Executive Summary

Southeastern Louisiana University believes that Graduate Degree Alumni can provide insights into the value of their degree and the influence a degree from Southeastern has had on their lives. The information provided can be used to help assess where the university has been, and help plan where the university is going. Alumni’s perceptions of the value of their education, the influence their educational experiences have had on their life, and where and what the alumni are currently doing gives the university a wonderful opportunity to review the university’s accomplishments and shortcomings. Therefore, in Academic Year 2009-2010, Southeastern Louisiana University conducted a Survey of Graduate Degree Alumni.

Overall, the graduate alumni respondents perceived that Southeastern provided a positive educational experience with a family friendly campus. This report provides detailed information regarding perception and satisfaction of alumni with the university, its services, and degree programs. Summary highlights include:

- The majority of the respondents hold licensure/certification in their fields.
- 95% of respondents are satisfactorily employed.
- The vast majority of respondents indicated that their graduate education was effective in preparing them for employment or improving their job performance.
- Of the respondents employed full-time, 83% are employed in the state of Louisiana, with over a third employed in K-12 Education.
- Over 94% of the respondents are employed in the area of their Southeastern major, or a related area.
- Overall, the average income of alumni exceeds the average income of Louisiana residents.
- Approximately two-thirds of respondents are active members of professional organizations.
- Almost half of the respondents are continuing or plan to continue their education.
- Almost 90% of the respondents felt that their graduate education improved the quality of their lives, regardless of the financial benefits.
- Over 80% of respondents would select Southeastern for their graduate education again.
Method

Participants

A total of 665 surveys were mailed to Master’s degree alumni who graduated in Academic Years 2005-2006, 2006-2007 and 2007-2008 and for whom the Southeastern Alumni Office had a valid address. Of the 665 surveys sent, 31 were returned as non-deliverable and 158 were completed and returned. This reflects a response rate of 24.9%. Table 1 provides a breakdown of return rates by program.

Of the 158 returned surveys, 77% (n=112) were female and 23% (n=36) were male. The vast majority (89%, n=140) were White, Non-Hispanic, while 6% (n=10) were Black, Non-Hispanic, 3% (n=4) were Hispanic, and 1% (n=3) were Asian/Pacific Islander.

Procedure

A notification post card was mailed to alumni in January 2010. This informed alumni of the upcoming survey and allowed for address updates. The survey was mailed to alumni during Spring 2010. Included in the survey was a business reply envelope and a small gift. Ten days later, a post card reminder was mailed to students who had not responded. A few weeks following the mailing of the post cards, a second survey was mailed to all students who had not yet responded. The second mailing included a personalized cover letter from department heads encouraging alumni to respond to the survey.

Instrument

There were six sections in the survey, including:

- “Section 1 - Satisfaction with Your Degree Program.” Questions corresponded to the Southeastern Exit Survey, but also asked for information about the quality of any internships, practicum, or clinical experiences while a student.

- “Section 2 - Perceptions of Southeastern.” Alumni were asked to rate their level of agreement with statements concerning strategic planning benchmarks of the university.

- “Section 3 - Graduate/Professional Education.” This section asked the alumni to indicate what further educational goals they have completed or plan to pursue.

- “Section 4 - Employment.” Questions centered on the types of employment found, how long it took to find employment, and obstacles encountered while searching for full-time employment, as well as annual salary range.

- “Section 5 - Professional Activities.” Alumni were asked about any types of licensure/certification obtained, as well as participation in any professional organizations.

- “Section 6 - Overall Satisfaction with Southeastern.” This section asked about attitudes regarding overall satisfaction with educational experience at Southeastern, and whether they would recommend Southeastern to a friend or family member considering college were addressed.

The survey also requested information regarding immediate supervisors, in order to allow the university to conduct an Employer Survey. At the end of the survey, alumni were given the opportunity to make any additional comments regarding their experience as a student at Southeastern. A complete copy of the survey can be found in Appendix A.

Results

All Respondents

The overall results of Section 2 - “Perceptions of Southeastern,” Section 3 - “Graduate/Professional Education,” Section 4 - “Employment,” Section 5 - “Professional Activities,” and Section 6 - “Overall Satisfaction with Southeastern” are reported first. This is followed by program specific results arranged by department from Section 1 - “Satisfaction with Your Degree Program,” Section 3 - “Graduate/Professional Education,” Section 4 - “Employment” and Section 5 - “Professional Activities.” The final portion reports, verbatim, additional comments and suggestions regarding Southeastern provided by the respondents.

In this section, students were also asked about their participation in and satisfaction with study abroad/student exchange program. Eight percent (n=13) of the respondents had participated in a study-abroad/student exchange program. Of those who participated, 54% (n=7) were Very Satisfied with the program and 8% (n=1) were Satisfied. In general, 77% (n=121) of respondents felt that participation in such a program is valuable.

