

CURRICULUM IN LIBERAL ARTS STUDIES

Students who are interested in a general Liberal Arts education and are not interested in specializing in a particular field of study should enroll in the Curriculum in Liberal Arts Studies. The major and minor requirements will be considered filled upon the completion of 24 semester hours in English and 24 semester hours in one of these subjects: communication, criminal justice, dance-performing arts, a foreign language, political science, history, mass communication and journalism, music, philosophy, psychology, sociology, social work, theatre, visual arts. A student may not claim a minor in English or the second humanities field. Members of the Department of English will advise students who pursue this curriculum. An adjusted grade point average of 2.0 is required in each of the two major subjects, averaged separately.
