Artwork by Dorit Pittman, Julia Sims and Juliette Hare
O'Connor will be featured throughout the month at the Green Bean Coffee Bar, 1000 North Oak Street, and PJs Coffee and Tea Co. locations on West Thomas Street and University Avenue.

MARCH 3, noon - Julia Sims, “Manchac Swamp:
Louisiana's Undiscovered Wilderness”

MARCH 4, 12:30 p.m. - Elisabetta Lejeune, “Maria Montessori: The Woman Behind the Method”

MARCH 5, noon - Joan Faust, “Magdalene Herbert’s
‘Autumnal Face’: Art meets Life”

MARCH 6, 12:30 p.m. - Dorit Pittman, “The Legacy of Holocaust Survivors: One Artist’s Journey”

MARCH 11, 12:30 p.m. - Juliette O’Connor, “Those Naughty Women of Storyville: Historic Red Light
District of New Orleans”

* MARCH 12, noon, Writing Center (D Vickers Hall
383) - Alison Pelegrin, Public Reading

MARCH 13, 12:30 p.m. - Margaret Gonzalez-Perez,
“Female Assassins and Suicide Bombers”

MARCH 18, 12:30 p.m. - Natasha Whitton, “Mary
Reilly: A Community Read Discussion”

MARCH 19, noon - Katherine Kolb, “Raising their Voices: Women Composers of the French Revolution”

MARCH 20, 12:30 p.m. - Irene Nero and Amy
Morris, “Pioneers in Art: The Evolving Role of Female Patrons and Artists”

* MARCH 31, 7 p.m., Student Union Theatre -
Reading by Tennessee Williams/New Orleans Literary Festival at Southeastern guest author Valerie Martin.

All events are free and, unless otherwise noted*, are in Sims Memorial Library, third floor.

INFORMATION:
Natasha Whitton 985-549-2413
nwhitton@selu.edu
Judith Fai-Podlipnik 985-549-5388
jfai-podlipnik@selu.edu