use of the Facilities. The Corporation likewise shall not suffer any act to be done or any condition to exist in the Facilities or any article to be brought therein or thereon which may be dangerous, unless safeguarded as required by law, or which, under law, constitutes a nuisance, public or private, or which may make void or voidable any insurance then in force with respect thereto; and

(f) That it shall take all action, if any, that may be required to obtain such consents, exceptions, exemptions or approvals of governmental authorities as may be necessary to permit it to comply fully with all covenants, stipulations, obligations and agreements of the Corporation contained in this Supplemental Loan Agreement.

Section 6.3 Covenant as to Encumbrances. The Corporation covenants that, so long as any of the Series 2013 Bonds remain outstanding, it shall not hereafter alienate and shall not hereafter create or suffer to be created any assignment, pledge, mortgage, hypothecation or lien on the Facilities, the Property, the Facilities Lease or any Base Rental under any circumstances, except for Permitted Encumbrances.

Section 6.4 Covenants, Representations and Warranties Relating to Federal Income Taxation.

(a) The Corporation covenants that it shall make such use of the proceeds of the Series 2013 Bonds, regulate investment of proceeds thereof and take such other and further actions as may be required by the Code and applicable temporary, proposed and final Regulations and procedures, necessary to assure that interest on the Series 2013 Bonds is excludable from gross income for Federal income tax purposes. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing covenant, the Corporation hereby covenants, represents and warrants, as follows:

(i) The Corporation will not take, fail to take or permit the commission of any action within its control necessary to be taken in order that interest on the Series 2013 Bonds will continue to be excludable from gross income for Federal income tax purposes;

(ii) The Corporation will preserve its status as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or corresponding provisions of prior law and to not be determined to be a private foundation as defined in Section 509 of said Code; the Corporation shall not perform any act or enter into any agreement which shall adversely affect its ability to obtain such federal income tax status; the Corporation shall not perform any act, enter into any agreement or use or permit any property of the Corporation to be used in any manner (including any unrelated trade or business) that could adversely affect the exclusion from gross income of interest on the Series 2013 Bonds for Federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Code; the Corporation shall not carry on or permit to be carried on in any property of the Corporation or permit any property of the Corporation to be used in or for any trade or business to the extent that such use of such property would adversely affect the exclusion from gross income of interest on the Series 2013 Bonds for Federal income tax purposes; and the Corporation is duly organized and existing as a non-profit corporation under the laws of the State and it will maintain, extend and renew its corporate existence under the laws of the State and will not do, suffer or permit any act or thing to be done whereby its right to transact its functions might or could be terminated or its activities restricted;

(iii) The Corporation will timely file a statement with the United States of America setting forth the information required pursuant to Section 149(e) of the Code;

(iv) The average term of the Series 2013 Bonds, calculated in proportion to the “issue price” (as defined in Section 1273 of the Code) of the bonds of each stated maturity of such Bonds, will not exceed 120% of the average reasonably expected economic life of the Facilities financed with the proceeds of the Series 2004 Bonds or the investment earnings thereon, weighted in proportion to the respective cost of each item comprising the Facilities financed with the proceeds of such Series 2004 Bonds. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the reasonably expected economic life of property shall be determined as of the later of (i) the date on which the Series 2004 Bonds were issued or (ii) the date on which such property was placed in service (or expected to be placed in service);

(v) The Corporation will not cause the Series 2013 Bonds to be treated as “federally guaranteed” obligations within the meaning of Section 149(b) of the Code (as may be modified in any applicable rules, rulings, policies, procedures, regulations or other official statements promulgated or proposed by the Department of the Treasury or the Internal Revenue Service with respect to “federally guaranteed” obligations described in Section 149(b) of the Code);

(vi) Based upon all facts and estimates now known or reasonably expected to be in existence on the date the Series 2013 Bonds are delivered, the Corporation reasonably expects that the proceeds of the Series 2013 Bonds will not be used in a manner that would cause the Series 2013 Bonds or any portion thereof to be an “arbitrage bond” within the meaning of Section 148 of the Code;

(vii) As provided in Article V hereof, the Corporation will monitor the yield on the investment of the proceeds of the Series 2013 Bonds and moneys pledged to the repayment of the Series 2013 Bonds, other than amounts not subject to yield restriction and will restrict the yield on such investments to the extent required by the Code or the Regulations;

(viii) The Corporation (or any “related person”, within the meaning of the Code) shall not, pursuant to an arrangement, formal or informal, purchase the Series 2013 Bonds in an amount related to the principal amounts advanced to the Corporation pursuant to this Supplemental Loan Agreement; and

(ix) The Corporation agrees to comply with all the terms and provisions of the Tax Regulatory Agreement executed in connection with the issuance and sale of the Series 2013 Bonds, and to perform the covenants and duties imposed on it contained therein.

(b) All officers, employees and agents of the Corporation are authorized and directed to provide certifications of facts and estimates that are material to the reasonable expectations of the Corporation as of the date the Series 2013 Bonds are delivered. In complying with the foregoing covenants, the Corporation may rely from time to time upon an opinion issued by nationally-recognized bond counsel to the effect that any action by the Corporation or reliance upon any interpretation of the Code or Regulations contained in such opinion will not cause interest on the Series 2013 Bonds to be includable in gross income for Federal income tax purposes under existing law.

Section 6.5 Information. The Corporation agrees, whenever reasonably requested by the Authority or the Trustee, to provide access to inspect, examine and make copies of any and all books, accounts and records of the Corporation and to provide and certify or cause to be provided and certified such information concerning the Properties, the Facilities, the Corporation, its finances, and other topics as the Authority or Trustee, as the case may be, considers necessary to enable counsel to the Authority or the Trustee, as the case may be, to issue its opinions and otherwise advise the Authority or the Trustee, as the case may be, as to the transaction or the legal capacity of the parties to enter into the same, or to enable it to make any reports required by law, governmental regulation or the Supplemental Indenture. When any such information is provided by the Corporation pursuant to this Section 6.5 the Corporation shall provide such information to both the Authority and the Trustee.

Section 6.6 Source of Payments. The Corporation agrees to pay or cause to be paid the payments required by this Supplemental Loan Agreement solely from the Base Rental in the manner and at the times provided by this Supplemental Loan Agreement.

Section 6.7 Insurance. The Corporation shall cause the Board to maintain insurance covering such risks and in such amounts as is required by Section 9 of the Facilities Lease. Insurance proceeds and condemnation awards shall be applied in accordance with the Indenture.

Section 6.8 Annual Reports.

(a) Annually, within one hundred eighty (180) days from the end of each Fiscal Year, the Corporation will have made a complete audit of its records and accounts by an independent certified public accountant. A signed counterpart of its audited financial statements shall be furnished to the Authority and the Trustee, and a copy thereof shall be furnished by the Corporation to any Bondholder who requests the same in writing.

(b) Any independent accountant that audits and reports on the Corporation's financial statements or provides any certificate, report or opinion under the Supplemental Indenture and the Supplemental Loan Agreement shall be one of the "big five" nationally recognized firms of independent certified public accountants (or their successors).

Section 6.9 Merger or Consolidation.

(a) The Corporation shall not merge into, or consolidate with, one or more corporations, or allow one or more of such corporations to merge into it, or sell or convey all or substantially all of its assets to any person or entity or acquire all or substantially all of the assets of any person or entity (any such merger, consolidation, sale, conveyance or acquisition being referred to as a "Merger"), unless:

(i) Any successor corporation to the Corporation (including, without limitation, any purchaser of all or substantially all the Properties of the Corporation (the "Successor Corporation")) is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the United States of America or a state thereof and shall execute and deliver to the Trustee an appropriate instrument, satisfactory to the Authority and the Trustee, containing the agreement of such successor corporation to assume, jointly and severally and in solido, the due and punctual payment of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on all obligations of the Corporation (including, without limitation, the Series 2013 Bonds) according to their tenor and the due and punctual performance and observance of all the covenants and conditions of the Indenture and this Supplemental Loan Agreement to be kept and performed by the Corporation, accompanied by an opinion of counsel as to the validity and enforceability of such assumption (which counsel and opinion, including without limitation the scope, form, substance and other aspects thereof, are acceptable to the Authority and the Trustee);

(ii) Immediately after such Merger, there would not be a default in the performance or observance of any covenant or condition of the Board Documents and the Bond Documents; and

(iii) There shall be delivered to the Authority and the Trustee an opinion of Bond Counsel (which counsel and opinion, including without limitation the scope, form, substance and other aspects thereof, are acceptable to the Trustee) to the effect that under existing laws the consummation of such Merger, whether or not contemplated on the original date of delivery of the Bonds, would not adversely affect the validity of the Series 2013 Bonds or the exclusion otherwise available from gross income of interest on the Series 2013 Bonds for federal or state income tax purposes.

(b) In case of any such Merger and upon any such assumption by the Successor Corporation, the Successor Corporation shall succeed to and be substituted for its predecessor, with the same effect as if it had been named in the Supplemental Indenture and this Supplemental Loan Agreement as the Corporation.

Section 6.10 Revenue Transfer to Trustee. The Corporation hereby covenants:

(a) Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under the Supplemental Loan Agreement, all Revenues pledged as security for the obligations of the Authority and/or the Corporation under the Indenture or Loan Agreement then on hand shall be transferred immediately to the Trustee, and all such revenues received thereafter shall immediately, upon receipt, be transferred to the Trustee, and held for application pursuant to the Indenture or the Loan Agreement solely to the payment obligations of the Authority and/or the Corporation under the Indenture or Loan Agreement and the payment of reasonable and necessary costs of operation of the Facilities.

(b) To execute all necessary documents in order to effect a filing and reinscription of all necessary financing statements in such a manner as will preserve the effect of the financing statements from the date of original filing thereof.

Section 6.11 Disposition of Assets. The Corporation covenants that, so long as any of the Series 2013 Bonds remain outstanding, it shall not hereafter alienate and shall not hereafter create or suffer to be created, except for Permitted Liens, any assignment, pledge, hypothecation or lien on any Revenues or on the Facilities.

(b) The Project is an “Authorized Project” under La. R.S. 33:4548.3(B) and the Corporation will operate the Project as an “Authorized Project” under La. R.S. 33:4548.3(B) for so long as the Bonds remains outstanding.

(c) All material information given by the Corporation to the Authority concerning the Project, the Corporation and the Board was and is on the date of execution of this Supplemental Loan Agreement true and correct.

Section 6.13 Continuing Disclosure. The Board has provided a Continuing Disclosure Certificate and will cause the Trustee to deliver copies to the Authority of any information that the terms of the Continuing Disclosure Certificate require to be provided or filed within five (5) days of the provision or filing of such information as required by the Continuing Disclosure Certificate.

ARTICLE VII ASSIGNMENT

Section 7.1 Assignment of this Supplemental Loan Agreement.

(a) The rights of the Corporation under this Supplemental Loan Agreement may be assigned as a whole or in part but no such assignment shall constitute a release of the Corporation from its obligations hereunder.

(b) Each transferee of the Corporation's interest in this Supplemental Loan Agreement shall assume the obligations of the Corporation hereunder to the extent of the interest assigned, sold or leased, and the Corporation shall, not more than sixty (60) nor fewer than thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of any such assignment or lease, furnish or cause to be furnished to the Authority and the Trustee a true and complete copy of each such assignment or lease.

ARTICLE VIII SUPPLEMENTS AND AMENDMENTS

Section 8.1 Amendment to Loan Agreement Without Consent. The Authority and the Corporation, with the consent of the Trustee with respect to Sections 8.1(d) and 8.1(e) hereof, with the consent of the Series 2004 Bond Insurer (if any Series 2004B Bonds remain outstanding) but without the consent of the owners of any of the Bonds Outstanding under the Indenture, may enter into supplements to the Loan Agreement that shall not be inconsistent with the terms and provisions hereof for any of the purposes heretofore specifically authorized in the Loan Agreement or the Indenture, and in addition thereto for the following purposes:

(f) to conform the covenants and provisions of the Corporation contained herein to any different financial statement presentation required by the Financial Accounting Standard Board that is different than the presentation required as of the date of issuance of the Bonds, so long as the effect of such conformed covenants and provisions is substantially identical to the effect of the covenants and provisions as in effect on the date of issuance of the Bonds.

Section 8.2 Amendment to Loan Agreement Upon Approval of a Majority of Bondholders.

(a) The provisions of the Loan Agreement may be amended in any particular with the consent of the owners of not less than a majority of the aggregate principal amount of Bonds then Outstanding and the written consent of the Series 2004 Bond Insurer (if any Series 2004B Bonds remain outstanding); provided, however, that no such amendment may be adopted that decreases the percentage of owners of the Bonds required to approve an amendment, or that permits a change in the date of payment of the principal of or interest on any Bonds or of any redemption price thereof or the rate of interest thereon without the consent of the owners of all of the aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then Outstanding.

(b) If at any time the Authority and the Corporation shall request the Trustee to consent to a proposed amendment for any of the purposes of this Section 8.2, the Trustee shall, upon being satisfactorily indemnified with respect to expenses, cause notice of the proposed execution of such proposed amendment to be given in the manner required by the Indenture to redeem the Bonds. Such notice shall briefly set forth the nature of the proposed amendment and shall state that copies thereof are on file at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee for inspection by all Bondholders. If, within sixty (60) days or such longer period as shall be prescribed by the Authority following such notice, the owners of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds outstanding at the time of the execution of any such proposed amendment shall have consented to and approved the execution thereof as herein provided, no owner of any Bonds shall have any right to object to any of the terms and provisions contained therein, or the operation thereof, or in any manner to question the propriety of the execution thereof, or to enjoin or restrain the Trustee, the Corporation or the Authority from executing or approving the same or from taking any action pursuant to the provisions thereof. Upon the execution of any such proposed amendment as in this Section permitted and provided, the Loan Agreement shall be and be deemed to be modified and amended in accordance therewith.

Section 8.3 Amendments to Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease Not Requiring Owner Consent. Subject to the terms and provisions of Section 8.5 and 8.7 of this Supplemental Loan Agreement, with the written consent of the Series 2004 Bond Insurer (if any Series 2004B Bonds remain outstanding), the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease may be amended or modified in any manner not inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this Supplemental Loan Agreement, for any one or more of the following purposes: (1) to cure any ambiguity or formal defect or omission in the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease that does not have an adverse effect upon the interest of the Owners; (2) to grant or confer upon the Authority or the Trustee, for the benefit of the Owners, any additional rights, remedies, powers or authorities that lawfully may be granted to or conferred upon the Authority or the Trustee; (3) to more clearly identify the Facilities or to add to or subtract from the Facilities any property; (4) to amend or modify the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease in any manner specifically required or permitted by the terms thereof, including as may be necessary to maintain the exclusion from gross income of interest on the Series 2013 Bonds for federal income tax purposes; (5) to make any amendment or modification required as a condition to obtaining any rating by Moody's or S&P with respect to the Series 2013 Bonds; and (6) to amend or modify the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease in any other manner that, in the judgment of the Trustee, is not materially adverse to the interests of the owners of the Series 2013 Bonds (and the Series 2004 Bond Insurer if any Series 2004B Bonds remain outstanding) or the Trustee and that does not involve a change described in Section 8.5 hereof.

Section 8.4 Amendments to the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease Requiring Owner Consent. Exclusive of amendments and modifications covered by Section 8.3 hereof, the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease may be amended or modified only as provided in Section 8.4 and 8.5 of this Supplemental Loan Agreement. Subject to the terms and provisions contained in Section 8.5 of this Supplemental Loan Agreement, the Authority and the owners of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then Outstanding (and the Series 2004 Bond Insurer if any Series 2004B Bonds remain outstanding), shall have the right, from time to time, anything contained in this Supplemental Loan Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, to consent to and approve the amendment or modification of the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease. If at any time there is a proposed amendment or modification to the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease, the Trustee shall, upon being satisfactorily indemnified with respect to expenses, cause notice of the proposed execution of such modification or amendment to be mailed to each of the owners of the Bonds at the address indicated on the registration books of the Trustee (and the Series 2004 Bond Insurer if any Series 2004B Bonds remain outstanding). Such notice shall briefly set forth the nature of the proposed amendment or modification and shall state that copies thereof are on file at the principal office of the Trustee for inspection by owners of all Outstanding Bonds. If, within sixty (60) days, or such longer period as shall be prescribed by the Authority, following the mailing of such notice, the owners of the requisite percentage in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Bonds at the time of the execution of any such amendment or modification shall have consented to and approved the execution thereof as herein provided, no owner of any Outstanding Bond shall have any right to object to any of the terms and provisions contained therein, or the operation thereof; or to enjoin or restrain the parties thereto from executing the same or from taking any action pursuant to the provisions hereof.

Section 8.5 Consent Required Under Certain Circumstances for Amendment of Facilities Lease or Ground Lease. Nothing contained in Sections 8.3 and 8.4 of this Supplemental Loan Agreement shall permit, or be construed as permitting, without the approval and consent of all of the owners of the Outstanding Bonds (and the Series 2004 Bond Insurer if any Series 2004B Bonds remain outstanding), (a) a reduction in the amount of, or the extension of the time for, any payment of Base Rental due under the Facilities Lease or any amount due under the Bond Insurance Policy; or (b) the termination of the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease prior to the expiration of their stated term, other than in accordance with the provisions thereof.

Section 8.6 Opinion Required for Amendment of Facilities Lease or Ground Lease. Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, no amendment or modification of the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease shall become effective unless and until the Trustee has been provided with an opinion of Bond Counsel to the effect that such amendment or modification will not have an adverse effect upon the validity of the Series 2013 Bonds and to the effect that such amendment or modification will maintain the exclusion from gross income of interest on the Bonds for federal income tax purposes.

Section 8.7 Consent of the Board. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, an amendment to the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease under this Article VIII shall not become effective unless and until the Board shall have consented to the execution and delivery of such amendment to the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease, unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, and no amendment to the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease shall without the prior written consent of the Board affect the date or amounts of payments required on the Series 2013 Bonds or required under the Facilities Lease.

Section 8.8 Filing. Copies of any such supplement or amendment to this Supplemental Loan Agreement, the Ground Lease or the Facilities Lease shall be filed with the Trustee and delivered to the Authority and the Corporation before such supplement or amendment may become effective.

Section 8.9 Reliance on Counsel. The Authority and the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon the opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Trustee, who may be counsel for the Authority, as conclusive evidence that any such proposed supplement or amendment to this Supplemental Loan Agreement, the Ground Lease or the Facilities Lease complies with the provisions of this Supplemental Loan Agreement and the Indenture and that it is proper for the Authority and the Trustee under the provisions of this Article to execute or approve such supplement or amendment.

Section 8.10 Notice to Rating Agencies. No supplemental agreement or amendment to this Supplemental Loan Agreement, the Ground Lease or the Facilities Lease shall be executed and delivered pursuant hereto without prior written notice having been given by the Corporation to Standard & Poor's Ratings Group and Moody's of the Corporation's intention to execute such supplemental agreement or amendment thereof not fewer than fifteen (15) days in advance of the execution of said supplemental agreement or amendment. The Corporation shall provide the Series 2004 Bond Insurer (if any Series 2004B Bonds remain outstanding) a full transcript of all proceedings relative to said supplemental agreement or amendment.

ARTICLE IX EVENTS OF DEFAULT AND REMEDIES

Section 9.1 Events of Default Defined. The terms "Event of Default" and "Default" under the Original Loan Agreement shall include any one or more of the following events:

(a) The Corporation shall default in the timely payment of any Payment pursuant to Article IV of this Supplemental Loan Agreement.

(b) An Event of Default shall exist under the Bond Documents, the Facilities Lease or the Tax Regulatory Agreement.

(c) The Corporation shall fail duly to perform, observe or comply with any other covenant, condition or agreement on its part under this Supplemental Loan Agreement (other than a failure to make any payment required under this Supplemental Loan Agreement), and such failure continues for a period of thirty (30) days after the date on which written notice of such failure, requiring the same to be remedied, shall have been given to the Corporation by the Trustee; provided, however, that if such performance, observation or compliance requires work to be done, action to be taken, or conditions to be remedied, which by their nature cannot reasonably be done, taken or remedied, as the case may be, within such thirty (30) day period, no Event of Default shall be deemed to have occurred or to exist if, and so long as the Corporation shall commence such performance, observation or compliance within such period and shall diligently and continuously prosecute the same to completion.

(d) The entry of a decree or order by a court having jurisdiction in the premises adjudging the Corporation a bankrupt or insolvent, or approving as properly filed a petition seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition of or in respect of the Corporation under the United States Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable federal or state law, or appointing a receiver, liquidator, custodian, assignee, or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Corporation or of any substantial part of its property, or ordering the winding up or liquidation of its affairs, and the continuance of any such decree or order unstayed and in effect for a period of ninety (90) consecutive days.

(e) The institution by the Corporation of proceedings to be adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent, or the consent by it to the institution of bankruptcy or insolvency against it, or the filing by it of a petition or answer or consent seeking reorganization or relief under the United States Bankruptcy Code or any other similar applicable federal or state law, or the consent by it to the filing of any such petition or to the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, custodian, assignee, trustee or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Corporation or of any substantial part of its property, or the making by it of an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or the admission by it in writing of its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due.

Section 9.2 Remedies. Whenever any Event of Default under the Original Loan Agreement shall have happened and be continuing, the Authority and the Trustee may take any of the remedial steps provided to such parties in the Original Loan Agreement and the Indenture; provided that, if all installments of Payments under the Original Loan Agreement are declared to be immediately due and payable, then all Payments due under Section 4.2 hereof shall also be immediately due and payable.

Section 9.3 No Remedy Exclusive; Selective Enforcement. No remedy conferred upon or reserved to the Authority or the Trustee by this Supplemental Loan Agreement is intended to be exclusive of any other available remedy or remedies, but each and every such remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given under this Supplemental Loan Agreement and as now or hereafter existing at law or in equity. No delay or omission to exercise any right or power accruing upon any event of nonperformance shall impair any such right or power or shall be construed to be a waiver thereof, but any such right and power may be exercised from time to time and as often as may be deemed expedient. In order to entitle the Authority or the Trustee to exercise any remedy reserved to it in this Article, it shall not be necessary to give any notice, other than such notice as may be herein expressly required. In the event the Authority or the Trustee shall elect to selectively and successively enforce its rights under this Supplemental Loan Agreement, such action shall not be deemed a waiver or discharge of any other lien, encumbrance or security interest securing payment of the indebtedness secured hereby or thereby until such time that it shall have been paid in full all sums secured hereunder and thereunder. The foreclosure of any lien provided pursuant to this Supplemental Loan Agreement without the simultaneous foreclosure of all such liens shall not merge the liens granted which are not foreclosed with any interest which the Authority or the Trustee might obtain as a result of such selective and successive foreclosure.

Section 9.4 Indenture Overriding. All of the provisions of this Article are subject to and subordinate to the rights and remedies of the holders of the Bonds and the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture. The Authority shall have no power to waive any event of default hereunder, except with respect to indemnification and its administrative payments, without the consent of the Trustee to such waiver.

Section 9.5 Loan Agreement to Pay Attorneys' Fees and Expenses. In any Event of Default, if the Authority or the Trustee employs attorneys or incurs other expenses for the collection of amounts payable hereunder or the enforcement of the performance or observance of any covenants or agreements on the part of the Corporation herein contained, whether or not such suit is commenced, the Corporation agrees that it will on demand therefor pay to the Authority or the Trustee the reasonable fees of such attorneys and such other reasonable expenses so incurred by the Authority or the Trustee.

Section 9.6 Authority and Corporation to Give Notice of Default. The Authority and the Corporation severally covenant that they will, at the expense of the Corporation, promptly give to the Trustee written notice of any Event of Default under this Supplemental Loan Agreement of which they shall have actual knowledge or written notice, but the Authority shall not be liable (except as provided in Section 6.1(d) hereof) for failing to give such notice.

Section 9.7 Correlative Waivers. If an Event of Default under Section 8.2 of the Indenture shall be cured or waived and any remedial action by the Trustee rescinded, any correlative Default under this Supplemental Loan Agreement shall be deemed to have been cured or waived.

ARTICLE X MISCELLANEOUS

Section 10.1 References to the Series 2013 Bonds Ineffective After Series 2013 Bonds Paid. Upon payment of the Series 2013 Bonds, all references in this Supplemental Loan Agreement to the Bondholders shall be ineffective and the Authority and any holder of the Series 2013 Bonds shall not thereafter have any rights hereunder, excepting those that shall have theretofore vested.

Section 10.2 Amounts Remaining in Funds. It is agreed by the parties hereto that any amounts remaining in the Funds and Accounts established under the Supplemental Indenture upon the expiration or sooner cancellation or termination of this Supplemental Loan Agreement, as provided herein, after payment in full of all Series 2013 Bonds then outstanding under the Indenture (or provisions for payment thereof having been made in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture), and the fees, charges and expenses of the Authority and the Trustee and all other amounts required to be paid hereunder and under the Indenture with respect to the Series 2013 Bonds (other than amounts payable as arbitrage rebate pursuant to the Code), shall belong to and be paid to the Corporation.

Section 10.4 Binding Effect. This Supplemental Loan Agreement shall inure to the benefit and shall be binding upon the Authority, the Corporation and their respective successors and assigns, subject to the limitation that any obligation of the Authority created by or arising out of this Supplemental Loan Agreement shall not be a general debt of the Authority, but shall be payable solely out of the proceeds derived from this Supplemental Loan Agreement and the sale of the Series 2013 Bonds under the Indenture.

Section 10.5 Performance on Legal Holidays. In any case where the date of maturity of interest on or principal of the Series 2013 Bonds or the date fixed for redemption or purchase of any Series 2013 Bonds or the date fixed for the giving of notice or the taking of any action under the Indenture shall not be a Business Day, then payment of such interest, principal, purchase price and redemption premium, if any, the giving of such notice or the taking of such action need not be made on such date but may be made on the next succeeding Business Day with the same force and effect as if made on the date of maturity or the date fixed for redemption or purchase, and no interest on such payment shall accrue for the period after such date.

Section 10.6 Execution in Counterparts. This Supplemental Loan Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be regarded as an original and all of which shall constitute but one and the same instrument; provided, however, that upon the assignment and pledge to the Trustee provided for in Section 3.2 hereof, the Authority shall deliver to the Trustee an executed counterpart of this Supplemental Loan Agreement which executed counterpart shall be deemed to be collateral of which the Trustee has taken possession and no other counterpart shall be deemed to be collateral for any other purpose.

Section 10.7 Applicable Law. This Supplemental Loan Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State.

Section 10.8 Severability. If any clause, provision or Section of this Supplemental Loan Agreement be held illegal or invalid by any court, the invalidity of such clause, provision or Section shall not affect any of the remaining clauses, provisions or Sections hereof and this Supplemental Loan Agreement shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal or invalid clause, provision or Section had not been contained herein. In case any agreement or obligation contained in this Supplemental Loan Agreement be held to be in violation of law, then such agreement or obligation shall be deemed to be the agreement or obligation of the Authority or the Corporation, as the case may be, only to the extent permitted by law.

Section 10.9 Captions. The table of contents, captions or headings of the several articles and sections of this Supplemental Loan Agreement are for convenience only and shall not control, affect the meaning of or be taken as an interpretation of any provisions of this Supplemental Loan Agreement.

Section 10.10 Consents and Approvals. Whenever the consent or approval of the Authority, the Corporation or the Trustee shall be required under the provisions of this Supplemental Loan Agreement, such consent or approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

Section 10.11 Third Party Beneficiaries. It is specifically agreed between the parties executing this Supplemental Loan Agreement that it is not intended by any of the provisions of any part of this Supplemental Loan Agreement to make the public or any member thereof, other than the Trustee and except as expressly provided herein or as contemplated in the Indenture, a third party beneficiary hereunder, or to authorize anyone not a party to this Supplemental Loan Agreement to maintain a suit for personal injuries or property damage pursuant to the terms or provisions of this Supplemental Loan Agreement. The duties, obligations and responsibilities, if any, of the parties to this Supplemental Loan Agreement with respect to third parties shall remain as imposed by law.

Section 10.12 Exculpatory Provision.

(a) In the exercise of the powers of the Authority the Trustee and their respective trustees, directors, officers, employees and agents (each, an “Indemnified Party”) under this Supplemental Loan Agreement, each Indemnified Party shall not be accountable or liable to the Corporation (i) for any actions taken or omitted by such Indemnified Party in good faith and believed by it or them to be authorized or within their discretion or rights or powers conferred upon them (other than the negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnified Party), or (ii) for any claims based on this Supplemental Loan Agreement against any such Indemnified Party, all such liability, if any, being expressly waived by the Corporation by the execution of this Supplemental Loan Agreement. The Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless each Indemnified Party against any claim or liability based on the foregoing asserted by any other person.

(b) In case any action shall be brought against an Indemnified Party in respect of which indemnity may be sought against the Corporation, such Indemnified Party shall promptly notify the Corporation in writing and the Corporation shall assume the defense thereof, including the employment of counsel of the Corporation’s choice and the payment of all expenses. Such Indemnified Party shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such action and participate in the defense thereof, but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall be paid by such Indemnified Party unless the employment of such counsel has been authorized by the Corporation. The Corporation shall not be liable for any settlement of any such action without its consent but if any such action is settled with the consent of the Corporation or if there be final judgment for the plaintiff of any such action, the Corporation agrees to indemnify and hold harmless such Indemnified Party from and against any loss or liability by reason of such settlement or judgment.

(c) No recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal of or premium or interest on any of the Bonds or for any claim based thereon or upon any obligations, covenant or agreement contained in this Supplemental Loan Agreement against any past, present or future officer, director, member, employee or agent of the Authority, or of any successor public corporation, as such, either directly or through the Authority or any successor public corporation, under any rule of law or equity, statute or constitution, or by the enforcement of any assessment or penalty or otherwise, and all such liability of any such officers, directors, members, employees, or agents as such is hereby expressly waived and released as a condition of and consideration for the execution of this Supplemental Loan Agreement and the issuance of such Bonds.

Section 10.13 Accounts and Audits. The Authority shall cause the Trustee to keep proper books of records and accounts (separate from all other records and accounts) in which complete and correct entries shall be made of its transactions relating to the Bonds. The Authority shall have access to the Corporation's books and records with respect to the Facilities upon written request after reasonable notice.

Section 10.14 Date of Supplemental Loan Agreement. The dating of this Supplemental Loan Agreement as of November 1, 2013 is intended as and for the convenient identification of this Supplemental Loan Agreement and is not intended to indicate that this Supplemental Loan Agreement was executed and delivered on said date, this Supplemental Loan Agreement being executed on the dates of the respective acknowledgments hereto attached.

Section 10.15 Reliance. It is expressly understood and agreed by the parties to this Supplemental Loan Agreement that:

(a) the Authority may rely conclusively on the truth and accuracy of any certificate, opinion, notice or other instrument furnished to the Authority by the Trustee, any Bondholder or the Corporation as to the existence of a fact or state of affairs required under this Supplemental Loan Agreement to be noticed by the Authority;

(b) the Authority shall not be under any obligation to perform any recordkeeping or to provide any legal service, it being understood that such services shall be performed or caused to be performed by the Trustee or the Corporation; and

(c) none of the provisions of this Supplemental Loan Agreement or the Mortgage shall require the Authority to expend or risk its own funds (apart from the proceeds of Bonds issued under the Indenture) or otherwise incur financial liability in the performance of any of its duties or in the exercise of any of its rights under this Supplemental Loan Agreement or the Mortgage unless it first shall have been adequately indemnified to its satisfaction against the costs, expenses and liabilities which may be incurred by taking any such action.

Section 10.16 Authority Not Liable. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Supplemental Loan Agreement, the Indenture, the Mortgage, the Continuing Disclosure Certificate, the Bond Purchase Loan Agreement or the Tax Regulatory Agreement, (a) the Authority shall not be required to take action under this Supplemental Loan Agreement, the Indenture, the Mortgage, the Continuing Disclosure Certificate, the Bond Purchase Agreement or the Tax Regulatory Agreement unless the Authority (i) is requested in writing by an appropriate Person to take such action; and (ii) is assured of payment of or reimbursement for any expense incurred in taking such action, and (b) except with respect to any action for specific performance or any action in the nature of a prohibitory or mandatory injunction, neither the Authority nor any official, officer, member, director, agent, employee or servant of the Authority shall be liable to the Corporation, the Trustee or any other Person for any action taken by the Authority or by its officials, officers, members, directors, agents, employees, or servants, or for any failure to take action under this Supplemental Loan Agreement, the Indenture, the Mortgage, the Continuing Disclosure Certificate, the Bond Purchase Agreement, or the Tax Regulatory Agreement. In acting or in refraining from acting under this Supplemental Loan Agreement, the Indenture, the Mortgage, the Continuing Disclosure Certificate, the Bond Purchase Agreement or the Tax Regulatory Agreement, the Authority may conclusively rely on the advice of its counsel.

Section 10.17 No Violations of Law. Any other term or provision in this Supplemental Loan Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding:

(a) In no event shall this Supplemental Loan Agreement be construed as:

(i) depriving the Authority of any right or privilege; or

(ii) requiring the Authority or any member, agent, employee, representative or advisor of the Authority to take or omit to take, or to permit or suffer the taking of, any action by itself or by anyone else;

(iii) which deprivation or requirement would violate, or result in the Authority's being in violation of the Act or any other applicable state or federal law; and

(b) At no time and in no event with the Corporation permit, suffer or allow any of the proceeds of the Loan Agreement or the Bonds to be transferred to any Person in violation of, or to be used in any manner that is prohibited by, the Act or any other state or federal law.

(h) The Corporation has obligated itself to demolish certain existing facilities and renovate, develop and construct the Facilities pursuant to this Agreement, the Ground Lease and the Facilities Lease, and the Corporation has the full power, right and authority to demolish certain existing facilities and renovate, develop and construct the Facilities and has obtained, or timely will obtain, all permits, licenses and approvals of governmental agencies necessary to undertake and complete such renovation, development and construction in accordance with the Plans and Specifications.

(i) As of the date of this Agreement, (i) the Corporation is an organization described in §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") that is not a "private foundation" within the meaning of §501(c)(3) of the Code, (ii) the Corporation received a determination letter from the IRS to the effect that it is a tax-exempt organization, (iii) the Corporation is in full compliance with all terms, conditions, and limitations, if any, contained in such determination letter, (iv) such status as a tax-exempt organization has not been adversely modified, limited, or revoked, (v) the facts and circumstances that formed the basis for the status of the Corporation, as represented to the IRS in the Corporation's application for a determination letter, either substantially exist for the Corporation or differ in a manner consistent with the requirements of §501(c)(3) of the Code. ARTICLE III
TERM, NATURE AND BENEFITS OF AGREEMENT;
CONSTRUCTION OF FACILITIES

Section 3.01 Term. The term of this Agreement shall commence on the Closing Date for the Series 2004 Bonds, and shall terminate (unless discharged upon prepayment of all sums due hereunder by the Corporation prior thereto as hereinafter provided) on the date on which the Series 2004 Bonds and all other sums secured hereunder or under the Reimbursement Agreement shall have been paid or provision for their payment shall have been made in accordance herewith. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the indemnification provisions of this Agreement shall survive the termination hereof and the defeasance of the Series 2004 Bonds under the Indenture.

Section 3.02 Nature and Benefits. This Agreement has been executed and delivered in part to induce concurrently herewith the purchase by others of the Series 2004 Bonds, and, accordingly, all covenants and agreements on the part of the Corporation and the Issuer, as set forth therein and herein, are hereby declared to be for the benefit of the Trustee for the owners from time to time of the Series 2004 Bonds. The Corporation consents and agrees to the assignment by the Issuer to the Trustee under the Indenture of all of the Issuer's right, title and interest (except for certain rights relating to exculpation, indemnification and payment of expenses) in, to and under this Agreement and agrees that the provisions hereof may be enforced by the Trustee under the provisions of the Indenture. The Corporation agrees to do all things within its power in order to comply with, and to enable the Issuer to comply with, all requirements and to fulfill, and to enable the Issuer to fulfill, all covenants of the Indenture and the Series 2004 Bonds.

This Loan Agreement is a limited obligation of the Corporation, payable solely from the Base Rental, and this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect until the Bonds and the interest therein have been fully paid or otherwise provided for or discharged.

Section 3.03 Demolition, Renovation, Development and Construction of the Facilities. The Corporation shall lease the Land, demolish certain existing facilities and renovate, develop and construct, or cause to be renovated, developed and constructed, the Facilities with all reasonable dispatch and in accordance with the Facilities Documents, and shall take all action necessary to enforce the provisions of the Facilities Documents.

Section 3.04 Revision of Facilities Documents. The Corporation may revise the Facilities Documents and the description of the Facilities in Exhibit A hereto from time to time (including, without limitation, the deletion or revision of any of the facilities included in the Facilities and/or the substitution thereof of other facilities) in accordance with the Ground Lease without the consent of the Issuer, the Trustee or the holders of the Bonds but with the consent of the Board and the Bond Insurer; provided, however, that no such revision shall impair the exclusion from gross income of interest on the Series 2004A Bonds or Series 2004B Bonds for federal income tax purposes. In the case of any change that would render materially inaccurate the description of the Facilities in Exhibit A hereto, there shall be delivered to the Trustee and the Issuer a revised Exhibit A containing a description of the Facilities that reflects the change in the Facilities Documents, the accuracy of which shall have been certified by an Authorized Corporation Representative.

Prior to effecting any change in or revision of the Facilities Documents, the Corporation shall deliver to the Issuer evidence of all governmental or regulatory approvals required therefor.

Section 3.05 Disbursements from Project Fund. The money in the Project Fund shall be applied by the Trustee, and in connection therewith requisitions shall be presented by the Corporation signed by an Authorized Corporation Representative, for payment of the Costs of the Facilities in accordance with Article IV of the Indenture and Article III of this Agreement, and pending such application such money shall be invested and reinvested in accordance with Article IV of the Indenture.

Section 3.06 Completion of Payment of Costs of the Facilities. At such time as the Corporation has notice that the funds initially deposited in the Project Fund on the date of delivery of the Bonds issued to finance the Facilities, together with the investment earnings thereon, are insufficient to pay the completion Costs of the Facilities, the Corporation shall deliver to the Trustee and the Issuer written estimates by an architect and an Authorized Corporation Representative of the additional funds required to pay the completion Costs of the Facilities, and such additional information and data as may be reasonably requested by the Issuer and the Trustee. The Corporation shall complete demolition of certain existing facilities and the renovation, development and construction of the Facilities and pay that portion of the completion Costs of the Facilities as may be in excess of the money available therefor in the Project Fund. The obligation of the Corporation to pay in full the completion Costs of the Facilities shall be a limited obligation of the Corporation payable solely from the Base Rental.

Upon the request of the Corporation, the Issuer will use its best efforts to issue and sell, upon terms and at prices acceptable to the Issuer and the Corporation, one or more series of Additional Bonds for the purpose of financing the completion Costs of the Facilities; provided, however, that the failure of the Issuer to issue such bonds shall not relieve the Corporation of its obligation to provide the additional money required to pay the completion Costs of the Facilities. If after exhaustion of the money in the Project Fund the Corporation should pay any portion of the Costs of the Facilities, it shall not be entitled to any reimbursement therefor from the Issuer or from the Trustee, and shall not be entitled to any abatement, diminution or postponement of payments required to be made by it under this Agreement.

Section 3.07 Establishment of Completion Date. The date upon which the demolition of certain existing facilities and the renovation, development and construction of the Facilities are substantially complete shall be evidenced to the Issuer and the Trustee by a certificate signed by an Authorized Corporation Representative. The certificate shall set forth the Costs of the Facilities and state that, except for amounts not then due and payable, or the liability for the payment of which is being contested or disputed in good faith by the Corporation, (a) the demolition of certain existing facilities and the renovation, development and construction of the Facilities have been completed substantially in accordance with the Plans and Specifications and the Costs of the Facilities have been paid, and (b) all other facilities necessary in connection with the Facilities have been acquired, constructed and installed in accordance with the Plans and Specifications therefor and all costs and expenses incurred in connection therewith have been paid. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such certificate shall state that it is given without prejudice to any rights against third parties that exist at the date of such certificate or which may subsequently come into being.

Section 3.08 No Warranty of Condition or Suitability. The Corporation acknowledges its full familiarity with the Facilities and that the Issuer has no responsibility for the Plans and Specifications and other Facilities Documents. The Issuer makes no representation or warranty, either express or implied, and offers no assurance that the proceeds of the Bonds will be sufficient to pay in full the Costs of the Facilities in accordance with the Facilities Documents.

ARTICLE IV
DISBURSEMENT OF BOND PROCEEDS; PAYMENTS;
CREDITS; OBLIGATIONS UNCONDITIONAL; PREPAYMENT

Section 4.01 Disbursement of Series 2004 Bond Proceeds. In order to provide funds for paying the Costs of the Facilities, the Issuer, as soon as practicable after the execution of this Agreement will proceed to issue, sell and deliver the Series 2004 Bonds to the purchasers thereof and will deposit the proceeds thereof as provided by Section 4.2 of the Indenture with the Trustee for disbursement in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture.

Section 4.02 Amounts Payable. Upon the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Issuer shall lend to the Corporation the proceeds of the sale of the Series 2004 Bonds. The proceeds of the Loan shall be deposited with the Trustee and applied in accordance with the Indenture.

The Corporation, for and in consideration of the issuance of the Series 2004 Bonds under the Indenture by the Issuer and the application of the proceeds thereof by the Issuer as provided in the Indenture for the benefit of the Corporation, hereby promises to repay the Loan, but solely from the Base Rental, by making the following payments (collectively called the "Payments") to or for the account of the Issuer in an amount sufficient for the payment in full of all Series 2004 Bonds from time to time issued under the Indenture and then outstanding, including (i) the total interest becoming due and payable on the Bonds to the date of payment thereof, and (ii) the total principal amount of and premium, if any, on the Bonds. The Payments with respect to the Bonds shall be payable directly to the Trustee for the account of the Issuer in installments as follows:

(a) With respect to the Series 2004A Bonds, the Series 2004B Bonds that bear interest at a Fixed Rate and the Series 2004C Bonds, on the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, commencing August 25, 2004, in an amount equal to one-sixth (1/6th) of the interest due and payable on such Series 2004 Bonds on the next February 1 and August 1, or such lesser amount that, together with amounts already on deposit in the Interest Account of the Debt Service Fund will be sufficient to pay interest on such Series 2004 Bonds on such Interest Payment Date; and

(b) With respect to the Auction Rate Bonds, two (2) Business Days prior to each Interest Payment Date for the Auction Rate Bonds, commencing August 18, 2004, in an amount equal to the interest due and payable on the Auction Rate Bonds on such Interest Payment Date, or such lesser amount that, together with amounts already on deposit in the Interest Account of the Debt Service Fund will be sufficient to pay interest on such Series 2004 Bonds on such Interest Payment Date; and

(c) With respect to the Variable Rate Bonds, two (2) Business Days prior to each Interest Payment Date, commencing on the Interest Payment Date immediately succeeding the applicable Variable Rate Conversion Date, an amount equal to the interest due and payable on the Variable Rate Bonds on such Interest Payment Date, or such lesser amount that, together with amounts already on deposit in the Interest Account of the Debt Service Fund will be sufficient to pay interest on such Series 2004 Bonds on such Interest Payment Date;

(d) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, commencing August 25, 2005, in an amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the principal of the Series 2004 Bonds payable on the next Principal Payment Date; and

(e) On the dates required in the Indenture, into any of the funds established in the Indenture, including, without limitation, the Debt Service Reserve Fund and the Replacement Fund, an amount sufficient to make up any deficiency in any prior payment required to be made into such fund and to restore any loss resulting from investment or other causes from such fund and any other payment required to be made to such fund by the Indenture.

If the interest rate on the Auction Rate Bonds or the Variable Rate Bonds is subject to adjustment pursuant to the Indenture after the date of such required payment deposit and prior to such Interest Payment Date, interest accruing on such bonds from such adjustment date shall be assumed to accrue at the rate in effect on such bonds as of the date of such required deposit plus 100 basis points or at such other rate as may from time to time direct in writing to the Trustee, the Corporation and the Issuer.

Each installment of the Payments payable by the Corporation hereunder shall be in an amount which, without regard to the payments required under Section 4.02(e) above, but including moneys in the Debt Service Fund then available, shall be designed to provide for the timely payment in full of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Bonds.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Corporation promises that it will pay the Payments from the Base Rental, at such times and in such amounts as to assure that no default in the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on the Bonds shall at any time occur.

Whenever the Corporation shall fail to pay the full amount of any installment of Payments payable under Sections 4.2(a) through 4.2(e) above by the day of the month in which such installment is due, the Trustee shall give immediate telephonic notice thereof, promptly confirmed in writing, to an Authorized Corporation Representative.

The Corporation shall also cause the Board to promptly pay when due under the Facilities Lease all amounts of Additional Rental owed by the Board thereunder, including, but not limited to, all Default or Delay Rentals and Administrative Expenses (each as defined in the Facilities Lease) owed to the Corporation, the Issuer and/or the Trustee thereunder.

Section 4.03 Credits Against Payments. A credit against and reduction of the Payments shall be derived only from the following sources:

- (a) Accrued interest, if any, derived from the sale of the Bonds;
- (b) Any capitalization of interest from the proceeds of the Bonds contained in the Capitalized Interest Fund under the Indenture;

(c) Rents and any other moneys deposited with the Trustee in the Receipts Fund in accordance with the Indenture and the Management Agreement.

(d) Surplus moneys (including investment earnings) contained in the Funds and Accounts held by the Trustee under the Indenture, including the Debt Service Fund, the Debt Service Reserve Fund and the Replacement Fund;

Section 4.04 Obligation to Make Payments. The obligation of the Corporation to repay the Loan by making the Payments from the Base Rental shall be absolute and unconditional and shall not be subject to, nor shall the Corporation be entitled to assert, any rights of abatement, deduction, reduction, deferment, recoupment, setoff, offset or counterclaim by the Corporation or any other person, nor shall the same be abated, abrogated, waived, diminished, postponed, delayed or otherwise modified under or by reason of any circumstance or occurrence that may arise or take place, irrespective of what statutory rights the Corporation may have to the contrary, including but without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

(a) Any damage to or destruction of part or all of the Facilities;

(b) The taking or damaging of part or all of the Facilities or any temporary or partial use thereof by any public authority or agency in the exercise of the power of eminent domain, sequestration or otherwise;

(c) Any assignment, novation, merger, consolidation, transfer of assets, leasing or other similar transaction of, by or affecting the Corporation, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement;

(d) Any change in the tax or other laws of the United States, the State or any governmental authority;

(e) The termination of the Ground Lease or the Facilities Lease, any failure of title or any lawful or unlawful prohibition of the Corporation's use of the Facilities or any portion thereof or the interference with such use by any person or any commercial frustration of purpose or loss or revocation of any permits, licenses or other authorizations required for the operation of the Facilities; and

(f) Any failure of the Issuer or the Trustee to perform and observe any agreement or covenant, expressed or implied, or any duty, liability or obligation arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, the invalidity, unenforceability or disaffirmance of any of this Agreement, the Indenture or the Bonds or for any other cause similar or dissimilar to the foregoing.

Furthermore, the Corporation covenants and agrees that it will remain obligated under this Agreement in accordance with its terms, and that it will not take or participate or acquiesce in any action to terminate, rescind or avoid this Agreement.

Section 4.05 Prepayment of Payments. The Corporation is obligated to prepay the Payments, in whole or in part, on any date on which the Bonds are subject to optional redemption pursuant to the Indenture, including, without limitation, redemption at the direction of the Board pursuant to Section 3.4 of the Indenture.

To exercise such option, the Corporation shall give written notice to the Issuer, the Bond Insurer and the Trustee and shall specify therein the date of such prepayment, which prepayment date shall be not less than forty-five (45) days from the date such notice is received by the Trustee. The Issuer and the Trustee shall make all necessary arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee for the redemption of Bonds to be redeemed under the Indenture in accordance with the provisions thereof.

The prepayment price payable by the Corporation, in the event of its exercise of the option granted in this Section, or in the case of its obligation to prepay the Payments shall be the sum of the following:

(a) An amount of money which, when added to the moneys and investments held by the Trustee pursuant to the provisions of the Indenture and available for such redemption, is sufficient to pay and discharge the Bonds to be redeemed (including the total principal amount of such Bonds and interest to accrue thereon to the date fixed for redemption of such Bonds to be redeemed, plus a premium equal to the amount of premium required to be paid in connection with the redemption of such Bonds) on the date fixed for redemption; plus

(b) An amount of money equal to the fees and expenses of the Trustee and the Issuer accrued and to accrue through the date of such redemption and any amounts due under the Reimbursement Agreement.

ARTICLE V
NON-ARBITRAGE

Section 5.01 Covenants as to Arbitrage. The Corporation hereby agrees to prepare and provide instructions to the Trustee as to the investment and reinvestment of moneys held as part of any fund or account relating to the Bonds. Any such moneys so held as part of any fund or account shall be invested or reinvested by the Trustee in Permitted Investments as specified in Section 4.12 of the Indenture. The Corporation hereby covenants that it will comply with the terms of the Tax Regulatory Agreement and that it will make such use of the proceeds of the Bonds and all other funds held by the Trustee under the Indenture, regulate the investment of such proceeds and other funds and take such other and further action as may be required so that the Series 2004A Bonds and Series 2004B Bonds will not constitute arbitrage bonds under Section 148 of the Code and the regulations promulgated thereunder. The Corporation agrees that it will comply with the terms of any letter of instructions provided to it by Bond Counsel relating to compliance with the provisions of Section 148 of the Code.

If the Corporation determines that it is necessary to restrict or limit the yield on the investment of any money paid to or held by the Trustee hereunder or under the Indenture in order to avoid classification of the Series 2004A Bonds and Series 2004B Bonds as arbitrage bonds within the meaning of the Code, the Corporation may issue to the Trustee an instrument to such effect (along with appropriate written instructions), in which event the Trustee will take such action as is necessary to restrict or limit the yield on such moneys in accordance with such instrument and instructions.

ARTICLE VI
CERTAIN COVENANTS OF THE CORPORATION

Section 6.01 General Covenants of Corporation. The Corporation further expressly represents, covenants and agrees:

(a) To comply with the terms, covenants and provisions expressed or implied, of all contracts pertaining to, affecting or involving the Facilities or the business of the Corporation, the violation or breach of which would materially and adversely affect the ability of the Corporation to fulfill its obligations hereunder;

(b) Whenever and so often as requested so to do by the Trustee or the Issuer, promptly to execute and deliver or cause to be executed and delivered all such other and further instruments and documents, and to promptly do or cause to be done all such other and further things, as may be necessary or reasonably required in order to further and more fully vest in the Issuer, the Trustee and the owners of the Bonds all rights, interests, powers, benefits, privileges and advantages conferred upon them under the Mortgage, this Agreement and the Indenture;

(c) To defend against every suit, action or proceeding at any time brought against the Issuer or the Trustee based on any claim arising out of the receipt, application or disbursement of any of the Trust Estate or involving the Issuer's or the Trustee's rights or obligations under this Agreement or under the Indenture (except in the case of the Issuer's or the Trustee's negligence or willful misconduct), to indemnify and hold harmless the Trustee and each officer, employee, agent, or other representative of the Trustee against claims arising out of the Trustee's responsibilities under this Agreement, the Indenture or any other document entered into by the Trustee in connection with the Bonds (except in the case of the Trustee's negligence or willful misconduct), to indemnify and hold harmless the Issuer and any officer, employee, agent, servant or trustee of the Issuer against claims during the term of this Agreement that may be occasioned by any cause (other than the negligence or willful misconduct of the Issuer, its officers, employees, agents, servants and trustees) pertaining to the construction, use, possession, operation, service, design or management or leasing or subleasing of the Facilities and any liabilities or losses resulting from violations by the Corporation of conditions, agreements and requirements of law affecting the Facilities or the ownership, occupancy or use thereof or arising from any defect in or from the operation of the Facilities, and to protect and insulate the Issuer and its members individually from any and all financial responsibility or liability whatsoever with respect to the Facilities;

(d) At all times to maintain the Corporation's rights to carry on the business of the Corporation and to duly procure all licenses and other authorizations required for the carrying on of its business and to provide all renewals and replacements and improvements to, and extensions of, the Facilities and to diligently maintain, preserve and renew all the rights, powers, privileges, approvals, licenses and franchises required for the carrying on of its business;

(e) To fulfill its obligations and to perform punctually its duties and obligations under this Agreement and to otherwise carry on its business in accordance with the terms hereof to assure the continued proper operation, management, repair and maintenance of the Facilities;

(f) To cause compliance with all material provisions of applicable federal, State and local laws;

(g) To pay, discharge, indemnify and save the Issuer and the Trustee, except in the case of their negligence or willful misconduct, and their respective officers, agents, employees, servants and trustees harmless of, from and against any and all costs, claims, damages, expenses, liabilities, liens, obligations, penalties and taxes of every character and nature, by or on behalf of any person, firm, corporation, entity or governmental Issuer regardless of by whom advanced, asserted, held, imposed or made, which may be imposed upon, incurred by or asserted against the Issuer and the Trustee and their respective officers, agents, employees, servants and trustees arising out of, resulting from or in any way connected with this Agreement, the Bonds or the Indenture. The Corporation also covenants and agrees, at its expense, to pay and to indemnify and to save the foregoing harmless of, from and against, all costs, reasonable counsel fees, expenses and liabilities incurred in any action or proceeding brought by reason of any such claim or demand; and

(h) To maintain its status as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific and educational purposes and it shall not perform any act or enter into any agreement which shall adversely affect its ability to obtain such status as set forth in this Section.

Section 6.02 Covenants Regarding Operation and Maintenance by the Corporation of its Properties. The Corporation acknowledges and agrees that it shall pay during the term hereof all Payments and other sums required hereunder and shall cause the Board to pay, as Additional Rental under the Facilities Lease, all Operating Expenses. The Corporation also expressly covenants and agrees:

(a) That it shall cause the Board and/or the University to maintain the Facilities, and each and every portion thereof, including all additions and improvements and all facilities adjoining and/or appurtenant thereto, in good operating order and condition, reasonable and ordinary wear and tear alone excepted, and make all necessary repairs thereto, interior and exterior, structural and non-structural, ordinary and extraordinary, foreseen and unforeseen, and otherwise to make all replacements, alterations, improvements and modifications to the Facilities necessary to ensure that the same at all times shall be suitable for the efficient operation thereof for the purpose intended;

(b) That the Issuer, the Bond Insurer, the Trustee and their agents shall have the right to inspect the Facilities at any reasonable time in a manner which will not interfere unreasonably with the Corporation's use thereof; however, any right of access to any portion of the Facilities leased to the students, faculty, staff and Permitted

Sublessees, as defined in the Facilities Lease, shall be subject to their rights pursuant to their rental agreements and University policy;

(c) That no construction undertakings, including the demolition of certain existing facilities and the renovation, development and construction of the Facilities, shall be commenced until the Corporation shall have first procured, so far as the same may be required from time to time, all necessary approvals and authorizations from municipal departments and governmental subdivisions having jurisdiction, and all construction undertakings shall be made and effected promptly and in a good and workmanlike manner and in full compliance with the Ground Lease, all applicable permits, authorizations and laws and in accordance with all such requirements as insurers of the Properties, and all components thereof, may reasonably establish;

(d) That it shall cause the Board to pay, as Additional Rental under the Facilities Leases, as the same respectively become due, all taxes and assessments, whether general or special, and governmental charges of any kind whatsoever that may at any time be lawfully assessed or levied against or with respect to the Facilities. The Corporation shall not allow any part of the Facilities to become and remain subjected to any mechanics', laborer's or materialmen's liens of record. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation may, at its own expense and in its own name, contest any such item of tax, assessment, liens or other governmental charge and, in the event of such contest, may permit the item so contested to remain unpaid during the period of such contest and any appeal therefrom unless the Issuer or the Trustee shall notify the Corporation that, in the opinion of nationally recognized bond counsel by nonpayment of any such items the security afforded the Bonds pursuant to the terms of the Indenture or this Agreement will be materially endangered, in which event such taxes, assessments or charges shall be paid forthwith. The Issuer will cooperate to the extent reasonably necessary with the Corporation in any such claim, defense or contest. In the event the Corporation fails to do so, the Issuer or the Trustee may, but shall be under no obligation to, pay any such item and any amounts so advanced therefor by the Issuer or the Trustee shall become an additional obligation of the Corporation to the one making the advancement, which amount the Corporation agrees to pay together with interest thereon at the rate of the Trustee's prime lending rate, but solely from Base Rental;

(e) That it shall comply promptly with all material provisions of present and future laws, ordinances, orders, rules, regulations and requirements of every duly constituted governmental authority or agency and all material orders, rules and regulations of any regulatory, licensing, insurance underwriting or rating organization or other body exercising similar functions. The Corporation shall likewise perform and comply with all duties and obligations of any kind imposed by law, covenant, condition, agreement or easement and the requirements of all policies of insurance at any time in force with respect to the Facilities;

(f) That it shall not use or allow the Facilities to be used or occupied for any unlawful purpose or in violation of any private covenant, restriction, condition, easement or agreement covering or affecting the use of the Facilities. The Corporation likewise shall not suffer any act to be done or any condition to exist in the Facilities or any article to be brought therein or thereon which may be dangerous, unless safeguarded as required by law, or which, under law, constitutes a nuisance, public or private, or which may make void or voidable any insurance then in force with respect thereto;

(g) That it shall provide or cause to be provided all equipment, furnishings, supplies, facilities, services and personnel required for the proper demolition of certain existing facilities and the renovation, development and construction of the Facilities in an economical and efficient manner, consistent with standards of operation and administration generally acceptable for facilities of comparable size and scope of operations; and

(h) That it shall take all action, if any, that may be required to obtain such consents, exceptions, exemptions or approvals of governmental authorities as may be necessary to permit it to comply fully with all covenants, stipulations, obligations and agreements of the Corporation contained in this Agreement.

