

The E. P. and Mildred Kuhn Excellence in Liberal Arts Scholarship

The Kuhn Scholarship is awarded to a student majoring in Liberal Arts Studies. The scholarship pays $425.00 per semester. Preference is given to residents of Ponchatoula, LA, but other students are welcome to apply.

To qualify, a student in Liberal Arts Studies must have earned a high school GPA of 2.5. Retention requires maintenance of LAS major.

An application consists of the following:

- a completed application form;
- the student's written statement of goals and aspirations, with specific reference to combination of English with second subject area (approximately 500 words);
- a copy of the transcript of the student's university courses;
- two letters of recommendation, one from an English faculty member, and one from the student's second subject area.

Award process: The Department Scholarship Committee will evaluate applications and select a recommended candidate to forward to the Department Head, who will make the final decision and recommend candidate to. The application deadline is April 20 for an award to begin in the following fall. The award will be announced at the end of the spring semester soon after grades are posted.
