STUDENT UNION BALLROOM

SOUTHEASTERN LOUISIANA UNIVERSITY

REGALIA COMMENTARY

Three types of gowns and three types of hoods have been devised for bachelors, masters, and doctors respectively, although the hood is seldom used with the bachelor's gown.

The square caps remain the same except that the doctor's may be made of velvet.

The bachelor's gown is distinguished by its pointed sleeves, which fall to the knee. The master's gown has closed bay sleeves, which are square at the end and extend well below the knee. The doctor's gown has full round open bell-shaped sleeves, is faced with velvet, and has three bars of velvet on each sleeve.

Master's and doctor's hoods are lined with silk of the color of the college or university granting the degree and bordered with silk or velvet of the color that represents the department of learning in which the degree was obtained.

Colors of the academic majors are:

Doctor of Education.....	light blue
Doctor of Nursing.....	apricot
Master of Arts.....	white
Master of Arts in Health and Kinesiology.....	sage
Master of Arts in Teaching.....	light blue
Master of Business Administration.....	drab
Master of Executive Business Administration.....	drab

Master of Music.....	pink
Master of Science.....	golden yellow
Master of Science in Nursing.....	apricot
