

SLU Goal 2 - Competent Problem Solvers EDL 823 Rubric

SLO ____ – EDL 823 Journal Critiques and Website Evaluations. Students will become familiar with the research literature and other sources of knowledge and practice that will assist students in identifying and resolving educational finance and school business management issues. Measurement of SLO 3 – Students will critique professional journal articles as well as identify and evaluate educational finance websites to determine if and how they address the multiple education finance issues or problems faced by educational leaders.

1. Identifies and analyzes major issues in education finance through appropriate research in professional journals.

○	○	○	○
Unacceptable	Emerging	Proficient	Accomplished
a. Selects and identifies journals that are not related to the major issues in education finance and/or selects magazines instead of professional journals.	a. Accurately identifies professional journals with no confusion between professional journals and other types of literature. b. Partially identifies the major issues in the articles or they are stated in vague language. c. Partially or vaguely analyzes the issues in the journal.	a. Accurately identifies professional journals with no confusion between professional journals and other types of literature. b. Generally identifies the major issues in the articles clearly and they are stated in terms that are understood by the instructor. c. Generally analyzes the issues in the journal.	a. Accurately identifies professional journals with no confusion between professional journals and other types of literature. b. Accurately identifies the major issues in the articles clearly and they are stated in terms that are understood by the instructor. c. Succinctly and accurately analyzes the issues in the journal.

2. Identifies and analyzes major issues in education finance through appropriate research in subject area websites.

○	○	○	○
Unacceptable	Emerging	Proficient	Accomplished
a. Selects and identifies websites that are not related to the major issues in education finance.	a. Accurately identifies subject area websites with no confusion between education finance and non education finance websites or makes a clear application of information from non-education to education finance. b. Partially or vaguely identifies the major issues on the websites. c. Partially or vaguely analyzes the issues presented on the websites.	a. Accurately identifies subject area websites clearly with no confusion between education finance and non education finance websites and makes a clear application of information from non-education to education finance. b. Generally identifies the major issues on the websites and they are stated in terms that are understood by the instructor. c. Generally analyzes the issues presented on the websites.	a. Accurately identifies subject area websites with no confusion between education finance and non education finance websites and makes a clear application of information from non-education to education finance. b. Accurately and precisely identifies the major issues on the websites and they are stated in terms that are understood by the instructor. c. Succinctly and accurately analyzes the issues on the website.

Close