University Housing is excited to welcome the residents of Greek Village to their homes for the Fall 2014 semester. Students in this close-knit community have the opportunity to participate with the various chapters affiliated with organizational housing and collaborate together for the betterment of the community. This space provides for unique program opportunities, which we encourage members of the community to take advantage of: reserve space in Village M for your next small group meeting, study in the Greek Commons, challenge a chapter to a volleyball game, and more!

Welcome Home to the residents of Theta Chi, Kappa Sigma, Alpha Sigma Tau, Phi Mu, Sigma Sigma Sigma, Theta Phi Alpha, Alpha Omicron Pi, Village J, Sigma Tau Gamma, Delta Tau Delta and Village M!

DID YOU KNOW...

University Housing is home to a great group of students, over 2,300 total students live in our facilities! Students who live on campus come to Southeastern from over 24 states throughout the United States of America. Southeastern University Housing is home to students from over 16 countries, spanning 4 continents!

Questions about our guest policy, pet policy, or resident responsibilities? Refer to the 2014 Resident Guidebook:

Blake Thomas serves as an Area Coordinator for University Housing, and oversees the following areas: Zachary Taylor, Cardinal Newman, Southeastern Oaks Apartments, and The Village. A Southeastern Louisiana University graduate, Blake received his Bachelor of Arts in Marketing, and was involved with Greek Life, Student Government Association, Hall Council, and more, all while being a Resident Assistant. Blake recently received his Masters of Education in Higher Education: Student Affairs Administration from The University of Southern Mississippi. Blake currently serves as the Adviser for Hall Council, and encourages all students to get involved on campus in order to gain the best possible college experience.
Roommate 101: Questions to ask your roommate

What are some of your interests or hobbies?
What kind of movies, music, etc. do you like?
Have you ever shared a room before?
Describe your family and friends.
What is your major? Are you nervous about class?
What do you want to accomplish this year?
What really annoys you?
How can I tell when you are stressed or angry?
What do you think we need to agree on as roommates?
How do you feel about guests?
How do you like to study? (Music, tv, lights on?)
When do you like to sleep/ wake up?

What if my roommate and I are not getting along?

- Communication is key! Talk to your roommate about what is troubling you. If you feel uncomfortable, ask your RA to help you with this conversation.
- Be respectful! Everyone is on their own life’s journey; no two roads are identical. Try to be understanding if your roommate’s path differs from your own.
- Be honest! If something is bothering you, let your roommate know. Sometimes we do not talk about small problems until they become big problems. Talking about what is going on will help!
- Know where to go to ask for help. Sharing a space for the first time can be tricky... your RA is trained to help you with roommate conflicts! Get to know your RA and ask for their advice should you need their support. Others who are here to help you include your Area Coordinator (Your RA’s boss), as well as the Counseling Center. The University Counseling center is able to advise roommates on having successful relationships! Take advantage of this service.

Student Outreach and Advocacy Representatives

S.O.A.R. reaches out through prevention initiatives to educate students on how to help be an active part of preventing violence, high risk behaviors, and bystander intervention.

Are you hungry? We can help!
The Southeastern Food Pantry is open to current Southeastern Students who suffer from food insecurity.

Whether you need help once or on a regular basis, we are here for you! We ask that everyone who visits the pantry is honest and does have a need for the food they receive.
