Items for Discussion

“Last 30 Hours” Policy

Dr. Bourg explained the current “Last 30 Hours” policy states that candidates for a Baccalaureate Degree must complete at least the final 30 hours at Southeastern. She went on to explain the current incompatibility with other concepts such as the Articulation Matrix.

A motion was made to eliminate the requirement that students must complete their last 30 hours of their degree program at Southeastern. (Eric Johnson; Jeff Temple seconded).

Motion to approve carried unanimously, with elimination of the requirement effective immediately

Motion was made to adjourn the meeting (Karen Fontenot; Eric Johnson seconded). Motion carried unanimously. Meeting was adjourned at 9:46 a.m.