(i) The Corporation agrees that, if Capstone On-Campus Management, L.L.C. shall cease to serve as Manager, the Corporation, with the consent of the Bond Insurer (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), will promptly employ and at all times thereafter employ as the Manager either the University or a recognized manager of student housing facilities that then manages, and shall have for the past five (5) years managed, at least five thousand (5,000) beds of student housing. If the Corporation requests the Bond Insurer's consent to employ the University as Manager, the Corporation and/or the University shall provide the Bond Insurer with information detailing the University's plan for managing the Facilities. The Corporation agrees that the Manager shall be replaced at the Bond Insurer's request if the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Facilities is less than 1:10:1.0 for two consecutive Fiscal Years. Prior to the entering into a contract with any successor Manager, the Corporation shall first deliver to the Trustee and the Bond Insurer an opinion of Bond Counsel to the effect that the terms of the proposed Management Agreement will not cause interest on the Series 2004A Bonds, the Series 2004B Bonds or any Additional Bonds that are Tax Exempt Bonds to be includable in gross income of the beneficial owners thereof for Federal income tax purposes.

Section 6.03 Covenant as to Encumbrances. The Corporation covenants that, so long as any of the Bonds remain outstanding, it shall not hereafter create or suffer to be created any assignment, pledge, mortgage, hypothecation or lien on the Facilities, its interest in the Facilities Lease or any Base Rental under any circumstances, except for Permitted Encumbrances.

Section 6.04 Covenants, Representations and Warranties Relating to Federal Income Taxation. The Corporation covenants that it shall make such use of the proceeds of the Bonds, regulate investment of proceeds thereof and take such other and further actions as may be required by the Code and applicable temporary, proposed and final regulations and procedures, necessary to assure that interest on the Series 2004A Bonds and Series 2004B Bonds is excludable from gross income for federal income tax purposes. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing covenant, the Corporation hereby covenants, represents and warrants, as follows:

(a) The Corporation will not take, fail to take or permit the commission of any action within its control necessary to be taken in order that interest on the Series 2004A Bonds and Series 2004B Bonds will continue to be excludable from gross income for federal income tax purposes;

(b) The Corporation will preserve its status as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or corresponding provisions of prior law and to not be determined to be a private foundation as defined in Section 509 of said Code; the Corporation shall not perform any act or enter into any agreement which shall adversely affect its ability to obtain such federal income tax status; the Corporation shall not perform any act, enter into any agreement or use or permit any property of the Corporation to be used in any manner (including any unrelated trade or business) which could adversely affect the exclusion from gross income of interest on the Series 2004A Bonds or Series 2004B Bonds for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Code; the Corporation shall not carry on or permit to be carried on in any property of the Corporation or permit any property of the Corporation to be used in or for any trade or business to the extent that such use of such property would adversely affect the exclusion from gross income of interest on the Series 2004A Bonds and Series 2004B Bonds for federal income tax purposes; and the Corporation is duly organized and existing as a nonprofit corporation under the laws of the State of Louisiana and it will maintain, extend and renew its corporate existence under the laws of the State of Louisiana and will not do, suffer or permit any act or thing to be done whereby its right to transact its functions might or could be terminated or its activities restricted;

(c) The Corporation will assist the Issuer in preparing Form 8038G to be filed pursuant to Section 149(e) of the Code.

(d) The average term of the Series 2004A Bonds and Series 2004B Bonds, calculated in proportion to the "issue price" (as defined in Section 1273 of the Code) of the bonds of each stated maturity of such Series 2004A Bonds and Series 2004B Bonds, will not exceed 120% of the average reasonably expected economic life of the Facilities financed with the proceeds of the Series 2004A Bonds and Series 2004B Bonds or the investment earnings thereon, weighted in proportion to the respective cost of each item comprising the Facilities financed with the proceeds of such Series 2004A Bonds and Series 2004B Bonds. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the reasonably expected economic life of property shall be determined as of the later of (i) the date on which the Series 2004A Bonds and Series 2004B Bonds are issued or (ii) the date on which such property is placed in service (or expected to be placed in service);

(e) The Corporation will not cause the Series 2004A Bonds or Series 2004B Bonds to be treated as "federally guaranteed" obligations within the meaning of Section 149(b) of the Code (as may be modified in any applicable rules, rulings, policies, procedures, regulations or other official statements promulgated or proposed by the Department of the Treasury or the Internal Revenue Service with respect to "federally guaranteed" obligations described in Section 149(b) of the Code);

(f) Based upon all facts and estimates now known or reasonably expected to be in existence on the date the Series 2004A Bonds and Series 2004B Bonds are delivered, the Corporation reasonably expects that the proceeds of the Bonds will not be used in a manner that would cause the Series 2004A Bonds or Series 2004B Bonds or any portion thereof to be an "arbitrage bond" within the meaning of Section 148 of the Code;

(g) As provided in Article V hereof, the Corporation will monitor the yield on the investment of the proceeds of the Series 2004A Bonds and Series 2004B Bonds and moneys pledged to the repayment of the Series 2004A Bonds or Series 2004B Bonds, other than amounts not subject to yield restriction and will restrict the yield on such investments to the extent required by the Code;

(h) The Corporation (or any "related person," within the meaning of the Code) shall not, pursuant to an arrangement, formal or informal, purchase the Bonds in an amount related to the principal amounts advanced to the Corporation pursuant to this Agreement; and

(i) The Corporation agrees to comply with all the terms and provisions of the Tax Regulatory Agreement executed in connection with the issuance and sale of the Series 2004A Bonds and Series 2004B Bonds, and to perform the covenants and duties imposed on it contained therein.

All officers, employees and agents of the Corporation are authorized and directed to provide certifications of facts and estimates that are material to the reasonable expectations of the Corporation as of the date the Series 2004A Bonds and Series 2004B Bonds are delivered. In complying with the foregoing covenants, the Corporation may rely from time to time upon an opinion issued by Bond Counsel to the effect that any action by the Corporation or reliance upon any interpretation of the Code contained in such opinion will not cause interest on the Series 2004A Bonds and Series 2004B Bonds to be includable in gross income for federal income tax purposes under existing law.

Section 6.05 Information. The Corporation agrees, whenever reasonably requested by the Issuer, the Bond Insurer or the Trustee, to provide and certify or cause to be provided and certified such information concerning the Properties, the Facilities, the Corporation, its finances, and other topics as the Issuer, the Bond Insurer or Trustee, as the case may be, considers necessary to enable counsel to the Issuer, the Bond Insurer or the Trustee, as the case may be, to issue its opinions and otherwise advise the Issuer, the Bond Insurer or the Trustee, as the case may be, as to the transaction or the legal capacity of the parties to enter into the same, or to enable it to make any reports required by law, governmental regulation or the Indenture. When any such information is provided by the Corporation pursuant to this Section 6.05 the Corporation shall provide such information to the Issuer, the Bond Insurer and the Trustee. The Bond Insurer shall have the right to inspect and make copies of all books and records of the Corporation, the Trustee and the Issuer.

Section 6.06 Source of Payments. The Corporation agrees to pay or cause to be paid the payments required by this Agreement solely from the Base Rental in the manner and at the times provided by this Agreement.

Section 6.07 Insurance. The Corporation shall or it shall cause the Board to maintain insurance covering such risks and in such amounts as is required by Section 9 of the Facilities Lease, the provisions of which are incorporated herein by reference.

Insurance proceeds and condemnation awards shall be applied in accordance with the Indenture and the Corporation shall be obligated to repair or restore the Facilities upon a casualty or an Expropriation to the extent provided therein.

Section 6.08 Annual Reports. Annually, within one hundred eighty (180) days from the end of each Fiscal Year, the Corporation will have made a complete audit of its records and accounts by an independent certified public accountant. A signed counterpart of its audited financial statements shall be furnished to the Issuer, the Bond Insurer and the Trustee, and a copy thereof shall be furnished by the Corporation to any Bondholder who requests the same in writing.

Any independent accountant which audits and reports on the Corporation's financial statements or provides any certificate, report or opinion under the Indenture, this Agreement or the Mortgage shall be (i) a nationally recognized firm of independent certified public accountants or (ii) shall otherwise be acceptable to the Bond Insurer.

Section 6.09 Merger or Consolidation. The Corporation shall not merge into, or consolidate with, one or more corporations, or allow one or more of such corporations to merge into it, or sell or convey all or substantially all of its assets to any person or entity or acquire all or substantially all of the assets of any person or entity (any such merger, consolidation, sale, conveyance or acquisition being referred to as a "Merger"), unless it has obtained the prior written consent of the Bond Insurer and:

- (a) Any successor corporation to the Corporation (including, without limitation, any purchaser of all or substantially all the Properties of the Corporation (the "Successor Corporation") is a 501(c)(3) corporation organized and existing under the laws of the United States of America or a state thereof and shall execute and deliver to the Trustee an appropriate instrument, satisfactory to the Bond Insurer, the Issuer and the Trustee, containing the agreement of such successor corporation to assume, jointly and severally and in solido, the due and punctual payment of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on all obligations of the Corporation (including, without limitation, the Bonds) according to their tenor and the due and punctual performance and observance of all the covenants and conditions of the Indenture, this Agreement and the

Mortgage to be kept and performed by the Corporation, accompanied by an opinion of counsel as to the validity and enforceability of such assumption (which counsel and opinion, including without limitation the scope, form, substance and other aspects thereof, are acceptable to the Bond Insurer, the Issuer and the Trustee);

(b) Immediately after such Merger, there would not be a default in the performance or observance of any covenant or condition of the Indenture, this Agreement, the Ground Lease, the Facilities Lease and the Mortgage; and

(c) There shall be delivered to the Bond Insurer, the Issuer and the Trustee an opinion of Bond Counsel (which counsel and opinion, including without limitation the scope, form, substance and other aspects thereof, are acceptable to the Bond Insurer and the Trustee) to the effect that under existing laws the consummation of such Merger, whether or not contemplated on the original date of delivery of the Series 2004A Bonds and Series 2004B Bonds, would not adversely affect the validity of the Series 2004 Bonds or the exclusion otherwise available from gross income of interest on the Series 2004A Bonds and Series 2004B Bonds for federal or state income tax purposes.

In case of any such Merger and upon any such assumption by the Successor Corporation, the Successor Corporation shall succeed to and be substituted for its predecessor, with the same effect as if it had been named in the Indenture, this Agreement or the Mortgage as the Corporation.

Section 6.10 Disposition of Assets. The Corporation covenants that, so long as any of the Bonds remain outstanding, it shall not hereafter alienate its interest in the Facilities, the Ground Lease or the Facilities Lease or enter into any termination of, or amendment to, the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease without the prior written consent of the Bond Insurer.

Section 6.11 Debt Service Coverage Ratios. The Corporation shall or it shall cause the Board to maintain a Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Facilities as provided in Section 3 (h) of the Facilities Lease, the provisions of which, including the applicable cure and default provisions, are incorporated herein by reference.

Section 6.12 Bond Hedges. Other than the Auction Rate Bonds, the Bonds shall bear interest at a fixed rate and neither the Issuer nor the Corporation shall enter into any swap agreements, payment exchange agreements, forward purchase agreements or any other agreement providing for payments between parties based on levels of or changes in interest rates including, without limitation, interest rate floors or caps, options, puts or calls, which allow the Corporation to manage or hedge payment, rate, spread or similar risk with respect to any Bonds without the prior written consent of the Bond Insurer.

ARTICLE VII ASSIGNMENT

Section 7.01 Assignment of this Agreement. With the consent of the Bond Insurer, the rights of the Corporation under this Agreement may be assigned as a whole or in part but no such assignment shall constitute a release of the Corporation from its obligations hereunder.

Each transferee of the Corporation's interest in this Agreement shall assume the obligations of the Corporation hereunder to the extent of the interest assigned, sold or leased, and the Corporation shall, not more than sixty (60) nor less than thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of any such assignment or lease, furnish or cause to be furnished to the Issuer, the Bond Insurer and the Trustee a true and complete copy of each such assignment or lease.

Section 7.02 Restrictions on Transfer of Issuer's Rights. The Issuer agrees that, except for the assignment of certain of its rights, title and interest under this Agreement (including its rights to receive payments to be made hereunder) to the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture, it will not during the term of this Agreement sell, assign, transfer or convey its interests in this Agreement except pursuant to the Indenture and as hereinafter in Section 7.03 provided.

Section 7.03 Assignment by the Issuer. It is understood, agreed and acknowledged that the Issuer will assign to the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture certain of its rights, title and interests in and to this Agreement (reserving its rights, however, pursuant to sections of this Agreement providing that notices, reports and other statements be given to the Issuer and also reserving its rights to reimbursement and payment of costs and expenses under Sections 4.02 and 9.05 hereof, its rights to indemnification under Section 6.01(g) hereof and its individual and corporate rights to exemption from liability under Section 10.12 hereof), and the Corporation hereby assents to such assignment and pledge.

ARTICLE VIII
SUPPLEMENTS AND AMENDMENTS

Section 8.01 Amendment to Agreement Without Consent. The Issuer and the Corporation, with the consent of the Bond Insurer but without the consent of the owners of any of the Bonds outstanding under the Indenture, may enter into supplements to this Agreement which shall not be inconsistent with the terms and provisions hereof for any of the purposes heretofore specifically authorized in this Agreement or the Indenture, and in addition thereto for the following purposes:

- (a) To cure any ambiguity or formal defect, inconsistency or omission in this Agreement or to clarify matters or questions arising hereunder;
- (b) To add covenants and agreements for the purpose of further securing the obligations of the Corporation hereunder;
- (c) To confirm as further assurance any mortgage or pledge of additional property, revenues, securities or funds;
- (d) To conform the provisions of this Agreement in connection with the provisions of any supplements or amendments to the Indenture entered into pursuant to the provisions of Section 10.1 thereof;
- (e) To provide any other modifications which, in the sole judgment of the Trustee, are not prejudicial to the interests of the Bondholders; or
- (f) to conform the covenants and provisions of the Corporation contained herein to any different financial statement presentation required by the Financial Accounting Standard Board which is different than the presentation required as of the date of issuance of the Bonds, so long as the effect of such conformed covenants and provisions is substantially identical to the effect of the covenants and provisions as in effect on the date of issuance of the Bonds.

Section 8.02 Amendment to Agreement Upon Approval of a Majority of Bondholders. The provisions of this Agreement may be amended in any particular with the written consent of the Bond Insurer and the owners of not less than a majority of the aggregate principal amount of Bonds then Outstanding; provided, however, that no such amendment may be adopted which decreases the percentage of owners of Bonds required to approve an amendment, or which permits a change in the date of payment of the principal or interest on any Bonds or of any redemption price thereof or the rate of interest thereon without the consent of the owners of all of the aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then Outstanding.

If at any time the Issuer and the Corporation shall request the Trustee to consent to a proposed amendment for any of the purposes of this Section 8.02, the Trustee shall, upon being satisfactorily indemnified with respect to expenses, cause notice of the proposed execution of such proposed amendment to be given in the manner required by the Indenture to redeem Bonds. Such notice shall briefly set forth the nature of the proposed amendment and shall state that copies thereof are on file at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee for inspection by all Bondholders. If, within ninety (90) days or such longer period as shall be prescribed by the Issuer, as advised by the Corporation, following such notice, the owners of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds outstanding at the time of the execution of any such proposed amendment shall have consented to and approved the execution thereof as herein provided, no owner of any Bond shall have any right to object to any of the terms and provisions contained therein, or the operation thereof, or in any manner to question the propriety of the execution thereof, or to enjoin or restrain the Trustee, the Corporation or the Issuer from executing or approving the same or from taking any action pursuant to the provisions thereof. Upon the execution of any such proposed amendment as in this Section permitted and provided, this Agreement shall be and be deemed to be modified and amended in accordance therewith.

Section 8.03 Amendments to Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease Not Requiring Owner Consent. Subject to the terms and provisions of Section 8.05 and 8.07 of this Agreement, with the written consent of the Bond Insurer, the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease may be amended or modified in any manner not inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this Agreement, for any one or more of the following purposes: (1) to cure any ambiguity or formal defect or omission in the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease which does not have an adverse effect upon the interest of the Owners; (2) to grant to or confer upon the Issuer or the Trustee, for the benefit of the Owners, any additional rights, remedies, powers or authorities that lawfully may be granted to or conferred upon the Issuer or the Trustee; (3) to more clearly identify the Facilities or to add to or subtract from the Facilities any property; (4) to amend or modify the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease in any manner specifically required or permitted by the terms thereof, including as may be necessary to maintain the exclusion from gross income of interest on the Bonds for federal income tax purposes; (5) to make any amendment or modification required as a condition to obtaining any rating by Moody's or S&P with respect to the Bonds; (6) to make any amendment or modification required as a condition to the issuance of the Bond Insurance Policy; and (7) to amend or modify the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease in any other manner that, in the judgment of the Trustee, is not materially adverse to the interests of the owners of the Bonds, the Bond Insurer or the Trustee and which does not involve a change described in Section 8.05 hereof.

Section 8.04 Amendments to the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease Requiring Owner Consent. Exclusive of amendments and modifications covered by Section 8.03 hereof, the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease may be amended or modified only as provided in Section 8.04 and 8.05 of this Agreement. Subject to the terms and provisions contained in Section 8.05 of this Agreement, the Bond Insurer, the Issuer and the owners of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then Outstanding shall have the right, from time to time, anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, to consent to and approve the amendment or modification of the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease. If at any time there is a proposed amendment or modification to the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease, the Trustee shall, upon being satisfactorily indemnified with respect to expenses, cause notice of the proposed execution of such modification or amendment to be mailed to the Bond Insurer and to each of the owners of the Bonds at the address indicated on the registration books of the Trustee. Such notice shall briefly set forth the nature of the proposed amendment or modification and shall state that copies thereof are on file at the principal office of the Trustee for inspection by all Bond owners. If, within sixty (60) days, or such longer period as shall be prescribed by the Issuer, as advised by the Corporation, following the mailing of such notice, the owners of the requisite percentage in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds Outstanding at the time of the execution of any such amendment or modification shall have consented to and approved the execution thereof as herein provided, no owner of any Bond shall have any right to object to any of the terms and provisions contained therein, or the operation thereof; or to enjoin or restrain the parties thereto from executing the same or from taking any action pursuant to the provisions hereof.

Section 8.05 Consent Required Under Certain Circumstances for Amendment of Facilities Lease or Ground Lease. Nothing contained in Sections 8.03 and 8.04 of this Agreement shall permit, or be construed as permitting, without the approval and consent of the Bond Insurer and all of the owners of the Bonds, (1) a reduction in the amount of, or the extension of the time for, any payment of Base Rental due under the Facilities Lease or any amount due under the Bond Insurance Policy; or (2) the termination of the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease prior to the expiration of their stated term.

Section 8.06 Opinion Required for Amendment of Facilities Lease or Ground Lease. Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, no amendment or modification of the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease shall become effective unless and until the Trustee has been provided with an opinion of Bond Counsel to the effect that such amendment or modification will not have an adverse effect upon the validity of the Bonds and to the effect that such amendment or modification will maintain the exclusion from gross income of interest on the Series 2004A Bonds and Series 2004B Bonds for federal income tax purposes.

Section 8.07 Consent of the Board. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, an amendment to the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease under this Article VIII shall not become effective unless and until the Board shall have consented to the execution and delivery of such amendment to the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease, unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, and no amendment to the Facilities Lease or the Ground Lease shall not be effective without the prior written consent of the Board that would affect the date or amounts of payments required on the Bonds or required under the Facilities Lease.

Section 8.08 Filing. Copies of any such supplement or amendment to this Agreement, the Ground Lease or the Facilities Lease shall be filed with the Trustee and delivered to the Issuer and the Corporation before such supplement or amendment may become effective.

Section 8.09 Reliance on Counsel. The Issuer and the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and shall be fully protected in relying upon the opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Trustee, who may be counsel for the Issuer, as conclusive evidence that any such proposed supplement or amendment to this Agreement, the Ground Lease or the Facilities Lease complies with the provisions of this Agreement and the Indenture and that it is proper for the Issuer and the Trustee under the provisions of this Article to execute or approve such supplement or amendment.

Section 8.10 Notice to Rating Agencies and Bond Insurer. No supplemental agreement or amendment to this Agreement, the Ground Lease or the Facilities Lease shall be executed and delivered pursuant hereto without prior written notice having been given by the Corporation to the Bond Insurer and Standard & Poor's Ratings Group (Attention: Bond Insurance Administration) of the Corporation's intention to execute such supplemental agreement or amendment thereof not less than fifteen (15) days in advance of the execution of said supplemental agreement or amendment. The Corporation shall provide the Bond Insurer a full transcript of all proceedings relative to said supplemental agreement or amendment.

ARTICLE IX
EVENTS OF DEFAULT AND REMEDIES

Section 9.01 Events of Default Defined. The terms "Event of Default" and "Default" shall mean any one or more of the following events:

(a) The Corporation shall default in the timely payment of any Payment pursuant to Article IV of this Agreement.

(b) An Event of Default shall exist under the Indenture, the Mortgage, the Facilities Lease or the Tax Regulatory Agreement.

(c) The termination of the Facilities Lease.

(d) The Corporation shall fail duly to perform, observe or comply with any other covenant, condition or agreement on its part under this Agreement (other than a failure to make any payment required under this Agreement), and such failure continues for a period of thirty (30) days after the date on which written notice of such failure, requiring the same to be remedied, shall have been given to the Corporation by the Trustee; provided, however, that if such performance, observation or compliance requires work to be done, action to be taken, or conditions to be remedied, which by their nature cannot reasonably be done, taken or remedied, as the case may be, within such thirty (30) day period, no Event of Default shall be deemed to have occurred or to exist if, and so long as the Corporation shall commence such performance, observation or compliance within such period and shall diligently and continuously prosecute the same to completion.

(e) The entry of a decree or order by a court having jurisdiction in the premises adjudging the Corporation a bankrupt or insolvent, or approving as properly filed a petition seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition of or in respect of the Corporation under the United States Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable federal or state law, or appointing a receiver, liquidator, custodian, assignee, or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Corporation or of any substantial part of its property, or ordering the winding up or liquidation of its affairs, and the continuance of any such decree or order unstayed and in effect for a period of ninety (90) consecutive days.

(f) The institution by the Corporation of proceedings to be adjudicated bankrupt or insolvent, or the consent by it to the institution of bankruptcy or insolvency against it, or the filing by it of a petition or answer or consent seeking reorganization or relief under the United States Bankruptcy Code or any other similar applicable federal or state law, or the consent by it to the filing of any such petition or to the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, custodian, assignee, trustee or sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Corporation or of any substantial part of its property, or the making by it of an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or the admission by it in writing of its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due.

Section 9.02 Remedies. Whenever any Event of Default under Section 9.01 hereof shall have happened and be continuing, any one or more of the following remedial steps may be taken with the consent of the Bond Insurer and shall be taken at the direction of the Bond Insurer:

(a) The Issuer or the Trustee may declare all installments of Payments under Section 4.02 hereof to be immediately due and payable, whereupon the same shall become immediately due and payable;

(b) The Issuer or the Trustee may take whatever action at law or in equity may appear necessary or desirable to collect the Payments then due and thereafter to become due, or to enforce performance and observance of any obligation, agreement or covenant of the Corporation under this Agreement;

(c) The Issuer or the Trustee may have access to and inspect, examine and make copies of any and all books, accounts and records of the Corporation;

(d) The Issuer or the Trustee (or the owners of the Bonds in the circumstances permitted by the Indenture) may exercise any option and pursue any remedy provided by the Indenture; and/or

(e) The Trustee may foreclose the lien of the Mortgage.

Section 9.03 No Remedy Exclusive; Selective Enforcement. No remedy conferred upon or reserved to the Issuer or the Trustee by this Agreement is intended to be exclusive of any other available remedy or remedies, but each and every such remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given under this Agreement and as now or hereafter existing at law or in equity. No delay or omission to exercise any right or power accruing upon any event of nonperformance shall impair any such right or power or shall be construed to be a waiver thereof, but any such right and power may be exercised from time to time and as often as may be deemed expedient. In order to entitle the Issuer or the Trustee to exercise any remedy reserved to it in this Article, it shall not be necessary to give any notice, other than such notice as may be herein expressly required. In the event the Issuer or the Trustee shall elect to selectively and successively enforce its rights under this Agreement, such action shall not be deemed a waiver or discharge of any other lien, encumbrance or security interest securing payment of the indebtedness secured hereby or thereby until such time that it shall have been paid in full all sums secured hereunder and thereunder. The foreclosure of any lien provided pursuant to this Agreement without the simultaneous foreclosure of all such liens shall not merge the liens granted which are not foreclosed with any interest which the Issuer or the Trustee might obtain as a result of such selective and successive foreclosure.

Section 9.04 Indenture Overriding. All of the provisions of this Article are subject to and subordinate to the rights and remedies of the Bond Insurer, the Bondholders and the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture. The Issuer shall have no power to waive any event of default hereunder, except with respect to indemnification and its administrative payments, without the consent of the Trustee and the Bond Insurer to such waiver.

Section 9.05 Agreement to Pay Attorneys' Fees and Expenses. In any Event of Default, if the Issuer or the Trustee employs attorneys or incurs other expenses for the collection of amounts payable hereunder or the enforcement of the performance or observance of any covenants or agreements on the part of the Corporation herein contained, whether or not such suit is commenced, the Corporation agrees that it will on demand therefor pay to the Issuer or the Trustee the reasonable fees of such attorneys and such other reasonable expenses so incurred by the Issuer or the Trustee.

Section 9.06 Issuer and Corporation to Give Notice of Default. The Issuer and the Corporation severally covenant that they will, at the expense of the Corporation, promptly give to the Trustee written notice of any Event of Default under this Agreement of which they shall have actual knowledge or written notice, but the Issuer shall not be liable (except as provided in Section 6.01(c) hereof) for failing to give such notice.

Section 9.07 Correlative Waivers. If an Event of Default under Section 8.2 of the Indenture shall be cured or waived and any remedial action by the Trustee rescinded, any correlative default under this Agreement shall be deemed to have been cured or waived.

ARTICLE X
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 10.01 References to the Bonds Ineffective After Bonds Paid. Upon payment of the Bonds, all references in this Agreement to the Bondholders shall be ineffective and the Issuer and any holder of the Bonds shall not thereafter have any rights hereunder, excepting those that shall have theretofore vested.

Section 10.02 Amounts Remaining in Funds. It is agreed by the parties hereto that any amounts remaining in the funds and accounts existing pursuant to the Indenture upon the expiration or sooner cancellation or termination of this Agreement, as provided herein, after payment in full of all Bonds then outstanding under the Indenture (or provisions for payment thereof having been made in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture), and the fees, charges and expenses of the Issuer and the Trustee and all other amounts required to be paid hereunder and under the Indenture (other than amounts payable as arbitrage rebate pursuant to the Code) and payment of amounts due under the Reimbursement Agreement, shall belong to and be paid to the University.

Section 10.03 Notices. All notices demands and requests to be given or made hereunder to or by the Issuer, the Trustee or the Corporation, or their designated successors, shall be in writing and shall be properly made if hand delivered or sent by United States mail, postage prepaid, and addressed as follows:

The Corporation, the Issuer and the Trustee may, by notice given hereunder, designate any further or different addresses, counsel or counsel addresses to which subsequent notices, certificates, requests or other communications shall be sent.

Section 10.04 Binding Effect. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit and shall be binding upon the Issuer, the Corporation and their respective successors and assigns, subject to the limitation that any obligation of the Issuer created by or arising out of this Agreement shall not be a general debt of the Issuer, but shall be payable solely out of the proceeds derived from this Agreement and the sale of the Bonds under the Indenture.

Section 10.05 Performance on Legal Holidays. In any case where the date of maturity of interest on or principal of the Bonds or the date fixed for redemption or purchase of any Bonds or the date fixed for the giving of notice or the taking of any action under the Indenture shall not be a Business Day, then payment of such interest, principal, purchase price and redemption premium, if any, the giving of such notice or the taking of such action need not be made on such date but may be made on the next succeeding Business Day with the same force and effect as if made on the date of maturity or the date fixed for redemption or purchase, and no interest on such payment shall accrue for the period after such date.

Section 10.06 Execution in Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be regarded as an original and all of which shall constitute but one and the same instrument; provided, however, that upon the assignment and pledge to the Trustee provided for in Section 3.02 hereof, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee an executed counterpart of this Agreement which executed counterpart shall be deemed to be collateral of which the Trustee has taken possession and no other counterpart shall be deemed to be collateral for any other purpose.

Section 10.07 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State.

Section 10.08 Severability. If any clause, provision or Section of this Agreement be held illegal or invalid by any court, the invalidity of such clause, provision or Section shall not affect any of the remaining clauses, provisions or Sections hereof and this Agreement shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal or invalid clause, provision or Section had not been contained herein. In case any agreement or obligation contained in this Agreement be held to be in violation of law, then such agreement or obligation shall be deemed to be the agreement or obligation of the Issuer or the Corporation, as the case may be, only to the extent permitted by law.

Section 10.09 Captions. The table of contents, captions or headings of the several articles and sections of this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not control, affect the meaning of or be taken as an interpretation of any provisions of this Agreement.

Section 10.10 Consents and Approvals. Whenever the consent or approval of the Issuer, the Corporation or the Trustee shall be required under the provisions of this Agreement, such consent or approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

Section 10.11 Third Party Beneficiaries. It is specifically agreed between the parties executing this Agreement that it is not intended by any of the provisions of any part of this Agreement to make the public or any member thereof, other than the Trustee and the Bond Insurer and except as expressly provided herein or as contemplated in the Indenture, a third party beneficiary hereunder, or to authorize anyone not a party to this Agreement to maintain a suit for personal injuries or property damage pursuant to the terms or provisions of this Agreement. The duties, obligations and responsibilities, if any, of the parties to this Agreement with respect to third parties shall remain as imposed by law.

Section 10.12 Exculpatory Provision. In the exercise of the powers of the Issuer, the Trustee and their respective trustees, directors, officers, employees and agents (each, an "Indemnified Party") under this Agreement, each Indemnified Party shall not be accountable or liable to the Corporation (i) for any actions taken or omitted by such Indemnified Party in good faith and believed by it or them to be authorized or within their discretion or rights or powers conferred upon them (other than the negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnified Party), or (ii) for any claims based on this Agreement against any such Indemnified Party, all such liability, if any, being expressly waived by the Corporation by the execution of this Agreement. The Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless each Indemnified Party against any claim or liability based on the foregoing asserted by any other person.

In case any action shall be brought against an Indemnified Party in respect of which indemnity may be sought against the Corporation, such Indemnified Party shall promptly notify the Corporation in writing and the Corporation shall assume the defense thereof, including the employment of counsel of the Corporation's choice and the payment of all expenses. Such Indemnified Party shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such action and participate in the defense thereof, but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall be paid by such Indemnified Party unless the employment of such counsel has been authorized by the Corporation. The Corporation shall not be liable for any settlement of any such action without its consent but if any such action is settled with the consent of the Corporation or if there be final judgment for the plaintiff of any such action, the Corporation agrees to indemnify and hold harmless such Indemnified Party from and against any loss or liability by reason of such settlement or judgment.

Section 10.13 Accounts and Audits. The Issuer shall cause the Trustee to keep proper books of records and accounts (separate from all other records and accounts) in which complete and correct entries shall be made of its transactions relating to the Bonds.

Section 10.14 Reliance. It is expressly understood and agreed by the parties to this Agreement that:

- (a) the Issuer may rely conclusively on the truth and accuracy of any certificate, opinion, notice or other instrument furnished to the Issuer by the Trustee, any

Bondholder or the Corporation as to the existence of a fact or state of affairs required under this Agreement to be noticed by the Issuer;

(b) the Issuer shall not be under any obligation to perform any recordkeeping or to provide any legal service, it being understood that such services shall be performed or caused to be performed by the Trustee or the Corporation; and

(c) none of the provisions of this Agreement or the Mortgage shall require the Issuer to expend or risk its own funds (apart from the proceeds of Bonds issued under the Indenture) or otherwise incur financial liability in the performance of any of its duties or in the exercise of any of its rights under this Agreement or the Mortgage unless it first shall have been adequately indemnified to its satisfaction against the costs, expenses and liabilities which may be incurred by taking any such action.

Section 10.15 Issuer Not Liable. Section 18.07 Warranty of Peaceful Possession. The Board covenants that the Corporation, on paying the Rent and performing and observing all of the covenants and agreements herein contained and provided to be performed by the Corporation, shall and may peaceably and quietly have, hold, occupy, use, and enjoy the Land, the Facilities and the Stadium Expansion during the Term, subject to the Facilities Lease, and may exercise all of its rights hereunder; and the Board agrees to warrant and forever defend the Corporation's right to such occupancy, use, and enjoyment and the title to the Land against the claims of any and all persons whomsoever lawfully claiming the same, or any part thereof subject only to the provisions of this Ground Lease, the Facilities Lease, and the matters listed on Exhibit B attached hereto.

Section 18.08 Curative Matters. Except for the express representations and warranties of the Board set forth in this Ground Lease, any additional matters necessary or desirable to make the Land useable for the Corporation's purpose shall be undertaken, in the Corporation's sole discretion, at no expense to the Board. The Corporation shall notify the Board in writing of all additional matters undertaken by the Corporation to make the Land usable for the Corporation's purpose.

Section 18.09 Nonwaiver. All alterations, renovations or additions to the Phase Four Facilities or the Stadium Expansion undertaken by the Corporation shall be in conformance with all applicable laws, codes, rules and regulations, and amendments thereto, including 1988 Standard Building Code with 1989 and 1990 revisions, ANSIA 1117.1 1986 edition, and NFPA 101 Life Safety Code and all local and state building codes. The Corporation shall have the right to contest any such codes for reasonable grounds by ordinary and proper procedures.

(E) Subject to Force Majeure, the Corporation covenants that the Corporation shall substantially complete construction of the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion, subject to punch list items, on or before its respective Date of Opening. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, a breach by the Corporation of the covenant set forth in this Section 5.01(E), shall not be an Event of Default hereunder. The Board shall be entitled to institute an action seeking specific performance of this covenant by the Corporation.

(F) Upon commencement of construction of the Phase Four Facilities and commencement of the construction of the Stadium Expansion, the Corporation shall deliver to the Board Representative a copy of the labor and materials payment and performance bonds in an amount equal to the contract price set forth in the Construction Contract for such Phase Four Facilities or the Construction Contract for the Stadium Expansion, respectively, issued by a company qualified, permitted or admitted to do business of the State of Louisiana and approved by the Board. The Corporation shall take the action specified by La. R.S. 9:4802(C) to be taken by an owner to protect the premises from any liens related to the design or construction of the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion.

(G) Prior to the Commencement of Construction of the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion, any architect whose services have been retained shall provide a standard errors and omissions policy, with such additional provisions as may be approved by counsel to the Corporation.

(H) Any performance bond, labor and material payment bond, or completion bond provided by a contractor hired by the Corporation shall be for 100% of the amount of the contract with such contractor, and shall contain a dual obligee rider in favor of the Board; subject, however, to the reasonable underwriting guidelines of the surety issuing the bond and rules of the Governmental Authorities regulating the surety.

(I) The Corporation shall, upon written request of the Board, make in such detail as may reasonably be required, and forward to the Board Representative, reports in writing as to the actual progress of the construction of the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion. During such period, the construction work shall be subject to inspection by the Phase Four Independent Architect and by authorized personnel of the Board in order to verify reports of construction, determine compliance with safety, fire, and building codes, determine compliance with approved construction plans, or such other inspections as may be necessary in the reasonable opinion of the Board Representative.

(J) The Corporation shall inspect the Phase Four Land and Stadium Expansion and arrange for boundary surveys, topographical surveys, soil borings and other site investigations at its expense to the extent these things have not been done by the Board. The Board does not guarantee that the Phase Four Land and Stadium Expansion Land is suitable for construction of the Phase Four Facilities and the Stadium Expansion. Subject to the matters shown on Exhibit B-1 attached to this Phase Four Ground Lease, the Corporation accepts the Phase Four Land and Stadium Expansion Land in its present condition. However, the Board represents that to the best of its knowledge and belief there are no Hazardous Materials or other materials on or under the Phase Four Land or Stadium Expansion Land that would materially impact the construction of the Phase Four Facilities.

(K) Except as provided in Section 4.03 hereof, part of the cost of construction of the Phase Four Facilities and the Stadium Expansion shall include all costs necessary for the contractor or applicable utility company to bring lines for all such utilities to the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion so that such utilities will be available when required for construction and operation of the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion.

ARTICLE VI
ENCUMBRANCES

Section 6.01 Mortgage of Leasehold of the Phase Four Facilities. The Corporation shall not mortgage, lien or grant a security interest in the Corporation's leasehold interest in the Phase Four Land or the Phase Four Facilities, the Stadium Expansion Land or Stadium Expansion, or any other right of the Corporation hereunder without the prior written consent of the Board.

ARTICLE VII
MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR

Section 7.01 Maintenance, Repairs and Renovations. (a) For as long as the Phase Four Facilities Lease is in effect, the University, at the direction of the Board, shall be responsible for maintaining and repairing the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion in accordance with Section 7 of the Phase Four Facilities Lease.

(b) In the event that the Phase Four Facilities Lease has been terminated, the Corporation will: (1) maintain or cause to be maintained the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion, and will keep the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion in good repair and in good operating condition and make from time to time all necessary repairs thereto and renewals and replacements thereof; and (2) make from time to time any additions, modifications or improvements to the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion the Corporation may deem desirable for its business purposes that do not materially impair the effective use of the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion, provided that all such additions, modifications and improvements will become a part of the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion.

ARTICLE VIII
CERTAIN LIENS PROHIBITED

Section 8.01 No Mechanics' Liens. Except as permitted in Section 8.02 hereof the Corporation shall not suffer or permit any mechanics' liens or other liens to be enforced against the Board's ownership interest in the Phase Four Land or the Phase Four Facilities, the Stadium Expansion Land or the Stadium Expansion nor against the Corporation's leasehold interest in the Phase Four Land or the Phase Four Facilities or the Stadium Expansion Land or Stadium Expansion by reason of a failure to pay for any work, labor, services, or materials supplied or claimed to have been supplied to the Corporation or to anyone holding the Phase Four Land or Phase Four Facilities, the Stadium Expansion Land or Stadium Expansion or any part thereof through or under the Corporation.

Section 8.02 Release of Recorded Liens. If any such mechanics' liens or materialmen's liens shall be recorded against the Phase Four Land or Phase Four Facilities or the Stadium Expansion Land or Stadium Expansion, the Corporation shall cause the same to be released of record or, in the alternative, if the Corporation in good faith desires to contest the same, the Corporation shall be privileged to do so, but in such case the Corporation hereby agrees to indemnify and save the Board harmless from all liability for damages occasioned thereby and shall in the event of a judgment of foreclosure on said mechanics' lien, cause the same to be discharged and released prior to the execution of such judgment. In the event the Board reasonably should consider the Board's interest in the Phase Four Land or the Phase Four Facilities or the Stadium Expansion Land or Stadium Expansion endangered by any such liens and should so notify the Corporation and the Corporation should fail to provide adequate security for the payment of such liens, in the form of a surety bond, cash deposit or cash equivalent, or indemnity agreement reasonably satisfactory to the Board within thirty (30) days after such notice, then the Board, at the Board's sole discretion, may discharge such liens and recover from the Corporation immediately as additional Phase Four Rent under this Phase Four Ground Lease the amounts paid, with interest thereon from the date paid by the Board until repaid by the Corporation at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum.

Section 8.03 Memorandum of Recitals. The memorandum of lease to be filed pursuant to Section 18.04 of this Phase Four Ground Lease shall state that any third party entering into a contract with the Corporation for improvements to be located on the Phase Four Land and Stadium Expansion Land, or any other party claiming under said third party, shall be on notice that neither the Board nor the Board's property shall have any liability for satisfaction of any claims of any nature in any way arising out of a contract with the Corporation.

ARTICLE IX
OPERATION AND MANAGEMENT OF FACILITIES

Section 9.01 Management of Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion. For as long as the Phase Four Facilities Lease is in effect, the University, at the direction of the Board, shall operate and manage the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion or cause the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion to be operated and managed in accordance with the Section 7 of the Phase Four Facilities Lease.

Section 9.02 Books and Records. The Corporation shall keep, or cause to be kept, accurate, full and complete books, including bank statements, and accounts showing exclusively its assets and liabilities, operations, transactions and the financial condition of the Corporation.

Section 9.03 Audits. The Board may, at its option and at its own expense, and during customary business hours, conduct internal audits of the books, bank accounts, records and accounts of the Corporation. Audits may be made on either a continuous or a periodic basis or both, and may be conducted by employees of the Board, by the Louisiana Legislative Auditor or by independent auditors retained by the Board desiring to conduct such audit, but any and all such audits shall be conducted without materially or unreasonably or unnecessarily interrupting or interfering with the normal conduct of business affairs by the Corporation.

ARTICLE X INDEMNIFICATION

Section 10.01 Indemnification by the Corporation. Excluding the acts or omissions of the Board, its employees, agents or contractors, the Corporation shall and will indemnify and save harmless the Board, its agents, officers, and employees, from and against any and all liability, claims, demands, damages, expenses, fees, fines, penalties, suits, proceedings, actions, and causes of action of any and every kind and nature arising or growing out of or in any way connected with the Corporation's construction of the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion. This obligation to indemnify shall include reasonable fees of legal counsel and third-party investigation costs and all other reasonable costs, expenses, and liabilities from the first notice that any claim or demand has been made; however, the Corporation and the Board shall use the same counsel if such counsel is approved by the Board, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. If the Board does not approve such counsel then the Board may retain independent counsel at the Board's sole cost and expense. It is expressly understood and agreed that the Corporation is and shall be deemed to be an independent contractor and operator responsible to all parties for its respective acts or omissions and that the Board shall in no way be responsible therefor.

Section 10.02 Contributory Acts. Whenever in this Phase Four Ground Lease any party is obligated to pay an amount or perform an act because of its negligence or misconduct (or that of its agents, employees, contractors, guests, or invitees), such obligations shall be mitigated to the extent of any comparative fault or misconduct of the other party (or that of its agents, employees, contractors, guests, or invitees) as determined by a court of law, and in any disputes damages shall be apportioned based on the relative amounts of such negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a court of law.

ARTICLE XI
TERMINATION, DEFAULT AND REMEDIES

Section 11.01 Events Of Default. Any one of the following events shall be deemed to be an "Event of Default" by the Corporation under this Phase Four Ground Lease.

(A) The Corporation shall fail to pay any sum required to be paid to the Board under the terms and provisions of this Phase Four Ground Lease and such failure shall not be cured within thirty (30) days after the Corporation's receipt of written notice from the Board of such failure.

(B) The taking by execution of the Corporation's leasehold estate for the benefit of any Person.

(C) The Corporation shall fail to perform any other covenant or agreement, other than the payment of money, to be performed by the Corporation under the terms and provisions of this Phase Four Ground Lease, other than the covenant set forth in Section 5.01(E) hereof, and such failure shall not be cured within ninety (90) days after receipt of written notice from the Board of such failure; provided that if during such ninety (90) day period, the Corporation takes action to cure such failure but is unable, by reason of the nature of the work involved, to cure such failure within such period and continues such work thereafter diligently and without unnecessary delays, such failure shall not constitute an Event of Default hereunder until the expiration of a period of time after such ninety (90) day period as may be reasonably necessary to cure such failure.

(D) A court of competent jurisdiction shall enter an order for relief in any involuntary case commenced against the Corporation, as debtor, under the Federal Bankruptcy Code, as now or hereafter constituted, or the entry of a decree or order by a court having jurisdiction over the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion appointing a custodian, receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee, sequestrator, or other similar official of or for the Corporation or any substantial part of the properties of the Corporation or ordering the winding up or liquidation of the affairs of the Corporation, and the continuance of any such decree or order unstayed and in effect for a period of ninety (90) consecutive days.

(E) The commencement by the Corporation of a voluntary case under the Federal Bankruptcy Code, as now or hereafter constituted, or the consent or acquiescence by the Corporation to the commencement of a case under such Code or to the appointment of or taking possession by a custodian, receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee, sequestrator, or other similar official of or for the Corporation or any substantial part of the properties of the Corporation.

(F) The Corporation, after Commencement of Construction but prior to substantially completing construction of the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion, abandons (with no intent to continue) renovation or construction for a period of forty-five (45) consecutive days.

Section 11.02 The Board's Rights Upon Default. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Board may at its option seek any and all damages occasioned by the Event of Default or may seek any other remedies available at law or in equity, including specific performance.

Section 11.03 Termination of Right of Occupancy. Notwithstanding any provision of law or of this Phase Four Ground Lease to the contrary, except as set forth in Section 1.03 hereof, the Board shall not have the right to terminate this lease prior to the Expiration Date hereof. However, in the event there is an Event of Default by the Corporation hereunder, the Board shall have the right to terminate the Corporation's right to occupancy of the Phase Four Land and the Phase Four Facilities and the Stadium Expansion Land and Stadium Expansion, except that the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion, at the option of the Board, shall remain thereon. The Board shall have the right upon ninety (90) days' written notice and opportunity to cure provided to the Bond Insurer and the Trustee, to take possession of the Phase Four Land and the Phase Four Facilities and the Stadium Expansion Land and Stadium Expansion and to re-let the Phase Four Land and the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion or take possession in its own right for the remaining Phase Four Term of the Ground Lease upon such terms and conditions as the Board is able to obtain. Upon such re-letting, the Corporation hereby agrees to release its leasehold interest and all of its rights under this Phase Four Ground Lease and the Phase Four Facilities Lease to the new lessee of the Phase Four Land or Stadium Expansion Land (or to the Board, if the Board wishes to remain in possession on its own behalf) in consideration for the new lessee (or the Board, as applicable) agreeing to assume all of the Corporation's obligations under this Phase Four Ground Lease, the Phase Four Facilities Lease and under any debt incurred by the Corporation in connection with the construction of the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion.

Section 11.04 Rights of The Board Cumulative. All rights and remedies of the Board provided for and permitted in this Phase Four Ground Lease shall be construed and held to be cumulative, and no single right or remedy shall be exclusive of any other that is consistent with the former. The Board shall have the right to pursue any or all of the rights or remedies set forth herein, as well as any other consistent remedy or relief which may be available at law or in equity, but which is not set forth herein. No waiver by the Board of a breach of any of the covenants, conditions or restrictions of this Phase Four Ground Lease shall be construed or held to be a waiver of any succeeding or preceding breach of the same or of any other covenant, condition or restriction herein contained. The failure of the Board to insist in any one or more cases upon the strict performance of any of the covenants of this Phase Four Ground Lease, or to exercise any option herein contained, shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment of future breaches of such covenant or option.

TITLE TO THE FACILITIES

Section 12.01 Title to Phase Four Facilities. Title to the existing Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion and any new Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion as they are constructed or placed in service upon completion thereof shall be vested in the Board. The Board's right to obtain title to the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion unencumbered by the leasehold interest of the Corporation granted hereunder shall be as set forth in the Phase Four Facilities Lease. All furniture, fixtures, equipment and furnishings permanently affixed to the Phase Four Facilities and the Stadium Expansion shall be the property of the Board upon termination of this Phase Four Ground Lease whether such termination be by expiration of the Phase Four Term or an earlier termination under any provision of this Phase Four Ground Lease.

Section 12.02 The Board's Option to Require Demolition. Upon the Expiration Date of the Phase Four Term or earlier termination hereof, in the event the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion are no longer suitable for the Board's purposes, the Board in its sole discretion may require the Corporation to demolish the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion and remove the Phase Four Facilities from the Phase Four Land or the Stadium Expansion from the Stadium Expansion Land, and restore the Phase Four Land and/or Stadium Expansion Land to substantially the same condition as it existed on the date of this Phase Four Ground Lease, to be accomplished within one hundred eighty (180) days of such Expiration Date or earlier termination hereof. However, such demolition and removal of the Phase Four Facilities and/or the Stadium Expansion shall be at the Board's sole cost and expense. In the event of such election upon the expiration of the Phase Four Term, the Board shall notify the Corporation no later than six (6) months prior to the expiration of the Phase Four Term. If this Phase Four Ground Lease is terminated earlier, the Board shall notify the Corporation within thirty (30) days after the termination.

Section 12.03 Termination of Facilities Lease. Upon the termination of the Phase Four Facilities Lease as a result of the Board's exercise of its option to purchase all of the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion granted under the Phase Four Facilities Lease, all right and interest of the Corporation in and to this Phase Four Ground Lease, the Phase Four Facilities Lease and the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion shall be transferred to the Board, and the Corporation hereby agrees to execute any documents necessary to effectuate such transfer, or the Board may require the demolition of the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion as set forth in Section 12.02 above.

Section 12.04 Insurance Proceeds. Notwithstanding the fact that title to the Phase Four Facilities is vested in the Board, if the Phase Four Facilities Lease is no longer in force and effect, and all or any portion of the Phase Four Facilities is damaged or destroyed by acts of God, fire, flood, natural disaster, the elements, casualties, thefts, riots, civil strife, lockout, war, nuclear explosion or otherwise (collectively "Phase Four Casualty"), the proceeds of any insurance received on account of any such Phase Four Casualty shall be disbursed in accordance with the provisions of the Bond Documents, or if the Bond Documents are no longer in effect shall be disbursed to the Corporation as though the Corporation were the owner of the Phase Four Facilities.

Section 12.05 Condemnation, Phase Four Casualty and Other Damage. The risk of loss or decrease in the enjoyment and beneficial use of the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion due to any damage or destruction thereof by acts of God, fire, flood, natural disaster, the elements, casualties, thefts, riots, civil strife, lockout, war, nuclear explosion or otherwise or in consequence of any foreclosures, attachments, levies or executions; or the taking of all or any portion of the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion by condemnation, expropriation, or eminent domain proceedings (collectively "Phase Four Expropriation") is expressly assumed by the Board. The Corporation and the Trustee shall in no event be answerable, accountable or liable therefor, nor shall any of the foregoing events entitle the Board to any abatements, set-offs or counter claims with respect to its Base Rental, Additional Rental or any other obligation hereunder.

ARTICLE XIII CONDEMNATION

Section 13.01 Condemnation. If the Phase Four Facilities Lease has been terminated, upon the permanent Taking of all the Phase Four Land and the Phase Four Facilities and the Stadium Expansion Land and the Stadium Expansion, this Phase Four Ground Lease shall terminate and expire as of the date of such Taking, and both the Corporation and the Board shall thereupon be released from any liability thereafter accruing hereunder except for Phase Four Rent and all other amounts secured by this Phase Four Ground Lease owed to the Board apportioned as of the date of the Taking or the last date of occupancy, whichever is later. The Corporation shall receive notice of any proceedings relating to a Taking and shall have the right to participate therein.

Section 13.02 Partial Condemnation if Facilities Lease is No Longer in Effect. Upon a temporary Taking or a Taking of less than all of the Phase Four Land and the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion Land and Stadium Expansion and if the Phase Four Facilities Lease is no longer in effect, the Corporation, at its election, may terminate this Phase Four Ground Lease by giving the Board notice of its election to terminate at least sixty (60) days prior to the date of such termination. Upon any such termination, the Phase Four Rent accrued and unpaid hereunder shall be apportioned to the date of termination. In the event there is a partial condemnation of the Phase Four Land and Stadium Expansion and the Corporation decides not to terminate this Phase Four Ground Lease, the Board and the Corporation shall either amend this Phase Four Ground Lease or enter into a new lease so as to cover an adjacent portion of property, if necessary to restore or replace any portion of the Phase Four Land and/or Phase Four Facilities and/or Stadium Expansion Land and/or Stadium Expansion.

Section 13.03 Partial or Total Condemnation if Facilities Lease is in Effect. If this Phase Four Ground Lease is terminated under Section 13.01 or in the event of a Taking of less than all of the Phase Four Land and the Phase Four Facilities and the Stadium Expansion Land and the Stadium Expansion while the Phase Four Facilities Lease is in force and effect, and the Board decides to restore or replace the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion in accordance with the Phase Four Facilities Lease, the Board and the Corporation agree to enter into a new lease (in form and substance substantially the same as this Phase Four Ground Lease) of a portion of property necessary to place thereon the Phase Four Facilities and to enter into a new Phase Four Facilities Lease (in form and substance substantially the same as Phase Four Facilities Lease) covering such replacement Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion.

Section 13.04 Payment of Awards - If Facilities Lease is in Effect. Upon the Taking of all or any portion of the Phase Four Land or the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion Land or Stadium Expansion while the Phase Four Facilities Lease remains in full force and effect (a) the proceeds of the Award allocable to the value of the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion shall be disbursed in accordance with the provisions of the Phase Four Facilities Lease and the Bond Documents, and (b) the Board shall be entitled (free of any claim by the Corporation) to the Award for the value of the Board's Interest (such value to be determined as if this Phase Four Ground Lease were in effect and continuing to encumber the Board's Interest); and (c) the Corporation shall be entitled to the Award for the value of the Corporation's interest in the Phase Four Land or Stadium Expansion Land under this Phase Four Ground Lease that is the subject of the Taking.

Section 13.05 Payment of Awards - If Facilities Lease is not in Effect. Upon the Taking of all or any portion of the Phase Four Land or the Phase Four Facilities or the Stadium Expansion Land or the Stadium Expansion at any time after the Phase Four Facilities Lease is no longer in force and effect, (a) the proceeds of the Award allocable to the value of the Phase Four Facilities shall be disbursed in accordance with the provisions of the Bond Documents, or if the Bond Documents are no longer in effect shall be disbursed to the Corporation, (b) the Board shall be entitled (free of any claim of the Corporation) to the Award for the value of the Board's Interest in the Phase Four Land (such value to be determined as if this Phase Four Ground Lease were in effect and continuing to encumber the Board's Interest) and (c) the Corporation shall be entitled to the Award for the value of the Corporation's interest in the Phase Four Land under this Phase Four Ground Lease that is the subject of the Taking.