Over a third of the respondents (41%, n=64) received their Baccalaureate degree from Southeastern. Of those, 56% (n=36) were in the same field as their Master’s. The majority (55%, n=35) thought their undergraduate education had prepared them effectively for Master’s level education, while 41% (n=26) thought they were Very Effectively prepared, 3.1% (n=2) thought they were Ineffectively prepared, and one (1.6%) was Very Ineffectively prepared.
Graduate/ Professional Education

Overall, 49% of respondents are continuing or plan to continue their education. Figure 1 shows alumni intentions with regard to further education.

Figure 1
14. What is your current status with regard to further graduate/professional education, in addition to your Master’s degree from Southeastern?

![Pie chart showing percentages of alumni intentions]

Two (8.2%) students have obtained a second Master’s degree and one has obtained Master’s +30. Of those who have plans for further education, 23% (n=17) plan on obtaining a second Master’s degree, 60% (n=45) plan on obtaining a doctorate, 3% (n=2) plan on obtaining a professional degree and 8% (n=6) plan on obtaining some other degree.

Of those respondents with further educational experiences, twelve (48%) indicated that Southeastern prepared them “Effectively” for further graduate study, seven (28%) indicated they were prepared “Very Effectively”, and one (4.0%) was “Very Ineffectively” prepared. Eleven (44%) of the respondents indicated that Southeastern prepared them about the same as most other students while nine (36%) indicated that Southeastern prepared them better than most other students. Of those students who have completed a degree or are currently enrolled in a degree program, eight (44%) indicated it was “Very Closely Related” to their Master’s degree from Southeastern, four (22%) indicated it was “Somewhat Related,” and three (17%) indicated it was “Not at all Related.” Graduates are attending the following institutions:
Southeastern - five Graduates
Louisiana State University - two graduates
University of Alabama at Birmingham - two graduates
Louisiana Tech - two graduates
University of New Orleans
Northwestern
Indiana University
Regent University
Oklahoma State University
Texas A&M - Corpus Christi

Employment History
Overall, 95% of the respondents are currently, satisfactorily employed. Eighty-eight percent (88%) are employed full-time. Figure 2 shows current employment status.

What is your current employment status? If you are self-employed or in the military, please indicate “employed.”

Eighty-six (54%) of the respondents had a full-time job prior to completing their degree from Southeastern, twenty (13%) accepted a job upon graduation, twenty-two (14%) took 1-6 months, six (4%) took 7-12 months, five (4%) took over a year and seventeen (11%) have not had a full-time job since graduating from Southeastern.

Those respondents who did not have a position when they completed their degree were asked to indicate what types of problems they had in obtaining a position. Table 3 provides information on what were major and minor problems in obtaining employment.
Please indicate whether each of the following was a major problem, minor problem, or not a problem in obtaining employment after graduating from Southeastern with your Masters.

Current Employment

The section on current employment was only asked of those who are currently employed full-time. The majority (83%, n=115) of respondents are employed in the state of Louisiana. Figure 3 shows the types of organizations in which respondents are employed.

Which category best describes the type of organization in which you are employed?

Respondents appear to be doing well in terms of salary. More than 85% of the respondents exceed the average income of Louisiana residents. Forty-three percent (43%) make more than $50,000 per year. Figure four provides a breakdown of respondents’ annual salary.
Overall, respondents are satisfied with their current employment. Fifty-one percent (51%, n=71) indicated they are well satisfied and would not consider leaving, while 43% (n=59) are satisfied, but would consider leaving for more desirable employment. Only 5% (n=5) dislike their employment. Nineteen percent (19%, n=26) of the respondents did indicate that they are currently underemployed, that is their job requires lower levels of skill and training than those they acquired at Southeastern. The vast majority of the respondents are employed in the area of their Southeastern major, or in an area related to their major. Only 6% (n=8) of the respondents are employed in an area not related to their Southeastern major.

Professional Activities

Eighteen of the respondents (11%) indicated that licensure/certification is not available in their field. Fifty-seven percent (n=90) currently hold licensure/certification in their field, while 31% (n=49) do not. Of the forty-nine who do not currently have licensure, 31% (n=15) plan to obtain licensure/certification in the next 12 months. Our graduates are active in professional organizations; 64% (n=101) are members of a professional organization, and 61% (n=97) have attended a professional meeting in the past year.

Overall Satisfaction with Southeastern

In general, respondents were satisfied with Southeastern. Over fifty percent (53%, n=84) had a “Very Positive” attitude toward Southeastern, and an additional 41% (n=64) had a “Positive” attitude toward Southeastern. Eight respondents (5%) indicated they had a “Neutral” attitude toward Southeastern. Only two (2%) respondents had a “Negative” attitude. When asked if they would recommend Southeastern to a friend or family member considering graduate education, 72% (n=113) said they would with no reservations, an additional 23% (n=36) indicated they would with some reservations, and 5% (n=8) indicated they would but with strong reservations. One percent (1%, n=2) indicated they probably would not recommend Southeastern.

