The LEaD Series is designed to bring criminal justice leaders and other professionals working in law enforcement, corrections, courts, private sector security and other support activities to speak about their careers and professional activities. Our speakers will provide you with an inside glimpse into your future LEADERSHIP, EDUCATION and DEVELOPMENT (LEaD) that are required in the criminal justice field, you are thinking about entering. This is your opportunity to discover the leadership qualities they’ve developed and the education required to create excellence in the private and public sector criminal justice field. The same challenges and qualities you will require, as future leaders, in your chosen criminal justice profession.

Our speakers are graduates of Southeastern who will speak about their own SLU educational experience and studies, how they selected criminal justice as a profession, and how they developed their particular interest and specialties.

Trooper First Class Dustin Dwight has been a Louisiana State Trooper for the last 12 years and is assigned to Troop L, Covington. Trooper Dwight is a 2004 graduate of Southeastern, majoring in political science. He is now serving as the Public Information Officer and is seen frequently on local, state and national newscast. He has served many years in the capacity of a criminal interdiction trooper.

Meet with Trooper Dustin Dwight and discover the career path to become a criminal interdiction officer responsible for drug interdiction and how to become one of “Louisiana’s Finest”.
