ORGANIZATIONAL COMMUNICATION
COLLEGE OF ARTS, HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES
LEADING TO THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF ARTS

PURPOSES
The purposes of the Department of Languages and Communication are:
1. To prepare students for the modern workplace or doctoral study.
2. To provide training in communication theory and skills.
3. To acquaint students with the latest communication technologies.
4. To provide students with training in interpersonal communication skills.
5. To provide students with knowledge about how communication works within an organizational context.

The Master of Arts in Organizational Communication with concentrations in health communication, public relations, news media, sociology, and marketing is designed to give communications students insights into communication problems and issues as they exist in those organizational settings and provide the knowledge, skills and tools to allow such to be addressed.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
To be considered for admission to the Master’s in Organizational Communication, an applicant must:
1. Meet all university admission requirements.
2. Have a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree from an accredited university. It is not essential that the undergraduate degree be in communication. For more information, please contact the department.
3. Possess a cumulative grade point average that was used to attain a bachelor’s degree of no lower than 2.5
4. Achieve a score of at least 1,100 by combining the applicant’s verbal and quantitative GRE score and the applicant’s undergraduate grade point average, noted above, multiplied by 100. For example, a prospective student with a 3.5 grade point average (3.5 x 100 = 350) would need to score at least 750 on the combined verbal and quantitative GRE. A student with a 2.5 grade point average (2.5 x 100 = 250) would need to score at least 850 on the combined verbal and quantitative GRE.
5. Achieve a GRE writing score of at least 3.5.
6. Participate in an advising meeting with the graduate coordinator after completing the above requirements.
7. Obtain approval by the graduate coordinator, the Department Head, and/or the graduate faculty.

Please note that the Master’s in Organizational communication does not accept students on a provisional basis.

REQUIREMENTS FOR DEGREE
The Master of Organizational Communication is a non-thesis degree, requiring a total of 36 semester hours of graduate credit. Twenty-seven hours make up Department of Languages and Communication core requirements and nine additional hours are to be taken as electives. The variety of courses included will allow the student to focus on a single area of interest. On the other hand, some students might wish to take a more general approach, spreading the electives over several areas.

All students must pass a written comprehensive examination. Successful completion of the exam will require that the student pull together in a meaningful way the major theories, knowledge base, technologies, and practices covered in the required courses. A committee of graduate faculty members will determine whether the student passes or fails the exam.
