COURSE DESCRIPTION

627. Elementary School Principalship. Credit 3 hours. A study emphasizing the administrative roles and responsibilities of the elementary school principal. Emphasis is placed upon fusing theory and practice in elementary school administration.

628. Secondary School Principalship. Credit 3 hours. Emphasis is placed upon the theory and practice of the roles and responsibilities of the modern secondary school principal. Special attention is given to administrative roles in staff relations, curriculum, instruction, discipline, community involvement, and fiscal management.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Students will:
- Develop an understanding of the role of the principal in advancing a vision emphasizing the engagement of students in meaningful and challenging instruction that prepares them for lifelong learning in a democratic and pluralistic society.
- Understand the theory and research that influences the principal’s leadership in building a culture for effective teaching and learning, professional development, community relations and school improvement.
- Develop knowledge, skills, and performance applicable to working collaboratively with faculty and staff to plan and implement professional development activities that promote both individual and organizational growth and lead to effective and innovative teaching practices.
- Develop school management resources for promoting success for all students by ensuring management of the organization, operations, and means for a safe and orderly learning environment.
• Understand the methods for establishing a school improvement plan by working with the school community to review data from multiple sources for the purpose of establishing challenging standards, monitoring progress, and fostering the continuous growth of all students.
• Develop a method of studying and understanding the culture of a community in order to understand, create and sustain mutually supportive school-community relations.
• Understand the importance of professional ethics by demonstrating honesty, integrity, and fairness to guide and lead the school organization.
• Increase his/her understanding of the nature and functions of administrative leadership in school settings.
• Assess his/her ability and that of others in the performance of administrative and leadership roles.
• Assess his/her potential as an effective school administrator and leader.
• Expand his/her administrative and leadership skills through participation in reflective practice, simulations, group activities and exercises, analysis of case studies, and other activities.
• Develop an understanding of the organizational structure and operation of schools; the human dimension of schools, including organizational culture and climate; and the social, political and economic environment in which schools exist.

COURSE TEXTBOOKS

LEARNING STRATEGIES

The class will be conducted as a graduate seminar blending individual, small group and large group activities using multiple avenues of information gathering and communication. The development of the course is based on the notion that learning is something people do and knowledge is gained by doing; not something passively received. As such, you are expected to be able and willing to devote considerable attention to assignments and activities and share information and ideas. The learning strategies may include:

1. Seminar lectures and discussions.
2. Reading articles and the text.
3. Group presentations.
4. Use of the Internet and discussions.
5. Guest speakers.
6. Case studies.
7. Completion of course requirements

The Course Organization and Outline are subject to revision at any time we as a class need to revise it.

CLASS ATTENDANCE POLICY

Students are expected to attend class as scheduled, be on time and remain for the entire class session. Failing to show for class, being late and leaving early are unacceptable educational and administrator practices. Additionally, it is highly important that you network with other students and being in class facilitates communication. If you are going to be late or cannot attend class, you are expected to notify the instructor in advance either by email or phone. The importance of the class sessions is demonstrated by the use of the following criteria:

1 absence  Professional and/or family courtesy
2 absences  One letter drop in final course grade.
2 tardies/leave early  Count as one absence
3 absences  Failure in the course

See the University “Grade and Attendance Report Policies” below for more information.

LATE WORK AND MAKE-UP WORK

Late work is not accepted. Make-up work may be assigned in extreme circumstances.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Students are required to complete all of the following aspects of the course:

1. Typed, not Hand Written
   All written assignments must be typed with no less than 10 point font. Handwritten papers or typed papers in too small size font will not be accepted.

2. Read the Textbooks.
   There will be no lectures from the textbook. The class is conducted with the understanding that you will read the textbook and have the right to ask questions of the instructor and your classmates for clarification. All course activities build upon the content in the textbooks.

3. Cyber Field Trip.
   The students will be given a Cyber Field Trip assignment consisting of eight separate assignments. Each assignment will require an executive summary. The ONE page executive summary should include the students name, the assignment topic, the date, and the references or URL’s used in the research and a summary paragraph of the students opinions. Individual assignments are due according to the section below entitled “Course Schedule”.