Section 13.06 Bond Documents Control. Notwithstanding anything in this Phase Four Ground Lease to the contrary, in the event of a Phase Four Casualty or a Taking of all or any portion of the Phase Four Facilities, the provisions in the Bond Documents shall control the division, application and disbursement of any insurance proceeds or Award paid as a result thereof for so long as the Bond Documents remain in effect.

ARTICLE XIV
ASSIGNMENT, SUBLETTING, AND TRANSFERS OF THE CORPORATION'S INTEREST

Section 14.01 Assignment of Leasehold Interest. Except as expressly provided for in Article Six and in this Article Fourteen, the Corporation shall not have the right to sell or assign the leasehold estate created by this Phase Four Ground Lease, or the other rights of the Corporation hereunder to any Person without the prior written consent of the Board.

Section 14.02 Subletting. The Corporation is not authorized to sublet the leasehold estate to any entity other than the Board; provided, however, that if the Phase Four Facilities Lease terminates, the Corporation shall have the right to sublease the Phase Four Facilities to University students, faculty and staff and Permitted Sublessees.

Section 14.03 Transfers of the Corporation's Interest. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, any Person succeeding to the Corporation's interest as a consequence of any permitted conveyance, transfer or assignment shall succeed to all of the obligations of the Corporation hereunder and shall be subject to the terms and provisions of this Phase Four Ground Lease.

ARTICLE XV

The Corporation agrees, at any time and from time to time upon not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice by the Board, to execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Board or to such other party as the Board shall request, a statement in writing certifying (a) that this Phase Four Ground Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if there have been modifications, that the same is in full force and effect as modified and stating the modifications), (b) to the best of its knowledge, whether or not there are then existing any offsets or defenses against the enforcement of any of the terms, covenants or conditions hereof upon the part of the Corporation to be performed (and if so specifying the same), (c) the dates to which the Phase Four Rent and other charges have been paid, and (d) the dates of commencement and expiration of the Phase Four Term, it being intended that any such statement delivered pursuant to this Section may be relied upon by any prospective purchaser of the Board's Interest or by any other Person.

ARTICLE XVI TAXES AND LICENSES

Section 16.01 Payment of Taxes. The Board shall pay, and, upon request by the Corporation, shall provide evidence of payment to the appropriate collecting authorities of, all federal, state and local taxes and fees, which are now or may hereafter be, levied upon the Corporation's interest in the Phase Four Land or in the Phase Four Facilities or in the Stadium Expansion Land or in the Stadium Expansion or upon any of the Corporation's property used in connection therewith or upon the Board or the Board's Interest. The Board may pay any of the above items in installments if payment may be so made without penalty other than the payment of interest. The obligations of the Board to pay taxes and fees under this Section 16.01 shall apply only to the extent that the Board or the Corporation are not exempt from paying such taxes and fees and to the extent that such taxes and fees are not otherwise abated. The Board and the Corporation agree to cooperate fully with each other to the end that tax exemptions available with respect to the Phase Four Land and the Phase Four Facilities and the Stadium Expansion Land and the Stadium Expansion under applicable law are obtained by the party or parties entitled thereto.

Section 16.02 Contested Tax Payments. The Board shall not be required to pay, discharge or remove any such taxes or assessments so long as the Board is contesting the amount or validity thereof by appropriate proceeding that shall operate to prevent or stay the collection of the amount so contested. The Corporation shall cooperate with the Board in completing such contest and the Corporation shall have no right to pay the amount contested during the contest. The Corporation, at the Board's expense, shall join in any such proceeding if any law shall so require.

ARTICLE XVII

- A. The Corporation shall furnish or cause to be furnished all supervision, tools, implements, machinery, labor, materials and accessories such as are necessary and proper for the demolition of certain existing facilities and the construction of the Facilities, shall pay all applicable permit and license fees, and shall demolish certain existing facilities and construct, build, and complete the Facilities in a good, substantial and workmanlike manner all in accordance with this Ground Lease, and generally in compliance with the Plans and Specifications and all documents executed pursuant hereto and thereto. The Corporation and the Board agree to cooperate fully to the end that fee and permit exemptions available with respect to the Facilities under applicable law are obtained by the party or parties entitled thereto.
- B. Subject to the provisions of this Section 5.01, all decisions regarding construction matters shall be made by the Corporation, working with the Developer. The Developer has been selected as developer to demolish certain existing facilities and design and construct the Facilities in accordance with the RFP. The parties hereto acknowledge that the Board Representative and any other party whose consent is necessary to the Board's authority have previously reviewed and approved the Plans and Specifications and the form of the Construction Contract for phase one of the Facilities. Prior to the application of Bond proceeds or the issuance of any Additional Bonds (as defined in the Indenture) to finance any subsequent phase of the Facilities, the Board Representative and any other party whose consent is necessary to the Board's authority shall review and approve the Plans and Specifications and the form of the Construction Contract relating to such subsequent phase of the Facilities.

- C. Changes in work and materials are subject to review and approval of the Board Representative; however minor changes in work or materials, not affecting the general character of the Facilities or increasing the cost of construction may be made in the Plans and Specifications at any time by the Corporation without the approval of the Board Representative, but a copy of the altered Plans and Specifications shall promptly be furnished to the Board Representative. The Corporation shall notify the Board Representative of any changes in work or materials that require the Board Representative's approval and the Board Representative shall either approve or disapprove any such changes within ten (10) business days after receipt of such notice from the Corporation. Notification shall include sufficient information for the Board Representative to make a determination and to approve or disapprove any changes in work or materials.
- D. After completion of the Facilities, at least sixty (60) days prior to undertaking any structural alteration, renovation, or remodeling of the Facilities during the Term, the Corporation shall submit plans for such renovation or remodeling to the Board Representative for approval which approval must be obtained prior to the Corporation making or causing to be made any such structural alteration, renovation, or remodeling of the Facilities. The Board Representative shall either approve or disapprove any such alteration within thirty (30) days after receipt of such plans from the Corporation. All alterations, renovations or additions to the Facilities undertaken by the Corporation shall be in conformance with all applicable laws, codes, rules and regulations, and amendments thereto, including 1988 Standard Building Code with 1989 and 1990 revisions, ANSIA 1117.1 1986 edition, and NFPA 101 Life Safety Code and all local and state building codes. The Corporation shall have the right to contest any such codes for reasonable grounds by ordinary and proper procedures.
- E. Subject to Force Majeure, the Corporation covenants that the Corporation shall substantially complete construction of the Facilities, subject to punch list items, on or before January 1, 2005 for Phase One, July 29, 2005 for all of Phase Two other than the renovation of Cardinal Newman Hall and August 1, 2006 for Cardinal Newman Hall with all units ready for occupancy. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, a breach by the Corporation of the covenant set forth in this Section 5.01. E. shall not be an Event of Default hereunder. The Board shall be entitled to institute an action seeking specific performance of this covenant by the Corporation.

- F. Prior to the commencement of construction of any phase of the Facilities, the Corporation and the Developer shall meet with the Board Representative to coordinate construction activity under the Construction Contract. Upon commencement of construction of such phase of the Facilities, the Corporation shall deliver to the Board Representative, (1) a copy of the signed Construction Contract between the Corporation and the Developer for the design and construction of such phase of the Facilities, and (2) a copy of the labor and materials payment and performance bonds in an amount equal to the contract price set forth in the Construction Contract for such phase of the Facilities issued by a company qualified, permitted or admitted to do business of the State of Louisiana and approved by the Board. The Corporation shall take the action specified by La. R.S. 9:4802(C) to be taken by an owner to protect the premises from any liens related to the design or construction of the Facilities.
- G. Prior to the Commencement of Construction of any phase of the Facilities, any architect whose services have been retained shall provide a standard errors and omissions policy, with such additional provisions as may be approved by counsel to the Corporation.
- H. Any performance bond, labor and material payment bond, or completion bond provided by a contractor hired by the Corporation shall be for 100% of the amount of the contract with such contractor, and shall contain a dual obligee rider in favor of the Board; subject, however, to the reasonable underwriting guidelines of the surety issuing the bond and rules of the Governmental Authorities regulating the surety.
- I. The Corporation shall, upon written request of the Board, make, in such detail as may reasonably be required, and forward to the Board Representative, reports in writing as to the actual progress of the construction of the Facilities. During such period, the construction work shall be subject to inspection by the Independent Architect and by authorized personnel of the Board in order to verify reports of construction, determine compliance with safety, fire, and building codes, determine compliance with approved construction plans, or such other inspections as may be necessary in the reasonable opinion of the Board Representative.
- J. The Corporation shall inspect the Land and arrange for boundary surveys, topographical surveys, soil borings and other site investigations at its expense to the extent these things have not been done by the Board. The Board does not guarantee that the Land is suitable for construction of the Facilities. Subject to the matters shown on Exhibit B attached to this Ground Lease, the Corporation accepts the Land in its present condition. However, the Board represents that to the best of its knowledge and belief there are no Hazardous Materials or other materials on or under the Land that would materially impact the construction of the Facilities.

- K. Except as provided in Section 4.03 hereof, part of the cost of construction of the Facilities shall include all costs necessary for the contractor or applicable utility company to bring lines for all such utilities to the Facilities so that such utilities will be available when required for construction and operation of the Facilities.

ARTICLE SIX ENCUMBRANCES

Section 6.01 Mortgage of Leasehold or the Facilities. Except for the Mortgage, the Corporation shall not mortgage, lien or grant a security interest in the Corporation's leasehold interest in the Land or the Facilities or any other right of the Corporation hereunder without the prior written consent of the Board.

ARTICLE SEVEN MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR

Section 7.01 Maintenance, Repairs and Renovations. (a) For as long as the Facilities Lease is in effect, the University, at the direction of the Board, shall be responsible for maintaining and repairing the Facilities in accordance with Section 7 of the Facilities Lease. The Corporation, acting as agent for the Board, will initially contract with Capstone On-Campus Management, LLC to provide these services.

(b) In the event that the Facilities Lease has been terminated, the Corporation will: (1) maintain or cause to be maintained the Facilities, and will keep the Facilities in good repair and in good operating condition and make from time to time all necessary repairs thereto and renewals and replacements thereof; and (2) make from time to time any additions, modifications or improvements to the Facilities the Corporation may deem desirable for its business purposes that do not materially impair the effective use of the Facilities, provided that all such additions, modifications and improvements will become a part of the Facilities.

ARTICLE EIGHT CERTAIN LIENS PROHIBITED

Section 8.01 No Mechanics' Liens. Except as permitted in Section 8.02 hereof the Corporation shall not suffer or permit any mechanics' liens or other liens to be enforced against the Board's ownership interest in the Land or the Facilities nor against the Corporation's leasehold interest in the Land or the Facilities by reason of a failure to pay for any work, labor, services, or materials supplied or claimed to have been supplied to the Corporation or to anyone holding the Land or Facilities or any part thereof through or under the Corporation.

Section 8.02 Release of Recorded Liens. If any such mechanics' liens or materialmen's liens shall be recorded against the Land or Facilities, the Corporation shall cause the same to be released of record or, in the alternative, if the Corporation in good faith desires to contest the same, the Corporation shall be privileged to do so, but in such case the Corporation hereby agrees to indemnify and save the Board harmless from all liability for damages occasioned thereby and shall in the event of a judgment of foreclosure on said mechanics' lien, cause the same to be discharged and released prior to the execution of such judgment. In the event the Board reasonably should consider the Board's interest in the Land or the Facilities endangered by any such liens and should so notify the Corporation and the Corporation should fail to provide adequate security for the payment of such liens, in the form of a surety bond, cash deposit or cash equivalent, or indemnity agreement reasonably satisfactory to the Board within thirty (30) days after such notice, then the Board, at the Board's sole discretion, may discharge such liens and recover from the Corporation immediately as additional Rent under this Ground Lease the amounts paid, with interest thereon from the date paid by the Board until repaid by the Corporation at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum.

Section 8.03 Memorandum of Recitals. The memorandum of lease to be filed pursuant to Section 18.04 of this Ground Lease shall state that any third party entering into a contract with the Corporation for improvements to be located on the Land, or any other party claiming under said third party, shall be on notice that neither the Board nor the Board's property shall have any liability for satisfaction of any claims of any nature in any way arising out of a contract with the Corporation.

ARTICLE NINE OPERATION AND MANAGEMENT OF FACILITIES

Section 9.01 Management of Facilities. For as long as the Facilities Lease is in effect, the University, at the direction of the Board, shall operate and manage the Facilities or cause the Facilities to be operated and managed in accordance with the Section 7 of the Facilities Lease. The Corporation, as approved by the Board, will initially contract with Capstone On-Campus Management, LLC to provide operations and management services for the Facilities. In the event the Facilities Lease is terminated, the Corporation will be responsible for the operations and management of the Facilities and the Board will no longer have the right to operate or manage the Facilities.

Section 9.02 Books and Records. The Corporation shall keep, or cause to be kept, accurate, full and complete books, including bank statements, and accounts showing exclusively its assets and liabilities, operations, transactions and the financial condition of the Corporation.

Section 9.03 Audits. The Board may, at its option and at its own expense, and during customary business hours, conduct internal audits of the books, bank accounts, records and accounts of the Corporation. Audits may be made on either a continuous or a periodic basis or both, and may be conducted by employees of the Board, by the Louisiana Legislative Auditor or by independent auditors retained by the Board desiring to conduct such audit, but any and all such audits shall be conducted without materially or unreasonably or unnecessarily interrupting or interfering with the normal conduct of business affairs by the Corporation.

ARTICLE TEN
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 10.01 Indemnification by the Corporation. Excluding the acts or omissions of the Board, its employees, agents or contractors, the Corporation shall and will indemnify and save harmless the Board, its agents, officers, and employees, from and against any and all liability, claims, demands, damages, expenses, fees, fines, penalties, suits, proceedings, actions, and causes of action of any and every kind and nature arising or growing out of or in any way connected with the Corporation's construction of the Facilities. This obligation to indemnify shall include reasonable fees of legal counsel and third-party investigation costs and all other reasonable costs, expenses, and liabilities from the first notice that any claim or demand has been made; however, the Corporation and the Board shall use the same counsel if such counsel is approved by the Board, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. If the Board does not approve such counsel then the Board may retain independent counsel at the Board's sole cost and expense. It is expressly understood and agreed that the Corporation is and shall be deemed to be an independent contractor and operator responsible to all parties for its respective acts or omissions and that the Board shall in no way be responsible therefor.

Section 10.02 Contributory Acts. Whenever in this Ground Lease any party is obligated to pay an amount or perform an act because of its negligence or misconduct (or that of its agents, employees, contractors, guests, or invitees), such obligations shall be mitigated to the extent of any comparative fault or misconduct of the other party (or that of its agents, employees, contractors, guests, or invitees) as determined by a court of law, and in any disputes damages shall be apportioned based on the relative amounts of such negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a court of law.

ARTICLE ELEVEN
TERMINATION, DEFAULT AND REMEDIES

Section 11.01 Events Of Default. Any one of the following events shall be deemed to be an "Event of Default" by the Corporation under this Ground Lease.

- A. The Corporation shall fail to pay any sum required to be paid to the Board under the terms and provisions of this Ground Lease and such failure shall not be cured within thirty (30) days after the Corporation's receipt of written notice from the Board of such failure.
- B. The taking by execution of the Corporation's leasehold estate (other than a foreclosure of the Mortgage) for the benefit of any Person.
- C. The Corporation shall fail to perform any other covenant or agreement, other than the payment of money, to be performed by the Corporation under the terms and provisions of this Ground Lease, other than the covenant set forth in Section 5.01. E. hereof, and such failure shall not be cured within ninety (90) days after receipt of written notice from the Board of such failure; provided that if during such ninety (90) day period, the Corporation takes action to cure such failure but is unable, by reason of the nature of the work involved, to cure such failure within such period and continues such work thereafter diligently and without unnecessary delays, such failure shall not constitute an Event of Default hereunder until the expiration of a period of time after such ninety (90) day period as may be reasonably necessary to cure such failure.

- D. A court of competent jurisdiction shall enter an order for relief in any involuntary case commenced against the Corporation, as debtor, under the Federal Bankruptcy Code, as now or hereafter constituted, or the entry of a decree or order by a court having jurisdiction over the Facilities appointing a custodian, receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee, sequestrator, or other similar official of or for the Corporation or any substantial part of the properties of the Corporation or ordering the winding up or liquidation of the affairs of the Corporation, and the continuance of any such decree or order unstayed and in effect for a period of ninety (90) consecutive days.
- E. The commencement by the Corporation of a voluntary case under the Federal Bankruptcy Code, as now or hereafter constituted, or the consent or acquiescence by the Corporation to the commencement of a case under such Code or to the appointment of or taking possession by a custodian, receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee, sequestrator, or other similar official of or for the Corporation or any substantial part of the properties of the Corporation.
- F. The Corporation, after Commencement of Construction but prior to substantially completing construction of the Facilities, abandons (with no intent to continue) demolition, renovation or construction for a period of forty-five (45) consecutive days.

Section 11.02 The Board's Rights Upon Default. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Board may at its option seek any and all damages occasioned by the Event of Default or may seek any other remedies available at law or in equity, including specific performance.

Section 11.03 Termination of Right of Occupancy. Notwithstanding any provision of law or of this Ground Lease to the contrary, except as set forth in Section 1.03 hereof, the Board shall not have the right to terminate this lease prior to the Expiration Date hereof. However, in the event there is an Event of Default by the Corporation hereunder, the Board shall have the right to terminate the Corporation's right to occupancy of the Land and the Facilities, except that the Facilities, at the option of the Board, shall remain thereon. The Board shall have the right upon ninety (90) days' written notice and opportunity to cure provided to the Bond Insurer and the Trustee, to take possession of the Land and the Facilities and to re-let the Land and the Facilities or take possession in its own right for the remaining Term of the Ground Lease upon such terms and conditions as the Board is able to obtain. Upon such re-letting, the Corporation hereby agrees to release its leasehold interest and all of its rights under this Ground Lease and the Facilities Lease to the new lessee of the Land (or to the Board, if the Board wishes to remain in possession on its own behalf) in consideration for the new lessee (or the Board, as applicable) agreeing to assume all of the Corporation's obligations under the Ground Lease, the Facilities Lease and under any debt incurred by the Corporation in connection with the construction of the Facilities.

Section 11.04. Rights of The Board Cumulative. All rights and remedies of the Board provided for and permitted in this Ground Lease shall be construed and held to be cumulative, and no single right or remedy shall be exclusive of any other which is consistent with the former. The Board shall have the right to pursue any or all of the rights or remedies set forth herein, as well as any other consistent remedy or relief which may be available at law or in equity, but which is not set forth herein. No waiver by the Board of a breach of any of the covenants, conditions or restrictions of this Ground Lease shall be construed or held to be a waiver of any succeeding or preceding breach of the same or of any other covenant, condition or restriction herein contained. The failure of the Board to insist in any one or more cases upon the strict performance of any of the covenants of this Ground Lease, or to exercise any option herein contained, shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment of future breaches of such covenant or option.

ARTICLE TWELVE TITLE TO THE FACILITIES

Section 12.01 Title to Facilities. Title to the existing Facilities and any new Facilities as they are constructed or placed in service upon completion thereof shall be vested in the Board. The Board's right to obtain title to the Facilities unencumbered by the leasehold interest of the Corporation granted hereunder shall be as set forth in the Facilities Lease. All furniture, fixtures, equipment and furnishings permanently affixed to the Facilities shall be the property of the Board upon termination of this Ground Lease whether such termination be by expiration of the Term or an earlier termination under any provision of this Ground Lease.

Section 12.02 The Board's Option to Require Demolition. Upon the Expiration Date of the Term or earlier termination hereof, in the event the Facilities are no longer suitable for the Board's purposes, the Board in its sole discretion may require the Corporation to demolish the Facilities and remove the Facilities from the Land, and restore the Land to substantially the same condition as it existed on the date of this Ground Lease, to be accomplished within one hundred eighty (180) days of such Expiration Date or earlier termination hereof. However, such demolition and removal of the Facilities shall be at the Board's sole cost and expense. In the event of such election upon the expiration of the Term, the Board shall notify the Corporation no later than six (6) months prior to the expiration of the Term. If this Ground Lease is terminated earlier, the Board shall notify the Corporation within thirty (30) days after the termination.

Section 12.03 Termination of Facilities Lease. Upon the termination of the Facilities Lease as a result of the Board's exercise of its option to purchase the Facilities granted under the Facilities Lease, all right and interest of the Corporation in and to this Ground Lease, the Facilities Lease and the Facilities shall be transferred to the Board, and the Corporation hereby agrees to execute any documents necessary to effectuate such transfer, or the Board may require the demolition of the Facilities as set forth in Section 12.02 above.

Section 12.04 Insurance Proceeds. Notwithstanding the fact that title to the Facilities is vested in the Board, if the Facilities Lease is no longer in force and effect, and all or any portion of the Facilities is damaged or destroyed by acts of God, fire, flood, natural disaster, the elements, casualties, thefts, riots, civil strife, lockout, war, nuclear explosion or otherwise (collectively "Casualty"), the proceeds of any insurance received on account of any such Casualty shall be disbursed in accordance with the provisions of the Bond Documents, or if the Bond Documents are no longer in effect shall be disbursed to the Corporation as though the Corporation were the owner of the Facilities.

Section 12.05 Condemnation, Casualty and Other Damage. The risk of loss or decrease in the enjoyment and beneficial use of the Facilities due to any damage or destruction thereof by acts of God, fire, flood, natural disaster, the elements, casualties, thefts, riots, civil strife, lockout, war, nuclear explosion or otherwise (collectively "Casualty") or in consequence of any foreclosures, attachments, levies or executions; or the taking of all or any portion of the Facilities by condemnation, expropriation, or eminent domain proceedings (collectively "Expropriation") is expressly assumed by the Board. The Corporation and the Trustee shall in no event be answerable, accountable or liable therefor, nor shall any of the foregoing events entitle the Board to any abatements, set-offs or counter claims with respect to its Base Rental, Additional Rental or any other obligation hereunder.

ARTICLE THIRTEEN CONDEMNATION

Section 13.01 Condemnation. If the Facilities Lease has been terminated, upon the permanent Taking of all the Land and the Facilities, this Ground Lease shall terminate and expire as of the date of such Taking, and both the Corporation and the Board shall thereupon be released from any liability thereafter accruing hereunder except for Rent and all other amounts secured by this Ground Lease owed to the Board apportioned as of the date of the Taking or the last date of occupancy, whichever is later. The Corporation shall receive notice of any proceedings relating to a Taking and shall have the right to participate therein.

Section 13.02 Partial Condemnation if Facilities Lease is No Longer in Effect. Upon a temporary Taking or a Taking of less than all of the Land and the Facilities and if the Facilities Lease is no longer in effect, the Corporation, at its election, may terminate this Ground Lease by giving the Board notice of its election to terminate at least sixty (60) days prior to the date of such termination. Upon any such termination, the Rent accrued and unpaid hereunder shall be apportioned to the date of termination. In the event there is a partial condemnation of the Land and the Corporation decides not to terminate this Ground Lease, the Board and the Corporation shall either amend this Ground Lease or enter into a new lease so as to cover an adjacent portion of property, if necessary to restore or replace any portion of the Land and/or Facilities.

Section 13.03 Partial or Total Condemnation if Facilities Lease is in Effect. If this Ground Lease is terminated under Section 13.01 or in the event of a Taking of less than all of the Land and the Facilities while the Facilities Lease is in force and effect, and the Board decides to restore or replace the Facilities in accordance with the Facilities Lease, the Board and the Corporation agree to enter into a new lease (in form and substance substantially the same as this Ground Lease) of a portion of property necessary to place thereon the Facilities and to enter into a new Facilities Lease (in form and substance substantially the same as the Facilities Lease) covering such replacement Facilities.

Section 13.04 Payment of Awards - If Facilities Lease is in Effect. Upon the Taking of all or any portion of the Land or the Facilities while the Facilities Lease remains in full force and effect (a) the proceeds of the Award allocable to the value of the Facilities shall be disbursed in accordance with the provisions of the Facilities Lease and the Bond Documents, and (b) the Board shall be entitled (free of any claim by the Corporation) to the Award for the value of the Board's Interest (such value to be determined as if this Ground Lease were in effect and continuing to encumber the Board's Interest); and (c) the Corporation shall be entitled to the Award for the value of the Corporation's interest in the Land under this Ground Lease that is the subject of the Taking.

Section 13.05 Payment of Awards - If Facilities Lease is not in Effect. Upon the Taking of all or any portion of the Land or the Facilities at any time after the Facilities Lease is no longer in force and effect, (a) the proceeds of the Award allocable to the value of the Facilities shall be disbursed in accordance with the provisions of the Bond Documents, or if the Bond Documents are no longer in effect shall be disbursed to the Corporation, (b) the Board shall be entitled (free of any claim of the Corporation) to the Award for the value of the Board's Interest in the Land (such value to be determined as if this Ground Lease were in effect and continuing to encumber the Board's Interest) and (c) the Corporation shall be entitled to the Award for the value of the Corporation's interest in the Land under this Ground Lease that is the subject of the Taking.

Section 13.06 Bond Documents Control. Notwithstanding anything in this Ground Lease to the contrary, in the event of a Casualty or a Taking of all or any portion of the Facilities, the provisions in the Bond Documents shall control the division, application and disbursement of any insurance proceeds or Award paid as a result thereof for so long as the Bond Documents remain in effect.

ARTICLE FOURTEEN ASSIGNMENT, SUBLETTING, AND TRANSFERS OF THE CORPORATION'S INTEREST

Section 14.01 Assignment of Leasehold Interest. Except as expressly provided for in Article Six and in this Article Fourteen, the Corporation shall not have the right to sell or assign the leasehold estate created by this Ground Lease, or the other rights of the Corporation hereunder to any Person without the prior written consent of the Board.

Section 14.02 Subletting. The Corporation is not authorized to sublet the leasehold estate to any entity other than the Board; provided, however, that if the Facilities Lease terminates, the Corporation shall have the right to sublease the Facilities to University students, faculty and staff and Permitted Sublessees.

Section 14.03 Transfers of the Corporation's Interest. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, any Person succeeding to the Corporation's interest as a consequence of any permitted conveyance, transfer or assignment shall succeed to all of the obligations of the Corporation hereunder and shall be subject to the terms and provisions of this Ground Lease.

ARTICLE FIFTEEN COMPLIANCE CERTIFICATES

Section 15.01 The Corporation Compliance. The Corporation agrees, at any time and from time to time upon not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice by the Board, to execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Board or to such other party as the Board shall request, a statement in writing certifying (a) that this Ground Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if there have been modifications, that the same is in full force and effect as modified and stating the modifications), (b) to the best of its knowledge, whether or not there are then existing any offsets or defenses against the enforcement of any of the terms, covenants or conditions hereof upon the part of the Corporation to be performed (and if so specifying the same), (c) the dates to which the Rent and other charges have been paid, and (d) the dates of commencement and expiration of the Term, it being intended that any such statement delivered pursuant to this Section may be relied upon by any prospective purchaser of the Board's Interest or by any other Person.

Section 15.02 The Board's Compliance. The Board agrees, at any time and from time to time, upon not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice by the Corporation, to execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Corporation a statement in writing addressed to the Corporation or to such other party as the Corporation shall request, certifying (a) that this Ground Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if there have been modifications that the same is in full force and effect as modified and stating the modifications); (b) the dates to which the Rent and other charges have been paid; (c) to the best of its knowledge after due inquiry, whether an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing hereunder (and stating the nature of any such Event of Default; (d) during the construction period, the status of construction of the Facilities and the estimated date of completion thereof; and (e) the dates of commencement and expiration of the Term, it being intended that any such statement delivered pursuant to this Section may be relied upon by any prospective (and permitted) assignee, sublessee or mortgagee of this Ground Lease or by any assignee or prospective assignee of any such permitted mortgage or by any undertenant or prospective undertenant of the whole or any part of the Facilities, or by any other Person.

ARTICLE SIXTEEN TAXES AND LICENSES

Section 16.01 Payment of Taxes. The Board shall pay, and, upon request by the Corporation, shall provide evidence of payment to the appropriate collecting authorities of, all federal, state and local taxes and fees, which are now or may hereafter be, levied upon the Corporation's interest in the Land or in the Facilities or upon any of the Corporation's property used in connection therewith or upon the Board or the Board's Interest. The Board may pay any of the above items in installments if payment may be so made without penalty other than the payment of interest. The obligations of the Board to pay taxes and fees under this Section 16.01 shall apply only to the extent that the Board or the Corporation are not exempt from paying such taxes and fees and to the extent that such taxes and fees are not otherwise abated. The Board and the Corporation agree to cooperate fully with each other to the end that tax exemptions available with respect to the Land and the Facilities under applicable law are obtained by the party or parties entitled thereto.

Section 16.02 Contested Tax Payments. The Board shall not be required to pay, discharge or remove any such taxes or assessments so long as the Board is contesting the amount or validity thereof by appropriate proceeding which shall operate to prevent or stay the collection of the amount so contested. The Corporation shall cooperate with the Board in completing such contest and the Corporation shall have no right to pay the amount contested during the contest. The Corporation, at the Board's expense, shall join in any such proceeding if any law shall so require.

ARTICLE SEVENTEEN FORCE MAJEURE

Section 17.01 Discontinuance During Force Majeure. Whenever a period of time is herein prescribed for action to be taken by the Corporation, the Corporation shall not be liable or responsible for, and there shall be excluded from the computation for any such period of time, any delays due to Force Majeure. The Board shall not be obligated to recognize any delay caused by Force Majeure unless the Corporation shall within ten (10) days after the Corporation is aware of the existence of an event of Force Majeure, notify the Board thereof.

ARTICLE EIGHTEEN MISCELLANEOUS

Section 18.01 Nondiscrimination, Employment and Wages. Any discrimination by the Corporation or its agents or employees on account of race, color, sex, age, religion, national origin or handicap, in employment practices or in the performance of the terms, conditions, covenants and obligations of this Ground Lease, is prohibited.

The Board covenants that the Corporation, on paying the Rent and performing and observing all of the covenants and agreements herein contained and provided to be performed by the Corporation, shall and may peaceably and quietly have, hold, occupy, use, and enjoy the Land and the Facilities during the Term, subject to the Facilities Lease, and may exercise all of its rights hereunder; and the Board agrees to warrant and forever defend the Corporation's right to such occupancy, use, and enjoyment and the title to the Land against the claims of any and all persons whomsoever lawfully claiming the same, or any part thereof subject only to the provisions of this Ground Lease, the Facilities Lease, and the matters listed on Exhibit B attached hereto.

Section 18.08 Curative Matters. Except for the express representations and warranties of the Board set forth in this Ground Lease, any additional matters necessary or desirable to make the Land useable for the Corporation's purpose shall be undertaken, in the Corporation's sole discretion, at no expense to the Board. The Corporation shall notify the Board in writing of all additional matters (not contemplated by the Plans and Specifications) undertaken by the Corporation to make the Land usable for the Corporation's purpose.

Section 18.09 Nonwaiver. No waiver by the Board or the Corporation of a breach of any of the covenants, conditions, or restrictions of this Ground Lease shall constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach of any of the covenants, conditions or restrictions of this Ground Lease. The failure of the Board or the Corporation to insist in any one or more cases upon the strict performance of any of the covenants of the Ground Lease, or to exercise any option herein contained, shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment for the future of such covenant or option. A receipt by the Board or acceptance of payment by the Board of Rent with knowledge of the breach of any covenant hereof shall not be deemed a waiver of such breach. No waiver, change, modification or discharge by the Board or the Corporation of any provision of this Ground Lease shall be deemed to have been made or shall be effective unless expressed in writing and signed by the party to be charged.

Section 18.10 Terminology. Unless the context of this Ground Lease clearly requires otherwise, (a) pronouns, wherever used herein, and of whatever gender, shall include natural persons and corporations and associations of every kind and character; (b) the singular shall include the plural wherever and as often as may be appropriate; (c) the word "includes" or "including" shall mean "including without limitation"; (d) the word "or" shall have the inclusive meaning represented by the phrase "and/or"; (e) the words "hereof," "herein," "hereunder," and similar terms in this Ground Lease shall refer to this Ground Lease as a whole and not to any particular section or article in which such words appear. The section, article and other headings in this Ground Lease and the Table of Contents to this Ground Lease are for reference purposes and shall not control or affect the construction of this Ground Lease or the interpretation hereof in any respect. Article, section and subsection and exhibit references are to this Ground Lease unless otherwise specified. All exhibits attached to this Ground Lease constitute a part of this Ground Lease and are incorporated herein. All references to a specific time of day in this Ground Lease shall be based upon Central Standard Time (or the other standard of measuring time then in effect in Hammond, Louisiana).

Section 18.11 Counterparts. This agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be declared an original.

Section 18.12 Severability. If any clause or provision of this Ground Lease is illegal, invalid or unenforceable under present or future laws effective during the term of this Ground Lease, then and in that event, it is the intention of the parties hereto that the remainder of Ground Lease shall not be affected thereby.

Section 18.13 Authorization. By execution of this Ground Lease, the Corporation and the Board each represent to the other that they are entities validly existing, duly constituted and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction in which they were formed and in which they presently conduct business; that all acts necessary to permit them to enter into and be bound by this Ground Lease have been taken and performed; and that the persons signing this Ground Lease on their behalf have due authorization to do so.

Section 18.14 Ancillary Agreements. In the event it becomes necessary or desirable for the Board to approve in writing any ancillary agreements or documents concerning the Land or concerning the construction, operation or maintenance of the Facilities or to alter or amend any such ancillary agreements between the Board and the Corporation or to give any approval or consent of the Board required under the terms of this Ground Lease, all agreements, documents or approvals shall be forwarded to the Board Representative.

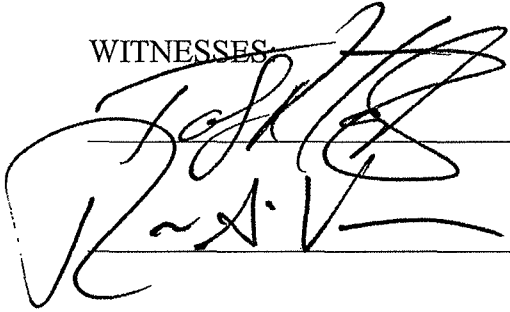

Section 18.15 Amendment. No amendment, modification, or alteration of the terms of this Ground Lease shall be binding unless the same be in writing dated on or subsequent to the date hereof and duly executed by the parties hereto and consented to the extent required by Article VIII of the Agreement. No such amendment to this Ground Lease shall alter the obligations of the parties hereto in any manner inconsistent with the scope of their obligations as contemplated by the RFP.

Section 18.16 Successors and Assigns. All of the covenants, agreements, terms and conditions to be observed and performed by the parties hereto shall be applicable to and binding upon their respective successors and assigns including any successor by merger or consolidation of the University into another educational institution or the Board into another educational management board.

Section 18.17 Entire Agreement. This Ground Lease, together with the exhibits attached hereto, contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the Land and contains all of the terms and conditions agreed upon with respect to the lease of the Land, and no other agreements, oral or otherwise, regarding the subject matter of this Ground Lease shall be deemed to exist or to bind the parties hereto; it being the intent of the parties that neither shall be bound by any term, condition, or representations not herein written.

(E) On the dates required in the Indenture, to the Trustee for deposit into any of the funds established in the Indenture, including, without limitation, the Series 2004 Debt Service Reserve Fund, the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund and the Replacement Fund, an amount sufficient to make up any deficiency in any prior payment required to be made into such fund and to restore any loss resulting from investment or other causes from such fund and any other payment required to be made to such fund by the Indenture; and

(F) Annually, beginning June 25, 2014, an amount equal to $122,987.38 (representing one-half of one percent (1/2%) of the construction cost of the Facilities), into the Replacement Fund, or such lesser annual amount as is permitted by the Louisiana State Board of Regents and approved by the Series 2004 Bond Insurer.

(ii) The Board agrees to pay Base Rental with respect to the Series 2007 Bonds from Series 2007 Lawfully Available Funds. Payments of Base Rental with respect to the Series 2007 Bonds shall be due on the dates and in the amounts as hereinafter provided:

(A) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, commencing March 25, 2007, in an amount equal to one-fifth (1/5th) of the interest due and payable on the Series 2007 Bonds on August 1, 2007 and thereafter, on the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month commencing August 25, 2007, in an amount equal to one-sixth (1/6th) of the interest due and payable on such Series 2007 Bonds on the next February 1 and August 1, or such lesser amount that, together with amounts already on deposit in the Interest Account of the Series 2007 Debt Service Fund will be sufficient to pay interest on such Series 2007 Bonds on such Phase Four Interest Payment Date;

(B) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, commencing March 25, 2007, in an amount equal to one-eleventh (1/11th) of the principal of the Series 2007 Bonds payable on February 1, 2008 and thereafter, on the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month commencing February 25,

2008, in an amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the principal of such Series 2007 Bonds payable on the next Phase Four Principal Payment Date;

(C) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month following any drawing on the Series 2007 Debt Service Reserve Fund in accordance with Section 4.18 of the Series 2007 Indenture, an amount equal to the lesser of (i) one twelfth (1/12th) of the amount necessary to cause the amount on deposit in the Series 2007 Debt Service Reserve Fund to equal the Series 2007 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement within twelve (12) months or (ii) the excess of the Series 2007 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement over the amount on deposit in the Series 2007 Debt Service Reserve Fund;

(D) On the dates required in the Series 2007 Indenture, to the Trustee for deposit into any of the funds established in the Series 2007 Indenture, including, without limitation, the Series 2007 Debt Service Reserve Fund and the Series 2007 Replacement Fund, an amount sufficient to make up any deficiency in any prior payment required to be made into such fund and to restore any loss resulting from investment or other causes from such fund and any other payment required to be made to such fund by the Series 2007 Indenture; and

(E) Annually, beginning June 25, 2009, an amount equal to one-half of one percent (1/2%) of funds available for construction of the Series 2007 Facilities, as determined by the University, into the Series 2007 Replacement Fund, or such lesser annual amount as is permitted by the Louisiana State Board of Regents and approved by the Series 2007 Bond Insurer.

(c) In addition to the Base Rental set forth herein, the Board agrees to pay as Additional Rental any and all expenses, of every nature, character, and kind whatsoever, incurred by the Corporation on behalf of the Board and/or by the Board or the University in the management, operation, ownership, and/or maintenance of the Facilities, to the extent such expenses are not paid by the Management Company under any Management Contract, including but not limited to the following costs and expenses:

(i) all taxes, assessments and impositions against the Facilities, including without limitation ad valorem taxes attributed to the Corporation on behalf of the Board (and any tax levied in whole or in part in lieu of or in addition to ad valorem taxes);

(ii) any costs incurred by the Corporation in maintaining the Facilities for the Board and making any alterations, restorations and replacements to the Facilities;

(iii) insurance premiums and other charges for insurance obtained with respect to the Facilities including insurance premiums, if any, on all insurance required under the provisions of Section 9 of this Facilities Lease;

(iv) any Default or Delay Rentals;

(v) all costs incurred by the Corporation in connection with its performance of its obligations relating to the Facilities and/or the Land under the Ground Lease and this Facilities Lease;

(vi) all Administrative Expenses owed to the Issuer or the Trustee;

(vii) Litigation Expenses, if any, incurred pursuant to Section 43 hereof;

(viii) any reimbursement amounts payable pursuant to Section 20 hereof or pursuant to any other provision hereof; and

(ix) any other costs, charges, and expenses commonly regarded as ownership, management, maintenance, and operating expenses, if any, incurred by the Corporation under this Facilities Lease.

Amounts constituting Additional Rental payable hereunder shall be paid by the Board directly to the person or persons to whom such amounts shall be due. The Board shall pay all such amounts when due or within thirty (30) days after notice in writing from the Corporation, the Management Company, or the Trustee to the Board stating the amount of the Additional Rental then due and the purpose thereof.

(d) The Board shall be entitled to a credit against and reduction of each Base Rental payment in an amount equal to any amounts derived from the following sources:

(i) Accrued interest derived from the sale of the Bonds;

(ii) Any capitalization of interest from the proceeds of the Bonds contained in the Capitalized Interest Fund under the Indenture;

(iii) the Rents and any other moneys deposited with the Trustee in the Receipts Fund in accordance with the Indenture and the Management Agreement.

(iv) Surplus moneys (including investment earnings) contained in the funds and accounts held by the Trustee under the Indenture, including the Debt Service Fund, the Debt Service Reserve Fund and the Replacement Fund;

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Facilities Lease, the obligation of the Board to make payments under this Facilities Lease, including payments of Base Rental and Additional Rental, shall be subject to, and dependent upon, appropriation of Lawfully Available Funds necessary to make the payments required under this Facilities Lease. The Vice President for Finance and Administration of the Board shall cause the University to include in the Budget and, if necessary, any amendments to the Budget, an amount of Lawfully Available Funds sufficient to make the payments of Base Rental and Additional Rental described herein which amounts may or may not ultimately be appropriated by the Board for such purpose. Subject to the foregoing and Section 29 hereof, the obligations of the Board to make payments pursuant to this Facilities Lease, and to perform and observe the other agreements and covenants on its part contained herein, shall be absolute and unconditional and shall not be subject to any diminution, abatement, set-off, or counterclaim. Subject to the foregoing and Section 29 hereof, until such time as the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Bonds shall have been fully paid or provision for the payment thereof shall have been made in accordance with this Facilities Lease, the Board shall not suspend or discontinue payment of Rental or any other payments pursuant to this Facilities Lease for any cause, and shall continue to perform and observe all of its agreements contained in this Facilities Lease. The Corporation and the Board acknowledge and agree that the obligation of the Board to pay Rental shall constitute a current expense of the Board payable by the Board from funds budgeted and appropriated in accordance with law for and in consideration of the right to use the Facilities during the Term and that such obligation shall not in any manner be construed to be a debt of the Board in contravention of any constitutional or statutory limitations or requirements concerning indebtedness of the Board and nothing contained herein shall constitute a pledge, lien or encumbrance upon any specific tax or other revenues of the Board.

(f) The payments of Base Rental and Additional Rental under this Facilities Lease for each Fiscal Year or portion thereof during the Term shall constitute the total Rental for such Fiscal Year or portion thereof and shall be paid by the Board for and in consideration of the construction by the Corporation of the Facilities and the right to the use and occupancy of the Facilities by the Board for and during such Fiscal Year or portion thereof.

(g) Amounts necessary to pay each Base Rental payment shall be deposited by the Board on the dates set forth in Section 6(b) hereof in lawful money of the United States of America at the office of the Trustee or at such other place or places as may be established by the Corporation and/or Trustee in accordance with the Indenture. Any amount necessary to pay any Base Rental payment or portion thereof which is not so deposited shall remain due and payable until received by the Trustee. Notwithstanding any dispute between the Board and the Corporation hereunder, the Board shall make all Rental payments when due and shall not withhold payment of any Rental pending the final resolution of such dispute or for any other reason whatsoever.

(h) This Facilities Lease is intended to be a triple net lease. The Board agrees that the Rental provided for herein shall be an absolute net return to the Corporation free and clear of any expenses, charges, taxes, abatements, counterclaims, reductions or set-offs whatsoever of any kind, character or nature; it being understood and agreed to by the Board that the Board shall bear responsibility for the payment of all costs and expenses associated with the ownership, management, operation, and maintenance of the Facilities. Under no circumstances will the Corporation be required to make any payment on the Board's behalf or for the Board's benefit under this Facilities Lease, or assume any monetary obligation of the Board under this Facilities Lease, or with respect to the Facilities.

(i) The State, through the Division of Administration, is not, at any time whatsoever, obligated, committed or required to provide funds by legislative appropriation or any other means to pay debt service on the Bonds or to support the continued operation and maintenance of the Facilities and Stadium Expansion, it being understood that the portion of the lease payments payable by the Board under this Facilities Lease for payment of debt service on the Bonds are payable solely from the Lawfully Available Funds and the Board is not legally committed, obligated or required to make available any other funds to make the lease payments hereunder.

(j) In addition to the Rental payments required hereby, the Board covenants and agrees to make an Extraordinary Rental payment to refund a portion of the Series 2004 Bonds, from funds on hand or collected by the Board, not to exceed $9,000,000.

Section 7. Operation, Alterations, Maintenance, Repair, Replacement and Security Service.

(a) The University, at the direction of the Board, shall be responsible for ensuring that all services necessary or required in order to adequately operate the Facilities in accordance with the Permitted Use are provided and maintained. The University shall continuously operate or cause to be operated the Facilities from the Commencement Date and continuing for the remainder of the Term for the Permitted Use, and in accordance with all Governmental Regulations. The Corporation may contract with a Management Company, subject to the approval of the Board, to provide operations and management services for the Facilities. All Rents collected by a Management Company under a Management Agreement shall be deposited in an operating account and transferred daily to the Trustee in accordance with the Indenture.

(b) The University, at the direction of the Board, shall be responsible for maintaining the Facilities and shall make or contract or cause to be made or contracted with a suitable contractor for the making of all alterations, repairs, restorations, and replacements to the Facilities, including without limitation the heating, ventilating, air conditioning, mechanical, electrical, elevators, plumbing, fire, sprinkler and theft systems, air and water pollution control and waste disposal facilities, structural roof, walls, and foundations, fixtures, equipment, and appurtenances to the Facilities as and when needed to preserve them in good working order, condition and repair (ordinary wear and tear excepted), regardless of whether such repairs, alterations, restorations or replacements are ordinary or extraordinary, foreseeable or unforeseeable, or are at the fault of the Board, the Corporation or some Other Party. All alterations, repairs, restoration, or replacements shall be of a quality and class equal to or better than the quality and class presently located in the Facilities.

(c) The University, at the direction of the Board, shall have the right during the Term to cause the Corporation or some other Party to make or construct any additions or improvements to the Facilities, alter the Facilities, attach fixtures, structures, or signs to or on the Facilities, and affix personal property to the Facilities without the Corporation's prior written consent to the extent allowed under the terms of any insurance covering the Facilities. All such alterations, improvements, additions, attachments, repairs, restorations, and replacements of all or any portion of the Facilities shall (i) be at the sole cost and expense of the University; (ii) not reduce the then fair market value of the Facilities; (iii) be constructed in a good and workmanlike manner; and (iv) be in compliance with all Governmental Regulations.

(d) The University, at the direction of the Board, shall provide or cause to be provided all security service, custodial service, janitorial service, trash disposal, and all other services necessary for the proper upkeep and maintenance of the Facilities as required herein. The Board acknowledges that the Corporation has made no representation or warranty with respect to systems and/or procedures for the security of the Facilities, any persons occupying, using or entering the Facilities, or any equipment, furnishings, or contents of the Facilities. It is the sole responsibility of the Board, through the University to cause to be provided or to provide for the security of persons on or entering the Facilities and/or property located at the Facilities, in accordance with reasonable and prudent business practices.

Section 8. Utilities. All utilities which are used or consumed in or upon or in connection with the Facilities during the Term, including, without limitation water, gas, electricity, sewerage, garbage, or trash removal, light, cable, heat, telephone, power, computer data and other utilities necessary for the operation of the Facilities (the "Utility Service") shall be the responsibility of the Board and/or the students, faculty, staff or Permitted Sublessees residing in the Facilities. Payments for Utility Services provided to the entire Facilities or to the common areas of the Facilities under such contract or contracts therefor as the Board may make shall be made by the Board directly to the respective utility companies furnishing such Utility Services.

The Corporation shall have no responsibility to the Board for the quality or availability of Utility Service to the Facilities, or for the cost to procure Utility Service. The Corporation shall not be in Default under this Facilities Lease or be liable to the Board or any other Person for direct or consequential damage, or otherwise, for any failure in supply of any Utility Service, heat, air conditioning, elevator service, cleaning service, lighting, security, or for surges or interruptions of electricity.

Section 9. Insurance.

(a) The University, at the direction of the Board, shall cause to be secured and maintained at the University's cost and expense:

(i) A policy or policies of insurance covering the Facilities against loss or damage by fire, lightning, earthquake, collapse, vandalism and malicious mischief, flood and storm surge, and against such other perils as are included in so-called "extended coverage" and against such other insurable perils as, under good insurance practice, from time to time are insured for properties of similar character and location, which insurance shall be not less than the full replacement cost of the Facilities, without deduction for depreciation. In the event that the Facilities are not repaired or replaced, insurance proceeds shall be no greater than the actual cash value (replacement cost less depreciation) of the Facilities at the time of the loss. The policy shall be adjusted to comply with any applicable co-insurance provisions of such insurance policy. Full payment of insurance proceeds shall not be contingent on the degree of damage sustained at other facilities leased by the Board. The policy or policies covering such loss must explicitly waive any co-insurance penalty.

(ii) A policy of comprehensive public liability insurance with respect to the Facilities and the operations related thereto, whether conducted on or off the Facilities, against liability for personal injury (including bodily injury and death) and property damage, of not less than $2,000,000 in combined single limit liability coverage. Such comprehensive public liability insurance shall specifically include, but shall not be limited to, sprinkler leakage legal liability, water damage legal liability, motor vehicle liability for all owned and non-owned vehicles, including rented or leased vehicles.

(iii) Boiler and machinery insurance coverage against loss or damage by explosion of steam boilers, pressure vessels and similar apparatus, but only if steam boilers, pressure vessels or similar apparatus are installed on the Facilities, in an amount not less than $5,000,000 with deductible provisions not exceeding $100,000 per accident.

(iv) Workers' compensation insurance issued by a responsible carrier authorized under the laws of the State to insure employers against liability for compensation under the Labor Code of the State, or any act hereafter enacted as an amendment thereto or in lieu thereof, such workers' compensation insurance to cover all persons employed by the Corporation in connection with the Facilities and to cover full liability for compensation under any such act aforesaid.

(v) A policy of rental interruption insurance in the amount of at least one (1) year's rental in the event of loss of or damage to the Series 2004 Facilities.

(b) The Corporation shall:

(i) cause to be secured and maintained a policy of title insurance insuring the Corporation's leasehold interest under the Ground Lease in an amount equal to the par amount of the Bonds; and

(ii) cause all of the construction professionals to secure and maintain:

(A) Comprehensive or Commercial General Liability insurance;

(B) Errors and Omissions insurance;

(C) Automobile Liability insurance;

(D) Worker's Compensation insurance;

(E) an all Risk Builder's Policy upon the construction on the Property; and

(F) boiler and machinery or additional property insurance;

all as required by the terms of any construction contracts entered into with regards to the demolition of certain existing facilities and the renovation, development and construction of the Facilities.

All insurance required in this Section and all renewals of such insurance (excepting self-insurance or commercial insurance, through ORM) shall be issued by commercial insurers authorized to transact business in the State, and rated at least A- by Best's Insurance Reports (property/liability) or in the two highest rating categories of S&P and Moody's. All insurance policies provided or caused to be provided by the Corporation shall expressly provide that the policies shall not be canceled or altered without thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the University and the Trustee; and shall, to the extent obtainable, provide that no act or omission of the Corporation or other provider of the insurance that would otherwise result in forfeiture or reduction of the insurance will affect or limit the obligation of the insurance company to pay the amount of any loss sustained.

All policies of liability insurance that the University is obligated to maintain according to this Facilities Lease (other than any policy of worker's compensation insurance) will name the Corporation, the Trustee and such other Persons or firms as the University may be required to name from time to time as additional insureds and shall expressly provide that the policies shall not be cancelled or altered without thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the Corporation and the Trustee; and shall, to the extent obtainable, provide that no act or omission of the University or other provider of the insurance that would otherwise result in forfeiture or reduction of the insurance will affect or limit the obligation of the insurance company to pay the amount of any loss sustained. All public liability, property damage liability, and casualty policies maintained by the University shall be written as primary policies.

Proceeds of insurance received and/or the amount of any loss that is self-insured with respect to destruction of or damage to any portion of the Facilities by fire, earthquake or other casualty or event shall be paid to the Trustee (or, in the case of ORM insurance, to the Board for delivery in full to the Trustee) for application in accordance with the provisions of Section 11 of this Facilities Lease and the Indenture.

The Corporation shall certify annually to the Series 2004 Bond Insurer and the Series 2007 Bond Insurer that all insurance policies required by this Section 9 are as of the date of such certification in place and in effect.

Section 10. Condemnation, Casualty and Other Damage. The risk of loss or decrease in the enjoyment and beneficial use of the Facilities due to any damage or destruction thereof by acts of God, fire, flood, natural disaster, the elements, casualties, thefts, riots, civil strife, lockout, war, nuclear explosion or otherwise (collectively "Casualty") or in consequence of any foreclosures, attachments, levies or executions; or the taking of all or any portion of the Facilities by condemnation, expropriation, or eminent domain proceedings (collectively "Expropriation") is expressly assumed by the Board. The Corporation and the Trustee shall in no event be answerable, accountable or liable therefor, nor shall any of the foregoing events entitle the Board to any abatements, set-offs or counter claims with respect to its Base Rental, Additional Rental or any other obligation hereunder.

Section 11. Application of Insurance Proceeds; Condemnation Award. (a) If during construction, all or any portion of the Facilities is damaged or destroyed by a Casualty, or is taken by Expropriation proceedings, the Board shall instruct the Corporation, as expeditiously as possible, to continuously and diligently prosecute or cause to be prosecuted the repair, restoration, or replacement thereof; provided however, that the Corporation shall in no way be liable for any costs of the repair, restoration or replacement of the Facilities in excess of the proceeds of any insurance or of any Expropriation award received because of such Casualty or Expropriation. Following the completion of construction and acceptance of the Facilities by the Board on behalf of the Corporation, the Board shall, as expeditiously as possible, continuously and diligently prosecute or cause to be prosecuted, the repair, restoration, or replacement thereof. The proceeds of any insurance, including the proceeds of any self-insurance fund, or of any Expropriation award or payment in lieu of Expropriation, received on account of any damage, destruction or taking of all or any portion of the Facilities shall be delivered to the Trustee and held by the Trustee in trust (or in the case of self-insurance through ORM, as set forth in paragraph

(b) below), and shall be made available for, and to the extent necessary be applied to, such restoration, repair and replacement. Any amounts so held by the Trustee shall be disbursed to pay the costs of restoration, replacement and repair of the Facilities with respect to which they are held, in each case promptly after receipt of a written request of the Corporation stating that the amount to be disbursed pursuant to such request will be used to pay costs of replacing or repairing or restoring the Facilities and that no amount previously has been disbursed by the Trustee for payment of the costs to be so paid. In making such payments, the Trustee may conclusively rely upon such written requests and shall have no liability or responsibility to investigate any matter stated therein, or for any inaccuracy or misstatement therein. In no event shall the Trustee be responsible for the adequacy of the plans and specifications or construction contract relating to the replacement, restoration, or repair of the Facilities, or for the improper use of moneys properly disbursed pursuant to request made under this Section. Any proceeds remaining on deposit with Trustee following completion of the repairs, restoration or replacement of the Facilities shall be paid by Trustee in accordance with the terms of the Indenture.

In the event the proceeds of any insurance, and any additional funds deposited with the Trustee, are insufficient to fully repair, restore or replace the Facilities, the proceeds shall be paid to the Board for immediate delivery to Trustee and used to redeem the Outstanding Bonds.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation's obligation to replace the Facilities in the event of Expropriation Proceedings is dependent on the Board entering into a lease with a different portion of the Campus as provided in Section 13.03 of the Ground Lease. In the event it is necessary to restore or replace the Facilities in a different location because of the Expropriation of all or a portion of the Facilities, the Corporation and the Board agree to amend or enter into a new Facilities Lease and Ground Lease in accordance with Sections 13.03 of the Ground Lease. In the event the Board, pursuant to the Ground Lease, decides not to repair, restore or replace the Facilities for any reason, all insurance proceeds received or payable as a result of such Casualty, or all proceeds received or payable as a result of Expropriation proceedings (including payments received or payable in lieu of Expropriation) shall be paid to the Board for immediate delivery to the Trustee and applied to the prepayment of the Bonds in accordance with the terms of the Indenture, and this Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease shall terminate on the date that the events described in Section 2(a) or 2(b) hereof have occurred.

