College of Nursing and Health Sciences

TITLE: Transition to Independent Environmental Health Research (TIEHR) Career Development Award (K22)
AGENCY: U.S. Department of Health and Human Services; National Institutes of Health; National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences FON: PA-12-188

ITEM: Notice seeking grant applications from newly independent faculty (within two years of their first independent faculty appointment) for a three-year bridge scholar development program. This award is intended to provide junior faculty the pilot funding and salary support during this critical period of career development so that he/she can further develop his/her independent research program and, subsequently, successfully compete for research funding in the environmental health sciences at the completion of the award. The award is intended to promote the faculty development of scientists who intend to make a long term commitment to research in the environmental health sciences.

ACTION: Applications are due annually on June 12, October 12, and February 12 through May 8, 2017. Colleges and universities are eligible to apply.

Program: Proposals for 2013 Grants Cycle
Agency: RGK Foundation

Deadline: Rolling
The Austin-based RGK Foundation is inviting proposals in the broad areas of education, community, and health and medicine. The foundation's primary interests include formal K-12 education (particularly math, science, and reading), teacher development, literacy, and higher education. The foundation's community grants support a broad range of human services, community improvement, abuse prevention, and youth development programs. The foundation's current interests in health and medicine include programs that promote the health and well-being of children, programs that promote access to health services, and foundation-initiated programs focusing on ALS (Lou Gehrig's disease). Although the foundation's grant making program doesn't have any geographic restrictions, the foundation no longer accepts unsolicited requests from international agencies or programs. While the foundation occasionally awards grants for operating expenses, capital campaigns, endowments, and international projects, such grants are infrequent and usually initiated by the foundation. Multiyear grants are rare, and most grants are awarded for a period of one year. Grants are made only to nonprofit organizations certified as tax exempt under Sections 501(c)(3) or 170(c) of the Internal Revenue Code and are classified as "not a private foundation" under Section 509(a). Hospitals, educational institutions, and governmental institutions meeting these requirements are eligible to apply. Organizations that have completed and filed Form 1023 but not yet received an IRS determination letter are not eligible to apply.

For complete application and eligibility guidelines, visit the RGK Foundation Web site.

Program: Improving Methods for Conducting Patient-Centered Outcomes Research CFDA Number:
Agency: Patient-Centered Outcomes Research Institute

Next Deadline: Apr 01, 2015

Supports studies to address gaps in methodological research relevant to conducting patient-centered outcomes research (PCOR). Results of these studies will inform future iterations of the Methodology Committee report and its standards. The improvement of existing methods will benefit all stakeholders, including researchers planning investigations, policy makers weighing the value of healthcare interventions; and patients, clinicians, and caregivers facing healthcare decisions. Deadlines refer to required LOIs.
