Your application was selected by the U.S. Department of Education for review in a process called “Verification.” The Office of Financial Aid must compare information from your FAFSA with information you provide on this worksheet and other documents. If there are differences between your application information and the documents you submit, your application may need to be reprocessed. The Office of Financial Aid cannot make any federal financial aid payments available to you or process a student loan request until all verification requirements have been met.

High School Completion Status

Provide one of the following documents to indicate the student’s high school completion status at the start of the academic year:

- A copy of the student’s high school diploma.
- For students who completed secondary education in a foreign country, a copy of the “secondary school leaving certificate.”
- A copy of the student’s final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- A copy of the student’s General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript.
- An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor’s degree.
- If homeschooled, a copy of a state secondary school completion credential, OR, a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student’s parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.

Certification and Signature

By signing this worksheet, you certify that all of the information reported is complete and correct. Warning: If you purposely give false or misleading information on this worksheet, you may be fined, be sentenced to jail, or both.
