

Southeastern Louisiana University Communication Sciences & Disorders Graduate Degree Plan

Required Courses

- CSD 6020: Aphasia (3 Credits)
- CSD 6060: Neurophysiological Bases of Human Communications (3 Credits)
- CSD 6070: Seminar in Audiology (3 Credits)
- CSD 6130: Motor Speech Disorders (3 Credits)
- CSD 6140: Dysphagia (3 Credits)
- CSD 6160: Language and Literacy (3 Credits)
- CSD 6170: Advanced Diagnosis of Communicative Disorders (3 Credits)
- CSD 6230: Special Topics in Communication Science and Disorders (6 Credits)
- CSD 6280: Language Intervention for Infants and Toddlers (3 Credits)
- CSD 6320: Seminar in Voice and Resonance (3 Credits)
- CSD 6330: Seminar in Fluency (3 Credits)
- CSD 6340: Developmental and Acquired Cognitive-Communication Disorders (3 Credits)
- CSD 6870: Research Methods in Communication Science & Disorders (3 Credits)
- CSD 5000: Introductory Clinical Practicum in Communication Disorders (3 Credits)
- CSD 5100: Beginning Clinical Practicum in Communication Disorders (3 Credits)
- CSD 6110: Intermediate Clinical Practicum in Communication Disorders (3 Credits)
- CSD 6030: Advanced Clinical Practicum in Communication Disorders (3 Credits)
- CSD 6300: Advanced Specialty Clinical Practicum in Communication Disorders (3 Credits)

57 hours of Communication Sciences & Disorders (CSD) Courses are required for the degree.