(b) In the event that ORM insures the Facilities, the Board shall use the insurance proceeds received from ORM in accordance with Policy and Procedure Memorandum Number 10 (requiring invoices to be submitted to ORM for payment to vendors, or alternatively, production of invoices paid by the Board to ORM for reimbursement of vendor payments) to effect the repair, restoration or replacement of the Facilities.

Section 12. Encumbrances.

(a) Payment by the Board. The Board shall pay or cause to be paid all costs and charges for alterations, improvements, additions, repairs and maintenance (“Work”) (i) done by the Board or caused to be done by the Board in or to the Facilities, and (ii) for all materials furnished for or in connection with such Work. The Corporation reserves all rights to collect for any loss or damage sustained or incurred by the Corporation resulting from any and all Encumbrances, demands or liabilities arising on account of the Work, which shall be payable by the Board as Additional Rent hereunder.

(b) Failure to Discharge. If the Board fails to pay any charge for which an Encumbrance has been filed, and the Facilities or any portion thereof is placed in imminent danger of being seized, the Corporation may, but shall not be obligated to, pay such charge and related costs and interest, and the amount so paid, together with reasonable Legal Expenses incurred in connection with such Encumbrance, will be immediately due from the Board to the Corporation as Additional Rental. Nothing contained in this Facilities Lease will be deemed the consent or agreement of the Corporation to subject the Corporation's interest in the Facilities to liability under any Encumbrance, or any mechanics', materialman's or other lien law. If the Board receives written notice that an Encumbrance has been or is about to be filed against the Facilities, or that any action affecting title to the Facilities has been commenced on account of Work done by or for the Board or for materials furnished to or for the Board, it shall immediately give the Corporation Notice of such notice.

(c) Notice of Work. At least fifteen (15) days prior to the commencement of any Work in or to the Facilities, by or for the University, the University shall give the Corporation Notice of the proposed Work and the names and addresses of the Persons supplying labor and materials for the proposed Work. The Corporation will have the right to post notices of nonresponsibility or similar written notices on the Facilities in order to protect the Facilities against any such claimants.

Section 13. Assignment and Sublease. (a) Neither this Facilities Lease nor any interest of the Board in the Facilities shall be mortgaged, pledged, assigned or transferred by the Board by voluntary act or by operation of law, or otherwise; provided, however, the Board may sublease all or any portion of the Facilities, or grant concessions involving the use of all or any portion of the Facilities, whether such concessions purport to convey a leasehold interest or a license to use all or a portion of the Facilities to any University student, faculty, staff or Permitted Sublessee. No such concession, leasehold interest or license to use the Facilities shall be granted to any University students, faculty or staff for a term of more than one (1) year, or to any Permitted Sublessee for a term of more than one (1) month. The Board shall, however, at all times remain liable for the performance of the covenants and conditions on its part to be performed under this Facilities Lease (including, without limitation, the payment of Base Rental and Additional Rental), notwithstanding any subletting or granting of concessions which may be made. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to relieve the Board from its obligations to pay Base Rental and Additional Rental as provided in this Facilities Lease or to relieve the Board from any other obligations contained herein. Other than subleases to University students, faculty, staff and Permitted Sublessees, in no event will the Board sublease or permit the use of all or any part of the Facilities to any person without an opinion of Bond Counsel that such will not cause interest on the Bonds to be included in the gross income of the owners of the Series 2004A Bonds and the Series 2004B Bonds for federal income tax purposes.

(b) The Corporation shall, concurrently with the execution hereof, assign all of its right, title and interest in and to this Facilities Lease, including without limitation its right to receive Base Rental payable hereunder, to the Issuer pursuant to the Agreement, and the Issuer will in turn assign its rights under this Facilities Lease to the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture. The parties hereto further agree to execute any and all documents necessary and proper in connection therewith. Anything required or permitted to be done by the Corporation under this Facilities Lease may be done by the Trustee under the Indenture.

(c) Except as set forth in Section 13(b) hereof, the Corporation shall not sell or assign its interest in the Facility or this Facilities Lease without the prior written consent of the Board.

Section 14. Additions and Improvements Removal. At the expiration of the Term, or termination of this Facilities Lease, all alterations, fixtures, improvements and additions made by the Board or the University and all equipment placed upon the Facilities that are incorporated into or made into component parts of the Facilities, as well as, title to all property, furniture, equipment, fixtures, and other property installed at or placed upon the Facilities by the Board which is not incorporated into or made a component part of the Facilities remain the property of the Board.

The Board hereby agrees to replace such property from time to time as such property becomes worn out, obsolete, inadequate, unsuitable or undesirable. The Board may add to or remove such property from time to time, and upon expiration of the Term, provided that the Board repairs any damage to the Facilities caused by such removal.

Section 15. Right of Entry. Representatives of the Corporation and the Bond Insurer shall, subject to reasonable security precautions, and upon giving the Board not less than twenty-four (24) hours advance Notice, have the right to enter upon the Facilities during reasonable business hours (and in emergencies without notice and at all times) accompanied by a Board Representative (i) to inspect the same, (ii) for any purpose connected with the rights or obligations of the Corporation under this Facilities Lease, or (iii) for all other lawful purposes. Any right of access to any portion of the Facilities leased to the students, faculty, staff or Permitted Sublessees shall be subject to their rights pursuant to their rental agreements and University policy.

Section 16. Mortgage Prohibition. Except as set forth in the Indenture, the Ground Lease and the Agreement, the Corporation shall not be entitled to mortgage or grant a security interest in the Facilities.

Section 17. Sale of Facilities; Attornment; and Conveyance and Transfer of the Corporation's Interest. If a person other than the Corporation shall succeed to the rights of the Corporation hereunder (in any case with the prior written consent of the Board as required hereby), upon the declaration of the successor to the Corporation's interest in this Facilities Lease, the Board agrees to fully attorn to and recognize any such successor as the Board's landlord under this Facilities Lease upon the then existing terms of this Facilities Lease, provided that such successor shall agree in writing to accept the Board's attornment and not to disturb the Board's possession so long as the Board shall observe the provisions and all covenants of this Facilities Lease. This attornment provision shall inure to the benefit of any such successor and shall be self-operative upon the election and declaration by such successor, and no further instrument shall be required to give effect to the provisions. However, the Board agrees to evidence and confirm the foregoing attornment provisions by the execution and delivery of instruments in recordable form satisfactory to such successor.

If the Facilities, or any part thereof, shall be sold or otherwise transferred by sale, assignment, transfer or other contract, or by operation of law or otherwise (with the prior written consent of the Board as required hereby and with an opinion of Bond Counsel that such action will not cause interest on the Bonds to be included in the gross income of the owner of the Bonds for federal tax purposes), and if such written consent specifically so provides, the Corporation shall be automatically and entirely released and discharged to the extent of the interest in or the portion of the Facilities sold, assigned or transferred from and after the effective date of such sale, assignment or transfer of all liability for the performance of any of the covenants of this Facilities Lease on the part of the Corporation thereafter to be performed. The purchaser or other transferee of the Facilities shall be deemed to have agreed to perform such covenants of the Corporation from and after the date of such assignment or sale during such transferee's period of ownership of the Corporation's interest under this Facilities Lease, all without further agreement between the Corporation, its successor and the Board. The Corporation's transferee shall not be held responsible for the performance of any of the covenants of this Facilities Lease on the part of the Corporation required to be performed prior to such sale and transfer, the Board reserving its rights against the Corporation for any unperformed covenants prior to such sale or transfer.

Section 18. Quiet Enjoyment. The Corporation covenants that the Board, on paying the Rental and performing and observing all of the covenants and agreements herein contained and provided to be performed by the Board or the University, shall and may peaceably and quietly have, hold, occupy, use, and enjoy the Facilities during the Term and may exercise all of its rights hereunder; and the Corporation agrees to warrant and forever defend the Board's right to such occupancy, use, and enjoyment and the title to the Facilities against the claims of any and all persons whomsoever lawfully claiming the same, or any part thereof subject only to the provisions of this Facilities Lease.

Section 19. Environmental Compliance and Indemnity.

(a) Environmental Compliance. The Board or the University shall operate or cause to be operated the Facilities in compliance with all Environmental Requirements continuously during the Term, and for such periods of time prior to the Commencement Date and after the Expiration Date, as long as the Board is in possession of the Facilities, in whole or in part. The Board shall not cause or permit any Hazardous Substance to be brought upon, kept, or used in or about the Facilities or the Land, except for such Hazardous Substance as is necessary or useful to the operation of the Facilities.

(b) The Board's Liability. If the Board fails to comply with any of the foregoing warranties, representations, and covenants, and removal or Remediation of any Hazardous Substance found on the Facilities is required by Environmental Requirements or Governmental Authority, the Board shall promptly undertake the removal or Remediation of such Hazardous Substance, at the Board's sole cost and expense. In the event the Board fails or refuses to undertake such removal or Remedial actions, the Corporation may cause the removal or Remediation (or other cleanup reasonable acceptable to the Corporation) of any such Hazardous Substance from the Land or the Facilities. The reasonable costs of removal, Remediation, or any other cleanup (including transportation and storage costs) will be considered as Additional Rental under this Facilities Lease, whether or not a court has ordered the cleanup, and those costs will become due and payable within ninety (90) days of written demand by the Corporation. In connection therewith, the Board will give the Corporation, its agents, and employees access to the Facilities to remove, remediate, or otherwise clean up any Hazardous Substance. The Corporation, however, has no affirmative obligation to remove, remediate, or otherwise clean up any Hazardous Substance, and this Facilities Lease will not be construed as creating any such obligation. The Board hereby agrees that it shall be fully liable for all costs and expenses related to the use, storage, and disposal of any Hazardous Substance located in or about the Facilities by the Board.

Section 20. The Corporation's Reservation of Rights.

(a) The Corporation hereby reserves all of its rights to recover from the Board for any and all Claims asserted against the Corporation, including Litigation Expenses arising out of or by reason of:

(i) any injury to or death of any person or damage to property occurring on or about the Facilities occasioned by or growing out of or arising or resulting from any tortious or negligent act on the part of the Board in connection with the operation and management of the Facilities; or

(ii) any failure, breach, or default on the part of the Board in the performance of or compliance with any of the obligations of the Board under the terms of this Facilities Lease.

(b) Notwithstanding the fact that it is the intention of the parties that the Corporation shall not incur any pecuniary liability by reason of the terms of this Facilities Lease or the undertakings required of the Corporation hereunder, nevertheless, if the Corporation should incur any such pecuniary liability, then in that event, the Corporation shall be entitled to assert all rights and remedies granted in law or in equity to recover from the Board the amount of any pecuniary liability incurred by the Corporation, plus all Litigation Expenses incurred in defense of such liability to the extent subject to indemnification pursuant to Subsection (a) above.

(c) No recourse shall be had for the enforcement of any obligation, covenant, or agreement of the Corporation contained in this Facilities Lease or any Claim based thereon against the Corporation or of any successor thereto or member thereof, either directly or through the Corporation whether by virtue of any constitutional provision, statute, or rule of law. This Facilities Lease and the obligations of the Corporation hereunder, and any Claim asserted against the Corporation are solely corporate obligations, and the enforcement of any obligation or Claim shall be limited solely to the Corporation's interest in the Facilities. No personal liability shall attach to, or be incurred by, any officer, director, agent, employee or member of the Corporation and the Board acknowledges that all personal liability of any character against every such officer, director, agent, employee or member by the execution of this Facilities Lease, is expressly waived and released. The immunity of any officer, director, agent, employee or member of the Corporation under the provisions contained in this Section 20 shall survive any acquisition of the Facilities by the Board and the expiration or other termination of this Facilities Lease.

Section 21. Default by the Board. If (i) the Board shall fail to deposit with the Trustee any Base Rental payment required to be so deposited pursuant to Section 6 hereof by the close of business on the day such deposit is required pursuant to Section 6 hereof, and shall fail to remedy such breach within five (5) days thereof, but in no event later than the date on which such payment is required to enable the Corporation to make payment on the Bonds (without use of moneys held in the Debt Service Reserve Fund), or (ii) the Board shall fail to pay or discharge any monetary obligation under this Lease (other than the payment of Base Rental) as and when due, or within thirty (30) days after receipt of Notice from the Corporation that such sums are due and owing; or (iii) the Board shall breach any non-monetary terms, covenants or conditions herein, and shall fail to remedy any such breach with all reasonable dispatch within a reasonable period of time (or such longer period as the Trustee may approve) after written notice thereof from the Corporation to the Board, then and in any such event the Board shall be deemed to be in default hereunder, and the Corporation shall have the right, at its option, without any further demand or notice to terminate this Facilities Lease on the earliest date permitted by law or on any later date specified in any Notice given to the Board, in which case the Board's right to possession of the Facilities will cease and this Facilities Lease will be terminated, without, however, waiving the Corporation's right to collect all Rental and other payments due or owing for the period up to the time the Corporation regains possession (which have been approved for payment under this Facilities Lease, but not paid by the Board), and to enforce other obligations of the Board which survive termination of this Facilities Lease, and in such event the Corporation may without any further demand or notice re-enter the Facilities and eject all parties in possession thereof, subject to the rights of students, faculty, staff and Permitted Sublessees. The foregoing remedies of the Corporation are in addition to and not exclusive of any other remedy of the Corporation. Any such re-entry shall be allowed by the Board without hindrance, and the Corporation shall not be liable in damages for any such re-entry or be guilty of trespass. The Corporation understands and agrees that upon its termination of the Board's right to possession of the Facilities or termination of this Facilities Lease, the Corporation upon its re-entry of the Facilities shall only be allowed to use the Facilities for the Permitted Use and shall be subject to all applicable Governmental Regulations heretofore or hereafter enacted by any Governmental Authority relating to the use and operation of the Facilities.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Facilities Lease, (i) in no event shall the Corporation have the right to accelerate the payment of any Base Rental payment hereunder and (ii) the Bond Insurer shall have ninety (90) days to cure an Event of Default hereunder.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 21 to the contrary, a failure by the Board to pay when due any payment required to be made under this Facilities Lease or a failure by the Board to observe and perform any covenant, condition or agreement on its part to be observed or performed under this Facilities Lease, resulting from a failure by the Board to appropriate moneys shall not constitute an Event of Default under this Section 21 and the Corporation shall not have any of the remedial rights set forth in this Section 21. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in such event the Board acknowledges that the Facilities Lease shall terminate and the Board shall immediately vacate the Facilities, and deliver the Facilities to the Corporation.

Section 22. Cumulative Remedies. Each right and remedy provided for in this Facilities Lease is cumulative and is in addition to every other right or remedy provided for in this Facilities Lease or now or after the Commencement Date existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise, and the exercise or beginning of the exercise by the Corporation of any one or more of the rights or remedies provided for in this Facilities Lease or now or after the Commencement Date existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise will not preclude the simultaneous or later exercise by the Corporation of any or all other rights or remedies provided for in this Facilities Lease or now or after the Commencement Date existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise. All costs incurred by the Corporation in collecting any amounts and damages owing by the Board pursuant to the provisions of this Facilities Lease or to enforce any provision of this Facilities Lease, including reasonable Litigation Expenses from the date any such matter is turned over to an attorney, whether or not one or more actions are commenced by the Corporation, will also be recoverable by the Corporation from the Board. The waiver by the Corporation of any breach by the Board and the waiver by the Board of any breach by the Corporation of any term, covenant or condition hereof shall not operate as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other term, covenant or condition hereof.

Section 23. Option to Purchase. For and in consideration of the obligations of the Board under the Facilities Lease, the mutual undertakings of the parties, the receipt and adequacy of which is hereby acknowledged, the Corporation grants to the Board an exclusive and irrevocable option to purchase for the price and on the terms, provisions, stipulations and conditions hereinafter set forth, all but not less than all of the Corporation's leasehold interest in the Facilities.

(a) Effective Date. The effective date of this Option agreement shall be the Commencement Date.

(b) Term of Option. The Option shall expire at midnight Central Standard Time, on the Expiration Date, or upon the termination of this Facilities Lease, whichever occurs first.

(c) Limitation on Exercise of Option. The Board may not exercise the Option, and the Option shall be voidable, at the sole election of the Corporation, if a Default by the Board has occurred and is continuing under the Facilities Lease, and the applicable time period in which the Board may cure such default has expired. Notwithstanding any provision of this Option to the contrary, the Board shall be entitled to exercise the Option as long as the Board is legally obligated to make payments of Base Rental under the Facilities Lease.

(d) Exercise of Option.

(i) The Series 2004 Facilities. The Board may exercise the Option herein granted with respect to the Series 2004 Facilities at any time on or before expiration of the Term, on any Interest Payment Date on or after August 1, 2014 or on the date the Series 2004 Bonds and the Series 2013 Bonds are defeased pursuant to Article XII of the Indenture, by Notice to the Corporation of its election to exercise the Option and purchase the Corporation's interest in and to the Series 2004 Facilities given not less than sixty (60) days prior to the date on which the Board desires to purchase the Facilities

(ii) The Series 2007 Facilities. The Board may exercise the Option herein granted with respect to the Series 2007 Facilities at any time on or before expiration of the Term, on any Interest Payment Date on or after August 1, 2014 or on the date the Series 2007 Bonds are defeased pursuant to Article XII of the Indenture, by Notice to the Corporation of its election to exercise the Option and purchase the Corporation's interest in and to the Facilities given not less than sixty (60) days prior to the date on which the Board desires to purchase the Series 2007 Facilities.

(e) Purchase Price. The Purchase Price shall be equal to the principal of all Bonds then Outstanding plus the interest to accrue on such Bonds until the purchase date plus any prepayment penalties, charges or costs for early prepayment or defeasance of the Bonds and any Administrative Expenses owed prior to the purchase date which payments are necessary to discharge the Indenture pursuant to Article XII thereof (collectively, the "Purchase Price").

(f) Effect on Facilities Lease and Ground Lease. Upon the purchase of the Corporation's leasehold interest in the Facilities by the Board pursuant to this Option, the Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease shall terminate and all of the Corporation's leasehold interest in the Land and the Facilities shall terminate.

(g) Payment of Purchase Price. The Board, on the purchase date, shall deposit an amount equal to the Purchase Price with the Trustee.

(i) Conveyance. In the event of and upon the payment of the Purchase Price and any other sums due under this Facilities Lease by the Board, the Corporation will on the purchase date execute and deliver to the Board a written cancellation of the Ground Lease and this Facilities Lease.

(ii) Assignment of Contract Rights and Obligations. The conveyance of the Corporation's leasehold interest in the Facilities shall also effect a transfer and assignment of all rights, warranties and liabilities of the Corporation under then existing contracts of any nature with respect to the Facilities.

(h) Closing. In the event the Option is timely exercised, notice of the Board's election to the Corporation shall constitute an irrevocable conversion of the Option into a binding obligation of the Corporation to sell its leasehold interest in the Facilities and the Board to buy the same under the terms and conditions set forth in this Section 23, and in such event, the Corporation and the Board shall have the right to demand specific performance of this agreement by the other. The closing shall occur at the offices of the Board or its counsel, or at such other time, place, and date as agreed upon by the Corporation and the Board.

(i) Closing Costs. The Board shall pay all closing costs and charges incident to the conveyance of the Corporation's interest in the Land and the Facilities.

(j) No Warranty. The Corporation shall convey its leasehold interest in the Facilities without any warranty whatsoever of any nature. The conveyance of the leasehold interest in the Facilities shall be without any warranty as to fitness and condition, as set forth in Section 5 of this Facilities Lease. Language substantially similar to the language contained in Section 5 of this Facilities Lease shall be incorporated into and made a part of such conveyance. In no event shall the Corporation be responsible for any defects in title.

(k) Default under the Option:

(i) In the event the Option is exercised, and the Corporation fails to consummate the transactions contemplated herein for any reason, except default by the Board or the failure of the Board to satisfy any of the conditions set forth herein, the Board may, in addition to any other rights and remedies which may otherwise be available to the Board, enforce this agreement by specific performance. The Board's remedies under this Section are expressly subject to the provisions of Section 30 of this Facilities Lease.

(ii) In the event the Option is exercised, and the Board fails to consummate the transactions contemplated herein for any reason, except default by the Corporation or the failure of the Corporation to satisfy any of the conditions set forth herein, the Corporation (a) may enforce this agreement by specific performance and in such action shall have the right to recover damages suffered by reason of the Board's delay; or (b) may bring suit for damages for breach of this agreement.

(iii) No delay or omission in the exercise of any right or remedy accruing to either party upon any breach by the other party under this Section 23 shall impair such right or remedy or be construed as a waiver of any such breach theretofore or thereafter occurring. The waiver by either party of any condition or any subsequent breach of the same or any other term, covenant or condition contained in this Section 23 shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any other condition or of any subsequent breach of the same or of any other term, covenant or condition herein contained.

(l) Attorney's Fees. Should either party employ an attorney or attorneys to enforce any of the provisions hereof, or to protect its interest in any matter arising under this agreement, or to recover damages for the breach of this agreement, the party prevailing in any final judgment shall have the right to collect from the losing party all Litigation Expenses incurred in enforcing such rights.

(m) Notices. Any notices required or permitted under this Section 23 shall be in writing and delivered either in person to the other party, or the other party's authorized agent, or by United States Certified Mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, to the address set forth in Section 51 of this Facilities Lease, or to such other address as either party may designate in writing and delivered as herein provided.

(n) Assignability. Except as set forth in the Indenture, the Mortgage or the Ground Lease, the Option may not be assigned by the Corporation or its interest in the Facilities sold (subject to the Option or otherwise) to any person or entity without the Board's prior written consent, which consent may be withheld by the Board in its sole discretion.

(o) Time of Essence: Time is of the essence of this Option.

(p) Binding Effect: This Option shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their heirs, successors and assigns.

Section 24. Severability. If any provisions of this Facilities Lease shall be invalid, inoperative or unenforceable as applied in any particular case in any jurisdiction or jurisdictions or in all jurisdictions, or in all cases because it conflicts with any other provision or provisions hereof or any constitution or statute or rule of public policy, or for any other reason, such circumstances shall not have the effect of rendering the provision in question inoperative or unenforceable in any other case or circumstance, or of rendering any other provision or provisions herein contained invalid, inoperative or unenforceable, to any extent whatever. The invalidity of any one or more phrases, sentences, clauses or Sections contained in this Facilities Lease shall not affect the remaining portions of this Facilities Lease, or any part thereof.

Section 25. Redemption of Bonds. The Corporation agrees that it will not exercise its option to redeem any Bonds pursuant to the Indenture unless the Board consents to such redemption or such redemption is to be effected with moneys derived from a source other than payments made by the Board under this Facilities Lease, however, in no event shall the mandatory redemption of any Bonds pursuant to the Indenture require the consent of the Board. The Corporation further agrees that if requested by the Board it will take all actions necessary to redeem all or any portion of the Bonds designated by the Board on the first date that it may do so under the terms of the Indenture so long as the Board agrees to provide funds in an amount, and at the time, required to effect such redemption.

Section 26. Additional Bonds. Upon the request and at the expense of the Board, the Corporation shall take action as may be required to effect the issuance of Additional Bonds in such amount as the Board may request as permitted by and in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture for any purpose permitted thereby.

Section 27. Execution. This Facilities Lease may be simultaneously executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original, and all of which together shall constitute one and the same Facilities Lease.

Section 28. Law Governing. This Facilities Lease is made in the State under the constitution and laws of the State and is to be governed by the laws of the State.

Section 29. Nonappropriation of Funds. In the event no funds or insufficient funds are lawfully appropriated in any Fiscal Year enabling the payment of Base Rental and Additional Rental due during the next succeeding Fiscal Year, the Board will immediately notify the Corporation and the Trustee of such occurrence. On the first day of the month following the Base Rental payment date on which the last payment of Base Rental can be made in full from Lawfully Available Funds, this Facilities Lease shall terminate without penalty or expense to the Board of any kind whatsoever, except as to the portions of Base Rental and Additional Rental payments herein agreed upon for Fiscal Years for which sufficient funds have been lawfully appropriated. In the event of such termination, the Board agrees peaceably to surrender possession of the Facilities to the Corporation on the date of such termination in its original condition (normal wear and tear excepted). The Corporation will have all legal and equitable rights and remedies to take possession of the Facilities and re-let or sell the Facilities as the Corporation determines and as granted in this Facilities Lease. The Board acknowledges that the Corporation's rights to take possession and to re-let or sell the Facilities under this Section 29 may be assigned to the Trustee for the benefit of the owners of the Bonds, and the Board agrees that the Trustee shall be entitled to exercise all of the rights of the Corporation under this Section 29. The event of an inability by the Board to cause the appropriation of sufficient funds for the payment of sums due under this Facilities Lease shall not constitute a default hereunder, but shall ipso facto terminate this Facilities Lease. This provision is operative notwithstanding any provisions of this Facilities Lease to the contrary. The Board shall be considered in default hereunder if sufficient funds are lawfully appropriated for the payment of Rental required under this Facilities Lease and the Board fails to use lawfully appropriated funds for the payment of Rental. In such event, the Corporation shall be entitled to the rights and remedies set forth in Sections 21 and 22 hereof.

Section 30. Exculpatory Provision. In the exercise of the powers of the Corporation and its trustees, officers, employees and agents under this Facilities Lease and the Indenture, the Corporation shall not be accountable or liable to the Board (i) for any actions taken or omitted by it or its officers, employees or agents in good faith and believed by it or them to be authorized or within their discretion or rights or powers conferred upon them, or (ii) for any claims based on this Facilities Lease against any officer, employee or agent of the Corporation in his or her personal capacity, all such liability, if any, being expressly waived by the Board by the execution of this Facilities Lease. Nothing in this Facilities Lease or the Indenture is intended to require or obligate, nor shall anything herein or therein be interpreted to require or obligate, the Corporation for any purpose or at any time whatsoever, to provide, apply or expend any funds coming into the hands of the Corporation other than the funds derived from the issuance of the Bonds under the Indenture and moneys derived pursuant to the Indenture and this Facilities Lease.

The Board specifically agrees to look solely to the Corporation's interest in the Facilities for the recovery of any judgments from the Corporation. It is agreed that the Corporation will not be personally liable for any such judgments, or incur any pecuniary liability as a result of this Facilities Lease to the Board, or the breach of its obligations hereunder. The Corporation's liability under this Facilities Lease is "in rem" as to its interest in the Facilities. The provisions contained in the preceding sentences are not intended to and will not limit any right that the Board might otherwise have to obtain injunctive relief against the Corporation or relief in any suit or action in connection with enforcement or collection of amounts that may become owing or payable under or on account of insurance maintained by the Corporation.

Section 31. Amendments. This Facilities Lease may be amended only as permitted in Article VIII of the Agreement.

Section 32. Recording. The Corporation covenants and agrees that it will promptly record and from time to time re-record a memorandum in recordable form of this Facilities Lease and the Indenture and all supplements thereto and hereto in such manner and in such places as may be required by law in order to fully protect and preserve the security of the holders or owners of the Bonds.

Section 33. Construction Against Drafting Party. The Corporation and the Board acknowledge that each of them and their counsel have had an opportunity to review this Facilities Lease and that each Party was responsible for the drafting thereof.

Section 34. Time of the Essence. Time is of the essence of each and every provision of this Facilities Lease.

Section 35. No Waiver. The waiver by the Corporation of any agreement, condition, or provision contained in this Facilities Lease will not be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other agreement, condition, or provision contained in this Facilities Lease, nor will any custom or practice that may grow up between the parties in the administration of the terms of this Facilities Lease be construed to waive or to lessen the right of the Corporation to insist upon the performance by the Board in strict accordance with the terms of this Facilities Lease. The subsequent acceptance of Rental by the Corporation will not be deemed to be a waiver of any preceding breach by the Board of any agreement, condition, or provision of this Facilities Lease, other than the failure of the Board to pay the particular Rental so accepted, regardless of the Corporation's knowledge of such preceding breach at the time of acceptance of such Rental.

Section 36. Survival. To the extent permitted by law and to the extent such will not constitute the incurrence of debt by the Board, all of the Corporation's remedies and rights of recovery under Sections 19 and 20 of this Facilities Lease shall survive the Term and/or the purchase of the Facilities by the Board under the Option.

Section 37. Counterparts. This Facilities Lease may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

Section 38. Estoppel Certificates. At any time and from time to time but within ten (10) days after prior written request by the Corporation, the Board will execute, acknowledge, and deliver to the Corporation, promptly upon request but only to the extent accurate, a certificate certifying (i) that this Facilities Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect or, if there have been modifications, that this Facilities Lease is in full force and effect, as modified, and stating the date and nature of each modification; (ii) the date, if any, to which Rental and other sums payable under this Facilities Lease have been paid; (iii) that no Notice of any default has been delivered to the Corporation which default has not been cured, except as to defaults specified in said certificate; (iv) that there is no Event of Default under this Facilities Lease or an event which, with Notice or the passage of time, or both, would result in an Event of Default under this Facilities Lease, except for defaults specified in said certificate; and (v) such other matters as may be reasonably requested by the Corporation. Any such certificate may be relied upon by any prospective purchaser or existing or prospective mortgagee of the Facilities or any part thereof. The Board's failure to notify the Corporation of any inaccuracies in the proposed certificate within the specified time period shall be conclusive evidence that the matters set forth in the certificate are accurate and correct.

Section 39. Waiver of Jury Trial. The Corporation and the Board waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding, or counterclaim brought by either of the Parties to this Facilities Lease against the other on any matters whatsoever arising out of or in any way connected with this Facilities Lease, the relationship of the Corporation and the Board, the Board's use or occupancy of the Facilities, or any other Claims, and any emergency statutory or any other statutory remedy.

Section 40. Written Amendment Required. No amendment, alteration, modification of, or addition to the Facilities Lease will be valid or binding unless expressed in writing and signed by the Corporation and the Board and consented to the extent required by Article VIII of the Agreement.

Section 41. Entire Agreement. This Facilities Lease, the exhibits and addenda, if any, contain the entire agreement between the Corporation and the Board. No promises or representations, except as contained in this Facilities Lease, have been made to the Board respecting the condition or the manner of operating the Facilities.

Section 42. Signs. The Board may attach any sign on any part of the Facilities, or in the halls, lobbies, windows, or elevator banks of the Facilities, without the Corporation approval. The Board may name the Facilities and change the name, number, or designation of the Facilities, without the Corporation's prior consent.

Section 43. Litigation Expenses. The Board will pay the Corporation as Additional Rental all reasonable Litigation Expenses and all other reasonable expenses which may be incurred by the Corporation in enforcing any of the obligations of the Board under this Facilities Lease, in exercising its rights to recover against the Board for loss or damage sustained in accordance with the provisions of this Facilities Lease, or in any litigation or negotiation in which the Corporation shall, without its fault, become involved through or because of this Facilities Lease.

Section 44. Brokers. The Corporation and the Board respectively represent and warrant to each other that neither of them has consulted or negotiated with any broker or finder with regard to the Facilities.

Section 45. No Easements for Air or Light. Any diminution or shutting off of light, air, or view by any structure that may be erected on any of the lands constituting the Facilities, or on lands adjacent to the Facilities, will in no way affect this Facilities Lease or impose any liability on the Corporation. This Facilities Lease does not grant any rights to light, view and/or air over the Facilities whatsoever.

Section 46. Binding Effect. The covenants, conditions, and agreements contained in this Facilities Lease will bind and inure to the benefit of the Corporation and the Board and their respective permitted successors and assigns.

Section 47. Rules of Interpretation. The following rules shall apply to the construction of this Facilities Lease unless the context requires otherwise: (a) the singular includes the plural and the plural includes the singular; (b) words importing any gender include the other genders; (c) references to statutes are to be construed as including all statutory provisions consolidating, amending or replacing the statute to which reference is made and all regulations promulgated pursuant to such statutes; (d) references to “writing” include printing, photocopy, typing, lithography and other means of reproducing words in a tangible visible form; (e) the words “including” “includes” and “include” shall be deemed to be followed by words “without limitation”; (f) references to the introductory paragraph, preliminary statements, articles, sections (or subdivision of sections), exhibits, appendices, annexes or schedules are to those of this Facilities Lease unless otherwise indicated; (g) references to agreements and other contractual instruments shall be deemed to include all subsequent amendments and other modifications to such instruments; (h) references to Persons include their respective successors and assigns to the extent successors or assigns are permitted or not prohibited by the terms of this Facilities Lease; (i) any accounting term not otherwise defined has the meaning assigned to it in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles; (j) “or” is not exclusive; (k) provisions apply to successive events and transactions; (l) references to documents or agreements which have been terminated or released or which have expired shall be of no force and effect after such termination, release, or expiration; (m) references to mail shall be deemed to refer to first-class mail, postage prepaid, unless another type of mail is specified; (n) all references to time shall be to Hammond, Louisiana time; (o) references to specific persons, positions, or officers shall include those who or which succeed to or perform their respective functions, duties, or responsibilities; and (p) the terms “herein”, “hereunder” “hereby” “hereof,” and any similar terms refer to this Facilities Lease as a whole and not to any particular articles, section or subdivision hereof.

Section 48. Relationship of Parties. The relationship of the Parties shall be one of lessor and lessee only, and shall not be considered a partnership, joint venture, license arrangement or unincorporated association. The Corporation is not controlled by the Board or under the control of any Person also in control of the Board.

Section 49. Law Between the Parties. This Facilities Lease shall constitute the law between the Parties, and if any provision of this Facilities Lease is in conflict with the provisions of “Title IX – Of Lease” of the Louisiana Civil Code, Articles 2669 through 2777, inclusive, the provisions of this Facilities Lease shall control.

Section 50. Conflicts between Existing Facilities Lease and Third Supplemental Facilities Lease. In the event any of the provisions of this Third Supplemental Facilities Lease conflict with any of the provisions of the Existing Facilities Lease, the provisions of this Third Supplemental Facilities Lease shall control.

Section 51. Notices. All notices, filings and other communications (“Notice”) shall be in writing and shall be sufficiently given and served upon the other parties if delivered by hand directly to the persons at the addresses set forth below, or shall be sent by first class mail, postage prepaid, addressed as follows:

The Board understands and agrees that Rental shall accrue from the Commencement Date hereof notwithstanding the fact that the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion have yet to be constructed. The Term of this Phase Four Facilities Lease begins on the Commencement Date and ends on the Expiration Date; provided, however, this Phase Four Facilities Lease shall terminate prior to the Expiration Date upon the happening of any of the following events:

(a) The Board has full power and authority to enter into this Phase Four Facilities Lease, the Phase Four Ground Lease, and the transactions contemplated thereby and agrees to perform all of its obligations hereunder and under the Phase Four Ground Lease;

(b) The Board has been duly authorized to execute and deliver this Phase Four Facilities Lease and the Phase Four Ground Lease and further represents and covenants that this Phase Four Facilities Lease and the Phase Four Ground Lease constitute the valid and binding obligations of the Board and that all requirements have been met and procedures have occurred in order to ensure the enforceability of this Phase Four Facilities Lease and the Phase Four Ground Lease and the Board has complied with all constitutional and other statutory requirements as may be applicable to the Board in the authorization, execution, delivery and performance of this Phase Four Facilities Lease and the Phase Four Ground Lease;

(c) The execution and delivery of this Phase Four Facilities Lease and the Phase Four Ground Lease, and compliance with the provisions hereof, will not conflict with or constitute on the part of the Board a violation of, breach of, or default under any constitutional provision, statute, law, resolution, bond indenture or other financing agreement or any other agreement or instrument to which the Board is a party or by which the Board is bound, or any order, rule or regulation of any court or Governmental Authority or body having jurisdiction over the Board or any of its activities or properties with respect to the Phase Four Facilities and the Stadium Expansion; and all consents, approvals or authorizations required of the Board for the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby have been obtained or timely will be obtained;

(d) Other than that which was previously disclosed, there is no action, suit, proceeding, inquiry or investigation, at law or in equity, before or by any court, public board or body pending or threatened against or affecting the Board, wherein an unfavorable decision, ruling or finding would materially and adversely affect the transactions contemplated hereunder or which in any way would adversely affect the validity or enforceability of this Phase Four Facilities Lease and the Phase Four Ground Lease;

(e) The Board will not take or permit to be taken any action which would have the effect, directly or indirectly, of causing interest on any of the Series 2007 Bonds to be included in gross income for federal income tax purposes;

(f) The Board agrees to cause the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion to be used for the Permitted Use and shall not allow the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion to be used for any other use. No more than five percent (5%) of the gross area of the Phase Four Facilities will be subleased by the Board or by any sublessees or assigns of the Board to, or otherwise used by, private business and the Board agrees to take all action, to the extent it is legally authorized and able to do so, necessary to prevent the Phase Four Bonds from being deemed "private activity bonds" within the meaning of Section 141 of the Code; and

(g) The use of the Phase Four Facilities is essential to the operation of the University by providing modern intermodal parking facilities for students, faculty and staff of the University. At the end of two (2) full semesters, if the Phase Four Debt Service Coverage Ratio shall remain below 1.25:1.0, the Board will be required to hire an outside consultant, approved by the Bond Insurer, and the Board will be required to follow any reasonably feasible recommendations of such consultant regarding the operation and management of the Phase Four Facilities. So long as the Board shall be working in good faith with such consultant to increase any deficient Phase Four Debt Service Coverage Ratio, there will not be an Event of Default under this Phase Four Facilities Lease unless (i) the Phase Four Debt Service Coverage Ratio shall be less than 1.25 to 1.00 for two (2) full consecutive semesters after retention of an outside consultant by the Board. For purposes of the foregoing, when establishing such fees and charges and calculating the Phase Four Debt Service Coverage Ratio, the Board will be required to take into account payments required to be made into the Debt Service Reserve Fund pursuant to the provisions of the Indenture. The Board will further covenant that it will seek any required approval necessary in order to comply with the covenant described under this subheading.

(i) Without the prior written consent of the Bond Insurer, the University will not build, acquire or renovate any similar parking facilities, whether such facilities are owned by the University or a private entity, unless (i) the Phase Four Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the prior Fiscal Year has been met, (ii) the Phase Four Debt Service Coverage Ratio is projected to be met for the two Fiscal Years following the projected completion of the proposed facility and (iii) based on a market analysis prepared by a market research company with experience in university parking facilities, which is independent from the University, the University's proposed project is not expected to have a material adverse affect on the Phase Four Facilities.

Section 4. Representations and Covenants of the Corporation. The Corporation makes the following representations and covenants:

(a) The Corporation has been validly created under the Louisiana Nonprofit Corporation Law, is currently in good standing under the laws of the State, has the power to enter into the transactions contemplated by, and to carry out its obligations under this Phase Four Facilities Lease, the Phase Four Ground Lease and the Phase Four Agreement. (b) The execution and delivery of this Phase Four Facilities Lease, the Phase Four Ground Lease and the Phase Four Agreement, and compliance with the provisions thereof and hereof, will not conflict with or constitute on the part of the Corporation a violation of, breach of, or default under any statute, indenture, mortgage, declaration or deed of trust, loan agreement or other agreement or instrument to which the Corporation is a party or by which the Corporation is bound or any order, rule or regulation of any court or Governmental Agency or body having jurisdiction over the Corporation or any of its activities or properties; and all consents, approvals and authorizations which are required of the Corporation for the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby and hereby have been or timely will be obtained;

(c) There is no action, suit, proceeding, inquiry or investigation, at law or in equity, before or by any court, public board or body pending or threatened against or affecting the Corporation, wherein an unfavorable decision, ruling or finding would materially and adversely affect the transactions contemplated hereunder or which in any way would adversely affect the validity or enforceability of this Phase Four Facilities Lease, the Phase Four Ground Lease or any agreement or instrument to which the Corporation is a party;

(d) The Corporation will not take or permit to be taken any action that would have the effect, directly or indirectly, of causing interest on any of the Series 2007 Bonds to be included in gross income for federal income tax purposes.

(e) No bonds, notes or other obligations secured by Phase Four Lawfully Available Funds may be issued except as Additional Phase Four Bonds. Additional Phase Four Bonds may be issued secured by Phase Four Lawfully Available Funds which will be on a parity with the Bonds only as and to the extent authorized and described in the Indenture, provided that, at the time of issuance thereof, no Event of Default or event which with notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing. The issuance of Additional Phase Four Bonds is permitted as follows:

(A) Additional Phase Four Bonds may be issued with the prior approval of the Bond Insurer but without the need for prior approval of the Bondholders.

(B) Bonds issued to refund the Phase Four Bonds in their entirety may be issued without the need for prior approval of the Bondholders or the Bond Insurer.

The Board further declares and acknowledges that the Corporation in connection with this Phase Four Facilities Lease, does not warrant that the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion will be upon completion of construction free from redhibitory or latent defects or vices and releases the Corporation of any liability for redhibitory or latent defects or vices under Louisiana Civil Code Articles 2520 through 2548 and Louisiana Civil Code Article 2695. The Board declares and acknowledges that it does hereby waive the warranty of fitness for intended purposes and guarantee against hidden or latent redhibitory defects and vices under Louisiana law, including Louisiana Civil Code Articles 2520 through 2548 and Louisiana Civil Code Article 2695, and the warranty imposed by Louisiana Civil Code Articles 2476 and 2695, and waives all rights in redhibition pursuant to Louisiana Civil Code Articles 2520, et seq. The Board further declares and acknowledges that this waiver has been brought to the attention of the Board and explained in detail and that the Board has voluntarily and knowingly consented to this waiver of warranty of fitness and/or warranty against redhibitory defects and vices for the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board hereby retains all of its rights to proceed against any third parties with respect to such defects.

The Corporation disclaims and the Board waives any warranties and representations with respect to compliance with Governmental Regulations, including Environmental Requirements, or the disposal of, or existence in, on, under, or about the Phase Four Facilities or the Stadium Expansion of any Hazardous Substance. The Board acknowledges that the Corporation reserves in this Phase Four Facilities Lease all rights to recover from the Board all costs and expenses imposed on the Corporation to bring the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion into compliance with any Environmental Requirement, and all costs of Remediation or cleanup of such Hazardous Substance imposed on the Corporation or the Board, which shall be payable by the Board as Phase Four Additional Rental hereunder to the extent imposed upon the Corporation.

(iii) Boiler and machinery insurance coverage against loss or damage by explosion of steam boilers, pressure vessels and similar apparatus, but only if steam boilers, pressure vessels or similar apparatus are installed on the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion, in an amount not less than $5,000,000 with deductible provisions not exceeding $100,000 per accident.

(iv) Workers' compensation insurance issued by a responsible carrier authorized under the laws of the State to insure employers against liability for compensation under the Labor Code of the State, or any act hereafter enacted as an amendment thereto or in lieu thereof, such workers' compensation insurance to cover all persons employed by the Corporation in connection with the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion and to cover full liability for compensation under any such act aforesaid.

(b) The Corporation shall:

(i) cause all of the construction professionals to secure and maintain:

(A) Comprehensive or Commercial General Liability insurance;

(B) Errors and Omissions insurance;

(C) Automobile Liability insurance;

(D) Worker's Compensation insurance;

(E) an all Risk Builder's Policy upon the construction on the Property;
and

(F) boiler and machinery or additional property insurance;

all as required by the terms of any construction contracts entered into with regards to the demolition of certain existing facilities and the renovation, development and construction of the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion.

All insurance required in this Section and all renewals of such insurance (excepting self insurance or commercial insurance, through ORM) shall be issued by commercial insurers authorized to transact business in the State, and rated at least A- by Best's Insurance Reports (property/liability) or in the two highest rating categories of S&P and Moody's. All insurance policies provided or caused to be provided by the Corporation shall expressly provide that the policies shall not be canceled or altered without thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the University and the Trustee; and shall, to the extent obtainable, provide that no act or omission of the Corporation or other provider of the insurance that would otherwise result in forfeiture or reduction of the insurance will affect or limit the obligation of the insurance company to pay the amount of any loss sustained.

All policies of liability insurance that the University is obligated to maintain according to this Phase Four Facilities Lease (other than any policy of worker's compensation insurance) will name the Corporation, the Trustee and such other Persons or firms as the University may be required to name from time to time as additional insureds and shall expressly provide that the policies shall not be cancelled or altered without thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the Corporation and the Trustee; and shall, to the extent obtainable, provide that no act or omission of the University or other provider of the insurance that would otherwise result in forfeiture or reduction of the insurance will affect or limit the obligation of the insurance company to pay the amount of any loss sustained. All public liability, property damage liability, and casualty policies maintained by the University shall be written as primary policies.

Proceeds of insurance received and/or the amount of any loss that is self-insured with respect to destruction of or damage to any portion of the Phase Four Facilities by fire, earthquake or other casualty or event shall be paid to the Trustee (or, in the case of ORM insurance, to the Board for delivery in full to the Trustee) for application in accordance with the provisions of Section 11 of this Phase Four Facilities Lease and the Phase Four Indenture.

The Corporation shall certify annually to the Bond Insurer that all insurance policies required by this Section 9 are as of the date of such certification in place and in effect with respect to the Phase Four Facilities.

Section 10. Condemnation, Casualty and Other Damage. The risk of loss or decrease in the enjoyment and beneficial use of the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion due to any damage or destruction thereof by acts of God, fire, flood, natural disaster, the elements, casualties, thefts, riots, civil strife, lockout, war, nuclear explosion or otherwise (collectively "Casualty") or in consequence of any foreclosures, attachments, levies or executions; or the taking of all or any portion of the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion by condemnation, expropriation, or eminent domain proceedings (collectively "Expropriation") is expressly assumed by the Board. The Corporation and the Trustee shall in no event be answerable, accountable or liable therefor, nor shall any of the foregoing events entitle the Board to any abatements, set-offs or counter claims with respect to its Phase Four Base Rental, Phase Four Additional Rental or any other obligation hereunder.

Section 11. Application of Insurance Proceeds; Condemnation Award. (a) If during construction, all or any portion of the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion is damaged or destroyed by a Casualty, or is taken by Expropriation proceedings, the Board shall instruct the Corporation, as expeditiously as possible, to continuously and diligently prosecute or cause to be prosecuted the repair, restoration, or replacement thereof; provided however, that the Corporation shall in no way be liable for any costs of the repair, restoration or replacement of the Phase Four Facilities or the Stadium Expansion in excess of the proceeds of any insurance or of any Expropriation award received because of such Casualty or Expropriation. Following the completion of construction and acceptance of the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion by the Board on behalf of the Corporation, the Board shall, as expeditiously as possible, continuously and diligently prosecute or cause to be prosecuted, the repair, restoration, or replacement thereof. The proceeds of any insurance, including the proceeds of any self-insurance fund, or of any Expropriation award or payment in lieu of Expropriation, received on account of any damage, destruction or taking of all or any portion of the Phase Four Facilities shall be delivered to the Trustee and held by the Trustee in trust (or in the case of self insurance through ORM, as set forth in paragraph (b) below), and shall be made available for, and to the extent necessary be applied to, such restoration, repair and replacement. Any amounts so held by the Trustee shall be disbursed to pay the costs of restoration, replacement and repair of the Phase Four Facilities with respect to which they are held, in each case promptly after receipt of a written request of the Corporation stating that the amount to be disbursed pursuant to such request will be used to pay costs of replacing or repairing or restoring the Phase Four Facilities and that no amount previously has been disbursed by the Trustee for payment of the costs to be so paid. In making such payments, the Trustee may conclusively rely upon such written requests and shall have no liability or responsibility to investigate any matter stated therein, or for any inaccuracy or misstatement therein. In no event shall the Trustee be responsible for the adequacy of the plans and specifications or construction contract relating to the replacement, restoration, or repair of the Phase Four Facilities, or for the improper use of moneys properly disbursed pursuant to request made under this Section. Any proceeds remaining on deposit with Trustee following completion of the repairs, restoration or replacement of the Phase Four Facilities shall be paid by Trustee in accordance with the terms of the Phase Four Indenture.

In the event the proceeds of any insurance, and any additional funds deposited with the Trustee, are insufficient to fully repair, restore or replace the Phase Four Facilities, the proceeds shall be paid to the Board for immediate delivery to Trustee and used to redeem the Outstanding Phase Four Bonds.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation's obligation to replace the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion in the event of Expropriation Proceedings is dependent on the Board entering into a lease with a different portion of the Campus as provided in Section 13.03 of the Phase Four Ground Lease. In the event it is necessary to restore or replace the Phase Four Facilities or the Stadium Expansion in a different location because of the Expropriation of all or a portion of the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion, the Corporation and the Board agree to amend or enter into a new Facilities Lease and Ground Lease in accordance with Sections 13.03 of the Phase Four Ground Lease. In the event the Board, pursuant to the Phase Four Ground Lease, decides not to repair, restore or replace the Phase Four Facilities for any reason, all insurance proceeds received or payable as a result of such Casualty, or all proceeds received or payable as a result of Expropriation proceedings (including payments received or payable in lieu of Expropriation) shall be paid to the Board for immediate delivery to the Trustee and applied to the prepayment of the Phase Four Bonds in accordance with the terms of the Phase Four Indenture, and this Phase Four Facilities Lease and the Phase Four Ground Lease shall terminate on the date that the events described in Section 2 (a) or 2 (b) hereof have occurred.

(b) In the event that ORM insures the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion, the Board shall use the insurance proceeds received from ORM in accordance with Policy and Procedure Memorandum Number 10 (requiring invoices to be submitted to ORM for payment to vendors, or alternatively, production of invoices paid by the Board to ORM for reimbursement of vendor payments) to effect the repair, restoration or replacement of the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion.

Section 12. Encumbrances.

(a) Payment by the Board. The Board shall pay or cause to be paid all costs and charges for alterations, improvements, additions, repairs and maintenance ("Work") (i) done by the Board or caused to be done by the Board in or to the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion, and (ii) for all materials furnished for or in connection with such Work. The Corporation reserves all rights to collect for any loss or damage sustained or incurred by the Corporation resulting from any and all Encumbrances, demands or liabilities arising on account of the Work, which shall be payable by the Board as Additional Rent hereunder.

(b) Failure to Discharge. If the Board fails to pay any charge for which an Encumbrance has been filed, and the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion or any portion thereof is placed in imminent danger of being seized, the Corporation may, but shall not be obligated to, pay such charge and related costs and interest, and the amount so paid, together with reasonable Legal Expenses incurred in connection with such Encumbrance, will be immediately due from the Board to the Corporation as Phase Four Additional Rental. Nothing contained in this Phase Four Facilities Lease will be deemed the consent or agreement of the Corporation to subject the Corporation's interest in the Phase Four Facilities or the Stadium Expansion to liability under any Encumbrance, or any mechanics', materialman's or other lien law. If the Board receives written notice that an Encumbrance has been or is about to be filed against the Phase Four Facilities or the Stadium Expansion, or that any action affecting title to the Phase Four Facilities or the Stadium Expansion has been commenced on account of Work done by or for the Board or for materials furnished to or for the Board, it shall immediately give the Corporation Notice of such notice.

(c) Notice of Work. At least fifteen (15) days prior to the commencement of any Work in or to the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion, by or for the University, the University shall give the Corporation Notice of the proposed Work and the names and addresses of the Persons supplying labor and materials for the proposed Work. The Corporation will have the right to post notices of nonresponsibility or similar written notices on the Phase Four Facilities and the Stadium Expansion in order to protect the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion against any such claimants.

Section 13. Assignment and Sublease. (a) Neither this Phase Four Facilities Lease nor any interest of the Board in the Phase Four Facilities shall be mortgaged, pledged, assigned or transferred by the Board by voluntary act or by operation of law, or otherwise; provided, however, the Board may sublease all or any portion of the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion, or grant concessions involving the use of all or any portion of the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion, whether such concessions purport to convey a leasehold interest or a license to use all or a portion of the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion to any University student, faculty, staff or Permitted Sublessee. No such concession, leasehold interest or license to use the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion shall be granted to any University students, faculty or staff for a term of more than one (1) year. The Board shall, however, at all times remain liable for the performance of the covenants and conditions on its part to be performed under this Phase Four Facilities Lease (including, without limitation, the payment of Phase Four Base Rental and Phase Four Additional Rental), notwithstanding any subletting or granting of concessions which may be made. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to relieve the Board from its obligations to pay Phase Four Base Rental and Phase Four Additional Rental as provided in this Phase Four Facilities Lease or to relieve the Board from any other obligations contained herein. Other than subleases to University students, faculty, staff and Permitted Sublessees, in no event will the Board sublease or permit the use of all or any part of the Phase Four Facilities to any person without an opinion of Bond Counsel that such will not cause interest on the Phase Four Bonds to be included in the gross income of the owners of the Series 2007 Bonds for federal income tax purposes.

(b) The Corporation shall, concurrently with the execution hereof, assign all of its right, title and interest in and to this Phase Four Facilities Lease, including without limitation its right to receive Phase Four Base Rental payable hereunder, to the Issuer pursuant to the Phase Four Agreement, and the Issuer will in turn assign its rights under this Phase Four Facilities Lease to the Trustee pursuant to the Phase Four Indenture. The parties hereto further agree to execute any and all documents necessary and proper in connection therewith. Anything required or permitted to be done by the Corporation under this Phase Four Facilities Lease may be done by the Trustee under the Phase Four Indenture.

(c) Except as set forth in Section 13(b) hereof, the Corporation shall not sell or assign its interest in the Facility or this Phase Four Facilities Lease without the prior written consent of the Board.

Section 14. Additions and Improvements Removal. At the expiration of the Term, or termination of this Phase Four Facilities Lease, all alterations, fixtures, improvements and additions made by the Board or the University and all equipment placed upon the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion that are incorporated into or made into component parts of the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion, as well as, title to all property, furniture, equipment, fixtures, and other property installed at or placed upon the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion by the Board which is not incorporated into or made a component part of the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion remain the property of the Board.

The Board hereby agrees to replace such property from time to time as such property becomes worn out, obsolete, inadequate, unsuitable or undesirable. The Board may add to or remove such property from time to time, and upon expiration of the Term, provided that the Board repairs any damage to the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion caused by such removal.

Section 15. Right of Entry. Representatives of the Corporation and the Bond Insurer shall, subject to reasonable security precautions, and upon giving the Board not less than twenty-four (24) hours advance Notice, have the right to enter upon the Phase Four Facilities during reasonable business hours (and in emergencies without notice and at all times) accompanied by a Board Representative (i) to inspect the same, (ii) for any purpose connected with the rights or obligations of the Corporation under this Phase Four Facilities Lease, or (iii) for all other lawful purposes. Any right of access to any portion of the Phase Four Facilities leased to the students, faculty, staff or Permitted Sublessees shall be subject to their rights pursuant to their rental agreements and University policy.

Section 16. Mortgage Prohibition. Except as set forth in the Phase Four Indenture, the Phase Four Ground Lease and the Phase Four Agreement, the Corporation shall not be entitled to mortgage or grant a security interest in the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion.

Section 17. Sale of Phase Four Facilities; Attornment; and Conveyance and Transfer of the Corporation's Interest. If a person other than the Corporation shall succeed to the rights of the Corporation hereunder (in any case with the prior written consent of the Board as required hereby), upon the declaration of the successor to the Corporation's interest in this Phase Four Facilities Lease, the Board agrees to fully attorn to and recognize any such successor as the Board's landlord under this Phase Four Facilities Lease upon the then existing terms of this Phase Four Facilities Lease, provided that such successor shall agree in writing to accept the Board's attornment and not to disturb the Board's possession so long as the Board shall observe the provisions and all covenants of this Phase Four Facilities Lease. This attornment provision shall inure to the benefit of any such successor and shall be self-operative upon the election and declaration by such successor, and no further instrument shall be required to give effect to the provisions. However, the Board agrees to evidence and confirm the foregoing attornment provisions by the execution and delivery of instruments in recordable form satisfactory to such successor.