Overwhelmingly respondents indicated that if they were to do it again, they would elect to attend Southeastern for their graduate degree (n=133, 84%). Ten percent (10%, n=16) did not know if they would attend Southeastern, and five percent (5%, n=8) indicated they would not attend Southeastern. When asked to compare the quality of graduate education provided at Southeastern with that of other universities, 41% (n=65) indicated it was better than most, 51% (n=81) indicated it was about the same as most, and 6% (n=9) indicated it was worse than most. Respondents were also asked if their graduate education had improved the quality of their life, regardless of the financial benefits. Eighty-nine percent (89%, n=141) indicated that the quality of their life had improved, and ten percent (10%, n=16) indicated it had not improved.

Alumni Association

The majority of respondents (81% n =128) were not current members of the Alumni Association. Below are the main reasons given for not being a member of the Alumni Association.

- Have not received any correspondence.
- Keep putting it off.
- time
- Forget to pay dues
- I am an LSU Alum.

Four (66.7.0%) of the respondents are currently enrolled in a degree program, one (16.7%) plans to enroll in a degree program in the next twelve months and one (16.7%) has no plans for further graduate study. All (100%) of the respondents with further plans for graduate education, plan on obtaining a doctorate degree. One (25.0%) of the respondents currently enrolled in a doctorate program indicated that Southeastern prepared him/her “Very Effectively” for further study and three (75.0%) were prepared “Effectively”. One respondent (25.0%) indicated he/she was prepared “Better than Most” other students and three (75.0%) “About the Same as Most”. Two (50.0%) respondents are enrolled in a program “Very Closely Related” to their degree from Southeastern, one (25.0%) in a “Somewhat Related” degree, and one (25.0%) degree is “Not at all Related”.

Employment

Three (50.0%) of the respondents have not been employed full-time since graduating. All of the remaining respondents (100.0%) had a job prior to completing the degree. One (33.3%) respondent felt her/his graduate education was very effective in preparing him/her, one (33.3%) felt it was effective, and one (33.3%) felt it was ineffective. One respondent learned about his/her first full-time job from Southeastern’s Career Services and one (33.3%) already had the job.

Two (33.3%) respondents are currently employed full-time and four (66.7%) have a graduate assistantship. One (50.0%) of the respondents who is employed full-time is employed in the state of Louisiana and one (50.0%) out of state. One (50.0%) is employed in industry and one (50.0%) in a health agency. When asked “If underemployment is defined as a condition in which your job requires lower levels of skill and training than those you acquired in college, would you say that you are currently underemployed”, one (50.0%) respondent indicated he/she is underemployed and the other (50.0%) is not. One (50.0%) respondent is currently well satisfied with their current employment and would not consider leaving while the other (50.0%) dislikes his/her current employment and is looking for other employment. One (50.0%) respondent is employed in the area of his/her Southeastern major and one (50.0%) in an unrelated field because of better pay. One respondent (50.0%) indicated an annual salary range of $30,001-$40,000 and one (50.0%) greater than $50,000.

Professional Activities

All the respondents (100.0%) currently do not have licensure/certification in their field and do not plan on obtaining it in the next 12 months. Four (66.7%) of the respondents are members of a professional organization and five (83.3%) have attended a professional meeting in the past year.

Special Questions

All of the respondents completed the insert which contained the special questions. Table 10 provides the frequencies and the means for those items.

Perceptions of Southeastern

One (14.3%) of the respondents participated in a study abroad program and was very satisfied with the experience. All (100.0%) of the respondents thought participation in a study abroad program would be valuable. Five (71.4%) of the respondents received their baccalaureate degree from Southeastern, one (20.0%) in the same field as the Master’s. All five (100.0%) thought their undergraduate education prepared them effectively for Master’s level education.

Graduate Professional Education

Two (28.6%) of the respondents plan to enroll in a degree program in the next 12 months, three (42.9%) are likely to in the future, and two (28.6%) have no plans for further education. Of those with plans for further education, one (20.0%) plans on obtaining a second Master’s degree, three (60.0%) a doctorate, and one (20.0%) a professional degree.

Employment

One (14.3%) of the respondents has not been employed full-time since graduating. Of the six you have been, two (33.3%) had the job before completing their degree, two (33.3%) took 1-6 months to find a job, one (16.7%) took 7-12 months, and one (16.7%) took over a year. The four respondents who did not have a job upon graduation faced a variety of problems in obtaining employment. Table 16 presents what were considered major problems, minor problems, or not problem.

Two (33.3%) of the respondents felt their graduate education was very effective in preparing them for employment, two (33.3%) thought it was effective, and two (33.3%) thought it was ineffective. When asked from what source(s) they learned about their first full-time job, three (50.0%) indicated faculty at Southeastern, one (16.7%) from a professional meeting, one (16.7%) from another student/friend, one (16.7%) already had the job, and one (16.7%) from the internet.

