 - a. President: L'Oreal Williams
Thank you to everyone who attended and helped with the Black History Month event.
Lions Lead Retreat will be on Saturday, March 20th.
Meal Swipe Program Application deadline has been extended if you or someone you know is in need.
Thursday I will be attending a meeting on mental health if anyone has any concerns they would like me to present to the panel I would be happy to.
Last week I met with commissioner Reed to discuss campus Covid Efforts. She is still looking to hear more about Efforts and concerns. I would be happy to send her any additional information if you would be willing to share. An email will be sent to SGA members interested in being in our recruitment video.
 - b. SGA Advisor: Brendan Daigle
If you can, sign up for our Lions Lead leadership conference. This event is Saturday, March 20th. It will be hosted virtually by The Office of Student Engagement for $10. You can receive a t- shirt, mug, cup, and an opportunity to learn and develop leadership skills. If you need more information, contact Mrs. Brendan Daigle or look at the website for registration.
 - c. Chief Justice: Madi Sunde
SGA Recruitment tabling tomorrow, March 2nd from 9am- 11am. If you are available, please feel free to stop by. Notes will be taken on who comes and they will receive an Outreach Point. Wear SGA attire!

The election board is about to get made; therefore, we will need people's help (2 members from the executive branch and 2 members from the legislative branch). If you are interested, please contact Chief Justice Sunde.

- d. Internal Affairs Chair: Adriyan Blue

Be sure to collect your 10 Student Outreach points and 2 organizational visits.

- e. Student Life Chair: Cilicia Thornton

No Report

- f. Appropriations Chair: Tyra Banks

Last Tuesday, we met with Mrs. Marie Bernard to speak on Bill SP- 21-02.

Appropriations committee voted to amend this bill because it would help with tutoring and virtual classroom sessions.

- g. Senate Chairman: Darnell Butler, Jr.

Good job on the grants this semester. We are getting a lot more applications than last semester, so keep reaching out to your department heads.

Encourage others to attend the Lions Lead event.

If you have any point opportunity ideas, please send those to Sen. Adriyan Blue.
