

SPRING 2022 GA TRACKING GRID

Because Graduate Assistants are required to work 320 hours per semester, departments should use the Tracking Grid below to ensure this requirement is met. This Tracking Grid should be maintained in the departmental office and could be requested when auditing time for Graduate Assistants.

Scheduled days when the University is closed are prepopulated with a zero and the total expected hours for the week are lowered. However, these closures have been accounted for when determining the total 320 hours.

Managers and/or Timekeepers should review the Tracking Grid at least monthly to avoid a Graduate Assistant working over/under the required amount. Graduate Assistants who work excess hours in one week, may have hours reduced the next week. International Graduate Assistants may never work more than 20 hours per week when school is in session.