If the Phase Four Facilities or the Stadium Expansion, or any part thereof, shall be sold or otherwise transferred by sale, assignment, transfer or other contract, or by operation of law or otherwise (in the case of the Phase Four Facilities, with the prior written consent of the Board as required hereby and with an opinion of Bond Counsel that such action will not cause interest on the Series 2007 Bonds to be included in the gross income of the owner of the Series 2007 Bonds for federal tax purposes), and if such written consent specifically so provides, the Corporation shall be automatically and entirely released and discharged to the extent of the interest in or the portion of the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion sold, assigned or transferred from and after the effective date of such sale, assignment or transfer of all liability for the performance of any of the covenants of this Phase Four Facilities Lease on the part of the Corporation thereafter to be performed. The purchaser or other transferee of the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion shall be deemed to have agreed to perform such covenants of the Corporation from and after the date of such assignment or sale during such transferee's period of ownership of the Corporation's interest under this Phase Four Facilities Lease, all without further agreement between the Corporation, its successor and the Board. The Corporation's transferee shall not be held responsible for the performance of any of the covenants of this Phase Four Facilities Lease on the part of the Corporation required to be performed prior to such sale and transfer, the Board reserving its rights against the Corporation for any unperformed covenants prior to such sale or transfer.

Section 18. Quiet Enjoyment. The Corporation covenants that the Board, on paying the Rental and performing and observing all of the covenants and agreements herein contained and provided to be performed by the Board or the University, shall and may peaceably and quietly have, hold, occupy, use, and enjoy the Phase Four Facilities and the Stadium Expansion during the Term and may exercise all of its rights hereunder; and the Corporation agrees to warrant and forever defend the Board's right to such occupancy, use, and enjoyment and the title to the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion against the claims of any and all persons whomsoever lawfully claiming the same, or any part thereof subject only to the provisions of this Phase Four Facilities Lease.

Section 19. Environmental Compliance and Indemnity.

(a) Environmental Compliance. The Board or the University shall operate or cause to be operated the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion in compliance with all Environmental Requirements continuously during the Term, and for such periods of time prior to the Commencement Date and after the Expiration Date, as long as the Board is in possession of the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion, in whole or in part. The Board shall not cause or permit any Hazardous Substance to be brought upon, kept, or used in or about the Phase Four Facilities, the Phase Four Facilities Land, the Stadium Expansion or the Stadium Expansion Land, except for such Hazardous Substance as is necessary or useful to the operation of the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion.

(b) The Board's Liability. If the Board fails to comply with any of the foregoing warranties, representations, and covenants, and removal or Remediation of any Hazardous Substance found on the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion is required by Environmental Requirements or Governmental Authority, the Board shall promptly undertake the removal or Remediation of such Hazardous Substance, at the Board's sole cost and expense. In the event the Board fails or refuses to undertake such removal or Remedial actions, the Corporation may cause the removal or Remediation (or other cleanup reasonable acceptable to the Corporation) of any such Hazardous Substance from the Phase Four Facilities, the Phase Four Facilities Land, the Stadium Expansion or the Stadium Expansion Land. The reasonable costs of removal, Remediation, or any other cleanup (including transportation and storage costs) will be considered as Phase Four Additional Rental under this Phase Four Facilities Lease, whether or not a court has ordered the cleanup, and those costs will become due and payable within ninety (90) days of written demand by the Corporation. In connection therewith, the Board will give the Corporation, its agents, and employees access to the Phase Four Facilities and/or the Stadium Expansion to remove, remediate, or otherwise clean up any Hazardous Substance. The Corporation, however, has no affirmative obligation to remove, remediate, or otherwise clean up any Hazardous Substance, and this Phase Four Facilities Lease will not be construed as creating any such obligation. The Board hereby agrees that it shall be fully liable for all costs and expenses related to the use, storage, and disposal of any Hazardous Substance located in or about the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion by the Board.

Section 20. The Corporation's Reservation of Rights.

(a) The Corporation hereby reserves all of its rights to recover from the Board for any and all Claims asserted against the Corporation, including Litigation Expenses arising out of or by reason of:

(i) any injury to or death of any person or damage to property occurring on or about the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion occasioned by or growing out of or arising or resulting from any tortious or negligent act on the part of the Board in connection with the operation and management of the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion; or

(ii) any failure, breach, or default on the part of the Board in the performance of or compliance with any of the obligations of the Board under the terms of this Phase Four Facilities Lease.

(b) Notwithstanding the fact that it is the intention of the parties that the Corporation shall not incur any pecuniary liability by reason of the terms of this Phase Four Facilities Lease or the undertakings required of the Corporation hereunder, nevertheless, if the Corporation should incur any such pecuniary liability, then in that event, the Corporation shall be entitled to assert all rights and remedies granted in law or in equity to recover from the Board the amount of any pecuniary liability incurred by the Corporation, plus all Litigation Expenses incurred in defense of such liability to the extent subject to indemnification pursuant to Subsection (a) above.

(c) No recourse shall be had for the enforcement of any obligation, covenant, or agreement of the Corporation contained in this Phase Four Facilities Lease or any Claim based thereon against the Corporation or of any successor thereto or member thereof, either directly or through the Corporation whether by virtue of any constitutional provision, statute, or rule of law. This Phase Four Facilities Lease and the obligations of the Corporation hereunder, and any Claim asserted against the Corporation are solely corporate obligations, and the enforcement of any obligation or Claim shall be limited solely to the Corporation's interest in the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion. No personal liability shall attach to, or be incurred by, any officer, director, agent, employee or member of the Corporation and the Board acknowledges that all personal liability of any character against every such officer, director, agent, employee or member by the execution of this Phase Four Facilities Lease, is expressly waived and released. The immunity of any officer, director, agent, employee or member of the Corporation under the provisions contained in this Section 20 shall survive any acquisition of the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion by the Board and the expiration or other termination of this Phase Four Facilities Lease.

Section 21. Default by the Board. If (i) the Board shall fail to deposit with the Trustee any Phase Four Base Rental payment required to be so deposited pursuant to Section 6 hereof by the close of business on the day such deposit is required pursuant to Section 6 hereof, and shall fail to remedy such breach within five (5) days thereof, but in no event later than the date on which such payment is required to enable the Corporation to make payment on the Phase Four Bonds (without use of moneys held in the Debt Service Reserve Fund), or (ii) the Board shall fail to pay or discharge any monetary obligation under this Lease (other than the payment of Phase Four Base Rental) as and when due, or within thirty (30) days after receipt of Notice from the Corporation that such sums are due and owing; or (iii) the Board shall breach any non-monetary terms, covenants or conditions herein, and (except with regard to any breach of the covenant set forth in Section 3(h) which section contains the timeframe whereby the failure to meet the Phase Four Debt Service Coverage Ratio shall be come an Event of Default) shall fail to remedy any such breach with all reasonable dispatch within a reasonable period of time (or such longer period as the Bond Insurer may approve) after written notice thereof from the Corporation to the Board, then and in any such event the Board shall be deemed to be in default hereunder, and the Corporation shall have the right, at its option, without any further demand or notice to terminate this Phase Four Facilities Lease on the earliest date permitted by law or on any later date specified in any Notice given to the Board, in which case the Board's right to possession of the Phase Four Facilities and the Stadium Expansion will cease and this Phase Four Facilities Lease will be terminated, without, however, waiving the Corporation's right to collect all Rental and other payments due or owing for the period up to the time the Corporation regains possession (which have been approved for payment under this Phase Four Facilities Lease, but not paid by the Board), and to enforce other obligations of the Board which survive termination of this Phase Four Facilities Lease, and in such event the Corporation may without any further demand or notice re-enter the Phase Four Facilities and the Stadium Expansion and eject all parties in possession thereof, subject to the rights of students, faculty, staff and Permitted Sublessees. The foregoing remedies of the Corporation are in addition to and not exclusive of any other remedy of the Corporation. Any such re-entry shall be allowed by the Board without hindrance, and the Corporation shall not be liable in damages for any such re-entry or be guilty of trespass. The Corporation understands and agrees that upon its termination of the Board's right to possession of the Phase Four Facilities and the Stadium Expansion or termination of this Phase Four Facilities Lease, the Corporation upon its re-entry of the Phase Four Facilities shall only be allowed to use the Phase Four Facilities and the Stadium Expansion for the Permitted Use and shall be subject to all applicable Governmental Regulations heretofore or hereafter enacted by any Governmental Authority relating to the use and operation of the Phase Four Facilities and the Stadium Expansion.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Phase Four Facilities Lease, (i) in no event shall the Corporation have the right to accelerate the payment of any Phase Four Base Rental payment hereunder and (ii) the Bond Insurer shall have ninety (90) days to cure an Event of Default hereunder.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 21 to the contrary, a failure by the Board to pay when due any payment required to be made under this Phase Four Facilities Lease or a failure by the Board to observe and perform any covenant, condition or agreement on its part to be observed or performed under this Phase Four Facilities Lease, resulting from a failure by the Board to appropriate moneys shall not constitute an Event of Default under this Section 21 and the Corporation shall not have any of the remedial rights set forth in this Section 21. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in such event the Board acknowledges that the Phase Four Facilities Lease shall terminate and the Board shall immediately vacate the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion, and deliver the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion to the Corporation.

Section 22. Cumulative Remedies. Each right and remedy provided for in this Phase Four Facilities Lease is cumulative and is in addition to every other right or remedy provided for in this Phase Four Facilities Lease or now or after the Commencement Date existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise, and the exercise or beginning of the exercise by the Corporation of any one or more of the rights or remedies provided for in this Phase Four Facilities Lease or now or after the Commencement Date existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise will not preclude the simultaneous or later exercise by the Corporation of any or all other rights or remedies provided for in this Phase Four Facilities Lease or now or after the Commencement Date existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise. All costs incurred by the Corporation in collecting any amounts and damages owing by the Board pursuant to the provisions of this Phase Four Facilities Lease or to enforce any provision of this Phase Four Facilities Lease, including reasonable Litigation Expenses from the date any such matter is turned over to an attorney, whether or not one or more actions are commenced by the Corporation, will also be recoverable by the Corporation from the Board. The waiver by the Corporation of any breach by the Board and the waiver by the Board of any breach by the Corporation of any term, covenant or condition hereof shall not operate as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other term, covenant or condition hereof.

Section 23. Option to Purchase. For and in consideration of the obligations of the Board under this Phase Four Facilities Lease, the mutual undertakings of the parties, the receipt and adequacy of which is hereby acknowledged, the Corporation grants to the Board an exclusive and irrevocable option to purchase for the price and on the terms, provisions, stipulations and conditions hereinafter set forth, all but not less than all of the Corporation's leasehold interest in that portion of the Phase Four Facilities and/or Stadium Expansion.

(a) Effective Date. The effective date of this Option agreement shall be the Commencement Date.

(b) Term of Option. The Option shall expire at midnight Central Standard Time, on the Expiration Date, or upon the termination of this Phase Four Facilities Lease, whichever occurs first.

(c) Limitation on Exercise of Option. The Board may not exercise the Option, and the Option shall be voidable, at the sole election of the Corporation, if a Default by the Board has occurred and is continuing under the Phase Four Facilities Lease, and the applicable time period in which the Board may cure such default has expired. Notwithstanding any provision of this Option to the contrary, the Board shall be entitled to exercise the Option as long as the Board is legally obligated to make payments of Phase Four Base Rental under the Phase Four Facilities Lease.

(d) Exercise of Option. The Board may exercise the Option herein granted at any time on or before expiration of the Term with respect to the Stadium Expansion and on any Interest Payment Date on or after August 1, 2014 or on the date the Phase Four Bonds are defeased pursuant to Article XII of the Phase Four Indenture with respect to the Phase Four Facilities, by Notice to the Corporation of its election to exercise the Option and purchase the Corporation's interest in and to such Phase Four Facilities given not less than sixty (60) days prior to the date on which the Board desires to purchase such portion of the Phase Four Facilities.

(e) Purchase Price. The Purchase Price (i) for the Phase Four Facilities shall be equal to the principal of all Phase Four Bonds then Outstanding plus the interest to accrue on such Phase Four Bonds until the purchase date plus any prepayment penalties, charges or costs for early prepayment or defeasance of the Phase Four Bonds and any Administrative Expenses owed prior to the purchase date which payments are necessary to discharge the Phase Four Indenture pursuant to Article XII thereof ; and (ii) for the Stadium Expansion shall be one dollar ($1.00) (collectively, the "Purchase Price").

(f) Effect on Facilities Lease and Ground Lease. Upon the purchase of the Corporation's leasehold interest in the Phase Four Facilities or the Stadium Expansion, as the case may be, by the Board pursuant to this Option, the Phase Four Facilities Lease and the Phase Four Ground Lease shall terminate with respect to that portion of the Phase Four Facilities Land or the Stadium Expansion Land, as applicable, and that portion of the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion and all of the Corporation's leasehold interest in that portion of the Phase Four Facilities Land or the Stadium Expansion Land, as applicable, and that portion of the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion under the Phase Four Facilities Lease shall terminate but shall continue in effect with respect to that portion of the Phase Four Facilities or Stadium Expansion not so purchased. A purchase of the Corporation's leasehold interest in the Stadium Expansion shall (A) require an opinion of Bond Counsel that such purchase will not cause interest on the Phase Four Bonds to be included in the gross income of the owners of the Series 2007 Bonds for Federal income tax purposes and (B) not reduce the Rental payable by the Board hereunder.

(g) Payment of Purchase Price. The Board, on the purchase date, shall deposit an amount equal to the applicable Purchase Price with the Trustee in the case of the Phase Four Facilities and with the Corporation with respect to the Stadium Expansion.

(i) Conveyance. In the event of and upon the payment of the applicable Purchase Price and any other sums due under this Phase Four Facilities Lease by the Board, the Corporation will on the purchase date execute and deliver to the Board a written cancellation of the Phase Four Ground Lease and this Phase Four Facilities Lease with respect to that portion of the Phase Four Facilities and/or the Stadium Expansion.

(ii) Assignment of Contract Rights and Obligations. The conveyance of the Corporation's leasehold interest in any portion of the Phase Four Facilities and/or the Stadium Expansion shall also effect a transfer and assignment of all rights, warranties and liabilities of the Corporation under then existing contracts of any nature with respect to that portion of the Phase Four Facilities and/or the Stadium Expansion.

(h) Closing. In the event the Option is timely exercised, notice of the Board's election to the Corporation shall constitute an irrevocable conversion of the Option into a binding obligation of the Corporation to sell its leasehold interest in that portion of the Phase Four Facilities and/or the Stadium Expansion and the Board to buy the same under the terms and conditions set forth in this Section 23, and in such event, the Corporation and the Board shall have the right to demand specific performance of this agreement by the other. The closing shall occur at the offices of the Board or its counsel, or at such other time, place, and date as agreed upon by the Corporation and the Board.

(i) Closing Costs. The Board shall pay all closing costs and charges incident to the conveyance of the Corporation's interest in the Phase Four Facilities Land, the Stadium Expansion Land, the Phase Four Facilities and the Stadium Expansion.

(j) No Warranty. The Corporation shall convey its leasehold interest in the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion without any warranty whatsoever of any nature. The conveyance of the leasehold interest in the Phase Four Facilities and Stadium Expansion shall be without any warranty as to fitness and condition, as set forth in Section 5 of this Phase Four Facilities Lease. Language substantially similar to the language contained in Section 5 of this Phase Four Facilities Lease shall be incorporated into and made a part of such conveyance. In no event shall the Corporation be responsible for any defects in title.

(k) Default under the Option:

(i) In the event the Option is exercised, and the Corporation fails to consummate the transactions contemplated herein for any reason, except default by the Board or the failure of the Board to satisfy any of the conditions set forth herein, the Board may, in addition to any other rights and remedies which may otherwise be available to the Board, enforce this agreement by specific performance. The Board's remedies under this Section are expressly subject to the provisions of Section 30 of this Phase Four Facilities Lease.

(ii) In the event the Option is exercised, and the Board fails to consummate the transactions contemplated herein for any reason, except default by the Corporation or the failure of the Corporation to satisfy any of the conditions set forth herein, the Corporation (a) may enforce this agreement by specific performance and in such action shall have the right to recover damages suffered by reason of the Board's delay; or (b) may bring suit for damages for breach of this agreement.

(iii) No delay or omission in the exercise of any right or remedy accruing to either party upon any breach by the other party under this Section 23 shall impair such right or remedy or be construed as a waiver of any such breach theretofore or thereafter occurring. The waiver by either party of any condition or any subsequent breach of the same or any other term, covenant or condition contained in this Section 23 shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any other condition or of any subsequent breach of the same or of any other term, covenant or condition herein contained.

(l) Attorney's Fees. Should either party employ an attorney or attorneys to enforce any of the provisions hereof, or to protect its interest in any matter arising under this agreement, or to recover damages for the breach of this agreement, the party prevailing in any final judgment shall have the right to collect from the losing party all Litigation Expenses incurred in enforcing such rights.

(m) Notices. Any notices required or permitted under this Section 23 shall be in writing and delivered either in person to the other party, or the other party's authorized agent, or by United States Certified Mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, to the address set forth in Section 50 of this Phase Four Facilities Lease, or to such other address as either party may designate in writing and delivered as herein provided.

(n) Assignability. Except as set forth in the Phase Four Indenture or the Phase Four Ground Lease, the Option may not be assigned by the Corporation or its interest in the Phase

Four Facilities and/or the Stadium Expansion sold (subject to the Option or otherwise) to any person or entity without the Board's prior written consent, which consent may be withheld by the Board in its sole discretion.

(o) Time of Essence. Time is of the essence of this Option.

(p) Binding Effect. This Option shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their heirs, successors and assigns.

Section 24. Severability. If any provisions of this Phase Four Facilities Lease shall be invalid, inoperative or unenforceable as applied in any particular case in any jurisdiction or jurisdictions or in all jurisdictions, or in all cases because it conflicts with any other provision or provisions hereof or any constitution or statute or rule of public policy, or for any other reason, such circumstances shall not have the effect of rendering the provision in question inoperative or unenforceable in any other case or circumstance, or of rendering any other provision or provisions herein contained invalid, inoperative or unenforceable, to any extent whatever. The invalidity of any one or more phrases, sentences, clauses or Sections contained in this Phase Four Facilities Lease shall not affect the remaining portions of this Phase Four Facilities Lease, or any part thereof.

Section 25. Redemption of Phase Four Bonds. The Corporation agrees that it will not exercise its option to redeem any Phase Four Bonds pursuant to the Phase Four Indenture unless the Board consents to such redemption or such redemption is to be effected with moneys derived from a source other than payments made by the Board under this Phase Four Facilities Lease, however, in no event shall the mandatory redemption of any Phase Four Bonds pursuant to the Phase Four Indenture require the consent of the Board. The Corporation further agrees that if requested by the Board it will take all actions necessary to redeem all or any portion of the Phase Four Bonds designated by the Board on the first date that it may do so under the terms of the Phase Four Indenture so long as the Board agrees to provide funds in an amount, and at the time, required to effect such redemption.

Section 26. Additional Phase Four Bonds. Upon the request and at the expense of the Board, the Corporation shall take action as may be required to effect the issuance of Additional Phase Four Bonds in such amount as the Board may request as permitted by and in accordance with the provisions of the Phase Four Indenture for any purpose permitted thereby.

Section 27. Execution. This Phase Four Facilities Lease may be simultaneously executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original, and all of which together shall constitute one and the same Phase Four Facilities Lease.

Section 28. Law Governing. This Phase Four Facilities Lease is made in the State under the constitution and laws of the State and is to be governed by the laws of the State.

Section 29. Nonappropriation of Funds. In the event no funds or insufficient funds are lawfully appropriated in any Fiscal Year enabling the payment of Phase Four Base Rental and Phase Four Additional Rental due during the next succeeding Fiscal Year, the Board will immediately notify the Corporation and the Trustee of such occurrence. On the first day of the month following the Phase Four Base Rental payment date on which the last payment of Phase Four Base Rental can be made in full from Phase Four Lawfully Available Funds, this Phase Four Facilities Lease shall terminate as to the Phase Four Facilities without penalty or expense to the Board of any kind whatsoever, except as to the portions of Phase Four Base Rental and Phase Four Additional Rental payments herein agreed upon for Fiscal Years for which sufficient funds have been lawfully appropriated. In the event of such termination, the Board agrees peaceably to surrender possession of the Phase Four Facilities to the Corporation on the date of such termination in its original condition (normal wear and tear excepted). The Corporation will have all legal and equitable rights and remedies to take possession of the Phase Four Facilities and re-let or sell the Phase Four Facilities as the Corporation determines and as granted in this Phase Four Facilities Lease. The Board acknowledges that the Corporation's rights to take possession and to re-let or sell the Phase Four Facilities under this Section 29 may be assigned to the Trustee for the benefit of the owners of the Phase Four Bonds, and the Board agrees that the Trustee shall be entitled to exercise all of the rights of the Corporation under this Section 29. The event of an inability by the Board to cause the appropriation of sufficient funds for the payment of sums due under this Phase Four Facilities Lease shall not constitute a default hereunder, but shall ipso facto terminate this Phase Four Facilities Lease as to the Phase Four Facilities. This provision is operative notwithstanding any provisions of this Phase Four Facilities Lease to the contrary. The Board shall be considered in default hereunder if sufficient funds are lawfully appropriated for the payment of Rental required under this Phase Four Facilities Lease and the Board fails to use lawfully appropriated funds for the payment of Rental. In such event, the Corporation shall be entitled to the rights and remedies set forth in Sections 21 and 22 hereof.

Section 30. Exculpatory Provision. In the exercise of the powers of the Corporation and its trustees, officers, employees and agents under this Phase Four Facilities Lease and the Phase Four Indenture, the Corporation shall not be accountable or liable to the Board (i) for any actions taken or omitted by it or its officers, employees or agents in good faith and believed by it or them to be authorized or within their discretion or rights or powers conferred upon them, or (ii) for any claims based on this Phase Four Facilities Lease against any officer, employee or agent of the Corporation in his or her personal capacity, all such liability, if any, being expressly waived by the Board by the execution of this Phase Four Facilities Lease. Nothing in this Phase Four Facilities Lease or the Phase Four Indenture is intended to require or obligate, nor shall anything herein or therein be interpreted to require or obligate, the Corporation for any purpose or at any time whatsoever, to provide, apply or expend any funds coming into the hands of the Corporation other than the funds derived from the issuance of the Phase Four Bonds under the Phase Four Indenture and moneys derived pursuant to the Phase Four Indenture and this Phase Four Facilities Lease.

The Board specifically agrees to look solely to the Corporation's interest in the Phase Four Facilities and the Stadium Expansion for the recovery of any judgments from the Corporation. It is agreed that the Corporation will not be personally liable for any such judgments, or incur any pecuniary liability as a result of this Phase Four Facilities Lease to the Board, or the breach of its obligations hereunder. The Corporation's liability under this Phase Four Facilities Lease is "in rem" as to its interest in the Phase Four Facilities and the Stadium Expansion. The provisions contained in the preceding sentences are not intended to and will not limit any right that the Board might otherwise have to obtain injunctive relief against the Corporation or relief in any suit or action in connection with enforcement or collection of amounts that may become owing or payable under or on account of insurance maintained by the Corporation.

Section 31. Amendments. This Phase Four Facilities Lease may be amended only as permitted in Article VIII of the Phase Four Agreement.

Section 32. Recording. The Corporation covenants and agrees that it will promptly record and from time to time re-record a memorandum in recordable form of this Phase Four Facilities Lease and the Phase Four Indenture and all supplements thereto and hereto in such manner and in such places as may be required by law in order to fully protect and preserve the security of the holders or owners of the Phase Four Bonds.

Section 33. Construction Against Drafting Party. The Corporation and the Board acknowledge that each of them and their counsel have had an opportunity to review this Phase Four Facilities Lease and that each Party was responsible for the drafting thereof.

Section 34. Time of the Essence. Time is of the essence of each and every provision of this Phase Four Facilities Lease.

Section 35. No Waiver. The waiver by the Corporation of any agreement, condition, or provision contained in this Phase Four Facilities Lease will not be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other agreement, condition, or provision contained in this Phase Four Facilities Lease, nor will any custom or practice that may grow up between the parties in the administration of the terms of this Phase Four Facilities Lease be construed to waive or to lessen the right of the Corporation to insist upon the performance by the Board in strict accordance with the terms of this Phase Four Facilities Lease. The subsequent acceptance of Rental by the Corporation will not be deemed to be a waiver of any preceding breach by the Board of any agreement, condition, or provision of this Phase Four Facilities Lease, other than the failure of the Board to pay the particular Rental so accepted, regardless of the Corporation's knowledge of such preceding breach at the time of acceptance of such Rental.

Section 36. Survival. To the extent permitted by law and to the extent such will not constitute the incurrence of debt by the Board, all of the Corporation's remedies and rights of recovery under Sections 19 and 20 of this Phase Four Facilities Lease shall survive the Term and/or the purchase of the Phase Four Facilities by the Board under the Option.

Section 37. Counterparts. This Phase Four Facilities Lease may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

Section 38. Estoppel Certificates. At any time and from time to time but within ten (10) days after prior written request by the Corporation, the Board will execute, acknowledge, and deliver to the Corporation, promptly upon request but only to the extent accurate, a certificate certifying (i) that this Phase Four Facilities Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect or, if there have been modifications, that this Phase Four Facilities Lease is in full force and effect, as modified, and stating the date and nature of each modification; (ii) the date, if any, to which Rental and other sums payable under this Phase Four Facilities Lease have been paid; (iii) that no Notice of any default has been delivered to the Corporation which default has not

No delay in the Date of Opening of the Facilities beyond the time set forth in the Ground Lease will extend the Term. The Term of this Facilities Lease begins on the Commencement Date and ends on the Expiration Date; provided, however, this Facilities Lease shall terminate prior to the Expiration Date upon the happening of any of the following events:

(a) repayment of the Bonds in full, including principal, premium, if any, interest and all Administrative Expenses with respect to the Bonds or the defeasance of the Bonds, all as set forth in the Indenture;

Upon the termination of the Facilities Lease under the circumstances set forth in Section 2(a) above, at the Board's option, the Board may require the demolition of the Facilities as set forth in Section 12.02 of the Ground Lease.

Section 3. Acknowledgments, Representations and Covenants of the Board. The Board represents, covenants and agrees as follows:

(a) The Board has full power and authority to enter into this Facilities Lease, the Ground Lease, and the transactions contemplated thereby and agrees to perform all of its obligations hereunder and under the Ground Lease;

(b) The Board has been duly authorized to execute and deliver this Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease and further represents and covenants that this Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease constitute the valid and binding obligations of the Board and that all requirements have been met and procedures have occurred in order to ensure the enforceability of this Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease and the Board has complied with all constitutional and other statutory requirements as may be applicable to the Board in the authorization, execution, delivery and performance of this Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease;

(c) The execution and delivery of this Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease, and compliance with the provisions hereof, will not conflict with or constitute on the part of the Board a violation of, breach of, or default under any constitutional provision, statute, law, resolution, bond indenture or other financing agreement or any other agreement or instrument to which the Board is a party or by which the Board is bound, or any order, rule or regulation of any court or Governmental Authority or body having jurisdiction over the Board or any of its activities or properties with respect to the Facilities; and all consents, approvals or authorizations required of the Board for the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby have been obtained or timely will be obtained;

(d) Other than that which was previously disclosed, there is no action, suit, proceeding, inquiry or investigation, at law or in equity, before or by any court, public board or body pending or threatened against or affecting the Board, wherein an unfavorable decision, ruling or finding would materially and adversely affect the transactions contemplated hereunder or which in any way would adversely affect the validity or enforceability of this Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease;

(e) The Board will not take or permit to be taken any action which would have the effect, directly or indirectly, of causing interest on any of the Series 2004A Bonds and the Series 2004B Bonds to be included in gross income for federal income tax purposes;

(f) The Board agrees to cause the Facilities to be used for the Permitted Use and shall not allow the Facilities to be used for any other use. No more than five percent (5%) of the gross area of the Facilities will be subleased by the Board or by any sublessees or assigns of the Board to, or otherwise used by, private business and the Board agrees to take all action, to the extent it is legally authorized and able to do so, necessary to prevent the Bonds from being deemed "private activity bonds" within the meaning of Section 141 of the Code; and

(g) The use of the Facilities is essential to the operation of the University by providing modern housing and related facilities for students, faculty and staff of the University. The Board presently intends to make all payments from Lawfully Available Funds for use of the Facilities. There are no alternative facilities available for use as contemplated for the Facilities since there is currently a shortage of available, modern on-campus housing at the University.

(h) The Board covenants that, as long as any bonds, notes or lease obligations remain outstanding that are payable from Lawfully Available Funds, if the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Facilities falls below 1.10:1.00 or the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University falls below 1.25:1.0, the Board shall use its best efforts to raise its fees, rentals, rates and charges relating to the Facilities so that within two (2) full semesters after either of the Debt Service Coverage Ratios becomes deficient, the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Facilities equals 1.10:1.00 and the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University equals 1.25:1.0. At the end of two (2) full semesters, if the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Facilities is still below 1.10:1.00 or the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University is still below 1.25:1.0, the Board shall hire an outside consultant, approved by the Bond Insurer, and the Board shall follow any reasonably feasible recommendations of such consultant regarding the operation and management of the Facilities, including raising fees and rents, reducing expenses and, if necessary, increasing the average occupancy rate through strict enforcement of parietal rules requiring students to reside on campus and, to the extent legally possible, revising parietal rules to increase the number of students required to reside on campus. So long as the Board is working in good faith with such consultant to increase any deficient Debt Service Coverage Ratio, there shall not be an Event of Default hereunder unless (i) the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Facilities is less than 1.00:1.00 at the end of any Fiscal Year or (ii) the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Facilities is less than 1.10 to 1.00 for two (2) full consecutive semesters after retention of an outside consultant by the Board. For purposes of the foregoing, when establishing such fees, rentals, rates and charges and calculating each Debt Service Coverage Ratio for this Section, the Board shall take into account payments required to be made into the Debt Service Reserve Fund pursuant to Section 4.8(h) of the Indenture. The Board further covenants that it will seek any required approval necessary in order to comply with this covenant.

(i) Without the prior written consent of the Bond Insurer, the University will not build, acquire or renovate any similar student housing facilities, whether such facilities are owned by the University or a private entity, unless (i) the Facilities have met the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Facilities for the prior Fiscal Year, (ii) the Facilities are projected to meet the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Facilities for the two Fiscal Years following the projected completion of the proposed facility and (iii) based on a market analysis prepared by a market research company with experience in student or multi-family housing, which is independent from the University, the University's proposed project is not expected to have a material adverse affect on the Facilities. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is understood that with respect to Phase Three of the Facilities anticipated to be financed with Additional Bonds issued under the Indenture, the foregoing tests do not have to be met, provided that the construction of Phase Three of the Facilities does not increase the total number of on-campus housing beds available to the University. Such additional student housing facilities owned or leased by the Board or the Corporation shall be incorporated with the Facilities into a single housing system so that such additional student housing facilities and all revenues derived therefrom shall secure the Bonds, and the Facilities and the revenues derived therefrom, including all revenues derived from the Facilities Lease, will secure any debt incurred to finance such additional student housing facilities. In addition, the Mortgage (as defined in the Indenture) shall be amended to encumber any such Additional Facilities and any revenues derived therefrom to secure the Bonds and any debt incurred to finance such Additional Facilities.

(j) The University shall maintain its policy of requiring all unmarried, full-time undergraduate students with less than 60 credit hours to live in on-campus residence halls. It is understood that the University currently permits certain exceptions to that policy and, except as set forth in Section 4(h) above, the University may continue to permit those exceptions but it shall make no voluntary revisions to such policy that would reduce the number of students required to live in on-campus residence halls (including, without limitation, reducing the number of credit hours to less than 60, increasing the course-load required for status as a "full-time" student or modifying any existing exemptions from the policy), until the Bonds have been paid in full or the Bond Insurer consents in writing to a change in such policy.

(k) The University shall actively promote the Facilities as a housing alternative and an integral part of the housing system of the University. The University shall, among other things, provide housing brochures to prospective students and allow signs to be posted to promote the Facilities.

By proper action, the Corporation has been duly authorized to execute and deliver this Facilities Lease, the Ground Lease and the Agreement;

(b) The execution and delivery of this Facilities Lease, the Ground Lease and the Agreement, and compliance with the provisions thereof and hereof, will not conflict with or constitute on the part of the Corporation a violation of, breach of, or default under any statute, indenture, mortgage, declaration or deed of trust, loan agreement or other agreement or instrument to which the Corporation is a party or by which the Corporation is bound or any order, rule or regulation of any court or Governmental Agency or body having jurisdiction over the Corporation or any of its activities or properties; and all consents, approvals and authorizations which are required of the Corporation for the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby and hereby have been or timely will be obtained;

(c) There is no action, suit, proceeding, inquiry or investigation, at law or in equity, before or by any court, public board or body pending or threatened against or affecting the Corporation, wherein an unfavorable decision, ruling or finding would materially and adversely affect the transactions contemplated hereunder or which in any way would adversely affect the validity or enforceability of this Facilities Lease, the Ground Lease or any agreement or instrument to which the Corporation is a party;

(d) The Corporation will not take or permit to be taken any action which would have the effect, directly or indirectly, of causing interest on any of the Series 2004A Bonds and the Series 2004B Bonds to be included in gross income for federal income tax purposes.

Section 5. Waiver and Disclaimer of Warranties. The Board acknowledges that the Corporation has not made any representations or warranties as to the suitability or fitness of the Facilities for the needs and purposes of the Board or for any other purpose.

The Board declares and acknowledges that it does hereby waive the warranty of fitness for intended purposes and guarantee against hidden or latent redhibitory defects and vices under Louisiana law, including Louisiana Civil Code Articles 2520 through 2548 and Louisiana Civil Code Article 2695, and the warranty imposed by Louisiana Civil Code Articles 2476 and 2695, and waives all rights in redhibition pursuant to Louisiana Civil Code Articles 2520, et seq. The Board further declares and acknowledges that this waiver has been brought to the attention of the Board and explained in detail and that the Board has voluntarily and knowingly consented to this waiver of warranty of fitness and/or warranty against redhibitory defects and vices for the Facilities. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board hereby retains all of its rights to proceed against any third parties with respect to such defects.

The Corporation disclaims and the Board waives any warranties and representations with respect to compliance with Governmental Regulations, including Environmental Requirements, or the disposal of, or existence in, on, under, or about the Facilities of any Hazardous Substance. The Board acknowledges that the Corporation reserves in this Facilities Lease all rights to recover from the Board all costs and expenses imposed on the Corporation to bring the Facilities into compliance with any Environmental Requirement, and all costs of Remediation or cleanup of such Hazardous Substance imposed on the Corporation or the Board, which shall be payable by the Board as Additional Rental hereunder to the extent imposed upon the Corporation.

(b) The University, at the direction of the Board, shall be responsible for maintaining the Facilities and shall make or contract or cause to be made or contracted with a suitable contractor for the making of all alterations, repairs, restorations, and replacements to the Facilities, including without limitation the heating, ventilating, air conditioning, mechanical, electrical, elevators, plumbing, fire, sprinkler and theft systems, air and water pollution control and waste disposal facilities, structural roof, walls, and foundations, fixtures, equipment, and appurtenances to the Facilities as and when needed to preserve them in good working order, condition and repair (ordinary wear and tear excepted), regardless of whether such repairs, alterations, restorations or replacements are ordinary or extraordinary, foreseeable or unforeseeable, or are at the fault of the Board, the Corporation or some Other Party. All alterations, repairs, restoration, or replacements shall be of a quality and class equal to or better than the quality and class presently located in the Facilities.

(c) The University, at the direction of the Board, shall have the right during the Term to cause the Corporation or some other Party to make or construct any additions or improvements to the Facilities, alter the Facilities, attach fixtures, structures, or signs to or on the Facilities, and affix personal property to the Facilities without the Corporation's prior written consent to the extent allowed under the terms of any insurance covering the Facilities. All such alterations, improvements, additions, attachments, repairs, restorations, and replacements of all or any portion of the Facilities shall (i) be at the sole cost and expense of the University; (ii) not reduce the then fair market value of the Facilities; (iii) be constructed in a good and workmanlike manner; and (iv) be in compliance with all Governmental Regulations.

(d) The University, at the direction of the Board, shall provide or cause to be provided all security service, custodial service, janitorial service, trash disposal, and all other services necessary for the proper upkeep and maintenance of the Facilities as required herein. The Board acknowledges that the Corporation has made no representation or warranty with respect to systems and/or procedures for the security of the Facilities, any persons occupying, using or entering the Facilities, or any equipment, furnishings, or contents of the Facilities. It is the sole responsibility of the Board, through the University to cause to be provided or to provide for the security of persons on or entering the Facilities and/or property located at the Facilities, in accordance with reasonable and prudent business practices.

Section 8. Utilities. All utilities which are used or consumed in or upon or in connection with the Facilities during the Term, including, without limitation water, gas, electricity, sewerage, garbage, or trash removal, light, cable, heat, telephone, power, computer data and other utilities necessary for the operation of the Facilities ("Utility Service") shall be the responsibility of the Board and/or the students, faculty, staff or Permitted Sublessees residing in the Facilities. Payments for Utility Services provided to the entire Facilities or to the common areas of the Facilities under such contract or contracts therefor as the Board may make shall be made by the Board directly to the respective utility companies furnishing such Utility Services.

The Corporation shall have no responsibility to the Board for the quality or availability of Utility Service to the Facilities, or for the cost to procure Utility Service. The Corporation shall not be in Default under this Facilities Lease or be liable to the Board or any other Person for direct or consequential damage, or otherwise, for any failure in supply of any Utility Service, heat, air conditioning, elevator service, cleaning service, lighting, security, or for surges or interruptions of electricity.

Section 9. Insurance.

(a) The University, at the direction of the Board, shall cause to be secured and maintained at the University's cost and expense:

(i) A policy or policies of insurance covering the Facilities against loss or damage by fire, lightening, earthquake, collapse, vandalism and malicious mischief, flood and storm surge, and against such other perils as are included in so-called "extended coverage" and against such other insurable perils as, under good insurance practice, from time to time are insured for properties of similar character and location, which insurance shall be not less than the full replacement cost of the Facilities, without deduction for depreciation. In the event that the Facilities are not repaired or replaced, insurance proceeds shall be no greater than the actual cash value (replacement cost less depreciation) of the Facilities at the time of the loss. The policy shall be adjusted to comply with any applicable co-insurance provisions of such insurance policy. Full payment of insurance proceeds shall not be contingent on the degree of damage sustained at other facilities leased by the Board. The policy or policies covering such loss must explicitly waive any co-insurance penalty.

(ii) A policy of comprehensive public liability insurance with respect to the Facilities and the operations related thereto, whether conducted on or off the Facilities, against liability for personal injury (including bodily injury and death) and property damage, of not less than $2,000,000 in combined single limit liability coverage. Such comprehensive public liability insurance shall specifically include, but shall not be limited to, sprinkler leakage legal liability, water damage legal liability, motor vehicle liability for all owned and non-owned vehicles, including rented or leased vehicles.

(iii) Boiler and machinery insurance coverage against loss or damage by explosion of steam boilers, pressure vessels and similar apparatus, but only if steam boilers, pressure vessels or similar apparatus are installed on the Facilities, in an amount not less than $5,000,000 with deductible provisions not exceeding $100,000 per accident.

(iv) Workers' compensation insurance issued by a responsible carrier authorized under the laws of the State to insure employers against liability for compensation under the Labor Code of the State, or any act hereafter enacted as an amendment thereto or in lieu thereof, such workers' compensation insurance to cover all persons employed by the Corporation in connection with the Facilities and to cover full liability for compensation under any such act aforesaid.

(v) A policy of rental interruption insurance in the amount of at least one (1) year's rental in the event of loss of or damage to the Facilities.

(b) The Corporation shall:

(i) cause to be secured and maintained a policy of title insurance insuring the Corporation's leasehold interest under the Ground Lease in an amount equal to the par amount of the Bonds; and

(ii) cause all of the construction professionals to secure and maintain:

(A) Comprehensive or Commercial General Liability insurance;

(B) Errors and Omissions insurance;

- (C) Automobile Liability insurance;
- (D) Worker's Compensation insurance;
- (E) an all Risk Builder's Policy upon the construction on the Property;
and
- (F) boiler and machinery or additional property insurance;

all as required by the terms of any construction contracts entered into with regards to the demolition of certain existing facilities and the renovation, development and construction of the Facilities.

All insurance required in this Section and all renewals of such insurance (excepting self insurance or commercial insurance, through ORM) shall be issued by commercial insurers authorized to transact business in the State, and rated at least A- by Best's Insurance Reports (property/liability) or in the two highest rating categories of S&P and Moody's. All insurance policies provided or caused to be provided by the Corporation shall expressly provide that the policies shall not be canceled or altered without thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the University and the Trustee; and shall, to the extent obtainable, provide that no act or omission of the Corporation or other provider of the insurance that would otherwise result in forfeiture or reduction of the insurance will affect or limit the obligation of the insurance company to pay the amount of any loss sustained.

All policies of liability insurance that the University is obligated to maintain according to this Facilities Lease (other than any policy of worker's compensation insurance) will name the Corporation, the Trustee and such other Persons or firms as the University may be required to name from time to time as additional insureds and shall expressly provide that the policies shall not be cancelled or altered without thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the Corporation and the Trustee; and shall, to the extent obtainable, provide that no act or omission of the University or other provider of the insurance that would otherwise result in forfeiture or reduction of the insurance will affect or limit the obligation of the insurance company to pay the amount of any loss sustained. All public liability, property damage liability, and casualty policies maintained by the University shall be written as primary policies.

Proceeds of insurance received and/or the amount of any loss that is self-insured with respect to destruction of or damage to any portion of the Facilities by fire, earthquake or other casualty or event shall be paid to the Trustee (or, in the case of ORM insurance, to the Board for delivery in full to the Trustee) for application in accordance with the provisions of Section 11 of this Facilities Lease and the Indenture.

The Corporation shall certify annually to the Bond Insurer that all insurance policies required by this Section 9 are as of the date of such certification in place and in effect.

Section 10. Condemnation, Casualty and Other Damage. The risk of loss or decrease in the enjoyment and beneficial use of the Facilities due to any damage or destruction thereof by acts of God, fire, flood, natural disaster, the elements, casualties, thefts, riots, civil strife, lockout, war, nuclear explosion or otherwise (collectively "Casualty") or in consequence of any foreclosures, attachments, levies or executions; or the taking of all or any portion of the Facilities by condemnation, expropriation, or eminent domain proceedings (collectively "Expropriation") is expressly assumed by the Board. The Corporation and the Trustee shall in no event be answerable, accountable or liable therefor, nor shall any of the foregoing events entitle the Board to any abatements, set-offs or counter claims with respect to its Base Rental, Additional Rental or any other obligation hereunder.

Section 11. Application of Insurance Proceeds; Condemnation Award. (a) If during construction, all or any portion of the Facilities is damaged or destroyed by a Casualty, or is taken by Expropriation proceedings, the Board shall instruct the Corporation, as expeditiously as possible, to continuously and diligently prosecute or cause to be prosecuted the repair, restoration, or replacement thereof; provided however, that the Corporation shall in no way be liable for any costs of the repair, restoration or replacement of the Facilities in excess of the proceeds of any insurance or of any Expropriation award received because of such Casualty or Expropriation. Following the completion of construction and acceptance of the Facilities by the Board on behalf of the Corporation, the Board shall, as expeditiously as possible, continuously and diligently prosecute or cause to be prosecuted, the repair, restoration, or replacement thereof. The proceeds of any insurance, including the proceeds of any self-insurance fund, or of any Expropriation award or payment in lieu of Expropriation, received on account of any damage, destruction or taking of all or any portion of the Facilities shall be delivered to the Trustee and held by the Trustee in trust (or in the case of self insurance through ORM, as set forth in paragraph (b) below), and shall be made available for, and to the extent necessary be applied to, such restoration, repair and replacement. Any amounts so held by the Trustee shall be disbursed to pay the costs of restoration, replacement and repair of the Facilities with respect to which they are held, in each case promptly after receipt of a written request of the Corporation stating that the amount to be disbursed pursuant to such request will be used to pay costs of replacing or repairing or restoring the Facilities and that no amount previously has been disbursed by the Trustee for payment of the costs to be so paid. In making such payments, the Trustee may conclusively rely upon such written requests and shall have no liability or responsibility to investigate any matter stated therein, or for any inaccuracy or misstatement therein. In no event shall the Trustee be responsible for the adequacy of the plans and specifications or construction contract relating to the replacement, restoration, or repair of the Facilities, or for the improper use of moneys properly disbursed pursuant to request made under this Section. Any proceeds remaining on deposit with Trustee following completion of the repairs, restoration or replacement of the Facilities shall be paid by Trustee in accordance with the terms of the Indenture.

In the event the proceeds of any insurance, and any additional funds deposited with the Trustee, are insufficient to fully repair, restore or replace the Facilities, the proceeds shall be paid to the Board for immediate delivery to Trustee and used to redeem the Outstanding Bonds.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation's obligation to replace the Facilities in the event of Expropriation Proceedings is dependent on the Board entering into a lease with a different portion of the Campus as provided in Section 13.03 of the Ground Lease. In the event it is necessary to restore or replace the Facilities in a different location because of the Expropriation of all or a portion of the Facilities, the Corporation and the Board agree to amend or enter into a new Facilities Lease and Ground Lease in accordance with Sections 13.03 of the Ground Lease. In the event the Board, pursuant to the Ground Lease, decides not to repair, restore or replace the Facilities for any reason, all insurance proceeds received or payable as a result of such Casualty, or all proceeds received or payable as a result of Expropriation proceedings (including payments received or payable in lieu of Expropriation) shall be paid to the Board for immediate delivery to the Trustee and applied to the prepayment of the Bonds in accordance with the terms of the Indenture, and this Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease shall terminate on the date that the events described in Section 2 (a) or 2 (b) hereof have occurred.

(b) In the event that ORM insures the Facilities, the Board shall use the insurance proceeds received from ORM in accordance with Policy and Procedure Memorandum Number 10 (requiring invoices to be submitted to ORM for payment to vendors, or alternatively, production of invoices paid by the Board to ORM for reimbursement of vendor payments) to effect the repair, restoration or replacement of the Facilities.

Section 12. Encumbrances.

(a) Payment by the Board. The Board shall pay or cause to be paid all costs and charges for alterations, improvements, additions, repairs and maintenance ("Work") (i) done by the Board or caused to be done by the Board in or to the Facilities, and (ii) for all materials furnished for or in connection with such Work. The Corporation reserves all rights to collect for any loss or damage sustained or incurred by the Corporation resulting from any and all Encumbrances, demands or liabilities arising on account of the Work, which shall be payable by the Board as Additional Rent hereunder.

(b) Failure to Discharge. If the Board fails to pay any charge for which an Encumbrance has been filed, and the Facilities or any portion thereof is placed in imminent danger of being seized, the Corporation may, but shall not be obligated to, pay such charge and related costs and interest, and the amount so paid, together with reasonable Legal Expenses incurred in connection with such Encumbrance, will be immediately due from the Board to the Corporation as Additional Rental. Nothing contained in this Facilities Lease will be deemed the consent or agreement of the Corporation to subject the Corporation's interest in the Facilities to liability under any Encumbrance, or any mechanics', materialman's or other lien law. If the Board receives written notice that an Encumbrance has been or is about to be filed against the Facilities, or that any action affecting title to the Facilities has been commenced on account of Work done by or for the Board or for materials furnished to or for the Board, it shall immediately give the Corporation Notice of such notice.

(c) Notice of Work. At least fifteen (15) days prior to the commencement of any Work in or to the Facilities, by or for the University, the University shall give the Corporation Notice of the proposed Work and the names and addresses of the Persons supplying labor and materials for the proposed Work. The Corporation will have the right to post notices of nonresponsibility or similar written notices on the Facilities in order to protect the Facilities against any such claimants.

Section 13. Assignment and Sublease. (a) Neither this Facilities Lease nor any interest of the Board in the Facilities shall be mortgaged, pledged, assigned or transferred by the Board by voluntary act or by operation of law, or otherwise; provided, however, the Board may sublease all or any portion of the Facilities, or grant concessions involving the use of all or any portion of the Facilities, whether such concessions purport to convey a leasehold interest or a license to use all or a portion of the Facilities to any University student, faculty, staff or Permitted Sublessee. No such concession, leasehold interest or license to use the Facilities shall be granted to any University students, faculty or staff for a term of more than one (1) year, or to any Permitted Sublessee for a term of more than one (1) month. The Board shall, however, at all times remain liable for the performance of the covenants and conditions on its part to be performed under this Facilities Lease (including, without limitation, the payment of Base Rental and Additional Rental), notwithstanding any subletting or granting of concessions which may be made. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to relieve the Board from its obligations to pay Base Rental and Additional Rental as provided in this Facilities Lease or to relieve the Board from any other obligations contained herein. Other than subleases to University students, faculty, staff and Permitted Sublessees, in no event will the Board sublease or permit the use of all or any part of the Facilities to any person without an opinion of Bond Counsel that such will not cause interest on the Bonds to be included in the gross income of the owners of the Series 2004A Bonds and the Series 2004B Bonds for federal income tax purposes.

(b) The Corporation shall, concurrently with the execution hereof, assign all of its right, title and interest in and to this Facilities Lease, including without limitation its right to receive Base Rental payable hereunder, to the Issuer pursuant to the Agreement, and the Issuer will in turn assign its rights under this Facilities Lease to the Trustee pursuant to the Indenture. The parties hereto further agree to execute any and all documents necessary and proper in connection therewith. Anything required or permitted to be done by the Corporation under this Facilities Lease may be done by the Trustee under the Indenture.

(c) Except as set forth in Section 13(b) hereof, the Corporation shall not sell or assign its interest in the Facility or this Facilities Lease without the prior written consent of the Board.

Section 14. Additions and Improvements Removal. At the expiration of the Term, or termination of this Facilities Lease, all alterations, fixtures, improvements and additions made by the Board or the University and all equipment placed upon the Facilities that are incorporated into or made into component parts of the Facilities, as well as, title to all property, furniture, equipment, fixtures, and other property installed at or placed upon the Facilities by the Board which is not incorporated into or made a component part of the Facilities remain the property of the Board.

The Board hereby agrees to replace such property from time to time as such property becomes worn out, obsolete, inadequate, unsuitable or undesirable. The Board may add to or remove such property from time to time, and upon expiration of the Term, provided that the Board repairs any damage to the Facilities caused by such removal.

Section 15. Right of Entry. Representatives of the Corporation and the Bond Insurer shall, subject to reasonable security precautions, and upon giving the Board not less than twenty-four (24) hours advance Notice, have the right to enter upon the Facilities during reasonable business hours (and in emergencies without notice and at all times) accompanied by a Board Representative (i) to inspect the same, (ii) for any purpose connected with the rights or obligations of the Corporation under this Facilities Lease, or (iii) for all other lawful purposes. Any right of access to any portion of the Facilities leased to the students, faculty, staff or Permitted Sublessees shall be subject to their rights pursuant to their rental agreements and University policy.

Section 16. Mortgage Prohibition. Except as set forth in the Indenture, the Ground Lease and the Agreement, the Corporation shall not be entitled to mortgage or grant a security interest in the Facilities.

Section 17. Sale of Facilities; Attornment; and Conveyance and Transfer of the Corporation's Interest. If a person other than the Corporation shall succeed to the rights of the Corporation hereunder (in any case with the prior written consent of the Board as required hereby), upon the declaration of the successor to the Corporation's interest in this Facilities Lease, the Board agrees to fully attorn to and recognize any such successor as the Board's landlord under this Facilities Lease upon the then existing terms of this Facilities Lease, provided that such successor shall agree in writing to accept the Board's attornment and not to disturb the Board's possession so long as the Board shall observe the provisions and all covenants of this Facilities Lease. This attornment provision shall inure to the benefit of any such successor and shall be self-operative upon the election and declaration by such successor, and no further instrument shall be required to give effect to the provisions. However, the Board agrees to evidence and confirm the foregoing attornment provisions by the execution and delivery of instruments in recordable form satisfactory to such successor.

If the Facilities, or any part thereof, shall be sold or otherwise transferred by sale, assignment, transfer or other contract, or by operation of law or otherwise (with the prior written consent of the Board as required hereby and with an opinion of Bond Counsel that such action will not cause interest on the Series 2004A Bonds or the Series 2004B Bonds to be included in the gross income of the owner of the Series 2004A Bonds and the Series 2004B Bonds for federal tax purposes), and if such written consent specifically so provides, the Corporation shall be automatically and entirely released and discharged to the extent of the interest in or the portion of the Facilities sold, assigned or transferred from and after the effective date of such sale, assignment or transfer of all liability for the performance of any of the covenants of this Facilities Lease on the part of the Corporation thereafter to be performed. The purchaser or other transferee of the Facilities shall be deemed to have agreed to perform such covenants of the Corporation from and after the date of such assignment or sale during such transferee's period of ownership of the Corporation's interest under this Facilities Lease, all without further agreement between the Corporation, its successor and the Board. The Corporation's transferee shall not be held responsible for the performance of any of the covenants of this Facilities Lease on the part of the Corporation required to be performed prior to such sale and transfer, the Board reserving its rights against the Corporation for any unperformed covenants prior to such sale or transfer.

Section 18. Quiet Enjoyment. The Corporation covenants that the Board, on paying the Rental and performing and observing all of the covenants and agreements herein contained and provided to be performed by the Board or the University, shall and may peaceably and quietly have, hold, occupy, use, and enjoy the Facilities during the Term and may exercise all of its rights hereunder; and the Corporation agrees to warrant and forever defend the Board's right to such occupancy, use, and enjoyment and the title to the Facilities against the claims of any and all persons whomsoever lawfully claiming the same, or any part thereof subject only to the provisions of this Facilities Lease.

Section 19. Environmental Compliance and Indemnity.

(a) Environmental Compliance. The Board or the University shall operate or cause to be operated the Facilities in compliance with all Environmental Requirements continuously during the Term, and for such periods of time prior to the Commencement Date and after the Expiration Date, as long as the Board is in possession of the Facilities, in whole or in part. The Board shall not cause or permit any Hazardous Substance to be brought upon, kept, or used in or about the Facilities or the Land, except for such Hazardous Substance as is necessary or useful to the operation of the Facilities.

(b) The Board's Liability. If the Board fails to comply with any of the foregoing warranties, representations, and covenants, and removal or Remediation of any Hazardous Substance found on the Facilities is required by Environmental Requirements or Governmental Authority, the Board shall promptly undertake the removal or Remediation of such Hazardous Substance, at the Board's sole cost and expense. In the event the Board fails or refuses to undertake such removal or Remedial actions, the Corporation may cause the removal or Remediation (or other cleanup reasonable acceptable to the Corporation) of any such Hazardous Substance from the Land or the Facilities. The reasonable costs of removal, Remediation, or any other cleanup (including transportation and storage costs) will be considered as Additional Rental under this Facilities Lease, whether or not a court has ordered the cleanup, and those costs will become due and payable within ninety (90) days of written demand by the Corporation. In connection therewith, the Board will give the Corporation, its agents, and employees access to the Facilities to remove, remediate, or otherwise clean up any Hazardous Substance. The Corporation, however, has no affirmative obligation to remove, remediate, or otherwise clean up any Hazardous Substance, and this Facilities Lease will not be construed as creating any such obligation. The Board hereby agrees that it shall be fully liable for all costs and expenses related to the use, storage, and disposal of any Hazardous Substance located in or about the Facilities by the Board.

Section 20. The Corporation's Reservation of Rights.

(a) The Corporation hereby reserves all of its rights to recover from the Board for any and all Claims asserted against the Corporation, including Litigation Expenses arising out of or by reason of:

(i) any injury to or death of any person or damage to property occurring on or about the Facilities occasioned by or growing out of or arising or resulting from any tortious or negligent act on the part of the Board in connection with the operation and management of the Facilities; or

(ii) any failure, breach, or default on the part of the Board in the performance of or compliance with any of the obligations of the Board under the terms of this Facilities Lease.

(b) Notwithstanding the fact that it is the intention of the parties that the Corporation shall not incur any pecuniary liability by reason of the terms of this Facilities Lease or the undertakings required of the Corporation hereunder, nevertheless, if the Corporation should incur any such pecuniary liability, then in that event, the Corporation shall be entitled to assert all rights and remedies granted in law or in equity to recover from the Board the amount of any pecuniary liability incurred by the Corporation, plus all Litigation Expenses incurred in defense of such liability to the extent subject to indemnification pursuant to Subsection (a) above.

