Who we are . . .

The Lion's Roar is the official newspaper of the students of Southeastern Louisiana University. Distributed on Tuesdays, it is published weekly during regular semesters and monthly during the summer semester. The Lion's Roar is planned, written, designed, created and published by the students of SLU working in the Office of Student Publications, a part of the Division of Student Affairs. The Lion's Roar has been in continuous publication since 1937.

Who we reach . . .

With a circulation of 5,000 copies each week delivered to approximately 65 drop-off points in and around Southeastern’s campus and the Hammond area, The Lion’s Roar effectively reaches much of the available market in the region. Advertising in The Lion’s Roar is the best way to reach an audience of more than 15,000 students and 1,200 employees representing nearly all 50 states and over 60 foreign countries. In addition, subscriptions are mailed out across the country to individuals and groups, which helps to comprise a large university market for advertisers.
