VI. Reports

SGA President:

Lacey Johnson

This morning was one of the last branch head meetings, the big event is mandatory for SGA members. It is doable to participate with a team and help out with the activities, however please let Lacey know. Free Speech Alley is coming up, and this Wednesday is Strawberry Jubilee (the location has now moved to the Student Union Ballroom), This Tuesday is the last town hall. The SGA banquet is on April 29th. DSA awards are also on the 23rd and SGA members have been nominated for multiple awards and the next branch head will be sworn in.

SGA Chief Justice:

Bailey Milburn

The Judicial branch will be representing SGA at Strawberry Jubilee.

SGA Advisor

Dr. Taneshia Drake

All graduating seniors are asked to reach out about graduation cords. Any recommendations for a new name for lactation spots are needed and Senators are asked to share any ideas. The Excel program is hosting its annual EvolveU conference this Friday. The conference is built to support rising sophomores and their ability to Evolve past their first year. Senators are asked to share this with any Freshman.

Internal Affairs Chair

Levi Spiers

No report.

Appropriations Chair

Aidan Hidalgo

Aidan clarified the situation in bill SP24-12. A simple look-over in the post-SGA legislation process caused the mishap and all issues have been remedied.

Student Life Chair

Estelle Savario

Student Life has collected materials for the People With Periods Initiative and is waiting on resupply, for the DEI resolution only 65 signatures are needed and tabling will be conducted from 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM this week. Talks are ongoing for Stress-Less breakfast and quotes have been gathered from Chic-Fil-A. Big Event is still in the works, with over 200 students signing up.

Senate Chair

Matt Matthews

Six Financial bills will be discussed next week. Matt sat on the Council of Student Body Presidents and reported that no ULS day will happen this year.

VII. Programs

A. Life After Student Leadership

B. Assessment of Year

The Senate held a reflection of the school year. Going over the highlights and issues with not just the Senate but of SGA as a whole. This discussion and the positions arrived at will be of utmost importance for the incoming branch heads as they attempt to build a successful SGA.