(c) No recourse shall be had for the enforcement of any obligation, covenant, or agreement of the Corporation contained in this Facilities Lease or any Claim based thereon against the Corporation or of any successor thereto or member thereof, either directly or through the Corporation whether by virtue of any constitutional provision, statute, or rule of law. This Facilities Lease and the obligations of the Corporation hereunder, and any Claim asserted against the Corporation are solely corporate obligations, and the enforcement of any obligation or Claim shall be limited solely to the Corporation's interest in the Facilities. No personal liability shall attach to, or be incurred by, any officer, director, agent, employee or member of the Corporation and the Board acknowledges that all personal liability of any character against every such officer, director, agent, employee or member by the execution of this Facilities Lease, is expressly waived and released. The immunity of any officer, director, agent, employee or member of the Corporation under the provisions contained in this Section 20 shall survive any acquisition of the Facilities by the Board and the expiration or other termination of this Facilities Lease.

Section 21. Default by the Board. If (i) the Board shall fail to deposit with the Trustee any Base Rental payment required to be so deposited pursuant to Section 6 hereof by the close of business on the day such deposit is required pursuant to Section 6 hereof, and shall fail to remedy such breach within five (5) days thereof, but in no event later than the date on which such payment is required to enable the Corporation to make payment on the Bonds (without use of moneys held in the Debt Service Reserve Fund), or (ii) the Board shall fail to pay or discharge any monetary obligation under this Lease (other than the payment of Base Rental) as and when due, or within thirty (30) days after receipt of Notice from the Corporation that such sums are due and owing; or (iii) the Board shall breach any non-monetary terms, covenants or conditions herein, and shall fail to remedy any such breach with all reasonable dispatch within a reasonable period of time (or such longer period as the Trustee may approve) after written notice thereof from the Corporation to the Board, then and in any such event the Board shall be deemed to be in default hereunder, and the Corporation shall have the right, at its option, without any further demand or notice to terminate this Facilities Lease on the earliest date permitted by law or on any later date specified in any Notice given to the Board, in which case the Board's right to possession of the Facilities will cease and this Facilities Lease will be terminated, without, however, waiving the Corporation's right to collect all Rental and other payments due or owing for the period up to the time the Corporation regains possession (which have been approved for payment under this Facilities Lease, but not paid by the Board), and to enforce other obligations of the Board which survive termination of this Facilities Lease, and in such event the Corporation may without any further demand or notice re-enter the Facilities and eject all parties in possession thereof, subject to the rights of students, faculty, staff and Permitted Sublessees. The foregoing remedies of the Corporation are in addition to and not exclusive of any other remedy of the Corporation. Any such re-entry shall be allowed by the Board without hindrance, and the Corporation shall not be liable in damages for any such re-entry or be guilty of trespass. The Corporation understands and agrees that upon its termination of the Board's right to possession of the Facilities or termination of this Facilities Lease, the Corporation upon its re-entry of the Facilities shall only be allowed to use the Facilities for the Permitted Use and shall be subject to all applicable Governmental Regulations heretofore or hereafter enacted by any Governmental Authority relating to the use and operation of the Facilities.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Facilities Lease, (i) in no event shall the Corporation have the right to accelerate the payment of any Base Rental payment hereunder and (ii) the Bond Insurer shall have ninety (90) days to cure an Event of Default hereunder.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 21 to the contrary, a failure by the Board to pay when due any payment required to be made under this Facilities Lease or a failure by the Board to observe and perform any covenant, condition or agreement on its part to be observed or performed under this Facilities Lease, resulting from a failure by the Board to appropriate moneys shall not constitute an Event of Default under this Section 21 and the Corporation shall not have any of the remedial rights set forth in this Section 21. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in such event the Board acknowledges that the Facilities Lease shall terminate and the Board shall immediately vacate the Facilities, and deliver the Facilities to the Corporation.

Section 22. Cumulative Remedies. Each right and remedy provided for in this Facilities Lease is cumulative and is in addition to every other right or remedy provided for in this Facilities Lease or now or after the Commencement Date existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise, and the exercise or beginning of the exercise by the Corporation of any one or more of the rights or remedies provided for in this Facilities Lease or now or after the Commencement Date existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise will not preclude the simultaneous or later exercise by the Corporation of any or all other rights or remedies provided for in this Facilities Lease or now or after the Commencement Date existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise. All costs incurred by the Corporation in collecting any amounts and damages owing by the Board pursuant to the provisions of this Facilities Lease or to enforce any provision of this Facilities Lease, including reasonable Litigation Expenses from the date any such matter is turned over to an attorney, whether or not one or more actions are commenced by the Corporation, will also be recoverable by the Corporation from the Board. The waiver by the Corporation of any breach by the Board and the waiver by the Board of any breach by the Corporation of any term, covenant or condition hereof shall not operate as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other term, covenant or condition hereof.

Section 23. Option to Purchase. For and in consideration of the obligations of the Board under the Facilities Lease, the mutual undertakings of the parties, the receipt and adequacy of which is hereby acknowledged, the Corporation grants to the Board an exclusive and irrevocable option to purchase for the price and on the terms, provisions, stipulations and conditions hereinafter set forth, all but not less than all of the Corporation's leasehold interest in the Facilities.

(a) Effective Date. The effective date of this Option agreement shall be the Commencement Date.

(b) Term of Option. The Option shall expire at midnight Central Standard Time, on the Expiration Date, or upon the termination of this Facilities Lease, whichever occurs first.

(c) Limitation on Exercise of Option. The Board may not exercise the Option, and the Option shall be voidable, at the sole election of the Corporation, if a Default by the Board has occurred and is continuing under the Facilities Lease, and the applicable time period in which the Board may cure such default has expired. Notwithstanding any provision of this Option to the contrary, the Board shall be entitled to exercise the Option as long as the Board is legally obligated to make payments of Base Rental under the Facilities Lease.

(d) Exercise of Option. The Board may exercise the Option herein granted at any time on or before expiration of the Term, on any Interest Payment Date on or after August 1, 2014 or on the date the Bonds are defeased pursuant to Article XII of the Indenture, by Notice to the Corporation of its election to exercise the Option and purchase the Corporation's interest in and to the Facilities given not less than sixty (60) days prior to the date on which the Board desires to purchase the Facilities.

(e) Purchase Price. The Purchase Price shall be equal to the principal of all Bonds then Outstanding plus the interest to accrue on such Bonds until the purchase date plus any prepayment penalties, charges or costs for early prepayment or defeasance of the Bonds and any Administrative Expenses owed prior to the purchase date which payments are necessary to discharge the Indenture pursuant to Article XII thereof (collectively, the "Purchase Price").

(f) Effect on Facilities Lease and Ground Lease. Upon the purchase of the Corporation's leasehold interest in the Facilities by the Board pursuant to this Option, the Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease shall terminate and all of the Corporation's leasehold interest in the Land and the Facilities shall terminate.

(g) Payment of Purchase Price. The Board, on the purchase date, shall deposit an amount equal to the Purchase Price with the Trustee.

(i) Conveyance. In the event of and upon the payment of the Purchase Price and any other sums due under this Facilities Lease by the Board, the Corporation will on the purchase date execute and deliver to the Board a written cancellation of the Ground Lease and this Facilities Lease.

(ii) Assignment of Contract Rights and Obligations. The conveyance of the Corporation's leasehold interest in the Facilities shall also effect a transfer and assignment of all rights, warranties and liabilities of the Corporation under then existing contracts of any nature with respect to the Facilities.

(h) Closing. In the event the Option is timely exercised, notice of the Board's election to the Corporation shall constitute an irrevocable conversion of the Option into a binding obligation of the Corporation to sell its leasehold interest in the Facilities and the Board to buy the same under the terms and conditions set forth in this Section 23, and in such event, the Corporation and the Board shall have the right to demand specific performance of this agreement by the other. The closing shall occur at the offices of the Board or its counsel, or at such other time, place, and date as agreed upon by the Corporation and the Board.

(i) Closing Costs. The Board shall pay all closing costs and charges incident to the conveyance of the Corporation's interest in the Land and the Facilities.

(j) No Warranty. The Corporation shall convey its leasehold interest in the Facilities without any warranty whatsoever of any nature. The conveyance of the leasehold interest in the Facilities shall be without any warranty as to fitness and condition, as set forth in Section 5 of this Facilities Lease. Language substantially similar to the language contained in Section 5 of this Facilities Lease shall be incorporated into and made a part of such conveyance. In no event shall the Corporation be responsible for any defects in title.

(k) Default under the Option:

(i) In the event the Option is exercised, and the Corporation fails to consummate the transactions contemplated herein for any reason, except default by the Board or the failure of the Board to satisfy any of the conditions set forth herein, the Board may, in addition to any other rights and remedies which may otherwise be available to the Board, enforce this agreement by specific performance. The Board's remedies under this Section are expressly subject to the provisions of Section 30 of this Facilities Lease.

(ii) In the event the Option is exercised, and the Board fails to consummate the transactions contemplated herein for any reason, except default by the Corporation or the failure of the Corporation to satisfy any of the conditions set forth herein, the Corporation (a) may enforce this agreement by specific performance and in such action shall have the right to recover damages suffered by reason of the Board's delay; or (b) may bring suit for damages for breach of this agreement.

(iii) No delay or omission in the exercise of any right or remedy accruing to either party upon any breach by the other party under this Section 23 shall impair such right or remedy or be construed as a waiver of any such breach theretofore or thereafter occurring. The waiver by either party of any condition or any subsequent breach of the same or any other term, covenant or condition contained in this Section 23 shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any other condition or of any subsequent breach of the same or of any other term, covenant or condition herein contained.

(l) Attorney's Fees. Should either party employ an attorney or attorneys to enforce any of the provisions hereof, or to protect its interest in any matter arising under this agreement, or to recover damages for the breach of this agreement, the party prevailing in any final judgment shall have the right to collect from the losing party all Litigation Expenses incurred in enforcing such rights.

(m) Notices. Any notices required or permitted under this Section 23 shall be in writing and delivered either in person to the other party, or the other party's authorized agent, or by United States Certified Mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, to the address set forth in Section 50 of this Facilities Lease, or to such other address as either party may designate in writing and delivered as herein provided.

(n) Assignability. Except as set forth in the Indenture, the Mortgage or the Ground Lease, the Option may not be assigned by the Corporation or its interest in the Facilities sold (subject to the Option or otherwise) to any person or entity without the Board's prior written consent, which consent may be withheld by the Board in its sole discretion.

(o) Time of Essence: Time is of the essence of this Option.

(p) Binding Effect: This Option shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their heirs, successors and assigns.

Section 24. Severability. If any provisions of this Facilities Lease shall be invalid, inoperative or unenforceable as applied in any particular case in any jurisdiction or jurisdictions or in all jurisdictions, or in all cases because it conflicts with any other provision or provisions hereof or any constitution or statute or rule of public policy, or for any other reason, such circumstances shall not have the effect of rendering the provision in question inoperative or unenforceable in any other case or circumstance, or of rendering any other provision or provisions herein contained invalid, inoperative or unenforceable, to any extent whatever. The invalidity of any one or more phrases, sentences, clauses or Sections contained in this Facilities Lease shall not affect the remaining portions of this Facilities Lease, or any part thereof.

Section 25. Redemption of Bonds. The Corporation agrees that it will not exercise its option to redeem any Bonds pursuant to the Indenture unless the Board consents to such redemption or such redemption is to be effected with moneys derived from a source other than payments made by the Board under this Facilities Lease, however, in no event shall the mandatory redemption of any Bonds pursuant to the Indenture require the consent of the Board. The Corporation further agrees that if requested by the Board it will take all actions necessary to redeem all or any portion of the Bonds designated by the Board on the first date that it may do so under the terms of the Indenture so long as the Board agrees to provide funds in an amount, and at the time, required to effect such redemption.

Section 26. Additional Bonds. Upon the request and at the expense of the Board, the Corporation shall take action as may be required to effect the issuance of Additional Bonds in such amount as the Board may request as permitted by and in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture for any purpose permitted thereby.

Section 27. Execution. This Facilities Lease may be simultaneously executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original, and all of which together shall constitute one and the same Facilities Lease.

Section 28. Law Governing. This Facilities Lease is made in the State under the constitution and laws of the State and is to be governed by the laws of the State.

Section 29. Nonappropriation of Funds. In the event no funds or insufficient funds are lawfully appropriated in any Fiscal Year enabling the payment of Base Rental and Additional Rental due during the next succeeding Fiscal Year, the Board will immediately notify the Corporation and the Trustee of such occurrence. On the first day of the month following the Base Rental payment date on which the last payment of Base Rental can be made in full from Lawfully Available Funds, this Facilities Lease shall terminate without penalty or expense to the Board of any kind whatsoever, except as to the portions of Base Rental and Additional Rental payments herein agreed upon for Fiscal Years for which sufficient funds have been lawfully appropriated. In the event of such termination, the Board agrees peaceably to surrender possession of the Facilities to the Corporation on the date of such termination in its original condition (normal wear and tear excepted). The Corporation will have all legal and equitable rights and remedies to take possession of the Facilities and re-let or sell the Facilities as the Corporation determines and as granted in this Facilities Lease. The Board acknowledges that the Corporation's rights to take possession and to re-let or sell the Facilities under this Section 29 may be assigned to the Trustee for the benefit of the owners of the Bonds, and the Board agrees that the Trustee shall be entitled to exercise all of the rights of the Corporation under this Section 29. The event of an inability by the Board to cause the appropriation of sufficient funds for the payment of sums due under this Facilities Lease shall not constitute a default hereunder, but shall ipso facto terminate this Facilities Lease. This provision is operative notwithstanding any provisions of this Facilities Lease to the contrary. The Board shall be considered in default hereunder if sufficient funds are lawfully appropriated for the payment of Rental required under this Facilities Lease and the Board fails to use lawfully appropriated funds for the payment of Rental. In such event, the Corporation shall be entitled to the rights and remedies set forth in Sections 21 and 22 hereof.

Section 30. Exculpatory Provision. In the exercise of the powers of the Corporation and its trustees, officers, employees and agents under this Facilities Lease and the Indenture, the Corporation shall not be accountable or liable to the Board (i) for any actions taken or omitted by it or its officers, employees or agents in good faith and believed by it or them to be authorized or within their discretion or rights or powers conferred upon them, or (ii) for any claims based on this Facilities Lease against any officer, employee or agent of the Corporation in his or her personal capacity, all such liability, if any, being expressly waived by the Board by the execution of this Facilities Lease. Nothing in this Facilities Lease or the Indenture is intended to require or obligate, nor shall anything herein or therein be interpreted to require or obligate, the Corporation for any purpose or at any time whatsoever, to provide, apply or expend any funds coming into the hands of the Corporation other than the funds derived from the issuance of the Bonds under the Indenture and moneys derived pursuant to the Indenture and this Facilities Lease.

The Board specifically agrees to look solely to the Corporation's interest in the Facilities for the recovery of any judgments from the Corporation. It is agreed that the Corporation will not be personally liable for any such judgments, or incur any pecuniary liability as a result of this Facilities Lease to the Board, or the breach of its obligations hereunder. The Corporation's liability under this Facilities Lease is "in rem" as to its interest in the Facilities. The provisions contained in the preceding sentences are not intended to and will not limit any right that the Board might otherwise have to obtain injunctive relief against the Corporation or relief in any suit or action in connection with enforcement or collection of amounts that may become owing or payable under or on account of insurance maintained by the Corporation.

Section 31. Amendments. This Facilities Lease may be amended only as permitted in Article VIII of the Agreement.

Section 32. Recording. The Corporation covenants and agrees that it will promptly record and from time to time re-record a memorandum in recordable form of this Facilities Lease and the Indenture and all supplements thereto and hereto in such manner and in such places as may be required by law in order to fully protect and preserve the security of the holders or owners of the Bonds.

Section 33. Construction Against Drafting Party. The Corporation and the Board acknowledge that each of them and their counsel have had an opportunity to review this Facilities Lease and that each Party was responsible for the drafting thereof.

Section 34. Time of the Essence. Time is of the essence of each and every provision of this Facilities Lease.

Section 35. No Waiver. The waiver by the Corporation of any agreement, condition, or provision contained in this Facilities Lease will not be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other agreement, condition, or provision contained in this Facilities Lease, nor will any custom or practice that may grow up between the parties in the administration of the terms of this Facilities Lease be construed to waive or to lessen the right of the Corporation to insist upon the performance by the Board in strict accordance with the terms of this Facilities Lease. The subsequent acceptance of Rental by the Corporation will not be deemed to be a waiver of any preceding breach by the Board of any agreement, condition, or provision of this Facilities Lease, other than the failure of the Board to pay the particular Rental so accepted, regardless of the Corporation's knowledge of such preceding breach at the time of acceptance of such Rental.

Section 36. Survival. To the extent permitted by law and to the extent such will not constitute the incurrence of debt by the Board, all of the Corporation's remedies and rights of recovery under Sections 19 and 20 of this Facilities Lease shall survive the Term and/or the purchase of the Facilities by the Board under the Option.

Section 37. Counterparts. This Facilities Lease may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

Section 38. Estoppel Certificates. At any time and from time to time but within ten (10) days after prior written request by the Corporation, the Board will execute, acknowledge, and deliver to the Corporation, promptly upon request but only to the extent accurate, a certificate certifying (i) that this Facilities Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect or, if there have been modifications, that this Facilities Lease is in full force and effect, as modified, and stating the date and nature of each modification; (ii) the date, if any, to which Rental and other sums payable under this Facilities Lease have been paid; (iii) that no Notice of any default has been delivered to the Corporation which default has not been cured, except as to defaults specified in said certificate; (iv) that there is no Event of Default under this Facilities Lease or an event which, with Notice or the passage of time, or both, would result in an Event of Default under this Facilities Lease, except for defaults specified in said certificate; and (v) such other matters as may be reasonably requested by the Corporation. Any such certificate may be relied upon by any prospective purchaser or existing or prospective mortgagee of the Facilities or any part thereof. The Board's failure to notify the Corporation of any inaccuracies in the proposed certificate within the specified time period shall be conclusive evidence that the matters set forth in the certificate are accurate and correct.

Section 39. Waiver of Jury Trial. The Corporation and the Board waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding, or counterclaim brought by either of the Parties to this Facilities Lease against the other on any matters whatsoever arising out of or in any way connected with this Facilities Lease, the relationship of the Corporation and the Board, the Board's use or occupancy of the Facilities, or any other Claims, and any emergency statutory or any other statutory remedy.

Section 40. Written Amendment Required. No amendment, alteration, modification of, or addition to the Facilities Lease will be valid or binding unless expressed in writing and signed by the Corporation and the Board and consented to the extent required by Article VIII of the Agreement.

Section 41. Entire Agreement. This Facilities Lease, the exhibits and addenda, if any, contain the entire agreement between the Corporation and the Board. No promises or representations, except as contained in this Facilities Lease, have been made to the Board respecting the condition or the manner of operating the Facilities.

Section 42. Signs. The Board may attach any sign on any part of the Facilities, or in the halls, lobbies, windows, or elevator banks of the Facilities, without the Corporation approval. The Board may name the Facilities and change the name, number, or designation of the Facilities, without the Corporation's prior consent.

Section 43. Litigation Expenses. The Board will pay the Corporation as Additional Rental all reasonable Litigation Expenses and all other reasonable expenses which may be incurred by the Corporation in enforcing any of the obligations of the Board under this Facilities Lease, in exercising its rights to recover against the Board for loss or damage sustained in accordance with the provisions of this Facilities Lease, or in any litigation or negotiation in which the Corporation shall, without its fault, become involved through or because of this Facilities Lease.

Section 44. Brokers. The Corporation and the Board respectively represent and warrant to each other that neither of them has consulted or negotiated with any broker or finder with regard to the Facilities.

Section 45. No Easements for Air or Light. Any diminution or shutting off of light, air, or view by any structure that may be erected on any of the lands constituting the Facilities, or on lands adjacent to the Facilities, will in no way affect this Facilities Lease or impose any liability on the Corporation. This Facilities Lease does not grant any rights to light, view and/or air over the Facilities whatsoever.

Section 46. Binding Effect. The covenants, conditions, and agreements contained in this Facilities Lease will bind and inure to the benefit of the Corporation and the Board and their respective permitted successors and assigns.

Section 47. Rules of Interpretation. The following rules shall apply to the construction of this Facilities Lease unless the context requires otherwise: (a) the singular includes the plural and the plural includes the singular; (b) words importing any gender include the other genders; (c) references to statutes are to be construed as including all statutory provisions consolidating, amending or replacing the statute to which reference is made and all regulations promulgated pursuant to such statutes; (d) references to "writing" include printing, photocopy, typing, lithography and other means of reproducing words in a tangible visible form; (e) the words "including" "includes" and "include" shall be deemed to be followed by words "without limitation"; (f) references to the introductory paragraph, preliminary statements, articles, sections (or subdivision of sections), exhibits, appendices, annexes or schedules are to those of this Facilities Lease unless otherwise indicated; (g) references to agreements and other contractual instruments shall be deemed to include all subsequent amendments and other modifications to such instruments; (h) references to Persons include their respective successors and assigns to the extent successors or assigns are permitted or not prohibited by the terms of this Facilities Lease; (i) any accounting term not otherwise defined has the meaning assigned to it in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles; (j) "or" is not exclusive; (k) provisions apply to successive events and transactions; (l) references to documents or agreements which have been terminated or released or which have expired shall be of no force and effect after such termination, release, or expiration; (m) references to mail shall be deemed to refer to first-class mail, postage prepaid, unless another type of mail is specified; (n) all references to time shall be to Hammond, Louisiana time; (o) references to specific persons, positions, or officers shall include those who or which succeed to or perform their respective functions, duties, or responsibilities; and (p) the terms "herein", "hereunder" "hereby" "hereof," and any similar terms refer to this Facilities Lease as a whole and not to any particular articles, section or subdivision hereof.

Section 48. Relationship of Parties. The relationship of the Parties shall be one of lessor and lessee only, and shall not be considered a partnership, joint venture, license arrangement or unincorporated association. The Corporation is not controlled by the Board or under the control of any Person also in control of the Board.

the time when the same became due under the terms of the Leases or any of them; the Mortgagor has not executed or granted any modifications to any Lease except as previously disclosed to the Mortgagee; all existing Leases are valid and in full force and effect; there exists no defense, counterclaim, or set-off to the payment of any Rentals under any Lease; there are no defaults or events of default now existing under any of the Leases, and no event has occurred which with the passage of time or the giving of notice, or both, would constitute such a default or event of default.

Section 4.15 Continuing Accuracy. All of the representations and warranties contained in this Article or elsewhere in this Mortgage shall be true through and until the date on which all obligations of Mortgagor under this Mortgage and the Agreement are fully satisfied, and Mortgagor shall promptly notify Mortgagee of any event which would render any of said representations and warranties untrue or misleading.

ARTICLE 5

COVENANTS OF MORTGAGOR

So long as the Obligations or any part thereof remains outstanding or unpaid, the Mortgagor specially covenants, promises, stipulates, and agrees with the Mortgagee as follows:

Section 5.1 Warranty. The Mortgagor shall warrant, preserve, and defend the leasehold interest in and to the Mortgaged Property, including the Facilities, and its interest in and to the remainder of the Collateral and the validity, enforceability, and priority of the Lien of this Mortgage against the claims and demands of all Persons whomsoever, at its sole cost and expense.

Section 5.2 Payment; Performance of Covenants. The Mortgagor shall make prompt payment when due of all amounts owing hereunder as the same become due, without offset, counterclaim, or defense, and shall punctually and properly perform all of the Mortgagor's covenants, duties, agreements, and conditions (i) under this Mortgage and any Loan Document to which the Mortgagor is a party or (ii) imposed upon or assumed by the Mortgagor by virtue of the provisions of any deed, conveyance, lease, agreement, statute, or ordinance pursuant to which the Mortgagor or any predecessor in title of the Collateral acquired the Collateral or any rights or privileges appurtenant thereto or for the benefit thereof.

Section 5.3 Payment of Taxes and Utilities. Subject to the right to contest certain matters with respect to the Collateral pursuant to Section 5.6 hereof and the Agreement, the Mortgagor shall or shall cause the Board to pay all Taxes levied or assessed against the Collateral or any part thereof prior to the date upon which any fine, penalty, interest, or cost may be added thereto or imposed by Laws for the nonpayment thereof. The Mortgagor shall deliver to the Mortgagee, promptly after a request therefor by the Mortgagee, receipted bills or canceled checks evidencing the payment of prior Taxes to the date upon which any fine, penalty, interest, or cost may be added thereto or imposed by Laws for the nonpayment thereof. In the case of any assessment payable in installments, each installment thereof shall be paid prior to or on the date on which such installment becomes due and payable without imposition of any fine, penalty, interest, or cost. The Mortgagor shall not be entitled to any credit on the Obligations, or any other sums that may become payable under the terms hereof, under any Loan Document, or otherwise, by reason of the payment of Taxes.

The Mortgagor shall or shall cause the Board to pay timely all charges for electricity, power, gas, water, and other utilities used in connection with the Collateral, as and when due.

Section 5.4 Other Compliance. Subject to the right to contest certain matters with respect to the Collateral pursuant to Section 5.6 hereof, the Mortgagor itself agrees to or agrees to cause the Board: (1) to perform and comply with or cause the performance and compliance with all covenants, agreements, and restrictions affecting the Collateral and with all Laws, ordinances, acts, rules, regulations, and orders of any Governmental Authority exercising any power of regulation or supervision over the Mortgagor or any part of the Collateral, whether now or hereafter enacted or enforced and whether the same be directed to the ownership, lease and operation of the Mortgaged Property, or the repair, manner of use, or structural alteration of the Mortgaged Property or otherwise, (2) to comply with or to cause compliance with the terms of all insurance policies covering or applicable to the Collateral, all requirements of the issuer of any such policy, and all orders, rules, regulations, and other requirements of or standards recommended by the National and Regional Fire Protection Association (or any other body exercising similar functions) applicable to or affecting the Collateral or any use or condition of the Collateral, and (3) to procure, maintain, and comply or cause the procurement, maintenance and compliance of and with all permits, licenses, approvals, or other authorizations required for any use of the Collateral being made and for the proper erection, installation, operation, and maintenance of the Mortgaged Property and any fixture, equipment, machinery, or appliance in or on the Mortgaged Property, or any portion of the foregoing.

Section 5.5 Payment of Indebtedness and Obligations Pertaining to Collateral. Subject to the right to contest certain matters with respect to the Collateral pursuant to Section 5.6 hereof, the Mortgagor shall cause all indebtedness, claims, encumbrances, and liabilities of any kind or character (including, without limitation, claims for labor, materials, supplies, and rent) incurred in the operation, maintenance, and development of the Collateral to be paid within a reasonable time after same become due and in any event prior to the time any lien caused by such nonpayment would arise by law or contract.

Section 5.6 Contest of Taxes, Indebtedness, and Other Claims. The Mortgagor shall have the right to contest directly or through the Board, at its own expense, by appropriate legal proceedings conducted in good faith and with due diligence, the amount or validity of any Taxes, indebtedness, claims, assessments or encumbrances referred to herein (other than this Mortgage or any Loan Document securing all or any portion of the Obligations), or any of the Laws, ordinances, acts, rules, regulations, orders, licenses, and authorizations referred to herein; provided, however, the Collateral is not placed in imminent danger of being seized or forfeited or the execution of any lien is stayed.

Section 5.7 Insurance Requirements. The Mortgagor agrees to or agrees to cause the Board to insure continuously the Collateral and each and every part and parcel thereof in such amounts and with policies meeting the criteria set forth in the Indenture and the Agreement.

Section 5.8 Preservation and Maintenance of Collateral. Except as otherwise permitted by the express terms of the Loan Documents, the Mortgagor: (i) shall not commit waste; (ii) shall not abandon the Mortgaged Property; (iii) in the event of any damage, injury, or loss to the Collateral, shall restore or repair promptly and in a good and workmanlike manner all or any part of the Collateral to the substantial equivalent of its condition prior to such damage, injury, or loss or such other condition as the Mortgagee may approve in writing, whether or not insurance proceeds are available to cover in whole or in part the costs of such restoration or repair; (iv) shall keep the Collateral in good condition, repair, and working order, ordinary wear and tear excepted and shall not remove or demolish the Collateral without the Mortgagee's prior written consent; (v) shall comply with all applicable Laws, ordinances, regulations, and requirements of any Governmental Authority with jurisdiction over the Collateral; (vi) shall not make any structural alterations to the Collateral without the Mortgagee's or the Bond Insurer's prior written consent; and (vii) shall give notice in writing to the Mortgagee and the Bond Insurer of and, unless otherwise directed in writing by the Mortgagee and the Bond Insurer, appear in and defend any action or proceeding affecting the Collateral, the security or priority of this Mortgage, or the rights or powers of the Mortgagee.

Section 5.9 Environmental Hazards.

1. The Mortgagor shall not: (1) cause or permit the presence, use, generation, manufacture, production, processing, installation, release, escape, spillage, seepage, leakage, dumping, pouring, emptying, emission, discharge, storage (including above-ground and underground storage tanks for petroleum or petroleum products, but excluding small containers of gasoline used for maintenance equipment or similar purposes and in compliance with applicable Environmental Requirements), treatment, management, transportation, handling or the like of any Hazardous Substances on, under, in, or about the Mortgaged Property, or in any way affecting the Mortgaged Property, and that are in violation of applicable Environmental Requirements or could form the basis for any present or future claim, demand, or action seeking cleanup of the Mortgaged Property or imposition of liabilities under Environmental Requirements, or the transportation of any Hazardous Substances to or from the Mortgaged Property in violation of applicable Environmental Requirements; or (2) cause or exacerbate any occurrence or condition on the Mortgaged Property that is or may be in violation of any Environmental Requirements or that could otherwise serve as the basis of liability under any Environmental Requirements. No Hazardous Substances shall be placed on, in, under or about the Mortgaged Property except in strict compliance with applicable Environmental Requirements. No Hazardous Substances shall be disposed of on, in, under or about the Mortgaged Property. The Mortgagor shall not cause or permit the migration of Hazardous Substances from the Mortgaged Property to any other property or onto the Mortgaged Property from any property or area adjacent to the Mortgaged Property. The Mortgagor shall at all times comply with all applicable Environmental Requirements and shall immediately correct any matters discussed in all notices of violations of Environmental Requirements prior to the issuance of any regulatory or judicial order or assessment of any fines. The Mortgagor shall secure compliance by all lessees and sublessees of the Mortgaged Property with its obligations in this Section.

2. The Mortgagor itself agrees to, or agrees to cause the Board, as appropriate, to advise the Mortgagee promptly, in writing, of any notice or other communication, written or oral, from the United States Environmental Protection Agency, the Louisiana Department of Environmental Quality, or any other federal, state, or local Governmental Authority having jurisdiction over the Mortgaged Property with respect to any alleged violation of any Environmental Requirements or the generation, presence, management, release, escape, spillage, seepage, leakage, dumping, pouring, emptying, treatment, discharge, emission, handling, storage, transportation, disposal, or the like of Hazardous Substances or storage tanks, or any other matter regulated under Environmental Requirements.

3. The Mortgagor itself agrees to, or agrees to cause the Board, as appropriate, promptly to notify the Mortgagee in writing of: (i) any enforcement, cleanup, removal, or other governmental or regulatory action, investigation, notice of violation, or any other proceeding instituted against the Mortgagor or the Mortgaged Property and (ii) any suit, cause of action, or any other claim made or threatened by any third party against the Mortgagor or the Mortgaged Property relating to damage, contribution, cost recovery, compensation, loss, or injury resulting from any Hazardous Substances. The provisions of the preceding sentence shall be in addition to any and all other obligations and liabilities that the Mortgagor may have to the Mortgagee under applicable law.

4. The Mortgagor itself agrees to, or agrees to cause the Board, as appropriate, to promptly take any and all necessary remedial and response actions in response to the presence, storage, use, disposal, transportation, or discharge of any Hazardous Materials on, under, above, or about the Mortgaged Property, any alleged violation of Environmental Requirements that could lead to liability; provided, however, that the Mortgagor shall not take any such remedial or response action or enter into any settlement agreement, consent decree, or other compromise in respect to any claims, proceedings, lawsuits, or actions completed or threatened as a result of any actual or alleged Hazardous Substances on, under, above, or about the Mortgaged Property, or enter into any settlement agreement, consent decree, or other compromise in respect to any claims, proceedings, lawsuits, or actions completed or threatened pursuant to any Environmental Requirements, without, in each case, obtaining the Mortgagee's prior written consent; provided further, however, that the Mortgagee's prior consent shall not be necessary in the event that the presence of Hazardous Substances on, under, above, or about the Mortgaged Property either: (i) poses an immediate threat to the health, safety, or welfare of any individual or (ii) is of such a nature that an immediate remedial response is necessary and it is not possible to obtain the consent prior to undertaking such action. In the event that the Mortgagor undertakes remedial action with respect to any Hazardous Substances on, under, above, or about the Mortgaged Property as set forth in clauses (i) and (ii) above, the Mortgagor shall immediately notify the Mortgagee of any such remedial/response action, and shall conduct and complete, or cause a sublessee to conduct and complete such remedial/response action in compliance with all applicable Environmental Requirements and in accordance with the orders and directives of all federal, state, and local Governmental Authorities having jurisdiction.

5. The Mortgagor shall or shall cause the Board to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Mortgagee and the Bond Insurer from and against any and all claims, demands, costs, losses, liabilities (including those based on strict liability), expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees, whether suit is instituted or not), judgments, fines, penalties, or amounts paid in settlement (collectively, "Losses") incurred by the Mortgagee and/or the Bond Insurer in connection with or as a result of the presence, storage, use, disposal, transportation, discharge, or release or threatened release on, under, from, above, or about the Mortgaged Property of any Hazardous Substances or any violations of any Environmental Requirements arising out of acts or omissions of the Mortgagor, or the Board, or their agents, tenants, occupants, employees, or contractors. To the extent of such indemnity, Losses indemnified against specifically shall include costs incurred in connection with (i) any investigation or monitoring of site conditions; (ii) any clean up, containment, remediation, removal, or restoration work required or performed by any federal, state, or local Governmental Authority or performed by the Mortgagor, the Board or any other Person because of the presence, storage, use, disposal, transportation, discharge, or release or threatened release of any Hazardous Substances on, in, from, under, or about the Mortgaged Property, and (iii) any claims by third parties for Losses due to the presence, storage, use, disposal, transportation, discharge, or release or threatened release of such Hazardous Substances or the cleanup, containment, remediation, or removal thereof.

6. The indemnity provisions contained in this Section 5.9 shall survive the payment of the Obligations and the cancellation of this Mortgage.

Section 5.10 Notice of Changes. The Mortgagor will not change its name, identity, federal tax identification number or corporate structure in any manner unless it shall have given the Mortgagee and the Bond Insurer at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice thereof. The Mortgagor will not change the location of (i) its chief executive office or chief place of business, or (ii) the locations where it keeps or holds any Collateral or any records relating thereto, from the applicable location described in Section 7.6 hereof unless it shall have given the Mortgagee and the Bond Insurer at least 30 days' prior written notice thereof.

Section 5.11 Filing. The Mortgagor agrees that a carbon, photographic, facsimile, photostatic or other reproduction of this Mortgage or of a financing statement is sufficient as a financing statement. The Mortgagor shall pay all costs of or incidental to the recording or filing of any financing, amendment, continuation, termination or other statements concerning the Collateral.

Section 5.12 Accounts Collection. The Mortgagor shall use its best efforts to cause to be collected from its account debtors, as and when due, any and all amounts owing under or on account of each Account (including, without limitation, Accounts that are delinquent, such Accounts to be collected in accordance with lawful collection procedures) and shall apply forthwith upon receipt thereof all such amounts as are so collected to the outstanding balance of such Account. Subject to the rights of the Mortgagee hereunder, if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Mortgagor may allow as adjustments to amounts owing under its Accounts (i) an extension or renewal of the time or times of payment, or settlement for less than the total unpaid balance, and (ii) a refund or credit due as a result of returned or damaged merchandise, all in accordance with the Mortgagor's ordinary course of business consistent with its historical collection practices and with sound business judgment. The costs and expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees) of collection, whether incurred by the Mortgagor or the Mortgagee, shall be borne by the Mortgagor.

Section 5.13 Instruments. While an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Mortgagor will immediately deliver and pledge to the Mortgagee each instrument evidencing, representing or otherwise arising from an Account or General Intangible, appropriately endorsed to the Mortgagee, provided that so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Mortgagor may refrain from such delivery and may retain possession of, for the purpose of collection in the ordinary course, any such instruments received by it in the ordinary course of business.

Section 5.14 Transfer and Other Liens. The Mortgagor will not sell, lease, transfer, exchange or otherwise dispose of the Collateral or the Proceeds, or any part thereof, and except as otherwise permitted under the Indenture and the Agreement without the prior written consent of the Mortgagee, and will not permit any Lien to attach to the Collateral or the Proceeds, or any part thereof, other than Permitted Liens, except that the Mortgagor may, in the ordinary course of its business and in the absence of an Event of Default, collect its Accounts and General Intangibles.

Section 5.15 Use of Mortgaged Property; Leases. The Mortgagor shall, or shall cause the Board to maintain, preserve, and renew all rights of way, servitudes, grants, privileges, licenses, permits, zoning approvals, and franchises necessary for the use of the Mortgaged Property and shall not, unless required by applicable law or unless the Mortgagee has otherwise agreed in writing, allow changes in the use for which the Mortgaged Property was intended under the Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease. To the extent permitted by law, the Mortgagor shall not permit the Board to initiate or acquiesce in a change in the zoning classification of the Mortgaged Property without the Mortgagee's prior written consent. The Mortgagor will observe and perform all the obligations imposed upon it as landlord under the Leases, if any, and not do or permit to be done anything to impair the security thereof; will exercise any option or election contained in or relating to any of the Leases that the Mortgagee shall require; at the Mortgagee's request, will assign and transfer to the Mortgagee by specific assignment of leases any and all subsequent Leases upon all or any part of the Property or the Facilities; and to execute and deliver at the request of the Mortgagee all such further assurances and assignments in the premises covered by the Leases as the Mortgagee shall from time to time require.

Section 5.16 Additional Provisions Regarding the Ground Lease. (a) The Mortgagor shall pay all rent and other charges required under the Ground Lease as and when the same are due and the Mortgagor shall keep, observe, and perform, or cause to be kept, observed, and performed, all of the other terms, covenants, provisions, and agreements of the Ground Lease on the part of the tenant thereunder to be kept, observed, and performed, and shall not in any manner, cancel, terminate, or surrender, or permit any cancellation, termination, or surrender of the Ground Lease, in whole or in part, or, without the written consent of the Mortgagee, either orally or in writing, modify, amend, or permit any modification or amendment of any of the terms thereof in any respect, and any attempt on the part of the Mortgagor to exercise any such right without such written consent of the Mortgagee shall be null and void ab initio and of no force or effect.

- (b) The Mortgagor shall do, or cause to be done, all things necessary to preserve and keep unimpaired the rights of the Mortgagor as tenant under the Ground Lease and to prevent any default under the Ground Lease or any termination, surrender, cancellation, forfeiture, or impairment thereof, and in the event of the failure of the Mortgagor to make any payment required to be made by the Mortgagor pursuant to the provisions of the Ground Lease or to keep, observe, or perform, or cause to be kept, observed, or performed, any of the terms, covenants, provisions, or agreements of the Ground Lease, the Mortgagor agrees that the Mortgagee may (but shall not be obligated to) take any action on behalf of the Mortgagor, to make or cause to be kept, observed, or performed any such terms, covenants, provisions, or agreements and to enter upon the Mortgaged Property and take all such action thereof as may be necessary therefor to the end that the rights of the Mortgagor in and to the leasehold estate created by the Ground Lease shall be kept unimpaired and free from default, and all money so expended by the Mortgagee, with interest thereon at the Default Rate from the date of each such expenditure, shall be paid by the Mortgagor to the Mortgagee promptly upon demand by the Mortgagee and shall be added to the Obligations, and the Mortgagee shall have, in addition to any other remedy thereof, the same rights and remedies in the event of non-payment of any such sum by the Mortgagor as in the case of a default by the Mortgagor in the payment of any sums due under the Loan Documents.

- (c) The Mortgagor shall enforce the obligations of the Ground Lessor under the Ground Lease to the end that it may enjoy all of the rights granted to it under the Ground Lease; promptly notify the Mortgagee in writing of any default by the Ground Lessor or by the Mortgagor in the performance or observance of any of the terms, covenants, or conditions on the part of the Ground Lessor or the Mortgagor, as the case may be, to be performed or observed under the Ground Lease; promptly advise the Mortgagee in writing of the occurrences of any of the events of default enumerated in the Ground Lease and of the giving of any notice by the Ground Lessor to the Mortgagor of any default by the Mortgagor in performance or observance of any of the terms, covenants, or conditions of the Ground Lease on the part of the Mortgagor to be performed or observed; and promptly deliver to the Mortgagee a true and complete copy of each such notice. If, pursuant to the Ground Lease, the Ground Lessor shall deliver to the Mortgagee a copy of any notice of default given to the Mortgagor, such notice shall constitute full authority and protection to the Mortgagee for any action taken or omitted to be taken by the Mortgagee in good faith in reliance thereon.
- (d) If any action or proceeding shall be instituted to evict the Mortgagor or to recover possession of the Mortgaged Property or for any other purpose affecting the Ground Lease or this Mortgage, the Mortgagor shall, immediately upon service thereof on or to the Mortgagor, deliver to the Mortgagee a true and complete copy of each petition, summons, complaint, notice of motion, order to show cause and of all other provisions, pleadings, and papers, however designated, served in any such action or proceeding.
- (e) The Mortgagor covenants and agrees that unless the Mortgagee shall otherwise expressly consent in writing, the fee title to the Property and the leasehold estate shall not merge, but shall always remain separate and distinct, notwithstanding the union of said estates either in the Ground Lessor, the Mortgagor, or a third party by purchase or otherwise; and in case the Mortgagor acquires the fee title or any other estate, title, or interest in the Mortgaged Property, this Mortgage shall attach to and cover, and be a lien upon the fee title or such other estate so acquired, and such fee title or other estate shall, without further assignment, mortgage, or conveyance, become and be subject to the lien of and covered by this Mortgage.

- (f) No release or forbearance of any of the Mortgagor's obligations under the Ground Lease, pursuant to the Ground Lease or otherwise, shall release the Mortgagor from any of its obligations under this Mortgage, including its obligation with respect to the payment of rent as provided for in the Ground Lease and the performance of all of the terms, provisions, covenants, conditions, and agreements contained in the Ground Lease to be kept, performed, and complied with by the tenant therein.
- (g) The Mortgagor shall not make any election or give any consent or approval (other than the exercise of a renewal right or extension right or other right conferring a benefit on the Mortgagor, provided that any such action has no adverse effect or consequence to the Mortgagee) for which a right to do so is conferred upon the Mortgagor as tenant under the Ground Lease without the prior written consent of the Mortgagee. In case of any Event of Default under this Mortgage, all such rights, together with the right of termination, cancellation, modification, change, supplement, alteration, or amendment of the Ground Lease, all of which have been assigned for collateral purposes to the Mortgagee, shall vest in and be exercisable solely by the Mortgagee.
- (h) Not more than three hundred sixty (360) and not less than two hundred seventy (270) days before the right of the Mortgagor to exercise any option or right to renew or extend the term of the Ground Lease shall expire, the Mortgagor shall give the Mortgagee written notice specifying the date, term, and manner for which such option or renewal is to be exercised. Within ten (10) days of written demand by the Mortgagee, the Mortgagor shall exercise any such option or renewal which is necessary to extend the term of the Ground Lease beyond the term of this Mortgage or to comply with any law affecting the Mortgagor or the Mortgagee or which is necessary, in the reasonable judgment of the Mortgagee, to preserve the value of the Mortgaged Property intended to be afforded by this Mortgage. The Mortgagor shall promptly provide evidence of such exercise of such option or right to the reasonable satisfaction of the Mortgagee. In the event that the Mortgagor fails to so exercise any such option or right or upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Mortgagor hereby agrees and grants to the Mortgagee all right and authority to exercise such option in the name of the Mortgagor or in its own name. Nothing contained herein shall affect or limit any rights of the Mortgagee under the Ground Lease.
- (i) If there shall be filed by or against the Mortgagor a petition under the United States Bankruptcy Code, Title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), then the lien of this Mortgage shall attach to all of the Mortgagor's rights and remedies at any time arising under or pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, including, but not limited to, §365 thereof. Upon the filing of any petition by or against the Mortgagor under the Bankruptcy Code, the Mortgagor shall immediately provide copies of all pleadings and notices related thereto to the Mortgagee. The Mortgagor unconditionally assigns to the Mortgagee all of the Mortgagor's rights to remain in possession of the Mortgaged Property following the filing of any bankruptcy petition by or against the Mortgagor, and acknowledges that the Mortgagee may file any pleading in furtherance thereof. This assignment constitutes a present, irrevocable, and unconditional assignment of the foregoing claims, rights, and remedies of the Mortgagor, and shall continue in effect until all of the Obligations shall have been satisfied and discharged in full. Furthermore, the Mortgagor hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Mortgagee as the Mortgagor's attorney-in-fact for the purpose of filing any pleading in the court in which the initial petition was filed or any court to which the action thereon may be removed, transferred, or assigned (the "Bankruptcy Court") that the Mortgagee determines in its sole discretion to protect the Mortgagee's interests in and to the Mortgaged Property, including but not limited to a motion to extend any applicable time period for the filing of any motion related to the assumption of the Ground Lease.

- (i) The Mortgagor shall not, without the prior written consent of the Mortgagee, file any motion or other pleading to reject or otherwise elect to treat the Ground Lease as terminated under §365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Any such motion, pleading, or election made without such prior written consent shall be void ab initio, and this Mortgage may be pled in bar thereof. If the Mortgagor does file such a motion to reject the Ground Lease under §365 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Mortgagor hereby acknowledges and agrees that, unless the Mortgagee consents in writing to such rejection, the Mortgagor may not reject the Ground Lease unless the Mortgagor proves, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the Mortgagor was "insolvent," within the meaning of §101 of the Bankruptcy Code, on the petition filing date. If the Mortgagor, as tenant under the Ground Lease and as debtor under the Bankruptcy Code, shall desire to reject the Ground Lease pursuant to §365 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Mortgagor shall give the Mortgagee not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice of the date on which the Mortgagor intends to file a motion in or otherwise apply to the Bankruptcy Court for authority to reject the Ground Lease. In such event, the Mortgagee shall have the right, but not the obligation, to serve upon the Mortgagor within such thirty (30) day period a notice stating that the Mortgagee demands that the Mortgagor assume the Ground Lease and assign the Ground Lease to the Mortgagee or the Mortgagee's designee pursuant to §365 of the Bankruptcy Code. If the Mortgagee shall serve upon the Mortgagor the notice described in the preceding sentence, the Mortgagor shall not seek to reject the Ground Lease and shall comply with the demand provided for in the preceding sentence.
- (ii) If the Mortgagor shall desire to assume the Ground Lease, then the Mortgagor shall give the Mortgagee not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice of the date on which the Mortgagor intends to file a motion in, or otherwise apply to, the Bankruptcy Court for authority to assume the Ground Lease. The Mortgagor shall inform the Mortgagee as a part of such notice whether or not the Mortgagor intends to assign the Ground Lease following assumption thereof. The Mortgagee shall have the right, but not the obligation, to serve upon the Mortgagor within such thirty (30) day period a notice stating that the Mortgagee demands that the Mortgagor assume the Ground Lease and assign the Ground Lease to the Mortgagee or the Mortgagee's designee pursuant to §365 of the Bankruptcy Code, and such election by the Mortgagee shall be binding upon the Mortgagor. Should the Mortgagor file a motion to assume the Ground Lease, the Mortgagee shall have the sole right to determine what terms and conditions will provide the Mortgagee with "adequate assurance of future performance," within the meaning of §365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

- (j) If there shall be filed by or against the Ground Lessor or any fee owner of the Mortgaged Property a petition under the Bankruptcy Code, the Mortgagor shall, after obtaining knowledge thereof, promptly notify the Mortgagee thereof in writing. The Mortgagor shall promptly deliver to the Mortgagee, following receipt, complete and correct copies of any and all notices, motions, summonses, pleadings, claim forms, applications, and other documents received by the Mortgagor in connection with any such petition and any proceedings relating thereto. In the event of such a bankruptcy filing, the Mortgagee shall have the option, exercisable upon notice from the Mortgagee to the Mortgagor, to conduct and control any such litigation with counsel chosen by the Mortgagee. The Mortgagee may proceed in its own name or in the name of the Mortgagor in connection with any such litigation, and the Mortgagor agrees to execute any and all powers, authorizations, consents, or other documents required by the Mortgagee in connection therewith. The Mortgagor shall, upon demand, pay to the Mortgagee all costs and expenses (including attorneys' and paralegals' fees and expenses) paid or incurred thereby in connection with the prosecution or conduct of any such proceedings. Any such costs or expenses not paid by the Mortgagor as aforesaid shall be secured by the lien of this Mortgage and shall be added to the principal amount of the Obligations. The Mortgagor shall not commence any action, suit, proceeding, or case, or file any application or make any motion, in respect of the Ground Lease in any such case under the Bankruptcy Code without the prior written consent of the Mortgagee. The Mortgagor hereby unconditionally assigns, transfers, and sets over to the Mortgagee all of the Mortgagor's claims and rights to the payment of damages or any claim arising from any rejection of the Ground Lease by the Ground Lessor or any other fee owner of the Mortgaged Property, or the payment of any amount or claim associated with the Ground Lease in any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code. The Mortgagee shall have the right to proceed in its own name and/or in the name of the Mortgagor in respect of any claim, suit, action, or proceeding relating to the assumption or rejection of the Ground Lease by the Ground Lessor, including, without limitation, the right to file and prosecute, to the exclusion and in the name of the Mortgagor, any proofs of claim, complaints, motions, applications, notices, and other documents, or to defend against any objection thereto, in any case in respect to the Ground Lessor or any fee owner of the Mortgaged Property. This assignment constitutes a present, irrevocable, and unconditional assignment of the foregoing claims, rights, and remedies, and shall continue in effect until all of the Obligations shall have been satisfied and discharged in full. Any amounts received by the Mortgagee as damages arising out of the rejection of the Ground Lease as aforesaid shall be applied first to all costs and expenses of the Mortgagee (including, without limitation, attorneys' and paralegals' fees and expenses) incurred in connection with the exercise of any of its rights or remedies under this Section. The Mortgagor shall promptly make, execute, acknowledge, and deliver, in form and substance satisfactory to the Mortgagee, a UCC Financing Statement (Form UCC-1), and all such additional instruments, agreements and other documents, as may at any time hereafter be required by the Mortgagee to effectuate and carry out the assignment made pursuant to this Section.

- (k) If the Mortgagor shall seek to offset against the rent reserved in the Ground Lease the amount of any damages caused by the nonperformance by the Ground Lessor or any fee owner of the Mortgaged Property any of its obligations under the Ground Lease after the rejection by the Ground Lessor or any fee owner of the Mortgaged Property under the Bankruptcy Code, the Mortgagor shall, prior to effecting such offset, notify the Mortgagee of its intent to do so, setting forth the amounts proposed to be so offset and the basis therefor. The Mortgagee shall have the right to object to all or any part of such offset that, in the reasonable judgment of the Mortgagee, would constitute a breach of the Ground Lease, and in the event of such objection, the Mortgagor shall not effect any offset of the amounts so objected to by the Mortgagee. Neither the failure of the Mortgagee to object as aforesaid nor any objection relating to such offset shall constitute an approval of any such offset by the Mortgagee. The Mortgagor shall pay and protect the Mortgagee, and indemnify and save the Mortgagee harmless from and against, any and all claims, demands, actions, suits, proceedings, damages, losses, costs, and expenses of every nature whatsoever (including without limitation, attorneys' and paralegals' fees and expenses) arising from or relating to any off-set by the Mortgagor against the rent reserved in the Ground Lease.

Section 5.17 Inspection. The Mortgagee is authorized and empowered to enter, and to authorize its employees, agents, or contractors identified in writing to the Mortgagor and the Board to enter, upon any or all of the Mortgaged Property at any reasonable time and from time to time upon prior notice to the Mortgagor and the Board to inspect the same, to perform or observe any covenants, conditions, or terms that the Mortgagor shall fail to perform, meet, or comply with, to make such repairs, replacements, renewals, or additions as shall be necessary, or for any other purpose in connection with the maintenance, protection, or preservation of the Mortgagee's security, without thereby becoming liable to the Mortgagor, the Board or any Person in possession holding under the Mortgagor. Any inspections performed by or for the Mortgagee shall be performed at times and in a manner so as not to unreasonably interfere with the Mortgagor's business or the operation of the Mortgaged Property. The Mortgagor will keep accurate books and records in which full, true, and correct entries shall be promptly made with respect to the Mortgaged Property and the operation thereof. Any right of access to any portion of the Facilities leased to the students, faculty, staff or Permitted Lessees shall be subject to their rights pursuant to their rental agreements and University policy.

Section 5.18 Negative Covenants. The Mortgagor hereby agrees that, so long as any of the Obligations remains outstanding or unpaid, the Mortgagor shall not, directly or indirectly, without the prior written consent of the Mortgagee:

A. Create, incur, assume, or suffer to exist any indebtedness relating to the Collateral, except the Obligations under this Mortgage and the Permitted Encumbrances, or as otherwise permitted under the Indenture or the Agreement;

B. Create, incur, or place, or permit to be created, incurred, or placed, any Liens on the Collateral, or any part thereof, or any revenues related thereto, except for the Permitted Encumbrances and Liens in favor of the Mortgagee;

C. Convey, sell, lease, assign, transfer, or otherwise dispose of the Collateral, or permit any conveyance, sale, lease, assignment, transfer, or other disposition of the Collateral, except as otherwise permitted under the Indenture and the Agreement.

Section 5.19 Cure of Defects. If the validity or priority of this Mortgage or of any rights or Liens created or evidenced hereby with respect to the Collateral or any part thereof, or the leasehold interest or right of occupancy of the Mortgagor to the Mortgaged Property or any part thereof, shall be endangered or questioned or shall be attacked directly or indirectly, or if any legal proceedings are instituted against the Mortgagor with respect thereto, upon discovery of such actual or alleged defect, the Mortgagor shall give written notice thereof to the Mortgagee promptly, secure the necessary funds and diligently endeavor, with the Board, as necessary, to cure any defect that may be developed or claimed and take all necessary and proper steps for the defense of such legal proceedings, including, but not limited to, the employment of counsel agreeable to the Mortgagee, the prosecution or defense of litigation, and the release or discharge of all adverse claims. The Mortgagee (whether or not named as a party to legal proceedings with respect thereto) is hereby authorized and empowered to take such additional steps as in its judgment and discretion may be necessary or proper for the defense of any such legal proceedings or the protection of the validity or priority of this Mortgage and the Liens created or evidenced hereby, including, but not limited to, the employment of independent counsel, the prosecution or defense of litigation, the compromise or discharge of any adverse claims made with respect to the Collateral, the purchase of any tax title, and the removal of prior Liens or security interests, and all expenses so incurred of every kind and character shall be a demand obligation owing by the Mortgagor to the Mortgagee and shall bear interest from the date of expenditure until paid at a rate equal to the rate provided for in Section 6.12 hereof for Advances to bear, and the same shall be secured by the Lien evidenced by this Mortgage, and the party incurring such expenses shall be subrogated to all rights of the Person receiving such payment.

Section 5.20 Estoppel Certificate. The Mortgagor shall, within ten (10) business days of a written request therefor by the Mortgagee, furnish the Mortgagee with a written statement, duly acknowledged, setting forth the sums secured by this Mortgage and any right of set-off, counterclaim, or other defense that exists against such sums and the obligations under this Mortgage.

