

Financial Aid

GENERAL INFORMATION

Our goal at Southeastern Louisiana University is to provide the resources to help you finance your college education. With federal, state, and institutional assistance, you have the opportunity to accomplish your educational goals. While you may complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) before being admitted to the university, you will not be awarded financial aid until your request for admissions has been granted.

Students interested in receiving financial assistance through federal programs must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid. FAFSA forms are available through your high school guidance counselor; FAFSA on the web (www.fafsa.ed.gov); or at the Financial Aid Office, North Complex Building A, Room 121. Students should complete the FAFSA as soon possible after January 1st to apply for financial aid. Students are strongly encouraged to meet the following priority deadlines:

Summer Semester	March 1
Fall Semester	May 1
Spring Semester	November 1

Processing time for all financial aid programs is approximately six weeks. It is strongly recommended that the student meet the deadline date for the term that they are seeking financial assistance. Students must apply each year for financial aid.

Financial aid is administered as a “package” which may contain a combination of grants, loans, work-study, and scholarships. Below is a description of the various financial aid programs. The amount of a student’s eligibility in each of the programs will be based on the student’s grades, financial aid preference, need analysis results, cost of attendance, enrollment status, and timeliness of the financial aid application. In order to receive federal financial aid, a student must maintain satisfactory academic progress.

Federal Pell Grants

The Pell Grant Program makes funds available to eligible undergraduates who have not earned a bachelors or professional degree. The actual amount of your Pell Grant will be based on your eligibility, cost of attendance, number of hours for which you enroll, and program funding.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant Program (SEOG)

The Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant is for undergraduates with exceptional financial need. Priority is given to students who receive a Federal Pell Grant. You may be eligible if you are enrolled at least half-time at Southeastern. When you apply for Federal Financial Aid, you are automatically considered for an SEOG Grant.

Leveraging Educational Assistance Partnership (LEAP)(formerly State Student Incentive Grant)

LEAP is awarded to full-time students for the fall and spring semester only. It is not awarded for the summer session. The award amount will depend upon funding for the year. All eligible students will automatically be considered for the grant. The funds are awarded to eligible students who demonstrate the greatest financial need.

Federal Perkins Loan Program

The Federal Perkins Loan is a low-interest loan made to students who are enrolled at least half time to help meet their educational expenses. This loan is for undergraduate and graduate students with exceptional financial need. Depending on the availability of funds, undergraduate students may be awarded between $200 and $3,000 per year up to a total of $15,000. Graduate students can borrow up to $30,000 (this total includes any amount borrowed under the Perkins Loan Program for undergraduate study).

Federal Stafford Loan Program

Federal Stafford Loans are low-interest loans made to students attending at least half-time. Loans are made to students by a lender such as a bank, credit union, or savings and loan associations.

There are two types of Stafford Loans: subsidized and unsubsidized. The Subsidized Stafford is a need-based loan while the Unsubsidized is a non-need-based loan. The amounts that a student may borrow are the same for both loans: $2,625 for freshmen, $3,500 for sophomores, $5,500 for juniors and seniors, and $8,500 for graduate students. The total debt that a dependent undergraduate student can accumulate in a subsidized loan is $23,000. Independent undergraduate students may borrow up to $46,000 but only $23,000 of that can be in a subsidized loan. Graduate students may borrow up to $65,000 in a subsidized loan but may not exceed $138,500 in a combination of both subsidized and unsubsidized loans. Students must be enrolled at least half-time to be eligible.

For loans that were first disbursed on or after October 1, 1992, the interest rates will be variable, but not higher than 8.25 percent. These rates are set every July 1st. For loans made prior to October 1, 1992, students should check with the organization that holds their loans for the interest rates.

Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loan Program

Students may be eligible to receive additional funds through the Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loan. Under this program, an independent student can borrow up to a maximum of $4,000 per year for their freshman and sophomore years, and up to a maximum of $5,000 per year for their remaining undergraduate years. Dependent students whose parents do not qualify for a Plus Loan may borrow at the same level. A graduate student can borrow up to a maximum of $10,000 per year. Students must be enrolled at least half-time to be eligible for this program.

Federal Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students (PLUS)

Federal PLUS Loans are for parents who want to borrow to help pay for their dependent's education. This loan enables parents with good credit histories to borrow for each dependent who is enrolled at least half-time. For PLUS loans first disbursed on or after July 1, 1993, the annual loan limit is the student's cost of education minus any financial aid received. The interest rates on PLUS loans are variable, but will not exceed 9 percent.
