Introduction: (5 Minutes)
The teacher will display a picture of the Civil Rights Movement taken place in Washington D.C. on the board for the students to observe (Library of Congress) (Attachment 1). The teacher will say to the students, “Boys and girls, I want you to look at this picture, and then discuss with your shoulder partner what you think is happening in this picture.” The teacher will give the students a minute to think-pair-share (low prep). After a minute, the teacher will call on a few students to share their responses. The teacher will write the responses on the board and say, “These are some really great ideas, but let’s get learn about the picture as we go through our lesson today. We will return to these thoughts after our activities”.

Activities:
• Guided Practice 1 (20 Minutes)
  o The teacher will introduce new vocabulary to the students they may need to know in today’s lesson, such as courage, brave, separate, and etc. The teacher will display the meaning of these words and a picture of each on the smart board (Attachment 1).
  o The teacher will invite all of the students to join her in the front of the room to sit on the reading rug.
  o The teacher will show the students the cover of The Story of Ruby Bridges by Robert Coles, and the teacher will ask her students, “Class, who can raise their hand and tell us what this story will be about? How do you know?” The students will probably say, “a little girl, Ruby Bridges, some sort of fight, and/ or etc.”.
  o The teacher will read The Story of Ruby Bridges to the students, and the teacher will stop a few times throughout the book to ask the students questions as an informal assessment to check for comprehension.
  o After reading the book, the teacher will group the students into groups of fours.
• Guided Practice 2 (30 Minutes)
The students will spend five minutes at each center, and will rotate only when the teacher instructs the students to. The teacher will state the voice level expectation, which will be voice level two (group talk).

Center 1 will be a computer center. In this center, two students will share a computer and earphones. The teacher will set up a BrainPOP video about a woman name Rosa Park who had also fought for equal rights for all people. After watching the video, the students will discuss the similarities between Ruby Bridges and Rosa Parks. This center will show students that Ruby Bridges was not the only person who fought for equality for all (Attachment 4).

Center 2 will be a matching center. The students will work together in pairs at this center to match the correct word to its definition (Attachment 6). The students will need to write choose one word to write into a vocabulary graphic organizer (Attachment 7).

Center 3 will be a letter-writing center. This center will include privacy folders, pencils, graphic organizer, loose leaf, and directions. This center will serve as the formal assessment and independent practice. The students will write a friendly letter to Ruby Bridges stating if they thought she was brave or not for what she had done (Attachments 2-3).

Center 4 will be a music center. In this center, the four students will write their own song, and also create dance moves about equality or courage. This center will include pencils, loose-leaf, and a song example for the students to use as a guide (Attachment 5).

Center 5 will be a logic center. There will be a sheet of large white paper, pencils, markers, and the book The Story of Ruby Bridges will be placed at this center (Attachment 8). The four students will work together to form a bubble map with six blank bubbles to describe Ruby Bridges. The students will be encouraged to use the book as a guide to writing in their bubble maps.

- Independent Practice 1 (Formal Assessment) (8 points)
  - Center 3 will be used as independent practice. This center will be a letter-writing center. This center will include privacy folders, pencils, graphic organizer, loose leaf, and directions. The students will write a friendly letter to Ruby Bridges stating if they thought she was brave or not for what she had done as she fought for equality for all. This center will serve as a formal assessment, and will be scored with a rubric provided by the teacher. This assessment will be worth a total of 8 points (Attachments 2-3).

Closure: (5 Minutes)
The teacher will return to the picture and the students’ responses from the beginning of the lesson. The teacher will ask the students to give a thumbs up/down to whether or not they agree with the ideas prior to the lesson. The teacher will ask the students a few H-O-T questions about Ruby Bridges and equality.
