

MASTER OF ARTS (M.A.)

ENGLISH

PURPOSES

The purposes of the Department of English are to:

1. Provide training in research techniques and critical writing.
2. Provide intensive study in certain areas of specialization.
3. Prepare the student for teaching and/or doctoral study.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

REGULAR ADMISSION:

1. A bachelor's degree or equivalent from an accredited college or university.
2. Completion of twenty-four (24) semester hours of undergraduate English courses, at least twelve (12) of which must be at the Jr./Sr. level. Students may be required to make up particular deficiencies in their background.
3. A minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.5 (4.0 scale) on all undergraduate work attempted or a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.75 on all upper division undergraduate coursework attempted.
4. A score of 850 or above on the General Test of the GRE (Verbal and Quantitative).

CONDITIONAL ADMISSION:

1. A bachelor's degree or equivalent.
2. A minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0 on all undergraduate work attempted.
3. A score of 750 or above on the General Test of the GRE (Verbal and Quantitative).

Students meeting these criteria may be admitted with the approval of the Department Head. Students in Conditional Admission will be upgraded to Regular Admission status by the Dean of the Graduate School when they fulfill the following requirements:

1. Make up all undergraduate coursework deficiencies to meet the standards of regular admission.
2. Maintain a cumulative graduate GPA of 3.0 in graduate coursework.
3. Receive no more than one grade of C during Conditional status.
4. Receive no grade below a C during Conditional status.

TEMPORARY ADMISSION:

Students intending to pursue a graduate degree who do not qualify for Regular or Conditional Admission status will be placed in Temporary Admission status. Students in this status will be placed in Non-Degree status if they do not qualify for Regular Admission status, as outlined above, after completing 12 hours of graduate coursework in English.

NON-DEGREE STATUS

Graduate students not intending to pursue a graduate degree will be placed in Non-Degree status. This status includes students in Extended Studies, Alternate Certification, Master's Plus 30, and transient programs (intended for transfer credit at another institution).

No more than 12 graduate hours earned by a student in Conditional, Temporary, or Non-Degree status may be counted toward the M.A. in English.

REQUIREMENTS FOR DEGREE

Upon admission into the program, a student may select one of the following options:

THESIS OPTION – Complete at least thirty-six (36) graduate hours of English including the following:

1. A thesis whose completion will include six (6) hours of graduate credit from ENGL 770. The thesis must demonstrate the student's ability to do research and must show acceptable literary workmanship in organization, style, and content.
2. Either ENGL 467/567, ENGL 447/518, or ENGL 448/548.
3. Either ENGL 475/575 (Literary Criticism), ENGL 485/585 (PW Gateway), or ENGL 477/577 (Language and Literary Gateway).
4. At least fifteen (15) hours of coursework at the 600 level.
5. With the approval of the advisory committee, the student may take a maximum of six (6) graduate hours in a related field.

Concentration in Professional Writing – with the permission of the Coordinator of Professional Writing a student may choose a concentration in Professional Writing. The Professional Writing thesis will be in conjunction with a Professional Writing internship. In addition to the requirements listed above for the Thesis Option, the student will be required to take ENGL 486/586 (Document Production and Design).

Creative Writing – with the permission of the Coordinator of Creative Writing a student may choose to submit a creative thesis.

Concentration in Language & Literacy – with the permission of the Coordinator of Language & Literacy, a student may choose a concentration in Language & Literacy. A Language & Literacy thesis will be submitted following completion of the program's required apprenticeship and approval of a student's outcomes portfolio. In addition to the requirements listed above for the Thesis Option, the student will be required to take ENGL 477/577 (Foundations in Language & Literacy), and at least two courses from the Language & Literacy core curriculum.

NON-THESIS OPTION – Complete at least thirty-six (36) hours of English including the following:

1. Either ENGL 467/567, ENGL 447/518, or ENGL 448/548.
