Trooper Charles Donovan and “K-9 REX”
Louisiana State Police
K9 Criminal Patrols

The LEaD Series is designed to bring criminal justice leaders and other professionals working in law enforcement, corrections, courts, private sector security and other support activities to speak about their careers and professional activities. Our speakers will provide you with an inside glimpse into your future LEADERSHIP, EDUCATION and DEVELOPMENT (LEaD) that are required in the criminal justice field, you are thinking about entering.

This is your opportunity to discover the leadership qualities they’ve developed and the education required to create excellence in the private and public sector criminal justice field. The same challenges and qualities you will require, as future leaders, in your chosen criminal justice profession. Our speakers are graduates of Southeastern who will speak about their own SLU educational experience and studies, how they selected criminal justice as a profession, and how they developed their particular interest and specialties.

In spring 2010, Trooper Donovan graduated from Southeastern Louisiana University with an Associates of General Studies. After graduation Trooper Donovan entered law enforcement at Covington Police Department and later with the Kenner Police Department. He later applied for and was accepted to the Louisiana State Police. Upon graduation he was assigned to Troop B in New Orleans and was recently assigned to Criminal Patrols/K-9.

The Criminal Patrols Unit is assigned to drug trafficking on our state and Federal highways. Trooper Donovan has a working dog named (REX) who will assist him with the LEaD presentation. Please join Trooper Donovan and REX on Wednesday, November 7, 2018 at 12:30 pm, in room 207, Fayard Hall.
