University Bulletin Boards

Visitors or employees may not post, tape, tack, or affix in any way any form of literature, printed or written materials, photographs, or notices of any kind on any Southeastern Louisiana University bulletin board without securing proper approval from the Dean of Students and the area responsible for that particular bulletin board.

Southeastern's bulletin boards may not be used by employees or outside parties for posting commercial notes and advertisements, announcements, sales of personal property or any other matters without proper approval. The sign approval form and policy can be found by clicking here.
