G. Senate Chair KeRon Jackson

Everyone needs a professional headshot and if you don't have one, communication to get one soon; every college must create a group chat (not by major, but by respective college) and create flyers plus other initiatives, NHS started- already getting things done; will get a point for being in the groupchat, another point for making a flyer (must be approved by SGA); communication is important; attend committee meetings, communicate and discuss in them, I read minutes; moving forward, all legislation must be sent to Pro Temp East by the Wednesday received for review first; Dress code is business professional, includes university approved polos; send class schedules for spring once you get them; communication must be sent to SGA VP email, not personal account.
