

Effective: _____

MAJOR FIELD ASSESSMENT PLANDegree Program: M. ED. SPECIAL EDUCATION

Purpose:

Mission Statement:

Goal Statement:

A. Graduates of the Master of Education in Special Education degree program will have attained an advanced level of professional competency and skills in special education curriculum and instruction and in research to enhance one's effectiveness as a special education classroom teacher.

Expected Outcome:

1. Graduates of the masters program in special education will communicate effectively, verbally and nonverbally, through reading, writing, speaking, and listening to individuals and groups of parents, students, and other school personnel.

Assessment Procedures:

a. All graduates will satisfactorily complete the comprehensive examination for the masters or specialists degrees. (does the grading criteria specifically reflect communication skills? how?)

b. Ninety percent of the employers/respondents will rate the graduates of the masters degree program as "satisfactory" or better on an (employer survey). (Which items on survey relate to the above outcome?)

M. Ed. Special Education (Continued)

Purpose:

Mission Statement:

Goal Statement:

A. Graduates of the Master of Education in Special Education degree program will have attained an advanced level of professional competency and skills in special Education curriculum and instruction and in research to enhance one's effectiveness as a special education classroom teacher.

Expected Outcome:

2. Graduates of the masters program in special education will have attained advanced knowledge of special education content areas and current research and its application in special education instruction.

Assessment Procedures:

a. All graduates will satisfactorily complete the comprehensive examination for the masters or specialists degrees. (be able to identify specific criteria that relates to the above outcome statement)

b. Ninety percent of the employers/respondents will rate the graduates of the masters degree program as "satisfactory" or better on an employer survey. (Which items on survey provide information about the above outcome?)

Administration of Assessment Procedures:

Use of Results:

Summary:

Documentation can be found:

M. Ed. Special Education (Continued)

Administration of Assessment Procedures:

Use of Results:

Summary:

Documentation can be found:

M. Ed. Special Education (Continued)

Purpose:

Mission Statement:

Goal Statement:

A. Graduates of the Master of Education in Special Education degree program will have attained an advanced level of professional competency and skills in special education curriculum and instruction and in research to enhance one's effectiveness as a special education classroom teacher.

Expected Outcome:

3. Using appropriate methods, materials, tools, and techniques, graduates of the masters program in special education will be able to implement, manage, and evaluate effective instruction for elementary children of diverse backgrounds, abilities, and needs.

Assessment Procedures:

a. Ninety percent of the employers/respondents will rate the graduates of the masters degree program as "satisfactory" or better on an employer survey. (Which employer survey? - attach copy) Which items relate to the above outcome?

Administration of Assessment Procedures:

Use of Results:

Summary:

Documentation can be found: