

Leadership, Education and Development

LEAD Job Talk Series

John Riles

Captain, Troop Commander

Louisiana State Police, Troop L

The LEaD Series is designed to bring criminal justice leaders and other professionals working in law enforcement, corrections, courts, private sector security and other support activities to speak about their careers and professional activities. Our speakers will provide you with an inside glimpse into your future LEADERSHIP, EDUCATION and DEVELOPMENT (LEaD) that are required in the criminal justice field, you are thinking about entering. This is your opportunity to discover the leadership qualities they've developed and the education required to create excellence in the private and public sector criminal justice field. The same challenges and qualities you will require, as future leaders, in your chosen criminal justice profession.

Our speakers are graduates of Southeastern who will speak about their own SLU educational experience and studies, how they selected criminal justice as a profession, and how they developed their particular interest and specialties.

Captain John Riles has been a Louisiana State Trooper for the last 29 years. Captain Riles is a graduate of Southeastern, majoring in criminal justice. He also has a Master's Degree in Public Administration from LSU and is a graduate of Northwestern University's School of Police Staff and Command. He is now serving as Commander of Troop L, Covington and also served as interim Commander of Troop N, New Orleans. Meet with Captain Riles and discover the career path to become a successful law enforcement officer and how to become one of "Louisiana's Finest".
