Welcome to University Housing!

University Housing is home to a great group of students, over 2,300 total students live in our facilities! We encourage our residents to get involved in their communities and meet the other students on their floor. Look through this newsletter for ways to get involved in your community or speak with your RA for ideas on how you can #LionUp with University Housing.

University Housing Fun Facts:
Students who live on campus come to Southeastern from over 24 states throughout the United States of America. Southeastern University Housing is home to students from over 16 countries, spanning 4 continents!

Move In Mane-ia In Review:
Over 850 students checked in at our 2014 Move In Mane-ia event. Representatives from over 20 Departments, Campus Community affiliates and organizations helped to welcome our new Lions as a part of Move In Mane-ia! 200 volunteers helped with the event, representing Greek letter organizations, athletics and religious organizations.

Blake Thomas serves as an Area Coordinator for University Housing, and oversees the following areas: Zachary Taylor, Cardinal Newman, Southeastern Oaks Apartments, and The Village. A Southeastern Louisiana University graduate, Blake received his Bachelor of Arts in Marketing, and was involved with Greek Life, Student Government Association, Hall Council, and more, all while being a Resident Assistant. Blake recently received his Masters of Education in Higher Education: Student Affairs Administration from The University of Southern Mississippi. Blake currently serves as the Adviser for Hall Council, and encourages all students to get involved on campus in order to gain the best possible college experience.

University Police Department is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week to protect and serve the Southeastern Community. University Police dedicates an officer to work specifically with the on campus residential community. The Housing Officer, currently Daniel Bergeron, and a support team of student workers, student officers and others frequently patrol the University Housing facilities. Please report any concerning activity you may see you University Police!

Remember: tobacco products are not allowed within our Residence Halls. Students must exit campus or remain inside their vehicle to use tobacco products.
Roommate 101: Questions to ask your roommate

What are some of your interests or hobbies?
What kind of movies, music, etc. do you like?
Have you ever shared a room before?
Describe your family and friends.
What is your major? Are you nervous about class?
What do you want to accomplish this year?
What really annoys you?
How can I tell when you are stressed or angry?
What do you think we need to agree on as roommates?
How do you feel about guests?
How do you like to study? (Music, tv, lights on?)
When do you like to sleep/ wake up?

What if my roommate and I are not getting along?

- Communication is key! Talk to your roommate about what is troubling you. If you feel uncomfortable, ask your RA to help you with this conversation.
- Be respectful! Everyone is on their own life's journey; no two roads are identical. Try to be understanding if your roommate's path differs from your own.
- Be honest! If something is bothering you, let your roommate know. Sometimes we do not talk about small problems until they become big problems. Talking about what is going on will help!
- Know where to go to ask for help. Sharing a space for the first time can be tricky... your RA is trained to help you with roommate conflicts! Get to know your RA and ask for their advice should you need their support. Others who are here to help you include your Area Coordinator (Your RA's boss), as well as the Counseling Center. The University Counseling center is able to advise roommates on having successful relationships! Take advantage of this service.