Currently, five (71.4%) of the respondents are employed full-time, one (14.3%) is employed part-time and looking for full-time employment, and one (14.3%) is unemployed and seeking employment. The remaining employment questions were asked only of those currently employed full-time. All five (100.0%) of the respondents are employed in the state of Louisiana, one (20.0%) in a service organization, one (20.0%) in a nonprofit organization, and three (60.0%) in government. When asked “If underemployment is defined as a condition in which your job requires lower levels of skill and training than those you acquired in college, would you say that you are currently underemployed”, four (80.0%) of the respondents felt they were currently underemployed. Four (80.0%) of the respondents are satisfied with current employment, but would consider more desirable employment and one (20.0%) dislikes his/her employment. One (20.0%) of the respondents are currently employed in the area of their Southeastern major and four (80.0%) in a related area. Three (60.0%) of the respondents reported an annual salary in the $25,001-$30,000 range and two (40.0%) reported a range of $30,001-$40,000.

Professional Activities
Four (57.1%) respondents indicated licensure/certification is not available in their field, two (28.6%) do not currently have it, and one (14.3%) has a BSW. Of the two without certification, one (50.0%) does not plan on obtaining it in the next 12 months, and one plans on getting an MSW. Three (42.9%) respondents are members of a professional organization and two (28.6%) have attended a professional meeting in the past year.

How do you feel that your Southeastern MBA has contributed to your career?
- Added outstanding depth/gained confidence
- Broadened future career opportunities. Expanded current management skills and capabilities.
1. I had a master’s degree in another area prior to joining the MBA program. My MBA helped move me from a direct service, clinical position into a leadership role. It certainly has given me the confidence to “run with the big dogs” in the health care industry and was the best decision I made in my professional development.

2. Gained valuable knowledge from core courses, especially in the Accounting area. My MBA has given me a better resume and confidence in banks lending my company money.

3. Positively - opens up additional opportunities
4. Broadened my perspective
5. My Southeastern education helped me to leverage the assets of my program in order to better position for sustainability.

6. Personal achievement - 100%; Penetrating Healthcare Administration - 0%

How do you feel that your Southeastern MBA has contributed to your career?
- I personally don’t feel that an MBA has been extremely helpful for my career as a tax accountant.
- Provided opportunities for career advancement; provided knowledge to pass the CPA examination; provided respect by peers and client due to my CPA certification
- Able to get an internship which in turn helped me to get a full time job.
• In my opinion, for the accounting concentration, the most important thing to stress is the completion of the CPA exam. Ya’ll should def research how Univ of Alabama does their Becker pup class. It is my understanding that the students must take Becker as a semester class. They’re CPA pass rates are GREAT. Check it out.
• The MBA allowed me to receive an advanced degree while earning my 30 hrs. toward the 150 required to sit for the CPA exam.

How do you feel that your Southeastern MBA has contributed to your career?
- It helped give me the basics of business and contributed to my long-term goal of obtaining a PhD.
- It gives me an invaluable edge over my job market.
- Southeastern broadened my knowledge of corporations, economy, and the behaviors of people. I feel I am better prepared to direct my future and manage others.
- It has helped get my foot in the door, but without experience it has been difficult getting the pay I deserve for the work I do.
- It has been a significant part.
- 1. Since I had graduated with my BS in Accounting Dec. ‘99, it was a confidence builder. 2. It improved my skills in supervising others, making decisions, etc. 3. It helped me to be able to better relate to others on my staff who are non-traditional students working on their first degrees.
- Obtaining my Southeastern MBA allowed me to exit the corporate world and obtain a position in higher education, which was my goal.
- Good to have a master’s in today’s job market. Good group projects.
- It has benefit it, not yet with money but has help out with my understanding of the business.
- It hasn’t....
- Helped me obtain 150 hours to sit for CPA Exam. Network w/ fellow students.
• It gave me the ability to look at the “whole picture” of a business at a much higher level than before. I understood, more about how things worked together after the graduate education.
• It has contributed absolutely nothing.
• Yes. I left the job I had (where I would have been promoted by now) to go with a new career in outside sales. Eventually I will be promoted back into management and at that point my MBA will contribute to my career.
• Taught valuable research skills
• Greatly

When asked what benefits they received from hands-on experience, Counselor Education graduates had the following to say:

- Prepared me to interview for my current position
- I most benefitted from the opportunity to discuss my experiences and get feedback in order to make adjustments.
- My internship provided me to develop skills needed in my field and also allowed me the opportunity to develop other practical, transferrable skills needed in my type of job. It also provided opportunities to network. It was a wonderful and challenging experience. I would not trade it for anything!
- Allowed me to experience what I was taught.
- Developed skills related to prof.
- Exposure to what is required in the field.
- It gave me real-world experience I now use in the school setting.
- Great first hand experience in working with clients as a counselor.

Perceptions of Southeastern

None (0.0%) of the respondents participated in a study-abroad/student-exchange program, but ten (76.9%) thought participation would be valuable. Nine (69.2%) of the respondents received their Baccalaureate degree from Southeastern, two (22.2%) in the same field as their Master’s. Six (66.7%) respondents indicated their undergraduate education prepared them “Effectively” for Master’s level education and three (33.3%) felt they had been prepared “Very Effectively”.

