DEPARTMENT OF FOREIGN LANGUAGES AND LITERATURES

---

- French
- Spanish

The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures offers work in the fields of French, German, Italian, Latin, Mythology and Spanish. With the exception of Mythology, courses in these languages may be used to satisfy the language requirements of the curricula in the College of Arts and Sciences and to offer a major and/or minor in these fields in the College of Arts and Sciences and the College of Education. The curriculum leading to a major and/or minor in foreign languages is designed to meet the needs of students who wish to pursue further graduate training, who seek a variety of positions in which the knowledge of a foreign language is required and/or desirable, who wish to teach at the elementary and/or secondary school levels, and who, it is hoped, simply desire to acquire the knowledge of the language and of the cultural heritage of another country.

Entrance into Foreign Language Courses

Students may seek entrance into foreign language courses numbered 102, 201, 202, and advanced level (300 and above) by receiving a passing grade on the appropriate departmental entrance test. These tests are offered at designated times during registration period. Tests at each level in each language may be taken only once by a given student. Entrance tests are not credit exams and carry absolutely no academic credit.

A student who is permitted to enter a course above the 101 level on the basis of entrance testing may receive a grade of "P" in the course(s) he or she is permitted to skip over, if and when the student receives a passing grade in the course into which entrance has been permitted, provided that the student in question is not a native speaker. A native speaker is defined as one who was brought up speaking the language in question in the home and/or in foreign schools. The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures reserves the right to determine whether or not a student is a native speaker, on the basis of any tests it deems appropriate.

Students may not receive credit in courses numbered below 300 in their native language. Students whose native language is one of those offered at Southeastern Louisiana University may satisfy the foreign language requirement in one of the following ways:

1. By earning a total of 12 credit hours in any language courses other than their native language.
2. By earning a total of 12 credit hours in any language courses in their native language numbered above 300.

Majors

For a major in a foreign language, the requirement is thirty (30) semester hours in advanced courses (300 and above) in one language. Students enrolled in FLAN courses will study the language in which they are pursuing their degree.

All students are required to take the following courses:

French or Spanish 310, 311, 312, 314, 319, 320, and 324.

The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures offers three concentrations for the Bachelor of Arts degree: Literary Studies, Language and Culture Studies, and Commercial Specialist. Concentration electives will be selected as follows:

The Literary Studies Concentration requires French or Spanish 325, 326, and 423.

The Language and Culture Concentration requires French or Spanish 309 and two of the following: 329, 423, FLAN 401, or FLAN 402.

The Commercial Specialist Concentration requires French or Spanish 329, FLAN 403 (Internship) and a selection between French or Spanish 309 and FLAN 402.

Minors

A student who majors in a foreign language (French or Spanish) is required to have a minor. Students in the Literary Studies concentration may pursue minors in any field. Students in the Language and Culture concentration must pursue a minor related to language and/or culture studies, including but not limited to another foreign language, Francophone and Creole Studies, Hispanic Studies, Native American Studies, Communications, History, English, etc. Students in the Commercial Specialist concentration must pursue a minor in the College of Business and Technology.

Students wishing to minor in foreign languages (French, Italian, Latin, or Spanish) are required to complete a total of eighteen (18) semester hours, twelve (12) of which must be at the 300 level or above.

The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures administers three interdisciplinary minors: Francophone and Creole Studies, Hispanic Studies and Native American Studies. These minors consist of eighteen (18) hours each and include the following course requirements.
