

Points of Excellence 2012 - 2013

- » The New Media and Animation program at Southeastern is recognized by Animation Career Review as one of the top programs in the South.
- » Southeastern's master's degree program in nursing is recognized by the Louisiana Nurses Foundation as the Nursing School of the Year in Advanced Practice.
- » The Alpha Psi chapter of Phi Mu Fraternity at Southeastern was honored as the organization's top chapter at the 52nd National Phi Mu Convention held in San Antonio, TX.
- » A radio program produced by KSLU 90.9FM, Southeastern Louisiana University's public radio station, received an Award of Excellence in Sound Design in the 18th Annual Communicator Awards.
- » Southeastern Louisiana University's educational access television channel has been recognized with another regional Emmy Award. A series of promotional spots for the Southeastern Channel-produced "Strength, Endurance, Tradition" image campaign won the prestigious award in the "Commercial" category. The Southeastern Channel has now won eight Emmys and received 31 Emmy nominations for both professional and student productions in its 10-year history and is the only college television station in Louisiana to have won the award.
- » For the second consecutive year, Southeastern has been named a 'Military Friendly School' by Victory Media, publisher of "G.I Jobs," the premier magazine for military personnel transitioning to civilian life.

Source: Office of Public Information

Points of Excellence 2012 - 2013 (continued)

- » For the second consecutive year, Southeastern has been named to the President's Higher Education Honor Roll for Community Service. The honor cites the work of more than 2,600 Southeastern students who provided nearly 98,500 service hours, worth an estimated $2.1 million to help meet various needs throughout the region.
- » The Louisiana Small Business Development Center at Southeastern Louisiana University has been awarded full accreditation by the Association of Small Business Development Centers (ASBDC). In its accreditation report, the review team recognized the LSBDC's business continuity and risk management program as a "Best Practice."
- » Eight Southeastern Louisiana University students have been honored with Gold Circle Awards from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association for their work on the university's 2012 yearbook, "Le Souvenir."
- » For the fifth consecutive year, the Southeastern Louisiana University Epsilon Phi Chapter of Delta Tau Delta is the recipient of the prestigious Hugh Shields Award, presented to the top chapters in the country. The award is given annually to the top 10 chapters of Delta Tau Delta across the nation.
- » Southeastern is cited by AffordableCollegesOnline.org as one of the 60 low cost U.S. colleges where graduates also earn high starting salaries.
- » The Southeastern Louisiana University consortium master's degree in nursing, which is offered in a consortium has been recognized as one of the best graduate nursing programs in the United States for 2013-14. The only such program to be recognized in Louisiana, Southeastern's program is offered in a consortium with the University of Louisiana-Lafayette, McNeese State University in Lake Charles and Nicholls State University in Thibodeaux.

Source: Office of Public Information