Advising FAQs

Can I change advisors?

No.

If I do online advising, can I select a different advisor?

No, if you do online advising, you must choose your designated Advisor or else your schedule will not be approved.

Will I have the same advisor every semester?

Maybe, maybe not. Every semester, the advising list gets re-generated. You may have the same advisor next semester, but it may change. You need to check the list each semester to verify who your advisor is. The name of your advisor will also be emailed to your Southeastern email address.

Where is my advisor’s contact information?

Go to http://selu.edu/csit and click on “Faculty”

When do I get advised?

The advisement period is Monday, March 5 - Friday, March 23.

Whose responsibility is it to get advised?

Ultimately it is the student’s responsibility. If you do not get advised before you can register, or if you do not take the advised courses, or if you do not register as soon as you can, your graduation could be delayed.