4. Shadow a Principal.
   Shadow a Principal for four hours. When shadowing, describe the date, activity and time. Write a one page paper evaluating your experience. Due by class session #7.

5. A Model School for the Future Exam
   Students will be grouped with four other students and develop a school of the future which will include:
   - Name
   - Motto
   - Mission Statement
   - Curriculum
   - Assessment
   - Unique Components of the school.
   A Facilitator will be chosen by the group to give an oral report of the school to the entire class. All students in the group will be given the same grade.

6. Professional Journals
Read one issue of the NASSP Bulletin or the NAESP Principal from cover to cover. Prepare no more than a two page summary, review, analysis and reaction to the issue that you read. Include the name, volume and number of the journal in your summary. Due Session #6.

7. Class Participation
You are expected to be an active, not a passive participant. You are expected to adhere to the attendance requirements for the class.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Students are expected to maintain the highest standards of academic integrity. Behavior that violates these standards is not acceptable. Examples are the use of unauthorized material, communication with fellow students during an examination, attempting to benefit from the work of another student and similar behavior that defeats the intent of an examination or other class work. Cheating on examinations, plagiarism, improper acknowledgment of sources in essays and the use of a single essay or paper in more than one course without permission are considered very serious offenses and shall be grounds for disciplinary action as outlined in the current General Catalogue.

CHILDREN IN CLASS

Students are not to bring children or other family members to class for daycare or babysitting.

DETECTION OF PLAGIARISM THROUGH USE OF TURNITIN

Students agree by taking this course that all required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity to Turnitin.com for the detection of plagiarism. All submitted papers will be included as source documents in the Turnitin.com reference database solely for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of such papers. Use of the Turnitin.com service is subject to the Terms and Conditions of Use posted on the Turnitin.com website.

DISABILITIES STATEMENT

If you are a qualified student with a disability seeking accommodations under the Americans with Disabilities Act, you are required to self-identify with the Office of Disability Services, Room 203, Student Union. No accommodations will be granted without documentation from the Office of Disability Services.

EMAIL COMMUNICATION

Uses of non-Southeastern e-mail addresses for communication with students regarding University business or educational matters are not acceptable as security and confidentiality for off-campus accounts are unknown. Faculty may unintentionally be in violation of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) by using such accounts. Faculty may expect that students will read messages sent to their official e-mail addresses, and faculty should use the official e-mail addresses accordingly.
GRADE AND ATTENDANCE REPORT POLICIES

Faculty attendance records and final grades should be kept for five years. They should be kept in such a manner so as to be accessible by the department head at all times. The exact requirements for how/where to keep grade and attendance records should be determined at the department level. Faculty and departments should keep in mind that grade and attendance records are often important evidence used in grade appeal procedures or in legal cases. As such, they should be recorded in a clear manner. Faculty who are leaving the University should submit their grade and attendance records to the department head prior to leaving. Examinations, student papers, etc. upon which final grades are based should be kept by the instructor for one year.

STUDENT BEHAVIOR/CLASS DECORUM

Free discussion, inquiry, and expression are encouraged in this class. Classroom behavior that interferes with either (a) the instructor’s ability to conduct the class or (b) the ability of students to benefit from the instruction is not acceptable. Examples may include routinely entering class late or departing early; use of beepers, cellular telephones, or other electronic devices; repeatedly talking in class without being recognized; talking while others are speaking; or arguing in a way that is perceived as “crossing the civility line.” In the event of a situation where a student legitimately needs to carry a beeper/cellular telephone to class, prior notice and approval of the instructor is required.” Classroom behavior which is deemed inappropriate and cannot be resolved by the student and the faculty member may be referred to the Office of Judicial Affairs for administrative or disciplinary review as per the Code of Student Conduct which may be found at http://www.selu.edu/StudentAffairs/Handbook/.
