F. Student Life Chair Lucien Nasset

Student life worked on the people with periods initiative in order to get permission to disperse these items. We also talked about the resolution to protect student rights. I also now have a co chair: Ethan Savario.

G. Senate Chair Matt Matthews

Decorum is important: on campus and in the office. You are a reflection of your peers, friends, and the university itself. I do not enjoy hearing about poor behavior in the Senate. I have heard of some poor decorum. I need to be able to trust you, and I need you to trust us. If you have issues, please discuss them in the proper way. I care about you, and this will be my only warning about decorum. After this, impeachment is the next step if I am unsure if you can properly

Capital outlay is going. Lucien and Kyle are on this committee and Ethan is an alternate if needed. These meetings will be held on October 20, November 3, and November 17. The following topics have been brought forward:

- Additional bus coverings
- Restore tennis courts
- Restoration of locations in columbia theater.
- Maps on campus.

Celebration of the lights. You all said that you wanted more student representation. I brought these concerns forward, and the committee has now been split into a faculty and student committee. You can now sit on this. These meetings are Mondays at 2 P.M. You can participate or just sit in. A report from this committee will not be given until the end of the semester. Colleges of business, honors, arts humanities and social sciences, and are full. Colleges of science and technology, nursing and health sciences, freshman senator, and education still have seats open.

Senator Spiers: What exactly is the celebration of lights?

Vice President Matthews: This is a transfer of power from one president to the next. This has always happened, but Dr. Wainwright wants students to really be involved this year. This is his way of doing so. He would like to do it every year to celebrate, but he is wanting this year to be huge. For the student committee, we are over marketing and merchandise.

Vice President Matthews: During our meeting, you mentioned a legacy. Will you please talk about that now?

Applicant: I am a senior. It took me a while to decide exactly what I wanted to do. Taking a large role in my frat helped me to mature and find myself. I want to leave a legacy. We have lacked as far as getting our members into SGA and I would like to start this back up and lead greek life back to SGA.

Senator Hidalgo: What is something you want to accomplish in this year?

Applicant: Getting greek life into SGA to get more representation and diversity in SGA.

Senator Nasset: Is your mission to just get fraternity greek life in SGA or all sorority and fraternity life.

Applicant: Definitely all sororities and fraternities in order to gain different points of view.
