

PSYCHOLOGY PURPOSES

After successfully completing the two years at Southeastern, the student will be permitted to enroll at Louisiana State University to pursue the Ph.D. degree.
3. To provide students not intending to pursue a Ph.D. degree with a variety of courses that will help prepare them for paraprofessional positions.

THESIS REQUIREMENTS

A complete description of the thesis requirements (as well as other departmental policies) can be found in the Guide to Graduate Study in Psychology at Southeastern Louisiana University given to all students when they first enter the program.

THESIS COMMITTEE

The student will be supervised by a thesis committee consisting of the major professor and a minimum of two other members from the Psychology faculty. Committees may include one member from outside the Department in addition to the required three members from the department. The committee should be chosen by the student in consultation with the major professor. Faculty chosen for the committee should not be asked to serve until the student and major professor have agreed on the exact topic for the thesis as well as the methodology to be used.

MAJOR PROFESSOR

The major professor who directs the thesis project must be a member of the Psychology Department faculty and a member of the Graduate Faculty. A faculty member is limited to chairing three thesis committees at a time, with no more than two in the pre-proposal stage.

After 2 semesters, if the thesis proposal has not been accepted, the major professor's commitment to the project ends. In addition if the entire thesis project has not been completed in 2 years, the major professor's commitment to the project ends. In the event that a student goes past one of the thesis deadlines, it may be necessary to change major professors and possibly thesis topic (this applies even to students who have thesis proposals approved).
