Here are 5 ways Facebook violates consumer expectations to maximize its profits

The head of a national trade association claims that until Facebook changes its marketing techniques, it "can't be trusted."

READ MORE

True podcast love, in all of us command: This is how Canada listens to podcasts

The Great White North gets its own report from Edison Research and Triton Digital for the first time, and it's long overdue.

READ MORE

Yes, Sinclair Broadcast Group does cut local news, increase national views, and tilt its stations rightward

In recent weeks, news anchors at local news stations across America have warned Americans about "the sharing of biased and false news" and a threat that "false stories" pose to democracy.

READ MORE

Managing Editor of the Day: Johann Castro

====================================================================