Graduate Professional Education

One (7.7%) of the respondents has taken courses but not enrolled in a degree program, one (7.7%) plans to enroll in the next twelve months, two (15.4%) are likely to enroll in the future, and nine (69.2%) have no plans for further education. Of those respondents with plans for further education, one (25.0%) plans on obtaining a second Master’s, two (50.0%) plan on obtaining a doctorate, and one (25.0%) plans on obtaining a Masters +30. The respondent with further graduate experience indicated that Southeastern prepared she/he “Very Effectively” for further graduate/professional study, and she/he was prepared about the same as most other students.

Employment

Twelve (92.3%) of the respondents have had a full-time jobs since graduating from Southeastern. Of those, four (33.3%) of the respondents had the job prior to completing their degree from Southeastern, five (41.7%) accepted a job upon graduation, and three (25.0%) took 1-6 months to find a full-time job.

The three respondents who did not have a job upon graduation indicated that major problems in obtaining employment were “Limited to only one geographic area” (33.3%) and “Tight job market” (33.3%). Minor problems included: “Lack of experience” (66.7%).

Seven (58.3%) of the respondents felt their graduate education was very effective in preparing them for employment or improving their job performance, four (33.3%) felt it was effective, and one (8.3%) felt it was very ineffective. When asked from what source(s) they learned about their first full-time job, one (8.3%) indicated from faculty at Southeastern, two (16.7%) from Southeastern’s Career Services, one (8.3%) from a newspaper/trade publication, one (8.3%) from a professional meeting, one (8.3%) from another student or friend, two (16.7%) already had the job, five (41.7%) from an internship/practicum, one (8.3%) from an employment agency, and one (8.3%) from the internet.

Eleven (84.6%) are currently employed full-time, while two (7.1%) are employed part-time and satisfied with part-time work. Ten (90.9%) of the eleven respondents who are employed full-time are employed in the state of Louisiana. One (9.1%) in a service organization, two (18.2%) in higher education, five (45.5%) in K-12 education, two (18.2%) in government, and one (9.1%) in a nonprofit organization. When asked “If underemployment is defined as a condition in which your job requires lower levels of skill and training than those you acquired in college, would you say that you are currently underemployed”, two (18.2%) of the respondents felt they are underemployed. When asked about satisfaction with their present employment, five (45.5%) of the respondents are “Well satisfied; would not consider leaving”, five (45.5%) are “Satisfied, but would consider more desirable employment, and one (9.1%) “Dislikes employment, seeking other employment”.

Nine (81.8%) respondents are currently employed in the area of their Southeastern major and two (18.2%) are employed in an unrelated area, both because they could not find a job they wanted in their area. Two (18.2%) respondents indicated an annual salary range of $25,001 - $30,000, three (27.3%) gave a range of $30,001-$40,000, five (45.5%) gave a range of $40,001-$50,000, and one (9.1%) indicated a salary over $50,000.

- I received the ideas and thought process of real world leadership experiences.
- Invaluable experience. I could not imagine going from classroom teacher to principalship. The internship helped a great deal.
- Networking with other professionals, real-life experiences, and learning other cultures.
- The hands-on experience was mostly interviews with other administrators & practicum in summer school as administrator.
- Practical on the job training.

Perceptions of Southeastern

None (0.0%) of the respondents participated in a study-abroad/student-exchange program. Three (60.0%) thought participation would be valuable. Four (80.0%) of the respondents received their Baccalaureate degree from Southeastern, three in the same field as their Master’s. One (25.0%) indicated his/her undergraduate education prepared her/him “Effectively” for Master’s level education and four (75.0%) felt they had been prepared “Very Effectively”.

Graduate Professional Education

One (20.0%) of the respondents has taken courses but not enrolled in a degree program, one (20.0%) plans to enroll in the next twelve months, and two (40.0%) are likely to enroll in the future. Of those respondents with plans for further education, one (25.0%) plans on obtaining a second Master’s, one (25.0%) a doctorate, and one (25.0%) Master’s plus 30. The respondent with further graduate experience, indicated that Southeastern prepared her/him “Very Effectively” for further graduate/professional study, and about the same as most other students.

Employment

All (100.0%) of the respondents have had a full-time jobs since graduating from Southeastern. Four (80.0%) of the respondents had the job prior to completing their degree from Southeastern, and one (20.0%) took 1-6 months to find a full-time job. “Tight job market was indicated as a minor problem in finding employment.

Three (60.0%) of the respondents felt their graduate education was very effective in preparing them for employment or improving their job performance, while two (40.0%) felt it was effective. When asked from what source(s) they learned about their first full-time job, one (20.0%) indicated from a faculty at Southeastern, two (40.0%) from a parent or relative, one (20.0%) from Southeastern’s Career Service, four (80.0%) already had the job, and one (20.0%) from an internship.

