Campus involvement: knowledge and love for SGA, Served as vice chairman of Internal Affairs committee. Ambassador for the honors program. Currently writing a thesis, Founding president of the Kinesiology Student Association. Passionate about Physical therapy. I need to make a difference in the world. Win or not, I hope you all see me as a friend, care about all of you and will help with anything. I would be best fit for this position”

Adams:

Sen. Adams: “Kendall is a bright young lady, unapologetic, came as a freshman and knew southeastern was the place she needed to be, vowed to get the hang of college; senator after first year. Best candidate for senate pro temp, will be here all day saying why I am a good leader, but will share one trait: I am resilient-returning to original position after pulled, capability of sustaining shock; up to you to get back up when you fall; will be advocate, support, record all minutes, preside over meeting in VP absence; confident, was senate pro temp under former VP Darnell Butler Jr., Conducted and presented at Summer 2021 senate training; would be a great honor to serve in a position with great senators.”
