

Anticipation Guide

Directions: Before reading about hurricanes in the packet given to you, put a 😊 by those statements with which you agree and a ☹️ by those statements with which you disagree. After deciding whether you agree or disagree with each statement, write your reason why on the blank provided.

Anticipation

_____ 1. Hurricanes can form over any ocean.

_____ 2. There can be more than one hurricane at a time.

_____ 3. If a hurricane's eye is very small, the hurricane is likely to not cause as much damage.

_____ 4. If a hurricane is headed in your direction, it is a good idea to evacuate immediately.

_____ 5. People should be allowed to return home immediately after a hurricane has died out or moved on.

Frame Matrix

Directions: While reading about categories of hurricanes, fill in the matrix. Be sure to pay special attention to the characteristics of each hurricane.

Characteristics ↓ Categories →	Category 1	Category 2	Category 3	Category 4	Category 5
Wind Speeds
Storm Surge
Damage caused
One Example

Polar Opposites

Directions: Look at each adjective. Put a check closest to the adjective you think accurately describe a hurricane. Be prepared to explain and defend your answer.

Hurricanes are...

weak	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	strong
slow	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	fast
predictable	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	unpredictable
safe	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	dangerous
constructive	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	destructive
calm	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	violent
small	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	large