Out-of-State Students - Fee Waiver Information

Southeastern Louisiana University offers fee waivers for out-of-state students who are beginning freshman or transferring to Southeastern.

Out-of-state tuition fees range from $1,412 for students registered for four credit hours to $4,234.50 for full-time students taking 12 or more hours. These fees are paid in addition to the university's regular tuition. The following fee waivers are being offered to students who qualify:

Fee Waiver for Non-Residents

Southeastern Louisiana University offers fee waivers for non-resident students. The fee waiver does not cover the University's regular tuition and fees, only the additional out-of-state fees charged to students who are not a resident of Louisiana.

The fee waiver scholarships will be available to students meeting the following criteria:

Non-resident first-time freshmen (less than 18 credits of college level work completed):

- American College Test (ACT) composite score of 21 (or equivalent SAT)
- Cumulative high school GPA of 2.25 or higher
- No developmental course needs
- At least a 2.0 cumulative grade point average on all college-level work (if college credits have been earned)

Transfer students (at least 18 credits of college level work completed):

- Cumulative GPA of 2.5 on college level work
- No developmental course requirements\
- Eligible to return to previous institution

*NOTE: The following categories of students are not eligible for the waiver: Graduate students; other students who have already earned a bachelor's degree; international students; and currently enrolled non-resident students who enrolled prior to the effective date of this scholarship (Summer 2002).