All five (100.0%) are currently employed full-time in the state of Louisiana. Four (80.0%) in K-12 education, and one (20.0%) in a service organization. When asked “If underemployment is defined as a condition in which your job requires lower levels of skill and training than those you acquired in college, would you say that you are currently underemployed”, none (0.0%) of the respondents felt they are underemployed. When asked about satisfaction with their present employment, two (40.0%) of the respondents are “Well satisfied; would not consider leaving” and three (60.0%) are “Satisfied, but would consider more desirable employment”.

Three (60.0%) respondents are currently employed in the area of their Southeastern major and two (40.0%) are employed in a related area. One (20.0%) respondent indicated an annual salary range of $40,001-$50,000, and four (80.0%) indicated a salary over $50,000.

Professional Activities

One (20.0%) indicated licensure/certification is not available in their field, and four (80.0%) currently hold licensure/certification, including:

- Ed. Leadership licensure
- Teacher, Teacher Leader, Educational Leader
- Type A Level 1 Teaching Certificate
- Elem Grades, Admin & Supervision

Four (80.0%) of the respondents are members of a professional organization, and four (80.0%) have attended a professional meeting in the past year.

Special Questions

Did the activities and experiences in individual courses enhance your understanding of the role of an educational leader?

- Most did
- Yes, I understand the importance of the instructional leader of a school. The role of the instructional leader determines the tone and climate of the school. The educational leader’s fision includes all stake holders and as a classroom teacher I did not understand this concept fully.
Yes
The cohort group had various experiences to share as well as the professors

List or identify two major strengths of the program
- Being with a cohort group for the entire process - we became a family; One class per semester (except for semester one)
- Knowledge & helpfulness of professors; cohort format - one class=6 hours with the same group of students.
- The internship was very beneficial for many reasons such as networking and learning new school cultures; The communication skills taught throughout the program.
- Curriculum based on ISSLAC standards; internship opportunities

List or identify two major weaknesses/deficiencies of the program
- Lack of info/knowledge shared on school law and finances
- Not enough specific information about school law; Organization of the program for the 1st cohort; Not enough preparation for the E. Leadership Praxis Exam.
- The courses were not clearly defined with clear expectations; The faculty were not always collaborating with each to plan for the next course’s assignments
- unorganization; “loopy” professors (one is not longer employed with SLU)

When asked what benefits they received from hands-on experience, Curriculum & Instruction graduates had the following to say:

- hands on experience in research design + methods.
- Not much. I completed a practicum in my own classroom with only a classmate’s review of a video of me teaching.
- Better retention of the material taught and an up close experience in my field to apply material taught.
- application of research
- It is always beneficial to put the theoretical “book” knowledge into actual practice in a classroom with real children. It’s essential to see how the methods actually work or don’t work with the many educ. Levels, socioeconomic levels, personalities, etc. Of the children.
- real world experience ability to immediately apply what I learned in class.
- Actual classroom responsibilities, caring mentor who followed up on me from time to time.
- I was able to apply my skills with feedback from my instructor.
- Effective ways to teach children.
- idea of expectations in the field
- That I realized i did not want to teach elementary grades.
- It help prepare me for my future teaching experiences.

When asked what benefits they received from hands-on experience, Special Education graduates had the following to say:

- It prepared me for real-world experiences.
See what it is really like to be in the classroom; real world daily activity - adjusted schedules, etc.
I was able to gain real life experience
Put theory into practice. Gain confidence.

Perceptions of Southeastern

M.Ed. Curriculum & Instruction

None of the participants participated in a study-abroad/student-exchange program, but seventeen (85.0%) thought participation would be valuable. Ten (50.0%) of the respondents received their Baccalaureate degree from Southeastern, nine in the same field as their Master’s. Four of the ten (40.0%) indicated their undergraduate education prepared them “Effectively” for their Master’s level education and six (60.0%) indicated it prepared them “Very Effectively”.

M.Ed. Special Education

None of the respondents participated in a study-abroad/student-exchange program, but five (62.5%) thought participation would be valuable. Three (37.5%) of the respondents received their Baccalaureate degree from Southeastern, one received it the same field as his/her Master’s. One of the three (33.3%) indicated her/his undergraduate education prepared him/her “Ineffectively” for Master’s level education, one (33.3%) indicated she/he was prepared “Effectively”, and one (33.3%) indicated it prepared him/her “Very Effectively”.

Graduate Professional Education

M.Ed. Curriculum & Instruction

Two (10.0%) of the respondents are currently enrolled in a degree program, two (10.0%) plan to enroll in the next twelve months, six (30.0%) are likely to enroll in the future, and ten (50.0%) have no plans for further education. Of those respondents with plans for further education, four (40.0%) plan on obtaining a doctorate, five (50.0%) a second masters, and one (30.8%) plans on obtaining some “Other” degree. Of those respondents with further graduate experience, both (100.0%) indicated that Southeastern prepared them “Very Effectively” for further graduate/professional study and they were prepared them better than most other students. Both (100.0%) of the respondents who are enrolled in a degree program indicated their degree plan was “Very Closely Related” to their Master’s degree from Southeastern.

