Expressive Arts and Play Therapy Interventions for Supervision

This workshop will provide an overview of the supervision process and a rationale for integrating expressive art techniques and play therapy theory and techniques into the supervision process. Expressive art techniques coupled with play therapy can enhance the supervision process by the continued development of the supervisory relationship, which facilitates effectiveness when working with clients. Specifically, by incorporating expressive arts and play therapy interventions into the supervision process, the supervisor and supervisee can create emotional connectedness, provide comfort and support, and encourage focused energy, sharing, which can lead to effective interventions when working with clients.

Workshop Objectives:

1. Participants will be able to articulate theoretical foundations underlying supervision and consultation.
2. Participants will gain knowledge of play therapy theory as it relates to the supervision process.
3. Participants will be able to identify interventions using expressive arts and play therapy interventions that would enhance the supervision process.
4. Participants will have the knowledge of how to integrate play therapy and expressive arts into the supervision process to the needs of clients.
