

The Senior English Scholarship

The Senior English Scholarship is a one-time, one-semester award given at the beginning of each fall and spring semester to the graduating senior in the English Dept. with the highest cumulative GPA that semester.

The student must be a major in the English Dept. and must have filed for graduation prior to the beginning of the semester in which he/she is scheduled to graduate.

The cumulative GPA will include all grades up to the final, graduation semester.

The student must be a full-time student.
