MASTER OF SCIENCE (M.S.)
SOCIOLOGY
APPLIED SOCIOLOGY
Purpose
Applied sociology is a growing academic area as social research and theory are increasingly used for planning, development, evaluation and problem solving by organizations and agencies. The purpose of the Southeastern’s Masters of Science program in Applied Sociology is to:
1. teach students how to use the theories and research methods of sociology to solve real world problems;
2. train students to utilize the sociological perspective to research, analyze and develop strategies for the effective and efficient functioning of community institutions, organizations and groups of individuals;
3. prepare students to deal with contemporary issues of multiculturalism and globalization that condition the problems and solutions with which such professionals will deal;
4. prepare students to be able to work with diverse populations and develop a clear understanding of the extent, causes, consequences and potential solutions to the problems of inequality, prejudice and discrimination.

Admission Requirements
Applicants for admission to the Master of Science Degree Program in Applied Sociology must meet the following criteria:
1. a Bachelor’s degree from an accredited institution in Sociology, Criminal Justice, Social Work or a related social science field;

Internship Option
The internship involves application of sociological principles to work within an organization, agency, institution, or business setting, depending upon the student’s areas of interest. The work is supervised by an Agency Supervisor, the student’s Major Professor and an Internship Committee.

Internship Defense
Prior to graduation students choosing the Internship Option must report on their work before a forum of graduate faculty and graduate students. Before being recommended for graduation students must receive approval for their internship work from the Major Professor, Internship Committee members, Graduate Coordinator and the Department Chair.

Thesis Option
The thesis is a major work of independent research on an original topic, supervised by the student’s Major Professor and Thesis Committee.

Thesis Proposal Defense
Prior to beginning their research students choosing the Thesis Option must defend their research proposal before a forum consisting of the Major Professor and Thesis Committee. Once approved, students may begin their thesis research.

Thesis Defense
Prior to graduation students choosing the Thesis Option must defend their thesis before a forum of graduate faculty and graduate students. Before being recommended for graduation students must receive approval for their thesis from the Major Professor, Thesis Committee members, Graduate Coordinator and the Department Chair.

Thesis Style and Binding
The thesis must conform to the format of the most recent edition of The Chicago Manual of Style. Students must submit at least 4 copies of the final approved version of the thesis to the Graduate Coordinator for binding by the Sims Memorial Library.

Attendance at Internship or Thesis Defense
All students enrolled in the M.S. in Applied Sociology program are required to attend at least one thesis defense per semester. This gives authors of theses and internship documents the audience they have earned, helps students prepare for their own oral defense, and allows students to join the community of scholars.

Graduate Faculty
All faculty members in the Department of Sociology and Criminal Justice who are members of the University Graduate Faculty are members of the department’s graduate faculty. They are eligible to teach graduate courses, supervises internships and theses, and serve on Internship and Theses Committees. The University Graduate Council must renew member status for graduate faculty every six years. Temporary graduate faculty status must be renewed annually; adjunct faculty must be renewed each semester.

Graduate Coordinator
The Graduate Coordinator is responsible for processing all applicants’ application materials and presenting them to the Graduate Faculty Advisory Committee for approval. The Graduate Coordinator serves as the academic advisor for all graduate students, supervises their progress toward the M.S. degree, approves all graduate degree plans, and authorizes all students for registration in courses in the M.S. curriculum. The Graduate Coordinator assigns and supervises the work of all departmental graduate assistants. The Graduate Coordinator serves as the department’s representative on the College of Arts and Sciences Graduate Committee and on the University Graduate Council.

Graduate Faculty Advisory Committee
All graduate faculty members in the Department of Sociology and Criminal Justice shall serve as members of the Graduate Faculty Advisory Committee. The committee must approve all applicants to the program, must approve the awarding of all graduate assistantships, shall determine, after each semester, whether or not each student will be permitted to continue in the M.S. program, and must authorize any changes to the M.S. curriculum.

Major Professor
Students in either the Internship or Thesis Option must choose a Major Professor, with the latter’s consent, to supervise their work or research and the written products of both. The Major Professor is responsible for supervising the student’s work or research activities, coordinating the work of the Internship or Thesis Committee, scheduling and facilitating defenses, and editing and approving the final written product. The Major Professor is also responsible for reporting to the Graduate Coordinator on the student’s progress.

INTERNSHIP/THESIS COMMITTEE

Students in either the Internship or Thesis Option will form a Committee consisting of the Major Professor and two additional members of the graduate faculty. The committee members should be chosen on the basis of their expertise in the field in which the particular student wishes to work or conduct research and must be approved of by the Major Professor and the Graduate Coordinator.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTS

The Graduate Faculty Advisory Committee on the basis of merit awards graduate assistantships. Graduate assistants are contractual employees who work under the supervision of the Graduate Coordinator and the professor(s) to whom they are assigned.
