

How will Online Orientation work?

Orientation will begin through an online portal that will provide detailed instructions and steps to unlock more information.

In the latter steps, you will meet virtually with an academic advisor who will guide you completely through the registration process.

Again, each step must be completed in the module before advising and registration. This format is designed to provide a thorough and efficient pathway to complete Orientation.

-
- When will I have access to Online Orientation?
Look for more information about online orientation via email soon.