When asked what benefits they received from hands-on experience, Communication Sciences & Disorders graduates had the following to say:

- Apply textbook information, how to handle clients & issues that arise in the field, variety of settings.
- Supervised instruction & hands-on practice for my career. Great networking with professionals.
- Opportunity to practice skills & apply knowledge in practical ways.
- Classroom experience provided a theory based knowledge. Clinicals were my only introduction into how to actually practice my profession. Instructors were not good at teaching the “how” to do it, only the “why”.
- Real-world exposure to my chosen career
- I learned how to apply classroom knowledge to the clinical situation.
- Real-world instruction from certified professionals.
- Opportunities to experience “real life” and put our book knowledge to use.
- Invaluable experience with diagnostics and treatment in my field.
- Real-world experience & application of learned skills. Better idea of preferred work settings for myself.
- Clinical experience in my profession.
- Learned how to be part of an interdisciplinary team in different environments.
- Real-world application.
- On-site skills and knowledge to prepare me for actual professional experience. Benefits included having a supervisor to confer in and offer advice and training.
- Preparation for my career- helped me decide which area I was most interested in and which population (adults or children) I would pursue a career in.
- Hands-on experience using skills I obtained in my course work.

Perceptions of Southeastern
One (5.3%) of the participants participated in a study-abroad/student-exchange program, and 73.7% (n=14) thought participation would be valuable. Three (15.8%) of the respondents received their Baccalaureate degree from Southeastern, all in the same field as their Master’s. All of the three (100.0%) indicated their undergraduate education prepared them “Very Effectively” for Master’s level education.

Graduate Professional Education

Eight (42.1%) respondents are likely to enroll in a doctoral program in the future, and ten (52.6%) of the respondents have no plans for further education.

Employment

Seventeen (89.5%) of the respondents have been employed full-time since graduating from Southeastern. Of those, five (29.4%) of the respondents had a full-time job prior to completing their degree from Southeastern, six (35.2%) accepted a position upon graduation, and six (35.3%) took 1-6 months to find a job. The six respondents who did not have a job upon graduation faced a variety of problems in obtaining employment. When asked what benefits they received from hands-on experience, Health & Kinesiology graduates had the following to say:

- Participation helps one to learn in away that “watching” cannot. The hands-on experience(s) gave me confidence for the “real-world”.

Perceptions of Southeastern

None (0.0%) of the participants participated in a study-abroad/student-exchange program, but two (50.0%) thought participation would be valuable. One (25.0%) of the respondents received their Baccalaureate degree from Southeastern, in a different field than their Master’s degree.

Graduate Professional Education

One of the respondents (25.0%) has taken some courses, but not enrolled in a degree program, one (25.0%) plans on enrolling in a degree program in the next 12 months, and two (50.0%) have no plans for further education. Of those respondents with plans for further education, one (50.0%) plan on obtaining a doctorate and one (50.0%) plans on obtaining an RD.

Employment

Three (75.0%) of the respondents have been employed full-time since graduating from Southeastern. One (33.3%) had the job before completing the degree, one (33.3%) upon graduation, and one (33.3%) took 1-6 months. All three respondent (100.0%) felt their graduate education was effective in preparing them for employment or improving their job performance.

Currently, all (100.0%) of the respondents are employed full-time, two (50.0%) in the state of Louisiana. One (25.0%) is employed in higher education, one (25.0%) in K-12 education, one (25.0%) is self-employed, and one (25.0%) in a health agency. When asked “If underemployment is defined as a condition in which your job requires lower levels of skill and training than those you acquired in college, would you say that you are currently underemployed”, three (75.0%) respondents felt they are underemployed. When asked about satisfaction with present employment, two respondents (50.0%) are “Well satisfied; would not consider leaving” and two (50.0%) are “Satisfied, but would consider more desirable employment”. One respondent (25.0%) is currently employed in the area of his/her Southeastern major, two (50.0%) in a related area, and one (25.0%) in an unrelated area because of not being able to find a job. One (25.0%) respondent indicated an annual salary range of $25,001-$30,000, two (50.0%) $30,001-$40,000, and one (25.0%) a range of $40,001-$50,000.

Professional Activities

Two (50.0%) of the respondents indicated they currently have licensure/certification, one is has ATC and one is a Certified Health Education Specialist (CHES). Neither of the two (0.0%) that currently do not have it, plan on obtaining it in the next twelve months. Three (75.0%) of the respondents are members of a professional organization, and two (25.0%) have attended a professional meeting in the past year.

When asked what benefits they received from hands-on experience, graduates had the following to say:

- It prepared me for my current job with no further training needed.
- Excellent interaction from my preceptor.
- Experience teaching at different levels
- It provided a perspective of moving toward the teacher role and away from being a peer.
- Knowledge of the required area, some experiences were better than others.
- Wide exposure to a variety of clinical areas and sophisticated procedures.
- I learned how to handle a clinical group on my own.

