SCHOLARSHIPS

Educational Scholarships Offered at Southeastern: Southeastern Louisiana University offers several scholarships to support students who are academically in good standing and meet other essential qualification. This link provides university students the opportunity to apply for these great opportunities.

Undergraduate Scholarship. There are many scholarships that can support undergraduate, education majors studying at Southeastern. This link provides a description and required application information for these scholarship sources.

Graduate Scholarships. The university welcomes graduate students who are studying in the field of education to view sources that may support graduate education at Southeastern. This link provides a description and required application information for these scholarship sources.