Academic Coaching

Overview of the Academic Coaching Session

• Academic Summary Sheets
• CSE professional advisors and representatives from their departmental major
• Information about majors and first semester courses.
• Current information on record
Academic Coaching

Some things to consider:

• Many, many students change their major

• “About 80 percent of students in the United States end up changing their major at least once, according to the National Center for Education Statistics. On average, college students change their major at least three times over the course of their college career.”

• At Southeastern, 14% finish in the major first declared

Academic Coaching

Some things to consider:
Most have made decisions without considering the entire curriculum.

“I want to major in Computer Science because I love video games.”
Academic Coaching

Some things to consider:
• Pay careful attention to ability/past success in subjects
• STEM-ACT 26
• Developmental needs
Academic Coaching

Some things to consider: A balanced schedule

It is difficult for students to be successful with a 2-day a week schedule.