Perceptions of Southeastern

None (0.0%) of the participants participated in a study-abroad/student-exchange program, but seven (63.6%) thought participation would be valuable. Three (27.3%) of the respondents received their Baccalaureate degree from Southeastern, all in the same field as their Master’s. All (100.0%) indicated their undergraduate education prepared them “Very Effectively” for Master’s level education.

Graduate Professional Education

One (9.1%) of the respondents taken classes but not enrolled in a graduate degree program, four (36.4%) of the respondents will likely enroll in a degree program in the future, and six (54.5%) of the respondents have no plans for further education. Of those who plan on obtaining a degree, one (20.0%) plans on obtaining a second Masters, and four (80.0%) plan on obtaining a doctorate. The respondent with further graduate experience indicated his/her experiences at Southeastern “Effectively” prepared her/him for further graduate education and prepared “Better than Most” other students.
Employment

Nine (81.8%) of the respondents have been employed full-time since graduating from Southeastern. Five (55.6%) of those had a full-time job prior to completing their degree from Southeastern, one (11.1%) accepted a position upon graduation, one (11.1%) took 1-6 months to find a job, one (11.1%) took 7-12 months, and one (11.1%) took over a year.

The three respondents who did not have a job upon graduation faced a variety of problems in obtaining employment. Table 27 presents what were considered major problems, minor problems, or not a problem.

All of the respondents completed the insert which contained questions specifically for Nursing alumni. Over half (63.6%, n=7) reported that they work in a School of Nursing, while three (27.3%) work in an acute care setting, and one (9.1%) in long-term care. When asked what their role in their current employment setting is, seven (63.6%) reported nurse educator, 18.2% (n=2) reported nurse practitioner, one (9.1%) staff nurse, and one (9.1%) primary nurse.

Five (45.5%) of the respondents belong to ANA, six (54.5%) NLN, three (27.3%) Practice Specialty Organization, eight (72.7%) an Honorary Society, and 2 (18.2%) some “other” organization (TDNA and AANP). Two (18.2%) of the respondents currently holds a position of office in a professional organization and five (45.5%) have in the past. Four (36.4%) respondents have participated in professional research. Three (27.3%) of the participants have published in a professional nursing journal and seven (63.6%) have presented at a professional meeting.

On average, respondents received 23.9 hours of continuing education over the past year. The numbers of hours ranged from 4 to 100, with a mode of 15 and a median of 15. More than half (54.5%, n=6) currently hold professional specialty certification in addition to Registered Nurse licensure and required certification, these include AHN-BC, CNE (2), orthopedic nurse certified, ACLS (3), PALS, BLS instructor, CRRN, and adult nurse practitioner. Four (36.4%) of the respondents plan on obtaining a doctoral degree in the future. Three (27.3%) of the respondents have participated in consultation activities.
When asked about their satisfaction with their educational preparation for advanced nursing practice, the majority (81.8%, n=9) were very satisfied and two (18.2%) were satisfied. All (100.0%) of the respondents would recommend the Southeaster MSN program to others.

Southeastern Louisiana University
Survey of Graduate Degree Alumni
2009-2010
Dear Southeastern Alumnus,

Many changes have occurred on campus in the past few years that will positively impact the quality of the educational experience offered by Southeastern. In Spring 2009, we graduated our first doctoral degree, an Ed.D. in Educational Leadership offered in collaboration with the University of Louisiana - Lafayette. Recently, we initiated several new programs to address regional workforce demand, including a BS in Supply Chain Management and a BS in Engineering Technology. We received our first patent for work done by one of our faculty members. A recent study revealed that Southeastern has a $564 million annual economic impact, which supports more than 5,700 in addition to the 1,900 individuals we employ.

Despite recent and projected budget constraints, Southeastern has successfully protected our academic programs, ensuring the quality education that is a hallmark of Southeastern. While we have been forced to make hard choices, we have worked to minimize the impact on instruction.

In order to ensure continued quality education, we must plan for the future. You are in a unique position to provide insight into the value of your degree and the influence your experiences at Southeastern have had on your life. Planning for the future demands that we look back on our accomplishments and identify areas that need improvement.

The enclosed survey has been designed to provide you the opportunity to tell us what you have done since graduating from Southeastern. Tell us what areas in which you think we excel, and identify where we can improve. Your participation in this survey is very important. Without your response, we cannot accurately reflect the opinions of our alumni.

Completing the survey will take approximately 15 minutes. Please complete the survey and return it within 10 days in the enclosed, pre-addressed business envelope. The enclosed gift is a token of our appreciation for completing the survey.

You will note that the survey contains an identification number for research purposes and to avoid sending you needless reminders about completing the survey. I assure you that the information you provide will be kept completely confidential. The Office of Institutional Research & Assessment will collect and analyze the responses. The information gained from this survey will be reported only for the entire survey group, and at no time is your name identified with any response. Completion and return of this survey implies voluntary consent to participate in this study. If you have any questions regarding the survey, please contact Dr. Michelle Hall at (985) 549-2077.

Thank you for taking time to complete our survey.