Section 5.21 Further Assurances. (a) on the request of Mortgagee, the Mortgagor shall promptly correct (i) any defect, error, or omission that may be discovered in the contents, or in the execution or acknowledgment, of this Mortgage or any Loan Document to which the Mortgagor is a party, and (ii) the Mortgagor itself shall, or shall cause the Board to execute, acknowledge, deliver, record, re-record, file, re-file, register, and re-register any and all such further acts, deeds, conveyances, security agreements, mortgages, assignments, estoppel certificates, financing statements and continuations thereof, termination statements, notices of assignment, transfers, certificates, assurances, and other instruments as reasonably may be required from time to time in order (A) to carry out more effectively the purposes of this Mortgage and any of the Loan Documents to which the Mortgagor is a party, (B) to more fully identify and subject to the Liens created by this Mortgage any of the properties, rights, or interests required to be encumbered hereby, including, specifically, any additions, substitutions, replacements, or appurtenances to the Collateral, (C) to perfect and maintain the validity, effectiveness, and priority of this Mortgage and the Liens intended to be created hereby and (D) to better assure, convey, grant, assign, transfer, preserve, protect, and confirm to the Mortgagee any of the rights granted or now or hereafter intended by the parties hereto to be granted to the Mortgagee hereunder or under any other instrument or agreement executed in connection herewith. The Mortgagor shall pay, directly or through the Board, all costs connected with any of the foregoing.

(b) Mortgagor hereby authorizes Mortgagee to file one or more financing or continuation statements and other records with respect to all or any part of the Collateral (including any amendments thereto, or continuation or termination statements thereof), without the signature or other authorization of Mortgagor, in such form and in such offices as Mortgagee reasonably determines appropriate, to perfect or maintain the perfection of the security interest of Mortgagee hereunder. Mortgagor acknowledges and agrees that it is not authorized to, and will not, authenticate or file, or authorize the filing of, any financing statements or other record with respect to the Collateral (including any amendments thereto, or continuation or termination statements thereof) except as permitted hereby, without the prior written approval and authorization by the Mortgagee, consenting to the form and substance of such filing or record. Mortgagor approves and ratifies any filing or recording of records made by or on behalf of Mortgagee in connection with the perfection of the security interest in favor of Mortgagee.

ARTICLE 6
EVENTS OF DEFAULT AND REMEDIES

Section 6.1 Events of Default. The occurrence and continuance of any one of the following shall constitute an event of default under this Mortgage (herein referred to as an "Event of Default"):

- (i) the failure to make payment when due of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Bonds and any Additional Bonds hereafter issued under the Indenture;
- (ii) the failure to make payment when due of any amounts owed under this Mortgage or the Agreement;
- (iii) the occurrence of an event of default (other than an event of default described in (i) or (ii) above) under the Indenture, the Agreement or any other Loan Document that is not cured within any applicable grace or cure period contained in such Loan Document;
- (iv) except as provided otherwise in this Mortgage, failure by Mortgagor to observe and perform any of the terms, covenants, or conditions to be observed or performed by Mortgagor contained in this Mortgage (other than those specified in (i) and (ii) above) for a period of thirty (30) days after written notice, by registered or certified mail, specifying such failure and requesting that it be remedied, given to Mortgagor by Mortgagee, or for such longer period as Mortgagor and Mortgagee may agree to in writing; provided that if the failure is other than the payment of money and is of such nature that it can be corrected but not within the applicable period, such failure shall not constitute an Event of Default so long as Mortgagor institutes curative action within the applicable period and diligently pursues such action to completion;

(v) any representation or warranty of Mortgagor made herein or any representation or warranty made in any of the other Loan Documents or any representation or warranty made in any certificate, document, or financial or other statement furnished at any time under or in connection with this Mortgage or any of the other Loan Documents shall prove to have been incorrect in any material respect on or as of the date made or deemed made;

(vi) (a) the Mortgagor commences any case, proceeding, or other action seeking reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, liquidation, dissolution, or composition of Mortgagor or Mortgagor's debts under any law relating to bankruptcy, reorganization, or relief of debtors, or seeking appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, or other similar official for Mortgagor or for all or any substantial part of Mortgagor's property; or (b) any such case, proceeding, or other action is commenced against Mortgagor and such case, proceedings, or other action either results in an order for relief against Mortgagor which is not fully stayed within ten (10) days after the entry thereof, or remains undismissed for a period of sixty (60) days;

(vii) Mortgagor fails to pay its debts as they become due, admits in writing Mortgagor's inability to pay Mortgagor's debts, or makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors.

(viii) Mortgagor sells, conveys or otherwise transfers or disposes of all or any portion of the Collateral except as otherwise permitted herein or grants any mortgage or security interest affecting all or any portion of the Collateral, or permits any Lien against all or any portion of the Collateral, except as permitted by the terms of this Mortgage; or

(ix) A writ or warrant of executory process, fieri facias, attachment or any similar process shall be issued by any court against the Collateral, and such writ or warrant is not released or bonded within thirty (30) days after its entry.

Section 6.2 Remedies. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under this Mortgage and in addition to any other remedy Mortgagee may have under this Mortgage, or any of the other Loan Documents, Mortgagee may, subject to the provisions of Section 6.18 hereof, declare all sums secured by this Mortgage (including without limitation the Obligations) immediately due and payable without presentment, demand, protest, notice of protest or dishonor, or other notice of default of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by the Mortgagor. In addition to the foregoing, upon the occurrence of any Event of Default, the Mortgagee may, subject to the provisions of Section 6.18 hereof, take such action, without notice or demand or putting in default

(all of which are hereby expressly waived by the Mortgagor), as it deems advisable to protect and enforce its rights against the Mortgagor and in and to the Collateral, including, but not limited to, the following actions, each of which may be pursued concurrently or otherwise, at such time and in such order as the Mortgagee may determine, in its sole discretion, without impairing or otherwise affecting the other rights and remedies of the Mortgagee:

- (1) institute proceedings for the complete foreclosure of this Mortgage, in which case the Collateral may be sold for cash or upon credit in one or more parcels under ordinary or executory process, at the Mortgagee's sole option, and with or without appraisal, appraisal being expressly waived; or
- (2) to the extent permitted and pursuant to the procedures provided by applicable law, institute proceedings for the partial foreclosure of this Mortgage for the portion of the Obligations then due and payable, subject to the continuing lien of this Mortgage for the balance of the Obligations not then due; or
- (3) institute an action, suit, or proceeding in equity for the specific performance of any covenant, condition, or agreement contained in this Mortgage or any Loan Document; or
- (4) apply for the appointment of a trustee, receiver, liquidator, or conservator of the Collateral, without regard for the adequacy of the security for the Obligations and without regard for the solvency of the Mortgagor or of any Person liable for the payment of the Obligations; or
- (5) pursue such other remedies as the Mortgagee may have under applicable law, in equity, by virtue of any other security instrument, or otherwise.

The proceeds or avails of any sale made under or by virtue of this Article 6, together with any other sums that then may be held by the Mortgagee under this Mortgage, whether under the provisions of this Article 6 or otherwise, shall be applied in such manner as the Mortgagee, in its sole discretion, shall determine.

Upon any sale made under or by virtue of this Article 6, the Mortgagee may bid for and acquire the Collateral or any part thereof and in lieu of paying cash therefor may make settlement for the purchase price by crediting upon the Obligations the net sales price after deducting therefrom the expenses of the sale and the costs of the action and any other sums which the Mortgagee is authorized to deduct under this Mortgage.

The Mortgagee may proceed under this Mortgage solely as to the immovable property interests, or solely as to the movable property interests, or as to both the immovable and movable property interests in accordance with its rights and remedies in respect of the immovable property interests.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Mortgage, any purchaser of the Mortgaged Property pursuant to a foreclosure sale under this Mortgage or a deed in lieu of foreclosure shall purchase said Mortgaged Property subject and subordinate to the ownership rights of the Board and shall be subject in all respects to the provisions of the Ground Lease. Such purchaser shall have no additional right to grant any mortgage or other lien on the Mortgaged Property or to sell, lease or otherwise alienate the Mortgaged Property without the prior written consent of the Board.

Section 6.3 Leases and Rentals. Upon the occurrence and continuation of any Event of Default, the Mortgagee may additionally take any one or more of the following actions; each of which may be pursued concurrently or otherwise, at such time and in such order as the Mortgagee may determine, in its sole discretion, without impairing or otherwise affecting the other rights and remedies of the Mortgagee:

(i) The Mortgagee may notify any and all Tenants to pay all Rentals due thereafter directly to the Mortgagee at the address set forth in the Mortgagee's notice to such Tenants. The Mortgagor irrevocably agrees that all such Tenants shall be authorized to pay the Rentals directly to the Mortgagee without liability of such Tenants for the determination of the actual existence of any default by the Mortgagor claimed by the Mortgagee. Tenants shall be expressly relieved of any and all duty, liability and obligation to the Mortgagor in connection with any and all Rentals so paid.

(ii) The Mortgagee may enter upon and take possession of the Mortgaged Property, to manage and operate the Mortgaged Property and the Mortgagor's business on the Mortgaged Property, and take possession of and use all books of account and financial records of the Mortgagor and its property managers or representatives, if any, relating to the Mortgaged Property.

(iii) The Mortgagee may alter, modify, amend, terminate or permit the surrender of any or all Leases, except for leases pursuant to Section 13 of the Facilities Lease to students, faculty, staff or Permitted Sublessees (as defined in the Ground Lease) who are not themselves in default under their Leases, and the Mortgagee may execute new Leases of any part of the Mortgaged Property, including Leases that extend beyond the maturity date of the Agreement.

The enforcement of any and all such rights available to the Mortgagee hereunder shall continue for so long as the Mortgagee shall elect, until the collection and application of the Rentals have cured the Event of Default and all sums owed by Mortgagor to any person in connection with the enforcement of its remedies in connection with such Event of Default have been paid, in which event, the Mortgagee shall permit the Mortgagor to re-enter and take possession of the Mortgaged Property or any part thereof and to perform all acts necessary for the operation and maintenance of the Mortgaged Property, including the right to collect the Rentals, but the Mortgagee shall nevertheless have the right, effective upon written notice, to demand, sue for possession of and collect the Rentals under the Leases and otherwise exercise its rights under this Mortgage again if there occurs another Event of Default hereunder.

Section 6.4 General Authority. The Mortgagor hereby irrevocably appoints the Mortgagee its agent and attorney in fact, with full power of substitution, in the name of the Mortgagor or the Mortgagee, for the sole use and benefit of the Mortgagee, but at the Mortgagor's expense, to exercise, at any time and from time to time while an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, all or any of the following powers with respect to all or any of the Collateral and the Proceeds:

(i) to endorse the name of the Mortgagor upon any check, draft, Agreement or other instrument payable to the Mortgagor evidencing payment upon any Accounts or General Intangible;

(ii) to notify postal service authorities to change the address for delivery of the Mortgagor's mail to a "lockbox" address designated and controlled by the Mortgagee, and to receive, open and dispose of all mail addressed to the Mortgagor;

(iii) to demand, sue for, collect, receive and give acquittance for any and all Accounts and other monies due or to become due for or as Collateral (or Proceeds) or by virtue thereof;

(iv) to settle, compromise, compound, prosecute or defend any action or proceeding with respect to any of the Collateral and the Proceeds; and

(v) to extend the time of payment of any or all of the Collateral and the Proceeds and to make any allowance and other adjustments with reference thereto.

The aforesaid mandate and power of attorney, being coupled with an interest, is irrevocable so long as any of the Obligations remains outstanding.

Section 6.5 Accounts. While an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Mortgagor will make no material change to the terms of any Account without the prior written permission of the Mortgagee. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, and at any time thereafter, the Mortgagor upon request of the Mortgagee will promptly notify (and the Mortgagor hereby authorizes the Mortgagee so to notify) each account debtor in respect of any Account or General Intangible that such Collateral has been assigned to the Mortgagee hereunder, and that any payments due or to become due in respect of such Collateral are to be made directly to the Mortgagee or its designee.

Section 6.6 Sale. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Mortgagee may exercise all rights of a secured party under the Commercial Laws and other applicable law and, in addition, the Mortgagee may, without being required to give any notice, except as herein provided or as may be required by mandatory provisions of law, (i) withdraw all cash in its possession and apply such cash then held by it as Collateral or Proceeds against the Obligations or (ii) sell the Collateral and the Proceeds or any part thereof at public or private sale, for cash, upon credit or for future delivery, and at such price or prices as the Mortgagee may deem satisfactory. The Mortgagee may be the purchaser of any or all of the Collateral and Proceeds so sold at any public sale (or, if the Collateral and Proceeds is of a type customarily sold in a recognized market or is of a type which is the subject of widely distributed standard price quotations, at any private sale). The Mortgagor will execute and deliver such documents and take such other action as the Mortgagee deems necessary or advisable in order that any such sale may be made in compliance with law. Upon any such sale the Mortgagee shall have the right to deliver, assign and transfer to the purchaser thereof the Collateral and Proceeds so sold. Each purchaser at any such sale shall hold the Collateral and Proceeds so sold to it absolutely and free from any claim or right of whatsoever kind, including any equity or right of redemption of the Mortgagor which may be waived, and the Mortgagor, to the extent permitted by law, hereby specifically waives all rights of redemption, stay of appraisal which it has or may have under any law now existing or hereafter adopted; provided, however, that such purchaser shall be subject in all respects to the provisions of the Ground Lease. The Mortgagor agrees that twenty (20) days' prior written notice of the time and place of any sale or other intended disposition of any of the Collateral and Proceeds constitutes "reasonable notification" within the meaning of Section 9-611(b) of the UCC, except that shorter or no notice shall be reasonable as to any Collateral and Proceeds that is perishable or threatens to decline speedily in value or is of a type customarily sold on a recognized market. The notice (if any) of such sale shall (1) in case of a public sale, state the time and place fixed for such sale, and (2) in the case of a private sale, state the day after which such sale may be consummated. Any such public sale shall be held at such time or times within ordinary business hours and at such place or places as the Mortgagee may fix in the notice of such sale. At any such sale the Collateral and Proceeds may be sold in one lot as an entirety or in separate parcels or portions, as the Mortgagee may determine. The Mortgagee shall not be obligated to make any such sale pursuant to any such notice. The Mortgagee may, without notice or publication, adjourn any public or private sale or cause the same to be adjourned from time to time by announcement at the time and place fixed for the sale, and such sale may be made at any time or place to which the same may be so adjourned. In case of any sale of all or any part of the Collateral and Proceeds on credit or for future delivery, the Collateral or Proceeds so sold may be retained by the Mortgagee until the selling price is paid by the purchaser thereof, but the Mortgagee shall not incur any liability in case of the failure of such purchaser to take up and pay for the Collateral and Proceeds so sold and, in case of any such failure, such Collateral and Proceeds may again be sold upon like notice.

Section 6.7 Assemble Collateral. For the purpose of enforcing any and all rights and remedies under this Agreement the Mortgagee may: (i) require the Mortgagor to, and the Mortgagor agrees that it will, at its expense and upon the request of the Mortgagee, forthwith assemble all or any part of the Collateral (other than the Mortgaged Property) and Proceeds as directed by the Mortgagee and make it available at a place designated by the Mortgagee which is, in its opinion, reasonably convenient to the Mortgagee and the Mortgagor, whether at the Mortgaged Property of the Mortgagor or otherwise, and Mortgagee shall be entitled to specific performance of this obligation; (ii) to the extent permitted by applicable law of this or any other state, enter, with or without process of law and without breach of the peace, any premises where any of the Collateral or Proceeds is or may be located, and, without charge or liability, to it seize and remove such Collateral or Proceeds from such premises; (iii) have access to and use the Mortgagor's books and records relating to the Collateral and Proceeds and (iv) prior to the disposition of the Collateral and Proceeds, store or transfer it without charge in or by means of any storage or transportation facility owned or leased by the Mortgagor, process, repair or recondition it or otherwise prepare it for disposition in any manner and to the extent the Mortgagee deems appropriate and, in connection with such preparation and disposition, use without charge any trademark, trade name, copyright, patent or technical process used by the Mortgagor.

Section 6.8 Limitation on Duty of Mortgagee. Beyond the exercise of reasonable care in the custody thereof, the Mortgagee shall have no duty as to any Collateral or Proceeds in its possession or control or in the possession or control of any agent or bailee or any income thereon. The Mortgagee shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody of the Collateral and Proceeds in its possession if the Collateral and Proceeds is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which it accords its own property, and shall not be liable or responsible for any loss or damage to any of the Collateral or Proceeds, or for any diminution in the value thereof, by reason of the act or omission of any warehouseman, carrier, forwarding agency, consignee or other agent or bailee selected by the Mortgagee in good faith. The Mortgagor agrees that the Mortgagee shall not be obligated to preserve rights against prior parties obligated on any instruments.

Section 6.9 Appointment of Agent. At any time or times, in order to comply with any legal requirement in any jurisdiction, the Mortgagee may appoint a bank or trust company or one or more other Persons with such power and authority as may be necessary for the effectual operation of the provisions hereof and may be specified in the instrument of appointment.

Section 6.10 Set-Off. Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default, the Mortgagee shall have the right to set-off any revenues of the Mortgagor in the possession of the Mortgagee against any amounts then due by the Mortgagor to the Mortgagee pursuant to the Mortgage.

Section 6.11 Release of Property. The Mortgagee may at any time and without notice to the Mortgagor, release any part of the Collateral from the effect of this Mortgage, or grant an extension or deferment of time for the discharge of any obligation hereunder, without affecting the liability of the Mortgagor hereunder.

Section 6.12 Advances by Mortgagee. The Mortgagor authorizes the Mortgagee in the Mortgagee's discretion to advance any sums necessary for the purpose of paying: (i) insurance premiums; (ii) any and all excise, property, sales, use and other taxes, forced contributions, service charges, local assessments and governmental charges on any of the Collateral; (iii) any Liens affecting the Collateral (whether superior or subordinate to the lien of this Mortgage) not permitted by this Mortgage; (iv) necessary repairs and maintenance expenses; or (v) any other amounts which the Mortgagee deems necessary and appropriate to preserve the validity and ranking of this Mortgage, to cure any Defaults or to prevent the occurrence of any Default (collectively, the "Advances") of whatever kind; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as making such Advances obligatory upon Mortgagee, or as making Mortgagee liable for any loss, damage, or injury resulting from the nonpayment thereof. The Mortgagor covenants and agrees that within five (5) days after demand therefor by the Mortgagee, the Mortgagor will repay the Advances to Mortgagee, together with interest thereon at the rate of eighteen (18%) percent per annum, and in addition to repay any other reasonable costs, attorneys' fees and expenses, charges and expenses of any and every kind for the full protection and preservation of the Collateral or this Mortgage, including payments required in respect to any Lien affecting the Collateral, together with interest thereon at the rate of eighteen (18%) percent per annum. All such Advances and amounts (including interest) shall be included in the Obligations secured hereby (subject to the maximum amount of the Obligations set forth above in this Mortgage).

Section 6.13 Authentic Evidence. Any and all declarations of facts made by authentic act before a notary public in the presence of two witnesses by a person declaring that such facts lie within his knowledge shall constitute authentic evidence of such facts for the purpose of executory process. The Mortgagor specifically agrees that such an affidavit by a representative of the Mortgagee as to the existence, amount, terms and maturity of the Obligations and of a default thereunder shall constitute authentic evidence of such facts for the purpose of executory process.

Section 6.14 Keeper. In connection with each and all of the foregoing and acting pursuant to the authority granted under Louisiana Revised Statutes 9:5136-5140.2, as the same may hereafter be amended or supplemented, the Mortgagor and the Mortgagee hereby expressly designate the Mortgagee, or any agent, servant, employee, or other Person named by the Mortgagee, as "keeper" of each and all of the Collateral pending the judicial sale thereof, with all the powers set forth in said statutes (as hereafter amended), including the right to employ agents to operate the Collateral. All reasonable costs, expenses, and liabilities of every character incurred by the Mortgagee or any such other Person as keeper in connection with managing, operating, maintaining, and possessing the Collateral shall constitute a demand obligation owing by the Mortgagor to the Mortgagee, and shall draw interest from date of expenditure until paid at the rate provided in Section 6.123 hereof for Advances to bear. All of such costs, expenses, and liabilities shall constitute a portion of the Obligations secured by this Mortgage. The keeper shall be entitled to receive as compensation, in excess of such costs, expenses, and liabilities, a reasonable amount to be fixed by the court based upon the keeper's activities and the amounts expended in connection with the management, operation, and maintenance of the Collateral. The designation of keeper made herein shall not be deemed to require the Mortgagee to provoke the appointment of such a keeper.

Section 6.15 Certain Waivers. The Mortgagor hereby expressly waives any and all homestead exemptions and other exemptions to which the Mortgagor is or may be entitled under the Constitution and the laws and statutes of the State of Louisiana insofar as the Collateral is concerned. The Mortgagor further waives to the extent permitted by law: (i) the benefit of appraisal provided for in Articles 2332, 2336, 2723, and 2724 of the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure, and all other laws conferring the same; (ii) the demand and three (3) days delay provided for in Articles 2639 and 2721 of the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure; (iii) the notice of seizure provided for in Articles 2293 and 2721 of the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure; (iv) the three (3) days delay provided for in Articles 2331 and 2722 of the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure; and (v) other benefits provided in Articles 2331, 2722, and 2723 of the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure.

Section 6.16 Waiver of Marshaling. Notwithstanding the existence of any other security interest in the Collateral held by the Mortgagee or by any other party, the Mortgagee shall have the right to determine the order in which any or all of the Collateral shall be subjected to the remedies provided in this Mortgage. The Mortgagor, any party who consents to this Mortgage, and any party who has actual or constructive notice of this Mortgage waive all right to require the marshaling of assets in connection with the exercise of any of the remedies permitted by law or provided in this Mortgage.

Section 6.17 Rights and Remedies Cumulative. All rights and remedies herein given to the Mortgagee shall be cumulative and in addition to every other right and remedy herein specifically given and now or hereafter existing; and each and every right and remedy, whether specifically given or otherwise existing, may be exercised from time to time and so often and in such order as may be deemed expedient by the Mortgagee, and the exercise or the beginning of the exercise of any such right or remedy shall not be deemed a waiver of the right to exercise, at the same time or thereafter, any other right or remedy. No delay or omission by the Mortgagee in the exercise of any right or remedy shall impair any such right or remedy or operate as a waiver of any other right or remedy then or thereafter existing.

Section 6.18 Rights of Bond Insurer. So long as the Bond Insurer insures any of Bonds and is not in default under the terms of the Bond Insurance Policy, the Bond Insurer shall be entitled to control and direct the enforcement of all rights and remedies granted to the Mortgagee pursuant to this Mortgage. Without limiting the immediately preceding sentence, the Mortgagor agrees that any provision herein granting the Mortgagee any rights, including, without limitation, the (i) right to receive or give any notice, (ii) the right to receive any reports, certifications or other information required to be delivered or disseminated hereunder, (iii) the right to give any consent or approval or make any election, (iv) the right to receive any indemnification, insurance coverage or reimbursement, (v) the right to cure any Event of Default or other failure in performance, or (vi) the right to receive any other benefit afforded to the Mortgagee under this Mortgage, shall also hereby grant to the Bond Insurer the same such rights. All notices to the Bond Insurer shall be sent to MBIA Insurance Corporation, The TransAmerica Pyramid, 150 California Street, 20th Floor, San Francisco, CA 94111, and any consent or approval by the Bond Insurer shall be effective only if in writing.

ARTICLE 7 MISCELLANEOUS

Section 7.1 Release of Mortgage. The Mortgage will remain in effect until: (a) all of the Obligations are fully paid and satisfied and there is no agreement or commitment to advance any additional indebtedness; and (b) Mortgagor cancels this Mortgage by filing a written cancellation instrument signed by Mortgagee. When all of the Obligations are fully paid and satisfied and there is no agreement or commitment to advance any additional indebtedness, Mortgagor may request Mortgagee to sign such a written cancellation instrument by writing Mortgagee at the above address or at such other address as Mortgagee may advise. Mortgagee may delay providing Mortgagor with such a mortgage cancellation instrument for a period of sixty (60) days following receipt of Mortgagor's written request to verify that all conditions precedent for mortgage cancellation have been satisfied.

Section 7.2 Waivers. Any and all covenants in this Mortgage may from time to time, by instrument in writing signed by the Mortgagee and delivered to the Mortgagor, be waived to such extent and in such manner as the Mortgagee may desire, but no such waiver shall ever affect or impair the Mortgagee's rights or Liens hereunder, except to the extent specifically stated in such written instrument.

Section 7.3 Authentic Evidence. Any and all declarations of fact made by authentic act before a Notary Public in the presence of two witnesses by any Person declaring such facts lie within his knowledge shall constitute authentic evidence of such facts for the purpose of executory process.

Section 7.4 No Waiver. No forbearance on the part of the Mortgagee and no extension of the time for the payment of the Obligations given by the Mortgagee shall operate to release, discharge, modify, change, or affect, in whole or in part, the liability of the Mortgagor hereunder or for the payment of the Obligations or performance of the obligations secured hereby or the liability of any other Person hereunder or for the payment of the Obligations.

Section 7.5 Severability. A determination that any provision of this Mortgage is unenforceable or invalid in any jurisdiction shall not affect the enforceability or validity of such

(4) any manner of application of the Collateral, or proceeds thereof, to all or any of the obligations of the Mortgagor under the Loan Documents, or any manner of sale or other disposition of any of the Collateral for all or any of such obligations.

Section 7.9 Interpretation. It is acknowledged and agreed that, in the preparation of this Mortgage, indistinguishable contributions were made by representatives of both the Mortgagor and the Mortgagee and that the Mortgagor and the Mortgagee each waives any and all rights, both in law or in equity, to have the provisions of this Mortgage or any part thereof interpreted in favor of one over the other based upon a claim that representatives of one or the other were the principal draftsman of such document.

Section 7.10 Conflicts between Loan Documents. In the event that any of the Collateral hereunder is also subject to a valid and enforceable Lien under the terms of any Loan Document and the terms of such other Loan Document are inconsistent in any respect with the terms of this Mortgage, then with respect to all Collateral that is also subject to such other Loan Document, the terms that are most restrictive or, in the case of equally restrictive terms, the terms that are most specific shall be controlling; provided, however, that if any provision of either document is unenforceable with respect to any item of Collateral subject thereto, then the provision of the document that is enforceable with respect to such Collateral shall be controlling.

Section 7.11 Multiple Originals. This Mortgage may be executed in multiple originals, all of which such multiple originals together shall constitute one and the same mortgage.

Section 7.12 Binding Effect. If partial Assignment affects only some (but not all) of the collateral covered by the identified financing statement, filer may check appropriate box in item 8 and indicate affected collateral in item 8.
- 5,6,7. To change the name and/or address of a party: Check box in item 5 to indicate whether this Amendment amends information relating to a Debtor or a Secured Party, also check box in item 5 to indicate that this is a name and/or address change; also enter name of affected party (current record name, in case of name change) in items 6a or 6b as appropriate; and also give new name (7a or 7b) and/or new address (7c) in item 7.
- 5,6. To delete a party: Check box in item 5 to indicate whether deleting a Debtor or a Secured Party; also check box in item 5 to indicate that this is a deletion of a party; and also enter name (6a or 6b) of deleted party in item 6.
- 5, 7. Note: The preferred method for filing against a new Debtor (an individual or organization not previously of record as a Debtor under this file number) is to file a new Financing Statement (UCC) and not an Amendment (UCC3).

This may be accomplished either by describing the collateral to be added or deleted, or by setting forth in full the collateral description as it is to be effective after the filing of this Amendment, indicating clearly the method chosen (check the appropriate box). A partial release of collateral is a deletion. If due to a full release of all collateral, filer no longer claims a security interest under the identified financing statement, check box 2 (Termination) and not box 8 (Collateral Change). If a partial assignment consists of the assignment of some (but not all) of the collateral covered by the identified financing statement, filer may indicate the assigned collateral in item 8, check the appropriate box in item 8, and also comply with instruction 4 above.
9. Always enter name of party of record authorizing this Amendment; in most cases, this will be a Secured Party of record. If more than one authorizing Secured Party, attach additional name(s), properly formatted, on 8 1/2 x 11 inch sheet of paper and put at the top of each sheet the Financing Statement File Number. If the indicated financing statement refers to the parties as lessee and lessor, or consignee and consignor, or seller and buyer instead of Debtor and Secured Party, references in this Amendment shall be deemed likewise so to refer to the parties. If this is an Assignment, enter assignor's name. If this is an Amendment authorized by a Debtor that adds collateral or adds a Debtor, or if this is a Termination authorized by a Debtor, check the box in item 9 and enter the name, properly formatted, of the Debtor authorizing this Amendment.
10. This item is optional and is for filer's use only. For filer's convenience of reference, filer may enter in item 10 any identifying information (e.g., Secured Party's loan number, law firm file number, Debtor's name or other identification, state in which form is being filed, etc.) that filer may find useful.

This Official Statement, including the cover page and the Appendices hereto, furnishes certain information in connection with the sale by the Louisiana Local Government Environmental Facilities and Community Development Authority (the “Authority”) of $41,280,000* in aggregate principal amount of its Revenue Refunding Bonds (Southeastern Louisiana University Student Housing/University Facilities, Inc. Project), Series 2013 (the “Series 2013 Bonds”) to be issued by the Authority pursuant to a Trust Indenture dated as of August 1, 2004 (the “Original Indenture”), between the Authority and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., formerly known as The Bank of New York Trust Company, N.A., as Trustee (the “Trustee”), as amended and supplemented by a First Supplemental Trust Indenture dated as of November 1, 2013 between the Authority and the Trustee (the “Supplemental Indenture” and together with the Original Indenture, the “Indenture”).

Authority and Purpose

The Series 2013 Bonds are to be issued by the Authority, pursuant to and in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 10-D of Title 33 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes, as amended (the “LCDA Act”) and Chapters 14 and 14-A of Title 39 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes, as amended (the “Refunding Act” and together with the LCDA Act, the “Act”) and the proceeds of the Series 2013 Bonds will be loaned by the Authority to University Facilities, Inc. (the “Corporation”), a non-profit corporation organized under the laws of the State of Louisiana (the “State”), for the benefit of the University for the purpose of providing funds (i) to refund the Authority’s outstanding Revenue Bonds (Southeastern Louisiana University Student Housing/University Facilities, Inc. Project), Series 2004A, issued in the original principal amount of $60,985,000 and currently outstanding in the aggregate principal amount of $52,230,000 (the “Series 2004A Bonds”), and (ii) to pay the costs of issuance of the Series 2013 Bonds.

Security Arrangements

The Series 2013 Bonds are secured pursuant to the Indenture by: (i) all right, title, and interest of the Authority in, to and under the Loan Agreement, the Ground Lease and the Facilities Lease, and (ii) moneys held in funds and accounts (other than the Rebate Fund) established pursuant to the Indenture (the “Trust Estate”).

Pursuant to a Ground and Buildings Lease Agreement dated as of August 1, 2004, as supplemented and amended by a First Amendment to Ground and Buildings Lease Agreement dated as of March 1, 2007, a Second Amendment to Ground and Buildings Lease Agreement dated as of June 12, 2012 and a Third Supplemental Ground and Buildings Lease Agreement dated as of November 1, 2013, all by and between the Board of Supervisors for the University of Louisiana System (the “Board”) and the Corporation (collectively, the “Ground Lease”), the Board has leased to the Corporation the property (the “Property”) upon which the Housing Facilities are located, and the Housing Facilities will be leased back to, and operated by, the Board pursuant to an Agreement to Lease with Option to Purchase dated as of August 1, 2004, as supplemented and amended by a First Amendment to Agreement to Lease with Option to Purchase dated as of March 1, 2007, a Second Amendment to Agreement to Lease with Option to Purchase dated as of June 12, 2012 and a Third Supplemental Agreement to Lease with Option to Purchase dated as of November 1, 2013, all between the Corporation, as lessor, and the Board, as lessee (collectively, the “Facilities Lease”).

In consideration of the Corporation entering into the Ground Lease and the Facilities Lease, the Board will covenant to make payments of Base Rental, in an amount sufficient to pay debt service on the Series 2013 Bonds from Series 2004 Lawfully Available Funds, including, but not limited to, revenues derived from the Housing Facilities and certain Auxiliary Revenues. See “SOURCES OF PAYMENT FOR THE SERIES 2013 BONDS” herein.

For purposes herein, “Series 2004 Lawfully Available Funds” means all unrestricted funds available to the University and appropriated by the Board to make rental payments from any source, including all revenues actually received from any source by, or on behalf of the Board or the University with respect to the Housing Facilities and any Additional Housing Facilities (as defined in the Facilities Lease), including without duplication, all collected rents and other charges for the use or occupancy of the Housing Facilities, parking charges and revenues, utility charges, vending machine and laundry machine revenues and forfeited security deposits relating to the Housing Facilities, and rental interruption insurance proceeds actually received by or on behalf of the Board or the University (net of the costs of collecting such proceeds), if any; excluding tenants’ security deposits unless and until applied in satisfaction of tenants’ obligations as provided for in the Management Agreement and excluding refunds and reimbursements due to students in accordance with University policy (the “Rents”).

The Mortgage (as defined herein) secures the Corporation’s leasehold interest in the Property and secures payments of the Series 2004 Bonds and any Additional Bonds, including the Series 2013 Bonds. The Corporation also granted the Trustee a first priority security interest in the leases and subleases affecting the Property and/or the Housing Facilities, including, without limitation, the Facilities Lease and all revenues, rentals and other sums due or becoming due under the leases. See “SOURCES OF PAYMENT FOR THE SERIES 2013 BONDS – Mortgage.” See also “BONDHOLDERS’ RISK – Special Nature of the Housing Facilities” for a discussion on the limited use nature of the Housing Facilities.

The Ground Lease and the Facilities Lease also include certain property on which an intermodal parking facility and a stadium expansion were constructed with the proceeds of the Authority’s Revenue Bonds (Southeastern Louisiana University Student Housing/University Facilities, Inc.: Phase Four Parking Project), Series 2007 (the “Series 2007 Bonds”). The Board’s payment obligations under the Facilities Lease related to the Series 2007 Bonds are payable from Student Parking Fees and Auxiliary Revenues (both as defined in the Facilities Lease). The Series 2013 Bonds are payable from Series 2004 Lawfully Available Funds, as described above, and are not secured by the same primary source of revenues as the Series 2007 Bonds. The Series 2013 Bonds, the Series 2004B Bonds and the Series 2007 Bonds are secured equally by Auxiliary Revenues.

The payment obligations of the Board pursuant to the Facilities Lease related to the Series 2013 Bonds are payable from Series 2004 Lawfully Available Funds on a parity with its payment obligations related to the Series 2004B Bonds. See “SOURCES OF PAYMENT FOR THE SERIES 2013 BONDS” herein.

Limited Liability

The Series 2013 Bonds are limited and special obligations of the Authority payable solely from and secured by an assignment and pledge of the Trust Estate pursuant to the Indenture. No other assets of the Authority are available for payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on the Series 2013 Bonds.

THE UNIVERSITY

The University is located in Hammond, Louisiana, the heart of Louisiana's "Florida Parishes." Hammond is located at the intersection of Interstate Highways 55 and 12, approximately sixty (60) miles north of New Orleans, Louisiana's largest city, and forty (40) miles east of Baton Rouge, the state's capital. The University has a current enrollment of approximately 15,000 students with a faculty and staff population of approximately 1,300.

The University is the outgrowth of Hammond Junior College, which was established in 1925. By Act No. 136 of the Louisiana Legislature of 1928, the institution was made part of the state educational system under control of the State Board of Education. The same act of the legislature granted the college the right to establish four-year curricula and to grant the baccalaureate degrees when the facilities of the college permitted and the State Board approved.

In 1937, the State Board of Education authorized the President of the University to submit curricula extending through four years and leading to the baccalaureate degrees. Four-year curricula in the liberal arts, teacher education, business administration, music, the social sciences, and health and physical education were submitted to the State Board and were formally approved. The first degrees were conferred in May 1939.

On July 15, 1970, the Hon. John J. McKeithen, Governor of the State of Louisiana, signed the legislative act changing the name of the institution to Southeastern Louisiana University.

The 1974 Constitution of the State of Louisiana created the Louisiana State Board of Regents with certain powers, duties, and responsibilities relative to all public institution of higher education in the State of Louisiana. The 1974 Constitution also established three higher education management boards, placing the University under the Board of Trustees for State Colleges and Universities (now known as the University of Louisiana System).

Act 915 of the 2008 Regular Session of the Louisiana Legislature ("Act 915") authorized Louisiana public postsecondary institutions through their governing boards to assess a certain percentage tuition increase based on the disparity of the institution's tuition rate compared to their peers in the South as reported by the Southern Regional Education Board (SREB). For the first time, the Legislature authorized a rate increase to be applied over multiple years for undergraduates and certificate students. The University was permitted to raise tuition up to five percent (5%) per year for four (4) years (2008-09, 2009-10, 2010-11 and 2011-12).

Act 741 of the 2010 Regular Session of the Louisiana Legislature, titled the Louisiana Granting Resources and Autonomy for Diplomas (LaGRAD) Act, built on the precedent set by Act 915 by authorizing tuition increases of up to ten percent (10%) annually for six (6) years based on continual performance improvement of schools and universities. The tuition-for-performance authority created a longer term budget planning capability that had not existed under periodic, one-time approvals of rate increases. The LaGRAD Act was amended by Act 418 of the 2011 Regular Session of the Louisiana Legislature by adding an extensive array of administrative autonomies similar to those of other universities in other states, such as procurement, investment flexibility, risk management and facility project management.

The University's financial statements can be accessed at <http://www.southeastern.edu/admin/controller/annual-reports/index.html>.

For summary financial and statistical information regarding the University, see "APPENDIX A – DEMOGRAPHIC AND SUMMARY FINANCIAL INFORMATION RELATED TO THE UNIVERSITY."

THE CORPORATION

The Corporation is a Louisiana non-profit corporation created exclusively to promote, assist, and benefit the educational, scientific, research, and public service mission of the University by engaging in any lawful activity in which a non-profit corporation meeting the requirements of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") may participate. The business affairs of the Corporation are administered by a Board of four (4) Directors, who also comprise the entire membership of the Corporation. Officers of the Corporation are the President/Chairman and Secretary/Treasurer. Information concerning the members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation is set forth below:

| Name | Position | Term Expires |
|--------------------|---------------------|---------------------|
| Phil K. Livingston | President/Chairman | June 30, 2015 |
| Jack Gautier | Secretary/Treasurer | June 30, 2014 |
| Stephen M. Smith | Member | June 30, 2016 |
| Marcus Naquin | Member | June 30, 2016 |

Management of the Corporation has been delegated to Joseph Morris, Executive Director. See “CONFLICTS OF INTEREST; RELATIONSHIPS” herein.

In accordance with its Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation may specifically engage in acquiring, constructing, developing, managing, leasing, mortgaging, or conveying student housing and other facilities on the campus of the University.

PLAN OF REFUNDING

On the Closing Date, the Trustee will fund the Escrow Fund with such amounts from the proceeds of the Series 2013 Bonds, that, together with a transfer from the Series 2004 Bond Debt Service Reserve Fund and a Board Contribution, will be sufficient to pay in full all principal of and interest on the Series 2004A Bonds on August 1, 2014 (the “Redemption Date”). For a list of the Series 2004A Bonds, see “APPENDIX E – SHCHEDULE OF SERIES 2004A BONDS.” Prior to the Redemption Date, moneys in the Escrow Fund will be invested in accordance with the Escrow Agreement.

THE SERIES 2004 BONDS

The Series 2004A Bonds, along with the Series 2004B Bonds were issued on August 13, 2004 to finance the New Facilities (as hereinafter defined) and refinance existing debt related to the Existing Facilities (as hereinafter defined). The Series 2004A Bonds will be refunded in full with the proceeds of the Series 2013 Bonds, along with certain other funds available therefor. The Series 2004B Bonds, in the current outstanding amount of $15,000,000, will remain outstanding and will be secured by and payable from Series 2004 Lawfully Available Funds, on a parity with the Series 2013 Bonds.

THE HOUSING FACILITIES

The Housing Facilities encompass all of the University’s on-campus housing, including Zachary Taylor Hall and the University’s apartment-style housing, Southeastern Oaks and The Village (the “Existing Facilities”), along with newly constructed student housing facilities containing a total of 1,509 beds and a renovated Cardinal Newman Hall containing 94 beds, as well as related common area facilities, such as laundry rooms, community meeting rooms and tenant mail facilities (the “New Facilities” and together with the Existing Facilities, the “Housing Facilities”). Since the completion of the New Facilities in 2005, occupancy in the Housing Facilities has been at or near capacity. See “SOURCES OF PAYMENT FOR THE SERIES 2013 BONDS – Housing Occupancy” herein.

After substantial completion but prior to final acceptance, the University discovered certain defects in the construction of the New Facilities. The Corporation retained a construction expert and began to mitigate and repair the defects, while simultaneously filing suit against the developer/general contractor. The litigation was resolved and a substantial contribution was made by the Corporation to the Replacement Fund held pursuant to the Original Indenture. After several inspections of the New Facilities, the Corporation made, and continues to make, the necessary repairs and modifications to the New Facilities and, while no assurances can be given, the Corporation believes the monies available in the Replacement Fund will be sufficient to repair the New Facilities. At no point during the repairs has occupancy decreased and it is expected that any future repairs can be addressed with minimal impact to the occupants of the New Facilities.

See “SOURCES OF PAYMENT FOR THE SERIES 2013 BONDS – Funds and Accounts- Replacement Fund” for the current balance in the Replacement Fund available to make repairs to the Housing Facilities and “SOURCES OF PAYMENT FOR THE SERIES 2013 BONDS – Funds and Accounts- Receipts Fund” for a description of the annual funding requirements for the Replacement Fund pursuant to the terms of the Indenture.

The University manages the Housing Facilities, through University Housing, a department within Auxiliary Services and the Division of Administration and Finance.

THE SERIES 2013 BONDS

General

The Series 2013 Bonds will be dated as of the date of issuance and delivery of the Series 2013 Bonds, and will bear interest at the rates per annum and mature on August 1 in the years and in the principal amounts indicated on the inside cover page of this Official Statement. Interest on the Series 2013 Bonds will be payable on each August 1 and February 1, commencing February 1, 2014.

The Series 2013 Bonds will be issued as fully registered bonds, without coupons, in denominations of $5,000 or any integral multiple thereof. The Series 2013 Bonds shall be issued initially as one certificate per maturity as set forth on the inside cover page hereof and shall be numbered from No. R-1 upwards. The Series 2013 Bonds will be registered in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee for The Depository Trust Company (“DTC”), New York, New York, which will act as the securities depository for the Series 2013 Bonds. Purchasers of the Series 2013 Bonds will not receive certificates representing their interest in the Series 2013 Bonds purchased. Purchases of the beneficial interests in the Series 2013 Bonds will be made in book-entry only form in authorized denominations by credit to participating broker-dealers and other institutions on the books of DTC as described herein. Any purchaser of beneficial interests in the Series 2013 Bonds must maintain an account with a broker or dealer who is, or acts through, a DTC Participant in order to receive payment of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on such Bonds. See “THE SERIES 2013 BONDS – Book-Entry Only System” herein.

The principal of, and premium, if any, of the Series 2013 Bonds will be payable to the registered owners thereof upon surrender of the Series 2013 Bonds at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee. The interest on the Series 2013 Bonds, when due and payable, will be paid by check or draft mailed by the Trustee on such due date to each person in whose name a Bond is registered, at the address(es) as they appear on the Bond Register maintained by the Trustee at the close of business on the applicable Record Date irrespective of any transfer or exchange of the Series 2013 Bonds subsequent to such Record Date and prior to such Interest Payment Date, unless the Authority shall default in payment of interest due on such Interest Payment Date, provided that the owners of $1,000,000 or more in aggregate principal amount of Series 2013 Bonds may request payment by wire transfer if such owners have requested such payment in writing to the Trustee, which request shall be made no later than the Record Date and shall include all relevant bank account information and shall otherwise be acceptable to the Trustee. Such notice will be irrevocable until a new notice is delivered not later than a Record Date. In the event of any such default, such defaulted interest will be payable on a payment date established by the Trustee to the persons in whose names the Series 2013 Bonds are registered at the close of business on a special record date for the payment of such defaulted interest established by notice mailed by the Trustee to the registered owners of the Series 2013 Bonds not fewer than fifteen (15) days preceding such special record date. Payment as aforesaid will be made in such coin or currency of the United States of America as, at the respective times of payment, is legal tender for the payment of public and private debts.

In the event any outstanding Series 2013 Bond, whether temporary or definitive, is mutilated, lost, stolen or destroyed, the Authority may execute and, upon its request, the Trustee may authenticate a new Series 2013 Bond of the same principal amount and of like tenor as the mutilated, lost or stolen or destroyed Series 2013 Bond; provided that, in the case of any mutilated Series 2013 Bond, such mutilated Series 2013 Bond shall first be surrendered to the Trustee, and in the case of any lost, stolen or destroyed Series 2013 Bond, there shall be first furnished to the Authority and the Trustee evidence of such loss, theft or destruction in form satisfactory to the Authority and the Trustee, together with indemnity satisfactory to them. In the event any such Series 2013 Bond shall have matured, instead of issuing a substitute Series 2013 Bond the Authority may authorize the payment of the same. The Authority and the Trustee may charge the owner of such Series 2013 Bond with their reasonable fees and expenses in this connection.

Redemption Prior to Maturity*

Optional Redemption. The Series 2013 Bonds maturing August 1, 20__ and thereafter, will be subject to redemption prior to maturity, at the option of the Corporation, upon written direction to the Authority, on or after August 1, 20__ as a whole at any time or in part on any Interest Payment Date, the maturity of said Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed to be designated by the Corporation and selected within a maturity by the Trustee in such manner as the Trustee may determine, and at the redemption price of 100% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest to the redemption date.

Extraordinary Redemption. The Series 2013 Bonds will be redeemed as a whole or in part (in an integral multiple of $5,000) on the first Interest Payment Date at least thirty (30) days after the Trustee receives notice that any insurance proceeds, condemnation award or payment in lieu of condemnation with respect to the Housing Facilities will not be applied to the restoration, repair or reconstruction of the Housing Facilities at a price equal to the principal amount of the Series 2013 Bonds so redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the date of redemption, in an aggregate principal amount equal to the amount of such insurance proceeds, condemnation award or payment in lieu of condemnation not used for restoration, repair or reconstruction. If in part, the Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed will be in the inverse order of their maturity and selected within a maturity by the Trustee in such manner as the Trustee may determine. If the amount of any insurance proceeds, condemnation award or payment in lieu of condemnation to be applied in redemption of the Series 2013 Bonds is not an integral multiple of $5,000, the principal amount of Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed will be decreased to the next lower multiple of $5,000.

Partial Redemption of Series 2013 Bonds

Unless otherwise specified above, if fewer than all of the Series 2013 Bonds are called for redemption, the Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed will be in inverse order of their maturity, and selected by the Trustee within a maturity in such manner as the Trustee may determine; provided, however, that the portion of any Series 2013 Bond to be redeemed will be in the principal amount of an Authorized Denomination. If a portion of any Series 2013 Bond is called for redemption, a new Series 2013 Bond in a principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof will be issued to the registered owner upon the surrender thereof.

Notice of Redemption

At least thirty (30) days before the redemption date of any Series 2013 Bonds, the Trustee will cause a notice of any such redemption, signed by an authorized officer of the Trustee, to be mailed, postage prepaid to all Bondholders of record owning Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed in whole or in part, at their addresses as they appear on the Bond Register but any defect in mailing of any such notice will not affect the validity of the proceedings for such redemption. Each notice will set forth the date fixed for redemption, the redemption price to be paid and, if less than all of the Series 2013 Bonds then outstanding shall be called for redemption, the numbers of such Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed and, in the case of Series 2013 Bonds to be redeemed in part only, the portion of the principal amount thereof to be redeemed. In case any Series 2013 Bond is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption will also state that on and after the redemption date, upon surrender of such Series 2013 Bond, a new Series 2013 Bond in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion of such Series 2013 Bond will be issued.

On the date so designated for redemption, notice having been given in the manner and under the conditions hereinabove provided and money for payment of the redemption price being held in the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund in trust for the owners of the Series 2013 Bonds or portions thereof to be redeemed to the extent provided in the next paragraph, the Series 2013 Bonds so called for redemption will become due and payable at the redemption price provided for redemption of such Series 2013 Bonds or portions of Series 2013 Bonds on such date, interest on the Series 2013 Bonds or portions of Series 2013 Bonds called for redemption will cease to accrue, such Series 2013 Bonds or portions of Series 2013 Bonds will cease to be entitled to any benefit or security under the Indenture, and the owners of such Series 2013 Bonds or portions of Series 2013 Bonds will not have rights in respect thereof except to receive payment of the redemption price, and, in the case of a partial redemption, to receive Series 2013 Bonds for any unredeemed portion of Series 2013 Bonds.

In case part, but not all, of an Outstanding Series 2013 Bond shall be selected for redemption, the registered owner thereof or his legal representative shall present and surrender such Series 2013 Bond to the Trustee for payment of the principal amount thereof so called for redemption, and the Trustee will authenticate and deliver to or upon the order of such registered owner or his legal representative, without charge therefor, for the unredeemed portion of the principal amount of the Series 2013 Bond so surrendered, a new Series 2013 Bond.

Series 2013 Bonds and portions of Series 2013 Bonds that have been duly called for redemption under the provisions of the Indenture, or with respect to which irrevocable instructions to call for redemption have been given to the Trustee in form satisfactory to it, and for the payment of the redemption price for which moneys, or Defeasance Obligations, will be held by the Trustee in a segregated account in trust for the owners of the Series 2013 Bonds or portions thereof to be redeemed, will not thereafter be deemed to be outstanding under the provisions of the Indenture and will cease to be entitled to any security or benefit under the Indenture other than the right to receive payment from such moneys.

Book-Entry Only System

THE INFORMATION IN THIS SECTION CONCERNING DTC AND DTC'S BOOK-ENTRY SYSTEM HAS BEEN OBTAINED FROM SOURCES THAT THE AUTHORITY BELIEVES TO BE RELIABLE, BUT THE AUTHORITY TAKES NO RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE ACCURACY THEREOF.

The Depository Trust Company ("DTC"), New York, NY, will act as securities depository for the Series 2013 Bonds. The Series 2013 Bonds will be issued as fully-registered securities registered in the name of Cede & Co. (DTC's partnership nominee) or such other name as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC. One fully-registered bond will be issued for each maturity and will be deposited with DTC.

DTC, the world's largest securities depository, is a limited-purpose trust company organized under the New York Banking Law, a "banking organization" within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a "clearing corporation" within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code, and a "clearing agency" registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. DTC holds and provides asset servicing for over 3.5 million issues of U.S. and non-U.S. equity issues, corporate and municipal debt issues, and money market instruments (from over 100 countries) that DTC's participants ("Direct Participants") deposit with DTC. DTC also facilitates the post-trade settlement among Direct Participants of sales and other securities transactions in deposited securities, through electronic computerized book-entry transfers and pledges between Direct Participants' accounts. This eliminates the need for physical movement of securities certificates. Direct Participants include both U.S. and non-U.S. securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations, and certain other organizations. DTC is a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation ("DTCC"). DTCC is the holding company for DTC, National Securities Clearing Corporation and Fixed Income Clearing Corporation, all of which are registered clearing agencies. DTCC is owned by the users of its regulated subsidiaries. Access to the DTC system is also available to others such as both U.S. and non-U.S. securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, and clearing corporations that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Direct Participant, either directly or indirectly ("Indirect Participants"). DTC has a Standard & Poor's rating of AA+. The DTC Rules applicable to its Participants are on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission. More information about DTC can be found at www.dtcc.com.

Purchases of Series 2013 Bonds under the DTC system must be made by or through Direct Participants, which will receive a credit for the Series 2013 Bonds on DTC's records. The ownership interest of each actual purchaser of each Series 2013 Bond ("Beneficial Owner") is in turn to be recorded on the Direct and Indirect Participants' records. Beneficial Owners will not receive written confirmation from DTC of their purchase. Beneficial Owners are, however, expected to receive written confirmations providing details of the transaction, as well as periodic statements of their holdings, from the Direct or Indirect Participant through which the Beneficial Owner entered into the transaction. Transfers of ownership interests in the Series 2013 Bonds are to be accomplished by entries made on the books of Direct and Indirect Participants acting on behalf of Beneficial Owners. Beneficial Owners will not receive certificates representing their ownership interests in Series 2013 Bonds, except in the event that use of the book-entry system for the Series 2013 Bonds is discontinued.

To facilitate subsequent transfers, all Series 2013 Bonds deposited by Direct Participants with DTC are registered in the name of DTC's partnership nominee, Cede & Co., or such other name as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC. The deposit of Series 2013 Bonds with DTC and their registration in the name of Cede & Co. or such other DTC nominee do not effect any change in beneficial ownership. DTC has no knowledge of the actual Beneficial Owners of the Series 2013 Bonds; DTC's records reflect only the identity of the Direct Participants to whose accounts such Series 2013 Bonds are credited, which may or may not be the Beneficial Owners. The Direct and Indirect Participants will remain responsible for keeping account of their holdings on behalf of their customers.

Conveyance of notices and other communications by DTC to Direct Participants, by Direct Participants to Indirect Participants, and by Direct Participants and Indirect Participants to Beneficial Owners will be governed by arrangements among them, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements as may be in effect from time to time.

Beneficial Owners of Series 2013 Bonds may wish to take certain steps to augment the transmission to them of notices of significant events with respect to the Series 2013 Bonds, such as redemptions, tenders, defaults, and proposed amendments to the security documents. For example, Beneficial Owners of Series 2013 Bonds may wish to ascertain that the nominee holding the Series 2013 Bonds for their benefit has agreed to obtain and transmit notices to Beneficial Owners. In the alternative, Beneficial Owners may wish to provide their names and addresses to the registrar and request that copies of notices be provided directly to them.

Redemption notices shall be sent to DTC. If less than all of the Series 2013 Bonds within an issue are being redeemed, DTC's practice is to determine by lot the amount of the interest of each Direct Participant in such issue to be redeemed.

Neither DTC nor Cede & Co. (nor any other DTC nominee) will consent or vote with respect to the Series 2013 Bonds unless authorized by a Direct Participant in accordance with DTC's MMI Procedures. Under its usual procedures, DTC mails an Omnibus Proxy to the Authority as soon as possible after the record date. The Omnibus Proxy assigns Cede & Co.'s consenting or voting rights to those Direct Participants to whose accounts the Series 2013 Bonds are credited on the record date (identified in a listing attached to the Omnibus Proxy).

Redemption proceeds, distributions, and dividend payments on the Series 2013 Bonds will be made to Cede & Co., or such other nominee as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC. DTC's practice is to credit Direct Participants' accounts upon DTC's receipt of funds and corresponding detail information from the Authority or the Trustee, on payable date in accordance with their respective holdings shown on DTC's records. Payments by Participants to Beneficial Owners will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is the case with securities held for the accounts of customers in bearer form or registered in "street name," and will be the responsibility of such Participant and not of DTC, the Trustee, or the Authority, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements as may be in effect from time to time. Payment of redemption proceeds, distributions, and dividend payments to Cede & Co. (or such other nominee as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC) is the responsibility of the Authority or the Trustee, disbursement of such payments to Direct Participants will be the responsibility of DTC, and disbursement of such payments to the Beneficial Owners will be the responsibility of Direct and Indirect Participants.

DTC may discontinue providing its services as depository with respect to the Series 2013 Bonds at any time by giving reasonable notice to the Authority or the Trustee. Under such circumstances, in the event that a successor depository is not obtained, Series 2013 Bond certificates are required to be printed and delivered.

The Authority may decide to discontinue use of the system of book-entry-only transfers through DTC (or a successor securities depository). In that event, Series 2013 Bond certificates will be printed and delivered to DTC.

