NOCA Feature Story of the Day:

New Concentrations for the Communication Degree

By Sarah Cooper

Reports of changes to the Communication curriculum catalog have been a cause of concern for some students.

READ MORE

Strategies for Writing a Great Grad Student Bio

Read these helpful tips to create a great academic biography.

READ MORE

Start Developing Leadership Skills Now

Develop these skills to become a great leader within your organization.

READ MORE

Who to Include on Your Reference List

Use these recommendations when asking people to be your references.

READ MORE

NOCA Job Opening of the Day:

Director of Member Services and Corporate Communications
Wheatland Electric Cooperative Inc- Kansas

Develop and implement marketing, energy management and communication programs by planning, organizing, and coordinating cooperative resources to promote the mission of Wheatland Electric Cooperative to members and employees.

READ MORE

Editor of the Day: Julia Ernest

This newsletter is produced Monday through Thursday during the fall and spring semesters by students who are members of a Southeastern communication extracurricular organization and is distributed to communication majors, faculty members, alumni and other interested parties. Specific names and email addresses of people who receive this newsletter are kept confidential. Opinions expressed here represent the views of the writer and not Southeastern Louisiana University. To provide a suggestion for an article, or to submit an article or to comment on any aspect of this newsletter, please send email to feng1678@selu.edu. Items in this newsletter that refer to articles originally published elsewhere, copyright restrictions may prohibit copying or re-distribution; however, original items that appear in this newsletter can be copied, stored, aggregated or re-distributed without permission, but please give credit to the bylined author and to SCORE. To unsubscribe to this newsletter, send an email to feng1678@selu.edu. -30-