The information in this section concerning DTC and DTC's book-entry system has been obtained from sources that the Authority believes to be reliable, but the Authority takes no responsibility for the accuracy thereof.

Notwithstanding any other provision described herein or contained in the Indenture to the contrary, so long as any Series 2013 Bond is registered in the name of the nominee of DTC, all payments with respect to the principal of and interest on such Series 2013 Bond will be made and given, respectively, to the nominee or DTC in the manner provided in the Blanket Letter of Representation entered into between DTC and the Authority.

In connection with any notice or communication to be provided to Bondholders pursuant to the Indenture by the Authority or the Trustee with respect to any consent or other action to be taken by Bondholders, the Authority, or the Trustee, as the case may be, will establish a record date for such consent or other action and give the nominee or DTC notice of such record date not less than fifteen (15) calendar days in advance of such record date to the extent possible.

NEITHER THE AUTHORITY, THE CORPORATION, THE BOARD, THE UNIVERSITY, NOR THE TRUSTEE HAS ANY RESPONSIBILITY OR OBLIGATIONS TO THE DTC PARTICIPANTS OR THE BENEFICIAL OWNERS WITH RESPECT TO (A) THE ACCURACY OF ANY RECORDS MAINTAINED BY DTC OR ANY DTC PARTICIPANT; (B) THE PAYMENT BY DTC OR ANY DTC PARTICIPANT OF ANY AMOUNT DUE TO ANY BENEFICIAL OWNER IN RESPECT OF THE PRINCIPAL OF AND INTEREST ON THE SERIES 2013 BONDS; (C) THE DELIVERY OR TIMELINESS OF DELIVERY BY DTC OR ANY DTC PARTICIPANT OF ANY NOTICE TO ANY BENEFICIAL OWNER THAT IS REQUIRED OR PERMITTED UNDER THE TERMS OF THE INDENTURE TO BE GIVEN TO BONDHOLDERS; (D) THE SELECTION OF THE BENEFICIAL OWNERS TO RECEIVE PAYMENTS IN THE EVENT OF ANY PARTIAL REDEMPTION OF THE SERIES 2013 BONDS; OR (E) ANY CONSENT GIVEN OR OTHER ACTION TAKEN BY DTC, OR ITS NOMINEE, CEDE & CO., AS REGISTERED BONDHOLDER.

Series 2013 Bonds Are Limited Obligations

THE SERIES 2013 BONDS ARE LIMITED AND SPECIAL REVENUE OBLIGATIONS OF THE AUTHORITY PAYABLE SOLELY FROM PAYMENTS RECEIVED BY THE AUTHORITY FROM THE CORPORATION PURSUANT TO THE LOAN AGREEMENT. THE SERIES 2013 BONDS DO NOT CONSTITUTE AN INDEBTEDNESS OR PLEDGE OF THE GENERAL CREDIT OF THE STATE, THE BOARD, THE UNIVERSITY OR ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION OF THE STATE (OTHER THAN THE AUTHORITY). THE BOARD HAS AGREED, PURSUANT TO THE FACILITIES LEASE, TO MAKE PAYMENTS OF BASE RENTAL TO THE CORPORATION ON BEHALF OF THE UNIVERSITY. THE PAYMENTS RECEIVED BY THE AUTHORITY FROM THE CORPORATION UNDER THE LOAN AGREEMENT ARE LIMITED TO THE AMOUNT OF BASE RENTAL RECEIVED BY THE CORPORATION FROM THE BOARD. THE AUTHORITY HAS NO POWER TO TAX.

THE GROUND LEASE

General

The Ground Lease will be entered into between the Board, on behalf of the University, as Lessor, and the Corporation, as Lessee, for lease of the Property and the Series 2007 Land. As a consideration for the Ground Lease, the Corporation will agree to perform its obligations under the Facilities Lease and all other documents contemplated by and ancillary to the Ground Lease and the Facilities Lease.

The Corporation's obligations under the Ground Lease may be suspended if by reason of force majeure, as described in the Ground Lease, the Corporation is unable to carry out such obligations.

Default and Remedies

Each of the following is an Event of Default under the Ground Lease:

(a) The Corporation shall fail to pay any sum required to be paid to the Board under the terms and provisions of the Ground Lease and such failure shall not be cured within thirty (30) days after the Corporation's receipt of written notice from the Board of such failure.

(b) The taking by execution of the Corporation's leasehold estate (other than a foreclosure of the Mortgage) for the benefit of any Person.

(c) The Corporation shall fail to perform any other covenant or agreement, other than the payment of money, to be performed by the Corporation under the terms and provisions of the Ground Lease and such failure shall not be cured within ninety (90) days after receipt of written notice from the Board of such failure; provided that if during such ninety (90) day period, the Corporation takes action to cure such failure but is unable, by reason of the nature of the work involved, to cure such failure within such period and continues such work thereafter diligently and without unnecessary delays, such failure shall not constitute an Event of Default hereunder until the expiration of a period of time after such ninety (90) day period as may be reasonably necessary to cure such failure.

(d) A court of competent jurisdiction shall enter an order for relief in any involuntary case commenced against the Corporation, as debtor, under the Federal Bankruptcy Code, as now or hereafter constituted, or the entry of a decree or order by a court having jurisdiction over the Housing Facilities, the Series 2007 Facilities and the Stadium Expansion appointing a custodian, receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee, sequestrator, or other similar official of or for the Corporation or any substantial part of the properties of the Corporation or ordering the winding up or liquidation of the affairs of the Corporation, and the continuance of any such decree or order unstayed and in effect for a period of ninety (90) consecutive days.

(e) The commencement by the Corporation of a voluntary case under the Federal Bankruptcy Code, as now or hereafter constituted, or the consent or acquiescence by the Corporation to the commencement of a case under such Code or to the appointment of or taking possession by a custodian, receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee, sequestrator, or other similar official of or for the Corporation or any substantial part of the properties of the Corporation.

Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Board will be permitted to seek any and all damages occasioned by the Event of Default or may seek any other remedies available at law or in equity, including specific performance.

Notwithstanding any provision of law of the Ground Lease to the contrary, except as set forth in the Ground Lease, the Board will not have the right to terminate the Ground Lease prior to its Expiration Date. However, in the event there is an Event of Default by the Corporation thereunder, the Board will have the right to terminate the Corporation's right to occupancy of the Property, the Housing Facilities, the Series 2007 Land and the Series 2007 Facilities, except that the Housing Facilities and the Series 2007 Facilities, at the option of the Board, shall remain thereon. The Board will have the right upon ninety (90) days' written notice of the opportunity to cure provided to the Series 2004 Bond Insurer and the Series 2007 Bond Insurer (collectively, the "Bond Insurer") and the Trustee, to take possession of the Property, the Housing Facilities and the Series 2007 Facilities and to re-let the Property, the Housing Facilities and the Series 2007 Facilities or take possession in its own right for the remaining Term of the Ground Lease upon such terms and conditions as the Board is able to obtain. Upon such re-letting, the Corporation will agree to release its leasehold interest and all of its rights under the Ground Lease and the Facilities Lease to the new lessee of the Property (or to the Board, if the Board wishes to remain in possession on its own behalf) in consideration for the new lessee (or the Board, if applicable) agreeing to assume all of the Corporation's obligations under the Ground Lease, the Facilities Lease, and under any debt incurred by or for the Corporation in connection with the construction of the Housing Facilities and the Series 2007 Facilities.

THE FACILITIES LEASE

General

Under the Facilities Lease, the Corporation will lease the Housing Facilities and the Series 2007 Facilities to the Board.

Rental

The Board will agree to pay Base Rental and Additional Rental as set forth in the Facilities Lease. The Base Rental amount payable from Series 2004 Lawfully Available Funds will be an amount equal to the principal of, premium, if any, and interest due on the Series 2013 Bonds, the Series 2004B Bonds and any Additional Bonds (as hereinafter defined), payable prior to the dates that such debt shall become due and payable. The Base Rental will also include any amounts required to be paid into any funds established in the Indenture, including the Series 2004 Debt Service Reserve Fund or to make up any deficiency or to restore any loss resulting from investment and any other payment required to be made to such fund by the Indenture.

In addition, the Board will agree to pay from Series 2004 Lawfully Available Funds as Additional Rental any and all expenses incurred by or on behalf of the Corporation on behalf of the Board and/or by the Board in the management, operation, ownership, and/or maintenance of the Housing Facilities, owed to the Authority or the Trustee.

The Board will also be obligated pursuant to the Facilities Lease to make payments of Base Rental and Additional Rental from Student Parking Fees and Auxiliary Revenues, to make payments related to the Series 2007 Bonds and the Series 2007 Facilities.

Extraordinary Rental Payments

Pursuant to the Facilities Lease, the Board will covenant to make an extraordinary rental payment to refund a portion of the Series 2004A Bonds from funds on hand or collected by the Board in an amount not to exceed $9,000,000.

Rate Maintenance Covenant

The Board will covenant and agree to maintain a Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Housing Facilities of not less than 1.10:1.00 and a Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University of not less than 1.25:1.00. The Board will further covenant in the Facilities Lease that, as long as any bonds, notes, or lease obligations remain outstanding that are payable from Series 2004 Lawfully Available Funds, if the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Housing Facilities falls below 1.10:1.00 or the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University falls below 1.25:1.00, the Board will use its best efforts to raise its fees, rentals, rates and charges relating to the Housing Facilities so that within two (2) full semesters after either of the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Housing Facilities or the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University becomes deficient, the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Housing Facilities equals 1.10:1.00 and the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University equals 1.25:1.0. At the end of two (2) full semesters, if the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Housing Facilities is still below 1.10:1.00 or the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University is still below 1.25:1.00, the Board will hire an outside consultant, approved by the Series 2004 Bond Insurer, and the Board will follow any reasonably feasible recommendations of such consultant regarding the operation and management of the Housing Facilities, including raising fees and rents, reducing expenses and, if necessary, increasing the average occupancy rate through strict enforcement of parical rules requiring students to reside on campus and, to the extent legally possible, revising parical rules requiring students to increase the number of students required to reside on campus. So long as the Board is working in good faith with such consultant to increase any deficient Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Housing Facilities or any deficient Debt Service Coverage Ratio of the University, there will not be an Event of Default under the Facilities Lease unless (i) the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Housing Facilities is less than 1.00 to 1.00 at the end of the Fiscal Year, or (ii) the Debt Service Coverage Ratio of the University is less than 1.10 to 1.00 for two (2) full consecutive semesters after retention of an outside consultant by the Board. For purposes of the foregoing, when establishing such fees, rentals, rates and charges and calculating the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Housing Facilities and the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the University, the Board will take into account payments required to be made into the Series 2004 Debt Service Reserve Fund and the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund pursuant to the provisions of the Indenture. The Board will further covenant that it will seek any required approval necessary in order to comply with the covenant described under this subheading.

Additional Student Housing Facilities/Additional Debt

The University will not build, acquire or renovate any similar student housing facilities, whether such facilities are owned by the University or a private entity, unless (i) the Housing Facilities have met a Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Housing Facilities of at least 1.25:1.00 for the prior Fiscal Year, (ii) the Housing Facilities are projected to meet a Debt Service Coverage Ratio of at least 1.25:1.00 for the Housing Facilities for the two Fiscal Years following the projected completion of the proposed facility and (iii) based on a market analysis prepared by a market research company with experience in student or multi-family housing, which is independent from the University, the University's proposed project is not expected to have a material adverse effect on the Housing Facilities. Such additional student housing facilities owned or leased by the Board or the Corporation shall be incorporated with the Housing Facilities into a single housing system so that such additional student housing facilities and all revenues derived therefrom shall secure the Series 2013 Bonds, and the Housing Facilities and the revenues derived therefrom, including all Series 2004 Lawfully Available Funds derived from the Facilities Lease, will secure any debt incurred to finance such additional student housing facilities. In addition, the Mortgage (as defined in the Indenture) shall be amended to encumber any such additional student housing facilities and any revenues derived therefrom to secure the Series 2013 Bonds, the Series 2004B Bonds and any bonds hereinafter issued and payable from Series 2004 Lawfully Available Funds and any debt incurred to finance such additional housing facilities.

Undergraduate Residency Requirement

So long as any Series 2004 Bonds remain outstanding, the University will maintain its policy of requiring all unmarried, full-time undergraduate students with less than sixty (60) credit hours to live in on-campus residence halls. It is understood that the University currently permits certain exceptions to that policy and, except as set forth above, the University may continue to permit those exceptions but it shall make no voluntary revisions to such policy that would reduce the number of students required to live in on-campus residence halls (including, without limitation, reducing the number of credit hours to less than sixty (60), increasing the course-load required for status as a "full-time" student or modifying any existing exemptions from the policy), until the Series 2004 Bonds have been paid in full or the Series 2004 Bond Insurer consents in writing to a change in such policy.

Insurance

The University, at the direction of the Board, will secure and maintain or cause to be secured and maintained at the University's cost and expense:

(i) A policy or policies of insurance covering the Housing Facilities and the Series 2007 Facilities (collectively, the "Facilities") against loss or damage by fire, lightning, earthquake, collapse, vandalism and malicious mischief, flood and storm surge, and against such other perils as are included in so-called "extended coverage" and against such other insurable perils as, under good insurance practice, from time to time are insured for properties of similar character and location, which insurance will be required to be not less than the full replacement cost of the Facilities, without deduction for depreciation. In the event that the Facilities are not repaired or replaced, insurance proceeds will be no greater than the actual cash value (replacement cost less depreciation) of the Facilities at the time of the loss. The policy will be required to be adjusted to comply with any applicable co-insurance provisions of such insurance policy. Full payment of insurance proceeds shall not be contingent on the degree of damage sustained at other facilities leased by the Board. The policy or policies covering such loss must explicitly waive any co-insurance penalty.

(ii) A policy of comprehensive public liability insurance with respect to the Facilities and the operations related thereto, whether conducted on or off the Facilities, against liability for personal injury (including bodily injury and death) and property damage, of not less than $2,000,000 in combined single limit liability coverage. Such comprehensive public liability insurance shall specifically include, but shall not be limited to, sprinkler leakage legal liability, water damage legal liability, motor vehicle liability for all owned and non-owned vehicles, including rented or leased vehicles.

(iii) Boiler and machinery insurance coverage against loss or damage by explosion of steam boilers, pressure vessels and similar apparatus, but only if steam boilers, pressure vessels or similar apparatus are installed on the Facilities, in an amount not less than $5,000,000 with deductible provisions not exceeding $100,000 per accident.

(iv) Workers' compensation insurance issued by a responsible carrier authorized under the laws of the State to insure employers against liability for compensation under the Labor Code of the State, or any act hereafter enacted as an amendment thereto or in lieu thereof, such workers' compensation insurance to cover all persons employed by the Corporation in connection with the Facilities and to cover full liability for compensation under any such act aforesaid.

(v) A policy of rental interruption insurance in the amount of at least one (1) year's rental in the event of loss of or damage to the Facilities.

All insurance required in the Facilities Lease and all renewals of such insurance (excepting self insurance or commercial insurance through ORM) will be issued by commercial insurers authorized to transact business in the State, and rated at least A- by Best's Insurance Reports (property/liability) or in the two highest rating categories of S&P and Moody's. All insurance policies provided or caused to be provided by the Corporation will expressly provide that the policies will not be canceled or altered without thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the University and the Trustee; and will, to the extent obtainable, be required to provide that no act or omission of the Corporation or other provider of insurance that would otherwise result in forfeiture or reduction of the insurance will affect or limit the obligation of the insurance company to pay the amount of any loss sustained.

All policies of liability insurance that the University will be obligated to maintain according to the Facilities Lease (other than any policy of worker's compensation insurance) will be required to name the Corporation, the Trustee, and such other Persons or firms as the Board specifies from time to time as additional insureds and will be required to expressly provide that the policies shall not be cancelled or altered without thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the Corporation and the Trustee and will, to the extent obtainable, be required to provide that no act or omission of the University that would otherwise result in forfeiture or reduction of the insurance will affect or limit the obligation of the insurance company to pay the amount of any loss sustained. All public liability, property damage liability, and casualty policies maintained by the University will be required to be written as primary policies.

Proceeds of insurance received and/or the amount of any loss that is self-insured through ORM with respect to destruction of or damage to any portion of the Facilities by fire, earthquake, or other casualty or event will be required to be paid to the Trustee (or in the case of ORM insurance, to the Board for delivery in full to the Trustee) for application in accordance with the provisions of the Facilities Lease and the Indenture.

Condemnation, Casualty, and Other Damage

The risk of loss or decrease in the enjoyment and beneficial use of the Facilities due to any damage or destruction thereof by acts of God, fire, flood, natural disaster, the elements, casualties, thefts, riots, civil strife, lockout, war, nuclear explosion or otherwise (collectively, "Casualty") or in consequence of any foreclosures, attachments, levies or executions; or the taking of all or any portion of the Facilities by condemnation, expropriation, or eminent domain proceedings (collectively, "Expropriation") is expressly assumed by the Board. The Corporation and the Trustee will in no event be answerable, accountable or liable therefor, nor shall any of the foregoing events entitle the Board to any abatements, set-offs or counter claims with respect to its Base Rental, Additional Rental or any other obligation under the Facilities Lease.

Application of Insurance Proceeds: Condemnation Award

If, during construction, all or any portion of the Facilities is damaged or destroyed by a Casualty, or is taken by Expropriation proceedings, the Board will instruct the Corporation, as expeditiously as possible, to continuously and diligently prosecute or cause to be prosecuted the repair, restoration, or replacement thereof; provided however, that the Corporation will in no way be liable for any costs of the repair, restoration, or replacement of the Facilities in excess of the proceeds of any insurance or of any Expropriation award received because of such Casualty or Expropriation. Following the completion of construction and acceptance of the Facilities by the Board on behalf of the Corporation, the Board will, as expeditiously as possible, to continuously and diligently prosecute or cause to be prosecuted, the repair, restoration, or replacement thereof. The proceeds of any insurance, including the proceeds of any self-insurance fund, or of any Expropriation award or payment in lieu of Expropriation, received on account of any damage, destruction, or taking of all or any portion of the Facilities will be required to be delivered to the Trustee and held by the Trustee in a special account to be established upon receipt of any such funds and held by the Trustee in trust (or in the case of self insurance through ORM, as set forth below), and will be made available for, and to the extent necessary be applied to, such restoration, repair, and replacement. Any amounts so held by the Trustee will be required to be disbursed to pay the costs of restoration, replacement, and repair of the Facilities with respect to which they shall be held, in each case promptly after receipt of a written request of the Corporation stating that the amount to be disbursed pursuant to such request will be used to pay costs of replacing, repairing, or restoring the Facilities and that no amount previously shall have been disbursed by the Trustee for payment of the costs to be so paid. In making such payments, the Trustee will be permitted to rely conclusively upon such written requests and will have no liability or responsibility to investigate any matter stated therein or for any inaccuracy or misstatement therein. In no event will the Trustee be responsible for the adequacy of the plans and specifications or the construction contract relating to the replacement, restoration, or repair of the Facilities or for the improper use of moneys properly disbursed pursuant to request made under the Facilities Lease. Any proceeds remaining on deposit with the Trustee following completion of the repairs, restoration, or replacement of the Facilities will be required to be paid by the Trustee in accordance with the terms of the Indenture.

In the event the proceeds of any insurance, and any additional funds deposited with the Trustee, are insufficient to fully repair, restore, or replace the Facilities, the proceeds shall be paid to the Trustee and used to redeem the Outstanding Bonds.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation's obligation to replace the Facilities in the event of Expropriation Proceedings will be dependent on the Board's entering into a lease with a different portion of the campus of the University as provided in the Ground Lease. In the event it is necessary to restore or replace the Facilities in a different location because of the Expropriation of all or a portion of the Facilities, the Corporation and the Board will amend or enter into a new Facilities Lease and Ground Lease in accordance with the Ground Lease. In the event the Board, pursuant to the Ground Lease, decides not to repair, restore or replace the Facilities for any reason, all insurance proceeds received or payable as a result of such Casualty, or all proceeds received or payable as a result of Expropriation proceedings (including payments received or payable in lieu of Expropriation) will be paid to the Board for immediate delivery to the Trustee and applied to the prepayment of the Bonds in accordance with the terms of the Indenture, and the Facilities Lease and the Ground Lease will terminate.

In the event that ORM insures the Facilities, the Board will use the insurance proceeds received from ORM in accordance with Policy and Procedure Memorandum Number 10 (requiring invoices to be submitted to ORM for payment to vendors, or alternatively, production of invoices paid by the Board to ORM for reimbursement of vendor payments) to effect the repair, restoration, or replacement of the Facilities.

Default by the Board

If (i) the Board fails to deposit with the Trustee any Base Rental payment required to be so deposited pursuant to the Facilities Lease by the close of business on the day such deposit is required pursuant to the Facilities Lease, and fails to remedy such breach within five (5) days thereof, but in no event later than the date on which such payment is required to enable the Corporation to make payment on the Bonds (without use of moneys held in the Debt Service Reserve Fund), or (ii) the Board shall fail to pay or discharge any monetary obligation under the Facilities Lease (other than the payment of Base Rental) as and when due, or within thirty (30) days after receipt of Notice from the Corporation that such sums are due and owing; or (iii) the Board shall breach any non-monetary terms, covenants, or conditions therein in connection with the Facilities, and shall fail to remedy any such breach with all reasonable dispatch within a reasonable period of time (or such longer period as the Trustee may approve) after written notice thereof from the Corporation to the Board, then and in any such event the Board will be deemed to be in default under the Facilities Lease, and the Corporation will have the right, at its option, without any further demand or notice to terminate the Facilities Lease on the earliest date permitted by law or on any later date specified in any Notice given to the Board in which case the Board's right to possession of the Facilities will cease, and the Facilities Lease will be terminated, without, however, waiving the Corporation's right to collect all Rental and other payments due or owing for the period up to the time the Corporation regains possession (which have been approved for payment under the Facilities Lease, but not paid by the Board), and to enforce other obligations of the Board that survive termination of the Facilities Lease, and in such event the Corporation may without any further demand or notice re-enter the Facilities and eject all parties in possession thereof, subject to the rights of students, faculty, staff and Permitted Sublessees. The foregoing remedies of the Corporation are in addition to and not exclusive of any other remedy of the Corporation. Any such re-entry will be allowed by the Board without hindrance, and the Corporation will not be liable in damages for any such re-entry or be guilty of trespass. The Corporation will agree that upon its termination of the Board's right to possession of the Facilities or termination of the Facilities Lease, the Corporation upon its re-entry of the Facilities will only be allowed to use the Facilities for the Permitted Use and will be subject to all applicable Governmental Regulations heretofore or hereafter enacted by any Governmental Authority relating to the use and operation of the Facilities.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Facilities Lease, (i) in no event will the Corporation have the right to accelerate the payment of any Base Rental payment under the Facilities Lease, and (ii) the Series 2004 Bond Insurer and/or the Series 2007 Bond Insurer will have ninety (90) days to cure an Event of Default thereunder.

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Facilities Lease to the contrary, a failure by the Board to pay when due any payment required to be made under the Facilities Lease or a failure by the Board to observe and perform any covenant, condition, or agreement on its part to be observed or performed under the Facilities Lease, resulting from a failure by the Board to appropriate moneys will not constitute an Event of Default thereunder, and the Corporation will not have any of the remedial rights set forth in the Facilities Lease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in such event, the Facilities Lease will terminate and the Board will immediately vacate the Facilities and deliver the Facilities to the Corporation.

Cumulative Remedies

Each right and remedy provided for in the Facilities Lease is cumulative and will be in addition to every other right or remedy provided for in the Facilities Lease or now or after the Commencement Date existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise, and the exercise or beginning of the exercise by the Corporation of any one or more of the rights or remedies provided for in the Facilities Lease or now or after the Commencement Date existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise will not preclude the simultaneous or later exercise by the Corporation of any or all other rights or remedies provided for in the Facilities Lease or now or after the Commencement Date existing at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise. All costs incurred by the Corporation in collecting any amounts and damages owing by the Board pursuant to the provisions of the Facilities Lease or to enforce any provision of the Facilities Lease, including reasonable Litigation Expenses from the date any such matter is turned over to an attorney, whether or not one or more actions are commenced by the Corporation, will also be recoverable by the Corporation from the Board. The waiver by the Corporation of any breach by the Board and the waiver by the Board of any breach by the Corporation of any term, covenant, or condition of the Facilities Lease will not operate as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other term, covenant, or condition thereof.

Non-Appropriation of Funds

In the event no funds or insufficient funds are lawfully appropriated in its budget process in any Fiscal Year enabling the payment of Base Rental and Additional Rental due during the next succeeding Fiscal Year, the Board will immediately notify the Corporation and the Trustee of such occurrence. On the first day of the month following the Base Rental payment date on which the last payment of Base Rental can be made in full from Lawfully Available Funds, the Facilities Lease will terminate without penalty or expense to the Board of any kind whatsoever, except as to the portions of Base Rental and Additional Rental payments therein agreed upon for Fiscal Years for which sufficient funds shall have been lawfully appropriated. In the event of such termination, the Board will peaceably surrender possession of the Facilities to the Corporation on the date of such termination in its original condition (normal wear and tear excepted). The Corporation will have all legal and equitable rights and remedies to take possession of the Facilities and re-let or sell the Facilities as the Corporation determines and as granted in the Facilities Lease. The Board will acknowledge that the Corporation's rights to take possession and to re-let or sell the Facilities under the Facilities Lease may be assigned to the Trustee for the benefit of the owners of the Bonds, and the Board will agree that the Trustee will be entitled to exercise all of the rights of the Corporation under the Facilities Lease. The event of an inability by the Board to cause the appropriation of sufficient funds for the payment of sums due under the Facilities Lease will not constitute a default thereunder, but will, ipso facto, terminate the Facilities Lease. This provision will be operative notwithstanding any provisions of the Facilities Lease to the contrary. The Board will be considered in default thereunder if sufficient funds are lawfully appropriated for the payment of Rental required under the Facilities Lease and the Board fails to use lawfully appropriated funds for the payment of Rental. In such event, the Corporation will be entitled to the rights and remedies set forth in the Facilities Lease.

SOURCES OF PAYMENT FOR THE SERIES 2013 BONDS

The Series 2013 Bonds are payable solely from Series 2004 Lawfully Available Funds, which include all unrestricted funds available to the University and appropriated by the Board to make Rental Payments from any source, including Rents. The Series 2013 Bonds will be issued on a complete parity with the Series 2004B Bonds.

The State, through the Division of Administration, is not, at any time whatsoever, obligated, committed or required to provide funds by legislative appropriation or any other means to pay debt service on the Series 2013 Bonds or to support the continued operation and maintenance of the Facilities. The lease payments payable by the Board under the Facilities Lease are payable solely from Series 2004 Lawfully Available Funds as provided herein and the Board is not legally committed, obligated or required to make available any other funds to make the lease payments thereunder.

The University has experienced a waiting list for on-campus housing for the past six (6) fall semesters. In an effort to accommodate some of the demand, private rooms are being rented as shared spaces. As a result, occupancy has been at or near capacity for the sixth (6th) consecutive year.

Historical Debt Service Coverage

The Facilities Lease will require the Board to make Rental Payments to satisfy debt service requirements on the Series 2013 Bonds and the Series 2004B Bonds from Series 2004 Lawfully Available Funds, which include all unrestricted funds available to the University and appropriated by the Board to make Rental payments from any source, however, as a practical matter the Rents from the Housing Facilities will be the primary source for Rental payments. In addition, the rate maintenance covenant contained in the Facilities Lease requires the Board to meet certain coverage requirements for both the Housing Facilities and the University. See “THE FACILITIES LEASE – Rate Maintenance Covenant” herein. The following presentation shows the University’s Debt Service Coverage Ratio for the Housing Facilities for fiscal years 2009-2013.

Trust Estate

The Series 2013 Bonds are special limited obligations of the Authority payable from the Trust Estate held for the benefit of the Bondholders pursuant to the Indenture. The Series 2013 Bonds are not payable from any other revenues, funds, or assets of the Authority. The Trust Estate will include: (i) all right, title, and interest of the Authority in, to and under the Loan Agreement, the Ground Lease and the Facilities Lease, and (ii) moneys held in funds and accounts (other than the Rebate Fund) established pursuant to the Indenture. The obligation of the Board to make rental payments under the Facilities Lease is subject to, and dependent upon, the University's budgeting and appropriating funds necessary to make payments required under the Facilities Lease. Any discussion in this Official Statement concerning the Trust Estate or any other source of payment for the Series 2013 Bonds should be construed with respect to any particular Series 2013 Bond to be limited to the extent described in this paragraph. The Trustee has no authority to extend the time for any Payment of principal, premium, or interest without the prior written consent of or authorization of the owners of the Series 2013 Bonds so affected.

Mortgage

In connection with the issuance of the Series 2004 Bonds, the Corporation executed an Act of Mortgage, Assignment of Leases and Security Agreement dated August 13, 2004 in favor of the Trustee (the "Mortgage"). The Mortgage covers the leasehold interest in the Property and secures payments of the Series 2004 Bonds and any Additional Bonds, including the Series 2013 Bonds. The Corporation has additionally granted to the Trustee a first priority security interest in the leases and subleases affecting the Property and/or the Housing Facilities, including, without limitation, the Facilities Lease (collectively, the "Leases") and all revenues, rentals, and other sums due or becoming due under the Leases. Nevertheless, certain interests and claims of others may be on a parity with or prior to the grant of such security interest and certain statutes and other provisions may limit the Corporation's and the Authority's rights to make such pledges, assignments, and/or grants of security interests. Examples of such claims, interests, and provisions are:

- (1) statutory liens;
- (2) the Louisiana Uniform Commercial Code may not recognize a security interest in future revenues derived from the Facilities;
- (3) constructive trusts, equitable liens, or other rights impressed or conferred by any state or federal court in the exercise of its equitable jurisdiction;
- (4) federal bankruptcy laws as they affect amounts earned with respect to the Facilities after any effectual institution of bankruptcy proceedings by or against the Corporation or the Authority;
- (5) as to those items in which a security interest can be perfected only by possession, including items converted to cash, the rights of third parties in such items not in the possession of the Trustee;
- (6) items not in possession of the Trustee, the records to which are located or moved outside the State of Louisiana, which are thereby not subject to or are removed from the operation of Louisiana law; and
- (7) the requirement that appropriate continuation statements be filed in accordance with the Louisiana Uniform Commercial Code as from time to time in effect.

Limitation of Authority's Obligations

THE SERIES 2013 BONDS ARE LIMITED AND SPECIAL REVENUE OBLIGATIONS OF THE AUTHORITY PAYABLE SOLELY FROM PAYMENTS RECEIVED BY THE AUTHORITY FROM THE CORPORATION PURSUANT TO THE LOAN AGREEMENT. THE SERIES 2013 BONDS DO NOT CONSTITUTE AN INDEBTEDNESS OR PLEDGE OF THE GENERAL CREDIT OF THE STATE, THE BOARD, THE UNIVERSITY OR ANY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION OF THE STATE (OTHER THAN THE AUTHORITY). THE BOARD HAS AGREED, PURSUANT TO THE FACILITIES LEASE, TO MAKE PAYMENTS OF BASE RENTAL TO THE CORPORATION ON BEHALF OF THE UNIVERSITY. THE PAYMENTS RECEIVED BY THE AUTHORITY FROM THE CORPORATION UNDER THE LOAN AGREEMENT ARE LIMITED TO THE AMOUNT OF BASE RENTAL RECEIVED BY THE CORPORATION FROM THE BOARD. THE AUTHORITY HAS NO POWER TO TAX.

Funds and Accounts

The Indenture will create the following funds and accounts which will be held by the Trustee: (i) Series 2013 Bond Proceeds Fund, with a Series 2013 Costs of Issuance Account therein; (ii) Series 2013 Debt Service Fund, and the following accounts therein: (1) Interest Account and (2) Principal Account; (iii) Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund; and (iv) Series 2013 Rebate Fund. In addition, the following funds previously established pursuant to the Original Indenture will be maintained and held for the common benefit of the Series 2013 Bonds and the Series 2004B Bonds: (i) Replacement Fund; (ii) Receipts Fund; and (iii) Surplus Fund.

Series 2013 Bond Proceeds Fund. On or prior to the Closing Date, the Series 2013 Bond Proceeds Fund will be used to receive the proceeds of the Series 2013 Bonds, a transfer from the Series 2004 Debt Service Reserve Fund held by the Trustee and the Board Contribution. Any fund received prior to the Closing Date may be held uninvested. On the Closing Date, the Trustee will disburse amounts held in the Series 2013 Bond Proceeds Fund as follows:

- (a) to retain such sum in the Series 2013 Costs of Issuance Account as may be specified in the request and authorization delivered pursuant to the Indenture; and
- (b) to transfer to the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund an amount equal to the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement;

(c) to transfer to the Escrow Trustee for deposit to the Escrow Fund the balance of the proceeds of the Series 2013 Bonds and the Board Contribution.

Amounts deposited on the Closing Date into the Series 2013 Costs of Issuance Account of the Series 2013 Bond Proceeds Fund will be disbursed, pursuant to the written instructions of the Authority, to pay Costs of Issuance. The Trustee will be authorized and directed to pay such Costs of Issuance in accordance with payment instructions set forth in the respective invoices submitted to the Trustee for payment pursuant to such written instructions of the Authority. Any amounts remaining in the Series 2013 Costs of Issuance Account 180 days after delivery of the Series 2013 Bonds (and not specifically committed to pay additional Costs of Issuance) will be deposited into the Interest Account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund.

Series 2013 Debt Service Fund. The Trustee will deposit into the applicable account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund the amounts required by the Indenture.

Moneys on deposit in the Interest Account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund will be used solely to pay the interest on the Series 2013 Bonds as it becomes due and payable, whether on an Interest Payment Date, at maturity or upon acceleration.

Moneys on deposit in the Principal Account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund will be used solely to pay the principal of the Series 2013 Bonds as it becomes due and payable, whether at maturity, prior redemption or upon scheduled sinking fund redemption; and, if funds are available for such purpose and at the written direction of the Authority, to effect the redemption of the Series 2013 Bonds prior to their maturity in accordance with the redemption provisions thereof or the purchase of Series 2013 Bonds prior to their maturity in the open market at a price not in excess of the then applicable redemption price (the principal amount thereof, premium, if any, plus accrued interest).

Whenever and to the extent that money on deposit in the Interest Account or the Principal Account is insufficient to pay interest on and principal of (whether at maturity, by acceleration or in satisfaction of the mandatory sinking fund redemption requirements therefor) the Series 2013 Bonds, the Trustee will transfer money from the Surplus Fund, the Replacement Fund and the Debt Service Reserve Fund, in that order.

Replacement Fund. The Replacement Fund was established pursuant to the Original Indenture and will be maintained with the Trustee and used to fund the cost of replacing any worn out, obsolete, inadequate, unsuitable, or undesirable property, furniture, fixtures, or equipment placed upon or used in connection with the Housing Facilities. The Replacement Fund will be funded annually in the amount of $122,987.38 as set forth below. The current balance in the Replacement Fund is $11,016,882. Moneys in the Replacement Fund may also be transferred to the Interest Account and/or the Principal Account of the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund or the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund whenever and to the extent that money on deposit in such Accounts, together with money available therefor in the Surplus Fund, is insufficient to pay interest on and principal of (whether at maturity, by acceleration or in satisfaction of the mandatory sinking fund redemption requirements therefor) the Series 2004B Bonds or the Series 2013 Bonds.

Series 2013 Rebate Fund. Moneys deposited and held in the Series 2013 Rebate Fund will be used to make all rebate payments owed to the United States under the Code, and will not be subject to the pledge of the Indenture. The Corporation will be required to make the calculation(s) required by the Code and the Tax Regulatory Agreement and to direct the Trustee to make deposits to and make disbursements from the Series 2013 Rebate Fund that the Corporation determines are in accordance therewith. The Tax Regulatory Agreement and any provisions of the Indenture governing deposits to the Series 2013 Rebate Fund may be superseded or amended by the Corporation (except the requirement of annual calculations and deposits to the Series 2013 Rebate Fund, if required) if accompanied by an opinion of Bond Counsel addressed to the Corporation and the Trustee to the effect that the use of the new Tax Regulatory Agreement will not cause the interest on the Series 2013 Bonds to become includable in gross income of the recipient thereof for federal tax purposes.

Receipts Fund. There will continue to be deposited into the Receipts Fund, all funds received by or paid on behalf of the Board under the Facilities Lease, including (i) daily, all rents, charges and other amounts, held in the deposit account maintained by any Management Company pursuant to any Management Agreement; and (ii) all Lawfully Available Funds from the Board used to make Base Rental Payments pursuant to the Facilities Lease. The Trustee will transfer the amount so deposited in the Receipts Fund to the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund and the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund without distinction or priority. Moneys on deposit in the Receipts Fund will be withdrawn by the Trustee in accordance with the requirements of the Indenture and ratably on a parity therewith and applied in the following priority:

(a) At such time as may be required by the Tax Regulatory Agreement but not less often than annually, to the Rebate Fund and the Series 2013 Rebate Fund the amount required to be deposited thereunder;

(b) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, beginning on the twenty-fifth (25th) day of the month following the effective date of any Management Agreement, to the Operating Fund (as defined in the Management Agreement) maintained by the Management Company, an amount necessary to make the amount in the Operating Fund equal to the Operating Expenses for the next month as shown on the Operating Budget (as defined in the Management Agreement) for such month, as certified by the Management Company;

(c) With respect to the Series 2004B Bonds and the Series 2013 Bonds that bear interest at a Fixed Rate, on the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, commencing November 25, 2013, into the Interest Account of the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund and the Interest Account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund an amount equal to one-third (1/3rd) of the interest due and payable on such Series 2004B Bonds and Series 2013 Bonds on February 1, 2014 and thereafter, on the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, commencing February 25, 2014, an amount equal to one-sixth (1/6th) of the interest due and payable on such Series 2004B Bonds and Series 2013 Bonds the next February 1 and August 1 or such lesser amount that, together with amounts already on deposit in the Interest Account of the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund and the Interest Account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund, will be sufficient to pay interest on such Series 2004B Bonds and Series 2013 Bonds on such Interest Payment Date;

(d) With respect to the Auction Rate Bonds, two (2) Business Days prior to each Interest Payment Date for the Auction Rate Bonds, commencing November 12, 2013, into the Interest Account of the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund an amount equal to the interest due and payable on the Auction Rate Bonds on such Interest Payment Date or such lesser amount that, together with amounts already on deposit in the Interest Account of the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund, will be sufficient to pay interest on such Series 2004B Bonds bearing interest at an Auction Rate on such Interest Payment Date;

(e) With respect to the Variable Rate Bonds, two (2) Business Days prior to each Interest Payment Date, commencing on the Interest Payment Date immediately succeeding the applicable Variable Rate Conversion Date, into the Interest Account of the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund an amount equal to the interest due and payable on the Variable Rate Bonds on such Interest Payment Date or such lesser amount that, together with amounts already on deposit in the Interest Account of the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund, will be sufficient to pay interest on such Series 2004B Bonds bearing interest at a Variable Rate on such Interest Payment Date;

(f) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, commencing November 25, 2013, into the Principal Account of the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund and the Principal Account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund an amount equal to one-ninth (1/9th) of the principal of the Series 2004B Bonds and the Series 2013 Bonds payable on August 1, 2014 and thereafter, on the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, commencing August 25, 2014, an amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the principal of the Series 2004B Bonds and the Series 2013 Bonds payable on the next Principal Payment Date;

(g) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of the month, any amounts due to the Series 2004 Bond Insurer under the Reimbursement Agreement;

(h) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month following any drawing on the Debt Service Reserve Fund in accordance with the Original Indenture or any drawing on the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund, an amount equal to the lesser of (i) one twelfth (1/12th) of the amount necessary to cause the amount on deposit in the Debt Service Reserve Fund to equal the Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement for the Series 2004B Bonds and the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund to equal the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement for the Series 2013 Bonds within twelve (12) months or (ii) the excess of the Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement for the Series 2004 Bonds or the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement for the Series 2013 Bonds over the amount on deposit in the Debt Service Reserve Fund or the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund;

(i) Annually, beginning August 1, 2014, an amount equal to $122,987.38 into the Replacement Fund, with such amount increased each year, beginning August 1, 2015 at a rate of 3% annually; or such lesser annual amount as is permitted by the Board of Regents and approved by the Series 2004 Bond Insurer in each case, as set forth in writing delivered in advance thereof to the Trustee; and, in the event that any funds shall have been withdrawn from the Replacement Fund to cure any deficiency in the Interest Account or the Principal Account of the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund or the Interest Account or the Principal Account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund pursuant to the Indenture, the amount of such withdrawal;

(j) On the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month, commencing the month following the effective date of any Management Agreement, an amount equal to the monthly Management Fee for the current Fiscal Year plus any Management Fee for any prior month that remains unpaid; and

(k) Annually on August 1 of each year beginning August 1, 2014 any amounts remaining in the Receipts Fund after making all transfers required to be made on such date pursuant to (a) through (k) above shall be transferred to the Surplus Fund and applied as set forth in the Indenture.

After a Variable Rate Conversion of the Series 2004B Bonds, payments will be made from the Receipts Fund to the Series 2004 Debt Service Fund in accordance with the supplemental indenture executed in connection with such Variable Rate Conversion.

Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund. Moneys on deposit in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund will be maintained in an amount equal to the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement, and will be transferred in accordance with the priority set forth in the Indenture, to the Interest Account or the Principal Account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund in such amount as necessary to remedy any deficiencies therein (taking into account any amounts available therefor in the Surplus Fund and the Replacement Fund). Whenever the amount in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund, together with the amount in the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund, is sufficient to pay in full all outstanding Series 2013 Bonds in accordance with their terms, the funds on deposit in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund will be transferred to the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund and will be available to pay all outstanding Series 2013 Bonds in accordance with their terms. If the balance of the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund is greater than the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement, all amounts in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund in excess of the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund Requirement will be transferred to the Interest Account of the Series 2013 Debt Service Fund. In no event shall moneys in the Series 2013 Debt Service Reserve Fund be used to make payments of principal and/or interest on the Series 2004B Bonds.

Surplus Fund. The Surplus Fund will continue to be maintained with the Trustee. Upon satisfaction of certain performance covenants contained in the Indenture, funds on deposit in the Surplus Fund at the end of any Fiscal Year will be transferred to the University. Until such transfer, moneys in the Surplus Fund will be available to be transferred to the Interest Account and/or the Principal Account of the Debt Service Fund or Series 2013 Debt Service Fund whenever and to the extent that money on deposit in such Accounts is insufficient to pay interest on and principal of (whether at maturity, by acceleration or in satisfaction of the mandatory sinking fund redemption requirements therefor) the Series 2004B Bonds or the Series 2013 Bonds.

BONDHOLDERS' RISKS

Introduction

AN INVESTMENT IN THE BONDS INVOLVES A DEGREE OF RISK BECAUSE OF THE VARIOUS RISKS DESCRIBED IN THIS OFFICIAL STATEMENT. No person should purchase any of the Series 2013 Bonds without carefully reviewing the following information, which summarizes some, but not all, of the factors that should be carefully considered prior to such a purchase. Furthermore, the tax-exempt feature of the Series 2013 Bonds is relatively more valuable to high tax bracket investors than to investors who are in the lower tax brackets, and so the value of the interest compensation to any particular investor will vary with his or her marginal tax rate. Each prospective investor should, therefore, determine his or her present and anticipated marginal tax rate before investing in the Bonds. Each prospective investor should also carefully examine this Official Statement and his or her own financial condition (including the diversification of his or her investment portfolio) in order to make a judgment as to whether the Series 2013 Bonds are an appropriate investment.

Identified and summarized below are a number of “Bondholders’ Risks” that could adversely affect the operation of the Facilities and/or the payment of the Series 2013 Bonds and that should be considered by prospective investors. The following discussion is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes certain major factors that should be considered along with other factors set forth elsewhere in this Official Statement, including the Appendices hereto.

Series 2004 Lawfully Available Funds

If the Board is unable to generate sufficient revenues from Series 2004 Lawfully Available Funds to make the Rental payments required by the Facilities Lease, an Event of Default may occur under the Indenture. Upon an Event of Default, the Series 2013 Bonds may not be paid or may be paid before maturity or applicable redemption dates and a forfeiture of redemption premiums may result. The Board’s ability to generate Rents and its overall financial condition may be adversely affected by a wide variety of future events and conditions including (i) a decline in the enrollment of the University, (ii) increased competition from other schools, (iii) loss of accreditation, (iv) failure to meet applicable federal guidelines or some other event that results in students being ineligible for federal financial aid, (v) cost overruns in connection with capital improvements, and (vi) occupancy rates of the Housing Facilities. See “THE HOUSING FACILITIES” herein for a discussion of construction issues that could affect occupancy of the Housing Facilities.

Special Nature of the Housing Facilities

The Housing Facilities have been constructed to serve as student housing facilities and are located on the campus of the University. If it were necessary to sell the Corporation’s interest in the Ground Lease pursuant to the Mortgage upon an Event of Default, the special use nature of the Housing Facilities and the fact that the interest to be sold is in the nature of a leasehold interest and subject to the terms of the Ground Lease may curtail the purchase price that could be obtained, and the net proceeds received may be less than the principal amount of the Series 2013 Bonds and the Series 2004B Bonds Outstanding. For all practical purposes, payment of the Series 2013 Bonds is dependent upon the continued occupancy and operation of the Housing Facilities.

Selective Admissions Standards

Prior to the Fall 2000 semester, the University maintained an open admissions standard, whereby persons with high school diplomas or their equivalent could enroll as a new student at the University regardless of grade point average or college entrance exam scores. Beginning the Fall 2000 semester, the University implemented selective admissions standards, whereby students may, with certain exceptions, enroll at the University only if they achieve certain standards to include grade point averages and college entrance exams. Following implementation of the selective admissions standards, enrollment at the University dropped slightly and, although enrollment is currently reaching levels maintained prior to the implementation of the selective admissions standards, no assurance can be given that current enrollment levels will be maintained. However, admissions standards were raised again in 2004 and 2005 and additional admissions standards were implemented in 2010 and 2012 with little to no impact on overall enrollment. Enrollment remains stable, consistently reaching or exceeding 15,000 students since 2008. Additional changes in admissions criteria are expected in 2014 for which the University is positioning itself well to implement these standards with minimal impact on the University.

Operating Budget Environment

In the 2012-2013 fiscal year, the University faced another reduction in state appropriations in the amount of approximately $6.2 million. In addition, approximately $6.3 million provided as carried forward funds into the 2011-2012 fiscal year were not reauthorized. To assist the University in recouping a portion of the lost revenues from the state, another 10% tuition increase, made available through the LA GRAD Act and Act 915 of the 2008 Regular Session of the Louisiana Legislature, provided an increase in support of approximately $5.2 million. This resulted in a net reduction in available resources in the university operating fund of approximately $7.3 million. In addition, the Board of Supervisors modified its policy allowing universities to charge a utility surcharge fee. This modification generated approximately $1.5 million that could be used to pay for utilities previously charged to the university’s operating fund. The largest portion of the above reduction was accommodated through the reduction of administrative costs and a reduction in physical plant operations.

In the 2013-2014 fiscal year, state appropriations continued to decrease. There was a reduction of state support of approximately $7.7 million. However, the majority of this was offset by an increase of approximately $6.1 million in student tuition as allowed by the LA GRAD Act and Act 915 of the 2008 Regular Session as well as a one-time allocation from the State of $1.1 million. As a result, the net decrease in total operating support in the 2013-2014 fiscal year was only $.5 million. The majority of this reduction was made up by a change in policy as it relates to scholarship distributions. The balance of the reductions were spread somewhat evenly to the functional categories of public service, academic support, student services, institutional support and plant operation/maintenance. Even though the university had a reduction in resources available to the operating fund, the instructional category which serves the core function of the University, increased by almost $1.6 million or approximately 3%.

Housing on the University campus remains in high demand. The University has experienced a waiting list for on-campus housing for the past six (6) fall semesters. In an effort to accommodate some of the demand, private rooms are being rented as shared spaces. As a result, occupancy has been at or near capacity for the sixth (6th) consecutive year.

Even with the major budget reductions and increases in tuition, the University remains vibrant. Tuition rates, even given the increases, remain low when compared to other peer institutions; population growth in key markets remains high; and the University's position as a college of "choice" for higher quality students continues to increase.

Appropriation of Rental by the Board

The Facilities are being leased by the Corporation to the Board on behalf of the University pursuant to the Facilities Lease. The obligation of the Board on behalf of the University to pay rental to the Corporation under the Facilities Lease is subject to, and dependent upon, appropriation by the Board in its budget process of funds necessary to make payments of rental required under the Facilities Lease. Although each of the Board and University acknowledges its obligation to budget annually an amount sufficient to make payments of rental under the Facilities Lease, notwithstanding this obligation such amounts may or may not ultimately be appropriated by the Board for such purpose. Further, both the Corporation and the Board acknowledge the Board's obligation on behalf of the University to pay rental shall not be construed as a debt of the Board, nor a pledge, lien or encumbrance upon any specific tax or other revenues of the Board.

Litigation

While there may be lawsuits pending involving either the University or the Board, it is not possible to confer with every attorney handling such matters. Furthermore, it would be impossible to predict the outcome of all such cases. However, to the extent that there are adverse judgments in excess of the Board's insurance policy limits, such judgment may be satisfied only through appropriation by the Louisiana Legislature because Board assets are not available to satisfy such judgments.

Risk Factors Inherent in Higher Education

There are a number of factors affecting institutions of higher education in general, including the University, that could have an adverse effect on the Board's financial position and its ability to make the payments of Rental required by the Facilities Lease. These factors include the rising costs of providing higher education services; the expected decline in the number of college-age persons in the country generally; the failure to maintain or increase in the future the funds obtained by the Board from other sources, including gifts and contributions from donors, grants or appropriations from governmental bodies and income from investment of endowment funds; adverse results from the investment of endowment funds; increasing costs of compliance with federal or State regulatory laws or regulations, including, without limitation, laws or regulations concerning environmental quality, work safety and accommodating the handicapped; and legislation or regulation which may affect student aid and other program funding. The Board cannot assess or predict the ultimate effect of these factors on its operation or financial results of operations.

Effect of Determination of Taxability

The Corporation and the Board will covenant not to take any action that would cause the Series 2013 Bonds to be arbitrage bonds or that would otherwise adversely affect the federal income tax status of interest in the Series 2013 Bonds. The Corporation and the Board will also make representations with respect to certain matters within their knowledge that have been relied on by Bond Counsel and that Bond Counsel has not independently verified. Failure to comply with such covenants could cause interest on the Series 2013 Bonds to become subject to federal income taxation retroactively from their date of issuance.

It is possible that a period of time may elapse between the occurrence of the event that causes interest to become taxable and the determination that such an event has occurred. In such a case, interest previously paid on the Series 2013 Bonds could become retroactively taxable from the date of their issuance. Additionally, certain owners of the Series 2013 Bonds are subject to possible adverse tax consequences. See “TAX EXEMPTION” herein.

Consequences of Changes in the Corporation’s or the University’s Tax Status

The Corporation has obtained a determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service stating that it will be treated as an exempt organization as described in §501(c)(3) of the Code and can reasonably be expected to not be classified as a “private foundation.” In order to maintain its exempt status and to not be considered a private foundation, the Corporation will be subject to a number of requirements affecting its operation. The possible modification or repeal of certain existing federal income tax laws, the change of Internal Revenue Service policies or positions, the change of the Corporation’s method of operations, purposes or character or other factors could result in loss by the foundation of its tax-exempt status.

The Corporation will covenant to cause to remain eligible for such tax-exempt status and to avoid operating the Facilities as an unrelated trade or business (as determined by applying §512(a) of the Code). Failure of the Facilities to remain so qualified or of the Corporation so to operate the Facilities could affect the funds available to the Corporation for payments under the Loan Agreement by subjecting the Corporation to federal income taxation and could result in the loss of the excludability of interest on the Series 2013 Bonds from gross income for purposes of federal income taxation. Potential investors should note that in such event, the provisions of the Indenture relating to a Determination of Taxability may be applicable. Continuation of the tax-exempt status of the Series 2013 Bonds may also be dependent upon the continuing tax-exempt status of the University. See “BONDHOLDERS’ RISKS – Effect of Determination of Taxability” above.

Taxation of Bonds

An opinion of Bond Counsel will be obtained as described under “TAX EXEMPTION” herein. Such an opinion is not binding on the Internal Revenue Service. Application for a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service regarding the status of the interest on the Bonds has not been made. The opinion of Bond Counsel contains certain exceptions and is based on certain assumptions described herein under the heading “TAX EXEMPTION.” Failure by the Board or the Corporation to comply with certain provisions of the Code and covenants contained in the Bond Resolution and the Tax Certificate could result in interest on the Series 2013 Bonds becoming includable in gross income for federal tax purposes.

An opinion of Bond Counsel will be obtained regarding the exemption of interest on the Series 2013 Bonds from certain taxation by the State of Louisiana, as described under “TAX EXEMPTION” herein. Bond Counsel has not opined as to whether interest on the Series 2013 Bonds is subject to state or local income taxation in jurisdictions other than Louisiana. Interest on the Series 2013 Bonds may or may not be subject to state or local income taxation in jurisdictions other than Louisiana under applicable state or local laws. Each purchaser of the Series 2013 Bonds should consult his or her own tax advisor regarding the taxable status of the Bonds in a particular state or local jurisdiction.

Changes in Federal and State Tax Law

From time to time, there are legislative proposals in the Congress and in the states that, if enacted, could alter or amend the federal and state tax matters referred to herein or adversely affect the market value of the Series 2013 Bonds. Examples of such proposals include, but are not limited to, the American Jobs Act and the Debt Reduction Act as proposed by President Obama’s administration and introduced in the current Congress. It cannot be predicted whether or in what form any such proposals might be enacted or whether if enacted such proposals would apply to bonds issued prior to enactment. In addition, regulatory actions are from time to time announced or proposed and litigation is threatened or commenced which, if implemented or concluded in a particular manner, could adversely affect the market value of the Series 2013 Bonds. It cannot be predicted whether any such regulatory action will be implemented, how any particular litigation or judicial action will be resolved, or whether the Series 2013 Bonds or the market value thereof would be impacted thereby. Prospective purchasers of the Series 2013 Bonds should consult their tax advisors regarding any pending or proposed legislation, regulatory initiatives or litigation.

TAX EXEMPTION

In the opinion of Jones Walker LLP, Bond Counsel, under existing law and assuming continuing compliance with covenants of the Authority and the Corporation designed to meet the applicable requirements of the Code, interest on the Series 2013 Bonds is excluded from gross income for federal income purposes except as provided below.

Interest on the Series 2013 Bonds is not an item of tax preference for purposes of the federal alternative minimum tax imposed on individuals or corporations under the Code; however, for the purpose of computing the federal alternative minimum tax imposed on certain corporations, such interest is taken into account in determining adjusted current earnings.

General

The Code imposes a number of requirements that must be satisfied in order for interest on state or local obligations, such as the Series 2013 Bonds to be excluded from gross income for federal income tax purposes. The Authority has covenanted in the Indenture and the Corporation has covenanted in the Loan Agreement that they will comply with these requirements in order to maintain the exclusion from gross income of interest on the Series 2013 Bonds for purposes of federal income taxation. Bond Counsel's opinion will assume continuing compliance with those covenants set forth in the Indenture and the Loan Agreement pertaining to those sections of the Code that affect the exclusion from gross income of interest on Series 2013 Bonds for federal income tax purposes and, in addition, will rely on representations by the Authority and the Corporation with respect to matters solely within their knowledge which Bond Counsel has not independently verified. If the Authority and the Corporation should fail to comply with the covenants in the Indenture or the Loan Agreement, as the case may be, or if the foregoing representations should be determined to be inaccurate or incomplete, interest on the Series 2013 Bonds could become included in gross income for federal income tax purposes from the date of delivery of the Series 2013 Bonds regardless of the date on which the event causing such includability occurs.
